Synopsis: Opening of new 9A matter.

Details: For information, captioned matter was predicated on a telephone call on 5/17/96, from [redacted] Security Director, Church of Scientology, (213) 960-3500. [redacted] advised writer that a message had been received on this date by the church via the Internet which told of a plan to bomb the Scientology Building in Los Angeles, commit terrorist acts against high profile members of the church (Tom Cruise, Kirstie Alley, John Travolta), and attack the premiere of CRUISE's new movie, "Mission Impossible." The message was transmitted via an anonymous re-mailer which [redacted] had identified as being one [redacted] b6 b7C

Subsequent contact with [redacted] and church legal counsel [redacted] determined that remailers typically retain records which can identify the sender's identity for about 24 hours. As a result, [redacted] requested that the FBI make contact with [redacted] in order to obtain that information. b6 b7C

On this same date, writer attempted to contact [redacted] with negative results. A detailed message was left on his answering machine requesting that he contact the FBI. [redacted] did in fact leave a message on writer's voice mail later this evening, basically stating that he had no way of determining sender's identity for the message that had been sent to the Church of Scientology. [redacted] also indicated that [redacted] had attempted to contact him as well. b6 b7C

Synopsis: Request of Miami to interview [redacted] regarding captioned matter.

Enclosures: Enclosed for Miami is a one(1) page copy of the Internet message sent to CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY on 5/17/96, signed "a concerned citizen".

Details: For information of Miami, captioned case was predicated upon a complaint from [redacted] Security Director of the CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY, Los Angeles, regarding an anonymous threat that had been received, via the Internet, by the church on 5/17/96. The message was sent by way of a "re-mailer" which is designed to mask the identity of the actual sender. The message told of a plan to bomb the SCIENTOLOGY Building in Los Angeles, commit terrorist acts against high profile members of the church [redacted] and attack the premiere of "Mission Impossible". The message is such that it appears that the anonymous sender is simply warning church members and identifies the culprit of the above planned acts as one [redacted]

Contact with the re-mailer, one [redacted] in Santa Barbara, California, disclosed that he had no way of determining the sender's identity. He pointed out that the whole purpose of the re-mailer service was to afford anyone the opportunity to send e-mail via the Internet without fear of discovery. Although [redacted] places a disclaimer on all the messages sent, he acknowledged that under the current system, there is always the chance that someone will abuse the system, as apparently has happened in this case. b6 b7C

[redacted] has provided Los Angeles with extensive background information on one [redacted], the person suspected by CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY as being the actual sender of the message. According to [redacted] has never been a practicing member of the church, yet has claimed fictitious positions on church staff and insists that he had a relationship with the church. He currently has a lawsuit in Los Angeles Superior Court against the church. [redacted] has furnished documentation confirming that [redacted] has served federal prison time for earlier attempts to frame the church for criminal acts he was committing as well as for mail fraud. FBI Miami investigated this matter. b6 b7C

[redacted] is very active on the Internet. He is deeply involved with the Internet news group "Alt.religion.scientology", a discussion group which specializes in criticism of the SCIENTOLOGY religion. [redacted] is also active in this group and [redacted] have been engaged in bitter disputes, via the Internet, after [redacted] a former church member who has been attacking CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY for years, began exposing some of [redacted] attacks on the church as groundless and based on lies. It is because of this ongoing feud that [redacted] suspects that [redacted] not [redacted] sent the message. b6 b7C

FBI - LOS ANGELES

On May 28, 1996, SA [redacted] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Los Angeles Field Office telephonically contacted [redacted] who resides in Santa Barbara, at telephone [redacted] name had been provided to the FBI by Church of Scientology attorney [redacted] as the "anonymous remailer" on the Internet through whom a bomb threat against the church and a death threat against church members were received. b6 b7C

[redacted] who had already been contacted by church officials, appeared cooperative in trying to explain how the message was received by the church. He explained that as an "anonymous remailer", he facilitates the sending of messages by anyone on the Internet. Some individuals, for whatever reasons, prefer to send their messages anonymously and he makes it possible. He does have a disclaimer which states that he neither approves nor condones whatever message is transmitted. b6 b7C

[redacted] recalled the message in question but stated that it would be impossible to track the sender's origin since the system is designed to specifically prevent him from doing so. [redacted] admitted considering "closing up shop" since an unscrupulous few are causing him problems of this sort. He advised that church officials had approached him about utilizing a special filter that would be able to "trap" any threatening communications. He stated that technique made no sense to him technically and added that he questioned whether a filter could be selective enough in determining what key words and the way they were used would constitute a threat. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that as a result of the threat and his conversations with church officials, he had agreed to block the church's address on his system. Therefore, no other threat should be able to get through the remailer for CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY. He asked church officials if they wished him to relay the same request to the other handful of remailers in the country. However, it was his feeling that the church, a controversial body to begin with, did not wish to draw unnecessary attention to itself at this time, and increase an already high profile. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that he was willing to cooperate with the FBI and offered to answer any additional questions as they related to the Internet and the remailer. b6 b7C

Subject: FBI Agent Ortiz Investigates a.r.s. Unabomber
From: "STEVE FISHMAN" <//cr @ix.netcom.com>
Date: 1996/08/07
Message-Id: <01bb8403$b89bb0c0$99c720cc@//cr-.ix.netcom.com>
Organization: Netcom
X-Netcom-Date: Tue Aug 06 8:56:43 PM CDT 1996
Newsgroups: alt.religion.scientology

Dear alt.religion.scientology,

I met with Special Agent Junior Ortiz of the Miami FBI today at 5 PM. I invited Mr. Ortiz to my home in order to discuss an anonymous threat which the FBI received via a complaint filed by the Church of Scientology in Los Angeles.

Agent Ortiz showed me a document which was sent through an anonymous remailer to webmaster@scientology.org which stated that Dennis Erlich had threatened to blow up various Scientology buildings.

According to the complaint, the Church of Scientology accused me of sending this anonymous remail to them because of my personal disagreement with Erlich.

Agent Ortiz, whose telephone number in Miami is (305) 787-6610, asked me if I had sent the letter. I did not, and I told him.

He also asked if, in my opinion, Dennis Erlich sent it. I told him that Dennis could not have sent it either.

The e-mail "warned" Scientology that Dennis Erlich was a "close friend of Timothy McVeigh" (from the Oklahoma bombing) and a member of the Aryan militia. I told Agent Ortiz that Dennis may be a hypocritical "reverend" and the father from Hell, but he is not a right-wing skinhead and there is no way Dennis would have sent it. The e-mail also "warned" Scientology that Dennis was about to blow up some Scientology buildings.

That is when the red flag went up. This seemed awfully similar to what they tried to do with Henry, set him up for phony bomb threats. My theory is that the same person who went after Henry did this.

Scientology could have a great motive: to kill two birds with one stone. Either get Dennis in trouble (for made-up violence) or get me in trouble (for trying to set up Dennis).

The newsgroup knows that there is no love lost between Dennis and myself.

I can't stand him. However, I am not going to allow anyone to get framed --- including Dennis --- for anything they did NOT do, and this is a very obvious, transparent attempt to capitalize on the serious personal disagreement which Dennis and I have.

So now we come to the part about the anonymous remailer. A crime was committed here --- to frame me, or Dennis or both, and I am filing a complaint, and I have requested Agent Ortiz to go against the anonymous remailer in order to flush the perpetrator out, once and for all, and I believe it is the same person who tried to set up Henry a year ago.

I don't communicate with Dennis, but I am urging that he also contact Agent Ortiz and file his own complaint because the e-mail has attempted to implicate him in the most despicable criminal acts —— blowing up buildings, terrorism, etc. He can call Agent Ortiz at (305) 787-6610. Agent Ortiz may in the meantime get in touch with him.

Whoever did this thing out there isn't going to hide behind the anonymous remailer for long. This is terrorism --- a national security issue --- and it is my understanding that the anonymous remailing service will be served with subpoenas to produce these records. I might not be able to afford to do it, but the FBI is taking this case very seriously. And you can be sure, whoever did this, that I am going to be the biggest pain in the ass that anyone ever saw until I find out who sent this threatening letter.

This stinks of an inside OSA job —— right out of Operation Freakout of years ago, the operation conducted to frame Paulette Cooper. Scientology apparently thought they were in a no-lose situation. They could use an anonymous remailer, send a series of threats via e-mail to themselves implicating Dennis Erlich, figuring that either the FBI would take these stupid threats seriously and arrest Erlich or go after me as the possible perpetrator as Scientology "suggested" to the FBI.

One thing is certain --- I am filing a complaint, and I plan to meet with FBI agents later in the week who are experts in anonymous remailers. If Dennis joins in and files his own complaint, so much the better. At least he should contact Agent Ortiz and get the data so he can verify that there is an operation being run on him.

And, oh, yes, I did verify that I was actually talking to an FBI agent. (no more pest control episodes are ever going to be run on me).

I just want to let the a.r.s. unabomber know that anonymous remailers are not going to be a shield against terrorism and criminal activity. This unabomber is going to be caught. A court order will be obtained and the remailing service is going to have to fork over those records. There is a paper trail here.... and the FBI is going to crack it wide open.

If you have any information about this, contact Agent Ortiz at (305) 787-6610.

The viewpoint I got is that if both Dennis and I file complaints, then the unabomber is going down, and is going to OUTED big time, not only on a.r.s., but on the front page of every newspaper in the country.

I wonder whether the cult has just turned on "Jaws" (the super shredding machine at Flag) and/or is starting to re-write the a.r.s. unabomber's history too.

If the perpetrator is reading this, better turn yourself in to the FBI right now --- you might get a chance to plea bargain for a lighter sentence.

Is it you, Eugene Ingram? Sure smells like it.

With Best Wishes,

Steve Fishman

Dear Special Agent [redacted]

Included with this letter is a general biography of [redacted] some of his Internet postings attacking [redacted] (and [redacted] attacking [redacted], and some commentary on [redacted] expertise on the Internet.

b7C

[redacted] is a former Church member who has been attacking the Church of Scientology for years. Most recently he has posted Church trade secrets and Church copyrighted material on the Internet. The Church has sued him on Federal District Court in San Jose.

b6

Since our background material re [redacted] is enclosed, I will limit my comments. [redacted] is a convicted felon who attempted to defend his fraud case by maintaining "The Church made him do it." He was ultimately convicted of the underlying charges, plus obstruction of justice for stiffing in an alleged Church order to kill his psychiatrist and then commit suicide.

b6

The bureau was able to locate the caller who was paid by [redacted] to make this call.

b6

[redacted] was never a Scientologist, yet still maintains otherwise. He currently has a lawsuit in Los Angeles Superior Court against the Church, but more significantly is at war with [redacted] on the Internet with [redacted] stating [redacted] lies about his alleged Scientology background. This is unique on the Internet since Church critics have never attacked each other. This is the basis for our suspecting [redacted] together with the fact that this is the type of thing [redacted] could do.

Finally, we are aware that if contacted by law enforcement both [redacted] will claim harassment by the Church and attempt to use our involvement to their advantage in the pending cases.

b6

Knowing this, because of the nature of the threats and the innocent people at risk because of them, we have no choice but to bring this to your attention.

We appreciate your immediate assistance in this matter.

[redacted] USDC COURT REPORTER

FOR CONCURRENT SENTENCES. I THINK THAT THE PURPOSE WE WERE TRYING TO ACCOMPLISH WAS TO AVOID ADDITIONAL JAIL TIME, BUT I THINK IT'S IN [redacted] BEST INTERESTS AND IN SOCIETY'S BEST INTERESTS. b6 b7C

IT MAY BE AT THIS PRESENT TIME THAT HE IS A DANGER TO HIMSELF AND A DANGER TO SOCIETY GIVEN WHAT HE BELIEVES, AND IN THAT REGARD I CANNOT REALLY FIND FAULT WITH THE PRE-SENTENCE INVESTIGATION REPORT. IN FACT, IT HAPPENS TO BE AN EXCELLENT REPORT. I DO, HOWEVER, HAVE SOME QUESTION AS TO THE REPORT'S CONCLUSION THAT THERE IS A PREDISPOSITION TO CRIMINAL CONDUCT BECAUSE I BELIEVE THAT ANYTHING THAT OCCURRED, AS I'VE INDICATED, OCCURRED SO FAR BACK IN HIS EARLY YEARS THAT THEY'RE NOT REALLY A SIGNIFICANT INDICIA OF WHAT HE WOULD DO ONCE HE IS CURED.

AND I DON'T BELIEVE [redacted] WILL BE FULLY CURED IN TWO YEARS OR IN THREE YEARS OR IN FIVE YEARS, BUT I WOULD SUBMIT THAT AFTER TWO YEARS IN A PLACE LIKE BUTNER -- AND I'VE HAD OTHER CLIENTS THERE -- WHERE HE IS UNABLE TO CONTACT THESE PEOPLE, UNABLE TO READ THIS STUFF, UNABLE TO EXTERIORIZE, BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY ABLE TO TALK TO PEOPLE AND GET SOME INTENSIVE HELP UNDER CONTROLLED CIRCUMSTANCES, THAT [redacted] WILL COME OUT OF THIS NOT BEING A DANGER TO HIMSELF OR A DANGER TO THE PUBLIC. AND THAT'S WHY I WOULD STRONGLY RECOMMEND THE COURT ADOPT THAT SENTENCING SCHEME. b6 b7C

[redacted]: TWO THINGS, YOUR HONOR. FIRST OF ALL, I b6 b7C

[redacted] USDC COURT REPORTER

DON'T THINK IT NECESSARY TO EXPLAIN AT LENGTH THE GOVERNMENT'S VIEW AS TO THE SERIOUSNESS OF THE BEHAVIOR THAT'S BEEN INVOLVED IN THIS CASE. THIS COURT INDICATED WHEN IT SENTENCED [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] THAT THE CRIMES INVOLVED IN THIS INDICTMENT, WHICH CLEARLY THE DEFENDANT [redacted] IS THE INSTIGATOR OF, SMACKED AT THE VERY SYSTEM OF JUSTICE THAT WE HAVE; THAT IF PEOPLE CANNOT BELIEVE THAT THE FILING OF CLAIMS AND LAWSUITS IN OUR COUNTRY ARE PROTECTED, THEN WE HAVE A VERY SIGNIFICANT DISRUPTION OF THE WHOLE PROCESS OF LITIGATION IN OUR COUNTRY AND THE RELIANCE THAT OUR COUNTRY PLACES ON THE RULE OF LAW AND THE OPERATION OF PROCEDURES IN CONFIDENCE AND IN CERTAINTY.

THIS CASE ALSO INVOLVES NOT ONLY [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] WITH [redacted] AS THE CLEAR LEADER, BUT ALSO A NUMBER OF OTHER PEOPLE WHO WERE INDUCED FOR MINOR FINANCIAL REASONS, CLEARLY PEOPLE THAT WERE IN TERRIBLY DESPERATE FINANCIAL STRAITS, YOUNG WOMEN AND YOUNG MEN THAT WERE INDUCED TO SIGN FORMS SUBMITTED BY THE DEFENDANT FOR SMALL AMOUNTS OF MONEY.

HE ORGANIZED AN OPERATION THAT WAS QUITE SOPHISTICATED. AND I COULD REPRESENT TO THE COURT AS AN OFFICER OF THE COURT THAT I HAVE TALKED TO THOSE PARTICULAR PEOPLE, AND THE EVIDENCE IS CLEAR THAT HE WAS ACTING PURPOSEFULLY AND KNOWINGLY WHEN HE INDUCED THOSE INDIVIDUALS TO SIGN UP, SIGN THE DOCUMENTS, SUBMIT THEM. HE WAS PAYING THEM MONEY FOR THEIR INVOLVEMENT IN THE CRIMINAL OPERATION THAT EXISTS HERE. AND CURIOUSLY ENOUGH, NONE OF THOSE PEOPLE WERE MEMBERS OF THE ORGANIZATION KNOWN AS SCIENTOLOGY. THEY WERE ALL PEOPLE WHO HE HAPPENED TO HAVE SEX WITH OR HE HAPPENED TO FIND IN A CONDITION PERHAPS MORE SORDID THAN HIS OWN AND INDUCED THEM TO, BECAUSE OF DESPERATION, TO TAKE THE SMALL AMOUNTS OF MONEY HE PAID THEM FOR THE OPERATION. SO WE CLEARLY HAVE A SERIOUS, SERIOUS CRIME, PERHAPS THE MOST SERIOUS FRAUDULENT BEHAVIOR WHEN IT INVOLVES THE ACTUAL COURTS OF OUR COUNTRY. AND THE MAN WHO ORGANIZED A NUMBER OF PEOPLE THAT WERE -- AT LEAST SEVEN OR EIGHT PEOPLE WHO WERE SOLICITED BY HIM TO DO FRAUDULENT BEHAVIOR, SIGNING DOCUMENTS FALSELY, FRAUDULENTLY BECAUSE OF HIS REPRESENTATION HE WOULD PAY THEM $30, $50 AT A SIGNATURE.

WE HAVE A LARGE NUMBER OF VICTIMS IN THIS CASE: THE CORPORATIONS OF THESE VARIOUS LAWSUITS. THERE ARE OVER 50 OF THEM. THEY ARE FOUND ALL OVER THE COUNTRY. DISTRICT JUDGES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY WERE IN A SENSE INDUCED TO PART FUNDS BECAUSE OF THE FRAUDULENT BEHAVIOR.

NOW, WE ALSO HAVE AN INDIVIDUAL, FRANKLY, WHO TODAY MINIMIZES HIS ADULT RECORD, BUT THE FACT REMAINS IS THAT AS A TEENAGER ON A NUMBER OF OCCASIONS EVEN TO THE AGES OF LATE TEENS WAS INVOLVED IN FRAUDULENT BEHAVIOR. IT STARTED OUT WITH THE LUNCH PROGRAM SCAM, THAT WENT ON TO ARSON. IT WENT ON TO A SLIP-AND-FALL ACCIDENT THAT WAS FRAUDULENTLY REPRESENTED. EACH TIME MONEY WAS POCKETED. EACH TIME THE MONEY WAS USED IN THOSE CASES TO BUY A CAR. THESE DIDN'T GO TO [redacted] THEY WENT TO HIM. AND NOW WE HAVE HIM AGAIN BEFORE THIS COURT INVOLVED IN b6 b7C

ADULT BEHAVIOR STARTING IN 1983. HE'S BLAMED SCIENTOLOGY.

IT APPEARS FROM WHAT HE SAID HE'S AN ADHERENT, A FERVENT ADHERENT, TO SCIENTOLOGY. AT THE PRESENT TIME HE BELIEVES IN A NUMBER OF THE TEACHINGS OF IT. HE ARTICULATES THE JARGON OF THE ORGANIZATION. HOWEVER, THE FACT REMAINS THAT THERE'S NO DOUBT ABOUT IT THAT EVEN THE DOCTORS THAT HAVE TESTIFIED FOR THE DEFENDANT, WHEN THEY WERE ASKED, INDICATED THAT THERE WAS AMBITION ON HIS PART TO MOVE UP THE ORGANIZATION. HE HAD FOUND A PLACE. HE WANTED TO BECOME A HIGH RANKING OFFICER. AND I SUBMIT TO THE COURT THAT HE SAW THAT FINANCIAL SUCCESS IN THIS FRAUDULENT SCHEME WAS A DEVICE FOR HIM TO ADVANCE IN AN ORGANIZATION THAT HE FOUND COMFORT AND SATISFACTION IN AND APPARENTLY WAS TREATED WITH THAT COMFORT AND SATISFACTION BY OTHER MEMBERS.

IT'S ALSO CLEAR THAT AT THE TIME OF THE ARREST THERE WAS MONEY IN BANK ACCOUNTS THAT HE ALONE HAD ACCESS TO. WE'RE NOT TALKING ABOUT ACCOUNTS THAT WERE UNDER THE CONTROL OF MEMBERS OR PEOPLE AFFILIATED WITH THE SCIENTOLOGY ORGANIZATION.

[redacted] ALONE OR [redacted] WERE THE ONLY PEOPLE THAT HAD ACCESS TO THOSE VARIOUS ACCOUNTS. AND HE COULD WITHDRAW THE MONEY AT WILL, AND THAT'S WHAT HE DID, WITHDREW IT AT WILL AS HE SAW FIT.

IT APPEARS FROM THE REVIEW OF THE CHECKS INVOLVED, AND I HAVE THE DOCUMENTATION IF THE COURT WANTS TO REVIEW IT, THAT APPROXIMATELY $110,000 OF THE ROUGHLY CLOSE TO A MILLION DOLLARS

OBTAINED WENT TO SCIENTOLOGY. IT APPEARS ALSO THAT THERE WERE REFUNDS BY SCIENTOLOGY TO THE DEFENDANT OF APPROXIMATELY $70,000. SO IT APPEARED JUST LOOKING AT THE REVIEW OF THE STATISTICS OF THE FIGURES THAT THE CHURCH GOT $40,000 OUT OF THE MONEY THAT HE SPENT IN THIS PARTICULAR SCHEME. THE REST OF THE MONEY WENT TO VARIOUS OPERATIONS AND SATISFACTIONS OF PEOPLE AND THE DEFENDANT, PEOPLE CLOSE TO THE DEFENDANT AND THE DEFENDANT HIMSELF. WE'RE NOT JUST TALKING ABOUT THE CADILLAC WHICH THE COURT HAS HEARD ABOUT. HE BOUGHT A 1986 CADILLAC SEVILLE ALSO WHICH HE GAVE TO [redacted] HE GAVE [redacted] IN ONE INSTANCE b6 b7C OVER $40,000 OUT OF THESE FUNDS. HE GAVE [redacted] LARGE AMOUNTS OF MONEY. HE PAID THE LEGAL FEES FOR HIS DIVORCE, OVER $40,000. HE PAID FOR THE MORTGAGE ON HIS CONDOMINIUM. HE TOOK A NUMBER OF TRIPS ALL OVER THE WORLD. THOSE WERE PAID FOR OUT OF THESE FUNDS. HE BOUGHT A BED FOR OVER $9,000 FOR HIS CONDOMINIUM. HE HAD AN INTERIOR DECORATOR DECORATE HIS APARTMENT. HE PAID FOR A HOME IN NORTH CAROLINA. HE PURCHASED ITEMS OF APPAREL FOR HIMSELF. HE COLLECTED A LIBRARY. HE PAID OFF VISA CARDS AND MASTERCARDS IN LARGE AMOUNTS OF MONEY. HE HAD AN AMERICAN EXPRESS CARD. HE BOUGHT A TIME SHARE IN UPSTATE FLORIDA. HE b6 b7C BECAME A MEMBER OF A COUNTRY CLUB. THESE ARE NOT ITEMS FOR SCIENTOLOGY. THESE WERE TRAPPINGS OF SUCCESS WHICH [redacted] SOUGHT TO PASS AROUND AS HE WENT ABOUT ON HIS FRAUDULENT SCHEME. AND IF IT MADE HIM IMPORTANT IN SCIENTOLOGY, SO BE IT. BUT THIS COURT CANNOT CLOSE ITS EYES TO WHERE THE MONEY WENT. I THINK

ONE OF THE GREAT GAGS OF THIS CASE HAS BEEN THAT THE MONEY ALL WENT TO SCIENTOLOGY WITH NONE TO [redacted] AND THAT'S WHERE IT STOPPED. b6 b7C

NOW, HE SAYS HE WANTS TO IMPROVE, BUT OF COURSE THE COURT WILL REMEMBER WHEN THE OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE CLAIM AROSE HE WAS BLAMING SCIENTOLOGY THERE FOR THIS WHOLE OPERATION, THESE THREATS ON HIS LIFE. AND THIS CAME AT A TIME WHEN HE WAS ATTEMPTING TO PROVE TO THE GOVERNMENT THAT SCIENTOLOGY WAS INVOLVED IN THIS THING, AND THEREFORE HE SUBMITTED A PROFFER WHICH WOULD IDENTIFY THE ROLE OF SCIENTOLOGY IN THIS WHOLE CRIMINAL OPERATION. AND NONE OF THE INFORMATION THAT HE SUPPLIED WAS IN ANY WAY CORROBORATIVE AND YET THE FACT REMAINS THAT HE THEN HAD THIS THREAT ON HIS LIFE AND THE THREAT TO KILL HIS ATTORNEY ALL INDUCED BY SCIENTOLOGY, WHICH WAS ALL CREATED BY HIM, ALL CREATED BY HIS MIND ACTING PURPOSEFULLY AND INTENTIONALLY.

JUST RECENTLY, AS [redacted] INDICATED, HE WENT TO THE FBI AND MET WITH THE FBI IN SOUTH FLORIDA AND TOLD THE FBI, [redacted] DID, THAT HE WAS AWARE OF THREE MURDERS COMMITTED BY THE CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY IN NORTH CAROLINA. AND HE TOLD THEM ABOUT THE FACT THAT THE THREE PEOPLE ALLEGEDLY KILLED WERE JAMES GORE, GEORGE PERKINS AND [redacted] AND HE SAID THEY WERE ALL KILLED BECAUSE SCIENTOLOGY WANTED ACCESS TO THEIR PROPERTY, AND THAT THEREFORE THEY WERE GIVEN CYANIDE AND SCIENTOLOGY IS RESPONSIBLE. b6 b7C

WELL, THE FBI CHECKED THAT OUT, AND I CAN REPRESENT TO THE COURT THAT JAMES GORE DIED IN 1986 OF A HEART ATTACK MEDICALLY EVALUATED BY THE CORNERS OFFICE IN NORTH CAROLINA. GEORGE PERKINS DIED OF CANCER. HE HAD IT FOR OVER A YEAR. IT WAS DIAGNOSED BY DOCTORS FOR A YEAR'S TIME BEFORE HE DIED. AND [redacted] IS ALIVE AND WELL IN NORTH CAROLINA AND IS NOT DEAD AT ALL. AND YET THIS IS WHAT HE IS TELLING TO THE POLICE EVEN NOW A WEEK BEFORE HIS SENTENCING. b6 b7C

IT'S CURIOUS HE SUDDENLY GOES TO THE FBI BEFORE HIS SENTENCING WITH MORE INFORMATION OF CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR THAT'S FALSE. I THINK WE HAVE TO OPEN OUR EYES TO THIS INDIVIDUAL, REALIZE THAT HE HAS SERIOUS PROBLEMS, THAT HE IS A CON ARTIST AND A MAN WHO COMMITS CRIMES, AND THAT HE HAS TO BE PUNISHED FOR IT.

NOW, [redacted] BOTH SAID HE SHOULD DO TWO YEARS' INCARCERATION. WELL, IT'S THE GOVERNMENT POSITION HE DESERVES A SENTENCE OF FIVE YEARS. THAT IF HE DOES FIVE YEARS, HE WILL BE RELEASED BY ALL PAROLE STANDARDS AFTER DOING A MINIMUM OF TWO THIRDS AND -- A MINIMUM OF ONE THIRD AND A MAXIMUM OF TWO-THIRDS. b6 b7C

THE COURT: WHAT WE'RE TALKING ABOUT IS THE SENTENCING THAT'S BEING IMPOSED ON THIS IS BASED UPON THE OLD LAW, AND HE'D BE ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE, SO THAT THE SENTENCE OF FIVE YEARS MEANS THAT HE IS ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE IN 20 MONTHS.

[redacted] THAT IS RIGHT. b6 b7C

[redacted], USDC COURT REPORTER

MANY TIMES IT ISN'T AS CLEAR AS IT IS NOW IS THAT THE BEST PROSPECTS FOR [redacted] HAVE BEEN DESCRIBED BY THE WITNESSES. b6 b7C THAT HE'S IN A PERIOD OF ISOLATION WHERE HE IS HELD IN A POSITION WHERE HE IS GOING TO BE AVAILABLE FOR TREATMENT IN A SITUATION WHERE THERE IS A SPECIFIC THERAPY PROVIDED FOR HIM; WHETHER OR NOT THAT'S GOING TO BE SUCCESSFUL, I DON'T KNOW. BUT THE ONLY WAY IT'S GOING TO BE SUCCESSFUL IS IN A CUSTODIAL SETTING. SO REHABILITATION IS APPROPRIATE THAT HE'S IN CUSTODY FOR THAT.

AS FAR AS THE MONIES THAT ARE INVOLVED, THERE HAS BEEN SUGGESTION THAT HE BE REQUIRED TO MAKE RESTITUTION. IT'S PRETTY CLEAR TO ME THAT HE IS AT THIS STAGE NOT IN A POSITION TO DO THAT. THAT'S UNFORTUNATELY TRUE FOR PEOPLE WHO TAKE GREAT AMOUNTS OF MONEY THAT DISAPPEAR. THERE IS MONEY, HOWEVER, THAT IS AVAILABLE AND I'M GOING TO IMPOSE A FINE ON HIM BUT TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION WHAT HE HAS FORFEITED AS BEING IN RECOMPENSE FOR THAT FINE, SO THERE WILL BE BY WAY OF A FINE WHEN HE GETS OUT. BECAUSE I'M GOING TO IMPOSE A SENTENCE THAT HE WILL HAVE SOME CONDITIONAL TIME AFTER HE'S RELEASED FROM PRISON WHERE HE'S GOING TO HAVE TO CONFORM TO THE CONDITIONS THAT I IMPOSE, AND THAT WILL GIVE US SOME OPPORTUNITY TO SEE AS HE COMES BACK TO SOCIETY THAT IT'S DONE IN A FASHION WE'LL SEE WHETHER OR NOT THERE'S ANY FURTHER KIND OF MENTAL HEALTH PROBLEMS THAT OUGHT TO BE ADDRESSED.

THE COURT IS GOING TO IMPOSE SENTENCE. IT IS ADJUDGED

b6

THAT THE DEFENDANT IS HEREBY COMMITTED TO THE CUSTODY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES, OR ITS AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE, FOR IMPRISONMENT FOR A TERM OF FIVE YEARS ON COUNT 8 OF THE INDICTMENT, AND THAT THE DEFENDANT SHALL BECOME ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE UNDER 18 UNITED STATES CODE SECTION 4205 (A) AFTER SERVING ONE THIRD OF SUCH TERM.

THE DEFENDANT IS HEREBY COMMITTED TO THE CUSTODY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES, OR ITS AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE, FOR IMPRISONMENT FOR A TERM OF FIVE YEARS ON COUNT 11 OF THE INDICTMENT, AND THAT THE DEFENDANT SHALL BECOME ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE UNDER 18 UNITED STATES CODE SECTION 4205 (A) UPON SERVING ONE THIRD OF SUCH TERM, AND IT'S ORDERED THAT THE SENTENCE ON COUNT 11 SHALL RUN CONCURRENT WITH COUNT 8.

ON THE INDICTMENT CHARGING OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE THE DEFENDANT IS SENTENCED PURSUANT TO THE SENTENCING FORMAT OF 1984. IT'S THE JUDGMENT OF THE COURT THAT THE DEFENDANT IS HEREBY COMMITTED TO THE CUSTODY OF THE BUREAU OF PRISONS TO BE IMPRISONED FOR A TERM OF SIX MONTHS. UPON RELEASE FROM THE IMPRISONMENT -- AND THE IMPRISONMENT IN THIS CASE WILL BE CONCURRENT WITH THE TIME IMPOSED UNDER INDICTMENT 88 0166 -- HE WILL SERVE HIS TIME ON THE OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE COUNT CONCURRENTLY. BUT HE WILL BE RELEASED FROM IMPRISONMENT AFTER THE TOTAL TIME SERVED, AND UPON HIS RELEASE FROM PRISON THE DEFENDANT SHALL BE PLACED ON SUPERVISED RELEASE FOR A TERM OF TWO YEARS. AND WITHIN 72 HOURS OF RELEASE FROM CUSTODY THE

DEFENDANT SHALL REPORT IN PERSON TO THE PROBATION OFFICE IN THE DISTRICT.

DEFENDANT IS, IN ADDITION, SENTENCED TO A FINE OF $400,000. ALL THE FUNDS THAT HAVE PREVIOUSLY BEEN FORFEITED WILL BE CREDITED AGAINST THAT FINE. AND DURING HIS PERIOD OF SUPERVISED RELEASE HE WILL PAY ANY OTHER AMOUNTS OF FINE THAT REMAIN UNPAID AT SUCH TIMES AND AMOUNTS AS DIRECTED BY THE PROBATION OFFICE. IN ADDITION, THE CONDITIONS OF HIS RELEASE ON SUPERVISED RELEASE WILL INCLUDE THAT HE OBEY ALL STATE AND LOCAL LAWS AND THAT HE OBEY ALL THE CONDITIONS IMPOSED BY SENTENCING REGULATIONS FOR SUPERVISED RELEASE.

IN ADDITION TO THAT, HE'LL PARTICIPATE IN SUCH MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAMS AS DIRECTED BY THE PROBATION OFFICE. HE'LL ALSO REPORT TO THE PROBATION OFFICE AND PROVIDE THEM WITH ANY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS THEY REQUIRE, AND HE WILL NOT INVEST IN SECURITIES OR FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF THE PROBATION DEPARTMENT.

IT'S ALSO ORDERED THAT THE DEFENDANT IS TO MAKE A PAYMENT OF $150 AS ASSESSMENT BASED UPON THE THREE FELONY CONVICTIONS JUST SENTENCED, AND THAT HE'S TO MAKE THAT PAYMENT IMMEDIATELY.

b7C

AS FAR AS SURRENDER IS CONCERNED, I KNOW [redacted] INDICATED THAT HE HAS A REQUEST THAT HE WOULD BE NOT REQUIRED TO SURRENDER BEFORE THE END OF THIS MONTH, AND THE COURT WILL HONOR THAT. I BELIEVE THAT HE CAN SELF-SURRENDER, AND I THINK UNDER

b6
b7C

[redacted] USDC COURT REPORTER

THE CIRCUMSTANCES PRESENTED TO THE COURT I'LL PERMIT HIM TO SELF-SURRENDER. LET'S FIGURE OUT THE TIME FOR THAT. I THINK THAT WE CAN WORK IT OUT WITH THE BUREAU OF PRISONS AND THE MARSHAL. THE PLACE OF SURRENDER SHOULD BE ON THE EAST COAST, AND WE WILL SEE WHETHER OR NOT IT CAN BE ARRANGED.

b6

[redacted] IS YOUR HONOR GOING TO SPECIFICALLY RECOMMEND ON BUTNER?

THE COURT: I WILL MAKE THAT RECOMMENDATION. AS I SAY, I'LL ALSO INCLUDE, IF THAT'S ACCEPTED BY THE BUREAU OF PRISONS, THAT ALL THE PAPERS THAT ARE SUBMITTED WILL INCLUDE THE TRANSCRIPT OF HIS ELOCUTION HERE TODAY. IN TERMS OF THE TIME FOR SELF-SURRENDER I THINK WE COULD MAKE THAT 30 DAYS FROM NOW.

b7C

[redacted]: THANK YOU, YOUR HONOR. IS THE DEFENDANT GOING TO REMAIN IN THE SAME CUSTODIAL STATUS BETWEEN NOW --

THE COURT: BETWEEN NOW AND HIS SELF-SURRENDER. AND THAT'S UNDERSTOOD THEN? YOU ACCEPT THAT, COUNSEL?

[redacted] YES.

THE COURT: DO YOU ACCEPT THAT, [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted]: YES, YOUR HONOR.

THE COURT: THAT WILL BE THE SENTENCE OF THE COURT.

What Fair Game WAS? Don't commit semantic homicide on a.r.s. You know damn well Fair Game IS right here on this newsgroup against myself and other critics. Don't you DARE say it's cancelled or not being used anymore. You are a damn liar, Milne.

I told you not to keep lying, Milne. Now you have really pissed me off.

So what happened to Paulette Cooper was a figment of everyone's imagination, is that what you are saying, Milne?

And what about when your cult arranged to have Lisa Van Schaick raped in order to create a diversion and "reclaim" Hubbard's overts and withholds which her sister Lavenda Van Schaick took out of the archives at Flag at the time that Gerry Armstrong was gathering data for Omar Garrison to write a book about Hubbard (which he never did because when he realized how flagrantly Hubbard was lying about his life and career (much of these lies are on the new Hubbard False Data Web Page which Milne announced earlier today), it turned his stomach).

I wish I could find Lavenda Van Schaick and apologize to her for ruining her life; for telling Fred Hare in the Guardian's Office where Hubbard's O/W's were after befriending her under false pretenses; to letting OSA know in 1985 that Lavenda was planning to finance her black 1979 Cadillac Eldorado in order to pay for a lawyer to renew her laswuit against the Church --- which resulted in her car being set on fire and burned up (when I discovered her insurance had lapsed).

There are a lot of people I would love to say I'm sorry to for all the shitty things I did to them in the name of "Planetary Clearing" and "Total Freedom."

I used it in the Fishman / Geertz case because it was true then and it is true now. Fair Game is all over your lies and dead agenting. It hit home when "Eddie" formatted my hard drive, and when my two daughters found a dead rabbit on our doorstep while I was living in the halfway house. Fair Game is the two dead rats on Margaret Singer's doorstep, and Dr. Geertz's dead chickens and dead dog Nikki.

Again, I cite Paulette Cooper. My own case. Dennis' TRO at the protest last week. I think I made my point. Milne, you are a hypocrite and a liar beyond belief.

The scriptures are full of //OT ——————————————, the Between Lives Area, the Implant Station, Marcab, Helatrobus, and other lies too numerous to mention.

And do you know what all this in the above paragraph really is?

MENTAL FAIR GAME. Ways to fuck up your mind and keep the cash cow fed.

I've been lurking around ARS for some time but now I want to post this.

Fishman may be some kind of hero on ARS, but he was the slime who ruined my life and any chance I had of suing Scientology.

I first met him at a protest in front of the Fort Harrison 15 years ago, when he was pretending to be a protester but he was a G.O. pig who wanted information out of me. I started seeing him never knowing who he was or what he was. My sister Lisa was raped by two sea org staffers right after she had her baby. She was raped in her apartment, in her own living room just as a distraction while Fishman went into her bedroom through a window and "rescued" LRH's O/W's for the Church. She will never forget about what happened to her. Do you know how sore and in pain she was right after she had a baby? What were the names of the Sea Org guys, Fishman? Why weren't you all tried for conspiracy to commit rape?

I heard Fishman was in jail, and was on parole or probation or whatever. If I knew about that, I would've gone to his parole hearing and told them to give him life and throw the key away. Now he's out and a big hero on ARS. Real nice. He's a pervert and a pig. You know what he did to me 4 years later? I was going to get a loan on my car to give to a lawyer to sue Scientology. I told him I was between jobs and did not pay the insurance on the Eldorado, so he had it burned up. I lost everything and collected nothing. I couldn't sue and he had his stat and I had no car, no money, I had zip. You think the slate is clean just because he's anti?

The last time he ever spoke to me, do you know what he said to me? He told me he wanted to sleep with my daughter Sabrina, who was only 15 at the time. That's how he broke it off. I guess he "handled" me, that was his way of offloading me after I had nothing else left.

If he publishes his book and there is anything about me or my daughter in it, he's getting sued, so when you e-mail him or talk to him since this is the newsgroup for people without a real life, you tell him I am going to sue him if he puts his book on the internet or the world web or tries to hawk it anywhere and I am mentioned in it. If he thinks he is going to make money off of my pain and hurt then he has a rude awakening. You can't just screw someone over and destroy their sister's life and take away whatever little dignity they had left and then just one day reform like the phony reformed convict he pretends to be and suddenly everything will be allright. It isn't allright, and never will be.

You never get the whole story on ARS, especially Fishman's brand of "truth."

LaVenda Van Schaick

P.S. ask Fishman if he still shaves his balls.

Lavenda, Lavenda, Lavenda.... I'm sorry you still have all this anger. You have every right to feel the way you do. I wish you had called me first just to talk about this. I wish you would still call me (954) 434-9777.

I know nothing I can say will help, but I'm not in Scientology anymore. I never denied that I got what I deserved, maybe I should have gotten punished a lot more for what I did to hurt you.

What words can I say to heal this for you?

Nothing seems to matter now but you're anger. I usually can say something but I am at a total loss for words right now.

This isn't easy.

No, I know the slate will never be clean. I try hard but nothing is going to clean it up. I was always afraid this day would come and now I know saying I'm sorry doesn't mean anything. I never wanted to be a hero on a.r.s. I hoped that by taking a stand, maybe I could make up for some of the hell I put you through.

I am sorry I disrespected your daughter and you. Saying that I believed with every fiber that you were an SP at the time won't help, but that's how I reacted. Scientology filled me with hate and in looking back you were very sincere and decent.

It's about telling what happened. You've said it all right here. The book just has more details. What you did is very therapeutic. I am only hurt because you are hurting. What you said to me you are feeling and it's very sad. I don't know what to do to help, but I wish I had a magic answer.

Okay, I accept that.

I never denied it --- just didn't talk about it. Part of me wishes there was a cancelbunny right about now to make this post go away. I have to confront this somehow, so just tell me if there is any solution; maybe one big cry, I don't know. I'm not too good at this, especially in front of the whole world. I know you wish I would just disappear or die, and you don't want to hear from me ever again. I know you don't believe a word I say but I feel your pain and I am crying too.

My old girlfriend Dusty did that once. I was seeing her when we were going out. The answer is no, haven't done it since. Maybe I need a trim by now.

Re: Internet Terrorist Threat

"A concerned citizen" e-mail dated 17 May 1996 addressed to webmaster@scientology.org.

The attached anonymous e-mail message was received via the Internet by the Church of Scientology International World Wide Web site manager. The message is a "warning" of various terrorist acts which were to be taken against the Church and Church members by one [redacted] The message is signed "A concerned citizen", however we have reasons to believe the actual author was [redacted] an ex-convict and diagnosed compulsive liar who has been attacking the Church for many years. b6 b7C

[redacted] first attacks on the Church occurred in the late 1980's when he was under investigation by the FBI for over $1 million in mail fraud and [redacted] determined to defend himself by attempting to blame the Church for his crimes. [redacted] was not successful and he was convicted for these crimes as well as obstruction of justice charges over his bogus attempt to frame the Church. [redacted] became a vocal critic of the Church while in jail and was quoted in Time magazine making the same false accusations which had been the basis of his obstruction of justice conviction. b6 b7C

[redacted] maintains extensive communication with [redacted] a former Church member who has also been attacking the Church for years. [redacted] is currently in litigation with the Church, having been sued for copyright infringement and trade secret misappropriation for posting copyrighted materials on the Internet. b6 b7C

Both [redacted] are active on the Internet newsgroup "alt.religion.scientology" (ars), a discussion group which specializes in criticism of the Scientology religion. [redacted] have been engaged in bitter disputes after [redacted] began exposing some of [redacted] attacks on the Church as groundless and based on lies, and published this information on ars. [redacted] has attacked [redacted] back for this. It was immediately following this public fight that the anonymous threat was e-mailed to the Scientology webmaster. b6 b7C

[redacted] has never been a practicing member of the Church, yet he has claimed fictitious positions on staff and has claimed relations with Scientology staff members for years in order to claimn his delusory relationship to the Church. When he first came into contact with the Church in 1976, he had been under-going psychiatric treatment for approximatley 20 years. This included hypnotherapy and drug therapy as well as institutionalization. He has been diagnosed as a "schizophrenic, chronic, undifferentiated." He admitted, as well, to being "a compulsive liar." His b6 b7C medical files are replete with instances of completely irresponsible acts such as setting fire to a building in a summer camp when he was a child.

The ars newsgroup consists of about 15 former Scientologists who are critical of their experiences in the Church, and several non-Scientologists who comment on their statements. The term "copyright terorrist" (used in the e-mail threat) was coined on this newsgroup to refer to people who have engaged in malicious infringement on the Internet.

Attempting to get the Church to investigate [redacted] and file complaints with the BATF, FBI and DEA as a means of getting back at him, fits the modus operandi of [redacted] b6 b7C

The factors which lead to [redacted] as a key suspect for the threatening e-mail are as follows: b6 b7C

1. One of the main participants in ars is [redacted] In December 1994 and early 1995, [redacted] posted Scientology materials on the internet on ars. Certain of those materials are unpublished works, constituting an advanced level of scriptures of the Scientology religion. These trade secrets are owned by Religious Technology Center (RTC), which is also the exclusive licensee of the copyrights. Bridge Publications, Inc. is the exclusive licensee under the copyrights in the published works by L. Ron Hubbard which were posted. [redacted] was contacted by RTC attorneys and told to cease and desist, but he did not. RTC then filed for, and was granted, a TRO and then a preliminary injunction against him. RTC was also given a summons to seize his computer and storage files to search for any other copyrighted materials. The case between RTC and [redacted] is still on-going. b6 b7C

2. Toward the end of December 1995, [redacted] began participating in the ars newsgroup, posting stories about his claimed involvement in Scientology. He posted lies about Scientology services he claimed to have received and activities he claimed to have participated in on behalf of the Church (more alleged justifications for his criminal history). b6 b7C

3. Approximately 3 weeks ago, a manuscript written by [redacted] called "The Lonesome Squirrel" was posted the Internet. The manuscript, which appears to have been written by him while in jail, is a compilation of many of the lies he has been telling for a number of years about his involvement in Scientology. A month prior to that, he claimed he would never be able to publish the manuscript because it was destroyed by an employee of a pest control company who deliberately wiped out the storage on his computer. At that time, [redacted] claimed that this pest control employee was a secret agent for the Church. (This is a blatant lie and there are doubts as to whether or not the pest control company even exists.) b6 b7C

4. Once the manuscript was available on the Internet, the various participants in the newsgroup started reading

it. A few began spotting the errors contained in it (based on other data [redacted] had posted by that time, as well as their own personal knowledge), and they started commenting on it on the ars newsgroup. b6 b7C

5. One of the main people to criticize it -- calling [redacted] a liar -- was [redacted] had formerly been on staff at a Church location where [redacted] was claiming certain fictitious incidents occurred. [redacted] began pointing out a few of the discrepancies in [redacted] stories and suggested [redacted] let the newsgroup know how much of the manuscript was made up and how much was fact. b6 b7C

6. On top of this criticism, another situation was building two weeks prior to the manuscript's posting, where [redacted] was caught in two other lies. He posted on the newsgroup the addresses and phone numbers for two people he thought were Scientologists, or connected to the Church. However, he had the wrong names and addresses. Posting real names and addresses of individuals on the Internet without their permission is considered a violation of the code of ethics of the Internet. Getting the wrong people is even worse. What he had done was put these people's personal information on the Internet for thousands to see. He suggested people contact them and complain about the Church. b6 b7C

One long-term ars participant, [redacted] pointed out [redacted] error the first time. [redacted] did not apologize or back down. He then posted the name and address for the second person, which was also wrong. This time, the person whose name he posted found his name on the Internet and got upset. The person contacted [redacted] and asked what was going on. At that point, [redacted] angrily lectured [redacted] on getting his facts straight before posting. b6 b7C

This incident and the arguments with [redacted] were underway when [redacted] hired a new attorney at the end of April. He then posted a notice that he was advised by his attorney to discontinue posting matters on the newsgroup which could relate to his litigation. By that time, whoever, his "Lonesome Squirrel" story, and all the horror stories he had related about Scientologists and the Church, were in question. [redacted] had been largely discredited by [redacted] with others joining in. b6 b7C

[redacted] has continued to post minor items to the newsgroup, so it is obvious that he does watch it and has most likely seen the attack on his story continue. [redacted] is still taking [redacted] lies apart, and other ex-Scientologists are agreeing with points [redacted] makes. There have been a few posts where [redacted] has flat-out called [redacted] a liar, and other postings of others making statements like "that's not true" or "that's incorrect." Calling him a liar is one thing that he cannot tolerate and he admits it in more than one of his postings. b6 b7C

blame the Church for his actions, and his responses to [redacted] and his responses to being called a "liar" the e-mail threat is clearly something he would do. b6 b7C

Now here you HAVE a valid point, of course. But I am not giving away National Defense secrets and passing it to the KGB.

But along with this valid point comes the fear or perception that this COULD happen, and it sends a strong message to people like Eugene Ingram who might see this possibility occurring as well, although in Ingram's case I don't think he would care because he is such a criminal.

So I have proposed a compromise to try to end this flame war:

The next time I intend to "OUT" someone, I will first post my intentions and what information I have and why I want to OUT this individual.

I will allow a cooling off period (because generally I have done this "OUTING" when I have been very angry about being attacked personally or when I have seen grave injustices on a.r.s. such as the lawsuit against Grady Ward which prompted me to embark on this course of action in the first place....

I will categorically say right now that when I find Ivan Durekovich, I will OUT him no matter what, because this is very personal.

But in all other cases I will weigh the potential help vs. harm it would cause and included in this is the dischord and splintering of the group, which I really don't want to see occur.

You have to realize that this group is evolving, emotions run high, and there is a time and a place for reacting appropriately. I still feel what I did was aboslutely right, but I don't want to be the cause of creating internal animosity amongst the critics.

As one friend of mine e-mailed me today, it might be far more effective to OUT these people in Court where it counts.

And to that extent my friend is right.

So for the moment I am going to consider all of the factors including the disruption to the group. I agree to state my intentions to out someone in advance (except for Ingram and Durekovich) and see how the group reacts first.

I personally would rather spend the time being more effective, as I have been told, by helping put the backlinks and submit-its out there so that people can find the critics pages on the web.

I realize that even though the "OUTING" may make ME feel a lot better, it has had limited effectiveness.

Still, it may have its place at the right time and under the right circumstances.

This is the last thing I want to say on it because I want to move on to more important things.

I hope you can all live with this.

With Best Wishes,

Steve Fishman

Good advice, Steve.

Net credibility is a precious commodity. Once lost it is hard to regain. Without it, you are a ghost, a dead man typing. Like Koos or other net kooks.

Calm down and don't let the pressures of real life make you take it all out on the net. Thrashing about won't help your cause.

Make your posts count. That is the best revenge.

Thanks for the insight.

Why one would use hypnosis to "enhance memories" of awake events that happened 10 years prior, is beyond me.

Actually, you do know me, Dennis. we exchanged some friendly e-mail last fall at the time when you were taking quite a bit of heat over Andrew "pearls-before-swine" Greenberg (the old Andrew, before he mellowed out). I made it clear that I didn't agree with the roasting you were getting. Now I don't agree with the roasting Steve is getting.

DENNIS:

'Snot true, Dennis, I have no "purpose" in "twisting" your words. I was not, in fact, responding to your comment about DM (was that not clear in my post?). I was responding to this:

This is the post I was referring to, Dennis, did I misinterprate it? Of course, I did notice that you also brought up the OSA/Steve link to David.

DENNIS:
"We have evidence that Steven is zoomin' us with some of the 'facts' in his biographical fantasy.

"Does that count?"

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Not unless it was clearly declared to be 100% fact. You stated that it "appeared" that it was supposed to be. I find it difficult to believe that a book with so much detailed dialogue from 15 years ago could possibly be "100% fact" ; my assumption, since it obviously does contain fact, is that it is an artful mixture of fact and fiction. If that's the case, it can't be taken as evidence of the veracity of the author one way or the other.

Dear alt.religion.scientology,

I have been instructed by my lawyer not to discuss matters which are the subject of pending litigation.

I will miss participating in discussions of these things, however, winning in court is currently my top priority.

I am looking forward to continuing to participate in discussions of all other areas and topics on this newsgroup which I love very much.

I do not need or want absolution.

Calling people on this newsgroup "clueless wogs" doesn't enhance you. It is demeaning and insulting to many.

Better to search within for the source of your upset and start confronting it with good reality and truth.

Better yet, write up your own autobiography. There's always room for the "Lonesome Informer".

America Online
[redacted] b6 b7C
8619 Westwood Center Drive
Vienna, Va 22182-2285

Dear [redacted]

I represent the Church of Scientology International, which, as you may be aware, has been most prominent in cleaning up abuses on the internet over the past several years, particularly in the area of protecting intellectual property rights on the internet.

The Church has a large presence on the internet and recently constructed some of the most extensive web sites on the net in order to accurately inform internet users on all aspects of the Church's beliefs, activities, social betterment programs and the benefits its members derive from participation in the Church.

Because of the freewheeling nature of usenet, it is one of the areas of the internet which is most easily abused and open to illicit activity. I am writing this letter of complaint on behalf of my client as a consequence of one of the users of America Online having crossed the line from simply being abusive to engaging in tortious and illegal acts and I am formally requesting that America Online investigate this matter and take the appropriate action to cancel the account of this user, [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] b6 b7C conduct has resulted in damage to not only my client but to individuals not associated with the Church, and only the removal of this user from America Online will serve as an adequate disciplinary action.

Below are the details on this situation:

[redacted] b6 b7C is an individual who has already been convicted, sentenced and served a prison term in a federal penitentiary for his earlier attempts to frame the Church of Scientology for criminal acts he was committing. He was also convicted for mail fraud in an elaborate securities fraud scheme which resulted in losses of over $1 million to private individuals . I have attached several court documents showing his prior convictions for these crimes. (TAB A)

Even though [redacted] served jail time in a federal prison, he has continued to falsely claim that the Church put him up to committing the crimes for which he was sentenced, despite this defense having been soundly disproved by the FBI and US Attorney's office as confirmed in Federal Court. As b6 b7C can be seen by the attached documents and other documents relating to [redacted] conviction, [redacted] is a manipulative con artist who manufactures lies any time it suits his ends and such allegations regarding his relationship to the Church of Scientology are a complete fabrication by [redacted] b6 b7C

In March of this year, [redacted] began raising the name [redacted] in posts to the newsgroup alt.religion.scientology, a newsgroup which has essentially become a usenet hate group directed toward my clients. b6 b7C

[redacted] is an individual who had filed a suit against the Church, which was amicably settled over 10 years ago and with whom the Church has had no contact since. In his March posting mentioning [redacted] name, [redacted] made the outrageous and false claim that the Church had arranged to have [redacted] raped. This is libellous on its face. (TAB B) b6 b7C

Subsequently, on March 27, 1996, someone posting from the screen name [redacted]@aol.com" and claiming to be [redacted] posted an article to alt.religion.scientology stating that [redacted] had engaged in a plot to get information from her and that he had stole documents from [redacted] bedroom while she was being raped in the living room. This poster (using user ID: '[redacted]@aol.com) made it appear that [redacted] was somehow employed or working at the behest of the Church of Scientology, while giving credence to the scurrilous claim that someone from the Church had engaged in the rape of a woman. (TAB C) b6 b7C

To keep this charade up, [redacted] then responded on March 28th to the posting by [redacted]@aol.com" by making a public apology for the evil actions which he claimed he took on behalf of the Church of Scientology wherein he admitted to being a participant in the alleged acts against [redacted] (TAB D) b6 b7C

This series of false allegations between [redacted] and [redacted]@aol.com" resulted in a police investigation into the allegation that a rape had taken place which involved members of the Church of Scientology. This was subsequently dropped when the real [redacted] got in touch with the police and confirmed that although [redacted] had been raped once in 1982, it was not at all as described on the internet and she had not had any part in the postings that were being done in her name. [redacted] confirmed that these postings were in fact being forged. b6 b7C

If there was a rape of [redacted] it had nothing whatsoever to do with my client, and furthermore under Florida law, it is a criminal act to publicly disclose the name of a rape victim. Doing so over the internet compounds the crime due to the potentially large number of readers. b6 b7C

Finally, on June 2nd it was revealed by an anonymous message which was posted to alt.religion.scientology, that [redacted] himself had set up the [redacted]@aol.com" account in the name of [redacted] a student at the b6 b7C

University of Florida in Gainesville. According to this information, [redacted] pays for this account in the name of [redacted] by "electronic transfer" and was using this account to forge messages from [redacted] (TAB E) b6 b7C

It is clear that [redacted] stage managed this whole scenario in order to maliciously defame my client and hold them up to scorn and contempt on the internet. b6 b7C

The following are the names under which [redacted] has established accounts at AOL:

[redacted] (He uses the screen name of [redacted]@aol.com")

[redacted] (This is the account through which [redacted] posted the messages from [redacted]@aol.com")

[redacted] has shown by his irresponsible and criminal acts that he has violated the terms of use on the internet and therefore should be removed from America Online. b6 b7C

Feel free to contact me if I can be of any assistance in providing you with more information.

Sincerely,

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Defendant.

Criminal No.: CR 88-0616-DLJ

DECLARATION OF [redacted]

b6
b7C

I, [redacted] hereby declare, under penalty of perjury, the following to be true:

1. I am an Assistant United States Attorney and have been assigned the prosecution of the above-captioned case.

2. Attached is a summary of the fraudulent transactions or claims made by the defendant during the history of this case. See Attachment 1. The list is in alphabetical order with the court listed being the federal court where the fraudulent claim was presented. The claim date is the actual date in which the false claim was submitted to the district court. For example, the first claim presented is that of AIA Industries. The court was in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The date of the claim is April 11, 1988.

3. Using this document, we see that the first known claim was on September 6, 1983. It involved ITEL and was located in the Northern District of California, before Judge Aguilar. In 1984, there were at least four separate false claims submitted. They were: the First Chicago claim on March 14, 1989; Techamerica on May 24, 1984; Wickes Co. on December 7, 1984; and Texas Instrument on December 17, 1984. These were all false claims submitted by the defendant.

4. In 1985, the defendant was involved in nine additional false claims. The claims were filed in district courts throughout the nation.

5. According to the affidavit of [redacted] filed in the motion to quash subpoenas in this case, the defendant joined the Church of Scientology on or about February 8, 1986. b6 b7C See Attachment 2. [redacted] is the Executive Director of the Church of Scientology in Fort Lauderdale. The defendant obtained a free membership for initial service on that date. I am not aware of any record establishing affiliation with the Church by the defendant before that date.

6. The defendant has already acknowledged he joined the Church in February 1986. See Attachment 3. In a letter to his [redacted] dated April 21, 1986, the defendant represented he joined Scientology on February 8, 1986. The letter indicates this was something he freely did. Also, I am familiar with the signature of the defendant since I have reviewed numerous documents he signed. This signature, on Attachment 3, is that of the defendant.

7. During the history of this investigation, I am aware the FBI has interviewed [redacted] b6 b7C These people were all involved in the scheme. They were solicited to join by the defendant. They were given proceeds from the fraud by the defendant. However, they were never members of the Church of Scientology. In fact, I am aware of no members of the Church of Scientology who were involved in any way with conduct related to this fraudulent scheme. Furthermore, none of these people have indicated that the defendant represented to them he was doing any of these acts for a force or group other than himself.

8. Subsequent to his arrest, the defendant sought to attribute his illegal conduct to the Church. He provided a proffer that the Church was directly responsible. Shortly thereafter, he alleged the Church was attempting to have him commit suicide because of what he knew. Documents allegedly were sent him from the Church. Also, he claimed the Church was mailing him poisons. Finally, his attorney received a telephone threat from the Church. This caused the FBI to investigate the allegations.

9. The FBI investigation led to the interviews of [redacted] They separately related to Special Agent [redacted] of the FBI that the defendant solicited them to engage in the suspicious mailings and threats described in paragraph 6. They identified their voices on taped messages claimed to come from Scientology. They also identified the materials they mailed to the defendant that were attributed to being sent by the Church.

10. As a result of this behavior, the defendant has been arrested for obstruction of justice (18 U.S.C. § 1512(b)(1)), and making a threatening phone communication (18 U.S.C. § 875(c) and 2). See Attachment 4. He has also been indicted in the Southern District of Florida for this offense. Defendant's attorney, [redacted] of the law firm of Nurik & Kyle, Miami, Florida, also received the attached letter which he believed came from the Church. In fact, the defendant had it sent. The reference in paragraph 2 to [redacted] present [redacted] meeting his first [redacted] was viewed as a threat by [redacted] See Attachment 5.

11. In the course of this investigation, it was learned, through the subpoena of financial records, that the defendant purchased several items with the proceeds of these fraudulent claims. He purchased at least two cars, one a Cadillac Allente and one another Cadillac. Also, he maintained a mortgage on a condominium in Miami and a piece of property in North Carolina. Furthermore, the FBI seized approximately $300,000 in various Florida bank accounts of the defendant. These funds were seized at the time the defendant was arrested. These accounts were under the control of the defendant. They were not under the control of the Church of Scientology, nor any member of the Church.

period of this crime, was a "notary public." He received considerable publicity for his quick marriages and operated the business as a sole proprietorship. See Attachment 6. He would go anywhere to marry a couple, from the front of a Slurpee machine to a 47-room Palm Beach mansion. This does not seem consistent with the conduct of an automaton. Also, the defendant was arrested on July 31, 1988, as he was arriving from Madrid, Spain. He had been on a European vacation. On certain occasions he travelled with [redacted] then under the age of eighteen, to the City of Las Vegas, Nevada. He also went on an ocean cruise with [redacted] as well as on a separate voyage with a blonde prostitute. On at least one occasion, the defendant indicated interest in placing an ad in the "Busan" (sic Pusan) Daily News of Pusan South Korea as he was to be travelling in South Korea on business. See Attachment 7 and Attachment 8, generally.

13. The defendant has been residing the past several years in the City of Miami, Florida. Miami itself has a population of 373,940 (Bureau of the Census, July 1986). The metropolitan area of Miami - Fort Lauderdale has a population of

I, [redacted] do depose and say: b6 b7C

1. I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and have been so employed for the past twelve and one-half years. I have conducted an investigation which has disclosed the following facts.

2. On July 31, 1988, [redacted] was arrested by your affiant at the Miami International Airport as he deplaned from Iberia Airlines Flight 965 from Madrid. [redacted] was arrested based on a criminal complaint warrant issued on July 7, 1988, in the Northern District of California, San Francisco, California for devising a scheme and artifice to defraud over 20 Federal Class Actions Lawsuits being heard in Federal Courts in the Northern District of California as well as other Federal Districts throughout the United States, in violation of Title 18, U.S.C. Sections 1343, 1341, 371 and 1001. The amount of the fraud is in excess of $800,000. b6 b7C

3. On August 1, 1988, [redacted] appeared before U.S. Magistrate Linnea Johnson, Southern District of Florida, and was released on $100,000 personal surety bond to be cosigned by his father and also a $100,000 ten percent bond. [redacted] has since been indicted in the Northern District of California for the matters described in paragraph two. [redacted] attorney in the above matter is [redacted] of the law firm of NURIK and KYLE, 2937 S.W. 27th Avenue, Miami, Florida. b6 b7C

4. Subsequent to [redacted] arrest he began receiving packages at his apartment, [redacted] b6 b7C

Lauderdale, Florida, which contained aerosol cans of freon, lubricants and other solvents and documents purported to be from the Church of Scientology of which [redacted] is an admitted member. According to [redacted] this material was to be used by FISHMAN to "commit suicide" and that the Church of Scientology was responsible for sending the packages. b6 b7C

5. On November 9, 1988, your affiant placed a telephone recording device at the request of [redacted] on [redacted] at his apartment, located at [redacted], for the purpose of consensually monitoring telephone conversations between [redacted] and unknown and known members of the Church of Scientology. b6 b7C

6. On December 13, 1988, [redacted] said he received a telephone call at approximately 12:00 midnight from a male individual who identified himself as [redacted] last name unknown purportedly an operative of the Church of Scientology. [redacted] provided the original cassette tape and a transcript of the above conversation to your affiant. [redacted] also furnished an interpretation of the conversation which is, in part, in coded terminology known by members of the Church of Scientology. According to the interpretation by [redacted] this conversation was a death threat to [redacted] psychiatrist. For example, at one point during the recorded conversation [redacted] tells [redacted] that [redacted] will be saying 'codish' [sic, Kaddish] for [redacted] next Thursday at 2". b6 b7C

7. On January 9, 1989, your affiant served a Federal Grand Jury subpoena on [redacted] relating to the indictment of [redacted] in San Francisco, California. At this time [redacted] introduced himself as [redacted] and advised that he had done a favor for [redacted] by making a telephone call for him and was paid $40.00. b6 b7C b3

8. On January 13, 1989, [redacted] advised that [redacted] picked him and [redacted] up at [redacted] at approximately 10:30 p.m. the evening of December 12, 1988, and drove them to Coral Gables, Florida for the purpose of making a telephone call to [redacted] residence at midnight. [redacted] advised that during the drive to Coral Gables, Florida, [redacted] had him rehearse the conversation which he, [redacted] was to say. [redacted] provided [redacted] with a script of the conversation. Upon arrival at the Denny's Restaurant, Coral Gables, Florida, [redacted] gave [redacted] $20.00 in U.S. currency and $3.00 in quarters with instructions to call him from the coin telephone at his apartment, #1102, at midnight and repeat the conversation which [redacted] provided him. After the conversation took place he and [redacted] waited for [redacted] to pick them up and return to Hollywood, Florida, at which time [redacted] gave him another $20.00 in U.S. currency and asked for the telephone script back. b6 b7C

9. On January 17, 1989, [redacted] listened to a recorded telephone conversation between [redacted] last name unknown, and [redacted] which took place on December 13, 1988. Subsequent to listening to the conversation, [redacted] stated b6 b7C that that was his voice and the conversation was the one which [redacted] had him to rehearse and paid him $40.00 to make the call. In the opinion of the undersigned [redacted] voice and [redacted] voice are identical. b6 b7C

10. On January 13, 1989, your affiant learned that after he served the subpoena on [redacted] on January 9, 1989, she contacted [redacted] Thereafter, on January 10, 1989, [redacted] came to the residence of [redacted] and gave [redacted] $50.00 telling him [redacted] should not tell the FBI that he had been paid by [redacted] to make the phone call of December 13, 1988, but, instead, to manufacture a cover story that he was working for one [redacted] LNU. b6 b7C

DECLARATION OF [redacted] b6 b7C

I, [redacted] do hereby declare as follows:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration unless stated on information and belief. If called upon to testify to these facts I could and would competently do so.

2. While [redacted] I was acquainted with [redacted] from late [redacted] b6 b7C During that time, he specified to me his post-release plans to continue criminal actions and to manipulate evidence for the conduct of a suit against the Church of Scientology which he claimed would net him millions.

3. This was not my first experience or contact with that church. [redacted] Luis Gonzales, since deceased, was a parishioner of the Church of Scientology for many years. He and [redacted] recommended that I go into the Church to get help with some of the personal problems I was having, particularly following my arrest in [redacted] b6 b7C At their urging, I took two introductory courses at the Church of Scientology in Coral Gables, Florida, visiting that Church a handful of times over an approximate two year period from 1987 to July, 1989.

4. The staff members at the Church in Coral Gables were friendly and helpful, and I bear no animosity towards anyone there. However, I discontinued visiting the Church at the time of my conviction on [redacted] Until b6 b7C interviewed in April, 1994 in connection with this declaration, I haven't had any contact, communication or affiliation with the L.M.

Church or any Church representative since July, 1989. Nor have I ever sought such contact since July, 1989.

5. On my [redacted] I was [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] In September, 1989, I started [redacted] at [redacted]

6. In late 1990, [redacted] arrived at FCI. He was b6 b7C assigned to work in the Education Department, where [redacted] [redacted] I had [redacted] at that time.

7. I initially wanted nothing to do with [redacted] His b6 b7C appearance and behavior, including overly friendly advances to a great many inmates, alternating with secretive and seemingly paranoid mannerisms, indicated that he was someone to avoid.

8. I observed, however, that he had quickly built up a group of approximately 30 inmates as followers, mostly known homosexuals, informers and by-in-large weak-minded individuals willing to perform menial tasks for him. He also quickly became very involved in the prison's computer system, spending long hours working with a select two or three other inmates from his following who claimed, as [redacted] did, to be highly skilled and b6 b7C experienced in this area. One of these inmates was an individual, known to be serving time for fraud, who was openly very close to FCI's captain of the guards. This individual was particularly knowledgeable at computers and electronics, having reportedly designed the alarm system then in place at FCI.

9. I also observed [redacted] attempting to place his name on b6 b7C every possible organized inmate activity, short of sports, in order to falsely claim in-depth and sincere participation and L.M.

gain credit for "good behavior." For example, although his actual attendance was infrequent, he asked me to mark down his supposed participation in the Spanish class I taught during evenings.

10. One day when I was reading a Dianetics book, [redacted] approached me and claimed that he remembered seeing me at the Scientology Church in Coral Gables. From that point, [redacted] claimed we had something in common and "befriended" me, approaching me for at least a few minutes on virtually a daily basis to discuss his activities, supposed abilities and future plans. b6 b7C

11. [redacted] regularly claimed that he was planning to sue the Church of Scientology for millions of dollars and was compiling information and allied former members of the Church to join him. While he would regularly attack the Church bitterly in our conversations, encouraging me to join in his supposedly forming lawsuit, he would also regularly and enthusiastically promote the benefits of Dianetics to his fellow inmates as if he loved the Church. Such actions further showed that he could easily pretend to possess sincere convictions if it served his ends. b6 b7C

12. [redacted] was well known in FCI for the large amount of junk mail he received. This was all caused by his own actions. As he worked in Education and the library, he had first access to magazines that came in and thus was able to obtain and send off the postage-free business reply cards that were commonly inserted between the pages for brochures and free merchandise. He told me in course of this activity that he would blame the Church of Scientology for the ensuing receipt of unauthorized junk mail. b6 b7C

He told me that such actions and bogus accusations would advance his position in his planned suit against Scientology. Indeed, before long, [redacted] was literally receiving mail bags full, including x-rated materials, for which I understand he has falsely blamed the Church. b6 b7C

13. [redacted] would often approach me to claim that he had been able to steal money out of banks through computer systems, that he had businesses and a lot of hidden money on the outside. Shortly before my scheduled release in July, 1991, [redacted] approached me daily for two to three weeks, attempting to gain my agreement to participate in a forming enterprise involving bank fraud once I was out. b6 b7C

14. [redacted] claimed that his plan was to utilize his knowledge of the banking system and of computers to engage in a plan to extract large amounts from banks. [redacted] explained that this plan included compromising one or more bank employees, including supposed contacts he claimed he already had, who could provide access to the private financial data of bank customers. He claimed that once accessed, he could manage, through his computer, a complex series of unauthorized electronic withdrawals and deposits of a string of customers' monies over several accounts in ways that would avoid detection and that would ultimately and illegally net [redacted] and his cohorts large sums. b6 b7C

15. [redacted] further stated that I should contact [redacted] individual named [redacted] in Miami upon my release to get him involved in the plan. [redacted] claimed that [redacted] had a relative who used to work in the Republic National Bank in Miami and that he was also a close friend of [redacted] a man from L.M. b6 b7C

Capitol Bank in Southern Florida.

16. About a week before my scheduled release, [redacted] approached again, asking for my expected phone number and address so that we could get together on the outside following his release and work on his projects. I told [redacted] that I wanted nothing to do with suing the Church or the banking computer scam. b6 b7C

17. Then, with my release just days away, I was summoned by the Captain on July 3, 1991 and immediately thrown into solitary confinement (known at FCI as the "Special Housing Unit"). I was held in the hole for 72 ~~hours~~ hours L.M. before any explanation was offered for the action. That explanation was the false accusation that I had planned to kill [redacted] with a small screwdriver I possessed for changing frequencies on my radio -- this accusation supposedly coming on the "strength" of a telephoned "tip" from outside. b6 b7C

18. [redacted] too was held a few days in solitary in that Unit at the beginning of my lockdown, supposedly for his protection. When I saw him being led out of the building after this period, I asked him from my cell what had occurred. He claimed that nothing was wrong, it had been an error and that I should be released from the Unit shortly. I never saw [redacted] again. I was held in the hole at the Special Housing Unit for another 69 days following this. During this period, I was informed by an FCI staff member [redacted] FUNIT who worked with [redacted] that it was [redacted] accusations of my being directed by the Church to kill him that had caused this solitary confinement. Those accusations were entirely false. I have never threatened, planned or attempted to cause him harm at any time, much less at the suggestion of any L.M. b6 b7C

Church of Scientology.

19. At the end of this period of solitary confinement, I was immediately transferred out of FCI to another facility near Jacksonville. As a result of [redacted] false statements, clearly retaliation for my refusing to participate in his post-prison plans at a Scientology lawsuit and bank fraud, I was not released from the federal prison system until January, 1992, six months later than scheduled. b6 b7C

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 24th day of May 1994 at Miami, Florida.

Title: UNSUB;
CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY - VICTIM;
THREATENING COMMUNICATIONS

Synopsis: Captioned matter being closed administratively.

Details: Captioned matter was initiated based on a message posted to the Internet on 5/17/96 wherein an anonymous writer, "Concerned citizen", warned that [redacted] a former Church of Scientology member, was planning terrorist acts against the church and its members. The terrorist acts included the assassinations of church members John Travolta, Tom Cruise, Kirstie Alley, Parker Stevenson, and an attack at the premiere of the movie Mission Impossible. The message was transmitted via an anonymous re-mailer in order to hide the identity of the true sender. b6 b7C

[redacted] Attorney for the Church of Scientology, provided extensive background information to FBI Los Angeles regarding [redacted] whom the Church believes is responsible for posting the warning message. [redacted] is known to partake in personal on-line fueding against [redacted] via the Internet news group "Alt.religion.scientology", a discussion forum used to criticize the Church. During an interview by FBI Miami, however, [redacted] adamantly denied having any involvement in or prior knowledge of the Internet message. Investigation conducted to identify the sender of the message met with negative results and failed to link [redacted] to the message. b6 b7C

Dear [redacted] Re: [redacted]

Thank you for briefly discussing with me the concern I and my client have that 18 U.S.C. § 876 (mailing threatening communications) is being violated by [redacted] with an escalating use of the United States mail to communicate threats to representatives of the Church of Scientology in both Chicago and Los Angeles. As I indicated, I was initially contacted because of several letters sent to Los Angeles over the last month. As Church representatives inquired, it was discovered that many more letters of this type have been sent over the last year. Copies of most of those letters, with some of the envelopes and with an index are enclosed with this letter for your review.

I have additionally enclosed the Whitefish Bay police report and disposition involving [redacted] in 1992. That incident also involved a female representative of the Church of Scientology.

My client is concerned that these letters exhibit an extremely distorted and perverted view of the world and that [redacted] in addition to using the U.S. mails to make threats, may be about to engage in violent conduct directed at himself, his father or representatives of the Church of Scientology. Most recently his energies have been directed towards [redacted] (now [redacted]), another female who works with the Church in Chicago. He admits in two recent letters that he vandalized her automobile in Chicago in October of this year.

Dear [redacted]

I am once again writing to you. The problems I have had today was where I was working on a metal lathe at school on it school on a project and this being controlled my hand in such a way where I made a gouge in the middle of my project and a bad cut on the end of it.

When I am working on my homework the being controls what I write down sometimes where I make mistakes on my work.

The being causes an aching pain in my heart and makes a muscle jump in my right Latissimus Dorsi.

This being acts that she is helping me when she antagonizes me to force me to get a girlfriend, but all I find is that this or just creates enturbulation for me.

This entity is as if she can do whatever she wants and that she doesn't have to answer to nobody for what she does. The being pinched a nerve in my back and in my right foot, a toe. The OT squeezes my buttocks as if it was a person was there and present in the flesh. I got my results on my math test that this being was making me have trouble with being able to think and I did poorly on it, worse than I could of done. This entity made it where I was unable to think properly and was confused on how to do the math problems on the test. Last week after the test I went to a gun shop thinking about purchasing a handgun because I cannot handle this being anymore and I with that she was gone. When is there going to be something done?

b7C

I believe it is an [redacted] named [redacted] at the [redacted] Org. All I ask is for this OT to go away and I don't want no comm from her whatsoever! I need immediate help and I'm wondering what can be done? Thank you for your time and cooperation.

yours sincerely

Dear [redacted]

I continue to have this being, that I have been talking about, still be around me. The being pinched a nerve in my penis and hit it several times a couple days ago. The entity also when I am working on my homework adds or takes things out when I am writing something down by controlling my thoughts and my hand when I am writing things down. She is bothering me and I am tired of this person. The OT is antagonistic and I wish that this person would go away. I am desperate for some help and I need something done to get rid of this OT. She is a problem to me and I consider her a threat.

Yours sincerely,

Dear [redacted]

I am writing once again to you. This being which I have mentioned about is still around me. Today when I was taking a math test I was distracted by her when she used harmonics in order to make me angry and irritable, even to make me laugh in class. She used tractor beams to antagonize me, like using them around my neck, in my head, on my legs and arms, and my chest.

She has been around since last November. The being is trying to help me get a girlfriend, that is what this entity has said. That is why she is treating me the way that she is. She kept me up till 2 am last night because she likes me when I masturbate.

I get angry because this being won't let me alone and regularly uses tractor beams to irritate and annoy me.

I can't run away from her and I think about suicide often. I don't know where to go for help, only to write to Flag and to NSHQ for some kind of information of how to stop this.

As I have said in the previous letters I believe it is an [redacted] named [redacted] the [redacted] at the [redacted] org.
I ask again, what can I do to alleviate and rid myself of this problem.

Dear [redacted]

I am writing regarding a problem that I have been having. There is this presence, like of a being which is around me all of the time. There is phenomenon like of something touching me and from what I have read in Scientology books, represents tractor beams.
The being also has, from my understanding of what is going on, used pressor beams to move and hit my body.
The being permeates the tissue like water saturating a sponge. There is times where the permeatation of the bones cause an aching pain like in the knees, fingers, teeth, legs and feet while other times it is in the side of the abdomen, skull, back, buttocks and crotch.
I have it where the entity pinches nerves in various places like in my brain, spinal column, arm and teeth. It is sometimes of where it is a particle beam-like thing that hits me in the side of the body.
I had an incidant in the very beginning of where the being was able induce diarrhea in my digestive system which lasted two and a half to three days.
The being controls sometimes when I urinate and my bowel movements. When I am shaving the entity irritates me by touching my nose so that I have to itch the area of irritation, which is also sometimes the ear, the eye, and the cheek.
At times when I am brushing my teeth the being is able to control the body so that I hit myself in the face with the toothbrush or when I'm working on homework or writing a letter, the entity controls what I write down or what I think and due to some of the mistakes in this letter, that of what is taking place.

I am able to carry a conversation with the being telepathically, speak with it through my mind as well as talk to it verbally because it talks to me by using my body to speak with. I have had an incident of when I was at school and returned home that afternoon, I noticed that a banana I had by the window had disappeared. It no longer exists.
It is able to create harmonics to make me laugh at times when I am talking to people when something humorous has been said, for instance. Other times it makes me irritable and angry.
There has been one thing that makes me angry and that is when I am kept up at night, woke up in the middle of the night or up in the morning. I think of suicide when I kept up or don't get enough sleep and there has been some nights where I haven't gotten any sleep at all and the being is able to keep the body going. I am regularly antagonized and there has been three times that I have tried to commit suicide with sleeping pills and once with alcohol included. The being kept me alive in all instances. All I want is this being to do is go away and leave me alone because I just want to get away from it. I don't want no further communication from this person. I believe its [redacted] or [redacted].
I have wrote previous letters to Flag and have not recieved no response about this matter.
I thank you for your time and cooperation.

Dear Captain [redacted]

Hello you motherfucking asshole! I had a fucken shitty weekend like every fucken day for the last two years. b6 b7C

When I went home Friday afternoon, [redacted] made my car smoke like usual and the power steering didn't work. As I was going up one hill [redacted] made it where I lost power and it was spurting the oil out of the cylinder because there was a trail of smoke coming out of the rear of the car. I was wondering if the car was going to break down. I made it home, but the fucken oil is all over the fucken engine. [redacted] would control the speed of the car also when I was driving, fuckhead

When I was up north [redacted] would talk through members of the hunting party that was hunting on the same land suggesting to me that they knew that I got my penis pulled when I was in the Army and was a homosexual. [redacted] was messing with my mussed with holds to get me thinking and get introverted. She does this other times to rub my nose into my ovetts all of the fucken time. [redacted] was putting thoughts in my mind when I had a deer rifle in my hand to shoot my Dad, the other people there and myself. She did it constantly when I was there. b6 b7C

Saturday night [redacted] waited until my grandparents fell asleep to wake me back up when I went to bed to have me play with my penis. She wanted me to get my underwear and sweatpants off and I did. Then she had me walk from the living room, where I slept, down to the basement. She wanted me to go outside, but I saw that my Dad and Uncle was returning from the 8 o'clock mass at church so I back to my bed. After my Dad and Uncle went to bed, I masturbated and ejaculated in a dirty T-shirt when I was lying in the bed. [redacted] I hope felt better about that, the slut.

She has done this before, having me masturbate when I'm up north at my grandparents. I would have to beat my dick and ejaculate in a underwear which everyone else is to bed and sleeping. It just proves how hard-up and how much of a fucken hoar [redacted] really is. She treats me like a dog all the fucken time.

my parents [redacted] ago Sunday afternoon to go back home. When I did return home in Janesville I drove back to Milwaukee and [redacted] fucken had my car smoke some fucken more. It got so bad I ran out of all the oil in the car when I checked the dipstick I heard noises from the fucken engine and I wouldn't doubt it that she did some damage. I have fucken oil all over the fucken god-damn place you mother fucken cocksucker and she says she is my friend. She is a fucken hoar that is an [redacted] and who is a hard up slut. The only thing she is a friend to, is my dick fuckhead!!

I have been getting shitty fucken sleep lately and the bitch plays with me all by squeezing it and playing with my arms with a tractor beam. [redacted] has even said to me that she is going to waste my money if I don't get a girlfriend, she seems very true too. She broke my boombox, wasting money on the car with the oil filter, which I've just replaced after only a fucken week another one and a cracked windshield. She has wasted $700 plus that I spent on college and another $600 on a worthless dating service that didn't amount to fucken shit because [redacted] is so desperate for me to get a girlfriend quick so she doesn't have to be made a fool in front of your fuckheads. The bitch is embarrassed because of me talking about all of the fucken shit she is doing.

I can't keep up with the expenses because I have to keep fixing fucken problems because the fucken oil level being low all of the time and putting quarts of oil into the cars constantly. I had to buy a box of oil today because it is kept being burned.

I get depressed and when she suppresses me so much that I contemplate suicide a lot. I was better off with [redacted] gone then when she is here. I have no college degree, no friends because she has been driving them away and having less and less money. I have been trying to get a fucken girlfriend and nothing has been working. It seems that I am to get a girlfriend if that is the last fucken thing [redacted] does or I kill myself. All I think sometimes that I should kill myself because I can't get a girlfriend and I hate [redacted] because she keeps hurting me since I can't get one. What the hell am I to do. I have done everything she has said. I quitted college, two part-time jobs and got a full-time job. I HATE THE BITCH !!!

Dear [redacted],

Hello fuckhead! What the fuck have you been doing to get rid of [redacted]? Probably nothing because you don't have the fucken balls to do anything about [redacted] You let her do whatever she fucken wants!

Well Im working for this temporary agency and I had one job last week that lasted a week, where I quit because it was fucken rotten. I hated the fucken work. This week Im at another place and it is just as fucken shitty. The fucken factory operates on temporary employees. I figured I could work at a temporary agency for awhile until I start these courses that [redacted] thinks is going to solve all my financial problems. Now Im looking for permenent full-time employment for a stable income and because I hate my job. I went to college to get a job that I would like, but [redacted] always got better ideas. She tells me how to run my life and she will harass and suppress me to comply with what she wants.

When I was going to the place I was going to apply at, [redacted] was making my fucken car smoke from her making oil squirt from the cylinder onto the engine block.

She has been gloating over my difficulties at work and me quitting from college because of her suppression. All I consider her as is a fucken suppressive OT. I am working at getting a girlfriend by joining all these dating services and even though they don't work, Im doing

what I should do. Why must I have to put up with this fucken slut for the last two years. For two years I've put up with this cunt and I hardly know the dog. I'm not her piece of meat she can use to masturbate and then after treat like an animal the rest of the time to fucken torture. She can inflict pain on her boyfriend [redacted] if she's so sadistic. b6 b7C

Last year [redacted] made my winter coat and gloves disappear when I was working at [redacted] in the [redacted]

When I first bought my used car, [redacted] cracked my windshield on my car by permeating the glass, I guess, and snapping it. She also has not allowed me to use my own phone to make outside calls and now since I need it more because of the comm I need to do between the organization I'm taking this course from. Could you tell the cunt to let me use my own fucken telephone. Thank you bathead. b6 b7C [redacted] has been making my eyes bother me, making my mind bother me by adding smog to it and making me tired where my head hurts sometimes.

She also has been making my car kill repeatedly lately and making my steering difficult on my car. Could you tell the bitch to stop? b6 b7C

She got to go now as when more is to be said I'll write again. Till then, bye anus sucker.

Dear [redacted] b6 b7C

Hi. Well, I've withdrew from my AutoCad class two days ago and I cancelled my college fund from the Army. I thought I owed $70 some dollars for school, but I found out that I didn't owe anything. I quit my other job at too. [redacted] has been making it easier at work than it has been after the first day because the machine operates quite fast and the work is laborious. The last four days the machine had been breaking down often. Today it was not working at all. It was down for repair. b6 b7C

I have been tired because earlier in the week I couldn't get enough sleep. Sunday night I went to sleep at 9:30 pm and [redacted] woke me up at 12:30 pm. She wouldn't let me sleep till about 2:30 AM and I was up on and off till 5:30 AM, the time I was to get up for work. During the week she will make me feel tired especially when I take a nap in the afternoon. b6 b7C

[redacted] has been making my knees hurt fucken constantly lately by pinneding them and creating pain! She has been amplifying the "not there" feeling I experience when I'm awake.

She will also make my feet hurt when I'm standing on my jot during the whole day.

[redacted] three days ago had me jab myself with my toothbrush in the gum.

[redacted] is good at wasting my money too. I wasted $600 on a dating service that I found often to have little for selection of girls my age because [redacted] was pressing me to get a girlfriend. Then I had spent $600-$700 on school and she pushed to have me withdraw from school because I was having troubles in two of my classes, especially one of them. If you have any money she will be able to spend it quickly and I am living off of a student income.

I can tell when you talk to her because she acts wierd with me. She doesn't like it when you talk to her about me.

[redacted] still has me beat my dick everyday and said to me she wants her twat pelted. Tell her to shave her mound and ride a floor standing vibrator.

Dear [redacted]

Hello. You are dont say anything to me. You don't write or nothing. [redacted] knows my address. Ask her to give it to you.

Today [redacted] had me jab myself with a sliver on the side of my left thumb at my first day at work full-time today. Then later on in the morning she had me drop a bale of paper that weighs approximately 100 lbs. on my left foot. I had to limp around for the rest of the day. I guess from what [redacted] said she removed the engram. I tried to do an assist and there appeared to be not much charge, but my foot still hurts. I figured this attack was because you were talking to her. She must have some great justifiers because you dickless fucks don't do nothing to her. What has to happen, I'm crippled and/or in the hospital or I'm dead. Whatever she is telling you, it's not worth having her around me. She is just after my cock, nothing else and then she says she is my friend and I HATE THE HOAR! I want to get away, but I can't and you won't get her away from me. What do I have to do, shoot myself. Have I been that bad that I have to be tortured for the rest of my life by this [redacted] If you don't want me to go up the Bridge, don't let me. If you don't want me to write to you, get rid of [redacted]. If you don't want me to communicate to anyone in Scientology, I will. I just want to get away from [redacted] and live the rest of life without the antagonism and suppression. I've put up with this for the last year and eleven months and another two by [redacted] [redacted]. Would you please at least consider what I've said. I just want to be left go. I don't want to be held captive any longer.

[redacted]

b6
b7C

Dear [redacted]

I am tired of [redacted] I had to quit my part-time at Frito-Lay due to the full-time job at a printing company I now have. I have these challenges that I don't exactly feel well about because of [redacted] and her antagonism towards me going to school. b6 b7C

Last Thursday she hurt me when I was bringing a Stand down for a pallet of chips and it swung over my head behind me and caught me in the left calf. [redacted] amplifies the "not there" feeling I experience all of the time where I feel very blank. b6 b7C

When I have a cold she makes it where I can't breath when I have nasal congestion and can't swallow at times unless I tip my head forward.

Lately she has been making my right wrist hurt as well as the top of my hand. [redacted] also permeates my knee caps and give me a dull ache in them. b6 b7C

I thought from the beginning [redacted] was supposedly to help me get a girlfriend, but it has turned out that she controls my whole life. I can't do damn thing where she doesn't fuck with it. Sik become depressed because she doesn't leave me alone. She is a suppressive and antagonistic slut who is trying to ruin me. I DON'T TRUST THE FUCKEN BITCH! [redacted] is keeping me up all fucken night where I'm up till like four o'clock in the morning and then wakes me up at nine o'clock where I get five hours of sleep. That was last Saturday night. Last Thursday she kept me up late because I had a Descriptive Geometry test the next day. I didn't take the test and I withdrew from my [redacted] keeps me up by squeezing my buttocks to keep me awake and I can't fall asleep because she gives the body energy. She does it because she doesn't like it when I send letters and want me to go outside naked. Sik another way she punishes me when I let you know what she is doing. [redacted] still has me masturbate every night. Just to let you know. [redacted]

Dear [redacted]

Hello you fucken dumbass Sea Org piece of shit.

When are you going to get rid of this fucken suppressive [redacted] Today I withdrew from all of the courses pertaining to my major as a [redacted] because [redacted] was harassing me about it, especially about my Descriptive Geometry class. She would fuck with the teachers by talking through them in all of my classes and she was making the tests difficult because I was in them. I am very irate about it, but not really about the Descriptive Geometry class because it was a difficult class for me. I wasted all that money for school and now I dropped out. I went and got a full-time job at a temporary agency since [redacted] wanted me out of school because I will not be able to graduate from school with a degree. I may go back next semester for Business classes. [redacted] keeps telling me what to do with my life and I'm getting very

b6

depressed and thinking of suicide, I don't do anything for a day without her fucking with me about something, like with decisions I have to make. I can't be left alone and I'm not doing a thing to her she punishes me when I write to you by pinching nerves in my side for instance.

[redacted] makes me sick by a sensation she produces and pinches nerves in my testicles to make me feel uncomfortable she will add mess to my mind to make it hurt me and play with my sphincter for some kind of reason, I guess FOR HER PLEASURE. b6 b7C

[redacted] says she is going to help me become successful often I take this course from this organization I am part of that has a course in assisted living business.

All I know is that I detest this bitch and I HATE her very much and consider her oppressive. I am a prisoner to this thing that I don't even fucken want.

Bye you fucken fuckhead!

Dear [redacted]

I have been very busy with school and I don't have much time to write as I would like to about what [redacted] does, but due to constant antagonism I am forced to send one out. I had to cut the last letter short by the way. That is why there was an abrubt ending. b6 b7C

[redacted] has for awhile gone into my radios, computer, and my lamp and take on the beingness of them, I believe. I can tell because there is a little popping noise when she goes into them.

She has had me run into things like stubbing my toes on the bathroom tub, stubbing my fingers on the medicine cabinet, bump my knees against the cabinet and jam my fingers like lately where I ripped my forefinger nail. One time she sliced my lip with my electric razor when I was shaving myself [redacted] would pinch nerves in my lower back, along my ribs, near my kidneys and shoot a particle beam at my heart. She sometimes permeates my chest and give me an aching feeling. b6 b7C

[redacted] fucks with me lately when I am working on the computer where she prevents me to get my homework done by making my eyes bother me and one time from making a letter to [redacted] by shutting my computer down. I had to type the letter out again.

[redacted] last week ripped a drafting drawing of mine that I was working on in class. This is an example like so many other times where [redacted] suppresses me about school and seems to invadidate my HAT. She tells me to drop out of classes and as I have said talks through my teachers, especially a certain one where he is hostile towards me. I have only seven months left and really intended to finish school, but I'm experiencing difficulty in some of the classes and that is why [redacted] is harassing me. If I don't graduate, then I don't get a degree and then I'm less employable, and that is the way I'm look at it. b6 b7C

I have been suppressed approximately for the last year and eleven months by [redacted] and another two years before that I was bothered by [redacted] I got rid of her, but got in trouble with the police and paid a $367 fine for harassment. [redacted] was doing the same things that [redacted] is doing now, but it really got worse at the end, right before she left [redacted] didn't know what was going on then, but was there at [redacted] house the night I was arrested and was fined. That incident was a year and ten months ago in November of '92. b6 b7C

I've been writing to [redacted] since [redacted] has been here because of the nonstop antagonism. I have wrote to the majority of the upper management and to everyone below, but those letters were diverted from what it seems [redacted] has said. b6 b7C

I've been condemned to a life with a person that I hate and want to get rid of. She says she is my friend , but she is a outethics person herself, an [redacted] who is a cheap shot, low down hoar.

I wouldn't curse at you or even continue to write as long as you would get [redacted] away from me.

It is time to go again. Bye bye.

Dear [redacted]

Hello. [redacted] is still here. She continues to do [redacted] she has been doing before. [redacted] makes me feel tired and puts a thought in my mind to go to bed. b6 b7C

About a month and a half ago she controlled an old man in a Thunderbird to run into me when it was raining outside. It was on a Saturday I believe and I was going to stop at a stop sign at an intersection. Ilooked in the mirror and I saw a Thunderbird skidding towards me. The car ran into me and I drove my car to the side of the road. The other driver did likewise. We both got out of our cars and the old man came over to me. He said,"Is there anything wrong? Are you okay? It looks okay(the bumper). Everything okay." I said the car is okay to him and Iwas too. He walked back to his car and I said as he was stepping into it,"Drive safely". I knew [redacted] did it and she knows I don't have auto insurance and I agreed with the old man because I didn't. The accident did do some damage, I later found out, to the passenger side rear bumper where it sticks out at a certain point.

Several months when I first bought the car [redacted] made a crack on the front left side of the windshield and acted as if she did it and for a unknown reason.

After awhile [redacted] would make my steering stiff where it was difficult to turn my steering wheel. Now she creates static when I listen to my radio. For some time [redacted] was making oil come out of the third cylinder of the engine when I was parked or driving and there was smoke coming from under the hood. There were times when it was just rolling out, making a cloud of smoke when I was at the stoplights. [redacted] only stopped doing it after I sprayed her car. b6 b7C Ever since she has been here she would make my T.V. go black and white when it is color and have it where it would have a bad reception.

When she is having sex with [redacted] and [redacted] on a Saturday night [redacted] antagonizes me with tractor beams and stiffens muscles in my body. b6 b7C

[redacted] has not allowed me to use my own telephone since I've tried to call her house and I have to call from a pay phone in the apartment building to make outside calls. Could you tell her to permit me to make calls on it. I got to ask to do everything it seems. I'm a goddamn prisoner.

When I take a shit [redacted] plays with my sphincter when I'm trying to get the crap out of me and plays with the inners of my penis so I can't piss when I want to sometimes. She does it with tractor beams. [redacted] will give me an upset stomach at times so I have to take a shit too. It is difficult when I'm fighting her to relieve myself. b6 b7C

Lately [redacted] has been letting me sleep more than I intended when I've set the alarm clock and last week I woke up late for a class and didn't attend it because I was late. [redacted] contolled the situation where I was able to hand in n assignment in late.

I've got to go. Good bye.

Dear [redacted]

Hello, you fuckhead. I have sent you a letter regarding an [redacted] that I find is very antagonistic to me and has been harassing me for the last year and ten months. I am writing again because [redacted] was keeping up at night and is now preventing me from doing my fucken homework. b6 b7C

When I was making copies of the last letters, she postulated the letter and addressed envelope for [redacted] to disappear as well as the addressed envelope to [redacted] I had to make another copy of each to send. It is like as before in prior incidents, she doesn't want me to communicate what she is doing and hurts me every fucken time when I do. She has said before that she has made letters disappear, but I don't know for sure.

Last Friday I went down to Chicago from Milwaukee and spray painted the right-hand rear panel of her red Mazda Miata. I put about half foot mark on her car. She knew I was doing it as well as [redacted] and [redacted] of the Chicago Org.). I did it because [redacted] is constantly fucking with me. She is doing it in order for me to get a girlfriend. [redacted] believes she is helping me and doing it for my own good, but she wants it to happen so that she can experience the sexual sensation when I'm fucking my girlfriend. b6 b7C

Last Saturday she permeated my stomach and gave me an upset stomach where I had gas for the rest of the evening.

[redacted] likes ruling my life. She tells me that I should drop certain classes and harasses me about it. I am working towards a fucken degree and [redacted] wants me to throw it all away. I spent a lot of my money for these classes and she wants me to quit in the middle of some of them. I've work very hard to get to where I've got and I don't plan on stopping now. b6 b7C

[redacted] speaks out of the mouths of students, coworkers and teachers at school and work. Especially at school a few days ago she talked through a teacher who said something about the word,"crack" and kept repeating it. Then in next class she had another teacher say something about that word again and she made me giggle as well as a few other people. She had a classmate next to me say, " We are all adults here, aren't we".

Yesterday she had a coworker at where I work punch me slightly in the shoulder and she had a few of them mimicking phrases that I say sometimes.

I have had a cold now for the last five days because [redacted] has given it to me and she was keeping me up at night to prolong the symptoms. She also irritates an old surgery I had for a broken nose where I get bloody noses now. b6 b7C

[redacted] fucks with mind all the fucken time and adds mass to my fucken mind, giving me headaches and making me feel tired every day now since I don't know fucken when for the last year and ten months.

I HATE her and pleading for you to get rid of her forever. Have a good day.

Dear [redacted]

Hello. I have been writing to Flag for a year and ten months now about an [redacted] named [redacted] Org. She has been antangonizing and suppressing me for that amount of time.

When she first was over at my place in Milwaukee, by being able to be at two places at the same time as a spiritual being, the thetan used tractor beams to give me diarrhea that lasted for three days straight. b6 b7C

She would keep me up at night, wake me up in the middle of the night and/or wake me up early in the morning [redacted] would do this constantly last year and it would turn on an implant I have. I would think about suicide and would yell and scream until I would go hoarse sometimes.

I have tried to commit suicide three times with an overdose on sleeping pills. I would take a whole box of sleeping pills and once with alchohol also because a button she was pushing. I lived through each incident after it took me up to two days to recover.

[redacted] takes me outside my window in the day and/or night naked by controlling my body partially or wholly by use of tractor beams out in an enclosed area between my apartment and the building next door where she has me masturbate and ejaculate. She has taken me out the back entrance of my apartment naked at night also and have taken me around street blocks like during the winter and once down by the lakefront in the spring at night. b6 b7C

[redacted] has me masturbate and ejaculate in bed and I cum in a rag in my bed. She uses tractor beams and/or permeates my buttocks, testicles, penis, and the area between my genitals and my anus. She likes playing with my sphinter with tractor beams when she has me masturbate.

[redacted] has hit me with pressor beams in the head and the stomach and pinches nerves in my back, sides, chest, and stomach when she would be angry at me.

[redacted] friend, [redacted] has made a winter jacket and a pair of gloves of mine disappear, where they totally vanished and I could not find them where I last laid them. She has told me he even did it too. b6 b7C

[redacted] talks to me telepathically and I can hear her in my mind. She can also control my mouth to verbalize words where I hear her then with the use of my ears of what she is saying.

I have been visited by another friend of [redacted] who's name is [redacted] an [redacted] She has done similar things too a bit of using tractor beams and permeating me when [redacted] has me masturbate and ejaculate. [redacted] has told me about her sex life and she's told me once she had anal sex with her ex-husband. She has divorced him now for some years, for about seven to eight years and has two daughters. She is presently going out with [redacted] an [redacted] Org. [redacted] likes to have sex with [redacted] on top from what she has said to me.

[redacted] has long red hair and brown eyes. She stands about 5'11" and approximately 130 lbs. [redacted] has freckles on her nose and has fair complexion. I know her from when I was down at the [redacted] Org. taking services there and I knew what thetan was doing this to me because [redacted] told me it was her. b6 b7C

I want this being away from me and I no longer want to talk to her. Every time that I communicate about the things she has done to me, she hurts me in some way and I want this to stop. Good day.

Dear [redacted]

Hello fuckhead! What the fuck have you been doing to get rid of [redacted]? Probably nothing because you don't have the fucken balls to do anything about [redacted]. You let her do whatever she fucken wants! b6 b7C

Well Sir working for this temporary agency and I had one job last week that lasted a week, where I quit because it was fucken rotten. I hated the fucken work. This week Sir at another place and it is just as fucken shitty. The fucken factory operates on temporary employees. I figured I could work at a temporary agency for awhile until I start these courses that [redacted] thinks is going to solve all my financial problems. Now Sir looking for permanent full-time employment for a stable income and because I hate my job. I went to college to get a job that I would like, but [redacted] always got better ideas. She tells me how to run my life and she will harass and suppress me to comply with what she wants. b6 b7C

When I was going to the place I was going to apply at, [redacted] was making my fucken car smoke from her making oil squirt from the cylinder onto the engine block.

She has been gloating over my difficulties at work and me quitting from college because of her suppression. All I consider her as is a fucken suppressive OT. I am working at getting a girlfriend by joining all these dating services and even though they don't work, Sir doing what I should do. Why must I have to put up with this fucken slut for the last two years. For two years I've put up with this cunt and I hardly know the dog. I'm not her piece of meat she can use to masturbate and then after treat like an animal the rest of the time to fucken torture. She can inflict pain on her boyfriend [redacted] if she's so sadistic.

Last year [redacted] make my winter coat and gloves disappear when I was working at [redacted] in the [redacted] dept.

When I first bought my used car, [redacted] cracked my windshield on my car by permeating the glass, I guess, and snapping it. She also has not allowed me to use my own phone to make outside calls and now since I need it more because of the comm I need to do between the organization I'm taking this course from. Could you tell the cunt to let me use my own fucken telephone. Thank you buttHead.

[redacted] has been making my eyes bother me, making my mind bother me by adding mass to it and making me tired where my head hurts sometimes.

She also has been making my car kill repeatedly lately and making my steering difficult on my car. Could you tell the bitch to stop?

I've got to go now as when more is to be said I'll write again. Till then, bye anus sucker.

NARRATIVE

On Nov. 17, 1992 about 3:24AM, Officer [ ] and I were dispatched to [ ] County of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin. Dispatcher advised me there was a report of a subject in the lobby who was making threats to the resident in apartment [ ]. Upon our arrival, we observed a subject standing in the lobby near the intercom who was identified as [ ] M/W, [ ] of [ ] WI. We asked him what he was doing there and he said he was attempting to contact [ ] in apartment [ ]. I asked him if he had made any threats toward [ ] and he said, "No". Officer [ ] and Officer [ ] stayed with [ ] as I proceeded to apartment [ ] with Sgt. [ ] and spoke to the resident of [ ] F/W, DOB [ ]. She stated she started receiving calls from the subject she knew as [ ], at approximately 12:15 AM on 11/17/92. She was quite unsure what [ ] wanted, but she told him that this wasn't an appropriate hour, that they should speak about it the next day. She did not want to talk to the subject therefore she didn't answer the phone and plugged in her answering machine. She handed me a tape which she stated had obscene and harassing language on it from [ ]. She stated he called her fat white bitch and other names. She continued to ignore them but stated she received approximately 40 - 50 hangup calls between 12:15AM and 3:20AM at which point she heard her apartment buzzer and the person who identified himself as [ ] on the other end wanted to talk to her. She stated she did not want to talk to him. [ ] stated the calls kept her and her guests up for quite some time becoming increasingly harassing and obscene.

I went back down to the lobby and spoke to [ ] advising him that I had a recording of what he had stated to [ ]. I asked [ ] what he had said to [ ] he stated he called her a fat white bitch and swore at her. Mr. [ ] was arrested and transported back to the police department and placed in the interviewing room. I listened to the tape where I heard three different conversations involving [ ] and [ ]. One statement [ ] made was, "You're a fat white bitch", and the next one was, "You're a slut", and the next one was, "You're a whore", all of which ended with him hanging up after making the statements. I talked to [ ] AND asked him if he made these statements to [ ] over the telephone and he stated he did. He stated he was calling her from [ ] which is his residence. [ ] stated in all he made approximately 15 calls. He also stated that while making these calls he accidently dialed the 911 emergency center in Whitefish Bay, at which Shorewood Officers came to his residence and spoke to him about the 911 hangup call.

[ ] was issued a citation for Harassing/Obscene phone calls and was advised not to have any contact with [ ] unless he could proceed in a civilized manner ~~and in an~~ during an appropriate hour.

Hello. I have a problem lately of being kept up at night. I have it where my body is shaken and I cant get much sleep. I get piercing sensations through my limbs and abdomen. I also have it where my body is permeated and there is stimulation of my genitals. I have had it where there was nerves pinched in my brain. There is times when I feel being hit by an unknown force which I believe is called a pressor beam. Then there other times where there are sensations that I think are generated by tractor beams. I believe this is caused by [redacted]

[redacted] further advised that he would never send any more communications, either written or telephonic, to any location of the Church of Scientology. A driver's license check and a criminal history check revealed that [redacted] has a current Wisconsin driver's license, number R200-7306-8179-03, and that he does, in fact, live at [redacted] Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and that he is approximately five feet nine inches, 145 pounds, brown eyes, brown hair. RE: [redacted]

Dear [redacted]

Enclosed please find a letter I recently received concerning the above-named subject. While I have not read the letters involved, it appears as though [redacted] is stepping up is letter writing campaign against the victim in this case. It also appears as though some of his comments may rise to the level which warrant federal prosecution in light of his apparent instability.

I will provide these letters to you the next time you come to our office. The attorney for the Church of Scientology has advised me that he will also provide a police report which pertains to [redacted] arrest in Chicago recently.

Dear [redacted] Re: [redacted]

I want to update you on the [redacted] matter since we talked on December 16, 1994 and you indicated you had concluded there was not enough to prosecute under 28 U.S.C. § 876 (mailing threatening communications).

An agent of the FBI, [redacted] did apparently talk with [redacted] and warn him to cease and desist his letter campaign. (This information comes from a letter mailed by [redacted] to the Chuch of Scientology on January 13, 1995, a copy of which is enclosed.)

The interview had no effect on [redacted] who has continued to use the mails to make threatening communications. I enclose copies of several letters, all sent since January 10, 1995. Some of the contents are extremely troubling given that [redacted] has been warned about his behavior.

If you will notice, in the first letter, which I am advised was mailed January 13, 1995 he says "I have been told by a FBI agent that I was to not anymore communication with yous (sic). I had the appointment last Tuesday [January 10] with a man named [redacted] He talked to me about the letters I have been sending to RTC . . . and told me not to send anymore letters to Scientology."

The next letter which I have enclosed was postmarked January 26, 1995, refers to [redacted] (now [redacted], the woman with whom he has a fixation in his correspondence, and states "I'd like to beat [redacted] with a baseball bat." Note also the ending of this letter.

The next letter I have enclosed was postmarked February 13, 1995 and indicates [redacted] had intended to go to Chicago "to pass out papers that contained the shit [redacted] was doing to me and was going to fuck up [redacted] fucken Mazda Miata!" Later in that letter he states "I want to get rid of [redacted]

In a letter postmarked February 4, 1995, [redacted] indicated he had been thinking about killing himself the previous week. He then stated "this week I want to go down to Chicago and light her car on fire and throw home made bombs through the windows of the Org."

In a letter postmarked February 7, 1995 [redacted] stated he was prevented from going to Chicago to put a bottle of urine in [redacted] car to foul up the engine when his own car refused to start.

I also enclose a most recent letter postmarked February 23, 1995, which includes the following:

> You fucken cocksuckers I wish would pay for what she is doing, but I will be subdued and quieted so I can't fucken fight back because of the anal-fucked mother fucken hoar! You got to keep me contained and controlled and all I want to do is tear that fucken bitch from Chicago Org's head off. You fuckers! If I had my wish I try to kill you, but that is only your bodies I'd fucken hurt.

Another letter postmarked on February 1, 1995, also merits attention:

I HATE the fucken bitch! Don't you understand English! . . . You still don't get the stinken message! I'll spell it out! I HATE THE FUCKEN BITCH AND I WANT TO GET RID OF THE SLUT!

I would have to break a WOG law in order to possibly get [redacted] back and get rid of her, but I would go to jail or prison. I want to get away from [redacted] forever!

Another letter, also postmarked February 1, 1995, was received in which [redacted] states:

I want her money and I want to fucken break her fucken face . . .

All I want now IS REVENGE: I AM NOT GOING TO WORK WITH HER. I am only going to try to get back!

These are representative samples of what has been mailed to representatives of the Church of Scientology in Chicago and in Los Angeles. There are dozens of these letters that continue to be sent on a regular basis since January 10, 1995. It is obvious that use of the mails for threatening communications will not cease without further intervention by federal officials.

Church of Scientology officials have expressed a deep concern that [redacted] may be dangerous to himself or to others. We simply cannot sit back and wait for these threats to be carried into execution.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

I would appreciate it if you would review these materials, as well as the prior communications, and let me know what can be done. Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours very truly,

[redacted]

HEY FUCKHEADS!

Dear bastard or bitch,

Hello you fucken gonads! [redacted] has been quite quiet lately. Talking about her fucken ex-husband and fucken boyfriend doesn't make the genital wart sucking bear happy! Especially when I tell you about the slut having anal and oral sex.

[redacted] has been making the steering on my stuff when it is difficult to turn the mother fucken god-damn steering wheel!

I didn't have to beat my dick the night before, but I had to last night because the cant had to have me shoot my wad!

Last night and tonight a bit [redacted] was shooting particle beams or pinching nerves. Whatever it was, she was hurting me by a piercing pain that was in my stomach, side and back. You call that fucken help, you mother fucken cocksuckers!

I've sent you my banking Transactions. Isn't that fucken proof that [redacted] is suppressing me financially so I will never be able to make enough money to get ahead. She will probably never let me make money in order to ever come back to at least get the auditing to just finish my KTL. She doesn't want me to get any fucken where! I can't even be left the fuck alone! You have to have some fucken cock sucking [redacted] suppress me to keep me away so I am fucken tortured and suppressed for the rest of this lifetime. You fucken cocksuckers I wish would pay for what she is doing, but I will be sedated and quieted so I can't fucken fight back because of the anal-fucked mother fucken hose! You got to keep me contained and controlled and all I want to do is tear that fucken bitch from [redacted] head off. You fuckers! If I had my wish I try to kill you, but that is only your bodies id fucken hurt. I wish there was a way to trap you fucken past life faggots just like [redacted] says that OTs find out what the people once were on this planet!

Dear Sir or Madam,

Hello. I have been told by a FBI agent that I was to not anymore communication with you. I had the appointment last Tuesday with a man named [redacted] He talked to me about the letters I have been sending to ATC and had sent to [redacted] He asked me questions pertaining to my name, date of birth, SS# etc. and told me not to send anymore letters to Scientology. I was told a couple days before by the phone reg. at ATC that my only terminal was IJC. There was supposedly a paper there also that was from a lawyer, but I didn't have a chance to read it and that if I was to write again to Scientology that I was going to be prosecuted for the letters I've been sending because it is a federal offense. [redacted] has been making me have outbursts again like when he in my car when he shouting and yelling. I get tense and the muscles in my neck get tight. She also makes my mind bother me by adding mass so I have to touch my head to relieve the pressure. [redacted] also makes my steering stiff on my car get and it is difficult to turn the steering wheel. I have a leak on my tank

b7C

b6

that holds the windshield wiper fluid and could of been caused when the mechanic that fixed my car punctured it when he was replacing the two belts on my car when [redacted] made my car inoperative a week and a half ago. I could not drive the car for five days and had to get it towed to the garage to get repaired. The mechanic had to replace the battery because [redacted] ruined it. The total cost was $205.18. After that she was making my car sound like it wouldn't turn over and I just got the battery replaced.

When I was at jury duty, [redacted] once shot a beam of energy up my anus when I was at recess sitting in a chair and made me jump in my seat a bit because of the pain. [redacted] had been hitting me with pressor beams again and when she was making me have gallbladder attacks, she would permeate my throat. She has been pinching nerves like in my jaw on the right side, in my heart and also on the right forearm. [redacted] also likes reminding me about my case and it is always about the same incidents when I was in the Army. Another irritant she does once in a great while is make me almost choke on my own saliva. I have

b7C

b6

to tip my head to be able to swallow the saliva. b6 b7C

[redacted] continues to keep me up and/or wake me up in the middle of the morning and/or early in the morning. She woke me up two days in a row at 6:00 am when I had my clock set for 7:00 am and sometimes wakes me up at 3:00 Am for no reason. I was awaken at 4:00 am this morning and my clock was set for 5:00 am. I feel like crap and I can never get enough sleep.

I have to pay $108.12 back to the Army because [redacted] forced me to quit college and made me quit all of my classes. I hate the fucken bitch! b6 b7C

I bought a $4,999 course last weekend at the business workshop and I was trying to return it and I can't because due to the nature of software I can't return it back to the Charles J. Givens Org. I feel [redacted] is influencing the situation here and there and I would like her to leave me alone. b6 b7C

I still can't use my telephone yet and I am severly handicapped from being able to communicate to start running my business.

[redacted] wants me now to start sticking things up my anus. She already stuck an X-acto knife handle up my ass and also a broom handle twice up it. She also shaved my pubic hair around my genitals several times within the last several months and recently shaved around my sphincter. [redacted] really gets off on that. [redacted] continues to have me masturbate every night and I ejaculate in a rag on my bed.

I do not like [redacted] and she is a very antagonistic being and I detest this being. I have nothing to do with her.

b6

Dear boyfriend or bitch,

Hello you fucken dick-fucking fuckers! [redacted] is still fucken making my car smoke like fucken hell at intersections usually and when s/he sitting at an intersection the fucken smoke just rolls out from underneath the hood! What the fuck is that supposed to fucken prove! b6 b7C [redacted] has been making my hands perspire when s/he working at my day job. It is difficult to assemble tubes and clips when my hands are slippery, you know fuckhead!

She has been making me have outbursts at home at night and when I would be in my fucken car! She gets me mad then has me react emotionally where it isn't me doing it. Then when I do get angry at her she controls my thoughts and emotions where sometimes I'm being subdued. I can't express my feelings and my hatred for the fucken bitch!

[redacted] talks through the people on the phone when s/he telemarketing lately on my second job. [redacted] wanted me to stick something up my anus again so I stuck the weightlifting piece that is a bar up my sphincter. She enjoyed it, I am sure! It sure felt really good to me! I cumsed a bucket full of cum. I couldn't believe it. It felt like I was going to bleed out my dick! b6 b7C

When the fuck are you going to get this nymphomaniac away from me? I believe my prison term is up fuckhead! Someone else can get their dick played with. I'll lead her out for her services.

Last week about this time [redacted] had me upset where I was thinking about suicide again! I was thinking about killing myself last Friday, but she changed my mind like she usually does. This week I want to go down to Chicago and light her car on fire and throw homemade bombs through the windows of the Org. [redacted] working on changing my mind on that too. I've been going on a sort of roller coaster lately. I want to pass out letters to her & friends to show what the fuck she has been doing to me. What do you think of that idea?

I've got to go. See ya fuckhead!

[redacted]

b6

I HATE [redacted]!

Dear bastard or bitch,

Hello fuckhead! You mayerfucking cockcuckers are sure fucken slow on getting rid of the slut of the fucken universe! [redacted] has fucken changed the startup of the DOS when I start my computer when it is turned on. It would be nice if she fixes it because I do know how to repair it.

I went outside naked three nights ago because [redacted] has been bothering me about it and I masturbated in a corner near the apartment building. I went back inside after I was done and wiped my dick off because there was cum all over it.

[redacted] has been having me masturbate every night in a row and she plays with my sphincter. Two nights I've stuck the bar up my anus because [redacted] likes it when I do it. When I press against my prostate gland semen oozes out of my dick. She likes it when I rotate the bar around and move it in and out when the bar is up my anus.

[redacted] kept me up till 1 to 1:30 AM in the morning Saturday night by squeezing my buttocks and hitting me with frozen beans. I was planning to go to Chicago to pass out letters I've sent to Fldg, RTC and IJC about what [redacted] has fucker done to me for the last two years and four months. I was thinking about putting a bottle of wine in [redacted] car to fuck up the engine since she is ruining my car! I couldn't turn my car over because [redacted] prevented me so that I couldn't go to Chicago. She has something to hide and I want to expose the fucken bitch! [redacted] didn't want me to masturbate like might before so I didn't have to. My dick was left alone for awhile.

I didn't send a letter last Saturday or this morning because there wasn't much happening exactly and I didn't have time. I work two jobs and trying to start a business.

I hope you are more fucken updated now clit-licker. I got other things to do like get some sleep than write this fucken letter on [redacted]. Bye fuckhead!!! [redacted]

FUCKHEAD !!!

Dear Sir or Madam,

b6
b7C

Hello you motherfucker asshole! [redacted] is still around. The reason why she is wasting my money is because I am not getting a girlfriend and spending it at least on a dating service. When I do try she still wastes my money so I have said the hell with it. I won't even ~~attempt~~ make an attempt because the fucken rotten bitch punishes me anyways if I don't get a god-damn girlfriend. I can't get a girlfriend easily and I'd like to beat [redacted] with a baseball bat. It's a loss-loss situation because [redacted] breaks my property, antagonizes me, wastes my money etc. and I don't get a woman worth this kind of relationship to a fucken suppressive OT. I have no reason to even try anymore - I give up. If I kill myself [redacted] has said that she would operate my body as if I was in it, duplicate my personality and run it. The body. [redacted] is only interested in the fucken body. She has been making me have outbursts again and make muscles jump side to side of my face.

b6
b7C

I hate the fucken hour!

She didn't have masturbate last night which is two nights in a row, a fucken record for [redacted], the pervert. [redacted] kept me up though till 11:30 PM. [redacted] is giving me a headache all fucken day and doing so by adding mass to my mind in permeating my head. Tell the bitch to go away.

I've got to go, I got another got to go to and I'm very busy. I don't have time for the fucken bitches slut.

By your motherfucken dickhead [redacted]

I HATE [redacted]!

Dear bastard or bitch,

Hello you fucken cocksuckers! I have been without the use of my car for five days because I was going to go to Chicago and pass out papers that contained the shit [redacted] was doing to me and was going to fuck up [redacted] fucken Mazda Miata! The reason was that I couldn't use my car because [redacted] wouldn't let me start it. Wednesday I tried to jump start the car from a friend's truck and Thursday finally got it started when we cleaned off the spark plugs and took the air filter cap off. The car turned over and it has been running since [redacted] likes it when I stick the weightlifting bar up my anus when I'm masturbating and I did it Wednesday and Thursday night. She wanted me to masturbate tonight and I did so also.

I talked to [redacted] last Wednesday afternoon at the Chicago Org- about [redacted] She was evaluating what I was saying on some things and I know she knows it is [redacted] that is doing this shit to me.

b7C

b6
b7C

She was telling me to stop writing letters for awhile and I disagree totally! That I should be nicer how I talk, but I want to get rid of [redacted] I simply hate the BOP!

[redacted] has been making me feel apathetic and making my intentions of reducing them. She is like changing my thoughts sort of. I guess she wants to keep me in a lower condition until I get a girlfriend and subdue me since I have gotten one yet. She keeps touching me with tractor beams like she can't touch something else like her boyfriend [redacted] cock.

I get tired of [redacted] and want her to go pick on someone else. I'm not doing anything to her. I just want to be left alone. Oh, one more thing. I'll try real hard to talk nicer from now on.

Bye now.

[redacted]

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

I HATE [redacted]!

Dear bastard or bitch,

Hello you motherfucken cocksuckers! What the fuck is up? I'm having one fucken roller day after another with the slut of the universe fucking with me and it has been fucken HELL for the last two years and three months. [redacted] has been making my fucken car smoke at practically every fukken intersection I fucken stop off at when I'm driving. I can't have a fucken car without her fucken with it! b6 b7C

I still can't use my motherfucken telephone you fucken bastards! [redacted] had me beat my cock last night again. I jammed in a rag that I had laid on my bed I want you to suck my dick as well as [redacted] I'm going to send some semen to see for yourself, you anal-licking animal.

I heard [redacted] stuck something up her boyfriend's asshole. She fucked [redacted] last Saturday and probably used her vibrator, the same one she used everyday to keep her fucken twat wet... b6 b7C

... After work [redacted] talks through the person I carpool with and acts sarcastic because I'm sending these fucken letters, which I have a fucken right since there is the Second Amendment, if you morons even believe in that! The right to speak! I know it is the fucken [redacted] slut and I try to carry a conversation with my friend, but all along it is the god-damn cunt! b6 b7C

Then when Sin working at my other job she controls the people on the phone and what they say! I know she controls if they are rude and if they buy a subscription of the paper Sin trying to sell!

I HATE the fucken bitch! Don't you understand English! You think you cow-fucking ass wipes would understand since I know all Sea Org mostly have taken the KTL. You still don't get the stinker message! I'll spell it out! I HATE THE FUCKEN BITCH AND I WANT TO GET RID OF THE SLUT!

She is downright vicious and plays with my mind telling me she can help me get up the Bridge. She controls my mind to make me feel like I don't have hatred for this bitch. [redacted] can't do a fucken thing, only the Sea Org determines if I go up the Bridge. She is a fucken liar! [redacted] is a fucken god-damn lying bitch who is saying all kinds of fucken bullshit and trying to make herself look good from all the things she has done. I don't trust the bitch and she can try to justify her actions which are basically malicious to me.

I would have to break a WOG law in order to possibly get [redacted] back and get rid of her, but I would go to jail or prison. I want to get away from [redacted] forever. [redacted]

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

I HATE [redacted]!

b6
b7C

Dear bastard or bitch,

Hello you motherfuckers! You fuckers haven't gotten rid of the fucken bitch yet! Just because she has said she is my friend and because I'm now writing to IOC and have written to RTC means she is helping me now instead of suppressing like she was doing before! It is the same story as always, to suppress me and say she is helping me to get a girlfriend! It is a fucken lie! There is more to it! She want to play with my cock and control my life, especially it having to do with sex. The bitch controls my feelings and doesn't let me express my anger towards her, like today. I can't be myself and she is controlling people around me and how they act towards me.

The fucken bitch is a malicious fucker who is wasting my money and has been saying to me she will make it up to me! Fuck! I just want the bitch to fuck off and leave! I haven't seen a fucken thing and it has been two years and three months.

A god-damn prisoner has more rights than I do! At least he gets privacy! I don't even get that at all! I'm constantly being monitored every waking moment by the fucken, voyeuristic, Peeping Tom hoar!

I got some fucken shit from the Charles J. Givens Org. I know I didn't even fucken order and I know is worth fucken hundreds of dollars! It is [redacted] that did it and this is how she is going to pay me back? I want her money and I want to fucken break her fucken face! That is how I want to be repaid, not someone else's money! Fuck, if she wants to help me she can go fuck herself and get the fuck away from me! You fuckers take a blind eye to this and look the other way, don't you! [redacted] is the one out-ethics right now, not me dumb-fucks! [redacted] had me masturbate last night and after I came home from my day job. I will sent some cum soon! b6 b7C [redacted] has been making my fucken car smoke like fucken hell again and I had to put two quarts of oil in it today and a quart this last week. She has been making my car chug also when I'm accelerating from a stand still.

This is going to be a different year, the first two years I tried to cooperate with [redacted] and tried to get a girlfriend even though she suppressed me, attempted to kill me and forced me out of college! All I want now IS REVENGE! I am not going to work with her. I am only going to try to get back! b6 b7C

I HATE THE BITCH AND HOPE SHE LOSSES HER BRIDGE AND GETS KICKED OUT OF THE [redacted] ORG.!!!

Bye you fucken cocksuckers!!! [redacted]

FD-302 (Rev. 3-10-82)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 4/7/95

On April 7, 1995, [redacted] white male, date of birth [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent as Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and the reason for the interview. b6 b7C [redacted] was then shown an Advice of Rights form, FD-395, which he read, stated he understood and signed the waiver form.

[redacted] viewed the original six letters along with the original six envelopes which were sent to the I.J.C., 6331 North Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90028. [redacted] reviewed the six original envelopes and the six letters and initialed and dated them as of April 7, 1995, and noted that he is initialing them and dating them because he wrote them. b6 b7C

One envelope was dated January 26, 1995, two were dated February 1, 1995, one was dated February 4, 1995, one was dated February 7, 1995, and the last was dated February 23, 1995. All envelopes had a return address of [redacted] Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

[redacted] used threatening language in the letters so that he would scare the I.J.C., which is located in Los Angeles, California, into doing something about [redacted] When [redacted] was asked the question whether or not he ever met [redacted] he advised that he had never met her personally. He stated that she talks to him telepathically and forces him to do things that he does not want to do. [redacted] again advised that he does not know [redacted] and has never been formally introduced to her. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that the letters were meant to provoke a reaction in the I.J.C., in hopes that they would do something about [redacted]

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The purpose of this report is to record the initial data of an individual's arrest and thereafter secure the final disposition of the arrest at the earliest possible time from either the arresting agency, the prosecutor or the court having jurisdiction. (INTERIM DISPOSITION INFORMATION, e.g., RELEASED ON BOND, SHOULD NOT BE SUBMITTED.) The SUBJECT'S NAME, CONTRIBUTOR AND ARREST NUMBER should be exactly the same as they appear on the fingerprint card IN THE FILES OF THE FBI. The FBI number should be indicated, if known. Agency ultimately making final disposition will complete and mail form to: FBI Identification Division, Washington, D.C. 20537.

2. The arresting agency should fill in all arrest data on left side of form and obtain the finger impressions of the right four fingers simultaneously. This should be done at the same time as the full set of fingerprints are taken on the arrest fingerprint card. If the arrest is disposed of by the arresting agency, as where the arrestee is released without charge, then the arresting agency should fill in this final disposition and mail form to FBI Identification Division. Of course, if final disposition is known when arrest fingerprint card is submitted it should be noted thereon and this form is then unnecessary. In the event the case goes to the prosecutor, this form should be forwarded to the prosecutor with arrestee's case file.

3. The prosecutor should complete the form to show final disposition at the prosecution level if the matter is not being referred for court action and thereafter submit form directly to FBI Identification Division. If court action required, the prosecutor should forward form with case file to court having jurisdiction.

4. The court should complete this form as to final court disposition such as when arrested person is acquitted, case is dismissed, on conviction and when sentence imposed or sentence suspended and person placed on probation.

5. When arrested person convicted or enters guilty plea to lesser or different offense than that charged when originally arrested, this information should be clearly indicated.

6. If subsequent action taken to seal or expunge record, attach certified or authenticated copy of court order to this form so that FBI can return arrestee's fingerprints to original contributor.

7. It is vitally important for completion of subject's record in the FBI Identification Division files that Final Disposition Report be submitted in every instance where fingerprints previously forwarded without final disposition noted thereon.

SHOOTING INCIDENT AT THE CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY CELEBRITY CENTER, PORTLAND OREGON
September 25, 1996

On September 25, 1996, shortly before noon, a 38 year old man named [redacted] entered the Church of Scientology Celebrity Center in Portland, Oregon. He opened fire with a semi-automatic pistol and shot four staff members. He held a fifth staff member hostage until his surrender to the police minutes later outside of the Celebrity Center. He also poured gasoline on the floor of the reception area of the Church and set it on fire. b6 b7C

One of the staff members who was shot is a 44 year old, pregnant woman. She was shot twice and is currently paralyzed. She will be having an operation shortly to remove the bullet and, hopefully, resolve the paralysis. She has not lost the child she is carrying. The Executive Director of the Celebrity Center and a staff member from a Church of Scientology from another city are still hospitalized, in fair condition. The out of town staff member will have additional surgery to handle abdominal damage from the shooting. The fourth staff member suffered only a superficial wound and has been released from the hospital.

Data has been obtained on the shooter. He is a 38 year old, naturalized citizen from Kenya. He has a history of criminal conduct and of past threats to kill staff at the the Church of Scientology Celebrity Center in Portland.

Data has been collected on [redacted] in an effort to determine who he is and why he committed this crime. It was learned that [redacted] had a very brief contact with the Portland Church in June, 1985, taking a short, introductory course and reading some Scientology books. He took no further services at any Church of Scientology and had no further contact with any Church until 1994. However we have found a Vancouver, Washington Department of Corrections report from August, 1989. The probation officer recommended that a bench warrant be issued on [redacted] for jumping bail. The probation officer noted that [redacted] had been "confused and agitated ... he would often hear voices in his head which he would talk to out loud." At the time [redacted] blamed his mental state on his contact with the Church of Scientology in Portland four years earlier. He complained that "whenever he goes to Portland they have mind control over him and he can no longer control his behavior." [See, TAB A] b6 b7C

Although the details of his whereabouts are not known except from public record documents, it has been learned that lived in San Francisco at various times in the 1992-1995 period and that had started a business called Phoenix Lighting Company. He lived in low-income housing at three locations -- all within 7 blocks of the San Francisco Church although he never took any services from the Church.

[redacted] next contact with the Church occurred in 1994. At that time he was living in San Francisco. He was living in some sort of half-way house and was described by an individual who met him at the time as "a crazy black guy" who believed that he was "possessed." [redacted] came to the Church of Scientology in San Francisco and threatened to bomb it. He warned that the next time would not be a joke. This incident was reported to the police. b6 b7C

On February 1, 1996 he again called the Portland Church. at this time he complained that his life had been going downhill since his initial contact with the Church which he claimed was six years earlier. He demanded $50,000 in restitution and threatened to come into the Church several days later and kill everyone if he were not paid this money. The police were notified of this threat. [redacted] called back several days later, as he had promised. The police were again notified. They were able to trace the call and locate him. He was arrested. At the time of his arrest he had a loaded .45 pistol and .38 revolver in his possession and approximately 150 rounds of ammunition. The police arrest reports detail his delusional state, his fixation that he was being mentally controlled by the Church of Scientology and that he intended to kill the woman to whom he had made the extortion threat. Interestingly, [redacted] mentioned to one of the police officers that he had decided that he was being controlled by the Church after reading of allegations of "mind control" in a newspaper. He also said that it was at that time that he decided that he was owed restitution. He plea bargained the charge down to a misdemeanor of "coercion," plead "no contest," and was sentenced to a year on parole and ordered to stay away from the Church and the woman he had threatened. [See Tab B, for reports of this incident and its handling.] b6 b7C

[redacted] next contact with the Church was on September 25th when he made good on his threat by entering the Church premises and opening fire with a semi-automatic pistol. [redacted] also poured gasoline on the floor and lit it. He then took a woman as hostge and left the premises, holding her at gunpoint. The police convinced him to surrender and he was arrested. [See Tab C for press reports on the incident.] b6 b7C

On September 26, 1996 [redacted] was charged with 4 counts of aggravated attempted murder, 2 counts of arson, 4 counts of 1st b6 b7C degree assault, 1 count of burglary & 1 count of kidnapping. The recommended bail was $770,000.00 but the court refused to allow bail at all. [redacted] did not enter a plea, as that will not done until next week on October 2, 1996, once the Grand Jury returns an indictment. On October 3, [redacted] will be intereviewed to determine if he is eligible for being released on his Own Recognizance or on bail (however, he is not expected to be released at all). The case will then be set for trial in approximately 90-150 days. b6 b7C

THE SHOOTING: Suspect had threatened church members

By BRYAN SMITH and DAVID R. ANDERSON of The Oregonian staff

Seven months ago, Jairus Chegero Godeka threatened to kill everyone in the Portland Church of Scientology unless they gave him $50,000 for ruining his life.

On Wednesday, police say, Godeka walked into the church's downtown Portland office and shot and wounded four people, including a pregnant receptionist.

Godeka set a fire and briefly took another woman hostage at the church's Portland Celebrity Centre before a police officer persuaded him to surrender.

The attack brought activity on Southwest Salmon Street and Broadway to a halt as police and firefighters massed in front of the office. Workers in and around the Scientology center scrambled for cover after hearing shots, some turning back to see a bloody victim clutching his chest stumble onto the sidewalk.

Godeka apparently was motivated by a grudge against the church. He blames the organization for ruining him financially and thinks it has kept him from bringing his sister here from Kenya to study, according to police reports.

In San Francisco, where Godeka lived recently, he sent a remote-controlled toy tank in front of the Church of Scientology branch, with the message: "Next time, it will be real."

In February, he called the Portland offices, repeatedly demanding money for the ruin of what he described to police as a San Francisco company that sold lighting equipment.

The receptionist, Helen M. Burke, apparently was the primary target of Godeka's threats because she was the one who answered the phone.

Burke, 44 and pregnant, was in critical condition Wednesday night at University Hospital with a gunshot wound to the chest and an abdominal injury. Doctors said she had some paralysis from the bullet, which lodged near her spine, but that it was too early to tell whether the condition would be permanent. Burke is in her second trimester; the fetus was unharmed.

Carlos Colon, 24, was in serious condition. Colon, a visitor from the church's Clearwater, Fla., branch, suffered a gunshot wound to the chest.

Steven Roy Crandell, 45, was in fair condition. Crandell, executive director of the church, was shot in the abdomen.

A third man, Jim M. Stone, was shot in the hip but did not realize he had been injured until nearly an hour later, when he pulled out his wallet and discovered a bullet had pierced it. He smiled and waved as rescue workers wheeled him to an ambulance. He was treated and released.

Wednesday's attack occurred as the lunch crowd began to fill the downtown sidewalks near the church's center at 709 S.W. Salmon St., across from the Heathman Hotel.

Police said the gunman walked in the front door, carrying a red plastic gasoline container and a .45-caliber Ruger semiautomatic handgun. He shot Burke, who sat in the lobby just inside the door. Crandell and Colon came downstairs, and he shot and wounded them. Others hit the floor, while workers upstairs fled through a back door.

The gunman spread gasoline and started a fire that set off two sprinklers. He grabbed a woman, Jacqueline Stone, the wife of Jim Stone, and headed through interior passages to a fire exit on the west end of the building.

Meanwhile, witnesses rushed to call 9-1-1, including a man from inside the church who ran to Macheezmo Mouse next door.

"He was frantic," said Jen Kneedler, 21, who was working at the restaurant. "He kept asking where a phone was and said that a person had been shot next door. . . . He said he had been shot at."

Charles Mann, a course instructor who was upstairs in the church office, said, "We knew we had to get out of there. We just heard shots and took off."

Mel Murphy, on his way to lunch with a co-worker, saw men running and flames inside the building. Crandell was hobbling down the sidewalk.

"He said, 'I've been shot, I've been shot, I've been shot,' " Murphy said.

Murphy, who had called 9-1-1 on a cellular phone, saw a second man, Colon, who had been shot in the stomach.

As Murphy helped with the two men, a co-worker Mike Picco tried to get in a door to help Burke. Before he could, he said, "Someone yelled, "Gun! There's a guy with a gun! Everyone dives behind cars."

Portland firefighter Rob L. Burson was among the first to arrive. He rushed to the office door just as the gunman burst out with his arm around Jacqueline Stone, a gun to her head.

"I saw what was going on, and I knew I didn't want to be there," he said. "I yelled 'gun' and then ran and told others to get back."

As the gunman opened a metal fire door, Portland police Officer Tom Mack and homicide Detective Sgt. Dave Rubey were on the sidewalk.

The gunman stepped back inside.

"My assessment was he wanted it to end right there," Mack said."He said, 'I don't want to die. I don't want you to shoot me.' "

Mack decided a quick resolution was better than pushing the gunman back into a burning building with Stone.

Mack talked him into opening the door a crack. He convinced the gunman that police wouldn't hurt him.

"My word wasn't good enough for him," Mack said.

The gunman wanted Mack to put down his gun. First Mack tried to hide his gun behind his leg.

"He's not that crazy," Mack later reflected.

Mack agreed to put his gun down if the gunman did. Mack knew there were other officers nearby.

Mack holstered his gun first.

But the gunman balked when he spotted another officer across the street with a gun.

So Mack went a step further, turning his back, briefly, on the gunman. Mack told the officer to move.

"I think that was the turning point," Mack said.

The gunman allowed Stone to kneel and then put down his gun behind her. Then Godeka knelt and let Mack handcuff him.

Mack said everyone stayed cool during the standoff, which didn't last much longer than a minute.

Even the hostage did well.

Stone yelled through the closed door that Godeka was trying to talk to Mack. She also told Mack to step closer and show his empty hands.

"She seemed pretty calm," Mack said. "I thought she handled herself really well."

Firefighters quickly doused the blaze.

Godeka is accused of four counts of attempted aggravated murder, arson, kidnapping, three counts of first-degree assault, [redacted] count of second-degree assault and [redacted] count of burglary. He will be arraigned today.

Wednesday's attack was apparently the culmination of Godeka's longstanding grudge against the Portland and San Francisco Church of Scientology offices.

Godeka has listed several addresses [redacted] in Portland and San Francisco after numerous arrests on traffic violations, including drunken driving and driving without insurance.

In February, Godeka pleaded no contest to attempted coercion in connection with the calls to the church's Portland branch.

"He could give me no specifics of what we had actually done to him and what his business was," Burke told Portland police in February. "He said he had lost everything that was dear to him."

At one point, Godeka told Burke that his anger stemmed from something that had happened at the San Francisco branch, but that the Church of Scientology is all "the same thing."

She said Godeka first [redacted] to the Portland office five or six years ago and took [redacted] free personality test and bought some books. She thinks he might also have signed up for a home study course.

At least one earlier police report involved extortion attempts against the church, but details were not available Wednesday.

After Godeka was introduced to Scientology, "they imprisoned my mind to do what they wanted me to do," he told police in February. He also complained to police that the church got him deported to Kenya in 1986 and that Burke was controlling his mind.

The organization is a self-enhancement movement that emphasizes counseling and an approach to problem-solving called Dianetics that was created by church founder L. Ron Hubbard.

Jeff Quiros, special affairs director for the San Francisco church, said Godeka also had threatened workers there in recent months.

"He was just babbling and threatening to kill everybody. He was just saying things that didn't make sense," Quiros said.

The news Wednesday shocked the San Francisco church.

"How can you make sense of senseless acts of violence?" Quiros said. "It's a scary thing. I don't know what would make someone do something like that."

"It's disturbing, and it's shocking," added Angie Mann, public affairs director for the Portland center. "Scientologists are honest, ethical people who want to help. Our goal is toward [redacted] world without crime and a world without insanity."

Peter Farrell, Laura Trujillo and Chastity Pratt of The Oregonian staff contributed to this report.

THE SUSPECT: Jairus Godeka holds church responsible for shattering his American dream

By BRYAN SMITH and PHIL MANZANO
of The Oregonian staff

He came from Kenya in 1979 to "accomplish something in America," he said, his hopes fueled by high expectations from friends and family.

But Jairus Godeka felt his dream fade to "gloom and doom," after he was introduced to the Church of Scientology in 1980, he told police.

"They imprisoned my mind to do what they wanted me to do," he said.

That belief may explain why Godeka is accused of shooting and wounding four people — Helen Burke, Carlos Colon, Steven Crandell and Jim Stone — and starting a fire in the Church of Scientology office in downtown Portland on Wednesday.

Interviews with friends, acquaintances and former in-laws, and an examination of police records, reveal a man who was hard-working and earnest but whose past is plagued by alcohol abuse, violent behavior, a broken marriage and financial problems.

GODEKA

They also show a man obsessed by the belief that his troubles all stem from the Church of Scientology.

A judge entered a not-guilty plea for Godeka Thursday, after he was arraigned in the Justice Center in Portland on charges of attempted aggravated murder, arson, kidnapping, assault and burglary.

The turn of events shocked at least one friend, who describes Godeka as a gentle man who was "mild-mannered and had a great desire to please everyone" — someone who was far from crazy and worked hard to make a fledgling business successful.

Police records, however, show another side: one of violence, drunkenness and obsession.

In a long, sometimes rambling statement to police in February, Godeka detailed a variety of grievances he had with Scientology and said how for years he felt the organization should be made to pay $50,000 for ruining his life.

Born in Kenya in 1958, Godeka said he came to the United States on a visa.

Godeka's in-laws, who asked that their names not be used, said Thursday that he came to study business administration at a college in Vancouver, Wash., several years ago.

They said he and his estranged wife, Christina, met while he was a student. The two married in Vancouver and lived there for three or four months before moving to Portland.

About five years into the marriage, they said, Godeka found Scientology.

A month after he did, the in-laws said, Godeka sold his belongings, including a stereo the couple owned, and left his wife.

"The Church of Scientology told him he had to cleanse or purify himself and to leave her," Christina's mother said. "He was fine until he got involved with that church."

The mother described Godeka as "intelligent, hard-working and honest."

"It's not like he'd just go bonkers. He was looking for help, someone to just listen to him," she said.

After the breakup, he moved to San Francisco, where, he told police, he had a business called Phoenix Lighting.

Max Adelson, who provided an answering service to Godeka in San Francisco, remembers how hard the Kenyan worked.

Adelson, who describes himself as a friend, said Godeka went door-to-door selling light fixtures and for a time found success.

"He was all business, mild mannered, very gentle and had a great desire to please everybody," Adelson said. "He's a nice pleasant kind of guy that tried to make a living.

"This (shooting) startled the hell out of us."

In court documents and police records, Godeka listed his address in San Francisco as the Cadillac Hotel at 380 Eddy St.

The four-story building, converted into single rooms that rent for $225 a month — $175 without a bathroom — sits in San Francisco's Tenderloin district, a run-down area plagued by vagrancy, prostitution and drug use.

For Godeka, the hotel had one convenience: it sat five blocks from San Francisco's Church of Scientology office on McAllister Street.

Over the next few years, Godeka shuttled between San Franciso and Portland, where he lived in several places. But no matter where he lived, he could not seem to escape his obsession with the church.

In his statement to police, Godeka said he became attracted to Scientology after a session at the Portland branch to familiarize himself with the group's philosophies.

He then took a free personality test and bought some books.

At some point, however, he began to feel that several church employees were controlling his mind, he said.

One person particularly troubled him: Burke, the receptionist at the Portland branch, who would become one of his gunshot victims.

"It was Helen," he said in one interview with police. "Helen's kept me a prisoner all these years." Burke, who is in serious condition, could not be reached for comment.

By December 1995, court records began to show traffic arrests such as drunken driving, driving with an open container and driving without insurance.

Godeka told police that he began to believe the organization had somehow kept his sister from coming to America from Kenya to get her master's degree.

He told police the church had caused his lighting business $100,000 in damages, and that he had failed: himself, his family and his friends.

"He said he was embarrassed because of the expectations of his family and friends that he was to accomplish something in America" but didn't, Portland Police detective William Johnston wrote in one report.

As usual, Scientology was to blame.

Godeka first demanded money in 1994 in a call to Angela Mann, spokeswoman for the Portland branch, police reports indicate.

Meanwhile, during trips to San Francisco, Godeka made threats to workers at the Scientology office there.

Then, in January 1996, while back in Portland, he cased the downtown Scientology office at Southwest Salmon Street and Broadway for two weeks and began placing phone calls again.

Police records show the first came Feb. 1, when he told Burke that he would kill everyone in the office unless the church came up with $50,000.

He called again, several times, on Feb. 5, with the same threats.

He was arrested that day at the Travel Inn motel at 800 E. Burnside St. A hotel clerk said Godeka had been drunk and obnoxious.

To the officers, however, Godeka was polite and helpful.

In fact, he said, he knew who had sent them.

When officer K.S. Leighton asked how, Godeka didn't hesitate.

"Because they're using you," he replied.

Staff writers Chastity Pratt and Peter Farrell contributed to this report.

THE CHURCH: Is it a religion or a cult? Observers disagree on the organization

By MARK O'KEEFE
of The Oregonian staff

Walk along Southwest Salmon Street off Broadway in downtown Portland, and you can't miss the large yellow sidewalk sign, between Macheezmo Mouse and John Helmer haberdasher.

It says, "Free Personality Test."

"That's a come-on," said Robert V. Young of Seattle, who handled public relations for the Church of Scientology for more than 20 years before becoming one of its most vocal critics. "They fish you out, based on the questions."

But the Church of Scientology, which claims more than 8 million members worldwide, views the personality test as an invitation to a path of self-discovery and enhancement.

On Thursday, a day after a gunman shot four people in the church's Salmon Street Celebrity Centre, police began investigating connections between the church and Jairus C. Godeka, who says his life and finances were ruined by Scientology.

That investigation, and the violence that prompted it, again have drawn attention to a church that has been enmeshed in controversy since its inception. And it brought church officials out in force to defend and explain their beliefs — and to argue that the church is the victim of misunderstanding and prejudice.

Founded by science fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard about 40 years ago, Scientology is embraced by Hollywood celebrities including John Travolta, Tom Cruise, Priscilla and Lisa Marie

Presley, and musicians Chick Corea and Isaac Hayes.

"Far too much weight is given to the discolored opinion of one person rather than the millions of people who have had a good experience," said Gail Armstrong, a church spokeswoman flown in from international headquarters in Los Angeles.

Celebrity Centres are Scientology churches designed to provide good experiences, such as counseling and career guidance, for the artistic community, though others also are welcome.

Visitors to Portland's Celebrity Centre — and church officials say up many as 50 a week come in off the street — are struck by the plush, three-story, more-than-8,000-square-foot facility.

They encounter a bronze bust of Hubbard, who died in 1986.

Above the bust, on the back wall, in large black letters, is a quote from the church founder: "A culture is only as great as its dreams, and its dreams are dreamed by artists." Paintings by local Scientologists adorn other walls.

On Thursday, the carpeting was pulled up and the furniture in disarray as the church tried to recover from an attack by Godeka, who poured gasoline on the floor and started a fire, setting off sprinklers. He also shot and wounded four people.

Godeka had a history of harassing Scientologists, including its church in San Francisco. A Portland church secretary told police in February that Godeka had taken a personality test, bought a book and signed up for a home-study course.

Church officials insist Godeka took no Scientology courses. But if he had, he would have begun a long, and potentially expensive, journey of self-improvement that never ends.

"There is level zero, level one, level two," Armstrong said. "It's a precise path. But it's a path anyone can travel. What Scientologists say is the more they follow the path, the more happy they are, the more able they are."

Courses include such topics as "How to Improve Conditions in Life," "Personal Values and Integrity," "How to Make Work Easier" and "Financial Success."

Each class comes with a suggested donation.

CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY

■ FOUNDED: By science fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard in 1952

■ HEADQUARTERS: Los Angeles

■ MEMBERS: Scientology claims 8 million worldwide, 4 million in the United States and 6,000 in Oregon, but critics say those numbers are inflated.

■ BELIEFS: Though no god is worshiped, members consider Scientology a religion that helps them to overcome obstacles in a practical way by removing mental images from this or previous lives. It also develops the "thetan," or soul, by progressing through a series of levels of spirituality.

Former member Young said that a person can easily spend $50,000 on such courses. But J. Gordon Melton, director of the Institute of American Religion, who has studied Scientology since 1964, said it would probably cost "$10,000 to $12,000 spread out over a number of years."

Said Armstrong, the church spokeswoman: "It might be from a few hundred dollars to tens of thousands of dollars."

The donation covers one-on-one counseling called "auditing," which uses a device called an "E-meter."

The church considers it a highly sensitive electronic instrument that indicates changes occurring in the mind.

The church's "Reference Guide to the Scientology Religion" portrays such education as a relative bargain when one considers "four years at a top university would run between $80,000 and $90,000."

And it could be cheaper than attending a traditional church.

"Other churches may have a tithing system," Armstrong said. "That's their way. This is our way."

The Portland Celebrity Centre has a staff of 40 but plans to expand to 250 by the end of the year, Portland spokeswoman Angie Mann said.

"It's massive," Mann said. "We've had more public than we've been able to comfortably service. It's just public demand for people wanting this technology."

With its classes that resemble a university and its absence of a god to worship, some have argued Scientology is not a religion.

The Internal Revenue Service recognized Scientology as a tax-exempt religion in 1957, revoked the status in 1967, then restored it in 1993.

"I never call it a religion," Young said. "I was in it for 21 years, and I was the one trying to make it a religion. I never call it that today. To me, it's an ideological-political movement."

Melton, the California scholar, said, "It really challenges our idea of what a religion is. Having monitored it for several decades now, I'm fairly convinced it is truly a religion, but it's a very unique one."

But is it a religious cult, then?

Cynthia Kisser, executive director of the Chicago-based Cult Awareness Network, told Time magazine in 1991 that "Scientology is quite likely the most ruthless, the most classically terroristic, the most litigious and the most lucrative cult the country has ever seen."

Those comments fueled a battle between Scientology, Time and the Cult Awareness Network, with the latter organization driven to bankruptcy after the church labeled it a "hate group" and applied relentless legal pressure.

Kent Burtner, director of the Cult Resource Center of Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon and a former board member with the Cult Awareness Network, said Scientology "doesn't give substantial information a normal person would need to make an informed choice about joining."

He said it also employs "unrestricted use of psychological and social influence control techniques" that include pressure when someone tries to leave Scientology.

"Are they a religion?" Burtner asked. "Sure. Are they a cult? As far as my understanding of the word, yes. Very clearly."

Scientology says such critics are misinformed or hateful. Armstrong points to "the 800-page Scientology encyclopedia" and a stack of media resource kits as proof that Scientology has nothing to hide.

"If somebody is in the church, and suddenly they drop out, someone is obviously going to talk to them and say, 'Hey, Joe, what's wrong?' That's a common human reaction. But they are free to go.

"The opinion that counts is the opinion of members and the people Scientology has helped. A person like Kent Burtner has never done anything in Scientology, and he doesn't know a thing about it."

SHOOTING UPDATE

■ VICTIMS IMPROVE: Helen Burke, 44, remained in serious condition with a bullet lodged next to her spine, said Lee Lewis Husk, University Hospital spokeswoman. Doctors said there were early indications of paralysis.

"It's too early to tell if she'll have any disability," Husk said Thursday. Burke is pregnant, in the second trimester. The fetus appears unharmed.

Steven R. Crandell, 45, and Carlos Colon, 24, were in fair condition. Both have single gunshot wounds. They were improving rapidly, Husk said.

■ FBI JOINS CASE: Jairus C. Godeka was arraigned Thursday and assigned a court-appointed attorney, Kerry Chipman. Godeka, who seemed calm during his brief appearance, is being held without bail in the Justice Center Jail.

The FBI opened a religious discrimination and civil rights investigation Thursday into the shootings and the fire, raising the possibility that the case could be prosecuted in federal court. FBI spokesman Dave Miller said the results of the Portland investigation will be sent to the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C., where officials will decide whether it should be prosecuted as a criminal case.

■ CHURCH POSTS GUARDS: On Thursday, two armed, private security guards were at the front door of the Portland Church of Scientology's Celebrity Centre on Southwest Salmon Street.

Church members cleaned until about 5 a.m. Thursday.

When the church opened at 9 a.m. Thursday, the only sounds inside were the beep, beep, beep of the security system and the unanswered ringing of the telephone.

Two church members tried to reset the alarm but accidentally set it off, again bringing firefighters.

Otherwise, things were returning to normal.

The calm was broken again when someone telephoned a bomb threat at 3:30 p.m. Police cordoned off the street around the church, but they found no bomb.

Two victims played dead after gunman fired shots

■ Jim Stone fled the building only to see his wife being brought out at gunpoint by the suspect a few minutes later

By DAVID R. ANDERSON
of The Oregonian staff

Jim Stone walked down the stairs, curious to see where the shooting was coming from.

"As soon as I made it to the bottom of the stairs, I saw Steve (Crandell) and heard a pop and saw him grab his side and go down."

Jairus C. Godeka pointed the gun at Stone and fired. Stone dropped to the floor, thinking he had avoided the gunfire.

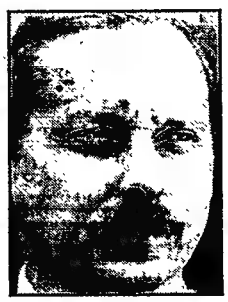
The two men played dead, Stone facing out the door, unable to see what Godeka was doing.

"We both laid there and heard him reloading and the empty shells hitting the ground."

Stone heard as Godeka poured gasoline on the floor. It sounded like only one other thing Stone has heard — volcanic ash falling on Portland after the eruption of Mount St. Helens. Shhhh.

"I never heard him say anything. He just methodically went about his business. I think he had a mission, and he was methodically going through his steps. Whatever body was there, it was like, shoot. That seemed to be his point."

Stone thinks that Godeka then walked around him and headed up the stairs. That was the signal for the two men to dash for the door, through the fire.



STONE

Stone ran next door to Macheezmo Mouse and called police. When he came back to the church, smoke was coming out the door. Carlos Colon had walked out of the church, shot in the chest. Stone did what he could to help.

"I just started yelling 'Get off the sidewalk, there's a man with a gun.' "

Stone was with three police officers and two firefighters, trying to figure a way into a fire exit door. The door started to open.

"I see my wife, and I'm happy. The door continues to open and there's the guy with a gun to her head. I didn't think. I didn't even think, I just got out of the way."

Stone walked a half-block up the street. He heard yelling but couldn't tell whether it was Godeka or the police. He couldn't see his wife, Jacqueline, because she was in an alcove.

"My thought then was I just didn't want her to get shot. That's all I was thinking."

About two minutes passed. It could have been less, but it seemed like more. Finally, he saw his wife walk away.

"I'm all upset and worried, and I said to her, 'Are you OK?' and she said, 'Hi honey! Pretty exciting, huh?' " ment, Stone walked around the corner to use a pay phone to call the Los Angeles headquarters of the Church of Scientology. When he reached for his wallet, he found his hand was bloody. And some of the papers in his wallet were torn.

Stone realized that a bullet had grazed him.

"In the hip, not the buttocks. I have a reputation now."

He's not sure why it took that long to feel the bullet wound.

"I had a stinging in my side, but my adrenalin was going so much."

Stone is trying to make sense of what Godeka did. But it has strengthened his belief in Scientology's principle of a world without crime.

"The guy's psychotic, number one. And number two, boy, I've got to get in gear and change this environment quick."

Stone didn't lose much time. After he got out of the hospital about 4 p.m. Wednesday, he headed back to the church. He wanted to find out what happened. About 8:30 p.m., they reopened the building to begin cleaning up.

"It was like something out of a Judy Garland movie, when a building burns down, and everyone comes to help."

Stone was back at the church before 9 a.m. Thursday, wearing a tie and tennis shoes. Stone has a good sense of humor. But the scary stuff creeps into his mind.

"In the main, during the daytime when it's hopping and popping, I have a job to do. It's when the slack time comes that I go, 'Jesus Christ, what happened?' "

CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY-VICTIM

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS - DAMAGE TO RELIGIOUS PROPERTY

Synopsis: On September 25, 1996, at approximately 11:27 a.m., [redacted] who has made previous threats to the Church of Scientology, entered their facility at 709 Southwest Salmon, Portland, Oregon. Upon entering, he shot four people. He then poured gasoline from a can onto the floor, ignited it with a Bic lighter, and caught his shoes and pants on fire. In attempting to put out the fire on his pants and shoes, he put out the fire he had started; however, not before the sprinkling system was activated. [redacted] then took a hostage with him outside of the facility; and, a short time later, surrendered himself to the Portland Police Bureau. Damage sustained by the facility was a result of water damage from the sprinklers and the Fire Department's response. [redacted] has a history of mental illness, has blamed the Church of Scientology of mind control, and, at the time of the incident, was attempting to extort money from them. [redacted] is being charged locally with four counts of attempted aggravated murder, arson, kidnapping, three counts of first degree of assault, one count of second degree assault, and one count of burglary.

PREDICATION: On September 26, 1996, a telephone call was received from Unit Chief [redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation Headquarters (FBIHQ) requesting that a civil rights case be opened regarding the shooting and attempted arson at the Church of Scientology, 709 Southwest Salmon, Portland, Oregon.

DETAILS:

On September 26, 1996, [redacted] Detective, Portland Police Bureau, Portland, Oregon, advised that [redacted] a black male, date of birth [redacted] place of birth [redacted] entered the Church of Scientology, 709 Southwest Salmon, at approximately 11:27 a.m., on September 25, 1996, carrying a gasoline can and a handgun. [redacted] shot four people; and then poured gasoline on the floor, lit it with a Bic lighter, which caught his shoes and pants on fire. While putting out the fire on his shoes, he inadvertently put out the fire he had started on the floor. He then took one hostage from the facility; and, shortly thereafter, surrendered to Portland Police Bureau Officers outside the facility.

[redacted] who is known to have mental problems, claimed he was going to extort money from them, as a result of the mind control they had over him. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] wants a trial, as this is his way of telling everyone what is going on with the church and their mind control.

b6

[redacted] indicated [redacted] is currently charged with four counts of attempted murder, arson, kidnapping, three counts of first degree assault, one count of second degree assault, and one count of burglary.

On October 1, 1996, [redacted], Assistant United States Attorney, Portland, Oregon, advised that, in view of the charges by the Multnomah County District Attorney, they would not consider federal charges at this time. [redacted] did not feel the FBI should conduct active investigation and should only follow local prosecution.

SUMMARY

On the morning of September 25, 1996, I was involved in the investigation of the shooting, kidnap, arson, and burglary of the Church of Scientology on SW Salmon Street. This report reflects my observations of the crime scene, and my interview of two of the complainants in this case.

NARRATIVE

At approximately 11:45 AM on the morning of September 25, 1996, I was dispatched to 709 SW Salmon Street. Initial information was that four people had been shot inside of the church, and that the suspect was in custody. I arrived at approximately 12 noon and was met by Sergeant [redacted] of Central Precinct. He briefed me on what had occurred so far. b6 b7C

A team of detectives had arrived, and were delegated different assignments. Several were sent to the Macheezmo Mouse Restaurant to contact witnesses there. Others were sent to the Oregon Health Sciences University in an attempt to contact the complainants at that location. I was made aware that [redacted] of the Portland Fire Bureau would be investigating the arson aspect of this incident. b6 b7C

My partner [ ] arrived moments later. I briefed her on what I had learned so far about the incident. She was informed of witness locations, and that the complainants had been transported to the Oregon Health Sciences University's emergency department.

There was a shattered glass door at 719 SW Salmon. Just to the right to this door was the lobby area of the Church of Scientology. The shattered glass doorway led back through a small hall that led into the Church of Scientology.

As we walked further, we walked in front of the open front double doors of 709 SW Salmon. This is the actual location of the church. Looking through the open doors I could see a large burned area of carpet just to the west side of a entry area reception desk. On the south side of the desk, just below the counter, I could see what appeared to be a bullet hole. Further to the left of the burned area (west) I could see a red plastic gasoline can. Also visible was a small red cigarette lighter, and what appeared to be a backpack, which had been burned. Turning back towards the door, towards Salmon Street, I could see a hole in the metal frame of the door that appeared to have been caused by a large caliber handgun or rifle.

I exited the building and walked back around to the Broadway side where another shattered door was found. This shattered glass door was just to the north of the "Taste of Bali" restaurant on Broadway. It was at this location that Detective [ ] and myself, along with Detective [ ] who was taking Polaroid photographs, Sergeant [ ], PFB Arson Investigator [ ] and Criminalist [ ] entered.

Detective [ ] and I arranged for [ ] who we understood to be the hostage in this case, to return to the Church of Scientology to have her walk through her office, describing her actions as we videotaped her. b6 b7C

Along with Criminalist [ ] who performed the videotaping, [ ] walked through the church and described what happened. The following is a general summary of what had occurred. For further details, refer to her handwritten statement, and the transcript of the video walk-through. b6 b7C

[ ] told us that she was just walking outside of her upstairs office when she heard gunshots. She listened for just a moment longer, when she heard another gunshot and realized that the shooting was occurring "in house". [ ] walked into a nearby office and dialed 911. She remembers that she told the dispatcher that she had heard gunfire in her building. The dispatcher asked her if she had seen any smoke, and [ ] turned towards the stairway leading from the downstairs reception area and noticed billowing smoke rising from the reception area. b6 b7C

[ ] was standing in the office with her back towards the door when a person later identified as [ ] grabbed her by her collar and placed a gun to her head. [ ] remembers that [ ] wanted to know where the fire escape was located, and told her "Don't be stupid." b6 b7C

As [ ] began to walk [ ] out of the small upstairs office, she was thinking about the nearest fire escape. She began walking in that direction and was told by [ ] something like "This church ruined my mind", or "This church ruined my life." When [ ] tried to speak with [ ] he would say "I don't want to talk with you, I want to talk with the police." b6 b7C

Later on that same date, Detective [redacted] and I served a search warrant on [redacted] room at Mel's Motor Inn on N Interstate Avenue in Portland. Items recovered include many handwritten notes and several diagrams. Included in the diagrams is one that appears to be a rough sketch of the lobby area of the Church of Scientology on Salmon Street. In that illustration there are the outlines of three human forms that appear to be lying on the floor. At the top of the page are the words "what I must do". Another diagram has the numbers $3,000,000 and the words "books", "fuel", and "backpack". b6 b7C

Also found during the course of this search were notes that appeared to deal with mental illness. There were photocopied excerpts of a textbook article regarding schizophrenia.

On Saturday, September 28th, I spoke with [redacted] in his hospital room at Oregon Health Sciences University. [redacted] was obviously in considerable discomfort. I asked him to tell me what happened last Wednesday. Below listed is his general narrative about what had occurred. Our interview was cut short due to [redacted] inability to continue. b6 b7C

[redacted] recalls that he was in the upstairs office area above the reception room when he heard what he thought was possibly a gunshot but did not clearly recognize. When he heard another gunshot, he began to run downstairs towards the reception area from which the shots had appeared to have come. b6 b7C

[redacted] told me that he saw a black male gunman that he had recognized, but does not recall having ever met before. The gunman stood in a slightly crouched position and shot at [redacted] realizing that he was hit and not wishing to be shot again, laid down on the ground. He continued to watch [redacted] pour gas from a red plastic gas can onto the carpet and then light it on fire. b6 b7C

7 This report covers response to the scene of a shooting and arson fire with multiple victims at the Church of Scientology, reenactment with a witness which was video and audio recorded, preparation and execution of a search warrant and an interview with one of the victims at OHSU.

8 On 092596 at approximately 1208 hours, I arrived at the location of occurrence, 709 SW Salmon Street. I had been directed to respond to this location on a shooting and fire with multiple victims who had been transported to OHSU. I was also advised a suspect had been taken into custody and transported to the Detective Division. Sergeant [redacted] had requested additional personnel and directed them to conduct interviews with various witnesses and victims, and had also directed Detectives to respond to the hospital in an attempt to contact the victims who had already been transported there. For additional details, refer to Special Reports written under this same case number. b6 b7C

Upon arriving at the location, I noted the address of the Church of Scientology, and directly to the west of the main entrance, there were two other doorways.

The doorway immediately adjacent to the main entrance was a glass door in which the glass had been broken out. The hallway from this entrance leads to an area downstairs and to the north of the reception area of the Church of Scientology. Adjacent to the broken glass doorway was a second door, which had steps leading upstairs, and these stairs access the upstairs area of the Church of Scientology from the west. Just inside this doorway, I observed a semi-automatic handgun lying on the landing at the bottom of the stairs. Partway up the first set of stairs, I observed a blue and black plaid flannel shirt and a black and green fanny-pack, and on the second landing there appeared to be a clip from a semi-automatic handgun adjacent to a plastic white bucket.

From the sidewalk outside the main entrance of the Church of Scientology, I observed a red plastic gas container and a Bic lighter lying on the tiled floor area in the reception area of the building. I could also see a significant portion of the carpet next to the reception desk had apparently been burned, and there was a grey backpack, with its contents partially exposed, lying on the carpet area. There was also a green sweater lying on the floor. To the north of the reception desk, I could see a set of stairs which led down, and to the east of the reception desk was a set of stairs, which led to the upstairs. To the west of the reception desk was a waiting area, which had couches, chairs and tables, and leading from the north side of this were several stairs which went to a landing area, then on the west side of the landing were several offices. There was a ladder and orange cones in the main reception area on or near the site of the arson fire. There was also a fire hose lying across this area, and a Dianetics book lying on the carpet.

I went to a glass door entrance, which was located on SW Broadway, adjacent to the address of 947 SW Broadway. The glass in this door was also broken out, and the doorway leads to stairs which go to the second floor area of the Church of Scientology, and these stairs lead from the east, to the north side of the office on the second floor. From this entrance, I accessed the building, and on the first landing, I observed a pair of blue glasses lying on the floor, adjacent to a locked door. stairway area. Upon entering the actual office area, I noted a number of hallways with various rooms, and continuing towards the south side of the building, I observed a stairwell which leads downstairs to the main reception area. Adjacent to this stairwell was the office area where I subsequently learned [redacted] was on the phone with 9-1-1, when she was taken hostage by the suspect. In this office area, the phone was off the hook, and the readout on the phone indicated the call to 9-1-1. As I walked through the office areas and hallways, I noted the surfaces were covered with black soot-like residue.

b6 b7C

Accessing the stairwell which leads to the downstairs reception area, I noted a live round and a casing on the stairs. When I had reached the reception area, I noted a pair of brown pants which were partially burned next to the grey backpack, and there were .45 caliber casings in this reception area, and also in the waiting area adjacent to the reception area. There was an apparent bullet hole through the reception desk, and I noted the phone at this location was also off the hook. There was also an apparent bullet hole through the door frame of the main door entrance, on the east side of the door, and outside on the sidewalk, there was a bullet fragment.

PFB Fire Investigator [redacted] obtained samples from the burned carpet area. Criminalist Sergeants [redacted] photographed, video recorded and collected evidence from the scene.

I subsequently spoke with [redacted] and at my direction, he reenacted what he had heard and seen during the occurrence, and this was video and audio recorded by Criminalist Sergeant [redacted] related he was coming out of the doors of the Church of Scientology, when the suspect entered the doors, and he observed the suspect was wearing a backpack. [redacted] also believed the suspect had shot at [redacted] and at other employees inside the building, and had also pointed the gun at him, and [redacted] indicated that was when he ran from the scene to take cover.

I subsequently prepared an Affidavit for a Search Warrant, which was presented to Multnomah County District Court Judge Clifford Freeman, and he authorized the search of the contents of the suspect's backpack and his room at Mel's Motor Inn, on 092796 at 12:15 PM. Between 1310 and 1330 hours, Detective [redacted] and I examined the contents of the suspect's backpack, which had been retained in Criminal Evidence Locker #1, in the Identification Division. When I opened the Ricoh case, there was a camera inside, but there was no film in the camera. There was also a pair of sunglasses, and a box cutter with a blade, and a blue bag, the brand being Oxychem, which had a black metal magazine loader in it. There was a prescription bottle and tablets for 800 milligrams Ibuprofen, for [redacted] from the Medical Center at UCSF, 415-476-1026, 400 Parnassus Avenue, A123, San Francisco, California 94143. The prescription number is 242281, dated 052396, from [redacted] There was also two boxes for .45 caliber automatic 230 grain, lead round-nose ammunition. One of the boxes had 50 live rounds in it, and the other box had only the bullet holder. There was also a grey colored Ruger gun box. There was also a receipt from Fred Meyer's, dated 091196 at 11:55 AM, for the purchase of a gas can for $3.09, on receipt #7915411728. There were also Brite-Life Central Vite, which is a multi-vitamin, and Alkamints. There was a second prescription bottle of Ibuprofen, from the same location as the other prescription bottle, dated 040396. Then there was also a book titled, "The Anatomy of the New Testament," by Spivey and Smith. These items were left in the Identification Division, with instructions for them to be transferred to the Property Room. A signed copy of the Search Warrant was left with this property.

on SW 4th Avenue, in Room #73. I asked if he would be able to tell me about what had happened on Wednesday, and he said he could.

[redacted] began by telling me he was in the area below the reception area when the incident occurred and he had been working in an office in this downstairs area. He had come out into the common area, which has steps which lead up to the reception area. [redacted] said he saw, from the corner of his eye, a black male subject walk into the Church of Scientology carrying a gas can. He said he heard [redacted] screaming. He described this as though she was being hit, and he also said it was partially screaming and partially moaning. He said he rushed towards the stairs to go up to help her, and the black male subject was blocking his way. He said the black male subject pulled out a gun and shot him. He said he pulled the gun from the front waistband area with both hands, and was standing straight up and pointed the gun at him when he shot him. [redacted] also said the black male subject did not say anything to him that he could recall. [redacted] [redacted] said he screamed after he was shot, and the black male subject continued to look at him after he shot him. [redacted] said he went to the right, down the hallway, and he did this to get out of the line of sight of the black male subject because he did not want to be shot again. [redacted] said he heard more gunshots, and he heard [redacted] screaming some more.

When asked about the gunshot wound he had sustained, [redacted] said the bullet had gone into his right shoulder, and had traveled down through his body, and had lodged in his right buttock. He said the bullet was still inside him, and he thinks the path of the bullet from the top of his body downward, was because the black male subject was higher than he [redacted] was when he was shot.

I asked [redacted] about the fire and he said he didn't see any part of the fire being set. He said he went down the hallway to get outside, and he saw a person on the phone by the big window at the front of the building. He said he told this person he had been shot, and the person told him to lay down, and that help was coming. [redacted] said he did lay down, and he was experiencing a great deal of pain at that time. [redacted] said he heard more gunshots, and the fireman who was there said they had to get out of there, because the suspect was still loose. He said the fireman took him around the corner, onto SW Broadway. [redacted] said [redacted] was brought to where he was, and [redacted] told him there was a fire. [redacted] said he saw blood and knew that [redacted] had been shot too.

apparently observed two gunshot victims. [redacted] supplied historical information regarding contact between the Church of Scientology and the suspect [redacted] b6 b7C

NARRATIVE:

I responded to a radio broadcast of multiple gunshot victims in the area of SW Salmon/Broadway. I assisted uniform officers in a brief search of a small portion of the building for a possible missing gunshot victim. Entry was through a glass door broken by PFB at our request and located directly west of the church's main entrance. The search ended when it was determined the person already been transported to the hospital.

I then came in contact with several witnesses to the incident and assisted in gathering them in one place for interview by the Homicide detectives. I was requested by Homicide Detail Sgt. [redacted] to take the statements of [redacted] and [redacted] b6 b7C

At 1230 hours, I spoke with [redacted] in the rear dining room of the Macheezmo Mouse restaurant, located at 723 SW Salmon. [redacted] stated she was returning home from the downtown DMV office. She was walking westbound on the north sidewalk of Salmon and had crossed Broadway after passing the Hilton Hotel. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated as she passed John Helmer's Clothing, but prior to arriving at the main entrance of the Church of Scientology, she observed a white male laying on the sidewalk on his back. She observed a small amount of blood on the right side of his chest. She said another man soon stooped b6 b7C over the fallen person, apparently to assist him. She said she did not stop and continued to walk westbound. Approximately 6-10 feet further west of the fallen man, another white male stumbled out of the Church of Scientology main entrance, clutching his chest, and said "I've been shot". She also observed a small amount of blood on this man's chest. The man either fell or purposely laid down on the sidewalk. [redacted] stated she quickened her pace and walked to the office of her apartment building a short distance away within that block. She then returned to her apartment. b6 b7C

At 1245 hours, I spoke to [redacted] within the same location. [redacted] identified herself as the legal officer for the Church of Scientology. She stated she was not present in the building when the shooting took place, but had been advised by another employee named [redacted] that several employees had been shot by a black man at the location. b6 b7C

[redacted] explained that in February of this year, an individual named [redacted] who was reportedly from Kenya, had threatened to "shoot everyone" if he was not paid $50,000.00. She believed the initial call took place on a Monday, and the police were notified. On Wednesday, [redacted] phoned again, as promised, to collect the $50,000.00. The call was traced, and he was arrested. [redacted] stated that at the time of his arrest, [redacted] was in the possession of two guns and 100 rounds of ammunition. She said he later pleaded guilty to Coercion, and they had heard he moved to the San Francisco area. The church received no further calls from this individual after that day. b6 b7C

		I searched him for other weapons (none found) I asked him if he had more ammunition. He said he brought about 100 rounds into the building and it was in a pack that he had.
		There was confusion about a fire inside the building. I asked if he lit a fire inside the building. At that point officer Mack said that the suspect was talking about firing on people. The suspect at that point corrected officer Mack and said that no, he had started a fire w/ gasoline in the Building. He said the fire was upstairs.

8 Radio call of shots fired victims hit at the Church of Scientology, 709 SW Salmon. On Arrival I observed Fire Department arrive and start treatment of what appeared to be two gunshot victims on the sidewalk in front of the location. Off. and Detective were taking up positions on either side of a door to the business. I took a cover position behind a police unit in front of the door. I requested Set set up an outer containment and I would direct an inner perimeter. I requested Set + Hnt notification. Within a few minutes I saw the door crack open and Off. began loudly giving directions to the suspect to try to control him. He was telling him words to the effect not to shoot and that we wouldn't shoot him. As the door opened more I saw a female hostage and Off. was telling the suspect

On Wednesday, 092596 at 1243 hours, I spoke to [redacted] in the waiting room of the Emergency Room. [redacted] told me he is an employee of the Church of Scientology and was upstairs when he heard two gunshots which were approximately two seconds apart. On 092596 at 1246 hours, I spoke with [redacted] works in the Celebrity Center Building, and thought she may have observed the suspect in the building approximately two weeks ago. [redacted] had seen the suspect's photograph from the shooting on the television as she waited in the Emergency Room, and thought this was the same subject who had tried to return a book at the Church of Scientology two weeks ago. When this occurred, she was standing over by two subjects who work for the Church of Scientology, [redacted] was chatting with these two subjects when the male black subject came in and attempted to obtain a refund on a Scientology book he had purchased. The two employees advised him he had to go to a different building to obtain a refund and he became slightly agitated. [redacted] emphasized, that she did not know for sure if this was the same subject and might have to look at further photographs to determine this.

On 092596 at 1300 hours, I spoke to [redacted] is also an employee of the Church of Scientology and stated she was upstairs in a small office when she heard running. [redacted] who is employed at the Church of Scientology (as is [redacted], was receiving "instruction" in a second floor classroom of the building, between what she estimated as approximately 1100 and 1130 hours. Others in attendance included [redacted] (sic), and several others. The class was being taught by [redacted]

b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that she heard approximately three gunshots coming from downstairs. She characterized these gunshots as a "pop" sound and estimated that the first and second shots were separated by approximately 10 seconds, the second and third shots coming very close together. During this time she heard what she described as a "commotion" coming from the same area and heard [redacted] who was downstairs, yell at her group to "Get out back through the fire escape."

b6 b7C

Accordingly, [redacted] and her group left the classroom and moved down a hallway to a emergency door accessing a second floor fire escape on the Broadway side of the building. They climbed down the fire escape to Broadway and then proceeded in a northerly direction to SW Taylor Street, west on Taylor one block to Park, subsequently returning south on Park one block to Salmon, at which time [redacted] observed [redacted] lying on the sidewalk in front of the building. She was unable to reach him, however, but was pushed back by the crowd and restrained by police who had, by now, responded to the scene.

b6 b7C

Eventually, [redacted] was allowed to speak briefly with [redacted] He told her that [redacted] also employed at the church, and reportedly [redacted] had first been shot by the suspect, that [redacted] was then shot by the suspect, following which he [redacted] was shot. NARRATIVE

On September 25, 1996, at approximately 1145 hours, I was directed to go to the scene of multiple victim shooting at the Church of Scientology at 709 SW Salmon Street. I was directed to contact witnesses inside the Macheezmo Mouse Restaurant at 723 SW Salmon Street.

I first contacted [redacted] who is the Executive Establishment Officer at the Celebrity Centre of the Church of Scientology. [redacted] told me that he had been on the second floor of the church building in his office when he heard two gunshots. He said he ran downstairs to see what was going on, accompanied by the Executive Director [redacted] and the Deputy Executive Director [redacted] said that he peaked around the corner at the bottom of the stairs into the reception area where Receptionist [redacted] is usually located. He said he could not see [redacted] or the gunman, but remained behind cover while [redacted] and went around the corner into the reception area. He said he could hear yelling, "Oh God, Oh God." He said he heard two or three more gunshots, and then ran back upstairs to evacuate the 12 to 18 parishioners who were still upstairs.

b7C

[redacted] said that he directed the parishioners out the back door and down the fire escapes. He said that as he was upstairs he heard three or four more shots, that sounded to him much closer, as if the gunman had started up the stairs. He said that in an attempt to slow down the gunman's progress, he threw large cardboard books down the stairs.

Once he was satisfied that all of the parishioners had gotten safely out, he went out himself and walked around to the front of the building. He said he made sure that 911 had been called, and began directing passerby away from the front of the business.

[redacted] said that some minutes later, he heard a policeman say, "He's at the door!" He said that there was some negotiation to get the suspect out of the building, and then the suspect was taken into custody. He noted that the police officers were very polite and gentle with the suspect, particularly considering what had happened.

[redacted] said that when he saw the gunman in custody, he thought he looked high because his eyes were red. He noted that he had never seen this man before today, and that he was familiar with the neighborhood and knows most of the parishioners by name and face.

I gave [redacted] a business card of mine and encouraged him to phone me if he had any additional or different recollections about what he had seen and heard.

I then spoke to [redacted] is listed as the 911 complainant on Incident #PP 9609250503 [redacted] told me that he was standing outside the front door of the Church of Scientology talking to an acquaintance named [redacted] about the church. He said he saw a black male walk by them into the Church of Scientology carrying a red plastic gas can and possibly another bag. [redacted] told me that perhaps 10 seconds later he heard a gunshot, looked into the Church of Scientology and saw a man pointing a gun at [redacted] He said it appeared that she was crouching in front of him. [redacted] said he ran across Salmon Street to take cover behind a UPS truck that was parked on the street. He said while he was running across the street he heard another gunshot. [redacted] said that he then ran westbound on Salmon and turned the corner onto Park Avenue and into the Coffee People. He said [redacted] originally called 911, but then [redacted] got on the line to give information to the complaint taker. He said the complaint taker kept him on the phone until he saw police cars arriving.

I gave [redacted] a business card and encouraged him to call if he had additional information that he thought of later.

I then spoke to [redacted] who is a resident of the apartments at 731 SW Salmon. [redacted] told me that she was on the sidewalk in front of her business and heard a gunshot. She said that two to three minutes later, a man came out of a doorway somewhere along the line of businesses, holding his stomach. [redacted] said she was then directed to get away from the scene, and she did so.

I then spoke to [redacted] who is an executive officer with the Church of Scientology. [redacted] said he was on the second floor in his office with Executive Director [redacted] when they heard two gunshots, a short pause, one shot, another short pause and then a fourth shot. He said he took cover under his desk and heard [redacted] say, "What the fuck?" He said [redacted] ran out of the office and [redacted] disconnected his telephone call to [redacted] said when he left the office he could smell what he thought was gunpowder in the air; he said he was familiar with that smell from firing handguns on a practice range. He said he went to the staircase and saw that there was smoke downstairs, so he ran to a fire exit. He said he went out the fire exit and the door shut and locked behind him. He said as he started to turn the corner around a wall on the landing, he saw a black male with a silver gun standing behind an employee, [redacted] at the bottom of the stairs. He said that he could see that the man had the gun at the back of her neck. He said the black male looked up at him and said, "Hey you at the top of the stairs. Come down and I won't shoot. Tell police not to shoot, I have a woman down here with a gun to her head."

[redacted] ducked back behind the cover of the wall and could hear conversation, but could not see what was going on. He said that the hostage taker was talking to the police and told them, "Don't shoot. I've shot three other people in the hallway, there's no reason for anyone else to get shot. I

He said he heard the hostage taker say that all he wanted to do was to go to trial and that the Church of Scientology had already taken his money. He also overheard the hostage taker tell the officers "I don't wanna die."

[redacted] said he could hear the police asking the suspect to open the door, and also heard the police say that they were showing their own hands. He said he could hear [redacted] urging the police to let the suspect talk.

Eventually the suspect was taken into custody, and [redacted] was ordered down the stairs with his hands up by police. He said he understood why he was told to put his hands up and back down the stairs. He said he realized that the police did not know if he was a victim or a suspect.

I gave [redacted] my business card and asked that he please call me if he had any additional information about what happened.

Detective [redacted] and I were notified that there may be fire fighters at Engine House 4 that may have information concerning the suspect in this case. We went to Engine 4 and spoke to [redacted]

Lieutenant [redacted] told us that his crew responded to what they believed to be a commercial fire alarm and arrived to find two gunshot victims on the sidewalk approximately 50 feet east of the Church of Scientology door. He said as his crew was attending to the gunshot victims, he heard a police officer say, "He's gotta gun." Lieutenant [redacted] said they took cover, then went back and removed the victims from harms way. He said they carried the victims down to Broadway where they were behind cover.

Detective [redacted] and I then spoke to [redacted] who said that his crew was coming back from another fire and was very close to the fire call on [redacted]

One sketch of ground floor of Church of Scientology, drawn by defendant, marked "DR7432."

6. One Constitutional Rights Advice form signed by [redacted] on 092696, with the original forwarded to the Records Division.

SUMMARY

I assisted in the apprehension of the suspect in this case and later interviewed him regarding his involvement. He acknowledged responsibility for shooting three people inside of the Church of Scientology. He also admitted taking a hostage and using an accelerant in an attempt to burn the building down. The suspect indicated that his motivation for these acts stemmed from members of the Church of Scientology taking control of his mind and body. This investigation is continuing.

NARRATIVE

On 092596 at 1128 hours, I was driving in the downtown area when I overheard a radio broadcast regarding shots fired at the Church of Scientology, 709 SW Salmon Street. Responding to that location, I overheard additional radio updates indicating that there was a lone black male suspect whose whereabouts were unknown. Approaching on foot from the east headed westbound on SW Salmon Street, I observed an apparent gunshot victim lying on the sidewalk on the north side of the street adjacent to a building and some distance west of SW Broadway Avenue. The victim was being attended to by EMS personnel. I continued westbound behind Officer [ ] when a second gunshot victim approached and told us that a pregnant female had been wounded and was inside of the building in an interior fire escape. EMS personnel grabbed this second gunshot victim as I heard the radio broadcast that a fire had been discovered inside of the Church of Scientology Building. b6 b7C

Officer [ ] and I approached an alcove on the south side of the building where we observed two doors. A solid door with no apparent exterior handle was observed on the west side of the alcove and a glass door was located on the east side. Attempting to make entry and search for the pregnant female, we discovered that the glass door was locked. Officer [ ] hailed a passing firefighter and told him to bring us a pry bar. As the firefighter approached, Officer [ ] and I were standing in front of the glass door when the previously mentioned solid door, which is hinged on the west side, opened outward abruptly. With our attention drawn to the opening door, I observed two people standing just inside of the doorway, a white female, and a black male standing behind her. The black male had his left arm around the female's neck and I observed him holding a semiautomatic pistol in his right hand near the female's head. b6 b7C

Officer [ ] and I withdrew to positions of concealment, with Officer [ ] retreating to the west side of the alcove nearest the suspect and hostage, while I withdrew to the east side of the alcove to the sidewalk. As we did this, I heard the door close. Reaching concealment, we pointed our service weapons at the door. Officer [ ] approached with his weapon drawn immediately to my left while other officers covered the door from varying vantage points. b6 b7C

Officer [ ] was closest to the suspect at that point and began negotiating with him. I heard Officer [ ] yell to the suspect that he needed to talk with him, but that the suspect could not be heard through the closed door. Officer [ ] asked the suspect to open the door so that they could communicate. The suspect was concerned about being harmed by the police and I heard him say b6 b7C that he did not want to die. The suspect continued to express his concern about surrendering, at which time Officer motioned for officers in the area to draw back, so the suspect could not see them. In an apparent attempt to further assure the suspect that he would not be harmed, Officer reholstered his weapon and showed the suspect his empty hands. As he did this, he told the suspect that he was not lying to him, that he would not be harmed, and that he had a family to go home to himself, so he was trusting the suspect to surrender peacefully. At this point, the suspect released the hostage and she moved slowly forward toward us. An officer yelled at her to run, which she did. As the hostage fled, I observed that the suspect had followed Officer further commands by placing the weapon on the floor and kneeling in the alcove with his hands raised, just inside of the doorway. At that time, Officer Sergeant and I moved forward and grabbed the hands and arms of the suspect. We pulled him outside of the building and carefully laid him face down on the pavement, where I proceeded to place my handcuffs on the suspect's wrists which were positioned behind him. From the time when we first observed the suspect with the hostage, until the hostage's release and the suspect's surrender, I would estimate a time of only 60 to 90 seconds elapsed.

After the suspect was handcuffed, Sergeant and Officer assisted him in getting to his feet, patted him down for weapons, and then escorted him eastbound to Officer patrol car, which was parked on the corner of SW Salmon Street/SW Broadway Avenue. I followed approximately 10 feet behind them and did not overhear what, if anything, was said until they reached the patrol car. As I approached, I observed Sergeant and Officer thoroughly searching the suspect and removing items of property from his pockets. As I got within earshot, I overheard the suspect state something to the effect, "I did not intend to kill anyone, but they've stolen my mind." I overheard Officer tell the suspect not to say anything else and then heard Officer advise the suspect of his Miranda rights from memory. The suspect stated that, "Yes" he did understand his rights. I then assisted Officer in placing the suspect into the back seat of his patrol car. As I did so, I detected a strong odor of what I believed to be gasoline emanating from the suspect's clothing. I briefly stood by at that location and then suggested to Officer [redacted] that he transport the suspect directly to the Detective Division. I walked to my car and then returned to the Detective Division also. b6 b7C

Upon returning to my office, I found that the suspect had been placed in Holding Room #5, adjacent to the Homicide Detail in the Detective Division. Officer [redacted] brought with him the items of personal property removed from the suspect when he was searched. Some of those items were later seized as evidence by Detective [redacted] and listed on Property/Evidence Receipt #578065 and #578066. From the miscellaneous pieces of identification found in the suspect's wallet, I learned his name to be [redacted] b6 b7C

I then contacted [redacted] in the holding room and removed the handcuffs from him. I asked if he would like something to drink and he indicated that he would like a cup of water. I obtained this for him. During my contact with him in the holding room, I again detected a strong odor of gasoline emanating from his clothing. I had [redacted] stay seated in the holding room while I obtained arson debris bags from the Oregon State Police Forensics Laboratory. Returning to the Detective Division, I had [redacted] remove his outer clothing and provided him with a pair of paper coveralls. The items of clothing seized as evidence from [redacted] are listed on Property/Evidence Receipt #578064 and were placed individually into the arson debris bags. I then returned with them to the crime lab where I sealed the bags. They were later submitted to the laboratory for accelerant analysis. b6 b7C

I then remained in the Detective Division at my work space adjacent to Holding Room #5, where I periodically checked on [redacted] On at least three occasions during that time frame I offered to let him use the rest room and/or provided him with more water. At approximately 1300 hours, I was informed that Detectives [redacted] would be indefinitely delayed at the crime scene and was instructed to interview [redacted] Prior to commencing my interview with [redacted] I was contacted by a special agent from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms who requested immediate information b6 b7C

At 1320 hours, Detective [redacted] and I contacted [redacted] in Holding Room #5, and escorted him to Interview Room E, which is adjacent to the Person Crimes Section in the Detective Division. Both Detective [redacted] and I were wearing casual slacks and sport shirts. While Detective [redacted] retained his duty weapon in a belt holster, I had removed my weapon but kept the holster on my belt. Also prominently displayed on my belt was my Portland Police Sergeant's badge. The physical layout of Interview Room E is such that it measures approximately 12' by 6½' and has a 2½' by 4' table affixed to one wall. I had [redacted] sit across the table from Detective [redacted] while I sat at the end of the table, with no physical barrier between [redacted] and myself. While I took the lead roll in the interview, Detective Svilar took notes as the interview progressed.

I introduced ourselves to [redacted] as Portland Police Detectives, which he acknowledged he understood. Having previously detected an accent in [redacted] speech, I asked him how long he had been residing in the United States, whether he was comfortable reading and writing in English, and if he had attended college. [redacted] told us that he emigrated to the United States from Kenya in 1979 and that he could both read and write in English. He further informed us that he attended college in Kenya for two years. I told [redacted] that I was aware that the uniform officer had advised him of his Miranda rights at the scene, but I wanted to be assured that he did understand his rights. I then handed [redacted] a copy of a standard Constitutional Rights Advice form and asked him to read the form aloud to us. He did so with no difficulty whatsoever. At the conclusion I asked if he did in fact understand his rights and he said that he did, but that he was uncertain which of the options to choose. I indicated to him that we would discuss this further momentarily and then asked him on sign the form acknowledging that he understood his rights.

[redacted] signed his name to the form, after which I noted the date and time, which was by then 1325 hours.

I asked [redacted] where he was currently living and he told us that for approximately the past 10 days he had been staying at Mel's Motor Inn on N Interstate Avenue in Room #25. He indicated that prior to that he had been staying in a downtown hotel. I asked [redacted] how long he had been in Portland, to which he did not directly reply. He appeared uncertain and stated, "I'm not disoriented. I just have not kept track of it." He then went on to inform us that he arrived in Portland in early September, having come here via Greyhound bus from San Francisco. [redacted] then went on to state that he came to Portland to "fight these people." Since at this point he apparently had directed the conversation toward the incident itself, I stopped him from saying anything further and directed his attention back to the reading of his Miranda rights. I asked [redacted] precisely what he meant when he said that he was uncertain which option to choose from the list of rights provided on the standard form. Instead of answering my question directly [redacted] told me that he had been in trouble before as a result of arrests for infractions and minor criminal matters. He indicated that he felt that part of the reason he had gotten into trouble was due to his cooperation with the police in making a statement.

[redacted] then asked us if we were familiar with the Star Trek TV series. I told him that I did not follow it closely, but that I had seen some of the shows. He asked me if I had ever seen the episodes where the Clingons take a person's mind away. I told [redacted] I was vaguely familiar with those episodes, at which time he said that this was the Church of Scientology. I asked if he meant that the Church of Scientology had taken his mind away or was in some way controlling his mind and he replied, "Exactly."

b6

[redacted] then asked us if this incident and his subsequent arrest would be broadcast by the news media. I told him that most assuredly it would, to which he stated, "I didn't want to shoot that woman." This statement was made spontaneously, and not in response to any question asked by either Detective [redacted] or me. [redacted] asked if we were familiar with a previous incident involving the Church of Scientology and a woman's lawsuit against the organization. I replied that I did not specifically recall any particular individual's lawsuit against the Church of Scientology, but that I was aware that lawsuits had been filed against the church in the past. He advised that the woman he was referring to had been unsuccessful in getting her message out to people about the evils of the church and that he had taken a hostage in an effort to get that message out to the general public through the media. At this point I attempted to stop him from talking further about the incident until he decided whether he wanted to talk to an attorney or not, but he talked over me and refused to listen. [redacted] said that in exchange for providing us with a statement, we would have to get his message to the media. I explained to [redacted] that I could not make such an exchange because this could be construed as a promise to secure his statement. I further explained that threats and/or promises could not be made to him as this could be construed to be coercive to secure his statement. I went on to inform him that we did not want to violate his rights and that we had to follow the rules set forth by the courts. He said that he wanted to make this exchange and he wanted to talk to us, but that he also wanted his information about the Church of Scientology to be broadcast by the media so people would be informed. I explained to [redacted] that he could contact the news media himself, but that we could not do that for him.

[redacted] stated that this incident was probably not of great importance to us since we dealt with similar situations with some frequency, but it was a big deal to him. He said that he was raised in a small town where no one was ever shot, even by the police. He indicated that he thought that killing was very serious. When I explained to [redacted] that no one had been killed as a result of this incident, he appeared surprised. In a further attempt to address his issues regarding the media as well as his underestimating the impact of this incident, I asked if he were familiar with the shooting and hostage-taking incident at the KOIN Building earlier this year. [redacted] said that he was, at which time I told him that just as in that incident, this would be a major media event of some lasting duration, and that the information regarding the church he wanted to make known to the public would come out as the case proceeded in the system. I again told him that while we could not contact the media on his behalf, he could do so by placing collect calls from the detention center.

[redacted] seemed to ponder this, then stated, "This has taken a long time to do it," referring to this incident. He advised that he had spent a lot of money and time and that he had been going to the church almost every day to shoot them, but lost his nerve. He stated that this incident was not like a kid fighting over dope and that he "wasn't ghetto banging." [redacted] told us that "human life has irreplaceable value," and that he had been planning this incident every day since he came to Portland.

I again attempted to stop [redacted] from talking further about the incident until he made a decision regarding whether he wanted to talk to an attorney before he talked further with us. I again explained that we did not want to violate his rights, but that he had to reach a decision before we could continue. [redacted] said that he wanted to talk to us, but that he also wanted an attorney. When I told him that he had to make a decision, [redacted] told us that he thought this was a very difficult decision, and then said that he was concerned about my testifying for the City at his trial. I explained to [redacted] that my job was not to testify for anyone, but to provide a truthful account to the court of what people told me. I went on to tell [redacted] that if he were concerned about my truthfulness, I could obtain a tape recorder immediately to act as a safeguard for him and insure an accurate recordation of his statement. [redacted] did not address my offer, choosing instead to talk further about the incident. He stated that he had written plans in his motel room which included a floor plan and his intentions. [redacted] went on to state that the woman at the front door was supposed to be his hostage and that his plan was not to kill anyone, but just to take hostages and get his message out.

I again addressed the issue over the attorney, but he interrupted me and stated, "I'm not crazy. This is why I'm being difficult." He then asked about the people he had shot. I explained to him that as far as we knew at this point they were just injured, that no one had been killed. He stated that he did not mean to kill anyone. I told [redacted] that I could tell from his body language, his somewhat agitated state, and a tear forming in his left eye that it was apparent to me that he wanted to tell someone about the incident, but that I needed for him to make a decision whether he wanted to talk to us or with an attorney first. [redacted] again ignored me and stated that his psychiatrist in San Francisco said that he is crazy, but he denied this. He advised that he had been planning this incident for two years.

I told [redacted] that he had to sit quietly and listen to me. I again informed him that he needed to make a decision whether he wanted to speak with us or with an attorney first. I reiterated that we did not want to violate his rights but that we could proceed no further without his making that decision. [redacted] told us that he had no money and that he would need a court appointed attorney. He then asked when the court would appoint him an attorney. I explained that he would be arraigned on the following afternoon and that he would be appointed an attorney at that time. He said, "I need to talk about this. I will talk to you without an attorney." Detective [redacted] made note that this statement was made at 1400 hours.

I asked [redacted] about his involvement with the Church of Scientology and what that entailed. He informed us that his only involvement occurred when he had been living in Portland and that he first became involved with the church number of years ago. [redacted] went on to state that he dropped out of the church briefly because his mind was saying that something was wrong. He recalled living on SW Barbur Boulevard during the early to mid-1980's and told us that he had been married to a white female at that time. He went on to state that he has currently been separated from his wife for approximately 10 years and that he is not aware of her whereabouts. He further recalled while living at the above indicated location, being visited by subject by the name of [redacted] who was a representative of the Church of Scientology. He said that he enrolled in a communication course taught by this person and felt he derived some benefit from it. [redacted] said that at that time his mind had not yet been taken over by the Scientologists. He talked also of his attention being drawn to the church by a lawsuit filed by a woman against the church in 1984 or 1986. He also indicated that there were numerous other lawsuits against the church, all of which he felt were unresolved. I asked if he meant that the church had paid these people off to drop their lawsuits and he said that the church had not, that the lawsuits were either dismissed or entangled in the court process, which he intimated met the church's needs, but not the individuals'. He then made a reference to this current incident by stating that he was trying to draw attention not only to his own case, but to all of the others as well.

[redacted] continued by stating that he did not remember returning to the Church of Scientology in the mid-80's, but said that he did go back at some point. [redacted] then stated, "What happens next I don't understand." He then began to discuss the mind control issues and how he felt members of the Church of Scientology had taken control over his mind and body. He told us at this point that the mind controllers were only located in Los Angeles or San Francisco, but, as with many other things, he contradicted himself at a later time.

At that point [redacted] asked for a cup of coffee, which Detective [redacted] obtained for him. While Detective [redacted] was out of the room [redacted] talked about his inability to function properly while being subjected to this mind control from the members of the Church of Scientology. He explained that it was like all three of us in the interview room were inside of his mind and that there was continual conflict over what his actions should be. Upon Detective [redacted] return, [redacted] discontinued talking in a historical sense, and switched to present tense, discussing the current incident. He stated that today was an accumulation of things and that he came to Portland with "this" in mind.

He then directed the course of the interview to a previous incident involving himself and the Church of Scientology which occurred in February of this year and is documented on PPB Case #96-10785. He made reference to this by calling it an incident that occurred "last year"; however, the facts as he outlined them match that incident. He told us that he called [redacted] at that time and then again referenced the current incident. He indicated that [redacted] was the woman he shot today and that "she was begging for her life." [redacted] then again referenced the earlier incident in February by telling us that he asked [redacted] for $50,000 because of what [redacted] had put him through. He indicated that [redacted] was one of the mind controllers and again reiterated that he was owed this money for what she put him through. He recalled making threats over the telephone to [redacted] and told her that he was armed and that he would come and kill her if she did not pay him the $50,000. [redacted] advised that he had been drinking at the time of that telephone conversation and let his guard down by staying on the telephone too long, allowing the police to find him and take him into custody.

[redacted] said that a lot of his problems over the years had been caused by his drinking too much and then again redirected the course of the conversation to the current incident, as opposed to the incident that occurred in February. In so doing he told us that he had not been drinking today, that he wanted to be focused. He went on to tell us, that while we would find empty bottles of alcoholic beverages in his motel room, he had not been drinking for the past three or four days in preparation for today's incident at the Church of Scientology.

I redirected [redacted] back to the prior incident in February by asking him if he was upset with [redacted] for what had happened, particularly his arrest. He told us that [redacted] had him arrested and that this arrest had taken place at the motel room where he had placed the call. [redacted] said that ultimately he was incarcerated for 30 days, given credit for time served, and sentenced to one year's bench probation. He said that his weapon was confiscated and had it not been taken away from him, he would have caused an incident similar to today's at the Church of Scientology at that time. He told us that the weapon he possessed at the time of the earlier incident that was confiscated from him, was a Ruger, .45 caliber semiautomatic pistol, identical to the weapon he used today.

I then directed the course of the interview to the current incident. told us that he had been planning this incident for quite some time, at least a couple of years. He then went on state that after his release from jail after the incident in February, he felt that $50,000 was no longer an adequate sum to compensate him for the mind control exerted over him by the Church of Scientology. He advised that he raised his demand to $3,000,000, but indicated that he never recontacted the Church of Scientology upon returning to Portland in early September of this year. He advised that they knew about the increased sum, due to their mind controlling methods and mental telepathy. He went on to state that "this was premeditated," and indicated that he felt he was running out of choices in how to deal with this. He drew an analogy to President Bush and Saddam Hussein during the Desert Storm incident wherein ultimatums were delivered and options were few. I asked if he came from San Francisco to Portland to kill "them," and he replied, "Yes," and that he had been planning this for over one year.

I then asked about the weapon that he used during today's incident. He advised that he purchased the gun in San Francisco before coming to Portland from a gun store called the Gun Exchange. He advised that the Gun Exchange store is located on 2nd Street in San Francisco and that a receipt for the weapon was in his wallet. He indicated that the weapon itself cost $439 but that the total bill was closer to $500. While he had not fired this weapon, he said it was identical to the gun confiscated during the February incident. b6 b7C said that he was very comfortable with the operation of a .45 caliber semiautomatic pistol and that he had gone target shooting with the previous weapon. He told us that it was a .45 caliber Ruger semiautomatic pistol with a seven-round magazine. said that he was "proud to own it," and talked further about his desire to join the National Rifle Association. aside, [redacted] talked about accompanying his father-in-law to a pistol range near Estacada in the past and how he had fired hundreds of rounds with a .45 caliber pistol. b6 b7C

[redacted] went on to state that he purchased the gun with the intention of using it against the Church of Scientology and its employees if he were not paid the $3,000,000 which he felt was owed to him. He considered today's incident his "final option," and indicated that he felt he was running out of choices because they would not pay him the money and they would not release their control over his mind. b6 b7C

I asked [redacted] how he reached the decision that today was the day to cause this incident to occur. He told us that it was a very difficult decision and informed us that he received Supplemental Security Income for his mental condition and had accumulated between $1,600 and $1,700 while staying in a shelter in San Francisco. He indicated that he used this as his bankroll for coming to Portland to attack the Church of Scientology. He reiterated that he did not call the Church of Scientology to let them know he was in town, but again relied upon their use of mind control and mental telepathy to inform them of his presence. [redacted] said that it was his original plan to carry out the incident on the third day after his arrival in Portland, but found that he did not have the resolve. He said that he tried again on the fourth day and again failed. [redacted] told us that he came downtown periodically with the gun during his stay in Portland, but found that he was unable to follow through with his plan. When faced with his lack of resolve, [redacted] said he went home to his motel room, or wherever it was he was staying at the time, and became intoxicated. He said that he drank because of his failure to follow through with his plans. [redacted] stated that he finally decided to do it today because he was running out of money and had stopped drinking. He indicated that his room was paid up until 092696 in case he again failed. b6 b7C

I then directed [redacted] attention to today's incident. [redacted] told us that he left Mel's Motor Inn at approximately 1000 hours and boarded a #5 bus on b6 b7C

N Interstate Avenue to come downtown. He informed us that he was armed with his gun and that he carried it unloaded in its original case, which he said was plastic with a hinged lid. As an aside he told us how proud of it he was that he had passed the basic firearm's test with a score of 100 percent and in further discussing his .45 caliber semiautomatic pistol, he stated, "I know the devastation it can cause."

[redacted] went on to relate that he carried the gun case in an olive green colored Army duffel bag. He originally told us that he also carried ammunition in this bag, but later said that he did not. [redacted] also indicated that he had a plastic gasoline container with a 1.5 gallon capacity inside of the duffel bag. He told us that he bought the gasoline can some time ago at a Fred Meyer store. b6 b7C

When I asked [redacted] if he had fuel in the gasoline container he stopped and looked at me. He then stated, "Maybe I need a lawyer now." I stopped the interview and asked if in fact he wanted to talk to an attorney prior to speaking further with us. [redacted] did not answer immediately, at which time I told him I had interviewed many people and seen this several times where a person would talk about the background leading up to an incident, but when they reached the crucial substance they backed away. I told [redacted] that I wanted to hear the rest of his story and that I thought he wanted to tell US about it, but that again we could not proceed further until he decided whether he wanted to continue the interview, or speak with an attorney. [redacted] stated, "No, no. Let's go on." b6 b7C

I directed the course of the interview back to the items he brought downtown with him. He initially told us that the magazines he carried were fully loaded, that he brought 100 rounds with him, and that 50 rounds were still in an unused box of ammunition. He then told us that he actually brought three bags with him. He described the three bags as being a black and yellow nylon fanny pack, which contained two loaded magazines and the remainder of a box of ammunition loose inside the pack. duffel bag in which he carried his gun, the gas can, two pairs of pants, a book, and some pills. When asked what kind of pills, [redacted] only replied, "Just pills." He also indicated that he carried a smaller bag, similar in size to a woman's purse, and being dark blue in color. He told us that it was in this bag that he carried the unused box of ammunition, but he could not recall what else he had in that bag. [redacted] pointed out that the law in California requires that loaded magazines and ammunition must be carried separately from the weapon.

[redacted] continued by stating that he rode the #5 bus downtown, but he was uncertain where he got off of the bus. He said he communicated with the Church of Scientology by his thoughts and decided to give them one more chance to pay him the $3,000,000 that they owed him. He again indicated that this was all done through mental telepathy. In giving them one more chance, he went to a First Interstate Bank Automatic Teller Machine where he withdrew $40 from his account. The ATM statement indicated he only had a balance of $47 left in his account. [redacted] stated, "That really pissed me off." I asked why this made him angry and he indicated that they had not paid him, and that through their mental communications they should have known to put the $3,000,000 into his bank account.

[redacted] said that he then walked two or three bus stops further along the bus mall where he boarded a #8 bus because he knew it would take him within two or three blocks of the South Park Blocks. At this point, [redacted] told us that he reconsidered attacking the Church of Scientology today, telling himself, "Maybe tomorrow." He said that he mustered his resolve and felt that he should go forward with his plan today.

b6

[redacted] told us that it was as he arrived in the South Park Blocks that he first felt some fear over carrying out his plan today. He recalled smoking a cigarette and having his hands shake as he lit the cigarette. He indicated that he again reconsidered by rationalizing in his mind that his rent was paid up for one more day and that maybe he should return to the motel and think it over. He ultimately decided that he did not want to do this, that he thought back about everything he had experienced at the hands of the Church of Scientology and felt like he had no options other than to move forward.

[redacted] said that while he was in the park he smoked a second cigarette and that two men, one black and one white, approached and handed him a flyer. He said that it was his impression that they thought he was a transient because of the bags he was carrying and that this was why they approached him and gave him the flyer. The flyer offered a place to stay providing he agreed to work panhandling two to three hours a day, the proceeds from which he would then share with the group who ran the house. He told us that he was "just about to deploy" at this point and that he felt that the two men approaching him was perhaps God's way of telling him not to do this. [redacted] stated that he resolved himself to carry out his plan and said that he "decided he would not be homeless again."

b7C

[redacted] said that he reached inside the duffel bag and began loading his gun while still in the South Park Blocks. He indicated that he was trying very hard not to show anyone what he was doing and felt like this was "a first." He explained that he meant that this was a step toward completing his plan which he had thus far never taken before. He said that he had loaded and unloaded the weapon before in his room and planned it out in his mind, but always lost his resolve prior to moving forward.

He advised that he smoked a third cigarette after placing the loaded magazine into the weapon. As he smoked, he said that he told himself that he could decide to unload it and leave, but realized he had backed out every time in the past. [redacted] said he told himself he had to go through with it, and then put on his fanny pack. He advised that he could see a Chevron service station from his location in the Park Blocks and by description indicated that it was the service station on SW Broadway Avenue/SW Columbia Street.

[redacted] continued by stating that he did not walk directly to the service station, but took a circuitous route so as not to arouse anyone's suspicions. He likened it to a military or police action and recalled worrying that someone at the gas station would remember him. He further recalled seeing a woman on the street and felt that she would be suspicious of a man carrying a gas can. He indicated that this made him nervous and that he was also concerned about the gas station attendant calling the police about him. In spite of his nervousness, [redacted] said he continued and purchased the gasoline at the station.

b7C

I asked him what the gasoline was for and he replied, "I wanted to burn the place up." In further explanation, [redacted] said that he had no experience with starting fires, only with putting them out. He discussed his experience fighting a fire on rangeland or a farm.

b7C

Once at the service station, [redacted] said he removed the plastic gasoline container from his duffel bag and then approached Pump #6. He recalled the attendant was a 38- to 40-year-old black male, taller than himself, who asked him how much gas he wanted to purchase. [redacted] replied, "Just enough to get it started." He felt like this was a logical explanation to give to the attendant.

[redacted] said he left the service station and carried the gasoline in the container, but that he did not place it back inside of the duffel bag. He advised that he walked down a stairway near the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall, across the street from the South Park Blocks. By description this would be the area of SW Park Avenue/SW Main Street. He stepped back out of public view and decided to go forward with his plan. He removed the gun from the duffel bag and placed it in the waistband of his pants at the small of his back. He indicated that he pulled his sweatshirt down over the weapon and also that he was wearing a plaid shirt with a quilted lining over the sweatshirt. [redacted] told us that something told him they were expecting him and that this made him very nervous. He remembered thinking at the time that he did not want to be caught, but decided that he must follow through. He carried his bags in his left hand while carrying the gasoline container in his right.

[redacted] said that he left, walking to SW Broadway Avenue, where he turned northbound until he reached SW Salmon Street. He observed two white males standing in front of the entrance to the Church of Scientology and felt that they were connected with that organization. These two men caused him concern and he walked to a garbage can on the corner of SW Broadway Avenue/SW Salmon Street where he was uncertain whether to proceed. He ultimately realized that "there was no turning back." [redacted] said that he walked past the two white males and that he intended to get inside "no matter what." I asked him what he intended to do inside and he told us that he was going to shoot the men and use the women for hostages. I asked if he had a specific plan and he told us that he was familiar with the floor plan and that he had gone to the church just a few days prior and looked inside. At that time he realized the church had been remodeled since he was last there, but that it was still basically the same. He again told us that his plan could be located in his motel room. Detective [redacted] had [redacted] draw a diagram of the ground floor to better help us understand his actions. This was later placed in the Property Room as evidence on Property/Evidence Receipt #578067. In explaining his plan, he drew in the entrance toward the bottom of the sheet and indicated that on the opposite wall from the entrance, there were two stairwells, one leading up and one down. He further indicated with the use of the diagram, that as you entered there was a receptionist to the right, as well as an interior stairwell leading up to a second floor. He also indicated that there were some desks where people usually sat off to the left as you entered. He advised that it was his intention to enter the lobby, walk across to the opposite wall, and set fires near both stairwells.

[redacted] then stated, "Part of my mind is thinking that one of those people will die. I want to die because the Church of Scientology has taken away my mind, soul, and spirit." He further explained that he wanted one of the men to die and not [redacted] I asked him what happened next, at which time he stated, "Maybe I should leave something for my attorney."

I again stopped the interview, at which time I told [redacted] that his mention of an attorney precluded me from any further discussion until we established whether he wanted an attorney present prior to our talking further with him. I further told him that it was my impression that he wanted to talk to us, but that I did not want to violate his rights, nor did I want to do anything that he was not comfortable doing. He replied, "Now it's too late. I will go on." b6 b7C

I then directed his attention back to his original plan. He reiterated that it was his intention to start fires near the stairwells, to shoot the men in the establishment, and to take women hostages. He said it was his intention to stop them from controlling his mind any further.

As he entered the Church of Scientology, he noticed [redacted] at the receptionist counter. [redacted] said he remembered thinking to himself that she was not supposed to be there. He further remembered her having an office on the second floor of the establishment. [redacted] recalled her saying when she saw him, [redacted] don't shoot." I asked at what point he removed the gun from the small of his back and [redacted] could not recall. He said that when she said something to him, he raised the gun in his right hand to a point shoulder position and fired one round at her. He indicated that she was either struck by the bullet or tried to dive beneath the counter, at which time he fired a second time at her. [redacted] initially said that his first shot was with one hand in a point shoulder position, and that the second shot was with a two-hand hold in more of an instinct shooting position. He then reversed this, saying that his first shot was with a two-hand hold and his second shot was one hand from a point shoulder position. b6 b7C

[redacted] told us that it was not in his original plan to shoot [redacted] and he realized his plans were disturbed. He further told us that he did not believe he fired the second shot of his own volition, but that someone in the Church of Scientology wanted [redacted] to die and that they controlled his actions. He also told us that he thought someone was behind [redacted] said that by shooting [redacted] his plan could not totally be fulfilled, but that he still intended to get the "mind control guys." After shooting [redacted] stated he poured a small amount of gasoline on the carpet and then used his disposable lighter to set it on fire. He recalled that he must have gotten some gasoline on his shoes because they also erupted in flames and he had to stamp his feet to make the fire on his shoes go out. After doing this, he recalled two men coming down the stairs toward him, both of which he fired his gun at. [redacted] said he fired one shot at each of them and that they both fell at the base of the stairs. He indicated that he then walked past them up the stairs and as he approached the top of the stairs, he recalled one of the two men getting up. He turned and fired one or two shots at the man who had gotten up, but he did not know whether he hit him. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that he continued upstairs and initially started toward [redacted]s" office. He advised that he did not enter her office because he realized she was downstairs. He then entered another office where he encountered a white female. He said that she appeared confused as if she did not know whether to hide or run. [redacted] said he told her to turn around as she tried to question him, and that he grabbed the collar on the back of her dress. He said that this was too flimsy to control her and so he grabbed the back of her bra. [redacted] indicated that he used his left hand to hold the woman and his right hand to hold the gun. He demonstrated this by closing his left fist as if clenching something and then pointing the gun in his right hand toward where the woman's head would be. While he initially denied pointing the gun at her, he conceded shortly thereafter that he may have pointed the gun b6 b7C at the woman's head. [redacted] said that she talked to him and appeared very self-confident. He said that he both admired and respected her for this. [redacted] stated that he decided not to leave her behind and began entering other upstairs offices, taking the woman with him as he did so.

[redacted] told us that he contemplated releasing the woman and going after "those guys," meaning the people involved in controlling his mind; however, he observed smoke rising from the first floor. [redacted] said he did not expect smoke, especially black smoke, and this frightened him. He said that the smoke came up the stairs "like a ghost." He realized at this point in his mind that his plan was not going to work.

b6 b7C

[redacted] said he asked the woman where there was another exit and she directed him through a door to a set of stairs, which she said led to the street. [redacted] advised that as he walked down the stairs, he stopped to reload his weapon. He said that he had originally planned to reload the weapon after firing six shots, but that this slipped his mind until he was on the stairs leading down to the street. He remembered removing the magazine from his gun and discarding it on the stairs, noting as he did so that there was still one live round in the magazine. He then replaced it with a full magazine from his fanny pack, moved the slide action to chamber a round, and as he did so he ejected a live round onto the stairs or floor. He recalled having some confusion over the operation of the gun during this process and he was not sure whether the next round would be double action or not. As this was occurring, he remembered the woman asking him questions and again mentioned admiring her presence of mind.

As he moved down the stairway, [redacted] said he realized he had failed. He explained that he had shot people he did not intend to and that he had taken the wrong hostage. [redacted] said that [redacted] should have been his hostage and he said that he felt sorry about shooting her, but not the men. He said that he wishes one of them would die.

I attempted to redirect [redacted] to what occurred next in the sequence of events. In so doing he reiterated that as the woman was leading him to the exterior door, he began to think that he had bungled everything. As they were on the stairwell, he remembered encountering a man who he first said was a teenager and later thought might have been in his early 20's. [redacted] recalled giving directions to the woman to tell the man to run to the top of the stairs and to not get involved. As they moved toward the doorway at the foot of the stairs, [redacted] said that she pushed the door open without his telling her to do so and that it was at this point that he remembered encountering the police. He advised that he released the hostage and did as he was told by the police officers.

In concluding our interview with [redacted] he stated, "I wanted those guys dead, but I also want a trial." At 1135 hours on 092696, Detective [ ] and I again contacted [ ] b6 b7C [ ] in the Transfer Section of the Multnomah County Detention Center. I explained to [ ] that we wanted to clarify some issues with him, at which time I handcuffed him and we escorted [ ] to the Detective Division. He sat briefly in Holding Room #6 after I removed the handcuffs and obtained a cup of coffee for him. We then escorted him into Interview Room E where I had him take a seat and asked if he remembered that we were police detectives. [ ] said that he did remember. I told him that I needed to again advise him of his Miranda rights and handed him a copy of a standard advice of rights waiver form. [ ] read the form aloud and at the conclusion stated that he did understand his constitutional rights.

I told [ ] that we would like his consent to obtain medical records from his psychiatrist in San Francisco and showed him a form for this purpose. [ ] told us that he had been told in the jail that he would be appointed an attorney in approximately three hours and that while he did not feel tricked or cheated by Detective [ ] and me, he felt that he may have perhaps divulged too much information during our previous interview. He offered to look at the forms again after speaking with his attorney, but that he definitely wanted to talk to a lawyer before any further conversations with us. [ ] told us b6 b7C that he did not think that he did anything wrong and again said that he did not feel cheated by us, but that he may have said yes to something he should have said no to during our previous interview. He went on to state that he may have given out too much information and did not leave anything for his attorney to work with. Since [ ] unequivocally asked for an attorney, we made no further attempt to interview him.

In concluding our contact with [ ] he said that while he did not consider what he did to be personally wrong, he acknowledged that it may not have been legal. [ ] was briefly placed in Holding Room #6 before returning him to the Transfer Section at MCDC.

to contact any available witnesses located inside the Macheezmo Mouse Restaurant, located directly west of 709 SW Salmon Street.

I first contacted [redacted] who identified himself as an employee of the Church of Scientology, and who stated that he was upstairs in the building at the time of the shooting. [redacted] stated that he and five others were going through a lesson plan in the "course room" located on the second floor of the building. [redacted] said he heard two to three sharp noises and began to realize that something was amiss. He said he and the other occupants all came out of the classroom into the hallway. As they did so they encountered another employee named [redacted] coming down the hall. [redacted] says [redacted] told the whole group to get out of the building as fast as they could via the fire exits. [redacted] says he turned and observed most of his companions fleeing down the central hallway toward the rear exit. [redacted] says he decided to turn down a side hall and hide in a nearby sauna. He said he hid inside for approximately 15 minutes before being rescued by firemen. He said during the time he was in the sauna he could hear the crash of the firemen breaking in the doors as they approached him coming down the hallway.

[redacted] stated that before fleeing down the hallway to the sauna, he observed a black male subject coming up the main staircase towards the second floor. He described this subject as male black, in his late 20's, wearing a blue stocking cap pulled down over his head, baggy loose fitting pants and possibly a dark blue coat. He said he observed this subject carrying a gun in his right hand, and described it as silver metallic in color. He believes that he got approximately 20 yards from the suspect at the closest point. After seeing the armed subject, [redacted] said he fled down the hall and hid inside the sauna.

On 092596 at 1227 hours, I contacted [redacted] inside the Macheezmo Mouse Restaurant. [redacted] said he had been at a business meeting in a nearby downtown office building all morning and had just begun his lunch break. He said he crossed Salmon Street towards the Macheezmo Mouse Restaurant intending to eat lunch there. He said as he crossed Salmon Street he began to realize there was a great deal of chaos outside the restaurant and the Church of Scientology. He said he observed one victim laying outside on the ground with what appeared to be a bullet wound to the chest. He said the firemen and paramedics were just arriving so he walked on by without rendering any assistance. [redacted] said he decided to stay around and talk to the police to let us know that he saw absolutely nothing.

On 092596 at 1234 hours, I contacted [redacted] inside the Macheezmo Mouse Restaurant. [redacted] described himself as a self-employed building contractor that was currently working on the upstairs film room at the Church of Scientology. He also related that he is a parishioner and attends the Church of Scientology. [redacted] told me that while working upstairs he heard approximately three gunshots coming from the downstairs area. He says he got worried and went to investigate. [redacted] said he met another employee named [redacted] (last name unknown) in the hallway who said to him "Somebody down there is shooting". [redacted] said they then gathered everyone else on the second floor and ran them towards the back exit that leads down to SW Salmon Street. He stated that he instructed them to wait at the foot of the stairs by the exit door but not to go outside until he returned. [redacted] said he and [redacted] then went back to the main staircase leading to the reception area on the first floor. He said by now they had heard three or four more shots coming from downstairs. He said as they started down the staircase to the first landing he observed a black male subject starting to walk up the stairs toward them. He described this subject as: Black male, [redacted] years of age, [redacted] tall, [redacted] He said the suspect was dressed in a purple shirt with some sort of white design on it, dark pants and a dark colored hat. He said this subject got within 10 to 15 feet of them at the closest point when he noticed this suspect carrying a silver-colored pistol that he believed to be a semiautomatic. He said he and [redacted] turned and fled back to the rear exit where the others were waiting. Upon reaching the metal fire door at the ground floor, they opened the doors slightly to see if there were any further threats outside. He said he could see the main entrance to the reception area and saw that there was now a great deal of smoke filling the ground floor office

Sir,

I responded to this shooting/arson scene, assisted by Sgt. Criminalist [redacted] Upon arrival, and after being briefed by uniformed officers and detectives already at the scene, Sgt. Criminalist [redacted] photographed the exterior and interior of the crime scene using 35mm format, with special attention to items of evidence and damage to the scene from bulletholes and a gasoline arson fire set in the lobby area of this building. I videotaped the scene using 8mm videotape format. Following the photography, the items of evidence and damage were marked with a series of consecutively numbered yellow markers, and 35mm photos were again taken showing the markers in place. Sgt. Criminalist [redacted] and I, assisted by Lt. [redacted] Harms of the Portland Fire Bureau arson investigation unit, collected evidence at the scene (disposition of evidence to follow). While at the scene, I videotaped walkthrough/interviews of portions of the scene with two witnesses, [redacted] These interviews were done under the direction of Det. [redacted] primary homicide detective on the scene, and the 8mm videotape was given to Det. [redacted] at the conclusion of the interviews. The crime scene videotape and the 35mm crime scene photos were placed in the Identification division photo lab.

One bag of bloodstained clothing, from victim [redacted] listed on Evidence receipt# 490023, and one bag of bloodstained clothing from victim [redacted] listed on Evidence receipt# 490022, were given to me at the scene by Sgt. [redacted] who obtained them at the hospital. One bloodstained green sweater from the lobby floor, and a partially burnt backpack from the lobby floor, were listed on Evidence receipt# 546009. I delivered the items on these three receipts to the hazardous materials storage locker at the Rivergate Police Impound Lot.

Three carpet samples from the lobby floor and a sample of gasoline from the gas can in the lobby were collected by Lt. [redacted] These items were listed on Evidence receipt# 546007, and I delivered them to the Oregon State Crime lab for analysis.

One spent bullet, listed on Evidence Receipt# 546008, was forwarded to the police property room.

Two spent casings; one .45 cal bullet; one empty Ruger .45 cal magazine; a Ruger P-90 .45 caliber pistol (ser # 660-96713)containing a magazine and 7 rounds ammo; a green/black fanny pack (unzipped) containing 36 rounds of .45 cal ammo; and a blue flannel coat (containing a pack of Kool cigarettes, one dollar bill, and misc.papers); were all listed on Evidence receipt# 490025,and forwarded to the property room.

One red gas can; a melted gas can spout; a pink plastic lighter; one bullet fragment; three spent casings; and the unburnt contents of the backpack (four plastic medicine bottles,one blue/red canvas bag, one brown textbook, one plastic Ruger gun case [empty], one Ricoh camera in a case, one full and one empty 50 round box of .45 ammo, one pair brown sunglasses,one razorblade knife, and one Fred Meyer cash register receipt), were listed on Evidence receipt# 490024 and forwarded to the property room.

the reception desk. I examined the second floor of the structure. There was some smoke damage and light sooting in the stairway and the area just above the stairwell on the second floor.

Damage from the fire, including the damage done by smoke and water, appear to be approximately $10,000 to the building and contents.

The first floor lobby floor was covered with a commercial-grade nylon carpet and foam pad. The fire on the floor burned the carpet and foam pad in an area approximately 20' x 6', extending down the steps to the lower area. The east side of the burned area had a very distinct line, between the burned and unburned section of the carpet. This is indicative of a flammable liquid type fuel burning on the surface of the carpet.

The north and south ends of the burned section appear to come to somewhat of a point with areas of burned and unburned carpet indicative of a beginning and end of a poured flammable liquid on the surface of the carpet.

At the south end of the burned area was a one-gallon red plastic gas can laying on its side with scorching at the top. The can had a small amount of fluid left inside. It had a distinct odor of flammable liquid similar to gasoline. The gas can was listed as Item #1, a sample of the liquid in the can was taken and placed in a small glass vial for future testing.

There was a red plastic butane-type lighter just to the west of the gas can. It was listed as Item #2.

On the steps at the north end of the burned area, there was a plastic spout which appeared to be a perfect match for the gas can. It was listed as Item #8.

Item #9 was a carpet sample from the north end of the burned area at approximately the top of the steps. This sample was placed into a one-gallon metal can. I noticed a distinct odor

Item #12 was a carpet sample from the south end of the burned area. It was placed in a metal container.

Item #10 was a control sample taken from an unburned area near the door, leading down the stairs. Criminalist [redacted] of the PPB ID Unit photographed and marked the items pertaining to the fire investigation. He took custody of the evidence at the scene. b6 b7C

All observations and evidence at the scene are consistent with a subject pouring flammable liquid on the carpet in the lobby. The flammable liquid was poured from the stairs towards the front door. The gas can was dropped and the fuel ignited with the BIC lighter.

THE CHURCH: Is it a religion or a cult? Observers disagree on the organization

By MARK O'KEEFE
of The Oregonian staff

Walk along Southwest Salmon Street off Broadway in downtown Portland, and you can't miss the large yellow sidewalk sign, between Macheezmo Mouse and John Helmer haberdasher.

It says, "Free Personality Test."

"That's a come-on," said Robert V. Young of Seattle, who handled public relations for the Church of Scientology for more than 20 years before becoming one of its most vocal critics. "They fish you out, based on the questions."

But the Church of Scientology, which claims more than 8 million members worldwide, views the personality test as an invitation to a path of self-discovery and enhancement.

On Thursday, a day after a gunman shot four people in the church's Salmon Street Celebrity Centre, police began investigating connections between the church and Jairus C. Godeka, who says his life and finances were ruined by Scientology.

That investigation, and the violence that prompted it, again have drawn attention to a church that has been enmeshed in controversy since its inception. And it brought church officials out in force to defend and explain their beliefs — and to argue that the church is the victim of misunderstanding and prejudice.

Founded by science fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard about 40 years ago, Scientology is embraced by Hollywood celebrities including John Travolta, Tom Cruise, Priscilla and Lisa Marie

He came from Kenya in 1979 to "accomplish something in America," he said, his hopes fueled by high expectations from friends and family.

But Jairus Godeka felt his dream fade to "gloom and doom," after he was introduced to the Church of Scientology in 1980, he told police.

"They imprisoned my mind to do what they wanted me to do," he said.

That belief may explain why Godeka is accused of shooting and wounding four people — Helen Burke, Carlos Colon, Steven Crandell and Jim Stone — and starting a fire in the Church of Scientology office in downtown Portland on Wednesday.

and on charges of attempted aggravated murder, arson, kidnapping, assault and burglary.

The turn of events shocked at least one friend, who describes Godeka as a gentle man who was "mild-mannered and had a great desire to please everyone" — someone who was far from crazy and worked hard to make a fledgling business successful.

Police records, however, show another side: one of violence, drunkenness and obsession.

In a long, sometimes rambling statement to police in February, Godeka detailed a variety of grievances he had with Scientology and said how for years he felt the organization should be made to pay $50,000 for ruining his life.

Born in Kenya in 1958, Godeka said he came to the United States on a visa.

Godeka's in-laws, who asked that their names not be used, said Thursday that he came to study business administration at a college in Vancouver, Wash., several years ago.

They said he and his estranged wife, Christina, met while he was a student. The two married in Vancouver and lived there for three or four months before moving to Portland.

About five years into the marriage, they said, Godeka found Scientology.

A month after he did, the in-laws said, Godeka sold his belongings, including a stereo the couple owned, and left his wife.

"The Church of Scientology told him he had to cleanse or purify himself and to leave her," Christina's mother said. "He was fine until he got involved with that church."

The mother described Godeka as intelligent, hard-working and honest."

"It's not like he'd just go bonkers. He was looking for help, someone to just listen to him," she said.

After the breakup, he moved to San Francisco, where, he told police, he had a business called Phoenix Lighting.

Max Adelson, who provided an answering service to Godeka in San Francisco, remembers how hard the Kenyan worked.

Adelson, who describes himself as a friend, said Godeka went door-to-door selling light fixtures and for a time found success.

"He was all business, mild mannered, very gentle and had a great desire to please everybody," Adelson said. "He's a nice pleasant kind of guy that tried to make a living.

"This (shooting) startled the hell out of us."

In court documents and police records, Godeka listed his address in San Francisco as the Cadillac Hotel at 380 Eddy St.

The four-story building, converted into single rooms that rent for $225 a month — $175 without a bathroom — sits in San Francisco's Tenderloin district, a run-down area plagued by vagrancy, prostitution and drug use.

For Godeka, the hotel had one convenience: it sat five blocks from San Francisco's Church of Scientology office on McAllister Street.

Over the next few years, Godeka shuttled between San Francisco and Portland, where he lived in several places. But no matter where he lived, he could not seem to escape his obsession with the church.

In his statement to police, Godeka said he became attracted to Scientology after a session at the Portland branch to familiarize himself with the group's philosophies.

He then took a free personality test and bought some books.

At some point, however, he began to feel that several church employees were controlling his mind, he said.

One person particularly troubled him: Burke, the receptionist at the Portland branch, who would become one of his gunshot victims.

"It was Helen," he said in one interview with police. "Helen's kept me a prisoner all these years." Burke, who is in serious condition, could not be reached for comment.

By December 1995, court records began to show traffic arrests such as drunken driving, driving with an open container and driving without insurance.

Godeka told police that he began to believe the organization had somehow kept his sister from coming to America from Kenya to get her master's degree.

He told police the church had caused his lighting business $100,000 in damages, and that he had failed himself, his family and his friends.

"He said he was embarrassed because of the expectations of his family and friends that he was to accomplish something in America" but didn't, Portland Police detective William Johnston wrote in one report.

As usual, Scientology was to blame.

Godeka first demanded money in a 1994 in a call to Angela Mann, spokeswoman for the Portland branch, police reports indicate.

Meanwhile, during trips to San Francisco, Godeka made threats to workers at the Scientology office there.

Then, in January 1996, while back in Portland, he cased the downtown Scientology office at Southwest Salmon Street and Broadway for two weeks and began placing phone calls again.

Police records show the first came Feb. 1, when he told Burke that he would kill everyone in the office unless the church came up with $50,000.

He called again, several times, on Feb. 5, with the same threats.

He was arrested that day at the Travel Inn motel at 000 E. Burnside St. A hotel clerk said Godeka had been drunk and obnoxious.

To the officers, however, Godeka was polite and helpful.

In fact, he said, he knew who had sent them.

When officer K.S. Leighton asked how, Godeka didn't hesitate.

"Because they're using you," he replied.

Staff writers Chastity Pratt and Peter Farrell contributed to this report.

Two victims played dead after gunman fired shots

Jim Stone fled the building only to see his wife being brought out at gunpoint by the suspect a few minutes later

By DAVID R. ANDERSON
of The Oregonian staff

Jim Stone walked down the stairs, curious to see where the shooting was coming from.

"As soon as I made it to the bottom of the stairs, I saw Steve (Crandell) and heard a pop and saw him grab his side and go down."

Jairus C. Godeka pointed the gun at Stone and fired. Stone dropped to the floor, thinking he had avoided the gunfire.

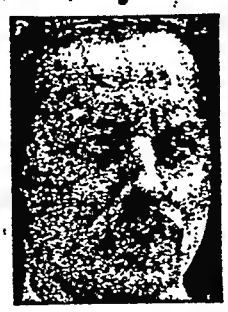
The two men played dead, Stone facing out the door, unable to see what Godeka was doing.

"We both laid there and heard him reloading and the empty shells hitting the ground."

Stone heard as Godeka poured gasoline on the floor. It sounded like only one other thing Stone has heard — volcanic ash falling on Portland after the eruption of Mount St. Helens. Shhhh.

"I never heard him say anything. He just methodically went about his business. I think he had a mission, and he was methodically going through his steps. Whatever body was there, it was like, shoot. That seemed to be his point."

Stone thinks that Godeka then walked around him and headed up the stairs. That was the signal for the two men to dash for the door, through the fire.



STONE

Stone ran next door to Macheezmo Mouse and called police. When he came back to the church, smoke was coming out the door. Carlos Colon had walked out of the church, shot in the chest. Stone did what he could to help.

"I just started yelling 'Get off the sidewalk, there's a man with a gun.'"

Stone was with three police officers and two firefighters, trying to figure a way into a fire exit door. The door started to open.

"I see my wife, and I'm happy. The door continues to open and there's the guy with a gun to her head. I didn't think. I didn't even think, I just got out of the way."

Stone walked a half-block up the street. He heard yelling but couldn't tell whether it was Godeka or the police. He couldn't see his wife, Jacqueline, because she was in an alcove.

"My thought then was I just didn't want her to get shot. That's all I was thinking."

About two minutes passed. It could have been less, but it seemed like more. Finally, he saw his wife walk away.

"I'm all upset and worried, and I said to her, 'Are you OK?' and she said, 'Hi honey! Pretty exciting, huh?'"

About an hour after the excitement, Stone walked around the corner to use a pay phone to call the Los Angeles headquarters of the Church of Scientology. When he reached for his wallet, he found his hand was bloody. And some of the papers in his wallet were torn.

Stone realized that a bullet had grazed him.

"In the hip, not the buttocks. I have a reputation now."

He's not sure why it took that long to feel the bullet wound.

"I had a stinging in my side, but my adrenalin was going so much."

Stone is trying to make sense of what Godeka did. But it has strengthened his belief in Scientology's principle of a world without crime.

"The guy's psychotic, number one. And number two, boy, I've got to get in gear and change this environment quick."

Stone didn't lose much time. After he got out of the hospital about 4 p.m. Wednesday, he headed back to the church. He wanted to find out what happened. About 8:30 p.m., they reopened the building to begin cleaning up.

"It was like something out of a Judy Garland movie, when a building burns down, and everyone comes to help."

Stone was back at the church before 9 a.m. Thursday, wearing a tie and tennis shoes. Stone has a good sense of humor. But the scary stuff creeps into his mind.

"In the main, during the daytime when it's hopping and popping, I have a job to do. It's when the slack time comes that I go, 'Jesus Christ, what happened?'"

Presley, and musicians Chick Corea and Isaac Hayes.

"Far too much weight is given to the discolored opinion of one person rather than the millions of people who have had a good experience," said Gail Armstrong, a church spokeswoman flown in from international headquarters in Los Angeles.

Celebrity Centres are Scientology churches designed to provide good experiences, such as counseling and career guidance, for the artistic community, though others also are welcome.

Visitors to Portland's Celebrity Centre — and church officials say as many as 50 a week come in off the street — are struck by the plush, three-story, more-than-8,000-square-foot facility.

They encounter a bronze bust of Hubbard, who died in 1986.

Above the bust, on the back wall, in large black letters, is a quote from the church founder: "A culture is only as great as its dreams, and its dreams are dreamed by artists." Paintings by local Scientologists adorn other walls.

On Thursday, the carpeting was pulled up and the furniture in disarray as the church tried to recover from an attack by Godeka, who poured gasoline on the floor and started a fire, setting off sprinklers. He also shot and wounded four people.

Godeka had a history of harassing Scientologists, including its church in San Francisco. A Portland church secretary told police in February that Godeka had taken a personality test, bought a book and signed up for a home-study course.

Church officials insist Godeka took no Scientology courses. But if he had, he would have begun a long, and potentially expensive, journey of self-improvement that never ends.

"There is level zero, level one, level two," Armstrong said. "It's a precise path. But it's a path anyone can travel. What Scientologists say is the more they follow the path, the more happy they are, the more able they are."

Courses include such topics as "How to Improve Conditions in Life," "Personal Values and Integrity," "How to Make Work Easier" and "Financial Success."

Each class comes with a suggested donation.

Former member Young said that a person can easily spend $50,000 on such courses. But J. Gordon Melton, director of the Institute of American Religion, who has studied Scientology since 1964, said it would probably cost "$10,000 to $12,000 spread out over a number of years."

Said Armstrong, the church spokeswoman: "It might be from a few hundred dollars to tens of thousands of dollars."

The donation covers one-on-one counseling called "auditing," which uses a device called an "E-meter."

The church considers it a highly sensitive electronic instrument that indicates changes occurring in the mind.

The church's "Reference Guide to the Scientology Religion" portrays such education as a relative bargain when one considers "four years at a top university would run between $80,000 and $90,000."

And it could be cheaper than attending a traditional church.

"Other churches may have a tithing system," Armstrong said. "That's their way. This is our way."

The Portland Celebrity Centre has a staff of 40 but plans to expand to 250 by the end of the year, Portland spokeswoman Angie Mann said.

"It's massive," Mann said. "We've had more public than we've been able to comfortably service. It's just public demand for people wanting this technology."

With its classes that resemble a university and its absence of a god to worship, some have argued Scientology is not a religion.

The Internal Revenue Service recognized Scientology as a tax-exempt religion in 1957, revoked the status in 1967, then restored it in 1993.

"I never call it a religion," Young said. "I was in it for 21 years, and I was the one trying to make it a religion. I never call it that today. To me, it's an ideological-political movement."

Melton, the California scholar, said, "It really challenges our idea of what a religion is. Having monitored it for several decades now, I'm fairly convinced it is truly a religion, but it's a very unique one."

But is it a religious cult, then?

Cynthia Kisser, executive director of the Chicago-based Cult Awareness Network, told Time magazine in 1991 that "Scientology is quite likely the most ruthless, the most classically terroristic, the most litigious and the most lucrative cult the country has ever seen."

Those comments fueled a battle between Scientology, Time and the Cult Awareness Network, with the latter organization driven to bankruptcy after the church labeled it a "hate group" and applied relentless legal pressure.

Kent Burtner, director of the Cult Resource Center of Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon and a former board member with the Cult Awareness Network, said Scientology "doesn't give substantial information a normal person would need to make an informed choice about joining."

He said it also employs "unrestricted use of psychological and social influence control techniques" that include pressure when someone tries to leave Scientology.

"Are they a religion?" Burtner asked. "Sure. Are they a cult? As far as my understanding of the word, yes. Very clearly."

Scientology says such critics are misinformed or hateful. Armstrong points to "the 800-page Scientology encyclopedia" and a stack of media resource kits as proof that Scientology has nothing to hide.

"If somebody is in the church, and suddenly they drop out, someone is obviously going to talk to them and say, 'Hey, Joe, what's wrong?' That's a common human reaction. But they are free to go.

"The opinion that counts is the opinion of members and the people Scientology has helped. A person like Kent Burtner has never done anything in Scientology, and he doesn't know a thing about it."

THE VICTIMS: Four caught in a hail of gunfire

By ERIN HOOVER and PATRICK O'NEILL
of The Oregonian staff

The man who opened fire in the Church of Scientology's downtown Portland center Wednesday harmed four people who friends said were dedicated to peace and encouraging others.

The four — Helen M. Burke, 44; Steven Roy Crandell, 45; Jim M. Stone, 43; and Carlos Colon, 24 — each play vital roles in the Church of Scientology, a church that visualizes a world without crime where people can realize their potential.

All four victims are expected to live.

"I suspect all will survive, but I can't tell you they all will survive without permanent injury or disability," said Dr. Jackson Smood, one of several emergency room physicians who worked on the victims at University Hospital.

Church shooting trial delayed

The man accused of wounding four at the Scientology Celebrity Centre for now is found incompetent to stand trial

By BRYAN SMITH
of The Oregonian staff

The man accused of shooting four people at the Scientology Celebrity Centre in downtown Portland is mentally incapable of helping in his own defense and will be sent to Oregon State Hospital for evaluation and treatment, a judge ruled Wednesday.

Jairus Chegero Godeka, 38, will remain in the Salem hospital until he improves enough to defend himself against criminal charges of attempted aggravated murder, arson and kidnapping, Multnomah Circuit Judge Frank Bearden ruled.

In granting the defense motion, Bearden cited a psychiatrist's report that said Godeka provided "paranoid, essentially nonsensical" information in preparation for his defense.

"He should therefore be sent to the state hospital, where appropriate psychotropic medications can be administered," wrote Jerry K. Larsen, medical director of Psychiatric Services for Woodland Park Hospital. Godeka's lawyer requested that Larsen make a mental evaluation.

"If he favorably responds, only then will his thinking clear to the point he can adequately aid and assist in his own defense," Larsen wrote.

Prosecutors did not oppose the motion. They plan to ask their own psychiatrists at the state hospital to make an evaluation.

Godeka is accused of shooting four people, holding a fifth person hostage and trying to set fire to the Church of Scientology Celebrity Centre on Sept. 25.

All the wounded recovered from their injuries.

Godeka told police he attacked the center because its members were exerting mind control over him and had ruined his life.

The church said it had little contact with Godeka and had no idea why he attacked.

Dressed in a jail-issue blue uniform, Godeka listened intently with hands folded under his chin as the judge issued his order.

In a soft voice, the Maragoli, Kenya, native told the judge that such hospitals "make me paranoid. It's not a place I want to be."

Bearden told Godeka that he was not being committed, only ordered there for an evaluation that would determine when he will be mentally able to stand trial.

The judge also ordered a hospital psychiatrist to determine whether Godeka's mental problems affected his ability to obey the law during the September shootings.

That evaluation is crucial to the insanity defense planned by Godeka's attorney, Kerry Chipman.

Oregon law requires that defendants understand the nature of proceedings against them, including criminal charges and possible penalties, and that they be able to provide information that could help in their defense.

When defendants are mentally unable to do so, they are sent to the state mental hospital for treatment and evaluation.

On Wednesday, Bearden asked that Godeka's aid-and-assist evaluation be completed 30 days after he is admitted into the hospital.

Godeka might have to wait as long six weeks before he is transferred because of a backlog of cases, Bearden said. He is being held in the Justice Center jail.

Larsen's report, filed Wednesday, describes a relatively trouble-free life enjoyed by Godeka in his small Kenyan village but details problems during his years in Portland, Alaska and San Francisco, including heavy drinking and marital problems.

Godeka told Larsen that the Church of Scientology "tore my mind into pieces." He said members "hypnotized" him and made him the subject of "mind research."

"He believes they destroyed his life, resulting in estrangement from his sister, loss of his business and loss of his home," Larsen wrote.

The organization is a self-enhancement movement that emphasizes counseling and an approach to problem-solving called Dianetics, which church founder L. Ron Hubbard created.

Angie Mann, a spokeswoman for the Portland church, said Godeka belongs in jail.

"He's committed a terrible crime, and he needs to be kept out of society," said Mann, who attended Wednesday's hearing. "No one should be allowed to commit a crime of this nature regardless of the insanity defense."

CIVIL RIGHTS - HUMAN TRAFFICKING

SENSITIVE INVESTIGATIVE MATTER

Synopsis: Initial submission to open a Sensitive Investigative Matter.

Full Investigation Initiated: 10/05/2009

Details: Pursuant to the Domestic Investigations and Operations Guide (DIOG), Section 10.2.D, this human trafficking investigation is a Sensitive Investigative Matter pertaining to a religious organization. The reporting agent received information that the elite branch of the Church of Scientology known as the "Sea Organization" (Sea Org) houses and employs thousands of Scientology members, including children and adults, utilizing force, fraud and coercion.

Based on interviews of former Sea Org members (hereinafter Complainants), the Church of Scientology (COS) tricks young Scientologists into joining Sea Org, promising good salaries, regular work hours, vacation and family visits. However, once Sea Org members begin their service, they are housed and held at secure locations where they work 15 hour days in various positions for Scientology-based companies. Sea Org members are given no days off, and are permitted only limited and monitored contact with anyone outside of the camps where they live and work. All incoming and outgoing mail is opened, read and electronically scanned before it is distributed. All Sea Org members' passports are held in the security office. Approximately 30-50% of Sea Org members are foreign. It is considered criminal to say anything negative regarding Sea Org and if a member expresses a desire to leave, they are put through a grueling and lengthy process that typically results in the member staying.

All Sea Org members are instructed how to lie to outsiders and authorities who might inquire of their living and working conditions. Sea Org members who try to escape or who are disobedient are sent to underground labor camps that resemble "concentration camps" where they live and work in slave-like conditions around the clock building furniture and other material goods.

Background on the Church of Scientology

As a result of Complainants' allegations, Agents conducted significant research on publicly available databases regarding the Church of Scientology and the Sea Organization. There are between 8 and 10 million members of the Church of Scientology (COS) around the world. Most are lay persons/parishoners who follow the teachings of Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard (LRH).

Scientology teaches that people are immortal spiritual beings who have forgotten their true nature. Scientology uses a method of counseling called "auditing" to spiritually rehabilitate church members. The auditing process involves using an electropsychometer, or "E-Meter," (akin to a polygraph machine) to assess an individual's spiritual state. The E-Meter supposedly shows a "charge" if an individual is not in a "clear" state. The goal is to be in a "clear" state, e.g., where the mind's negative images are gone and the person is rid of all fears, anxieties and irrational thoughts. Scientology is legally recognized as a tax-exempt religion in the United States and some other countries, and the Church of Scientology emphasizes this as proof that it is a bona fide religion.

Scientology utilizes an internal justice system referred to as the "Ethics System" to deal with unethical or inappropriate behavior. One significant piece of the justice system is the "Rehabilitation Project Force" (RPF). When a Sea Org member is accused of misconduct, such as lying, sexual misconduct, dereliction of duty, or failure to comply with COS policy, a "Committee of Evidence" examines the case. If the charge is substantiated, the individual may be sent to an RPF. Recently, former Sea Org members have spoken publicly regarding the RPFs and have compared them to concentration camps.

This investigation will focus on the two California Sea Org locations. One location is in Riverside County, California. That location is referred to as "International Base" (Int Base). The second location is in Hollywood, and consists of multiple buildings where Sea Org members are housed and work. All Sea Org locations are contained and secure. Sea Org members do not come and go freely. If a Sea Org member wants to leave Sea Org, they have two choices: either "blow" out, meaning to escape without permission, or "route out," which is a lengthy process involving isolation, auditing, security checks, and typically is unsuccessful for the staff member.

Only in more recent years, [redacted], has Sea Org been transformed into an organization operated under threats and physical force. Since early 2000, COS has suffered embarrassing media setbacks which have caused [redacted] Sea Org with an iron fist. Sea Org members are being punished as a whole for the recent perceived failures of Scientology and its various businesses. Punishments include severe limitations of civil liberties, including physical abuse which has become mainstream within the Sea Org to punish and humiliate employees. b6 b7C

In the past, Sea Org defectors have been unwilling to speak publicly regarding the abuses at the hands of [redacted] due to threats of financial retaliation and family detachment. However, [redacted] members of Sea Org who escaped in the last few years, [redacted] within Sea Org and worked closely with [redacted] Based on media accounts, [redacted] not only were the recipients of severe physical abuse by [redacted] but they also were responsible for delivering blows to others. This is known as "ecclesiastical justice" that is imposed if Sea Org members are performing poorly. Since [redacted] have begun speaking publicly, other defectors are coming forward and exposing Sea Org's labor camps. b6 b7C

Key Terminology

In order to evaluate the allegations asserted by Complainants in this case, the following relevant Scientology terminology is identified below:

Sea Org - The most elite arm of the COS where Scientologists dedicate their lives in a "billion year" contract to serve the COS. Sea Org staffers in the U.S. live and work in three primary locations: (1) "Flag Base" in Clearwater, Florida, (2) International Base, aka Gold Base, in Hemet, California, (3) Pacific Base, aka PAC Base, in Hollywood.

RPF - Short for "Rehabilitation Project Force." This is a program that gives Scientologists a "second chance" for "redemption rather than dismissal." It is where Sea Org members go who have committed serious offenses such as communicating with former Scientologists who have been declared "Suppressive Persons," for example. RPF camps are located in Los Angeles and Hemet, CA.

Suppressive Person (SP) - Any Scientologist who speaks ill of or undermines the COS or the activities of COS members. If a Scientologist is "declared" an SP, they are banned from having contact with any member of Scientology, even family members.

Religious Technology Center - RTC operates out of the Int Base. It owns the religious trademarks of Dianetics and Scientology. [redacted] of the Board of the RTC. b6 b7C

Flag Base - Short for the Flag Service Organization in Clearwater, FL. It is the "spiritual headquarters" for the COS. It includes the Ft. Harrison Hotel and the Super Power Building across the street (which is unfinished and has sat vacant for 6 years).

Int Base aka Gold Base - This is a 500-acre property in Riverside County surrounded by razor-wire fencing with sharp inward pointing spikes to prevent escape. The gates are guarded at all times. Security guards patrol the grounds. Motion sensors and surveillance cameras are placed throughout the property. (Map attached). The address is 19625 Gilman Hot Springs Road, Hemet, CA 92583. This is where the senior executives live and work. Until recently, the location of Int Base was not publicly known. Staffers who live on Int Base work a variety of jobs. RTC is operated out of Int Base and Golden Era Productions is also located there. Golden Era Productions is COS's media and publications division. Approximately 900 individuals live on Int Base. All staffers wear the same uniform and work from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. on a typical day, but also regularly pull all-nighters for days on end.

Pacific Base / PAC Base - The broad term for the Los Angeles base of Scientology. The COS owns many buildings in the Hollywood area. Some buildings are called "berthing buildings" where Sea Org members live. There are allegedly 12 berthing buildings in the Los Angeles area. One is located at 5165 Fountain Avenue, Los Angeles. Additionally, there are several corporate buildings. The "main building" is the large blue building located at 4833 Fountain Ave, East Los Angeles. In the basement of the main building is said to be a RPF for wayward Sea Org members. Sea Org members who live in Los Angeles are bussed to work everyday to CSI corporate offices located at 4751 Fountain Avenue in Los Angeles, where Bridge Publications, Inc. (BPI) is located. BPI publishes only LRH books and is staffed entirely by Sea Org members. Sea Org members also are bussed to the building located at 7051 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood California. This is where the COS has a for-profit literary agency called Author Services, Inc. (ASI) which represents only one author - LRH. It is also staffed entirely by Sea Org members. Middle-management Sea Org members work at the building located at 6331 Hollywood Boulevard known as the "Flag Liaison Office" for the Church of Scientology International.

Federal Statutes at Issue

The allegations made by Complainants and [redacted] if true, invoke federal human trafficking laws. The primary statutes at issue are under Title 18, Chapter 77 - "Peonage, Slavery, and Trafficking in Persons" b6 b7C

18 U.S.C. 1589(a) - Forced Labor

Whoever knowingly provides or obtains the labor or services of a person by any one of, or by any combination of, the following means -

(1) by means of force, threats of force, physical restraint, or threats of physical restraint to that person or another person; or

(2) by means of serious harm or threats of serious harm to that person or another person; or

NOTE: "Serious harm" means any harm, including psychological, financial, or reputational harm, that would compel a reasonable person with the victim's background and in the victim's circumstances to perform labor, services, or commercial sex acts to avoid that harm.

(3) by means of the abuse or threatened abuse of law or legal process; or

NOTE: "Abuse or threatened abuse of the legal process" is defined as the use or threatened use of the law or legal process in a manner for which it was not designed to cause a person to take or refrain from taking some action." It can include threats of deportation, arrest, detention or institutionalization.

(4) by means of any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause the person to believe that, if the person did not perform such labor or services, that person or another person would suffer serious harm or physical restraint.

NOTE: "Scheme, plan or Pattern" includes:

-manipulation of debts,
-verbal abuse and intimidation,
-demeaning and demoralizing conduct,
-psychological manipulation and control,
-confiscation of identification documents,
-inhumane living and working conditions, or
-monitoring and surveillance.

18 U.S.C. 1590 - Trafficking with respect to peonage, slavery, involuntary servitude, or forced labor

Whoever knowingly recruits, harbors, transports, provides, or obtains by any means, any person for labor or services in violation of Chapter 77.

Analysis

This human trafficking investigation will focus on the Forced Labor of Sea Org members at two locations: International Base in Hemet, CA and at PAC Base in Hollywood, CA. This investigation is not an attempt to discredit the religious beliefs held by Scientologists, but is solely focused on the forced labor of its elite Sea Org members.

Under the Forced Labor statute, 18 U.S.C. 1589(a)(1)-(4), each of the four enumerated means were used by [redacted] and others within the CSI to maintain the labor and services of Sea Org members. b6 b7C

Sea Org members are recruited believing that they are joining the most elite organization within the Church of Scientology. However, once persons sign their "billion year" contract they are subjected to an unexpected lifestyle that they would never have agreed to and that is nearly impossible to reject. Utilizing the key language of the Forced Labor statute, [redacted] utilized a "scheme, plan or pattern" that caused Sea Org members to believe that if they did not continue working for Sea Org, they would "suffer serious harm." b6 b7C

[redacted] "scheme" consisted of the following:

(1) Compensating workers less than $50/week as a means of ensuring that no member could build sufficient financial means to support themselves on the "outside." Sometimes workers were not paid for months or even years.

(2) Limiting Sea Org workers' ability to freely communicate with each other and with friends and family by monitoring the number and substance of all telephone calls and by reviewing all incoming and outgoing mail for appropriate content. Workers were only permitted to communicate certain types of messages to people outside of Sea Org, and use of the telephone required written permission.

(4) Restricting Sea Org members' access to dental and medical treatment and the requirement that female members who became pregnant have abortions. CSI viewed young children as having no work value and believed children would only interfere with the employment of their mothers.

(5) Inhumane living and working conditions, including a minimum of 16 hour work days, no days off, and no vacations, despite promises during recruiting of having one day off per/week and 3 weeks vacation.

(6) Physical restraint in the form of secure fencing around perimeter of properties, and on-site video cameras, security guards and infrared technology to ensure workers do not escape. The fact that workers are not free to leave was clearly demonstrated when [redacted] attempted to escape from Int Base [redacted] Sea Org security guards. [redacted] corroborated in the police reports of two separate Riverside County Sheriff's incident reports dated [redacted] (Attached). b6 b7C

(7) Control and manipulation of members through strict rules, including a forced daily schedule, uniforms, roll call four times/daily, assigned seating and assigned meal times, rules forbidding members to talk about wanting to leave or from talking about anyone who has ever left.

(8) Demeaning and demoralizing conduct by [redacted] and other top executives who regularly verbally and sometimes physically abused the workers, and subjected them to inhumane punishments. b6 b7C

(9) Confiscation of all workers' passports.

(10) Psychological manipulation and control in the form of causing Sea Org members to believe that if they leave Sea Org they cannot have any further communication with their family members who are Scientologists. This threat alone is believed to be one of the main reasons why many Sea Org members do not attempt to flee the organization.

(11) The threat of serious financial harm to the workers if they leave, in that they will be sent a "Freeloader's Bill" that they believe will obligate them to repay significant "debts" owed to the CSI as a result of training received while members of Sea Org.

With the reauthorization of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPRA), "serious harm" in the context of the Trafficking statutes is now defined as "any harm, including psychological, financial, or reputational harm, that would compel a reasonable person with the victim's background and in the victim's circumstances to perform labor, services, or commercial sex acts to avoid that harm." That clarification is important in this case because Sea Org members who have been isolated from the outside world since they were born or since their teenage years are susceptible to unique psychological harm.

of Sea Org [redacted] reported in the St. Petersburg Times, a climate of fear was created by [redacted] and CSI whereby Sea Org members did not feel they had any choice but to stay working for Sea Org. Sea Org workers' lives are entirely manipulated by the coercive tactics of [redacted] and CSI, from the fenced-in living and working quarters, to the controlled uniforms and movement, the control of the workers' hours, salary and medical treatment, and the arbitrary penalties and punishments.

Additionally, the Forced Labor statute also provides that a violation occurs when the labor or services of a person are obtained through the "abuse or threatened abuse of the legal process." That is defined as "the use or threatened use of the law or legal process in a manner for which it was not designed to cause a person to take or refrain from taking some action." In the Sea Organization, the Victims are forced to sign various written contracts that allegedly cause them to believe that (1) they are bound to service with Sea Org for a billion years, (2) if they leave the Sea Organization they will be disconnected from their friends and families forever, (3) they cannot ever report the abuses of Sea Org or they will incur substantial fines in the amount of $50,000 per/public statement, and (4) if they leave Sea Org they will incur overwhelming financial "Freeloader Debts" for the costs associated with the workers' training while working for Sea Org. The use of these non-binding contracts that Sea Org workers are forced to sign is yet another means of coercive tactics used by CSI to ensure continued forced labor by employees.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 08/05/2009

On August 4, 2009 [redacted], date of birth [redacted] home address [redacted] California, [redacted] Drivers License [redacted] was interviewed in Los Angeles. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] joined the elite branch of the Church of Scientology (COS) known as the Sea Organization (Sea Org) [redacted] Most Sea Org members are recruited through schools that are run by the COS. DELPHI ACADEMY in Los Angeles is a COS school. The school teaches from pre-kindergarten up to an age where students can earn their General Equivalency Diploma (GED). Many Sea Org members are recruited between the ages of fourteen and sixteen and do not earn their GED before joining Sea Org. The top executives of the Church of Scientology International (CIS) are Sea Org members. It is considered a privilege to be recruited to join Sea Org. b6 b7C b7D

Sea Org recruits are told that they will not want for anything. Each recruit will have their dental and medical needs covered as well as food and housing. In most cases, they are told they will be paid $50 per/week with the possibility of bonuses. Sea Org recruits are promised one day off every two weeks and two weeks of personal leave each year. Employees will also receive a free COS education in Sea Org. Non-Sea Org employees have to pay large amounts of money to take prescribed COS courses.

COS also recruits professionals into the Sea Org. Professionals that are recruited must be Scientologists, must not have taken drugs at any point in time, have no debts and must be able to cut off all financial ties to the outside world. [redacted] estimated that approximately ten percent of Sea Org employees are recruited as professionals. b6 b7C b7D

All Sea Org employees sign an employment contract which binds them to the Sea Org for a billion years. New Sea Org employees are initiated through a program called "Estates Project Force" (EPF). In the EPF program, new employees spend half-days training in Scientology and half-days doing hard labor. As part of the curriculum employees practice their "shore story," as it is called, which is the story they tell friends, family and others outside the Sea Org regarding their living and spiritual conditions. In EPF, the labor portion of the EPF curriculum is made to be as physically hard as possible in order to accustom the new staff to what daily life will generally be like once they complete EPF. If an employee cannot handle the physical demands of EPF, the person will be "fitness boarded out." That individual will be required to reimburse CIS for the training they received, and will be removed from the EPF program. To be fitness boarded out is considered to be an embarrassment to the person and their family. EPF employees will usually sleep in large rooms with approximately 20 other EPF employees. Communication with family and friends is significantly limited. Employees who give an inclination of wanting to drop out of EPF are threatened with "disconnection" from their family. Dropouts are considered to be "suppressive" and completely disconnected from their families and friends.

After [redacted] completed his EPF program in Los Angeles, he was sent to work at the "International Base" aka Int Base, aka "Gold Base," in Gilman Hot Springs, California. The Int Base is where the elite executives within Sea Org live and work. For many years, the location of the Int Base was kept top-secret, and unknown to even other Sea Org members and Scientologists. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] lived on [redacted] His experience there was not in keeping with what was promised to him when he was recruited. With regard to his salary, he was not always paid $50 per/week and sometimes he went years without any salary. [redacted] was not paid [redacted]. CIS considered Sea Org members to be "volunteers," not employees, and therefore took the position that it was not required to pay Sea Org members pursuant to U.S. labor laws. When Sea Org members were paid, they were paid in cash. According to [redacted] CIS paid FICA and other taxes on their wages. After taxes the total amount paid to employees was $46.23, however the $.23 was requried to be put into a general "birthday fund." If it was [redacted] birthday, [redacted] Church of Scientology, employees would have to contribute additional sums, up to $15, for his birthday gift. b6 b7C b7D

Once on Int Base, Sea Org employees' communication with the outside world was significantly cut off. Employees did not have free access to telephones or the internet. Speaking to family or friends was rare. More typically, members resorted to communicating with family by letter. Employees were instructed to write in the "good roads fair weather method." This method instructed employees to write positive thoughts to their parents and nothing negative about Sea Org. All written correspondence being sent by an employee was reviewed for sufficiency before sealed and mailed. Likewise, any written correspondence received by an employee was opened and reviewed before being distributed. The return address for employees living on Int Base identified the address of 6331 Hollywood Blvd in Los Angeles, California, since the location of Int Base was to remain top secret. Employees were not allowed to receive large amounts of money. If an employee received a large amount of money in the mail they were instructed to send it back and to request the sender cease sending additional sums. If the employee received money the sender could be viewed as an "external influence" and the employee might be disconnected from that external influence and the employee identified as a "security threat."

b7D

If an employee wished to telephone a family member, the employee was required to write a "Completed Staff Work" (CSW) which was a form employees used to make requests, such as to place phone calls, to see a doctor, or to go shopping. The CSW required the employee to identify the "situation" and the "solution." If the employee's request to phone a parent was approved, the employee would have to make an appointment with security to place the call and would be directed to a specific telephone where the phone call would be patched through by a receptionist. All phones on Int Base required a security code to dial out. A security employee would monitor the telephone calls in real time and cut off any phone calls that were viewed as inappropriate.

A regular day for employees would begin with breakfast at 7:45 a.m. Employees then worked from 8:30 a.m. until noon. Lunch was usually thirty minutes long, however sometimes the employees would be punished with fifteen minute mealtimes if the Int Base was being unproductive. During meals, employees had assigned seating areas. Supervisors were instructed not to give any assignments during mealtime. If employees were being paid that week, treasury would disburse their wages in cash during lunch. Work then continued from 12:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. when they would break for dinner. Work then continued until 11 p.m. and sometimes until 1 a.m. or even all night. On Sundays employees were allowed personal time, referred to as the "Clean Ship Program," when they were permitted to do laundry. Sea Org employees were subject to "roll call" four times per day in order to account for all bodies.

Once employees were released for the day, they were expected to "secure" or go to sleep thirty minutes after they arrived to their dormitories. It was not a forced rule, but other employees could report you if you did not follow the rules.

Employees were required to wear uniforms. The current uniform consists of a polo-shirt and slacks and a white pair of tennis shoes. Uniforms must be purchased from the general store located on Int Base. Each morning employees were subject to a uniform inspection. A person could be penalized for not wearing the appropriate uniform.

Employees could subscribe to magazines and catalogs. The only newspaper allowed on Int Base was USA Today. However, if there was a negative story in the newspaper about the COS, the newspaper would not be sold on Int Base that day.

There were times when people were allowed off of the grounds to go into Hemet, the nearest town to Int Base. During the holidays employees were allotted shopping time where they would be shuttled to Wal-Mart to purchase gifts. Employees were always escorted and watched. Escaping was not an option because they were always surrounded by either their peers or security personnel. On the rare occasions when an employee received time off, some employees traveled to Los Angeles. Only a small percentage of employees had personal vehicles, so employees would take a COS van to Los Angeles. The van traveled to Los Angeles three times per/ day. In the last decade, employees have not been permitted any days off.

The only other time employees were allowed into town was for medical appointments. The Medical Liaison Office would arrange for appointments. Prior to the mid-1980's, married Sea Org employees were allowed to have children and raise them on Int Base. After that time, CIS disallowed Sea Org couples from having children, and women were required to have abortions. Women were initially being taken to a Planned Parenthood Clinic in Riverside, California. However at a certain point the clinic became suspicious due to the regular visits of women from Int Base who were always escorted by the same person. After that, the Medical Liaison Office would rotate the abortion clinics it used.

[redacted] witnessed that sufficient medical and dental care was not given to employees. In instances where an employee would become sick, it was a belief of the COS that the employee's illness b6 b7C b7D was the result of the employee's own actions and that spiritual counseling, known as "auditing," or "ethics counseling" would heal the employee. [redacted] knew of employees who were diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis and Cancer, for example, who died because they received insufficient medical attention. Sometimes, if an employee suffered an on-the-job injury, such as a broken bone, the employee would be taken to the doctor or the hospital. Sea Org would submit workers compensation paperwork in those instances.

b6

CIS maintains personnel files for all Sea Org members on Int Base. Employees are instructed to turn over passports and other documents. Sea Org has a staff member who is responsible for making sure all employees are in proper immigration status, since many employees are not U.S. citizens. All documents, including contracts, letters and passports are kept in the Legal Direction Office, also known as "Building 36."

Sea Org employees are not allowed to complain or "natter" because they will be viewed as a "trouble source." Employees are also forbidden to speak of any person who has "blown" Sea Org, meaning a person who leaves Sea Org without following the required procedures. Sea Org members are also prohibited from speaking of wanting to leave Sea Org. There is a policy called "leaving and leaves." The policy forbids any employee from talking about wanting to leave Sea Org or about missing their family. Employees breaking that rule would be reported to management and reprimanded.

Sea Org employees were subject to verbal abuse on a daily basis. Verbal abuse was a method of keeping peers and subordinates in line. Employees were also subject to physical abuse for reasons, such as if the employee was perceived to not be pulling their weight, or if they had failed to complete a project timely or effectively, for instance. [redacted] Employees were especially susceptible to beatings when [redacted] was present. [redacted] frequently held meetings with staff where he would beat them.

b6
b7D

Sometimes employees who were viewed as failing in their responsibilities would be sent to "auditing," which was a means of counseling frequently utilized by the COS. A "Court of Ethics" would be assigned to the employee, and a punishment would be issued. A "Committee of Evidence" would keep management posted on the employee's progress.

b6
b7D

[redacted] witnessed countless beatings [redacted] Other punishments he witnessed included having employees sleep outside in tents for approximately four months, digging ditches, picking weeds, or even emptying dry sewage from aeration ponds on the property for several months. If assaulting a person was not an effective means of dealing with an employee, that employee would be sent into the "Rehabilitation Project Force" (RPF) program. The RPF is a labor camp for employees who are security risks. Employees who are considered trouble sources or security risks are threatened with being sent to the RPF. These beatings and the threat of being sent to the RPF are methods of coercion to keep Sea Org members from leaving.

Sea Org employees have a standing order to shred all documents at the end of each day. Employees would be punished if all documents were not shredded at the end of the day. The reasoning behind the shredding was in case the grounds were ever raided by the FBI or police. Health and building inspectors did sometimes go onto Int Base. Usually CIS would have advance notice and would have time to prepare for the visits. Employees were trained on how to clean up in order to pass the inspections. If an inspector did arrive by surprise, they were made to wait in the reception area of Golden Era Productions. While inspectors were waiting, employees would prepare their areas for inspection.

If non-Sea Org members were allowed onto Int Base, they would be escorted. If an employee needed to be taken to the hospital, employees from security would drive them to the hospital rather than let ambulances drive onto Int Base.

The trash on Int Base was regularly discarded by Waste Management. Waste Management would be escorted on Int Base.

The perimeter of Int Base is secured. The grounds are fenced in and are under video surveillance. The security division of Sea Org would meet weekly to discuss all areas of security, including persons who were perceived as security threats. A person would be considered a security threat if they were thinking of "blowing." If a person were to try and leave Int Base without permission, security was in charge of immediately retrieving the person. The fear of being sent to an RPF or of being disconnected from their entire family was enough of a threat to keep Sea Org employees from attempting to flee Int Base.

b6
b7D

In [redacted] after a significant beating by [redacted] made a plan to blow Int Base. At that time, [redacted] All houses were monitored by security cameras. Residents were not allowed to leave the housing area unless they were going onto Int Base.

On [redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted]

[redacted] had not discussed leaving Int Base with anyone, [redacted] Talking about leaving Int Base was against the rules, [redacted]

b6
b7D

After leaving Int Base, [redacted] was contacted and informed that they could never speak to him again. [redacted] were also informed they could no longer speak to him. [redacted] then received a letter from [redacted] return to Sea Org and face the consequences. [redacted] also received an [redacted] "freeloader bill" from the CSI. A freeloader bill is a bill for all of the COS courses an employee takes while at Sea Org.

b6
b7C
b7D

After he left, [redacted] Sea Org. [redacted] from Int

 b6 b7C b7D

Base [redacted] when he left Sea Org. [redacted] The CSI requires that an employee be completely dependant on the Sea Org and that they not have any independent financial means of support. According to [redacted] if an employee made the choice to leave, they would be making the choice to "live as a bum." When people leave the Sea Org they are shocked because they have lived in a bubble their entire lives.

Some people who have left Sea Org returned because of the threat of being declared a "suppressive person" and being "disconnected" from their entire family. In order to re-join Sea Org, an employee has to go through a "handling process," where a person will need to confess all crimes and sign paperwork listing those crimes the employee has committed against the COS. The process however still may not guarantee an employee will not get disconnected or sent to the RPF.

[redacted] speculated that out of the approximately 900 employees currently living and working at Int Base, maybe five percent want to leave. [redacted] stated that approximately another ten percent want to leave Sea Org but would not because they were not willing to be disconnected from their families. [redacted] believed that employees do not realize they are being treated unfairly and that they have rights under U.S. labor laws. He thought that if employees were promised by the COS that they would not be disconnected from the COS or their families, many of them would want to leave. b6 b7C b7D

The Int Base currently advertises for specific contract positions through www.craigslist.com. Contract employees are escorted everywhere they go on the grounds. Background checks are done on all incoming contract employees. If a particular job requires several days of work, the contract employee will stay at a hotel in Hemet.

launch at the time. She was told she would be compensated, but [redacted] could not remember what salary she was promised. She was told there would be bonuses, one day off every two weeks, and three vacation weeks per year.

While she had reservations about joining the Sea Org, one Thursday morning in [redacted] received significant pressure for [redacted] to join. The recruiters had a deadline and placed a call [redacted] That day [redacted] began to process her Sea Org paperwork. When [redacted] she was visibly upset and crying. [redacted] could not tell her not to join, because that would have been viewed as a "suppressive act." [redacted] did not want [redacted] to join Sea Org, [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] first went through her introductory "Estates Project Force" (EPF) program in Los Angeles. At the end of [redacted] she went to International Base (Int Base). There was a significant security approval process to get to Int Base. At the time it was perceived as the place for the upper echelons of Scientology and it was presented as a "dream campus." At that time, nobody outside of Int Base knew of its location. The majority of new recruits were ages 16 to 21 years old. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was originally assigned to work in "Golden Era Productions" and was working in their Qualifications Division, where she worked [redacted] She worked for Golden Era from [redacted] After that she moved to work at the Religious Technology Center (RTC) on Int Base. That position required additional security clearances. RTC's stated role and purpose was to police the COS and to act as "internal affairs." She was sent to Clearwater, Florida as a [redacted] in [redacted] In approximately [redacted] returned to Int Base and worked in [redacted] It involved evaluating management and helping them [redacted] any areas that were judged by AVC as [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Staffers at Int Base were evaluated on a weekly basis to determine their "condition." Each staffer's written evaluation would be placed in the individual's "ethics file." The "ethics files" were kept in the same office in the legal division at RTC where the passports, contracts and other important papers were kept for each staff member. [redacted] for RTC until [redacted] In [redacted] she became [redacted] responsible for [redacted] RTC members.

[redacted] witnessed severe punishments enforced on various Sea Org members. Some of the worst punishments included working at the aeration ponds in mid-2004, a mile west of the main property, where workers would have to remove human feces. [redacted] would come up with what he called "too gruesome" punishments, to administer severe enough punishment that would deter workers from wrongdoing. All the top management were forced to work at the aeration ponds. They did so without proper protective clothing and were handling hazardous waste. She personally saw two female workers who had to be taken to the emergency room because they were having asthma problems for breathing in the waste. They were being punished for the failures of the organization at the time.

[redacted] witnessed the most significant physical abuse by [redacted] against [redacted] She saw him beaten several times. She also witnessed [redacted] punching [redacted] and [redacted] There was no possibility of fighting back, as that would have been viewed as a "suppressive act." She never heard of anyone fighting back.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] never saw [redacted] beat a woman, nor was she ever physically abused. Verbal abuse was also common at Int Base. Onetime [redacted] was called to [redacted] office with [redacted] had her stand in front of him. [redacted] demonstration, to show that the workers were [redacted] It was humiliating. She does not know of any sexual abuse occurring at the Int Base. However, she had heard of several situations where staff members were having sex with minors in Los Angeles.

b6 b7C b7D

The workers at Int Base worked very long hours. [redacted] usually slept from zero to four hours per night. If [redacted] was at Int Base, everyone at RTC had to stay up working until [redacted] went to bed, which was usually after 2 a.m.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] had a "communicator" who worked as his personal assistant. His communicator worked by [redacted] side, attending all meetings with him and tape recording everything. The tapes were transcribed daily into "transcripts" and "dispatches." No matter where [redacted] was, his transcripts and dispatches would be sent to Int Base and distributed to appropriate personnel. Certain documentation, such as the daily schedule on Int base, would be shredded daily. However transcripts and dispatches from [redacted] were never shredded. As a rule, nothing that came from [redacted] was ever shredded.

If someone at Int base wanted to leave, they had two options. They could either "blow"- meaning escape without permission- or they could "route out." That process involved using internal procedures that would typically result in the Sea Org member not leaving. Those procedures included, first being removed from their position and placed on heavy labor at the property, such as digging ditches or weeding. The Sea Org staffer would also spend significant time going through "security check" procedures. This involved confessing ones crimes to security. It was assumed that if a Sea Org member wanted to leave, it was because they had committed a crime. Security checks also involved spending months maybe even years on the E-Meter, the polygraph machine-type contraption created and built by Scientology members. Typically, a person trying to route out would be assigned a "buddy" who would constantly watch over them. Sometimes Sea Org members would eventually be allowed to leave, after their belongings were searched to ensure no base-related materials left the base. The Sea Org member would then be declared a suppressive person, and sent a "freeloader bill" charging the former Scientologist for all the training that they received through Sea Org. Defectors were also required to sign what they believed to be binding legal contracts agreeing not to speak out publicly against COS, and agreeing to pay a $50,000 fine for each public statement. And, the declared suppressive person was also immediately "disconnected" from anyone, including all family members, who were Scientologists.

From [redacted] able to leave Int Base [redacted] Sea Org member, [redacted] old. They were told they could not be married in California because they would have to see a psychologist, which Scientology disapproved of. In [redacted] given approval to go to Los Angeles for [redacted] Those were the only [redacted] times [redacted] Int Base for personal reasons for longer than a few hours. b6 b7C b7D

As for communicating with their families and the outside world, Sea Org members would have to make a request in writing to place a telephone call. Staffers would make the request via a "Completed Staff Work" (CSW) form, which would have to justify the purpose of the call. [redacted]

In [redacted] due to the nature of [redacted] but she did not because all [redacted] records were monitored. [redacted] She could not remember either of [redacted] other than that they had a (909) area code. Approximately 100-150 Sea Org members had cell phones. They were all owned by COS and were under the same cellular plan. [redacted] and she was going to search through her records for that information.

If Sea Org members at Int Base required eye glasses or contacts, they would be driven to Walmart. If someone broke a bone, they would go to the Hemet Hospital. A girl that had melanoma was treated at City of Hope Hospital in Los Angeles. A man named [redacted] at Int Base. He had a practice in Los Angeles. A woman named [redacted] at Int Base. Sea Org also had a general physician, Dr. Denck (phonetic), who would regularly visit Int Base, until he passed away.

Women who became pregnant at Int Base were forced to have abortions. At first the women were taken to Riverside Planned Parenthood for abortions until the late 1990's when the regularity of women from Int Base who received abortions alarmed the clinic. [redacted] does not know what clinics were used for abortions in more recent years.

In September [redacted] implemented a new policy requiring that RTC workers could only be married to other RTC workers. [redacted] had the medical person make an appointment [redacted] The appointment [redacted] The medical person would typically take 4-5 staff at a time and would drop everyone off and pick them up later. However, based on those discussions she did not feel comfortable that the process would not be too lengthy or cumbersome. Later, [redacted] things were packed up by Sea Org members and returned [redacted] were sent "freeloader bills." b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] said that in order to get a position on Int Base, you have to be a member of Sea Org for at least one year. A man named [redacted] was in charge of making sure the foreign workers were current on their visas. He worked in the legal department. Passports for everyone were kept in the legal files. b6 b7C b7D

Facts of Complaint

On July 20, 2009 SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] of the Los Angeles Field Office, Civil Rights Squad, met with four complainants alleging ongoing criminal human trafficking (HT) violations by the Church of Scientology. The four complainants (hereinafter "Cs") are identified as follows: b6 b7C

1) [redacted] b6 b7C

2) [redacted]

[redacted]

4) [redacted] - Former Scientologist and possible HT victim

Cs allege that children and adults are being held against their will at various locations owned and operated by the Church of Scientology in Los Angeles, CA and in other locations across the country, including Hemet, CA, Clearwater, FL, New York, NY, and Washington, D.C. Cs allege that an arm of the Church of Scientology known as "Sea Organization," aka "Sea Org" is a paramilitary organization that houses and employs thousands of Scientology members (hereinafter Victims). The Victims are tricked into joining Sea Org by promises of large salaries, regular hours and family visits. However, once Victims begin their service with Sea Org, they are held against their will, work 15 hour+ days, are given no time off, and are not permitted contact with anyone outside of the camps where they live and work. Victims are not permitted to have cellular phones and pay phones were recently removed from the housing quarters. All incoming mail is opened and electronically scanned before it is distributed. All passports are held by the Church in the Security office. Approximately 30-50% of the Victims are brought to the U.S. from Europe and other countries on religious visas and overstay their visas.

Cs further allege that Victims who try to escape or who are disobedient, are sent to underground labor camps that resemble "concentration camps" where they are treated like slaves and work around the clock building furniture and other material goods. Cs stated that there are four such camps, called Rehabilitation Project Force (RPF). One RPF is located on Sunset Boulevard. Victims who are successful in escaping Sea Org are declared "suppressive" and are sent "freeloader bills" in the amounts of tens of thousands of dollars that require the Victims to repay the Sea Org for their "training," housing, food, etc... Such Victims, however, fear reporting their experiences to the police based on prior threats of retaliation.

Some members of Sea Org are permitted to leave for various reasons. However, those members agree to gag orders and to contracts that require them to pay $10,000 for each public statement made by the member regarding Sea Org or regarding the Church of Scientology.

In Los Angeles there are approximately one dozen "berthing buildings" where the Sea Org members are housed. One such building, called the [redacted] is located at [redacted] Los Angeles, CA 90029. Complainant [redacted] date of birth [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted] was last known to be living at that location. The berthing buildings are guarded and gated. Sea Org members are shuttled by buses back and forth from their berthing buildings to their work sites. Victims are bused at 7:30 a.m. seven days per week to their respective labor sites where they work until 10 or 11 p.m. every night. b6 b7C

Cs allege that the minor Victims of Sea Org are not sent to school nor are they given proper education through tutoring. All Victims are taught how to lie to outsiders and authorities who might inquire of their living and working conditions.

Cs described that the top executives of Sea Org are housed and work at a facility in Hemet, CA that is surrounded by substantial gates and surveillance equipment. In Hemet, the executives were given advance notice if regulatory agencies were going to be conducting any type of inspection, which would give the organization an opportunity to prepare for and make necessary modifications to bring the organization into compliance. The "Flag Liaison Office" is where middle-management work and that office is located at 6331 Hollywood Boulevard in Los Angeles.

Cs stated that they have complained to the Department of Labor regarding various labor violations. Cs claim that the Department of Labor has taken the position that it cannot investigate the Church of Scientology because it is a religious organization. Cs claim that the Church uses religion as a "cloak" to avoid regulation.

Cs stated that two former top executives who have since escaped the Sea Org after being seriously tortured, [redacted] and [redacted], might be willing to meet with agents regarding these allegations. b6 b7C

[redacted] mentioned a woman named [redacted] who also [redacted] with Sea Org. [redacted] and [redacted] went to report [redacted] were being held against their will by the Church of Scientology to the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), Hollywood Division. They spoke to Sgt. [redacted] He was not helpful and claimed that LAPD could not help [redacted] because they were adults and could make decisions for themselves. Later Sgt. [redacted] saw [redacted] and [redacted] protesting outside the Church's building located on Hollywood Boulevard. [redacted] also reported the Church of Scientology to b6 b7C

Polaris Project. Someone with Polaris Project referred [redacted] to LAPD Detective [redacted] talked to Det. [redacted] on the telephone on [redacted] She did not trust him and decided not to follow-up with him regarding her human trafficking allegations. b6 b7C

Cs discussed a current federal civil case brought against the Church of Scientology in the Central District of California by [redacted] Case No.: [redacted] The [redacted] are former Sea Org members who escaped [redacted] Their civil action alleges violations of federal human trafficking laws. b6 b7C

Cs explained that there are forced labor cases against the Church of Scientology currently being prosecuted in Belgium and France.

[redacted] and other Sea Org children stayed in Los Angeles and [redacted] They lived in the ATA building next door to the big blue building in Hollywood. After a few years, the COS began building a facility referred to as "the Ranch" in Hemet. The Ranch was a compound next to Int Base for the Sea Org children. Today, Sea Org members are not allowed to have children and the Ranch no longer exists. At the age of [redacted] moved to the Ranch. At young ages the children were put to work doing hard labor at the Ranch, such as framing buildings and other projects.

The children on the Ranch were given a basic education and instilled with the basic Scientology beliefs. They believed that they were saving the world. [redacted] was a member of the [redacted] which was an arm of the COS that handled major issues for the COS. [redacted] of the COS facility in Clearwater, Florida. [redacted] worked for the Religious Technology Center (RTC) at Int Base, and later [redacted] the RTC in Los Angeles. [redacted] They did not live in the same apartments together. For the entire time that [redacted] was with Sea Org, the members lived in apartments nearby Int Base. They were bused to Int Base everyday for work. They would wake up at 7 a.m. and would be at work by 8. They ate meals in a mess hall and were given 30 minutes to eat. However, one means of disciplining the members was to reduce their mealtime to 10 minutes if Int Base was not operating productively. At the age [redacted] was working 16/hour days. Some weeks he worked around the clock for days without sleep. Two hours each day were to be devoted to studying Scientology. The members were given direction on what courses they were to be studying in a given week. However, study time was cut back or cut out completely when other projects on Int Base took priority.

b7D

Members also received various kinds of vocational training, depending on their positions on Int Base. Due to the threatening culture at Sea Org, everyone performed at high levels and learned more quickly than anyone in the outside world would learn a vocation. Members were to never question authority. Penalties at Int Base were severe. If a member was not performing or was in trouble for some reason, they would be put "on the decks." This meant that the member would be subjected to manual labor, such as hauling rocks or construction. "On the decks" was a penalty not as severe as being sent to the Rehabilitation Project Force (RPF). The Ethics Board would determine whether a member was to be "on the decks." In addition to manual labor, members that were "on the decks" would go on the e-meter to "come clean." The e-meter was Scientology's polygraph contraption that members believed could detect any improper thoughts. It was like going to confession. All Sea Org members went on the e-meter every Friday for purposes of a routine security check. If the e-meter read at a 30 or above, the member would be investigated. Members would confess their improper thoughts when on the e-meter and those readings would be documented and placed in the members' personnel files. Even celebrity Scientologists would go on the e-meter. According to [redacted] many Scientologists were afraid to leave the COS for fear that their e-meter confessions would be disclosed publicly.

b6 b7C b7D

b6 b7C b7D

Physical threats and physical abuse took place at Int Base, but it was not a written policy. [redacted] personally never witnessed any physical abuse by [redacted] of the COS. He had friends who told him they saw [redacted] being physically abusive. He witnessed [redacted] do some "grotesque" things. [redacted] witnessed one particularly egregious incident during a large Scientology gathering. Every year the COS put on six large gatherings, viewed somewhat like pep rallies. They were used to update members on what was happening in Scientology around the world. [redacted] viewed those events as marketing opportunities. In preparation, Sea Org members worked around the clock. [redacted] had demoted a senior level manager named [redacted] to [redacted] had [redacted] fetching water and food for the workers at the conventions. [redacted] was telling [redacted] that he was useless and shaming [redacted] in front of everyone. [redacted] told [redacted] Since you are useless I want you to bend down [redacted] told [redacted] command. But [redacted] would have done it otherwise, because no Sea Org member would dare disobey [redacted]

b6 b7C b7D

After L. Ron Hubbard died, [redacted] of the COS and dismantled the management structure and created a dictatorhip. [redacted] considered himself a messiah. Sea Org members would go to whatever lengths necessary to obey [redacted] commands.

b6 b7C b7D

After a period of time, Sea Org members were no longer allowed to have children. There was a medical department at Int Base that issued birth control. If women became pregnant, they were required to have abortions. [redacted] became pregnant [redacted] and they forced her to have an abortion. If a woman refused to have an abortion, she would be kicked out of Sea Org. However, due to the repercussions of being kicked out of Sea Org, such as having a large debt and being disconnected from one's family and Scientology, members did not view being kicked out of the organization as a viable option.

 b6 b7C b7D

Communication with the outside world was severely restricted on Int Base. Members were not given access to the internet, unless they were working on a project that required internet access. In that case, there were restrictions on what websites the Members could access and their internet usage was monitored. Members could receive and send mail, however the mail was also monitored. When [redacted] received mail it was already opened. There was someone on Int Base who was specifically designated to open and review the mail. Placing telephone calls was allowed, but it was considered to be "off focus," meaning that the Members were not concentrating on the work of Scientology. In order to place a telephone call, members had to fill out a written request and the call would take place in a room where a third party would be listening to the conversation. While there were telephones in his office at Golden Era, calls could not be placed without a passcode. Only certain management personnel had the codes. [redacted] had responsibilities sometimes that required him to place phone calls. Those calls were not monitored. [redacted] explained that it was out of the question to even think about placing unsanctioned calls or doing anything improper, as such improper conduct or even improper thoughts would be detected during the weekly e-meter reading. b6 b7C b7D

Often times an entire group of workers would be placed into bootcamps if they were not producing at the highest levels. The workers would be made to sleep in tents without showers.

Workers were paid $40/week. There were times that they did not get paid because management claimed that the workers were not being productive and therefore there was not enough money coming into the organization to pay their salaries. Every year they would receive W2's reflecting that they had annual income in the approximate amount of $2,000. There was a legal department that kept the workers' passports and that ensured foreign workers' immigration papers were up to date. [redacted] has his green card. b6 b7C b7D

Members did not have days off. They also did not get holidays off. In order to take a vacation, members would draft a written request that would have to identify the purpose of the vacation. Rarely did members request vacation because it was viewed as being "off focus" and not for the "greater good." Basically Sea Org members did not leave Int Base unless there was a death in the family or they were getting married. When he was with Sea Org he took two vacations. The second one was [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

At the end of the workday, workers were bused back to their apartments where they were expected to go straight to bed, otherwise they were considered "out of ethics." At the apartment complex there was a position referred to as Quarter Master (QM). QM's monitored the comings and goings of Sea Org members. At that time, members had a few hours on Sunday mornings to run errands. They could leave during that time and did not need permission. There were cameras at the complexes where they lived and they were closely monitored. Even though technically anyone could walk out the front gate on Sunday and not come back, that rarely happened. They did not need fences to keep Sea Org members from leaving. Members were so brainwashed into thinking that leaving was not an option and they were too afraid that the COS would come after them if they tried to leave.

If a Sea Org member escaped from Int Base, it was referred to as "blowing out." If a member "blew," a "blow drill" would be conducted in an effort to find that member. That involved a crew of people who would hit the local hotels, train stations, and bus stations. Everyone knew about "blow drills" and this was another means of coercion that caused people to stay. If a member was caught blowing, they would either be sent to the RPF or be put "on the decks."

If a Sea Org member was in "heavy ethics trouble" they would be put on "restricted" status. A member could be in heavy ethics trouble, for instance, if they were deemed a security threat. If a member were "restricted" they would not be permitted to leave Int Base for any reason. The co-workers of any Sea Org member who "blows" would be immediately in "heavy ethics trouble." Usually the co-workers would be restricted and interrogated. Their work areas would be searched. It was assumed that co-workers should have known and reported any potential defectors. As for everyone else on Int Base, additional security would be added to the apartment buildings off the base, and security would be tighter for a period of time. They would not be on lock-down, but security would be tightened.

If a Sea Org member was not feeling well, they could not stay home sick from work. Instead, they would wear a mask respirator to work. If a member were really sick, they would be placed in an isolation building. If a Sea Org member broke a bone or needed serious medical treatment, they would be taken to the hospital. There was a dentist on Int Base who was a Sea Org member who would treat people. [redacted] did not see members ever being deprived of appropriate medical attention.

At Int Base, there was a fence that had barbed wire facing inward that surrounded the perimeter. Lights and alarms would go off if movement was detected. Security guards monitored the perimeter and they carried weapons. If someone tried to leave Int Base without permission, they would be stopped by security.

Both of [redacted] went through the RPF. [redacted] left the Sea Org [redacted] while in Sea Org. [redacted] still works for Sea Org and [redacted] After [redacted] Sea Org security had [redacted] several times in an effort to try and determine where [redacted]

In [redacted] was placed into the Rehabilitation Project Force (RPF) in Los Angeles. When a spouse is placed into the RPF it is considered a disgrace and many couples are forced to file for divorce. [redacted] continued to talk to [redacted] in the RPF. One day [redacted] asked [redacted] and that [redacted] was immediately taken off her post and [redacted] According to [redacted] was considered to be "deep-sixed" which she explained meant what he did was not forgivable. [redacted] was subject to auditing, ethics and security checks as a result of the violation. Auditors attempted to convince [redacted] she should not want to be [redacted]

It was common for couples to get pressured to divorce. Married or not Sea Org members were supposed to put Scientology first. The Church would say that Sea Org members could choose whether they should divorce. The church believes that Sea Org members should not have negative outside influences, such as a spouse who has been sent to the RPF. The Church gave staff the choice to either leave RTC or divorce. [redacted] explained, "the church cleverly puts on that staff members have a choice, but spiritually they do not."

[redacted] was forced to do manual labor as a part of her punishment. [redacted] at one point but was told she would never go [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

In [redacted] attempted to escape by [redacted] told [redacted] she did not want to go back to the base but instead wanted to go [redacted] in Los Angeles. [redacted] kept his word and took [redacted] They arranged for a meeting with [redacted] After the meeting [redacted] returned to Int Base to begin the process to route out. She was immediately placed in isolation. As a punishment for [redacted] attempted escape, [redacted] was assigned to do the whole RPF program again. b6 b7C b7E

In [redacted] escaped from the RPF. [redacted] said [redacted] and shown up at the Int Base [redacted] The investigator said he needed to [redacted] in order to close a [redacted] The investigator asked her if she was there [redacted] but thought it would be better to keep quiet. [redacted] began to feel brainwashed because of the thought process Sea Org members have. Sea Org members are dedicated workers for Scientology, but things started to change when it became personal. [redacted] did not sign up to be covertly driven apart from the person she loved. Scientology had an alterior motive to turn staff members away from loved ones. [redacted] was considered to be in "treason" status or enemy condition because she refused to divorce [redacted] believed that a bond between a husband and wife should be stronger than a bond with her boss. Scientology believed the bond should be stronger with her boss and anything else should be cut off. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] went through the route out process for [redacted] and was then given a post [redacted] She was treated better than other members at GOLD because of [redacted] at several public Scientology events. In order to [redacted] sent a [redacted] knew that all mail was opened except for catalog items and so [redacted] came up with a plan to get her out of Int Base. In [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Life at the Int Base used to follow the writings of L. Ron Hubbard. According to Hubbard Sea Org members were supposed to receive one day off every other week, three weeks off each year, study time, exercise hour, proper sleep and meals. The idea behind the lifestyle was that a healthy staff member would get more work done.

In the early 1980's it was not forbidden to join Sea Org if you had young children. Int Base had a school and nursery for children of Sea Org members. When [redacted] he decided that children would no longer be allowed because it was causing Sea Org members to be off purpose. Sea Org members were too preoccupied with personal problems and thus could not achieve a high work standard. [redacted] made a policy that if a Sea Org member were to become pregnant, she would automatically be sent to a lower org or class 5 org, also known as a mission. It is common for a staff member to get an abortion to avoid being reprimanded or routed to a lower org. The missions were not typically staffed by Sea Org members. The staff member would stay in the class 5 org until the child was old enough to work for Sea Org. Staff members did not want to go to a Class 5 org. It was viewed as a demotion by other Sea Org members. There was a lot of pressure to not desert your group. If a staff member were to get pregnant, they were asked if they had gotten pregnant on purpose as a means to get out of Sea Org. Members were asked how something like that could happen if it wasn't on purpose. [redacted] always wanted to have children and was shocked when she learned she would not be able to as a member of Sea Org. [redacted] coped with the policy by telling herself that she had spent many lifetimes raising children and would probably do so in the next lifetime so this one lifetime without children would be ok. Members were not provided contraception but had to get it from Planned Parenthood. [redacted] knows of two people who were transferred to outer orgs as a result b6 b7C b7D of a pregnancy. [redacted] personally knows a person who was pressured into having an abortion and had a difficult time with the decision.

[redacted] was obsessed that the Church of Scientology was perceived as thriving. He would achieve this through promotional videos, newer buildings and through six events held yearly. The [redacted] case resulted in a terrible setback for the Church of Scientology. [redacted] began to use celebrities like [redacted] to further the message of Scientology.

b6
b7D

[redacted] at times blamed Sea Org members for the public's perception of the church. He was degrading toward other people as well as physically and emotionally abusive. The way [redacted] treated people scared and humiliated them. His treatment caused staff to keep quiet and out of fear. No one stuck up for anyone else. It was forbidden to criticize [redacted] much less think about him critically. During staff meetings it was common for [redacted] to choke people. [redacted] would also ask a woman by the name of [redacted] to hit, punch and kick other people for him. In [redacted] view he was solely responsible for the success of the Church of Scientology.

Scientologists observe several holidays. On March 13, Scientologists celebrate L. Ron Hubbard's birthday. On May 9 Scientologists celebrate the anniversary of Dianetics. In June Scientologists celebrate the maiden voyage of the Scientology cruise ship named the "Freewinds". On that day Scientology holds a large convention on the ship in which high ranking and famous Scientologists donate money and get personal face time with [redacted] On August 12, Scientologists celebrate Sea Org day. In September Scientologists celebrate auditors day. In October Scientologists celebrate the International Association of Scientologists at a large convention in St. Hill, in the UK.

In the 1980's and early 1990's Sea Org members were allowed to have Christmas off as well as take leave for family visits. At times the entire Int Base would travel to Big Bear National Park for recreation. Sea Org members were also able to take Sea Org day off to celebrate the day. By 1995 rules had become more stringent. In the late 1990's it was difficult to leave the base for any reason including funerals and family events. Peers and upper management would ask a member, "Why would you want to leave?" During that time span, Scientology was undergoing a big push to go mainstream through celebrities, new buildings, auditors and delivering technology to the public. [redacted] wanted expansion.

[redacted] used to have certain privileges because of her position. [redacted] All of that changed in the mid and late 1990's and they were no longer allowed to have any breaks.

b6 b7C b7D

Sea Org members were hesitant to leave Sea Org because they have no connection to any family outside of Sea Org. Anyone who did leave would immediately be disconnected from any familial connections within the church. Members were also worried about what could happen to any family, spouses, peers and groups as a result of that staff member leaving. Members were also not in possession of their passports. Passports were kept within the Hubbard Communications Office (HCO). [redacted] Members are told that they had to turn in their passports for safe keeping. An ethics officer was in charge of the legal department and staff personnel files. [redacted] was not aware of Immigration officials ever visiting Int Base.

b6 b7C b7D

Int Base had an inter-office email system. [redacted] did not have an internet account or an email account. Messages were usually sent via the intra-office email system. Only a certain number of people had access to outside internet and was only because they are in charge of purchasing, pricing and research. [redacted] does not know who the internet service provider was. It may have been Earthlink because that company was created by a Scientologist.

the media from [redacted] will be revised between 7-30 times. When [redacted] was working on a response, his personal staff would endure two to three days of constant work and stress.

Staff members had roll call at the end of the night. Staff members would be checked for any items or documents that should not leave Int Base grounds. Anyone traveling was subject to a baggage check by security.

[redacted] at one point banked with Wells Fargo. He has credit cards of all types. [redacted] knew of three vehicles registered to [redacted] His birthday is on [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Almost everyone on Int Base received W-2 forms. Staff that worked for the RTC had to file in the early 1990's because of bonuses they had received. Most did not file because they did not earn enough money for that particular year. Sometimes staff members would go months without getting paid.

After [redacted] escaped she noticed a private investigator following her. She managed to get a partial license plate and the make and model of the vehicle. b6 b7C b7D strategies and affairs of all Scientology churches, across the country and the world.

CSI was the identified "employer" for all Sea Org members who worked on Int Base. In Los Angeles, the CSI had multiple divisions including the Office of Special Affairs (OSA), the International Liaison Offices and the International Justice Chief. On Int Base, some of the divisions of CSI included: (1) Commodore's Messenger Organization (CMO) (every continent and major Scientology orgniazation has a CMO), (2) the Watchdog Committee (the highest ecclesiastical management body), (3) CMO Gold (to include Golden Era Productions).

Other COS organizations included the Religious Technology Center (RTC). RTC was not a management body, as was the CSI. RTC was concerned with "technology" which, in Scientology terms, means anything related to auditing process, the philosophy, and the spiritual methodology of the religion. RTC was also concerned with ensuring that there was a global technology strategy for all the churches. RTC was a 501(C)(3) tax exempt corporation. RTC also owned the trademarks to Scientology, Dianetics, and other related terms, which were bequeathed to RTC by LRH before he died.

The Church of Spiritual Technology (CST) was responsible for archiving all of LRH's writings. There are various vaults around the country with all LRH's writings. According to [redacted] LRH's writings are etched into metal plates that are indestructible even to atomic bombs. Approximately 60 people work for CST and they are also Sea Org members. Members of the Board for CST included outside attorneys. b6 b7C b7D

Author Services Incorporated (ASI) is a for-profit corporation and is the literary agency for LRH. It is staffed entirely by Sea Org members. ASI's building is located on Hollywood Boulevard. All of ASI's profit would be filtered into the CST, for purposes of the "preservation of technology."

Bridge Publications Incorporated (BPI) was the publisher of some (but not all) of LRH's publications. BPI was a non-profit corporation. BPI did all its own printing of the publications. BPI's offices are located on the east side of Los Angeles in an industrial section.

[redacted] that were located on Int Base. He lived [redacted] When [redacted] escaped from Int Base in [redacted] he was the [redacted] He had [redacted] of RTC. [redacted] was [redacted] and headed three divisions: [redacted] was the [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was familiar with the concept of "blow drills," which was a process in place to bring back Sea Org members who had escaped from Int Base. A blow drill would be conducted in every case where a Sea Org member left Int Base without permission. However, [redacted] would only be involved in blow drills where [redacted] had escaped. [redacted] participated in between [redacted] and [redacted] such drills. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was the [redacted] for Int Base. [redacted] the concept of the blow drill. [redacted] did not know if there was a written policy regarding how blow drills were to be conducted. Ironically, [redacted] from Int Base. Someone called [redacted] and told him [redacted] blew. [redacted] in a field. [redacted] brought [redacted] back to Int Base. At the time he "blew" [redacted] had been living at the [redacted] on Int Base while trying to route out. [redacted] had been doing [redacted] during that process. [redacted] convinced him to come back and route out properly. [redacted] persuaded him by telling him he would be cut off from his family if he did not route out properly. b6 b7C b7D

Another Sea Org member whom [redacted] was responsible for recovering in a blow drill was [redacted] At the time, [redacted] One means used by the security office to find Sea Org members who blew was to check the airlines for reservations. In the case of [redacted] they saw that she had a reservation in Boston for a flight to [redacted] flew to Boston and caught her right before she got on her connecting flight to [redacted] talked her out of getting on the flight. [redacted] and told him that he had located [redacted] in Boston that night. However, [redacted] called [redacted] and had [redacted] send [redacted] to pick up [redacted] at the airport in Boston. When [redacted] got back to Int Base, she was sent to the Campbell House, aka Happy Valley. She was there for [redacted] going through "security checks." [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

b7D

[redacted] completed her security checks and returned to Int Base where she lives and works to this day. When asked why [redacted] did not get sent to a Rehabilitation Project Force (RPF), [redacted] explained that [redacted] were not typically sent to RPF's because they "knew too much" and they could not risk having those [redacted] share the company secrets with others on the RPF.

b6
b7D

OSA had an investigations/intelligence branch. [redacted] could call OSA and they could look up flight information somehow. Someone at Int Base and someone at OSA in the building on Hollywood and Ivar Streets in Los Angeles had travel agency licenses. Those people had the ability to research reservations if they were trying to track someone down. Also, every Sea Org member had a personnel file. It contained information including where the member banked, family-related information, and bank account information. OSA would regularly check on the people who blew using that information. [redacted] a Sea Org member.

b7D

[redacted] and his team used private investigators to get whatever information they needed. One private investigator was named [redacted] He was a former [redacted] had [redacted] and [redacted] were [redacted] as well. They had contacts with banks. [redacted] believes they were indicted and maybe convicted for doing inappropriate investigations. [redacted] recalled that [redacted] attorney, [redacted] suggested putting [redacted] case with [redacted] went to [redacted] office and told him not to do that because [redacted] was dirty. They wanted to get information on [redacted] because she had been making threats to expose Scientology. [redacted] never heard of [redacted] sending people to infiltrate the FBI.

b6
b7D

[redacted] was another [redacted] recovered during a blow drill. [redacted] was the [redacted] of CMO International. He was [redacted] the Watchdog Committee. [redacted] blamed [redacted] for the fall of Scientology statistics and had been required to build [redacted] at the time he attempted to blow from Int Base. In late [redacted] was working in Los Angeles when he received a call that [redacted] had blown and was [redacted] Others were [redacted] trying to convince him to come back. [redacted] was not listening. [redacted] drove to Hemet and convinced [redacted] to have [redacted] that he was not going back to Int Base. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D outside of Int Base. That was not the case for most Sea Org members. [redacted] checked into the Best Western in or near Hemet. [redacted] agreed to keep talking to [redacted] Over the next few days, [redacted] did some auditing with him. [redacted] took an e-meter to [redacted] hotel. Ultimately, [redacted] agreed to route out on Int Base. After a period of security checking, probably over several months, [redacted] agreed to stay. After that, [redacted] said he wanted to go to the RPF because it would allow him to be around other people and get back on track. After he completed the RPF, [redacted] is still with Sea Org on Int Base.

[redacted] also chased after [redacted] and [redacted] when they blew from Sea Org. If a Sea Org member wanted to leave Int Base through approved channels, they would have to go through approved channels known as "routing out." Those who sought to route out would be sent to the Old Gilman House on Int Base. During the day, they would do hard labor and they would also go through various security checks (sec checks). That process would include meeting with an ethics officer who would try to convince the member not to leave. The more senior you were, the less likely you were able to route out because the sec checks would never end. That was true because [redacted] was afraid those senior officials would reveal to the public what was happening on Int Base, including the fact that [redacted] was beating people. [redacted] was also afraid he would be revealed a fraud. While the Sea Org members were making less than $50/week and working grueling hours, [redacted] making six figures. [redacted] was paid by RTC. RTC should be his identified "employer" on W-2 forms. The more you knew about how he operated, the less likely it was you would be able to route out.

When senior officials were in trouble, they would be sent to "the Hole." The Hole was located on Int Base near the CMO International building. There were two double wide buildings that were put together as temporary quarters for approximately 60 executive managers. This is where the management would meet. This was also where many mental torture sessions took place. From [redacted] the managers were working in the Hole long hours, but were permitted to sleep back in their rooms. From late [redacted] told them they could not leave the Hole until they figured out how to do a new org chart. Everyone got a pillow and blanket and slept in the Hole. [redacted] described those weeks as a group confession b6 b7C b7D where the managers were forced to "come clean." Managers started hurting each other and accusing each other of being suppressive. [redacted] said he got into a [redacted] a few times. [redacted] was encouraging the physical abuse. [redacted] would lay hands on the managers and ask the group why he was the only one who was imposing ethics in the group. [redacted] told [redacted] said to [redacted]

b6 b7C b7D

At a certain point [redacted] decided [redacted] was the person who was a suppressive. [redacted] told the group that if any of them talked to [redacted] they would be automatically declared suppressive. The next night was "musical chairs," which was a [redacted] led multi-hour mind-game session. The night after musical chairs, [redacted] watched [redacted] thought he either had to leave or he was going to beat [redacted] to a pulp. That night [redacted] He never saw anyone chase after him. Many years later, [redacted] told [redacted] that three of the four doors on the Hole were locked up as a result of [redacted]

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] would insist on beatings to the group and to individuals. For instance, one time [redacted] was jumping on [redacted] and beating on him. [redacted] yelled at everyone. [redacted] were all present. The message from [redacted] was that everyone should be physically abusing "out of ethics" persons.

b6 b7C b7D

If violence was being used, it usually started with [redacted] For instance, if [redacted] saw a videotape that Golden Era Productions had put out and he did not like the finished product, he would pull the Gold Execs together. He would typically yell at them and throw the videotape at someone and push another executive around. [redacted] would yell [redacted]

b6 b7C b7D

The majority of the punishments [redacted] inflicted were on Golden Era Productions employees. Gold was very important to [redacted] were put in tents on a hill and were not allowed to shower. [redacted] was supposed to be watching them but he was not being hard enough on them, so [redacted] subjected [redacted] to the punishment as well. That punishment went on for weeks. During that period of time, the [redacted]

[redacted] was also known [redacted] that he would put on people. Sometimes they would say [redacted] like [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] did not see men nor [redacted] laying hands on women, but he did see objects being thrown at women and shaking a fist at women. [redacted] did get other women to hit each other. In [redacted] named [redacted] (phonetic) that [redacted] called [redacted] was purposefully inciting anger in [redacted] also witnessed [redacted] named [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU) [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] arranged for them to go to [redacted] Next, [redacted] helped [redacted] was responsible for [redacted] them at Int Base before they left. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] is [redacted] She is with the [redacted] (phonetic). [redacted] Colorado to threaten [redacted] not to say anything about the Church of Scientology after he escaped. b6 b7C b7D

 b6 b7C b7D

On Int Base, the Port Captains were responsible for security. They would usually get advanced warning regarding upcoming inspections. The security personnel also had close relationships with the Riverside County Sheriff's Department (RCSD). For instance, Int Base security was known to give the RCSD videotapes from their security cameras facing the interstate if RCSD needed it for whatever reason.

There were between 800-1000 Sea Org members on Int Base when [redacted] was there. Today there are probably between 500-700 members on Int Base. Many members have been off-loaded. Meaning that those members were sent to work at other locations across the country. Approximately 50-60% of Sea Org members were U.S. Citizens. Every five years Sea Org members have to sign "Volunteer" agreements. Those agreements are kept in their personnel files. b6 b7C b7D

The level of freedom a Sea Org member had was on a gradient scale, depending on the member's level of seniority. The more senior you were, generally the less freedoms you had. Sea Org members generally knew that if they were going to Int Base, they would have less freedoms. Those members knew that as they rose through the ranks, they would be subjected to more precautions in their ability to communicate with the outside world.

The fence that was built around Int Base was originally built in 1981 with the intention of protecting LRH, who lived on Int Base. However, by the time the fence was completed its purpose was entirely different and it was used to prevent Sea Org members from leaving. One means of ensuring all Int Base Sea Org members were accounted for was to do a twice-daily muster, aka roll call. The muster would take place in the morning and in the evening. The muster was used as a security measure as well as an opportunity to give Sea Org members any necessary briefings.

Another means of controlling Sea Org members was to monitor their written communications. Letters that were being sent off Int Base were checked for security purposes to make sure no secrets were leaked. That was a policy since [redacted] started in [redacted] People could not write freely about their situation, if they ever indicated that they were unhappy they would be viewed as "out of ethics." Sea Org members could not talk about wanting to leave with each other. If a member desired to leave, that could only be shared with HCO. That was the "leaving and leaves" policy. b6 b7C b7D

Phone calls could not be made from Int Base unless they were monitored, for security purposes. In order to make a phone call, the member would have to make a written request. For a period of time, [redacted] would brief new Int Base members that they were not allowed to use the telephone and they could not tell people where they were living and working. He would emphasize that they should stay in touch with their family by mail so the family did not begin to worry. If a parent would show up and wanted to see their child, that member would be in trouble because he was not fulfilling his responsibility to maintain written communication with his family. b6 b7C b7D

Beginning in the late 1990's, all days off and vacations were canceled. Sea Org members were rarely granted a day off. That was [redacted] doing. b6 b7C b7D

And, if you had said anything negative, that would presumably be detected on the e-meter which everyone was subjected to when returning to Int Base. That was towards the end [redacted]

b6

[redacted] noticed that when Sea Org staffers came to [redacted] from Int Base he could tell that they were different. He knew there was something strange going back there. Nobody had been giving him the details because they could not speak freely. [redacted] was constantly complaining how everyone on Int Base was "fucked up." He always portrayed [redacted] He would say that the whole Int Base was "suppressive."

[redacted] moved back to Int Base at [redacted] request to take over [redacted] building. [redacted] had made many friends inside and outside Scientology while he was in Clearwater, [redacted] was feeling threatened. [redacted] would say things to [redacted] Also in [redacted] at the same time [redacted] was transferred back to Int Base, [redacted] was transferred to Clearwater. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was showing [redacted] who was in charge. [redacted] had also expressed to [redacted] too. Later, [redacted] divulged to [redacted] on [redacted] occasions that she believed [redacted]

When [redacted] got to Int Base, the fence around the property had been built. [redacted] was living [redacted] near the golf course on Int base at first. [redacted] told [redacted] not to interact with anyone on the base. [redacted] started hiring outside contractors and was separate from everyone on the base. He had old friends who worked on the base and when he would see them, he could tell they had changed. They told him they had not been paid for several months, if not years. He also learned people were not getting any days off on Int Base. Everyone on the base was "freaked out" about making any changes or doing anything that would upset [redacted] was shocked at the new culture on Int Base.

b6
b7D

[redacted] was starting to worry that Sea Org members on Int Base were dissatisfied and would want to leave. As a result, [redacted] ordered [redacted] on Int Base, so that all Sea Org members would be contained within the fencing around the base. [redacted] also had a general store built on Int Base so Sea Org members could buy their cigarettes and personal items on Int Base.

b6 b7C b7D

No one on Int Base could make a decision without having to run it past [redacted] Everyone was afraid of the consequences of making suggestions that would be unpopular with [redacted] There was only one way on Int Base, and it was [redacted] way. He considered himself the "Pope" and he viewed himself as such. As a means of imposing his will, he was known to randomly lash out at people for looking at him the wrong way or not saluting him properly. He imposed arbitrary punishments, including sending people to [redacted] and being hooked up on the e-meter till the person confessed crimes they did not even commit, or being put on the RPF for no apparent reason, as a means of controlling the Sea Org members. He would "kick the shit out of people" or pull the chair out from underneath them. Everyone was afraid of the consequences of upsetting [redacted] Sea Org members began to distrust each other. The could only believe in [redacted] not in their peers. According to [redacted] was both out of control and, at the same time, he was a genius because the climate of fear he created on Int Base was part of his master plan.

b6 b7C b7D

Wherever he was, every single thing [redacted] said would be recorded and transcribed within hours. He had three or four people transcribing. Those transcriptions are in the RTC building on Int Base in filing cabinets. [redacted] would say he had written more than L. Ron Hubbard (LRH).

b6 b7C b7D

Shortly after [redacted] returned to Int Base, [redacted] returned from [redacted] and told [redacted] and [redacted] where the Sea Org members did their studies. They were standing outside the building. [redacted] would pick people out as they were coming out of the building and would intentionally degrade them publicly with information [redacted] had obtained from their private confessions made during their auditing. For example, [redacted] And [redacted] And, [redacted] knew all these peoples' confessions and he was using them as a means of control. He would hold staff meetings and make people get up and admit their embarrassing confessions in front of everyone. [redacted] explained that after every Sea Org member went through an auditing session, the auditor would prepare a report that would go into the members' preclear (PC) and ethics folders. [redacted] would also receive a copy of the auditors' reports.

It was around the same time that [redacted] from [redacted] that he was routinely being physically abusive towards Sea Org members. One time during a meeting he saw [redacted] bash together [redacted] heads. One of them was bleeding out of his ear. [redacted] hit [redacted] two or three times. The worst situation was when [redacted] was working on a building that was set up to make CD's. There were 50 or 60 people with [redacted] taking a tour. [redacted] asked [redacted] a question and did not like his answer. He [redacted] Another time he [redacted]

Everyone was working very long hours with little sleep. [redacted] main concern was the six events that Scientology hosted around the world every year. When they were preparing for one of those events, Sea Org members got very little sleep. Everyone would stay up all night stuffing CDs in sleeves, for instance. The whole Int Base was operating under sleep deprivation, which [redacted] believed was another means of controlling the workers. There were months when [redacted] went without any sleep at all.

b6 b7C b7D

The six international events were [redacted] chance to shine and to portray the Church of Scientology as thriving, when in fact it was falling apart. Despite all the Sea Org members' hard work, [redacted] would take credit for their successes. He would impose unrealistic deadlines and if the workers made the deadlines, he would take the credit. If they did not meet their deadlines, they would be punished.

b6 b7C b7D

Everyone would do what [redacted] told them to do, even if it seemed irrational or unfair. He would tell someone to hit another person, and they would do it. At a certain point [redacted] had a private conversation with [redacted] said, [redacted] agreed with [redacted] sentiment, but would not agree to help him do anything about it. [redacted] also had a similar conversation with [redacted] a close [redacted] While [redacted] acknowledge that what [redacted] was doing was not right, he was not willing to do anything either.

b6 b7C b7D

When asked why he and other people did not leave, [redacted] stated they were not in a position to leave. Most of them did not have high school educations. They had no money, and they would be forced to disconnect from their friends and families who were almost always Scientologists themselves. Furthermore, after [redacted] started beating people and making enemies on Int Base, he made it almost impossible for anyone to leave. Blow drills were created and anyone who tried to leave would be found and brought back.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that [redacted] came up with a list of people who had once worked on Int Base but who were no longer there. [redacted] and [redacted] find out where those Sea Org members were living whom he perceived as possible threats. They had to be sent to places where [redacted] would never see them again. b6 b7C b7D

At the end [redacted] on Int Base, [redacted] went into "the Hole." This was a prison-like situation at the CMO International building on Int Base. [redacted] was upset with some key executives on Int Base and he had them at the CMO building where they were "confessing their crimes" to each other in some meetings that [redacted] described as "seances." At some point [redacted] told [redacted] to join the others in their seansces. Everyone was sitting around a conference table taking jabs at each other and trying to solve some organizational board restructuring issues. The problem was that every time the execs would show their new org proposals to [redacted] he would determine they were insufficient and erupt at the group. When [redacted] got to the Hole, [redacted] was leading the seances. [redacted] told [redacted] to step down and said that he was going to take over. [redacted] put a new org board together and submitted the proposal to [redacted] was again dissatisfied and began throwing new people in the whole, including people from Golden Era Productions and from RTC. b6 b7C b7D

The Hole was where ultimately 80-100 executives ended up living and working. They were under constant guard. [redacted] would show up regularly to berate them. [redacted] was there. [redacted] were there. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] had been in the Hole for a few weeks before he decided to leave. There was RTC staff on the outside at every door. You could not just come and go. You were stuck in that room. Food was brought in. Usually they were fed rice and beans. On a daily basis in the Hole, there was physical abuse. When [redacted] was on Int Base, people were being very aggressive and would physically and verbally attack each other. Their behavior was very degrading. That behavior was driven by [redacted] He b6 b7C b7D expected that of them. They believed they were screwing up and [redacted] had ordered them to beat the crap out of each other to get to the bottom of matters. [redacted] would hit them on the head, he would throw water at people, or he would jump across the table and attack you. Onetime [redacted] witnessed [redacted] on [redacted] They had bloody noses, and one guy lost a tooth or chipped a tooth. When he walked by people in the Hole, they would flinch they were so afraid he was going to hit them.

One night, [redacted] visited the Hole at around 10 p.m. He was threatening to off-load everyone, which meant they would be kicked out of the church. He was telling everyone they were suppressive and was going on and on, when he came up with the idea to play musical chairs. He said the last one standing could come out of the Hole and work with him. It was a song by Queen that he played over and over. It lasted for hours. A guy from Golden Era productions was videotaping the whole thing. [redacted] keeps the videotapes in Building 50 on Int Base, which is the RTC building. There is an attic in that building with storage and safes. [redacted] heard [redacted] to [redacted] from the musical chairs incident. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] escaped from the Hole sometime in [redacted] When [redacted] escaped, [redacted] pulled [redacted] told [redacted] did not tell the others that [redacted] had blown. b6 b7C b7D

By [redacted] had called [redacted] in the Hole and told him that he was declared a suppressive person. [redacted] said he wanted to leave. [redacted] separated [redacted] from the others in the Hole and put him in a separate little room in the Hole. Someone brought him divorce papers to sign. There was a general belief amongst Sea Org members that they would be physically held back if they tried to leave, this was probably due to the blow drills that had been executed in the past where people were always returned. [redacted] knew they could not legally stop anyone from walking out the gate.

Nobody ever chased after [redacted] after he left. He watched for them. Finally he noticed a private investigator that followed him for two months [redacted] He approached him and told him to back off. [redacted] had blown before him. [redacted] speculated that the number of Sea Org members on Int Base has been significantly whittled down. When he first arrived on Int Base there were approximately 850 people there. He believes when he left there was closer to 450 Sea Org members. Many of the other members went into RPFs or were off-loaded. [redacted] has the final say over who goes into and gets out of the RPF.

When [redacted] on Flag Base in Clearwater, he kept [redacted] When he got to Int Base, the Port Captain took his passport, copied his driver's license, and his naturalization papers. with a Scientology symbol on his shirt came [redacted] approached the Scientologist and asked him about the situation at the Big Blue Building. The Scientologist told [redacted] to give it a chance. [redacted] the Big Blue Building. He did not get any Scientology studies nor did he do the Estates Project Force (EPF). The Sea Org members worked as much as they could with very little sleep, [redacted]

After they saw he was capable, [redacted] was promoted to be the [redacted] for all the Los Angeles Scientology churches. [redacted] at various Scientology properties in Los Angeles. [redacted] and did not think he was qualified. They were working on construction and were getting 3 hours sleep for every 30 hours worked. They would get sleep in one-hour increments. There was one pillow in an office, and the workers would take turns sleeping in that office. Even though he was not getting the promised Scientology courses, and he was only paid $2/week, not the $60-80/week he was promised, he was motivated because he was [redacted] and saw it as a challenge. Toward the end of [redacted] was promoted to go [redacted] At the time that meant to go to an unknown location [redacted] for Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard (LRH). He was taken [redacted] LRH's personal home. Also during that time, [redacted] was being prepared to go work on a new property that needed to be fixed up. That property later became known as "International Base" (Int Base). When Scientology purchased the property, it had previously been a golf resort community with various buildings on the property including hotel rooms, a gymnasium, a dining hall and country club. [redacted] began working on fixing up the buildings on Int Base. He and the other workers were given a "shore story", a falsified story they were to tell to outsiders, to prevent the community from finding out the property belonged to Scientology. The workers spent significant time being "drilled" on their "shore story."

In [redacted] practically overnight, Golden Era Productions moved to Int Base. After [redacted] for all those years, they told [redacted] he was now going to work [redacted] for Golden Era. They hired private investigators who were former police officers to give them basic training on how to handle various security scenarios. They kept guns in the security office, including shotguns and handguns, but they did not carry the guns on Int Base. At this point in his Sea Org career, [redacted] had still not taken many Scientology courses, but still hoped that he would one day develop the super-human powers he believed that could be achieved through studies. And, despite his long hours and low pay, he was married and had made many friends on Int Base. At the time, if you wanted to leave Sea Org, you could "route out" (leave with permission) without fear of being disconnected from your family. Back then you could route out and they would not disconnect you. Starting in 1983, disconnection became policy on Int Base. LRH was not on Int Base and his primary medium for all communications was his right-hand man, [redacted].

Those members on the RPF were not happy about being brought to the U.S., because they were taken away from their families. Moreover, everyone on the RPF was supposed to receive five hours of counseling per day, but nobody was getting counseling. "It was complete slave labor." From [redacted] was on the RPF in Clearwater. Morale was low at the RPF. At the RPF's you were not permitted to see your friends, you could not have books or listen to music, nor could you see your spouse. Mentally it was very difficult. More recently it was the case that it was taking Sea Org members anywhere from seven to thirteen years to graduate from the RPF. The RPF workers were doing various labor projects and living at the Hacienda. He could have walked out, but he did not want to get declared a suppressive person and be disconnected from his family and friends. [redacted] of the RPF. He was trying to make it work and he wanted to graduate, but people were having a hard time graduating from the RPF due to new rules implemented by [redacted] that resulted in difficulty achieving the results required on the e-meter in the very final assessment. At the time, there were approximately 70 people on the RPF in Clearwater. Approximately six per year would graduate. b6 b7C b7D

The building was inside a compound with security cameras and someone watching the cameras in real time. [redacted] stated that if he had been able to somehow get away from those people, they would have performed a blow drill and he would have been hunted down and brought back. After [redacted] of security checking and no liberties, [redacted] He told his security checker during a videotaped session, [redacted] The next day by noon, [redacted] were released but not in the presence of each b6 b7C b7D

The man ended up "blowing" (leaving without permission) in order to get a job so that he could pay for the surgery he needed. b6 b7C b7D

In Clearwater, all foreign Sea Org members' passports were kept by the Hubbard Communiations Office, Division 1, which was located in the Coachmen Buildling on Cleveland and Ft. Harrison Streets on the ground level. The HCO office had locked filing cabinets where the passports were kept. According to [redacted] approximately 75% of the staff in Clearwater was foreign. b6 b7C b7D

Anyone placed in an RPF would have his/her identification documents including passports and driver's licenses taken by security and locked up. Any money would also be taken, as the intention was to ensure the RPF workers did not have any items that could assist them in successfully escaping. They would tell the RPF workers they did not need their money on the RPF, so they would secure it for them. Their passports were kept with the Master of Arms of the RPF in Building O at the Hacienda Gardens in Clearwater.

[redacted] knows of a couple who live in Clearwater who intentionally became pregnant so they could be released from Clearwater. After a period fo time, Sea Org sent some auditors to the couples' house so they could route out "properly". The couple [redacted] was told the auditor started crying during the auditing session and begged the couple to help him leave Sea Org. The auditor stated he wanted to leave but they had his passport. b6 b7C b7D punishments. [redacted] was one of those punishments. By that time the RPF had become less of a means for a Sea Org member to rehabilitate and more of an opportunity for the organization to get free labor. Whereas people had previously been getting off the RPF in a year's time, in the late 1980's and in the 1990's, it was common for Sea Org members to be on the RPF for years. It was a place for civilians off the street to come and take courses and receive Scientology services. It also had a hotel and restaurants. While she was doing the [redacted] she had a "realization" during her auditing that she was "rationalizing insanities." That realization caused her to snap out of the "brainwashing" she had endured for so many years and she realized she did not agree with was happening at the hands of [redacted] on Int Base. [redacted] felt like she could trust [redacted] and one day in the sauna she told [redacted] She knew speaking candidly with him could get her into significant trouble. [redacted]

[redacted] was assigned to the RPF in Clearwater, Florida in [redacted] She was sent there after [redacted] When she got to Clearwater it was like a vacation compared to being on Int Base. [redacted] started feeling guilty about wanting to leave when she was on Int Base and decided to give it another try. [redacted] While she was in the RPF she found out that [redacted] was getting off-loaded

[redacted] She had the choice to leave with him, but it was not really a choice. It would have been a disgrace. She did not know any other life. She could not talk to him candidly because spouses could not discuss freely with each other. And, if they did, they would have to write "knowledge reports" on each other.

The typical schedule on the RPF in Clearwater involved a 7 a.m. wake-up call. Members would go to breakfast, muster, and then hit the decks with manual labor. [redacted] held a high position on the RPF and was the [redacted] on the RPF. Each member was to receive five hours of studies, 30 minutes of hygiene time, and 20 minute meals. Lights out at 11 p.m. Members were to receive seven hours sleep because a long-established LRH policy required that amount of sleep for people who were in-session, meaning being audited. The RPF was a correction program, and the idea was that the member was supposed to be getting "fixed." Except sometimes members might not study for weeks or even years if there was a work project that needed to be completed. RPF members had to run everywhere because they were under penalty. If they did not meet certain goals, they would have to do "rocks and shoals" which could be push-ups, sit-ups, or running around the building, for example. b6 b7C b7D

On the RPF, members' communications with the outside world were even more limited. Early in the 1980's members could see their spouses once a week for one hour. Later a declaration canceled the spousal visitation policy. All letters were opened and read. Security would decide whether to forward the letters. One time [redacted] wrote her a letter and a guard pulled her in and said, [redacted] The church was fearful outgoing communications might create bad PR for the church. They encouraged you to write "good roads, fair weather" letters so their families had the impression that all was well. If someone needed to reach [redacted] while she was on the RPF in Clearwater, they would call the Fort Harrison Hotel reception desk. It would typically take two weeks to get the message down the line to her. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was doing [redacted] ten hours per day in Clearwater. In her confessionals she talked about how [redacted] was beating people up. [redacted] decided to declare her a suppressive person. She was scared, she did not want to be declared. [redacted] but b6 b7C b7D that was just a made up excuse. [redacted] once again decided that she wanted out of Sea Org.

They both had full-time security guards assigned to them. The guards slept with them. For two months they were in video-taped confessionals that were never-ending. One day [redacted] did not know what happened [redacted] and vise versa. [redacted]

After [redacted] was declared suppressive, someone from the church went to [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Sea Org members had various uniforms, similar to how military officers would dress. They had their "Class A" uniforms, which were their "full dress uniforms" bearing their stripes and rankings. The Class B uniforms were blue shirts, navy blue pants, name tags and stripes on the shoulders. The "Uniform K" was the uniform they wore when they were in public associating with civilians.

In [redacted] on Int Base, [redacted] never saw an ObGyn. Some women did if they had "problems." But those women were also viewed as "potential trouble sources" (PTS). [redacted] was one of those women. LRH had written that if a Scientologist was PTS, it meant that person was associated or connected to a suppressive person. If you were PTS, you would have to receive additional auditing and counseling. If [redacted] had any aches, she would get a "touch assist." This was where someone would touch you in the problem area and it was supposed to heal you. She never saw a doctor in [redacted] She saw a [redacted] in Florida on the RPF. b6 b7C b7D

There were people on Int Base that got cancer and were shipped to Mexico for treatment. Some of them died, including [redacted] and First Name Unknown (FNU) [redacted] was in his [redacted] He had not been diagnosed until it was too late. He said he had been feeling sick and that he was going to die, and shortly thereafter he did. [redacted] had cancer. She was sent to Mexico, received treatment and came back after she overcame the illness. b6 b7C b7D

If someone were to get the flu or some other short-term illness, they would go into isolation so there would not be an epidemic. Any sickness would result in you being labeled PTS. Even if you got your finger cut off you would be labeled PTS. Instead of viewing that situation as one where the Sea Org member was sleep-deprived and had an accident, it would be viewed as the member having some other problem that required auditing to get to the source and dealt with appropriately. The church had a lot of technology that addressed how to handle PTS.

Sometimes if a Sea Org member became seriously ill, the church would release the member to their families who would then be responsible for caring for the person and being stuck with their medical bills. That happened to [redacted] who developed cancer. She was sent to her family who had not seen her in years. When she died the church did not even offer to hold a service for her. [redacted] was also shipped off to his family after he developed MS. b6 b7C b7D

A woman named [redacted] went into an [redacted] on Int Base and [redacted]. The "shore story" (the story told to the public) was that [redacted] did not know what the true story was. She thought [redacted] might know what happened. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] said only Sea Org members high up in the organization would get eye glasses if they were needed. Some dental work was available for Sea Org members who had problems, but regular dental checkups were not given.

Sea Org members could not talk freely, not even to their spouses. If a member complained about being tired or the conditions on Int Base, that was considered "natter." Natterers were perceived to have issues that needed to be "corrected." Sea Org members were obligated to write up anyone who complained so they could be "corrected." The correction would involve determining what External Influence (EI) was causing the member to complain. Many times, family off Int Base would be blamed as the distraction/EI. As such, Sea Org members were not permitted to communicate freely with their family members and friends off of Int base. All written and telephonic communications were monitored. Sea Org members were told what and when to write to their families, aka the "shore story."

Sometimes, [redacted] would go to great lengths to see a Sea Org member not receive External Influences from family members. [redacted] was a Sea Org member who butted heads with [redacted] and ultimately escaped ("blew") from Int Base. [redacted] was still on Int Base. [redacted] tried desperately to reach [redacted] to no avail. He even tried to get authorities involved. [redacted] told [redacted] to put [redacted] name on a list of Sea Org members who were to be moved off Int Base because [redacted] b6 b7C b7D was an enemy of the church. [redacted] sent to Happy Valley. There [redacted] worked closely with [redacted] who was in charge of the crops and estate at Happy Valley. [redacted] was sent to go work as [redacted] Later, [redacted] changed his last name to [redacted] did not know if [redacted] ordered that change. Meanwhile, [redacted] continued "acting up on the outside," and [redacted] As far as [redacted] knows, he is still living in [redacted] and goes by the name of [redacted] so that he could not be found. [redacted] said [redacted] would have more information regarding that situation.

b7D

At a certain point [redacted] started dictating who could be married to who. He would not allow Sea Org members to marry if they did not work for the same organization. He put out "dispatches" with such rules. Sea Org members were being forced to divorce or otherwise face being off-loaded.

b6
b7D

Sea Org members were also forced to confess things that were not true. [redacted] was put on the e-meter for hours after [redacted] was insistent that [redacted]. [redacted] advances toward her in the past. [redacted] put out a dispatch that said [redacted] finally stated that [redacted] even though it was not true. Next she was forced to confess any [redacted] She confessed an [redacted] That confession went to [redacted] and [redacted] spread the rumor around Int Base. He told [redacted]

Early on at Int base they would celebrate birthdays and go out for dinner once a month. They had fun and they felt privileged to be Sea Org members. They would get bonuses if they did well. The hardships they experienced were forgiveable, such as the sleep deprivation and the separation from their families. [redacted] had been primarily [redacted] in the early [redacted] Once [redacted] showed up at Int Base permanently, various rules were implemented that limited Sea Org members' freedoms and liberties. First he ordered all Sea Org members to get rid of all "distractions" including radios, walkmans, photographs and plants in the work space. At night you could listen to the radio. But all televisions were thrown away in 1982.

b6
b7D

Next he issued an order that Sea Org members could not have children on Int Base. Later, members were not permitted to have days off or vacation time, whereas previously Sea Org members were given one day off every two weeks. At a certain point [redacted] declared a "state of emergency." [redacted] could not remember why. The result was shortened meal breaks and no leaves of absences. It lasted "forever" and people started getting depressed. People stopped having fun. Next, the whole Int Base was put on a "lower condition" and bonuses got canceled. They were on the "lower condition" for years. There was a list of production items Int Base had to accomplish to come out of the lower condition. They never accomplished the goals because the list was unrealistic, resulting in those restrictions staying in place long-term. People were getting restricted to Int Base and were being separated from their spouses for years for various random reasons.

b6
b7D

Sea Org members on Int Base were not free to leave. If they left without permission, that was called "blowing." There were established procedures in place, "blow drills," to recover Sea Org members who attempted to blow. [redacted] speculated that she witnessed at least 75 blow drills. Sometimes the people were brought back, sometimes they were not. But no matter what, the church always tried to get them back. Seeing blown members return over and over again, it became understood that you could not easily walk away from Int Base. People who blew would be told they were cinders smoldering Scientology if they left and they would burn in hell.

b7D

In order to leave Int Base for personal reasons you would have to prepare a Completed Staff Work order (CSW). In approximately [redacted] She prepared her CSW to [redacted] but it was denied. [redacted]

[redacted] still has letters from her family when she was in Sea Org. [redacted] with Sea Org, [redacted] visits home in [redacted] and [redacted] for a few days, once in [redacted] when [redacted] for work, and once in [redacted] for an hour [redacted] was in Los Angeles.

In [redacted] issued a directive, at the order of [redacted] that Sea Org members could no longer have children on Int Base. Being family-oriented was too much of a distraction and caused Sea Org members to be "off purpose." Any children that were too young to work on Int Base were relocated to Clearwater. Birth control was made available to the women, but they would have to pay for it. Any women who became pregnant after that were either required to have an abortion or they would be "off-loaded" to a Class Five (V) organization. That result was not desireable for most Sea Org members, as it was viewed as an embarrassment and a disappointment to be kicked out of Sea Org. If you chose to be demoted to a Class V organization you were said to have "other fish to fry." Moreover, those members would have to become self-sufficient, and pay for their own food and housing.

[redacted] knew of at least four women who had abortions on Int Base. [redacted] and [redacted] (phonetic) [redacted] The medical officer would take them to get the abortions. [redacted] paid for [redacted] She knew of a few women who became pregnant and chose to be off-loaded, including [redacted]

Sometimes Sea Org members would be sent to the Old Gilman House (OGH) which was on Int Base, but separated from the rest of the camp. Members would be sent to OGH if they were "out of ethics." One time, [redacted] was sent to OGH where he lived in a bamboo cage that he built with his own hands. He was not allowed to cut his hair or shave. [redacted] witnessed [redacted] living in the cage he built for himself when she was "on the decks" for two months in [redacted] People at OGH were doing hard labor. When [redacted] was at OGH in [redacted] she was digging trenches and moving rocks.

In [redacted] witnessed the first physical abuse. [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] were in the conference room at the Religious Technology Center (RTC) on Int Base. [redacted] was called into the conference room along with [redacted] was "pissed off" at [redacted] and "lost it." He started hitting him on his head with both hands, open handed, hitting him on the head. [redacted] had heard [redacted] had been auditing [redacted] was not happy with [redacted] performance. [redacted] thought [redacted] would know why [redacted] was in trouble that day in [redacted] because she was ultimately responsible for [redacted] auditing as a result of [redacted] "screw-up." When [redacted] witnessed [redacted] beating [redacted] she was thinking, [redacted]" [redacted] was saying, "That's it, I'm not going to take this anymore." He pulled out his wallet, pulled out some dollar bills and threw them at [redacted] He told [redacted] and the others to take [redacted] and "handle him." They took him down to a separate conference room and asked him what was going on. [redacted] would not say. [redacted] was the last person to audit LRH. [redacted] [redacted] sent him to the RPF. From that moment on, [redacted] abusiveness escalated. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] witnessed [redacted] beat people approximately eight times, maybe more. It was "vicious." Everyone was scared, as his temperament was unpredictable. It started feeling like injustice when [redacted] began using what Sea Org members confessed during auditing and making jokes about the confessions publicly on Int Base. Further, [redacted] penalties were being inflicted on members for seemingly no justifiable reason. Life on Int Base became unnerving because for no explainable reason people were being sent to the RPF to be made an example. [redacted] was constantly telling the Sea Org members that they were failures and people were suffering emotional trauma, regularly breaking down because they were doing their best but were still being punished. Furthermore, some of the penalties inflicted on members were disgusting and unsafe from a health perspective. [redacted] had a thick skin and did not live in fear of [redacted] She had been through a lot and felt that she could handle anything. [redacted] described [redacted] as "totally genius and totally insane." b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was not the [redacted] at Int Base that [redacted] witnessed inflict physical abuse. She saw [redacted] and [redacted] fighting each other. She saw [redacted] She saw [redacted] She told [redacted] [redacted] would tell the executives to hit each other. He told [redacted] to hit [redacted] onetime. She hit [redacted] Nobody could disobey [redacted] He was the highest authority at the Church of Scientology and was a powerful and explosive personality. Sea Org members viewed their lives as being in the palm of his hand. [redacted] abused that power. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] did not leave sooner because of her belief in the religion of Scientology. She believed in its technology. She believed she was a spiritual being and that her spirit would live forever. She was willing to experience temporary trauma because she was looking forward to eternity. She also believed she was helping other people attain similar spiritual destinies. When she decided she wanted to leave, she wanted to route out because she did not want to be disconnected from her family, who were all Scientologists. After she was kicked out of Sea Org, she was sent a partial-freeloader bill for [redacted] When [redacted] was released from Sea Org she had [redacted] to her name.

As a result of [redacted] speaking candidly with the St. Petersburg Times reporters, the Church of Scientology has lashed out and called her [redacted] in the Freedom Magazine (a Scientology response to the St. Petersburg Times report). [redacted] on Int Base because those quarters were for RTC staff.

After the year [redacted] was spent on Int Base. [redacted] He worked [redacted] but he was regularly in and out of [redacted] good graces. [redacted] was generally in good favor with [redacted] Even if [redacted] was on [redacted] bad side, [redacted] always used him to [redacted] or [redacted] As for the ranking of high executives within Sea Org, the hierarchy was as follows: [redacted] were also top executives.

[redacted] witnessed countless beatings and other physical abuse by [redacted] He saw [redacted] hit [redacted] more than 40 times, and hit [redacted] more than fifty times. [redacted] also punched and hit [redacted] at least 50 times. Usually [redacted] would use an open hand and slap his subjects in the face or on the back of the head. Sometimes he would pull the chair out from underneath people or put them in a headlock. [redacted] saw [redacted] beating [redacted] said that [redacted] might be out of Sea Org now and would have helpful information if he could be found.

As a result of the beatings by [redacted] executives and their staff were submissive. Nobody dared fight back. By the time [redacted] beatings became a part of normal life on Int Base. Staffers were so intent on achieving their "higher purpose" that they were willing to put up with the abuse. b6 b7C b7D

Sometimes [redacted] would tell his executives to hit each other. One time [redacted] told [redacted] speculated that some Sea Org members were probably willing to kill for [redacted] One time [redacted] told a [redacted] (phonetic) to run [redacted] They were at Golden Era studios on Int Base. [redacted] said to [redacted] thought [redacted] may have witnessed that incident as well. b6 b7C b7D

By [redacted] many of the executives were in trouble with [redacted] His biggest complaint was the organizational chart and his desire that it be restructured. At first he sent a few top executives to the CMO Int building to sort the org board out. The CMO Int building was two double-wide trailers pieced together. It was a fairly large space. One by one, executives from all over Int Base were getting sent to the building, which ultimately became called "the Hole." By [redacted] there were 80-100 executives living and working in the Hole. [redacted] would come into the Hole and address them on a regular basis. He would yell at them and say that they were not leaving until they met certain goals that were always unattainable. No matter how many times the executives tried to do what [redacted] asked of them, it was never right. [redacted] constantly accused them of being suppressive and encouraged them to be physically abusive with each other. [redacted] recalled [redacted] being physically abusive with [redacted] in the Hole. [redacted] The day after that incident, [redacted] While [redacted] noticed that [redacted] had disappeared, he assumed [redacted] had been pulled out of the Hole to handle business for [redacted] It was not until much later that [redacted] learned [redacted] had "blown" (left without permission). b6 b7C

[redacted] ordered that nobody was allowed out of the Hole until they could come to a conclusion and demonstrate why they were suppressive people. At first [redacted] were in the Hole with [redacted] Nobody would say anything that could be used against them as a "critical comment" by the others. No one could be trusted. They sat around all day and wrote up their "overts and withholds," which were confessions of everything they had been doing and thinking. Various punishments would result if someone was believed to be uncooperative and not "coming clean" as viewed by the collective group. For instance, they would make people get on their hands and knees and crawl around the conference room table on the indoor/outdoor carpet for a few days in a row until their knees were bloody. Some people had to stand in the middle of the room with signs around their necks that said things like "I'm an SP" or "Im a whore." b6 b7C b7D

There was a guard posted outside the building. They could not leave. Three of the four doors had bars put on them so nobody could escape. More people were being sent into the Hole. It depended on the day whether they slept in the room or whether they were taken somewhere else.

[redacted] was using the Hole as a threat to all the other workers. Nobody wanted to go to the Hole. There were no cell phones. There were computers, but they were not connected to the internet. There was no ability to communicate with the outside world. They could not receive or send mail. b6 b7C b7D

When they were sleeping in the Hole, they slept on the floor in sleeping bags. Food was brought in three times per day. Everyone in the Hole was considered an SP. They were not being audited. Nobody was in charge. [redacted] could not stand to be present with them. Sometimes he would show up outside and send someone in to get [redacted] report on what was going on inside. People were being beaten if they were perceived not to be cooperative or not confessing adequately. He never saw women beaten. b6 b7C b7D

In the Hole some people were being tortured. [redacted] put [redacted] in a separate room in the Hole, turned the air conditioning full-blast and poured water over him. [redacted] sat there until he could no longer talk. He turned blue and was shaking so badly that he could not get any words out. Recently the COS submitted an affidavit of [redacted] in which [redacted] claimed b6 b7C that incident never happened. [redacted] also saw [redacted] perform a similar punishment on a different man in the Hole using a fly swatter to repeatedly hit the man in the face. [redacted] could not recall the name of the person who was being tortured in that instance. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] also described an incident in the Hole involving [redacted] made a comment that [redacted] The group turned on him and started shoving him. [redacted] grabbed him [redacted] told him that if he ever "blew" he would [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that [redacted] could corroborate what happened in the Hole. She went into the Hole after [redacted] left Int Base in [redacted] approximately [redacted] Nobody in Scientology knows that she left. [redacted] exchange for agreeing never to talk to anyone about Sea Org. [redacted] viewed that answer as disrespectful because it suggested he wanted to leave Sea Org. [redacted]"

Later that day, [redacted] called [redacted] on his cell phone. She said that she was in town and she wanted to get together. He recorded the conversation. [redacted] told the men that the Church did not want to be at war with them. The meeting was requested by [redacted] after she learned that [redacted] and others had been talking to the St. Petersburg Times. [redacted] did not know how she found out that he was talking to the Times. [redacted] that she had heard some disturbing news, referring to rumors that he had been talking to the Times. [redacted] confirmed that it was true. [redacted] told him that if he wanted to deal with problems related to the Church, that he needed to deal with the problems from the inside and not through the media. [redacted] believed that the obvious reason for her visit was [redacted] after he told her that he was recording their conversation. [redacted] did not have any further contact with [redacted] after that meeting. Later, [redacted] and copied [redacted] on the correspondence.

[redacted] stated that he told [redacted] that people were being beaten on Int Base. He said that she seemed sympathetic. [redacted] said that once [redacted] was [redacted] saying: [redacted]

[redacted] discussed security at Int Base. [redacted] and [redacted] that everyone on the security force operated within legal guidelines. The security force had a dual purpose: to keep civilians out and to keep Sea Org members in. While no Sea Org member believed that they could simply leave by walking out the front gates, the security force was specifically instructed not to physically restrain a Sea Org member who was attempting to blow. That would have been illegal.

Blow drills were conducted when Sea Org members left Int Base without permission. [redacted] would be notified immediately and everyone on OSA would divide up responsibility for tracking down and bringing back the blown member. [redacted] was responsible for flying to Denver to recover a man who had blown named [redacted] on Int Base. [redacted] went to [redacted] knocked on the door and said he was there to take [redacted] returned to Int Base with [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Incoming and outgoing written communications were always screened with regard to Sea Org members who were perceived as "problems." And with regard to other Sea Org members' communications, they too were also subject to screening. Sea Org members would sign waivers agreeing that their communications could be screened. [redacted] did not know whether bank account and credit card information was copied when it passed through the mail on Int Base. He thought [redacted] might know. b6 b7C

Most Sea Org members on Int Base had to go to the Hubbard Communications Office (HCO) to make a request to place a telephone call. Once the request was granted, the call would be monitored in real time. Many people on Int Base had Nextels that they used as walkie-talkies, but they did not have the ability to call external numbers.

While [redacted] kept his own passport, the majority of Sea Org members' passports were kept by the "port captain." The passports were kept in a locked filing cabinet in the "passport files" in the port captain's office. The CMO passports were kept by the CMO port captain. The Golden Era Production passports were kept in Building 36 by the Gold port captain. Passports were also held by the port captain on the Freewinds. b6 b7C b7D

Personnel folders and ethics folders were kept by HCO. For Golden Era Productions, those files were kept on the ground floor of Building 36. For CMO, those files were maintained in the CMO Int building. Auditing results would go into pre-clear folders. Sea Org members' pre-clear folders were kept in the Hubbard Guidance Center (HGC) where the auditing took place. Every Sea Org member filled out a life history form. It listed every detail of the member's family and employment history, including personal identification information that would assist the Church in tracking down a blown Sea Org member.

[redacted] discussed a time where [redacted] removed him from the Hole to [redacted] on a Sea Org member named [redacted] was being overt about having disagreements with [redacted] and the Church and she had significant knowledge of the Church's [redacted] He [redacted] Both actions suggested that the couple was preparing to leave Sea Org. In addition to the physical abuse [redacted] described that took place in the Hole, [redacted] also discussed other punishments that were inflicted on him and others on Int Base. In approximately [redacted] cleaning the bilges on the Freewinds. The bilge is the bottom most tank on a ship where the excess oil and scum gathered. It was dark and small and claustrophobic. Lower level Sea Org members were also mentally and sometimes physically abused, as the abuse trickled down from the top. [redacted] created a culture of physical and verbal abuse.

b6 b7C

[redacted] was a highly trusted Sea Org member who worked as [redacted] escaped from Sea Org and wanted [redacted] to leave too. In an effort to persuade [redacted] not to leave, [redacted] was assigned a full-time "handler" who was by her side 24 hours/day. The handler's name was [redacted] LNU. [redacted] lived with [redacted] in a [redacted] on the property. [redacted] was trying to route out of Sea Org. [redacted] who had written a letter to try and

Defectors Say Church of Scientology Hides Abuse

By LAURIE GOODSTEIN

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Raised as Scientologists, Christie King Collbran and her husband, Chris, were recruited as teenagers to work for the elite corps of staff members who keep the Church of Scientology running, known as the Sea Organization, or Sea Org.

They signed a contract for a billion years — in keeping with the church's belief that Scientologists are immortal. They worked seven days a week, often on little sleep, for sporadic paychecks of $50 a week, at most.

But after 13 years and growing disillusionment, the Collbrans decided to leave the Sea Org, setting off on a Kafkaesque journey that they said required them to sign false confessions about their personal lives and their work, pay the church thousands of dollars it said they owed for courses and counseling, and accept the consequences as their parents, siblings and friends who are church members cut off all communication with them.

"Why did we work so hard for this organization," Ms. Collbran said, "and why did it feel so wrong in the end? We just didn't understand."

They soon discovered others who felt the same. Searching for Web sites about Scientology that are not sponsored by the church (an activity prohibited when they were in the Sea Org), they discovered that hundreds of other Scientologists were also defecting — including high-ranking executives who had served for decades.

Fifty-six years after its founding by the science fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard, who died in 1986, the church is fighting off calls by former members for a Reformation. The defectors say Sea Org members were repeatedly beaten by the church's chairman, David Miscavige, often during planning meetings; pressured to have abortions; forced to work without sleep on little pay; and held incommunicado if they wanted to leave. The church says the defectors are lying.

The defectors say that the average Scientology member, known in the church as a public, is largely unaware of the abusive environment experienced by staff members. The church works hard to cultivate public members — especially celebrities like Tom Cruise, John Travolta and Nancy Cartwright (the voice of the cartoon scoundrel Bart Simpson) — whose money keeps it running.

But recently even some celebrities have begun to abandon the church, the most prominent of whom is the director and screenwriter Paul Haggis, who won Oscars for "Million Dollar Baby" and "Crash." Mr. Haggis had been a member for 35 years. His resignation letter, leaked to a defectors' Web site, recounted his indignation as he came to believe that the defectors' accusations must be true.

"These were not the claims made by 'outsiders' looking to dig up dirt against us," Mr. Haggis wrote. "These accusations were made by top international executives who had devoted most of their lives to the church."

The church has responded to the bad publicity by denying the accusations and calling attention to a worldwide building campaign that showcases its wealth and industriousness. Last year, it built or renovated opulent Scientology churches, which it calls Ideal Orgs, in Rome; Malmo, Sweden; Dallas; Nashville; and Washington. And at its base here on the Gulf Coast of Florida, it continued buying hotels and office buildings (54 in all) and constructing a 380,000-square-foot mecca that looks like a convention center.

"This is a representation of our success," said the church's spokesman, Tommy Davis, showing off the building's cavernous atrium, still to be clad in Italian marble, at the climax of a daylong tour of the church's Clearwater empire. "This is a result of our expansion. It's pinch-yourself material."

As for the defectors, Mr. Davis called them "apostates" and said that contrary to their claims of having left the church in protest, they were expelled.

"And since they're removed, the church is expanding like never before," said Mr. Davis, a second-generation Scientologist whose mother is the actress Anne Archer. "And what we see here is evidence of the fact that we're definitely better off without them."

'Bridge to Total Freedom'

Scientology is an esoteric religion in which the faith is revealed gradually to those who invest their time and money to master Mr. Hubbard's teachings. Scientologists believe that human beings are impeded by negative memories from past lives, and that by applying Mr. Hubbard's "technology," they can reach a state known as clear.

They may spend hundreds of hours in one-on-one "auditing" sessions, holding the slim silver-colored handles of an e-meter while an auditor asks them questions and takes notes on what they say and on the e-meter's readings.

By doing enough auditing, taking courses and studying Mr. Hubbard's books and lectures — for which some Scientologists say they have paid as much as $1 million — Scientologists believe that they can proceed up the "bridge to total freedom" and live to their full abilities as Operating Thetans, pure spirits. They do believe in God, or a Supreme Being that is associated with infinite potential.

Ms. Collbran, who is 33, said she loved the church so much that she never thought she would leave. Her parents were dedicated church members in Los Angeles, and she attended full-time Scientology schools for several years. When she was 8 or 9, she took the basic communications course, which teaches techniques for persuasive public speaking and improving self-confidence and has served as a major recruiting tool.

By 10, Ms. Collbran had completed the Purification Rundown, a regimen that involves taking vitamins and sitting in a sauna (a fixture inside every Scientology church) for as much as five hours a day, for weeks at a time, to cleanse the body of toxins.

By 16, she was recruited into the Sea Org, so named because it once operated from ships, wearing a Navy-like uniform with epaulets on the shoulders for work. She fully believed in the mission: to "clear the planet" of negative influences by bringing Scientology to its inhabitants. Her mindset then, Ms. Collbran said, was: "This planet needs our help, and people are suffering. And we have the answers."

Christie and Chris Collbran were married in a simple ceremony at the Scientology center in Manhattan. Although she and her parents were very close, she said they had spent so much to advance up the bridge that they could not afford to attend the wedding.

It was in Johannesburg, where the couple had gone to supervise the building of a new Scientology organization, that Mr. Collbran, who is 29, began to have doubts. He had spent months at church headquarters in Clearwater revising the design for the Johannesburg site to meet Mr. Miscavige's demands.

Mr. Collbran said he saw an officer hit a subordinate, and soon found that the atmosphere of supervision through intimidation was affecting him. He acknowledges that he pushed a 17-year-old staff member against a wall and yelled at his wife, who was his deputy.

In Johannesburg, officials made the church look busy for publicity photographs by filling it with Sea Org members, the Collbrans said. To make their numbers look good for headquarters, South African parishioners took their maids and gardeners to church.

But the Ideal Orgs are supposed to be self-supporting, and the Johannesburg church was generating only enough to pay each of the Collbrans $17 a week, Mr. Collbran said.

"It was all built on lies," Mr. Collbran said. "We're working 16 hours a day trying to save the planet, and the church is shrinking."

'It's Everything You Know'

The church is vague about its membership numbers. In 11 hours with a reporter over two days, Mr. Davis, the church's spokesman, gave the numbers of Sea Org members (8,000), of Scientologists in the Tampa-Clearwater area (12,000) and of L. Ron Hubbard's books printed in the last two and a half years (67 million). But asked about the church's membership, Mr. Davis said, "I couldn't tell you an exact figure, but it's certainly, it's most definitely in the millions in the U.S. and millions abroad."

He said he did not know how to account for the findings in the American Religious Identification Survey that the number of Scientologists in the United States fell from 55,000 in 2001 to 25,000 in 2008.

Marty Rathbun, who was once Mr. Miscavige's top lieutenant, is now one of the church's top detractors. The churches used to be busy places where members socialized and invited curious visitors to give Scientology a try, he said, but now the church is installing touch-screen displays so it can introduce visitors to Scientology with little need for Scientologists on site.

"That's the difference between the old Scientology and the new: the brave new Scientology is all these beautiful buildings and real estate and no people," said Mr. Rathbun, who is among several former top executives quoted by The St. Petersburg Times in a series of articles last year about the church's reported mistreatment of staff members.

When Mr. Collbran decided he wanted to leave the Sea Org, he was sent to Los Angeles, where potential defectors are assigned to do menial labor while they reconsider their decision. Ms. Collbran remained in Johannesburg, and for three months the church refused to allow them to contact each other, the Collbrans said.

Letters they wrote to each other were intercepted, they said. Finally, Ms. Collbran was permitted to go to Los Angeles, but husband and wife were kept separated for another three months, the Collbrans said, while they went through hours of special auditing sessions called "confessionals." The auditors tried to talk them out of leaving, and the Collbrans wavered.

They could not just up and go. For one, they said, the church had taken their passports. But even more important, they knew that if they left the Sea Org without going through the church's official exit process, they would be declared "suppressive persons" — antisocial enemies of Scientology. They would lose the possibility of living for eternity. Their parents, siblings and friends who are Scientologists would have to disconnect completely from them, or risk being declared suppressive themselves.

"You're in fear," Mr. Collbran said. "You're so into it, it's everything you know: your family, your eternity."

Mike Rinder, who for more than 20 years was the church's spokesman, said the disconnect policy originated in Mr. Hubbard's prescription for how to deal with an abusive spouse or boss.

Now, "disconnection has become a way of controlling people," said Mr. Rinder, who says his mother, sister, brother, daughter and son disconnected from him after he left the church. "It is very, very prevalent."

Mr. Davis, the church's current spokesman, said Scientologists are no different from Mormons, Catholics, Jehovah's Witnesses and Amish who practice shunning or excommunication.

"These are common religious tenets," he said. "The very survival of a religion is contingent on its protecting itself."

The Collbrans went back to work for the church in Los Angeles, but Ms. Collbran found the atmosphere so oppressive, the staff members so miserable, that she likened it to living under "martial law" and again resolved to leave.

So she intentionally conceived a child. She knew that the Sea Org did not allow its members to have children, and she had known women who were removed when they refused to have abortions. She waited until her pregnancy had almost reached the end of the first trimester to inform her superiors. It still took two months before the church let the Collbrans go, in 2006, and not before making them sign affidavits.

"All of the auditing that you do, there's files kept on it," Ms. Collbran said. "All of the personal things you ever said, all the secrets, the transgressions, are all kept in there. They went through that file, wrote this affidavit as if I wrote it — and I never wrote this affidavit, the church wrote it — and made me sign it."

They were also handed what the church calls a "freeloader bill" for services rendered, of $90,000, which they later negotiated down to $10,000 for Ms. Collbran's portion and paid. They now had a child and no money, but they thought they were still in good standing with their church.

Mr. Davis, the church spokesman, said the Collbrans' exit was not unusual. The Sea Org is a religious order that requires enormous dedication, he said, and leaving any religious order can be a lengthy process. He said the church does require departing staff members to pay freeloader bills and to sign affidavits drawn up by church officials, but he contends that the affidavits never contain confidential information drawn from auditing sessions.

"We have never violated that trust," Mr. Davis said. "We never have. We never will." The church in Johannesburg is thriving now that the Collbrans have left, Mr. Davis said.

'Suppressive Persons'

In 2008, organizers with the Internet-based group Anonymous began waves of protests outside Scientology churches in many countries. Anonymous said it was protesting the Church of Scientology's attempts to censor Internet posts of material the church considered proprietary — including a video of Tom Cruise, an ardent Scientologist, that was created for a church event but was leaked and posted on YouTube.

"Since Anonymous has come forward," said Marc Headley, who belonged to the Sea Org for 16 years, "more and more people who have been abused or assaulted are feeling more confident that they can speak out and not have any retaliation happen."

Mr. Headley, who wrote a book about his experiences, is suing the church for back wages, saying that over 15 years his salary averaged out to 39 cents an hour. His wife, who said the church coerced her into having two abortions, has also filed a suit. The couple now have two small children.

The church acknowledges that Sea Org members are not allowed to have babies, but denies that it pressures people into having abortions. On the pay issue, it says that Sea Org members expect to sacrifice their material well-being to devote their lives to the church.

Scientology parishioners interviewed in Clearwater seemed unperturbed by the protests, headlines and lawsuits.

Joanie Sigal is a 36-year parishioner in Clearwater who promotes the church's antidrug campaign to local officials. She said the defectors' stories were like what you would hear "if I asked your ex-husband what he thought of you."

"It's so not news," she said. "It's a big yawn, actually."

The Collbrans, despite their efforts to remain in good standing in the church, were declared suppressive persons last year. The church discovered that Mr. Collbran had traveled to Texas to talk with Mr. Rathbun, the defector who runs a Web site that has become an online community for what he calls "independent Scientologists."

The church immediately sent emissaries to Ms. Collbran's parents' house in Los Angeles to inform them that their daughter was "suppressive," Ms. Collbran said. They have refused to speak to her ever since. Recently, Ms. Collbran received an e-mail message from her mother calling her a "snake in the grass."

Ms. Collbran says she still believes in Scientology — not in the church as it is now constituted, but in its teachings. She still gets auditing, from other Scientologists who have defected, like Mr. Rathbun.

Mr. Davis said there is no such thing: "One can't be a Scientologist and not be part of the church."

Mr. Collbran, for his part, wants nothing to do with his former church. "Eventually I realized I was part of a con," he said, "and I have to leave it and get on with my life."

Despite all they have been through together, Ms. and Mr. Collbran are getting a divorce. The reason, they agree sadly, is that they no longer see eye to eye on Scientology.

At the time INT BASE did not have a fence surrounding the property because CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY (the CHURCH) founder L. RON HUBBARD (LRH) did not want the property to be fenced in. However people who were not associated with the CHURCH or SEA ORG began to wander onto the property. LRH had a chain link fence placed around the perimeter of the property when musical equipment was stolen from one of the storage buildings on the property.

Security was originally established to keep outsiders from wandering onto INT BASE. Later, security had the additional purpose of ensuring SEA ORG staff did not leave without permission. Security staff used dirt bikes and hand held radios to patrol the property and communicate with the main security booth.

[redacted] immediately began to receive questions from staff at the RELIGIOUS TECHNOLOGY CENTER (RTC) asking how staff could leave the property with the current security measures in place. Eventually underground sensors with microphones were placed along the fencing. In [redacted] the CHURCH purchased "ULTRA BARRIER", a form of stainless steel barbed wire that sits at a forty five degree angle on top of the perimeter fence. The ULTRA BARRIER was originally installed to keep intruders from trespassing on INT BASE, and was installed to replace the old fashioned barbed wire.

In [redacted] was directed by RTC staff members [redacted] to place additional features on the fence to keep people from leaving. At the time, [redacted] believed [redacted] security features were a benefit to those attempting to leave because he was keeping them from ruining their spiritual freedom and doing themselves harm in the "WOG" or non-Scientology world. b6 b7C b7D

A map of the entire INT BASE property was placed in the main security booth with an LED light connected to each zone. If there were a disturbance on the property, the alarm in that zone would go off in the booth. Security would respond to that specific area immediately to identify the situation. A SEA ORG electrician was assigned to add flood lighting to the perimeter. [redacted] Fence shakers were placed on the fence as well as infrared sensors. The infrared sensors replaced the underground sensors which were routinely damaged by desert animals in the area. When the infrared sensors were triggered a guard on a motorcycle would respond to the area. Video cables were also installed along the fence as a result of local crime in Hemet. A security post referred to as "Eagle Lookout" had a live streaming video surveillance camera and infrared sensors. A camera was placed on the Castle to observe the river bed and Building 36. A camera was placed on the reservoir to see the canyon. b6 b7C b7D

Security consisted of three shifts of five guards, and eight hour shifts. The shifts were later changed to two twelve-hour shifts with three guards on duty for each shift; one guard was the rover, one guard was at the main booth and the other guard was posted at the Eagle Lookout.

Some security guards were trained how to use weapons. [redacted] the guards how to use the weapons on the INT BASE shooting range. [redacted] had the shooting range on INT BASE built. Guns were carried by [redacted] as well as other guards. Guns were usually kept in the basement of the security offices, in Building 36, and also in other locations on the property. The base had [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

There was no formal "deadly force policy." Guards were to use the weapons if necessary. Security was trained in self defense [redacted] One night [redacted] tested security by sending a trespasser over the fence. The trespasser was almost shot by security.

SEA ORG members who owned weapons were required to check them into security. Approximately forty SEA ORG members had personal weapons. All serial numbers were logged in the security booth.

[redacted] stated that the purpose of security on INT BASE was to provide a safe and distraction free environment. Civilians arriving on INT BASE would pass through the main security booth and park in the public lot on the left. Only people who were invited to INT BASE were allowed onto the property. In the past, INT BASE provided public tours of the property on Sundays from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. [redacted] (PHONETIC) [redacted] People were not allowed to roam the property rather they were taken on a set path where SEA ORG members were staged. The tours were eventually shut down because "squirrels," persons opposed to Scientology, were infiltrating the property.

b6
b7D

[redacted] did not recall that the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) ever conducted inspections on INT BASE. [redacted] frequently "wined and dined" the County Health Inspector in an effort to receive early notification of on-site inspections. If an inspection was being conducted on the property, the inspectors would be escorted. Independent contractors who were working on INT BASE were also escorted.

b6
b7D

Gas and electric meters were placed outside of the property gate so that meter readings could be done without having to set foot onto the property. United Parcel Service (UPS) and the United States Postal Service (USPS) had more leeway in regard to their deliveries. UPS and USPS delivered packages to building 36. SYSCO food deliveries came once a week. Because of the size of the truck, SYSCO took a different path to the mess hall. When copiers were serviced, security made sure the hard drives on the copiers were erased frequently.

Security had drills in place for emergency situations, such as if law enforcement showed up with a search warrant. The INTERNATIONAL NETWORK OF COMPUTER OFFICE MAINTENANCE (INCOM), had a dumping procedure in place. The main booth had a security button that would notify the INCOM office if dumping needed to occur. INCOM was located in the "Middle Villa." If the button were depressed, INCOM would verify with security that it was not a drill. Once verified, INCOM would begin erasing and dumping all hard drives located on INT BASE. Security staff were trained by the legal department on how to handle process servers by "playing dumb."

[redacted] the shredding and destruction of documents. Shredded documents were stored in shred booths then eventually taken to get pulped. [redacted] used to review all [redacted] was looking for anything that could be considered to be "out security" or against their security methods, such as giving away Scientology secrets or make any references about the location of the base. LRH did not want people to know about the location of INT BASE. People were forced to sign bonds saying they would not reveal the location of the base. b6 b7C b7D

One of the biggest concerns on INT BASE was "external influences" of family and friends off the base. SEA ORG members were required to use the "fair roads good weather" method when writing home. That meant that they should always speak positively regarding their situation. All SEA ORG members were required to take a "Security Course" when they first arrived on INT BASE. The course instructed them on the guidelines for writing letters and sending or receiving mail. After taking the course members were required to sign a waiver and a bond agreeing to abide by the guidelines. [redacted] initially refused to sign the papers when he first arrived on INT BASE, but he eventually signed. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] claimed to [redacted] "blow drill" for the procedures followed on INT BASE when a SEA ORG member left the base without permission. Staff who "blew" were considered a security breach because they did not "route out." Routing out required going through security checks, auditing and other formal processes. b6 b7C b7D

Generally the blow drill consisted of several steps, including a review of the staffer's personal information such as bank account and credit card records, and family information. Additionally, security would dispatch 20-30 people to check hotels, cab companies, bus stations, and airports. Security also had contacts within the PAC BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY corporate offices to obtain telephone records. When a person blew, their spouse would be contacted and credit card records were checked. The person's berthing and personal belongings would be searched for any indicia of where they might go. Personal information for all INT BASE personnel was regularly maintained by security by going through mail. The lengths that security would go to recover a blown SEA ORG staffer would depend on the level of knowledge that person had regarding happenings on INT BASE and within the CHURCH.

If a staff member who blew was found, security would set up a perimeter to surround the person and follow them to the airport or bus station to confront them. Security would do everything they could to get them back, including playing on the person's emotions. Physical restraint was used as a last resort as was the case with [redacted] directed [redacted] SEA ORG security [redacted] that could be used to detain a person. Every second that went by increased the pressure on security to recover the person. [redacted] frequently questioned why certain people were not physically restrained when blow drills were first set up. Eventually physical restraint became part of security protocol, known as 8C. The threat level determines the level of restrain used on a person. SEA ORG members originally did not know about "Blow Drills," but because of the amount of people needed for the drills, the word eventually got out. Security used to humor themselves about how quickly they could recover someone who "blew." b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] a phone system on INT BASE made by the NIPON ELECTRONIC CORPORATION. The system allowed security to listen in on every phone call made on the base. Each phone was modified to have a speaker function. [redacted] Certain people on the base had a calling card if, for instance, their job responsibilities included purchasing goods. Those persons were assigned an access code. Staffers with that access were frequently security checked. If staffers were calling home, those calls were listened to by at least two people. b6 b7C b7D

When people first arrived on INT BASE, all of their luggage and personal belongings were searched for listening devices, weapons and passports. Passports were kept by the "Port Captain" along with birth certificates. Passports were kept by security to give people a reason not to leave.

At one point, staff who were under watch were made to live on the base in containers originally purchased to house data storage. [redacted] once lived in the containers. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D does not know what happened to the data that used to be in the containers. Now the containers hold "barter goods" such as alcohol. LRH believed the base should always have "goods" that could be bartered for other services in case of an emergency.

Security altered the light fixtures on Highway 79 in order to add brighter lighting on the portion of highway that cut through INT BASE. Security also placed fixed cameras on the highway that were housed in small boxes. The video from the fixed cameras was usually stored for two weeks. SEA ORG did not conduct aerial surveillance. The topography of the surrounding land was bulldozed in order to deter any ground surveillance of the property by outsiders. The surrounding land does not belong to the CHURCH. [redacted] did not know who it belonged to. INT BASE has a landing zone that is cleared by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] discussed the process of "overboarding" which involved pushing SEA ORG members off the ship that was placed in the lake on INT BASE. The purpose of the exercise was to cause the staffer to "commit their sins to the sea and become a better man." [redacted] witnessed some overboarding. It was akin to the concept of "walking the plank." b6 b7C b7D

"Too Gruesome" punishments were conceived by [redacted] and other executives. Some such punishments included working in the "shit" ponds, also known as the aeration ponds. [redacted] had people digging excrement out of the ponds by hand without appropriate protection such as gloves or masks. People were also assigned "mest" or "matter energy space and time" work such as pulling weeds around a ditch or building their own compound out of bamboo. b6 b7C b7D

Staffers were also physically beaten and/or publicly denounced. [redacted] witnessed members being handcuffed to chairs. He also personally saw [redacted] People were afraid of [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Next [redacted] was sent to work at Gold doing [redacted] would come into the office [redacted] as if to say "why is she still here?" She could not handle not knowing what was going to happen to her. In [redacted] she grabbed a few of [redacted] and walked to OGH. From [redacted] she was at OGH. Next she was sent to the [redacted] then to Los Angeles. She was there with other people who were trying to route out. They were in the basement of the Big Blue Building.

[redacted] told her seniors [redacted] They took her to the Office of Special Affairs (OSA). They videotaped her signing waivers and an affidavit that they wrote for her. The affidavit said something to the effect of [redacted]

When [redacted] routed out she signed [redacted] He was trying to convince her to go back, and it was [redacted] feeling he was doing that at the request of the Church. She told him [redacted]

[redacted] also a former Sea Org member. [redacted] was on Int Base he [redacted] He left Sea Org in [redacted] He worked for Golden Era and was in charge [redacted]

On Int Base [redacted] did not believe she could leave. She had no money and nowhere to go. She believed she would be followed [redacted] She knew the lengths they would go to if she blew. For instance, when [redacted] left, [redacted] knew [redacted] had blown because she was missing from muster one day. [redacted] believed if she tried to leave, they would go to whatever lengths to convince her to come back. More than being afraid of them, she did not have any means to go anywhere. She did not think of calling the police because she would be ex-communicated from the religion and from the promise of eternal life. To this day [redacted] Int Base [redacted]

[redacted] She had a [redacted] when [redacted] She was also afraid of [redacted] He was the [redacted] for ethics. One time [redacted] yelled at her with such force that she literally thought she was going to defecate in her pants. She felt [redacted] was a hypocrite and was violating L. Ron Hubbard (LRH) policy.

[redacted] never witnessed [redacted] beating anyone. She was there when [redacted] sent the top RTC executives to the hill by LRH's private home and had them living in tents and showering with [redacted] on Int Base. If anyone became pregnant, they would be sent to lower organizations if they refused to have abortions. [redacted] had three abortions. [redacted] shared an [redacted] and [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

When [redacted] worked for RTC she had a [redacted] Early on she used the [redacted], but later she did not dare try to make personal calls because she knew phone records were being checked. A [redacted] After that, Sea Org members had to prepare a Completed Staff Workorder (CSW) to make a phone call, and all calls were monitored in real time. She had a phone at [redacted] but she could not use it to call out, it only received calls. One time in [redacted] or [redacted] at Int Base. [redacted] Security gave her that message fast. b6 b7C b7D

The computer [redacted] used at RTC had a security camera and it was wired so anyone could track what she was doing at any time. All e-mails were sent to a main email address at Hubbard Communication's Office and the e-mails would be printed off, reviewed and forwarded to the intended recipient. [redacted] did not have access to the internet on Int Base. The computers she used were only connected to the internal network, called "Incom." b6 b7C b7D

Written communications were likewise monitored by security. [redacted] was insulted that she never heard from [redacted] so she had to write more frequently and would say everything was okay. Letters would not be mailed if they said anything negative. b6 b7C b7D

Sea Org members typically had to turn their passports in to security. If they needed their passport for a trip, they would fill out a form. When they returned from their trip, they would go through a security checking process which included returning their passport to security. The passports were kept pursuant to a Flag Order that required keeping legal documents in a safe place.

When [redacted] left Happy Valley Ranch, security went through all of her belongings. They took all [redacted] She asked for [redacted] They told her they could not find it.

b6 b7C b7D

If unmarried couples were caught being intimate, they would be sent to the RPF. Any type of sexual position other than missionary style was considered perverted. Sexual confessions were regularly used against Sea Org members.

One time she was told by her auditor [redacted] and that was why he was [redacted] Once she was [redacted] and said she had to go to [redacted] She did not have a choice [redacted] It was forced on her. She did not want to do it. It required [redacted] e-meter in front of the auditor. She did not recall whether it was recorded.

b6 b7C b7D

In late [redacted] she was told she needed to divorce [redacted] He had been sent to the RPF, primarily because of his [redacted] They claimed he was a [redacted] Divorces were forced on people if the spouses were not on Int Base because that would be considered an external influence.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] the experience opened her eyes that what was happening on Int Base was not right. When she returned to Int Base she realized, [redacted] She realized there was no balance in her life. In the book Dynamics, LRH declared the importance of life balance. She realized the life she was living, having 15 minutes for meals, very little sleep, no relationship with her family, was not in tune with LRH's vision and the Church had strayed from its own written practices.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] He decided to leave because he knew that there was corruption in the organization and he did not believe that the Church of Scientology (the Church) was being true to the religion. The Church was not following its own policies, and even its own policies were immoral. The organization was run using mental and physical abuse. [redacted] while they routed out. It took approximately three to four months. [redacted] was given a [redacted] freeloader bill. He did not feel that he should have to repay the debt, because he worked for no salary for all those years.

[redacted] (phonetic) [redacted] They said they were trying to get people back "on lines" and back in the Church. His impression was that they were trying to determine whether he was going to be a problem for the Church in the future. They wanted to talk to him about what information he had from working on Int Base that might be used against the Church in litigation.

They asked [redacted] whether he had ever seen [redacted] punch anyone. He told them that he had not witnessed [redacted] punching anyone but that he knew [redacted] was the kind of person who would do that. He told [redacted] that he saw [redacted] told [redacted] and [redacted] that he had no intention of bringing a civil suit against the Church, but that if he was subpoenad to testify he would do so. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] said, [redacted] told [redacted] that things have gotten better on Int Base. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] complained to [redacted] about the fact that on Int Base, Sea Org members only went to the doctor or the dentist if there was an emergency. Once on the RPF [redacted] said that members go to the doctor now. [redacted] asked her, [redacted] brought up the fact that relationships were broken up by the organization. For instance, you could not see your spouse if you were put on the RPF. [redacted] and [redacted] said that now you can only marry Sea Org members who are in your same division. [redacted] discussed with them how Sea Org members were pressured into having abortions. [redacted] described it as coercion. People who decided to not have abortions were treated poorly. [redacted] listened but did not respond. They did not offer to drop his freeloader debt. They wanted to know whether he was going to try [redacted] from being a Scientologist. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] never saw physical violence on Int Base, but he remembered seeing people being screamed at and being pushed up against walls. Mainly he witnessed screaming or demoralizing conduct. He also witnessed people being punished, typically executives who were in trouble. For instance, he saw members scrubbing dumpsters with a toothbrush. b6 b7C b7C

When Sea Org members "blew" Int Base, security and others would attempt to retrieve them. They would scour movie theaters, train stations, bus stations, relatives' homes, and other places where the members might be hiding. [redacted] considered blowing, but it would have resulted in [redacted]

Members who were caught blowing were not physically restrained. First, security would play nice and try to convince the member to return to Int Base. If that did not work, they would demoralize the member into returning. If members were perceived as a possible threat to blowing, they might be placed in "Section O" which was a section on Int Base designated for members who were routing out or on the verge of blowing. He was assigned to Section O at one point and had a person assigned to watch him to make sure he did not blow. [redacted] never physically restrained anyone or recovered anyone that had blown, [redacted] One time in Los Angeles he was assigned [redacted] to make sure that she did not blow. [redacted] Also, on Int Base there was a list of people who were in "lower conditions" and a list of potential people who might blow. Those people could not leave the base by themselves.

In [redacted] was sent to the "hole" for approximately two nights. When he returned, he found out [redacted] had been sent to the Rehabilitation Project Force (RPF) in Los Angeles. [redacted] became really upset because people could disappear to the RPF without any notice. [redacted] found out [redacted] had been sent to the RPF when he returned to his berthing and found all of her belongings gone. The Master at Arms told [redacted] was not going to come back to the base. [redacted] was forced to sign divorce papers. He had no choice with regard to divorce because when someone was sent to the RPF it meant the relationship was over. The person was considered a "degraded being". After his divorce, [redacted] asked to be sent to FLAG in Clearwater, Florida. [redacted] convinced him to forget the idea. By that time [redacted] "done" with Scientology and SEA ORG.

When [redacted] first arrived at GOLD, [redacted] was nice and open with other staff members. However that slowly began to change. In [redacted] GOLD was put into "hell" because of a New Years program that malfunctioned while [redacted] was speaking. The program was supposed to showcase the evolution of the CHURCH throughout its inception. The program was considered to be a disaster. The entire GOLD staff was in trouble.

b6 b7C b7D

After that [redacted] decided to quit SEA ORG. He went to Hubbard Communications Office (HCO) and asked for a routing slip. He was given a checklist of items he had to complete in order to route out. [redacted] realized the list consisted of the same items a person who was declared a "suppressive person" would have to do. [redacted] decided not to route out but instead to be kicked out of SEA ORG. Normally someone who wanted to "route out" would be in trouble, but because [redacted] was doing a lot of good work for [redacted] he did not get into trouble. [redacted] did not understand how the "e-meter" worked. He had to invent crimes in order to comply with his "security checks."

After the New Years incident, [redacted] decided the [redacted] department was inefficient and needed to study [redacted] in order to improve the department. [redacted] decided to read internet books under the guise of eventually moving the magazines to an electronic format. As a result of his studies an internet unit was set up to design the CHURCH website. [redacted] was called in to consult on the website. Everyone was afraid of [redacted] because he could kick you out of SEA ORG, "nuke" or degrade you and you could lose your eternity. All of which resulted in being a degraded person. According to [redacted] the CHURCH will push humiliating facts about a person for months at a time shaming the person in public. To the point where they almost want to kill themselves in shame. The entire INT BASE could be punished with a beans and rice diet, but that was not as bad as the humiliation.

As a result of that "attack" on the Church and other later attacks, [redacted] viewed the need to "handle" the situation. As a result, security started tightening up. Christmas in Big Bear. On Friday nights they would go out to see movies as long as their "statistics" were up. Sea Org members were also permitted to have children during that time. The children lived at Happy Valley Ranch. They were taught a Scientology curriculum. They did not have freedom to choose their religion. Also at that time, Sea Org members lived off the base at an apartment complex. They had more freedoms, and could go to Von's, for instance, at night if they needed to.

All Sea Org members worked from 8 a.m. until 12:30 a.m. everyday. [redacted] was paid every week $50. One of his jobs was to [redacted] At RTC the employees would sometimes get bonuses. Bonuses stopped around 2000-2001. By the time [redacted] almost no one was allowed to leave Int Base. Everyone was living in the newly built berthing buildings on Int Base so there was no reason for anyone to leave the base. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

In [redacted] if Sea Org members needed to leave the base for a legitimate reason, such as to see a doctor, the member would have to be escorted. The purpose for that rule was to ensure that nobody escaped. Most Sea Org members did not want to leave because they were dedicated to their jobs. However, nobody was supposed to leave because [redacted] and others were concerned that they would leave and divulge Church secrets. b6 b7C b7D

In light of his [redacted] received daily reports regarding matters happening on Int Base. He would read about the kinds of discipline being inflicted on members who were in trouble on Int Base. For instance, he would read that people were being hosed down with fire extinguishers. All the punishments were humiliating. When other Sea Org members witnessed these punishments, they undoubtedly questioned to themselves the purpose for such abuses, but at the same time they would not challenge the punishments. Because [redacted] was ordering the punishments they were not going to challenge his decisions because they believed he was doing what was in their best interest. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] would also receive reports anytime someone escaped or "blew." Security was careful to ensure that people did not blow and the consequences for blowing were severe. If people escaped, security would chase after them. If they were recovered they would be interrogated regarding their crimes were against the Church. Next blown members would be corrected by applying conditions to b6 b7C b7D

If someone wanted to leave the Church without blowing they would have to go through security checking, aka "sec checking." That would take a week to a month. Sometimes people being sec checked would be placed in hotels if they refused to return to Int Base for sec checking. The purpose of sec checking was to ensure that no "criminality" was involved against the Church and to require that the members sign various legal documents. members would received "freeloader bills," resulting in significant debts that members were charged for leaving Sea Org.

Also present for the interview was [redacted] After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C b7D

I. [redacted] early history with the Church b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] graduated from High School in [redacted] and was studying [redacted] trying to decide what he wanted to do with his life. He saw how the Scientology courses improved his ability to communicate and decided to join Sea Org. He was [redacted]

[redacted] drove his car from San Francisco to Los Angeles and reported to the Flag Readiness Unit (FRU). After a few weeks he was sent to the Flag Base in Clearwater, Florida for three months with FRU, from approximately [redacted] until late [redacted] During that time period he was preparing for the Estates Project Force (EPF). He was receiving auditing and had his first e-meter reading. At Flag Base he was slated to be posted to the Authorization and Verifications Unit (AVU). Someone from the Commodore's Messenger Organization (CMO) secretly told [redacted] secret location where L. Ron Hubbard was living (LRH). She said that LRH was putting a group together to make training films. b6 b7C b7D

It was devastating because it was a false reading and he was being falsely accused of having improper thoughts, when he was not. He was on the RPF for nine weeks. More than 70% of the base was in the RPF. LRH became suspicious. LRH corrected the problem and everyone was put back on post.

b6 b7C b7D

After the RPF, [redacted] started working for LRH taking care of WQ's [redacted] and LRH's [redacted] [redacted] was also LRH's [redacted] He got to know LRH very well. Due to safety concerns after some negative media attention, [redacted] took LRH along [redacted] in Hemet, California where they lived for approximately two years in hiding. II. The Hole [redacted] was familiar with "the Hole," which was the term used for the building where executive management were being held and punished for several years on Int Base. [redacted] was never personally assigned to the Hole, however he visited the Hole several times. One time, he believed it was shortly after [redacted] escaped from the Hole, [redacted] received an order from [redacted] told [redacted] that [redacted] often times referred to the Hole as "the Mob." [redacted] said that the doors needed to be boarded up and the windows nailed down. [redacted]

At the time [redacted] was not exactly sure what the situation was inside. He knew that there were people in trouble and that they had been taken off their posts. He was not sure if they were living there 24 hours per day. He knew their meals were being brought to them and they were auditing each other. [redacted] position at that time was [redacted] for the Religious Technology Center (RTC). He was responsible [redacted]

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] had no choice but to follow [redacted] the Hole. [redacted] orders you to do something, you know that the order came from [redacted] If he had refused, he would have been physically grabbed and thrown in the Hole himself. [redacted] stated [redacted] Sea Org members made $50/week.

b6 b7C b7D

Sometime after [redacted] put [redacted] at the Hole, he noticed that [redacted] were removed. He did not know who removed [redacted] He assumed it was someone on the security team. [redacted] could not say whether the [redacted] stated that the [redacted] would still be evident.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] went into the Hole several times. There was a security guard who sat on the inside of the Hole. The security guard was usually [redacted] Nobody in the Hole could communicate with the outside, unless it was pre-approved and any telephone calls were placed at the guard stand. [redacted] noticed that the people who lived in the Hole did not wear uniforms, and that some of them looked skinny. It was "fucking psycho."

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] in the Hole. He could reconstruct a full list of everyone he saw in there. Sometimes he would see them marching in step to the garage to take showers. Towards the end, there were at least 100 people assigned to the Hole. He would see food being delivered to them. [redacted] them in a golf cart.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was his [redacted] left. One time [redacted] from the motor pool at Golden Era were ordered [redacted] front of the Hole. Someone told [redacted] that the purpose was to taunt

 b6 b7C b7D

those who were in the Hole by causing them to believe they were about to be "off-loaded," meaning to be kicked out of Sea Org. [redacted] in front of the building in a manner that gave an imposing appearance to have the biggest impact when those living in the Hole walked out the front door for their showers. It was done entirely for intimidation purposes.

III. Recent Spoliation of Evidence on Int Base

Recently, [redacted], the location of the Hole was moved and everyone assigned to the Hole was sent to live in the Berthing Buildings where everyone else working on Int Base lived. [redacted] They still live separately as a group, and are still off-post and being punished. However, they are wearing uniforms again, and they eat at the cafeteria instead of having food delivered to them. They have their own meal shift so they cannot talk to any other Int Base workers in the cafeteria. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that the recent changes to the Hole assignees was the result of the negative press that the Church has been getting. [redacted] said that [redacted] is trying to give the appearance that they are being treated the same as everyone else and that nothing unusual is happening on Int Base. However they still walk in double file to their meals, they all live in a single section in berthing, and they are still under constant guard with video cameras and physical security making sure that they do not blow. [redacted] believes over 100 Sea Org members are still in the Hole, which [redacted] now calls "the Trailer." b6 b7C b7D

That was very unusual, because the old practice was that you could only see family if they were worried and were going to create problems for the Church. Another woman, [redacted] (phonetic), [redacted] to go to Los Angeles to see [redacted] The communications lines were getting "loose." However, when [redacted] went to Los Angeles she was [redacted] According to [redacted] it appeared that the Church was trying to give the appearance that communication lines were open.

IV. Restrictions on Communications on Int Base

Nobody had access to the internet other than specific people who required it for their jobs. Even those people had limitations on what they could search on the internet. The Church's internal network system had the "Symantec" filter that blocked certain URL's. For instance, no website with the word "time" in it, i.e. Los Angeles Times, could be accessed, because members were not allowed to read newspapers or any media that was anti-Scientology. [redacted] the Office of Special Affairs (OSA) in Los Angeles monitored internet usage and watched for people who were trying to access suspicious websites.

The third level had Nextel Motorola cellular phones with direct connect where they could use the "chirping" mechanism on the phones. That was the main function utilized on the Nextels. [redacted] thought the Nextels were pre-programmed so that they could not dial out and some of them could not receive or send text messages. [redacted] regularly deleted [redacted] because he operated on the assumption that it might be inspected.

Nobody on Int Base was permitted to have internet email addresses to communicate with the outside, other than the email addresses provided to some Sea Org members by the Church. Those were the only authorized email accounts. Every incoming email was monitored. His network server email on his desktop was [redacted] His email on [redacted] was [redacted]

VII. Int Base Security and Blow Drills

Recently a large retaining wall was built along the villas on Int Base. The primary purpose for the new wall outside the villa's was to prevent the noise. There is Ultra Barrier razor wire along the fence that surrounds the Int Base compound. There are motion sensors and microphones buried in the soil. The original intention of all those security measures was to keep people from the outside getting on Int Base. However, now those measures are used to ensure nobody leaves Int Base. [redacted] b6 attempted to blow Int Base less than [redacted] He b7C had a ladder and was going to climb over the fence, however the b7D

The Berthing Buildings could hold a couple thousand people. He speculated between 300-700 are on Int Base. RTC members lived in Berthing Building 42. It was not fully occupied. "The Hole" people, he thought, lived in the Berthing Building immediately to the west of Berthing Building 42. [redacted] said that if the people on Int Base were asked whether they were being mistreated, they would deny it because their future would be doomed and the consequences would be too much to bear.

SUBJECT: CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY LITIGATION IN THE U. S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA; OPINION OF JUDGE RICHEY, CR. NO. 78-0401 (9/13/79).

PURPOSE: To set forth background information on captioned litigation, including the latest ruling, a copy of which is attached.

SYNOPSIS: In July, 1977, the FBI executed three search warrants on Church of Scientology premises, two of which are located in California and the other in the District of Columbia. The Church immediately filed two separate actions in the District of Columbia and Los Angeles seeking the return and suppression of the seized property. That litigation in the U. S. District Court, District of Columbia, was handled by Chief Judge Bryant. You were advised of this by memorandum from Legal Counsel to the Director dated 9/13/79.

The disposition of the Los Angeles searches is the primary subject of this memorandum. The U. S. District Court for the Central District of California upheld the California search warrants. The Church's appeal to the Ninth Circuit was dismissed as interlocutory and unappealable.

Memorandum, Legal Counsel to the Director
Re: Church of Scientology Litigation
in the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia;
Opinion of Judge Richey,
Cr. No. 78-0401 (9/13/79).

In August, 1978, eleven Church members were indicted by a Federal grand jury based on evidence from the California seizures. Nine of the eleven individuals sought to suppress the seized evidence. Judge Charles R. Richey, U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia, ruled in favor of the U. S. as a result of the suppression hearings.

The Church asserted several broad grounds to support their motion to suppress. They argued, inter alia, that the warrant was not supported by probable cause, it was a general warrant, and the search was conducted with excessive force in violation of Title 18, United States Code (USC), Section 3109.

The Government argued, persuasively, in Judge Richey's opinion, that defendants' standing to seek suppression was severely limited; the District of Columbia Court of Appeals decision upholding the validity of the search warrant was controlling precedent; and finally, that the Government had narrowed its inquiry to documents which defendants virtually conceded were properly seized.

Judge Richey decided, inter alia, that the warrants were facially valid; they were supported by probable cause, and that the searches were not conducted in a general or excessively forcible manner. He ruled that the documents seized from the Church's California premises could be introduced into evidence in the trial of the indicted defendant Church members.

Memorandum, Legal Counsel to the Director
Re: Church of Scientology Litigation
in the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia;
Opinion of Judge Richey,
Cr. No. 78-0401 (9/13/79)

DETAILS: Briefly, the background information of the Scientology litigation is as follows: On July 8, 1977, FBI Agents executed three search warrants on premises owned by the Church of Scientology: 2125 S. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.; Fifield Manor, located at 5930 West Franklin Avenue, Hollywood, California; and the Cedars-Sinai Complex located at 4833 Fountain Avenue, Hollywood, California. Thereafter the Church filed two separate actions in the District of Columbia and Los Angeles seeking the return and suppression of the seized property.

The Church's action regarding the District of Columbia search was resolved first. Chief Judge Bryant, writing for the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia, held that the Washington, D. C. search was based on a general warrant which lacked the requisite particularity and thus violated the Fourth Amendment. On appeal, the Court of Appeals ruled that the warrant was sufficiently particular and that the District Court erred in its construction of the warrant. In addition to reversing the District Court, the Court of Appeals remanded the case for consideration of the other grounds alleged for invalidating the warrant.

In the remand decision, Judge Bryant concluded that the Agents conducted a general seizure, that the Agents intentionally conducted an illegal search and the prosecution's offer to return unrelated seized documents was not a sufficient remedy for the alleged illegal seizure. On September 12, 1979, Assistant United States Attorney (USA) [redacted] advised that the USA's Office, District of Columbia, was preparing

Re: Church of Scientology Litigation
in the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia;
Opinion of Judge Richey,
Cr. No. 78-0401 (9/13/79).

a recommendation for appeal of the remand decision regarding the District of Columbia search. By memorandum from Legal Counsel to the Director, dated 9/13/79, and captioned "Church of Scientology Litigation in the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia" you were advised of the above information.

With respect to the Los Angeles searches, Judge Lucas, writing for the U. S. District Court for the Central District of California, upheld on all grounds the execution of the warrants in California. The Church appealed this ruling and on 2/22/79, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals dismissed the Church's appeal of Judge Lucas's decision on the ground that the judgment was interlocutory and unappealable.

On 8/15/78, a Federal grand jury indicted eleven Church members. Nine of the eleven individuals sought to suppress the evidence seized on 7/8/77. Judge Richey held hearings in Los Angeles, California, 7/3-21/79, and in Washington, D. C., 8/16-29/79, in response to defendants' suppression motion. On 9/13/79, Judge Richey issued a lengthy ruling, based on the hearings, in favor of the United States. Copy attached. United States v. Hubbard, Cr. No. 78-0401 (D.D.C. 9/13/79) (slip op.).

In explaining the relationship between the litigation in his court and the related suppression motions of the Church following the search, Judge Richey states at p. 4, 5 that-- > "It has been the government's position throughout the litigation before this Court, that none of the documents seized at the District of Columbia location were shown to the Grand Jury which indicted the defendants, and that none would be used at the trial in this case. Thus, the propriety of the District of Columbia search is not at issue before this Court. (Footnote omitted) Accordingly, before this Court is the motion, filed by the nine individuals about to go on trial, to suppress the evidence seized on July 8, 1977, from the two Church of Scientology premises in Los Angeles, California."

Defendants raised several grounds in support of their motion to suppress:

First, defendants argued that the warrant was unconstitutional on its face because it was not supported by probable cause; it was based on stale information; it did not particularly describe the place to be searched and items to be seized, and it was a general warrant.

Second, defendants argued that the search was illegal because the affidavit necessary to support the legality of the warrant was not attached to the warrant at the time of execution.

Next, defendants argued that the Agents conducted a general, exploratory search; the Agents seized documents beyond the scope of the warrant; excessive force in the searches was used in violation of Title 18, United States Code (USC), Section 3109; and the warrant and its execution violated defendants' right to due process of law.

The Government argued that defendants' standing to seek suppression of the evidence seized from Church premises was severely limited. Second, the Government pointed out the District of Columbia Court of Appeals decision upholding the facial validity of the search warrant, and the decisions of Judge Lucas upholding its execution in Los Angeles. Finally, the Government sought "to narrow the inquiry to the documents the Government intended to introduce into evidence as part of its case-in-chief which the defendants virtually concede were properly seized." Slip op. at 6.

It was Judge Richey's opinion that:

Although defendants argued that they had a legitimate expectation of privacy with respect to the California Church premises in their entirety, and accordingly, had standing to seek suppression of all the seized documents from those locations, defendants had a legitimate expectation of privacy only as to their own individual offices and could therefore only complain of the seizure of such documents taken from their offices.

Next, Judge Richey decided that the warrants were facially valid. He noted particularly, as controlling precedent, the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, which reversed Chief Judge Bryant's earlier ruling, and upheld the facial validity of the D. C. warrant. Slip op. at 11. Additionally, Judge Richey made an independent determination that the warrants were in fact supported by probable cause sufficient as a matter of law.

The Court further decided, after extensive review of the facts and case law, that the Agents did not use excessive force in the course of the searches; the Church personnel were allowed to observe the search; the scope of the searches was reasonable and not general; and finally, that seizure by the Agents of some items not within the warrant did not require the suppression of all evidence seized, because, inter alia, the Government made reasonable attempts to limit the search and seizure to items legally seizable and defendants had failed to show that the scope of the seizures was unreasonable.

In conclusion, Judge Richey stated:

> "The Court finds that there is no evidence to indicate that these documents were improperly seized: they are within the warrants and were seized from areas described in the warrants. The government is not barred by the Fourth Amendment from introducing these documents into evidence at the trial of this case." Slip op. at 47, 48.

Complainant advised that captioned subject [redacted] apparently violated a court order issued by complainant on April 25, 1997 as part of civil case Religious Technology Center (RTC) vs. [redacted] case number: 96-2007 RMW EAI. [redacted] has declared bankruptcy and by doing so has avoided any civil sanction on this matter. Alleged violation involves the posting of RTC telephone record information on the Internet by an associate of [redacted] obtained the information from Pacific Bell via mail using a civil subpoena issued in another judicial district. Neither the court or the RTC were notified of the subpoena. When the RTC became aware of the request they motioned the court and the complainant obtained a declaration from [redacted] that he would not disclose the records and abide by the court's ruling. The Complainant ruled that [redacted] should return the records to the RTC and he complied. The telephone information posted on the Internet reportedly (based upon information provided to the court by RTC attorney [redacted] (408)292-7600) contains unique data (misdialed #'s) that is specifically linked to the material whose dissemination was prohibited by Complainant's court order. The computer crime squad has performed preliminary Internet investigative inquiries strongly linking [redacted] to [redacted] the apparent disseminator of the telephone information on the Internet.

Re: Telephone conversation March 9, 1998 with Special Agent [redacted]

Dear Agent [redacted]

Regarding our telephone conversation this morning, of course I will cooperate in every way with a Bureau investigation. As you may know I live more than 250 miles aways from San Jose and my family just emerged from Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. So we do not have the resources to conveniently meet with you at your office.

If you wish to send someone to interview me about whatever false allegations the Church of Scientology (who is undoubtedly behind such a smear campaign) has made, please let me know so we can arrange a mutually convenient time to talk.

Please bring with you any alleged documents that you claim are mine so I can comment on them. As I told you on the phone, I would never break the law nor disobey a judge's order. If I felt that a judge's order was incorrect or unlawful I still would not break it, but I would seek relief from the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

I have been in civil litigation with the so-called Church of Scientology for over two years now (C 96-20207 N.D.C.) and the cult has been aware since last Thursday that I am currently asking the Honorable Ronald M. Whyte of the United States District Court, San Jose to restrain them from Obstruction of Justice and tampering with my witnesses for a civil trial now scheduled for March 30, 1998. I believe the cult – who is well-known for their

3. Wogs at Cause by Keith Henson [Car chases and other modern courtroom phenomena--adapted from the version published in Biased Journalism]

[Glossary notes: "Wog" is a derogatory term scientologists use for non scientologists. The next step up (when you start taking their expensive "courses" i.e., brainwashing) is "raw meat." Scientology claims, but never delivers, to release your "Operating thetan" powers--where you are supposed to obtain "spiritual power" over MEST, i.e., matter, energy, space and time, or in scientology's arcane jargon, you are supposed to be "at cause" over MEST. Scientologist are known as "clams" on the net because Hubbard claimed (in _History of Man_, also known as _What to Audit_) that humans are descended from clams, not to mention sloths, and the fraudulent Piltdown man.]

Background: Scientology started duking it out with the Internet free speech activists in January of 1995 when their lawyer Helena Kobrin issued an rmgroup to destroy a small but active usenet news group, alt.religion.scientology. a.r.s was quickly restored on the machines where the rmgroup had taken effect and rapidly increased in popularity till it was one of the most read groups on the net.

Shortly thereafter, "Religious Technology Center" (a scientology front) sued a critical former "minister" of scientology, Dennis Erlich, Tom Klemesrud (owner of Dennis's ISP, support.com) and Netcom, which provided support.com with connection to the Internet. Dennis was raided under a civil search warrant and Tom was subjected to a bizarre "blood attack" by a woman who claimed her hemorrhoids were the source of blood splattered five feet up on Tom's walls.

Over a year later RTC sued a well known internet personality Grady Ward who had been taunting them on a.r.s. The premise for the suit was that he was the elusive "SCAMIZDAT" who had been posting their trade secret/copyrighted comic book "scriptures" on the Internet. No evidence that I know about has turned up to support this idea. Of course, chained anonymous remailers are a bit hard to trace no matter who or what group was doing this.

My involvement came about when I took a look at some of this material and wrote a letter to the Federal Judge in Grady's case asking if he really intended to allow the use of copyright and trade secret laws to keep criminal instruction manuals (about the illegal practice of quack medicine with their "emeters") from public view. When no response was forthcoming from the Judge, I posted the letter, which included as an example a document, NOTs 34, THE SEQUENCE FOR HANDLING A PHYSICAL CONDITION. Scientology (RTC) responded by suing me.

Exhibit G

In the mean time, a fatal example of scientology's "medical treatment" has come to light, the Lisa McPherson case. Lisa died of dehydration while in the hands of Scientology, and there are a number of web sites with all the gruesome details, including pictures of her hands, covered with what the medical examiner called cockroach bites. (See http://www.primenet.com/~cultxpt/lisa.htm)

Lisa McPherson's story has been on three US TV news shows (Inside Edition twice) and was featured on a German show. A rumor has it that Lisa Marie Presley is paying for the civil and criminal defenses of the cult over this incident.

Lisa Marie nearly died recently. It is alleged to be because she was subjected to one of scientology's bizarre processes. Her former husband Michael Jackson collapsed after the same "treatment," which is supposed to "sweat out" toxins and drugs.

Back to the lawsuit filed against me. After a vast amount of legal wrangling, the judges in the cases permitted the deposition of the head of Scientology to be taken in the three cases.

Part four of the May 19-21 saga starts when Grady and I are leaving the deposition of David Miscavige (taken in Palm Springs, California).

[Part one is the trip to Southern California, and the "bomb threat at an airport" which scientology used to prevent lawyers being present, part two is my picketing the cult compound at Gold Base near Hemet, California. Part three is the deposition itself.]

The hired (and armed) bodyguard for David Miscavige walked us down to the lobby desk where we picked up our cameras and then out to our car. He listened with considerable interest to the tale of Lisa McPherson and how scientology tangled with the net and how Grady and I got mixed up in this circus.

We headed off to the north, realized we had overshot the road to the Palm Springs airport and turned back. Since Grady's flight was not for a few hours, and by this time it was about 1 pm, we stopped at a deli/restaurant to have one last meal at the cult's expense.

We hadn't been in there 5 minutes when Tom Hogan [San Jose lawyer for the cult] showed up to warn us not to post anything of substance (hah! what substance?) from the deposition. Before Hogan showed, we could ignore the scientology operatives who had been assigned to tail us. We found out later they were PIs (private investigators)--I guess they decided that they needed professionals after they had lost us twice the day before when we were playing with them, but trying not to lose them.

As we were driving away after lunch, we first saw only one tail, two younger dudes in a late model car. I pulled a couple of U turns and then pulled over to the curb. Grady jumped out and ran back to get a picture. I nearly spilt my sides laughing as they frantically backed up around a corner to get away from Grady. Wogs at Cause are immune to cameras, but cameras cause scientologists, certain scumbag lawyers, and PIs to scurry like vampires facing a cross.

After a few go arounds in some parking lots, we went south and pulled in to a cul de sac so we could get some better pictures as they want by. Then we went around the south edge of the airport and off to the west, then south into an industrial park. We were playing loop the loop through the parking lots and around backs of the buildings when we noticed the second car with only an older guy in it. He waved us over and identified himself as a PI, and told us that the team was commissioned by the scientologists to follow us wherever we went, though he would not identify himself further. His license (his car lacked a front plate) was BAYBUMZ (California). I gave his and the other license number to the cops later, the license for the car the two younger guys were in can be seen in one of the photographs. Both were late models, one blue, the other purple/blue. Since I had the license plate numbers I didn't care what models.

After the encounter in the industrial park, we went a little further west, then south, back to the west, and finally north on a road which passed to the west of the airport.

I decided it would be a good idea to check the story, so we called on the cell phone and got directions for the Palm Springs Police Department. It was within a few blocks of the airport.

We stopped in front, went in, and Lieutenant McCabe of the Palm Springs police came out with us and went over to talk to the older dude who had stopped across the street from the station. In a few minutes he was convinced that our tails were indeed PIs. Lt. McCabe told us that PIs have what amounts to a "License to Stalk," but that as long as we were reasonably careful with the traffic laws, we were welcome to lose them.

This sounded like an interesting challenge to me, but Grady figured we had about run this episode into the ground, and in any case, he had only an hour before he needed to check in.

I dropped Grady at the Palm Springs airport about 2:30 and considered "what next" because it seemed to me there was more life in this adventure somewhere. I looped out of the airport, followed closely by my tails, drove by the Palm Springs Police Station and continued on south to Hwy 111, and then southeast about ten miles to the Embassy Suites--where we had stayed the previous night. I figured that was one of the few places which would take me seriously about there being three scientology operatives on my tail, since they knew of the activities of the previous night.

The PIs stayed right with me, one ahead, and one behind. The one behind ran red lights so they would always have two cars close to mine. I stopped at three service stations before I found one who would jack up the car and take a look under it for a locator bug like Steve Fishman reported on his car some time ago. No luck. I was really hoping I could take one off and get the cult charged for it, but this must have been the economy tail. Incidentally, the owner of the second service station would not even consider looking under my car because of (I think unjustified) stark fear of Scientologists.

Next to the Embassy Suites is a Lucky's (giant grocery store) and row of shops. I pulled in there and picked up another disposable camera and some bottled water. Tossed the water in the car, unwrapped the camera and went behind the row of shops. Being careful with the camera, I jumped down a two meter retaining wall and went into the lobby of the hotel. (Actually the way I went down the wall was not one mighty leap, as I might have done in my youth, but dropping down holding onto the top of the wall.) You can see the wall in one of the webbed photographs. (www.best.com/~dkeith/pics)

A lot happened in the next two hours. I told the desk clerk what was up, being tailed by three scientology operatives. They knew about the previous evening, and insisted on calling the cops. One of the desk clerks offered to go get my car from the lot next door. So I gave him the key, after warning him the operatives would not be happy. They weren't. He came back somewhat bug eyed with this tale of being stopped by the PIs who insisted on knowing who he was and what he was doing with the car--thus providing the cops who came by later with a third party verification.

Both of the cops who showed up happened to be women. The first one, with the Riverside Sheriff's department (sorry I did not get either of their names), was only about 5 feet tall, but solid. I sure wouldn't want to tangle with her. The second, a somewhat thin blond woman, was with the Palm Desert Police. Excellent professional behavior from both of them, in what must have seemed a thoroughly nutty but potentially dangerous situation. Of course Palm Desert is a rich community, and you expect top grade policing.

I spent most of the time before the first cop showed up and some of it afterwards talking to the local newspaper and TV station. Both reporters I talked to were drooling over the chance to do a local "slow speed chase" on camera/photographs but it was too near deadline. Sigh, I even offered to lead the PIs through the TV station's parking lot so they could just poke a camera out a window. Well, the regular media loses again, and you get it hot on the net.

(A few weeks after this happened I was reading Scott Adams' new book, The Dilbert Future. Prediction 52, "In the future, everyone will be a news reporter," really hit home. Downsizing has left the traditional news sources with no resources to report the unexpected. If you happen to be wondering why news is so dull that a significant part of the population no longer keeps up with news at all, you now know.)

I mentioned to both the cops and the media that I was not thrilled at two hours on the road going back in the direction of LA while being tailed by scientology operatives--and related the Scarff affidavit where Scarff was told in scientology lawyer Moxon's office how he should run the president of the Cult Awareness Network, Cynthia Kisser, off the road and kill her. (Not that I really expected such of hired PIs. Killing citizens must be cause to lose a license; but you never can tell--and there is nothing which forbids PI licenses to scientologists.)

This went on to about 5:30 and it became clear that the media could not fit the story in--the days of "Stop the Presses" are long gone. It was also obvious that cops could do nothing. I had kind of hoped that the local laws in Palm Desert might be a little more restrictive on out of town PIs or maybe they could informally hang onto these dudes long enough for me to get a head start on them, but this seems to be beyond the rules. I presume they did locate the three and talk to them because they confirmed again to me that the three tailing me were PIs, and apparently the PIs told such a tale of a dangerous "Wog at Cause" that the first cop felt the need to pat me down. (At the stop where I had the car checked for bugs, I did advise the older one that he might want to read up on what a wild character he was following and he wrote down the title [Great Mambo Chicken and the Transhuman Condition] I gave him.)

ACTION!

The cops are not pleased by my speculation on how to shake the PIs by a high speed chase on the roads north of Palm Desert up to the freeway. Even if nobody gets hurt, the idea of all four of us being jailed for speeding doesn't appeal to me either. The exchange ratio of three fines/jail terms to one is definitely too low to be properly at cause. As I walk out the door with the car key in my hand, a very worried cop (the second one) wants to know what I am going to do. I tell her the truth, "I don't know," and leave.

Now, to understand what happens next, you need a picture of the layout of the Embassy Suites. It is on a chunk of land with a relatively narrow frontage on Hwy 111 and a very deep lot. Behind the Embassy Suites is an old palm grove about 300 meters deep and at least that wide. My car is facing toward the back of the hotel (the lobby is in the middle facing west). I figured I will drive around the back of the hotel since the car is pointed in that direction. Since I have a full tank, and the GEO gets excellent milage, perhaps I can run them out of gas on the mountain roads south and west of Palm Desert.

When I reach the end of the paved section at the back of the hotel there is no curb and a faint track where tractors had been in to plow under the weeds and fallen palm fronds. Seeing this, I make an instant decision. In a long ago and far away phase of my life I drove off road for thousands of miles. So, figuring the worst that could happen would be that I would get stuck, and at best they would get stuck, I drive out into the sand at all of 15 mph.

Fifty yards out into the palm grove, I realize the grove is surrounded on three sides by a 8-10 foot high concrete block wall. Hoping for a break in the far right corner behind some thick trees, I head that way. Alas, there is no opening anywhere in the back wall. So I veer away plowing through sand and over fallen palm fronds like a small boat in a choppy sea. If GMC needs a testimonial from a verrry satisfied customer about the handling characteristics of a GEO in deep sand, I'm their man.

Ah, did the media miss a golden opportunity! One, two, or three cars throwing up sand like giant demented blue lizards! I don't know if they followed me. I couldn't look back for fear of wrapping my lizard around one of the palms. The tape would be a treasure, especially if one of the PI's cars followed me into the deep sand and got stuck.

Dodging palms, bucking and rolling and not daring to stop because the car would get stuck, I make a huge U turn inside the wall through the sand and palm frond mix. If there was a locator bug stuck under the car it might have been scraped off. Near the end of the wall (which is perhaps 300 meters back from Hwy 111, the surface smooths out. As I go beyond the end of the wall I see a cul de sac with a sloping curb.

A fishtail turn behind the wall and I am back on pavement. There are some small office buildings ahead. I make a right, a left, go around the end of one of them and park under a sun shade next to some other cars. I jump out and hide inside a dumpster enclosure where I can watch my car. I am half expecting them to drive up with a directional antenna--no point in trying to shake them if there is a locator bug stuck under the car. Memories of the chase sequence from Eric Frank Russell's classic SF novel "Wasp" where the protagonist parks and lets the Secret Police go by are flashing in my head.

It is hot, I won't be able to stay here long. Less than 20 seconds go by, crouched down and looking out the crack between the gates, and what looks like the car with the two younger dudes goes blasting through the parking lot past right in front of me going way too fast. They pass within 15 feet of my car. It is clearly visible, palm fronds hanging out behind it, but since it is parked, they ignore it. After they pass, I peep out over the top of the enclosure. They stop at Cook, a main road, 50 meters beyond where I am watching them. I have vanished! They look wildly around for ten to fifteen seconds, and then tear off to the north. I don't see the car with the older guy in it, perhaps he followed me into the sand and got stuck.

Back to my car, pull out the palm fronds which are stuck around the tail pipe and follow them north on Cook, turning east at the next major intersection and then north through a housing development (hard to find, most Palm Desert housing in that end of town is in gated communities.)

Eventually I come out on a street I can find on my not-very- detailed map, go further east and north and find Interstate 10. The rest is an uneventful drive back to Ontario. When I go by Hwy 79, which leads back to Gold Base and Hemet, I am sorely tempted to make the side trip and picket them again. But, as much "at cause" over clams and clam PIs as this wog is, I remind myself that this is, after all, only a hobby and Real Life (tm) calls.

1. UFOs, Spray Paint, and PIs: Adventures at Cedars
by H. Keith Henson

[Something new: the photographs referenced in the text will be present at the following url: //www.cedar.net/users/dvanhorn/henson. If you are putting this issue on your web page, please make links.]

Either the fight with the Internet has really hurt scientology, or the cult was a lot smaller than we thought when the fight started.

Six or seven months ago the TV show Sightings called me to see if I would make and fly a UFO for them, something I was noted for in my misspent youth. Eventually we settled on a date and a place, north of Los Angeles, but within day trip range for the camera crew. I had been looking for excuses to visit that part of the state for some time. By a lucky accident, Sightings picked Saturday, September 13, auditor's day.

I didn't mention Sightings when I posted on the net after the last and impressive Toronto picket reports that I was tired of my comatose local clams and would go to LA that weekend to find some lively ones.

The adventure started on Friday. Judge Whyte must have put RTC vs Erlich early instead of his usual just before lunch. So I missed the hearing but met Darlene Bright (San Jose scn agent) coming out of the courthouse. She didn't look very happy and was kind of evasive about what had happened when I asked her so either Judge Whyte ruled against them, or the ruling was delayed. I mentioned to her that I would try to get in a short picket that morning since I was in San Jose. She was not amused. I had something else to do first, so I showed up at the San Jose org about an hour later, I guess that would have put it 11 to 11:30 am.

Other than it being in a place where there is little foot traffic, the San Jose org is nearly ideal to picket. The walk is shaded with trees, and it was a pleasant day, warm but with a nice breeze. The org building is about 90 feet on a side and two stories tall. It has parking on all four sides. There is a plowed-over lot to the east of the org and a drop-in place for the homeless on the west side. The back of the org is up against the 880 freeway close to First St.

Ted Mayett had asked for a count of parking spaces, so I walked back through the plowed area to get a count of the ones in back. There are between 95 and a hundred parking spaces, and 25 cars in the lot that day--counting one which has not moved in months.

After about half an hour Darlene came out and wearily took two pictures and wrote down what I had on the sign. For variety I was using an old sign which read on one side:

Scientology vs the Net

Scientology is a Scam and on the other:

What happened to Lisa McPherson?

To that I added:

Xenu? Xemu?

Which was it Ron?

After a peevish remark or two about bigotry, Darlene tried to pump me about how I was going to get to LA by expressing concern that my car would not make it. I told her tracking me was the private investigator's problem, not hers. She said that scientology's PIs would not come clear up to the Bay area to start tracking me. I reminded her that according to an affidavit filed in Federal court (Tom Hogan's false bomb threat in the airport) they did just that before the Miscavige deposition back in May.

MikeSmith3 had left scientology wide open in the last post where he quoted one of my memetics articles (where do they get these people?). Because it took a while to generate an appropriate reply, I was later than I liked getting out of town. If any PIs were tailing me, I never saw them, in spite of considerable looking.

Interstate 5 is a dreadfully dull trip, and even worse at night. The high point was a hamburger and a coke at McDonald's. I was into LA before midnight. Won't say where I stayed (except the bed was comfortable) because I might want to use it again. Heh, my scientology escort/counter marchers tried to weasel it out of me the next day by making noises about me sleeping in my car.

My Heaven's Gate/Scientology/Both UFO Cults! sign had "What happened to Odhran Fortune? on the other side. Figuring Lisa was better known, I put new paper over the Fortune side and scrawled:

Did "Standard Tech" Kill Lisa McPherson?

And in smaller letters:

Wogs at Cause $360K for a bridge? Knights of Xenu/Xemu.

None of this would have caused a stir in San Jose, but I was expecting more action out of the headquarters clams. I was not to be disappointed. With the sign and a 150 copies of Roland's Xemu flyers I started off for Cedars. Cedars is several blocks to the east of 101 on Sunset.

I would have been there earlier (breakfast was but a sweet roll) but the directions I had were not clear and I wound up in Beverly Hills. Doubling back, I arrived about 9:30. Leaving my sign in the car, I made a one pass around the building with a disposable camera. I might as well put descriptions in this text about the photos. [The photos are temporarily at ftp://ftp.netcom.com/pub/hk/henson/cedars.pics/ and more permanently at the url above.]

The first one is the street sign on Sunset, "LRH Way," one of the few streets in the US named for a person who died as a fugitive from the law (at least from the IRS).

The area around the block-plus that scientology occupies is going through a transition from seedy slums to high rises. Kaiser (an old and very large Health Maintenance Organization) has a number of large buildings and parking structures to the west. Cedars itself was a hospital before scientology bought it. Just about every door in the building is the "main entrance" for some scientology front. Next time I will make a list.

I picked up an escort even without a sign. A scientology "chaplain" asked me who I was, and I told him I was scientology's worst nightmare (slight exaggeration). Photo 2 is the northern most door on the east side of the main building. The sign in Photo 3 is a little hard to make out. The escort wouldn't let me go on their property to photograph it, but way back in a service area the sign says "Sea Org Recruiting Office." Somehow it seemed appropriate. No rats I could see but I was too far back to check on the roaches.

Photo 4 of the main entrance to AOLA which is across LRH Way from Cedars. LRH Way is nicely done with red brick--be interesting to see how long it lasts. Brick streets break up quickly under heavy traffic and porous brick is nearly impossible to clean.

Photo 5 is the other LRH Way sign. I caught one of the security cameras in photo 6. This one is on the southeast corner of the main building.

After a single pass around the building, I got my sign out of my car. The content prompted an immediate complaint from the chaplain that I was causing chaos although he would not say what on the sign offended him. An enturbulated chaplain and I walked clockwise from the north side of the building around to the east side. There I picked up two more escorts. The two dudes in the photo 7 stayed with me most of the morning. Photo 8 is of their guy taking photos of me. This time they stayed well back and did not shove the camera in my face like the security guards did out at Hemet. The guy in the foreground is the "chaplain." 9 and 10 are closeups of the guys in 7. 11 is the "Auditor's Day" banner on the wall next to the main entrance. For being a major scientology holiday, they sure did not have much traffic of publics in or out--which is why I think the Internet has hurt them a lot more than we thought. I don't think I saw more than a hundred and fifty clams the entire time I was there.

After a walk around the whole block and two or three passes back and forth along the west side of the building (which seemed to have the most activity) a scientologist maybe in his 20s in a dark suit calmly walked straight up in front to me, grabbed my sign stick right under the cardboard and started spraying my sign with a can of red paint. To put it mildly I was startled. Fortunately, the stick on that sign is a short pool cue that was not about to break and I was able to get both hands on it while the attacker only had one. The attacker was a little taller than I am but lighter. I dragged him still spraying out onto the brick roadway (not wishing to get onto Cedars property during the incident) and kind of scraped him off on a parked car.

Once I broke his grip on the sign, he immediately ran away, going inside Cedars while I fumbled for my camera but failed to get a photo. The chaplain and my escorts did not seem surprised, and were clearly disappointed that the red paint did not do much of a job obscuring the words.

About 15 minutes later a guy in a red shirt tried it again with black paint. I ended that try the same way but even faster. It is interesting to see which words they went after. Xenu I expected, but they seemed just as upset at Lisa's name and the dollar figure for the "bridge" Hubbard sold them.

I was more together this time and got photos 12 and 13 of the black paint guy running away and inside.

I didn't realize it at the time, but the big banner you can see in 13 was to keep people inside from seeing my sign. At one point later when I was going down to a market for some water, they marched that banner between me and Sunset. Of course, my pool cue sign stick let me hold my sign higher than the silly banner.

They picked a conflicting approach, at first not blocking my sign, but pointing me out with theirs which had big arrows and said "Criminal SP". Later they gave up and just did their best to block anyone from seeing my paint-spattered sign. The long stick I was using made this hard since I could get my sign up over theirs most of the time. There were a few honks and waves out on Sunset, but very non-scns travel LRH Way.

At this point (around ten thirty) Lisa Derrick came by. I got her to take photos 14, 15 and 16. I would like to know the name of the guy with the purple tie to the left of me in 15. He is a high up I think since he was the one later screaming in the white PI car. 15a is a blowup of his face. Photo 17 is a close up of the sprayed sign. After the altercations with paint, I commented that they were raising the ante, had they given thought to what that might release? I don't think they got it at all. But I sure would not be a bit surprised to see a lot more activity with Xen/mu and spray paint. Make it neat and literary though. There is a lot to be said for stencils.

Besides walking up and down on the east side of the building, I made one or two passes around the whole building, enturbulating the RPF slaves working on the grounds. It was _really hot_. I couldn't find the extra water I had stashed in the car, so Lisa offered to go pick up some from a store three blocks to the west of Cedars on Sunset. I walked slowly after her, giving out an occasional flyer and missed her at the store because she found a nearer place. The clams exhibited some really interesting disturbed behavior over Lisa and me missing contact, trying to goad me with the (untrue) claim that I had given money to Lisa and she had taken the dollar (shortly raised to five dollars) and run away from the picket in fear since there were only two of us. Of course, the clams had their noses rubbed in their stupidity when Lisa made it back.

On the way down to the store, my clam escort dropped off. When the three guys who were carrying the large banner got about two blocks from Cedars they started complaining about how silly it was for me to be picketing and them to be counter picketing that far from the org.

This may have implications for the December Clearwater picket. It is possible that a clam who starts feeling silly is on his way out. At the Clearwater picket last March, two scientologist followed me to a diner where I bought them lunch. I heard from one of them subsequently in email indicating that he had left scientology. Be interesting to see if any of the people who counter picketed me leave. If one of you happens to be reading this, I will not hold your actions and words against you. Scientology makes basically nice people into monsters, but you can recover.

After picking up some water at a convenience store I headed back toward Cedars on Sunset. My escort clams had mostly dropped off, but three of them, the two with signs and one other, picked me up again as I left the store. The one without a sign made an attempt to grab my Xemu flyers within the first block, but failed because I had a good grip on them, in spite of also holding a water bottle. I stopped to rearrange things with my back to a wall.

It was an interesting tableau. If two of them had not been carrying the big SP signs you would have assumed a mugging was in progress. At that point a street person came along and rescued me by being a witness. He let me walk next to his shopping basket keeping the clams away from the hand holding the Xemu flyers. While he did not want to get involved in the picket, he had a definite and low opinion of scientology.

Photo 18 is a view east along Sunset from about the location where my car was parked. Photo 19 is closer to the east corner of the block. Lisa can be seen over one of the escort signs. Photo 20 is looking at the north end of the Cedars building from the Sunset side of the parking lot.

It was getting close to 11:30 by the time I got back from the water run. Elliot Abelson arrived, you can see how he is decked out in one of the photos, and he wanted to know how long I would be there. He admitted that my being out there was making him rich since he was billing RTC by the hour, but he had other things he wanted to do on a Saturday.

The clams changed the escort method, using Auditor day posters instead of the more confusing SP signs, which people could mistake for them being on my side (and Lisa did at first). You can see one next to Elliot Abelson in photo 21. They later added balloons, which you can see in phono 23 (which must have been taken by Lisa) to try to screen my sign from being seen. This too may have implication for the Clearwater picket. Photo 21 is another picture of the big banner blocking the door. There is a good view of the "chaplain" on the left side of photo 24 if someone wants to put a name on him.

Photo 24 must have been taken close to my last pass north on LRH way. On the last pass, heading for my car, one of the clams (whom Lisa identifies as an Australian) came up behind me and grabbed maybe a hundred copies of the Xemu flyer, and sprinted for the main Cedars entrance. I chased him a short distance, but running with a sign isn't very efficient.

Elliot was embarrassed about his client's behavior and felt obliged to apologize, but he didn't offer to recover the flyers stolen from me. (I should have asked.) I wonder what the obligations are of a lawyer who observes misdemeanor or possibly felony acts in public by someone working for his client?

I made it known to Elliot that they had raised the ante in the whole world wide battle, and that people would now feel much less restrained in what they did to CoS, especially if it involved flyers and spray paint. Elliot looked very unhappy, but he did not saying anything.

It was time to leave. My appointment with the Sighting folks was in the early afternoon. Ableson and about six of the clams walked with me back to my car. There were more than a few hot words exchanged about the behavior of the clams, spraying my sign, stealing Xemu flyers, attempting to get me to walk on Cedars property by suggesting we cut through the parking lot, and attempting to frame me for stealing by offering me one of the auditor day posters. I tossed my sign in the back of my car and departed.

I turned right onto LRH Way and went around Cedars. When I got back to Sunset, I noticed that most of the clams had headed inside but the chaplain and Lisa were still out there talking to two female bike cops.

While Lisa was there to counter the lies I was sure the chaplain was telling the cops about me I was not about to leave under circumstances where it would look as if I were the party running away. So, instead of a left, I made a right, and parked a little beyond where I had started and walked back. You can see the cops in photos 25 and 26. Photo 26 was the last on the roll.

I gave one of the cops a Xemu leaflet, told her about a stack being stolen from me, and got the other one to take my name so there will be a record to cite next time someone pickets Cedars. The cops asked me to stay till they could get a supervisor to come by. More scientologists wondered across the parking lot to get involved. Elliot came back, looking unhappy. He wanted his Saturday. The cops really didn't want to get involved, but there are rules if someone takes a photo of them. The supervisor drove up, inquired if I have any problems with his officers. I assured him I do not. It was getting beyond the time I wanted to leave for the Sightings taping.

I went around Cedars again. Rather than go up the west side of Cedars I went an extra block to the west and made a left turn on Sunset at a light. I stopped at the first place which looks like I could get some more water (a service station) and two PI cars, a white one and a gray/green one pulled in behind me. They parked next to each other. Damn! I am out of film. I went back and knocked on the windows to show them I know who they are, got back in my car, made a U turn on Sunset and headed back to Cedars.

Elliot was still there talking to the cops. I stopped and bitched to him and the cops about the PIs, I told him I am through with scientology for the day and going somewhere the PIs are not likely to be welcome. Will he call them off? Or do I have to ditch this batch like the last one? Elliot was embarrassed again, says they hire the best lawyers (Ha!) <fweet> but the PIs they hire leave something to be desired--I was not supposed to even be aware of them. They are just assigned to follow me till I leave the area, but he won't say what the "area" is.

I told Elliot and the cops that I have lost scientology's PIs before and can do it again. I also mention the Scarff deposition where Scarff reports being told in Moxon's office to run Cyntha Kisser off the road and kill her. Elliot says he is sure that did not happen in Moxon's office. I didn't say it, but Scarff leaves something to be desired in reliability.

The cops were not particularly sympathetic. Being followed by PIs or worse comes with the territory if I am going to picket this particular cult. Elliot insists they must keep track of me till I leave the area because I am considered to be dangerous to them. It seems that I am at cause over Miscavige again.

So. The cult has to keep track of little ol' dangerous me if I am in the area. I can work with this, can they?

I laid out how I am going to deal with this to Elliot. I will find a phone, call and see if the UFO people (Sightings, I did not tell them who was taping my UFO launches) can put up with two cars full of scientologists and private investigators. If they can't, I will come back and picket Cedars all afternoon. Elliot is not happy, but the fees he will collect for staying there all afternoon soften the blow some. (Or perhaps he worries I will buzz Cedars with a UFO pulling a big Xemu banner if I go off to fly UFOs.)

I took off, around Cedars again with two PIs cars in tow looking for a place to make a call and get more water and another camera.

(If you want to follow the next part in detail pull up a map of east Hollywood on the net. Try sticking 5500 W Harold Way, Los Angeles, CA 90028 in the Yahoo map function.)

On Sunset at Western, a few block west of Cedars, I found myself stopped for a light next to an LA cop car. Remembering that you should always exploit an unexpected opportunity when being tailed, I hook a thumb back at the white car behind me and tell the two cops that I think guys in the car tailing me are private investigators, but they might be scientologists goons. The cops are interested. The light changes, they drop back and get behind the white car. I turn right at the next street onto St Andrews, the white car turns, the cops turn, and the blinking lights go on. The white car pulled over. The green/gray car is half a block back, but I know they will pass the cops and the white PI car at high speed when they catch up and be on my tail again.

I made the next right on Harold Way, and zipped back to Western. Luck was with me, no traffic. I made a dogleg turn, left, then right into Carlton Way. Half a block down Carlton, there is a place on the left where a house was ripped out, making a driveway into a big construction site (photo 27). (I was still out of film. The photos of the getaway route were made by mysterious means.)

I pulled in, and parked out of sight behind the wall you can see to the left of the utility pole. No cars come by, but I reflect that they might have seen me pull in. Even though it is Saturday, the gate left of the trailer in photo 28 into the main construction area was open, and inside offers better concealment. I drove though and stopped completely out of sight from Carlton.

Well! I seemed to have gotten clean away. There was a gate opening onto the next street, Hollywood, a major route parallel to Sunset. Out that gate and they will never see me again. You can get a long view of the gate in photo 29 and a look through the gate onto Hollywood in photo 30.

A construction worker who was changing out one of those multi gallon soda pop canisters can open it for me. Not only was there a way out, but there was a pay phone (photo 31) right next to where I was parked.

I rooted around a bit and located the directions out to the UFO shooting site and gave them a call. One of the people I am looking for was already out there. I asked if the scientologists and PIs can tag along to the UFO taping.

The producer said for me to bring them along, she will see if they can work them in. Scientology is, after all, a UFO cult, might fit right in.

Now I have to find the lost PIs. I don't need the other gate opened, thanks! I figured the best way to find the PIs is just to go back to Cedars and have Elliot call them. I headed back toward Cedars, making a right turn on Serano Ave.--and here they come. I bet they were happy to find me and will be less than happy to find out I was looking for them.

I pulled over and stopped near Sunset, walked back and rapped on the window. The older PI driving (obviously a long retired cop) calmly rolled down the window. The clam next to him (Purple tie from the picket) gibbered at me about how siccing the cops on them did not work (heh). I told them I called and it is ok for them to come to the UFO shoot, noticed they have a cell phone and asked them to call Elliot and let him know I will not be back today. Do they want directions? At this Purple Tie nearly goes nuts, screaming "Get out of here!" but the calm and sensible PI who wants the directions prevails.

So I went back to my car, got the directions and let him copy down the route to the UFO shoot. Purple Tie was agitated, but kept quiet. I wondered whether he calmed down enough to call Elliot so he could go home. Would it have been the RPF for him if I had given them the slip? While the PI is writing down the directions, I am looking at a document on the front seat about me coming to town and what to do when this calamity comes to pass. I can't tell exactly how many pages, 5-10 would be my guess. My fingers thetans were itching to grab it, but even though they ripped paper from me I let it pass. Maybe I will ask for it in the next lawsuit.

A few blocks away I stopped to pick up some more water and another camera. Then it was off to the UFO shoot, a two hour drive out Hollywood, 101, 405, 14, and Pear Blossom Highway. I only took one picture of the white car, and that through the rear view mirror. (photo 32)

Only one interesting incident on the way out. A really large green plastic box had fallen off a truck. I swerved around it, the white car behind me made a violent swerve to get around it. Since I was not actually in much of a hurry, I turned around, went back, and shoved the box off the road. It was fairly heavy. I opened it up and found it to be packed with clothing. There was a car registration or similar owner identifying slip of paper near the top. The tailing cars had come back with me and were parked across the roadway. I was wondering what if anything I should do with this box when a sheriff patrol car pulled up. The sheriff deputy wondered what all the cars were doing, especially since the gray/green one pulled out in a hurry, back toward LA. I guess they did this so that if I got the sheriff to detain the white car they would still have someone free to tail me.

I told the deputy I had just stopped to shove the big green box off the road, and that this slip of paper might lead to who it belonged to and that 1) I was going out to conduct a UFO launch for a TV show, so watch for one after sunset, and 2) the car across the road plus the one which just tore off were PIs working for the scientology UFO cult who were following me out to the UFO launch. The deputy was quite amused, and appreciative I had moved the box off the roadway before someone hit it. About this time the owner of the box came back, so the problem of what to do with it was solved.

Now that I think about it, the PI was the only one showing in the car. I wonder what happened to Purple Tie. Had he bailed out in LA, or was he huddled down on the floor biting the carpet?

A few miles further down the road was the house where I met the Sightings video crew. It was on a private road, so the PIs parked where they could watch the road in. The crew had an interview with some well known UFO dude who had driven out from the midwest. They set up on the bank of the nearby California Aqueduct to create an interesting backdrop for the interview. (Photo 33) After an hour or two of talking to the owner of the place and some of his friends who had come over to watch, and filling up/launching a test balloon to see how bad the wind was, I went looking for the clams and PIs. No luck, they had split. I guess that being in a UFO TV tabloid was not part of their game plan.

The TV taping crew broke down the setup on the aqueduct and started looking for a good place to tape an interview with me and the UFO launch. They found what I consider to be a rather sub optimal place because of too much wind on the top of a hill. Photos 34, 35, 36, and 37 are from that site. After a bit of an interview (which was mostly about nanotech and cryonics rather than UFOs) they taped me building a UFO (stapling up crepe paper) on the back of a car, and filling a gas bag.

Of course, I thought of the perfect answer to the question they asked of "Why do you do this?" about a day later. If nobody did UFO hoaxes, they wouldn't have any material for their show! We were hoping the wind would die down after sunset, but there was way too much wind on the top of the hill to launch. But by going down the hill a ways, we were able to find a low wind pocket. There I lit up the candles in the crepe paper bag and let it go into a sky which was nearly indigo in color with a few stars starting to show. I was too busy to get photos of the launch or the glowing ball in the sky, but the Sightings tape of my creation should air sometime in January.

The crew broke the equipment down and we went back to the host's house. The director and camera guy were really happy with what they got, and had another shoot early the next day, so they and the sound guy of them left rather than stick around. They missed a delicious steak dinner, with all the trimmings, including interesting tales around the table. I am far from the only person with a number of wild stories.

After dinner I had enough materials for two more lights and there was a lot of helium left in the tank. So we made a giant two light version which you can see in photos 38 and 39. We had a fair amount of problems with it, but we got it launched about 10 pm, giving the locals two UFOs "sightings" in one evening.

I looked for them on the way out, but no PIs showed up on my radar screen. I suppose they figured I would go back to San Jose that night.

[Fade to Black]

Three days later in the early afternoon on I was in Hemet (photo 40). The state highway department is working on a new bridge over the San Jacinto river and the route through Gold Base has been detoured (Photo 41) but is still open. The place still looked like a Nazi theme park. The clams were reroofing some of the buildings in anticipation of heavy rains this winter. (Photo 42). Some progress has been made on the big complex on the west end of Gold Base, but no workers were in sight. (Photo 43) Sadly I just don't have time to picket today.

DISCONTINUITY

Late afternoon, back at Cedars, I turn down LRH Way, stop nearly in front and give the place a once over. Few clams in evidence. Bike security guard ignores me as he passes in front of my car. (Photo 44) Is this a clam? I follow. Yep, he turns in. (Photo 45) I park and walk back. "Yo dude, you missed me!" I call. He and a guy in a white shirt look at me but decide to ignore me. I take a picture of the Sea Org entrance. (Photo 46) Dilemma! Should I get out my painted up sign and make it obvious that I have returned? Or should I let Miscavige, Rinder, and Ableson find out from the net that a "dangerous" SP was completely ignored by their "security?"

Its late, I'm tired. RPF the lot of them, I'm going home.

--H. Keith Henson

P.S. Thanks to Lisa Derrick. Solo picketing has a few drawbacks, among them nobody to take pictures.

And thanks to Shelley Thomson for editing this. What you see is a major improvement over the first draft. Picketing doesn't take all that much time. Writing up and editing what happened is the big time sink.

: [redacted] upon their unfounded allegation that he was responsible for : publishing to the Internet a secret list of telephone numbers that : he had previously been ordered to keep secret. According to Special

I happened to have called [redacted] on another subject just after he got a call from Agent [redacted] Not wanting the FBI to be uninformed about the pervasively criminal cult behind this, I offered to come in and supply them some background. Agent [redacted] took me up on this, so I went in for a visit yesterday a little after 3 pm.

Interviews in FBI offices are interesting. The interview rooms are off the bullet proof lobby. (I have been in three of these places by now, b6 including the FBI Clearwater office where I reported to the head of the b7C office that a company with strong ties to the cult they once raided occupied the next floor up--generating a serious level of concern since all it would take to listen to the conversations in the FBI office was to put your ear to a floor penetration.) There is an obvious TV camera focused on you. A copy of the tape (if they made one) would be an interesting item since [redacted] stated to me that [redacted] had posted the list which started the thread on those phone numbers--a "fact" I have been unable to verify on DejaNews.

I said I thought that was very unlikely, but that if it was the case, I bet the phone numbers were all from public sources. I did not follow the thread closely, but what I remembered of it was that all the numbers posted turned out to be public. No, [redacted] said, they could prove that the numbers came from [redacted] and all they wanted to do was to verify that [redacted] would knock it off (specifically not post more of the cult's b6 phone numbers) and they would report that the case was closed to Judge b7C Infante. I told Agent [redacted] that I would let [redacted] know why they wanted to talk to him, and that while I could not imagine [redacted] violating an order, it seemed really unlikely that he would be posting material held under seal in the future (or past for that matter).

We also had a rather lengthy conversation including mention of a former neighbor of mine who just retired as an agent, and the criminal activities of the scientology cult and the companies associated with it, such as TradeNet and their "laundry balls." I left Agent [redacted] with some information on the cult vs the net, (some of the fun stuff, like the car chases by the PIs), and a few URLs.

The cult is enlisting the judicial and law enforcement agencies on their side against citizen's who are standing up to the RICO cult. I think it is essential that this attempt backfire. b6 b7C Interesting.

[redacted] once upon a time told a.r.s what numbers the cult wanted to know were on his phone records. The clams filed an OSC and there was a hearing about this.
Apparently, under Infante's Orders [redacted] couldn't even tell the people whose numbers were subject to the search of his phone records about the search, as it was under seal to protect HIS privacy.

If this is what they are dealing with, Infante might be interested to know that Whyte ALREADY dealt with the matter, and that the motion to Infante is improper.

Additionally, Once upon a time [redacted] successfully subpoena'd RTC's phone records, prompting a threatening call from [redacted] and resulting in the discovery that someone at RTC has placed the subpoena request in with the phone bill. He gave them back, or at least to a local magistrate, the next day (IIRC)

IOW... [redacted] subpoena's the Cult's phone records; [redacted] posts a DIFFERENT SET of phone records; [redacted] posts some other phone records, THEREFORE (in cult logic) [redacted] posted the subpoena'd phone records.

This is on par with the logic that [redacted] is Scamizdat.

Wonder if the agent cares. I kinda doubt it. He's been told what to do by a federal Magistrate.

Isn't lying to a federal agent a criminal offence?

Re: Scientology &[redacted]

Dear Agen[redacted]

I read a posting by[redacted]e phone numbers posted to the newsgroup alt.religion.scientology.

In RTC vs[redacted]they told Judge Brinkema that I was "in possession of stolen property" - nowhere in 5" of ex-parte filings did they mention that what I had posted to the Internet was at that time, infact, an unsealed pubic court record in the central district of California.

I have suspected that just the prior to instigation of thier raid upon my home they were in fact responsible for posting copyright stuff to the net that ended up in a .log file - from leaving "logging function on" while browsing various newsgroups - I never was fined a penny for posting of the public court record to the net, they ran me out of money to litigate, and I was unwilling to pursue the case to the appellate level due to the stress and my own poor health.

I was decieved by Scientology when I was a teenager, and spent 10 years as a virtual slave in their "sea Organization". I know how they think. If they can get away with it - then it is legal. What I wonder about is what about that report of a bomb threat to an airline that was introduced in eithe[redacted]case or[redacted]case [i forgot which] [both in Judge Whyte's Court]- which was obvious to me as being another put up job by these masters of deceit.

I am not proud to state that I was once one of them.

I am proud to state that I am willing to use that knowlege to try to save as many folks the unfortuate experience called $cientology.

Received 3/16/98

For some, the process has also been dangerous. Earlier this month, German police searched five Munich locations of the sect after the suspicious death of a cult member. In Clearwater, Florida, a young woman mysteriously died after being held at a Scientology hotel. Maybe Mr. Clinton could send down Janet Reno for an investigative weekend in her old neighborhood.

But back to Mr. Berger, who found Presidential whim expanding his duties to include stilling an actor's pain. Asked by "Meet the Press" about his briefing of Mr. Travolta last September, the National Security Adviser looked like he might eat his tie as he downplayed the meeting as a normal response to reports of religious persecution by the German government. His real goal, he said, was to get an autograph for one of his kids; we note he didn't ask for educational materials.

Mr. Berger is not the only official caught up in Scientology's web. Senator Alfonse D'Amato, about whom no movie we know of is being made, has scolded Germany at a hearing organized by the Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe. And by the time the House finally defeated a resolution criticizing Germany late last year, a flabbergasted Madeleine Albright had already endured several ludicrous discussions with Germany's equally flabbergasted foreign minister, Klaus Kinkel. A federal immigration judge added to the surreal merriment by granting asylum in November to a preposterous German woman who feared returning home because she is a Scientologist.

But if that is all weird, it is nothing compared with the mysteries surrounding the decision of the IRS to suddenly grant Scientology a tax-exempt status after years of litigation. Our Elizabeth MacDonald reported that in the secret settlement the IRS dropped its position that "auditing" fees were not deductible, a position that had been upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court. In return it got $12.5 million and a promise that the cult would drop its numerous lawsuits against the IRS and its agents. The IRS says it is investigating the leak.

Meanwhile, Scientology is litigating with everyone else in sight; why not, after having intimidated the biggest gun on the block? The IRS has lately announced its desire to turn itself into a friendly agency. How about an auditing session? Leading off with this question: Is there anyone at the IRS who seriously thinks that the unbelievable sums of money Scientology spends on lawsuits meet the agency's requirement that a charity spend its funds only on charitable purposes?

The Wall Street Journal
Review & Outlook 24 February 1998

The Secrets of the Universe

There's no particular reason for the world to worry about a smallish cult that believes invisible 75 million-year-old thetans are floating around our skulls. The search for the meaning of life in the vastness of the universe preoccupies most people at some time or another, though they usually find their way into houses of worship, therapeutic counseling or the local liquor store.

When instead they come calling on the National Security Adviser, it may be time for a reality check. Some of the weirdest conversations of the day concern Sandy Berger's meeting with John Travolta, along with Tom Cruise the chief ornaments of the Scientology movement. Scientology's founder, L. Ron Hubbard, professed to believe the evil galactic overlord Xenu shipped frozen thetans to Teegeack, better known as planet Earth, dropping them down volcanoes and pulverizing them with hydrogen bombs and setting their souls adrift. By now it seems you can't understand the universe without plumbing thetan influence in the White House, the halls of Congress, and the murky heart of the IRS.

Mr. Travolta brought the cult to our attention again thanks to an article in George magazine describing how the actor and the President of the United States enjoyed an apparently mutually beneficial meeting last spring at a volunteerism conference in Philadelphia. The actor was there to deliver a speech about Scientology's educational materials. What concerned the President, Mr. Travolta suggests, was the big screen filling up with Jack Stanton, the Clintonesque President in "Primary Colors"--the movie Mr. Travolta was just then making, having eaten himself into a properly presidential profile. It's probably unlikely that a film directed by Mike Nichols would ever treat Stanton/Clinton as anything but a charming rogue and shrewd manipulator. But the prospect of a wide screen valentine became ever more probable as Mr. Clinton took the moment to feel Mr. Travolta's pain. And told him he would try to make it go away.

Who is hurting Mr. Travolta? The German government, that's who. Like the U.S. prior to a 1993 tax settlement mysteriously upgrading the cult to the status of a tax-exempt religion, Germany considers Scientology a business run by extremists and has put the church under surveillance. Assisted by frightened escapees, the Germans make the case that Scientology exploits the weaknesses of its members for profit that at the very least should be taxed. This creates the worst kind of pain for Scientology, which reaps millions from "auditing," cleaning a "preclear" of repressed memories. With millions of years of memories, getting cleared and achieving ever higher levels of purity can be a lengthy and costly experience. It also yields intensely private information that is carefully stored in files.

$cientology FRAUD disguised as religion...

"The Cultgate News" post it on the nearest Liberty Tree

- Greece out Scientology!
- French finds a leader guilty! - manslaughter!
- Italians put them in jail!
- Germany places under surveillance!
- Spanish demand 30 years for leader (the nut on PublicEye)

As seen on Public Eye - Lisa McPherson

In 17 days, Lisa McPherson, lost 45 lb. while held in isolation in Scientology's facility in Clearwater Florida, and then died. She had previously expressed a desire to leave Scientology and go back to her family. This case has been featured on Extra, Public Eye, Court TV, front page of the New York Times and many others. This story is the most disturbing story of recent date that we have found out about. Both the Clearwater Police Dept. and the Florida State Police have recommended that CRIMINAL charges be filed. Ken Dandar represents her family in a wrongful death lawsuit. Below is a picture of her hand, showing that she was pounding the walls trying to escape. She was 5' 9" and weighed 109 pounds when she died. Scientology had the body cremated - IMO to hide the evidence.

Lisa was reportedly pounding on walls, shouting, - she was given, a.k.a. 'Mickey Finn" - Chloral Hydrate - repeatedly, to knock her out, and make her sleep.... by an organization that says it is against drugs?

Harassment of Investment Banker Robert Minton, Beacon Hill Boston.

Mr. Minton provided financial assistance to Ken Dandar to support litigation efforts in the McPherson wrongful death lawsuit, He has also provided assistance to ex-members and litigants so that they might survive Scientology's baratrous litigation tactics. He also has provided considerable help to me - and now he himself, his family, his relatives are being harassed.-----he says they even followed his 10 & 12 year old daughters ..(this is a "church"?)

RELEASE ODHRAN FORTUNE

24 year old, Oshran Fortune, from Gorey Co., Wexford, Ireland was in the cult until Dec 1996 when he came home. He had lost so much weight that his brother didn't recognize him at the airport and for some reason Ohdran did not know his brother anymore either, and they walked past each other..... when they finally found each other, and went home, his mother broke into tears when she saw his bones protruding, he seemed in a trance, - this was not the strapping young man they remembered. Over next 5 months he got a job, and began to gain weight, and enjoy life, family and friends - then some Scientologists began snooping around, making false allegations to the police, hanging around....Then on Sunday, June 1st Odhran went to his new job at a hotel as normal, later he told his workmates he was going on a break, and would be back in a few minutes. He never returned. He was taken out of Ireland by night, by boat, by the Scientologists. - the rest of this story is available on the website, the picture is of a 1500 man demonstration to seek the release of this Irishman.

THEY DON'T WANT HIM TO END UP LIKE LISA

21 November 1997 episode of Fox's Millenium series skewers Scientology - in a parody about a cult called Selfosophy...

Hollywood will never be the same again after this courageous episode aired in spite of threats from Scientology's Lawyer Elliot Abelson.. FLASH - Fox's "The Simpsons" diss $cientology also!

IRS/Scientology AGREEMENT REVEALED or is fraud legal in America??

Near the end of 1997, this 51 page document was provided to the Wall Street Journal and was placed on the net. A complete copy of this document which is what Scientology uses to claim itself a Religion is on the site. While all the legal niceties have yet to be determined, apparently Scientology has agreed to enforce IRS regulations upon its own members, and must eject any member who doesn't agree or follow IRS regulations. Further, Scientology schools are tax free - wouldn't other REAL churches like this? Salt Lake Tribune headline said: Scientology paid 12.5 million for tax exempt status! - an estimated 1% of a potential tax liability of over 1 billion dollars - that's money out of the pocket of each person in the United States of America - where the mere existence of something called Scientology with IRS sanctioned 'charitable status' proves that fraud is legal in America.

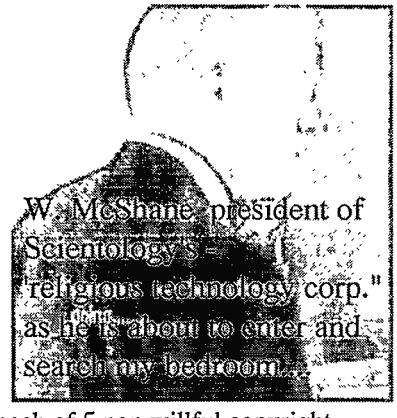
The RAIDS conducted by SCIENTOLOGISTS on Citizens homes

To the right Warren McShane, Scientologist, president of "Religious Technology Corporation" [$cientology] is about to enter my bedroom to search.....



On first Saturday in August at 9:30 AM 1995 my home was raided and searched, my computer was and all my disk records were taken to one of the cult's lawfirms. I had Earl Cooley, one of their lawyers, on the board of Boston University, sitting on my couch for a while. Two US Marshals, one stood in the hallway, another sat with his hands behind his head on my couch while members of this cult called Scientology searched my home from top to bottom after telling USDJ Brinkema that I was "in possession of stolen property" - NEVER did they mention, in 5" of filings that what I had was an unsealed public court record from the Central District of California - that had 61 pages as an exhibit that happened to be considered their BIG SECRET - which was the secret story of Xenu and the routines for excorsing 'Body thetans' - evil spirits - The raid was later was VACATED, [annulled] however not having even ones phone book makes it very difficult to defend oneself... They sued for Trade secret missappropiation and copyright infringment- we won all the 'tradesecret charges (11)- and I was fined the the minimum $500 for each of 5 non willful copyright counts, 2 of which were Windows .tmp files, 3 were from having my logging function on (a .log) file, onto my home computer, I made while reading the scientology newsgroup on the net called alt.religion.scientology, For this they spent 1.7 million trying to bankrupt me with litigation - and I was fined $2,500 and will shortly have to pay 'court costs' - for deposition.copies, hearing transcripts and the like. All this lawsuit was about was the supression of information....All I had been engaged in was the placing of unsealed public court records onto the internet, much like nailing a poster to a Liberty Tree in the 1760's - in order to protect the public from fraud. Scientology was awarded ZERO attorney fees. No damages. Previous raids, include Dennis Erlich, and: the next week they raided the home office of Larry Wollersheim in Boulder Colorado, and Bob Penny then a director for FACTNet - Fight Against Coercive tactics network - to make it impossible for us to defend ourselves, to prevent us from telling you the truth. Last year they offered the three of us 12 million dollars to go away and be silent - We said no. We chose to continue to do everything in our power to try to inform the public about their true nature.. The Litigation against FACTNet, Larry Wollersheim and Bob Penny, as well as Dennis Erlich, Grady Ward and Keith Henson continues. Anyone with the financial resources, or litigation experience to assist in any way please call 703-241-1498. I will direct you to those with the most urgent needs: Sincerely, Arnie Lerma - Ex-Staff member for 10 years of this cult - and my sincere thanks to Robert Minton - without whom I would not be here..and thats one reason Scientology is after him - to silence me and keep me from telling you the truth about what some European countries consider a threat to democracy...

"BRAINWASHING IN SCIENTOLOGY's REHABILITATION PROJECT FORCE (RPF)"

by Stephen A. Kent, Ph.D. Professor--Department of Sociology University of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta CANADA T6G 2H4 phone--(403)492-2204

Excerpts picked by Ex-Member Arnie Lerma:

"Other escape stories indicate that RPF victims were, essentially, imprisoned in situations where they had not given consent (much less informed consent) for their captors to hold them. Vicki Azanaran, for example, "and two other victims escaped from Happy Valley onto the Sobo[b]a Indian Reservation where they were pursued on motorcycles by guards of Happy Valley. Vicki and the other victims were rescued by residents of the reservation who picked them up in a pick-up truck and spirited them to a motel in the City of Hemet" (Aznaran and Aznaran, 1988: 12)."

Tonya Burden swore, "under pains and penalties of perjury" (Burden, 1980: 12) that she "personally observed a person chained to pipes in the boiler room in the Fort Harrison building for a period of weeks" (Burden, 1980: 10).

"Former member Pat escaped by using several elaborate ruses. First, she concocted a story that convinced guards to allow her to use the telephone. Then she called a non-Scientology friend and gave explicit instructions about where her friend should be the next night (Kent Interview with Pat, 1997b: 3). The next night, she concocted a second story that managed to get her near to the street where her friend was waiting. Manipulating the guard who was with her, Pat managed to get enough distance from him so that she got inside the car: slammed the door shut and said, 'Go!.' [My friend] hit the door locks and stepped on the gas.... It was an awful, awful time, and there I was in this car not knowing where I was going, forty cents in my purse.... But I couldn't be there anymore; I couldn't be there another minute.

I couldn't handle another second of the degradation"

(Kent Interview with Pat, 1997b: 4).

Please call Arnie Lerma 703 241 1498 if you'd like a live interview or a referral to a truth loving enthusiast in your area, and print out copies from the website and send them to your congressmen, urge others to do so and ask "Is this America?" http://www.lermanet.com

Psssst.... Hey buddy, wanna buy a bridge?

Experience the transitory delusion of $cientology auditing "technology".

* Make your conscience disappear!

* Have all your secrets recorded in case we need them...

* Lose all touch with reality, and become lost in the endless world of Hubbardian Cosmology!

* Discover that you are infested with spirits of dead space aliens!

* Spend years removing them!

* Sell everything you own, because you will become convinced that the "next" secret level will make it all make sense...

* Have your sense of humanity expertly removed by our 'standard tech-trained' brainwashers.

* Lose all inhibitions for evil or despicable conduct - as you will shortly feel that any act is justifiable in the name of "Ron".

And rest easy, with the calm self assurance that your "donations"are supporting a platoon of lawyers ....needed to ensure that the FRAUD of $cientology continues...

They claim to have spent 1.7 million, in RTC vs. Lerma, and offerred a large pile of money for a settlement of various cases with a gag order but I'm still talking

What Judges say about Scientology - (its hard to get sued for quoting Judicial Opinion) - (even about a hypnotist-sci-fi-writer-turned-con-man named Hubbard) - makes a great Public Service Announcement

"The government is satisfied that Scientology is socially harmful. It alienates members of families from each other and attributes squalid and disgraceful motives to all who oppose it; its authoritarian principles and practice are a potential menace to the personality and well being of those so deluded as to become followers"." --Kenneth Robinson, British Minister of Health

"Scientology is evil; its techniques are evil; its practice is a serious threat to the community, medically, morally, and socially; and its adherents are sadly deluded and often mentally ill... (Scientology is) the world's largest organization of unqualified persons engaged in the practice of dangerous techniques which masquerade as mental therapy." --Justice Anderson, Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia

"Scientology is both immoral and socially obnoxious...It is corrupt sinister and dangerous. It is corrupt because it is based on lies and deceit and has its real objective money and power for Mr. Hubbard... It is sinister because it indulges in infamous practices both to its adherents who do not toe the line unquestionably and to those who criticize it or oppose it. It is dangerous because it is out to capture people and to indoctrinate and brainwash them so they become the unquestioning captives and tools of the cult, withdrawn from ordinary thought, living, and relationships with others."--Justice Latey, ruling in the High Court of London

"[The court record is] replete with evidence [that Scientology] is nothing in reality but a vast enterprise to extract the maximum amount of money from its adepts by pseudo scientific theories... and to exercise a kind of blackmail against persons who do not wish to continue with their sect.... The organization clearly is schizophrenic and paranoid, and this bizarre combination seems to be a reflection of its founder, L.Ron Hubbard." --Judge Breckenridge, Los Angeles Superior Court

"In addition to violating and abusing its own members' civil rights, the organization over the years with its 'fair game' doctrine has harassed and abused those persons not in the church whom it perceives as enemies." -Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Paul Breckenridge, June 1984, in the Gerry Armstrong case

"When a person is subjected to coercive persuasion [as in Scientology] without his knowledge or consent ...[he may] develop serious and sometimes irreversible physical and psychiatric disorders, up to and including schizophrenia, self-mutilation, and suicide." --California Supreme Court, United States v. Lee [455 U.S. 252,257,258 (1982)*/

"Scientologists believe that most human problems can be traced to lingering spirits of an extraterrestrial people massacred by their ruler, Xenu, over 75 million years ago. These spirits attach themselves by "clusters" to individuals in the contemporary world, causing spiritual harm and negatively influencing the lives of their hosts " [p2, lines 11-16] USDJ Judge Leonie Brinkema 4 Oct 96 Memorandum Opinion, RTC vs Lerma [RTC even tried to seal Judge Brinkema's Opinion - but it's just another chapter in Scientology's constant effort to destroy, shred and supress information]

In Spain, prosecutor demanded 30 years for Heber Jentszch, President of the International Association of Scientologists, IAS, 1995 and who is out on 1 million dollars bail for among other things, inducement to suicide- the fellow who appeared ranting about psychiatrists on Public Eye a few months ago

"...capable of such danger that the public interest demands that people should know what is going on" LORD DENNING

"It is an organization with medical, social and ethical practices that are dangerous and harmful," Judge Constandia Angelaki wrote in her [12/96] ruling [Greece]"It claims to act freely so as to draw members who subsequently undergo ... brainwashing by dictated ways of thinking that limit reaction capabilities."

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I strongly feel that it is my civic duty to bring to the attention of the competent authorities of the United States and other concerned countries a matter of severe abuses and destructive activities by the "Church" of Scientology. I am at their disposition for more information on all of this.

I was shocked at the use of top celebrities by Scientology to try and give an impression of it which, per my own experiences, is a false impression. When I compare the ridiculous charges made by Scientology against the German government with what I know Scientology has been doing itself I find a very strong similarity indeed. I have decided to speak out about this publicly.

I was, until earlier this year, one of Scientology's "celebrities". I am a professional artist, having a 25 year career internationally with over 99% sales. I was in Scientology for 23 years, did very many courses, and reached the highest available level of "New O.T.8." My knowledge of the inner workings of Scientology is extensive. I have information about many instances of abuses of current and former Scientology members and of lies Scientology has generated about itself to give a wrong public impression.

Among the many things I can relate, here are just a few from recent times;

1. From 1991 to 1996 I was the subject of viscious machinations by several "churches" of Scientology to destroy my name and repute, and to involve me in expensive "justice handlings" within the organization. Apart from the horrific emotional stress over five years it cost me well over $120,000 to clear my name of accusations of things I had never done in the first place! I have full documentation of all these multiple abuses.

2. In June of 1996 I was held against my will in the Scientology, Clearwater, Florida facility and "ordered" to pay $7,400 before they would let me out of the room. I did not want to pay for what the two staff members insisted I must have, and what ensued was a verbal battle, emotional trauma and an attempt at financial extortion. After a time I managed to escape the physical detention, but the two "Sea Org" members chased me right out into the streets of Clearwater to try to recapture me. I did not pay the money. This incident is on file with the Clearwater Police Department.

3. In June of 1991 I was forced to pay, despite vehement protestations, the sum of $7,400 to Scientology on the "Freewinds" ship. The ruse used on that Wednesday was that if I did not pay then they would withhold my passport from me until I did pay. They did so and I had to pay the money to get it back.

4. At the end of 1996 I was subjected to horrible kind of "religious de-programming" in the Scientology "Fort Harrison Hotel". This was done, using an "E-Meter", by a top official of the "Religious Technology Centre" (RTC) namely [redacted] I was interrogated for several hours on the most intimate personal religious beliefs (Christian) and his actions were designed, clearly, to get me to give up my Christian religious beliefs in exchange for RTC's "eligibility authorization" to read a confidentila publication about a defective "OT level" I had previously completed (OT 7).

b7C

His utter contempt for my religious beliefs were all too apparent. He felt that all other religions apart from Scientology should be destroyed and probably would be in time by Scientology, by using RTC's programmes of "eligibilities" as the means of forcing people to give up other faiths. I also had to undergo many hours of "false data removal"...to try to "get me to realize" that the ONLY valid religion was Scientology. It did not work. My considered, personal opinion is that Scientology is definitely NOT A RELIGION.

These are a few of many things I can testify to.

I declare, under penalty of perjury under California laws that the abo[redacted] is true and correct per my own personal experiences.

"There Was A Heaven . . . The Heaven Of The Assassins"

-- L. Ron Hubbard

Left The Satanic, "Crossed-Out Cross" of Satanist Aleister Crowley, the self proclaimed "Beast 666."

Right The Cross[1] of the Church of Scientology[1].

THE CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY LIES ABOUT WHAT IT TEACHES REGARDING CHRIST.

At the beginning, public relations, levels of the Church of Scientology[1], the Church lies and tells people that they can practice their religion of choice and Scientology at the same time. In the official introductory book What is Scientology? (© 1992), the Church states:

> "In Scientology there is no attempt to change a person's beliefs or to persuade him away from any religion to which he already belongs."

Id., at 544. The Church goes on to state:

> "Scientology is all-denominational in that it opens its membership to people of all faiths." . . . Membership in Scientology does not mean that there is any necessity to leave your current church, synagogue, temple or mosque.

Id. The Church claims that it is compatible with other religions:

> "Scientology respects all religions. Scientology does not conflict with other religions or other religious practices"

Id., at 544-45. Most importantly for Christians, the Church of Scientology lies and tells people that it respects Christian beliefs:

> "Scientologists hold the Bible as a holy work and have no argument with the Christian belief that Jesus Christ was the Savior of Mankind and the Son of God."

Id., at 545.

"The man on the cross. There was no Christ."
-- L. Ron Hubbard, Class 8 Course, Lecture 10, audiotape.

IN TRUTH, SCIENTOLOGY TEACHES THAT "THERE WAS NO CHRIST."

However, in its secret scriptures, the Church of Scientology teaches that there was no Christ, and that the historical record of Christ is the result of an evil memory "implant" designed to control people.

In his secret Class 8 Auditor's (i.e., ministerial) class, L. Ron, Hubbard, Founder of the Church of Scientology, teaches his ministerial students:

> "Somebody somewhere on this planet, back about 600 BC found some pieces of R6, and I don't know how they found it, either by watching madman or something. But since that time they have used it and it became what is known as Christianity. The man on the cross. There was no Christ. But the man on the cross is shown as Everyman."

See L. Ron Hubbard, Class 8 Course, Lecture 10, audiotape. In his "Heaven" bulletin of 11 May 1963, Mr. Hubbard dismissed the concerns about his disparagement of other religions:

> "For a long while, some people have been cross with me for my lack of co-operation in believing in a Christian Heaven, God and Christ. I have never said I didn't disbelieve in a Big Thetan but there was certainly something very corny about Heaven et al. Now I have to apologize. There was a Heaven. Not too unlike, in cruel betrayal, the heaven of the Assassins in the 12th Century who, like everyone else, dramatized the whole track implants - if a bit more so. The symbol of the crucified Christ is very apt indeed. It's the symbol of a thetan betrayed."

Mr. Hubbard described the terrain of Heaven:

> "The gates of the first series are well done, well built. An avenue of statues of saints leads up to them. The gate pillars are surmounted by marble angels. The entering grounds are very well kept, laid out like Bush Gardens in Pasadena, so often seen in the movies. Aside from the implant boxes which lie across from eacl other on the walk there are other noises and sounds as though the saints are defending and berating."

You can hear Mr. Hubbard speak, in his own words, about Christ at the following World Wide Web Internet sites:

This flyer is provided free of charge by KoXIC (rhymes with "toxic"). One copy free per person. Additional copies $10.00 each, cash in advance. Taking more than one copy is theft and will be prosecuted. Please feel free to copy and distribute this flyer.

Mr. Hubbard concluded:

"Further, we have our hands on an appalling bit of technology where the world is concerned. With rapidity and a Meter it can be shown that Heaven is a false dream and that the old religion was based on very painful lie, cynical betrayal."

[redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent. Thereafter, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

[redacted] the subject of the above mentioned Contempt of Court case, is a defendant in a federal civil lawsuit filed by the RTC, regarding copyright infringement matters. As part of that civil suit, in March 1997, [redacted] issued a subpoena to Pacific Bell, requiring it to produce RTC's telephone records for the period January 1, 1995 - March 19, 1997. A copy of the subpoena was not served on RTC as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. By the time RTC discovered the existence of the subpoena, [redacted] already received the telephone records from Pacific Bell. b6 b7C

When RTC learned, after the fact, that the records had already been given to [redacted] RTC obtained an ex-parte order from Magistrate Judge Infante, ordering [redacted] to make no use whatever of the records and to return to the court all copies of the records delivered to [redacted] by Pacific bell. In response to that order, [redacted] swore under penalty of perjury, that he had delivered all copies of the phone records to the court and retained no copies or notes of the information contained in the phone records. [redacted] also swore under penalty of perjury that he had published no telephone numbers contained in the records to any public place. b6 b7C

On or about December 12, 1997, RTC learned that a Norwegian named [redacted] a friend of [redacted] had posted on the Internet twice, telephone numbers that he claimed were mainly unlisted Church of Scientology's telephone numbers. [redacted] also challenged the "OSA", Office of Special Affairs, an office within the Church of Scientology, to determine the origin of the phone records. b6 b7C

Re: Conversation April 22, 1998 with Special Agent [redacted]

Dear Agen [redacted]

This is to summarize our conversation we had outside the Federal courthouse in San Jose on April 22, 1998 at about 4:00 p.m. in the presence of a third party, [redacted] esq., an attorney with Morrison & Foerster, LLP, Palo Alto, California.

You first said that you wanted to give me information and that you wanted to talk to me in your office. I asked if I were the target of an investigation, but you said that I was not. I said that I would be glad to be of assistance, but that you could give me information right there on the street rather than somewhere else. I had a six-hour drive back to Arcata, California and I needed to begin right away.

You then said that you had replaced Special Agen [redacted] on "the investigation" and that you wanted to ask me questions. I then pointed out the contradiction with your earlier unqualified statement that you simply wanted to give me information.

I then commented that I felt you, as [redacted] before you, were obviously lying to me in order to try to interrogate me without the assistance of counsel. You then said that I had already agreed with [redacted] to me with him in Arcata. I denied agreeing to such a request, but was only considering it.

Because of the frank dishonesty of you and Special Agent [redacted] and your attempt to "ambush" interview me outside the courthouse, I will not be meeting with you or any other Special Agent at any time concerning any allegations of the criminal cult of scientology b6 b7C

Otherwise, if you have questions you would like me to comment on, please submit them in writing and I will consider if any response is warranted.

Good luck with your investigation and may you have a rewarding career with the Bureau. I hope that you can achieve results in your work without further cheapening the image of the Bureau, its Director and the U.S. Attorney's office by resorting to falsehoods and misrepresentations directed toward an unrepresented individual.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Ashley,

I have no idea why your agency is harassing me other than the report of [redacted] who interviewed SA [redacted] several weeks ago and informed me that a request by Chief Magistrate Judge Edward A. Infante based upon a false complaint by the criminal cult of scientology.

As I said in my letter of March 9, 1998 I will fully cooperated with any investigation of the Bureau. However I am unwilling to personally meet with representatives of your agency who have proven themselves to misrepresent themselves to me.

If in the unlikely event SA [redacted] was truthful that he just wanted to "give me information," then he can certainly put that information in writing and send it to me. And as I said in my letter to him dated April 24, 1998, any questions you would like to put to me, you can also put them in writing for my fullest consideration.

Considering the proven criminal background of the so-called Church of Scientology and the admitted law-breaking by their agents in, for example, lying to my wife's bank to obtain account information or using the US Mails to complete the defrauding of my elderly mother of photographs of my children, you have your "investigation" backwards.

14. Similarly, nearly one year prior to the institution of this case, a licensed private investigator acting on behalf of RTC made telephone inquiries of Austin Code Works, which apparently at one time distributed a software product [redacted] had developed. RTC's investigation has not turned up any information which suggests that the investigator made representations about [redacted] former employment with Apple Computer. The same investigator also interviewed [redacted] mother and obtained some recent photos, which the investigator then returned to her. The investigator was taken off the case, and has never worked on it since. b6 b7C

15. [redacted] also alleges an incident of someone obtaining some of his telephone records from Pacific Bell. RTC has no knowledge of and had no direct or indirect involvement with an apparent effort by someone to access [redacted] telephone records at Pacific Bell on August 7, 1995. RTC did not authorize, direct, or ratify any such action. It has no information that any such action was taken. It has made specific inquiries of the private investigators employed by RTC's counsel at the time, who have stated that they did not engage in such acts, and have no knowledge of them whatsoever. b6 b7C

16. The only incident alleged by [redacted] to have occurred since the inception of this lawsuit, besides the forged [redacted] e-mails, was in September, 1996. [redacted] claims that at that time, someone obtained bank records regarding an account of his wife. My investigation of this allegation revealed that a private investigator retained by RTC's counsel hired another investigator to assist in the investigation. The second investigator apparently obtained the account information and recent activity in the bank account of [redacted] wife at Humboldt Bank. RTC's counsel and I first learned of the investigator's action after it occurred when [redacted] brought it up in a posting to the Internet. We had never requested such information from any investigator, nor did we authorize, direct or ratify the actions of any investigator in b6 b7C obtaining such information. When we learned that the investigator hired by counsel had indirectly obtained such information, after [redacted] claim that this had occurred, we immediately directed that he be terminated from participation in any investigation of [redacted]

Police chief condemns ex-cop's eavesdropping

Los Angeles Police Chief Daryl Gates, April 23, strongly condemned the purported actions of an LAPD officer, who allegedly authorized a fired police sergeant to conduct "electronic eavesdropping" in an investigation of the Church of Scientology.

Chief Gates, in a public announcement, said the alleged improper act of Phillip Rodriguez, a Northeast Area officer, was to sign a letter believed to have been drafted by the one-time Hollywood Sgt. Eugene M. Ingram, now a private investigator, authorizing Ingram to engage in eavesdropping.

Los Angeles Police Department spokesman Commander William Booth said the LAPD's internal affairs division has been ordered to make a thorough investigation of the incident.

Ingram was discharged effective Oct. 31, 1980, the day he was charged with some 12 counts of wrongdoing involving narcotics suspects. An LAPD board of rights found Ingram guilty of six of the counts and recommended his dismissal in January of 1981, but the discharge was effective on the date he was relieved from duty.

Meanwhile, a statement by the Scientologists places Ingram on the side of the church, in contrast to LAPD's belief that he was investigating the church.

In a written release, the church claimed that videotapes purportedly authorized by Rodriguez and made by Ingram were part of a church "ating" operation and revealed "a bizarre, multigovernment-agency ... plot designed to take over the control, property and assets" of the church.

The tapes were made of meetings in Griffith Park to document an FBI counterintelligence program against the church, the release stated.

On the subject of the letter and Rodriguez's purported involvement, Gates said, "It has come to my attention that a member of the LAPD, very foolishly, without proper authorization and contrary to the policy of this department, signed a letter to Eugene M. Ingram, believed to have been drafted by Ingram himself."

The letter purports "to authorize Ingr[illegible] to [illegible]gage in [illegible]tronic eave[illegible]opp[illegible]" said Ga[illegible] "The lette[illegible]lon[illegible]th all the [illegible]ported auth[illegible]ation[illegible]s invalid a[illegible] not a correspondence from the Los Angeles Police Department.

"The Los Angeles Police Department has not cooperated with Gene Ingram — it will be a cold day in hell when we do," Gates continued.

"I have directed an official letter to Ingram informing him that the letter signed by Officer Phillip Rodriguez dated Nov. 7, 1984 and all other letters of purported authorizations directed to him and or signed by any member of the LAPD are invalid and unauthorized," Gates said.

Police looking for church's private eye

■ Officers suspect an investigator for the Church of Scientology of impersonating a Hillsborough detective to get information.

By THOMAS C. TOBIN
Times Staff Writer

A private investigator who does work on behalf of the Church of Scientology is being sought by Tampa police in a case that features a bizarre claim about the Pasco County sheriff.

The investigator, a former Los Angeles police officer named Eugene Martin Ingram, is accused of impersonating a Hillsborough County sheriff's detective. Tampa police say Ingram was quizzing a woman about an alleged prostitution ring that he said involved Pasco County Sheriff Lee Cannon.

Police also have investigated Matt Bratschi, a reporter for the church publication Freedom magazine. Bratschi, who has not been charged, is believed by police to have accompanied Ingram on the interview.

The woman, who lives in Pasco County, contacted authorities and told them she does not know Cannon and knows nothing about a prostitution ring.

"I was a little amazed," Cannon said Friday of the church's inquiry. "The whole thing is a mystery to me."

He said he has never had any contact with the Church of Scientology, does not know the woman and is not connected to any prostitution ring. Nor is his department involved in any large-scale prostitution investigation, he said.

The woman, whose name is withheld by the Times to protect her privacy, declined to comment Friday.

Former members and critics of the church say Ingram has been seen around the country in recent years, harassing them in connection with their anti-Scientology activities, questioning their neighbors and using other intimidation tactics.

Ingram did not return messages to his Los Angeles business office Friday. Bratschi could not be reached for comment.

Ingram's Los Angeles lawyer, Elliot Abelson, said Friday that he had no information on the charge but added that it "sounds ridiculous." He said Ingram works for several law firms, some of which represent the Church of Scientology.

Ingram "is one of the finest investigators I've ever seen," said Abelson, who also has represented Scientology and has known Ingram for 20 years. "He's just ordinary folk as far as I'm concerned. I don't think he has intimidated anyone who doesn't want to be intimidated."

Kurt Weiland, a top Scientology official in Los Angeles, said Ingram and Bratschi were working on two investigations for Freedom magazine last year.

One was based on a tip about sexual activities involving Pasco County officials, he said. The other, he said, was an investigation of the St. Petersburg Times. For years, the Church of Scientology has been critical of the coverage it has received from the Times.

The church's spiritual headquarters are in Clearwater.

At some point, Weiland said,

Church's secrets violated, jury says

Man's Internet postings defied copyright

BY HOWARD MINTZ
Mercury News Staff Writer

A Palo Alto engineer will pay a stiff price for thumbing his nose at the Church of Scientology by publishing its teachings on the Internet.

After less than a day of deliberations, a San Jose federal jury this week ordered Keith Henson to pay $75,000 to the Religious Technology Center, a wing of the Scientology organization, for deliberately violating copyright laws. The verdict came after a four-day trial before U.S. District Judge Ronald Whyte.

Henson may face further penalties for putting published works online.

Henson, who has warned that the case could have a chilling effect on free speech on the Internet, may face further penalties for putting the church's published works online. Under federal copyright laws, Henson can be ordered to pay the technology center's legal fees and costs, which could add thousands of dollars to the judgment.

The church, which has aggressively litigated in courts around the country to keep its secret teachings off the Web, called the jury's verdict a "strong message to those who think laws and property rights are suspended on the Internet."

"The actions of people like Henson give the Internet a bad name," said Helena Kobrin, counsel for the Los Angeles-based church. "Freedom of speech does not mean freedom to break the law or to injure others."

The Religious Technology Center's lawsuit against Henson stems from his decision two years ago to publish the church's teachings on the Internet. Specifically, Henson posted excerpts from a church manual called "Nots 34," dealing with

Scientology's approach to medical treatments.

Henson has always maintained that he posted the material to alert the public to church positions that amounted to "medical and legal abuses."

Henson and other church critics posted transcripts of the trial on various Web sites the past week to highlight what was transpiring in Whyte's courtroom. Those postings might land Henson in further hot water with the judge: The Internet postings include a substantial portion of Henson's testimony that took place in closed session because it involved discussion of the secret church documents.

Whyte ordered the transcripts sealed, but they have wound up on the Web. Henson said the material was placed online inadvertently, and he apologized for the mistake. But church officials may seek further sanctions.

The trial, meanwhile, focused solely on the amount of damages Henson would be forced to pay. The judge previously held that Henson was liable for copyright infringement, exposing him to a maximum $100,000 penalty. In closing arguments Tuesday, Henson's lawyer asked the jury to award $500.

Despite the jury's verdict, Henson remained unapologetic Wednesday.

"It is amazing the trouble you can get into for trying to warn the public about health hazards," Henson said. "This (trial) was about saying it's proper to use copyright (laws) to prevent public discussion of criminal activity. This was just a loss of a battle in a larger war."

The Henson case is one of three copyright lawsuits the church has filed in the San Jose federal courts.

In 1996, Netcom On-line Communications Services settled out of court with the church in a case watched closely by the high-tech community because it raised questions about whether online providers can be held responsible for what is published on the Internet.

> "The actions of people like Henson give the Internet a bad name."
> — Helena Kobrin, counsel for the church

The church is apparently close to settling a third case against an Arcata software developer, Grady Ward, who was accused of copyright violations for publishing church materials on the Web. Whyte in 1996 found that Ward had infringed on church's copyrighted materials.

Subject: [redacted] settles RTC v [redacted] lawsuit
From: [redacted]
Date: 1998/05/13
Message-ID: [redacted] b6 b7C
Newsgroups: alt.religion.scientology,misc.legal [More Headers]

On the heels of the shocking [redacted] verdict -- awarding $75,000.00 for posting two pages of something that had been posted many times before, not secretly, but in his own name, something that he didn't try to make a cent on -- [redacted] settled his lawsuit with scientology.

The terms were agreed upon in the court of District Judge Fogel and will be gone into in detail after they have been reduced to writing in the next 14 days as ordered by the Judge.

Important concepts in the settlement included no erosion of the right of [redacted] to "fair use" material and other rights associated with the First Amendment and no admission of wrong-doing by either party.

As part of the settlement, [redacted] will agree to dismiss his RICO counterclaim. Scientology will dismiss all three of their lawsuits against [redacted] in the suit alleging copyright infringement, their adversary action in [redacted] bankruptcy, and their thrid suit moving to withdraw the bankkuptcy reference to district court. b6 b7C

While [redacted] will pay scientology money as part of the settlement, he fully agreed with the final settlement terms as composed in front of Judge Fogel and worked on by both parties and the Judge for several hours.

While neither party completely pleased by the settlement -- [redacted] for example refused to shake [redacted] offered hand after the agreement -- both sides feel more productive things can be done with their time right now than continue litigating in several courts for years to come. b6 b7C

(For those interested in such things, District Judge Fogel was confirmed to the bench a month ago to take the place of District Judge Aguilar who left his lifetime appointment to the bench under a cloud.)

NOTICE OF FINAL JUDGMENT

POST-TRIAL NOTICE

NO MOTION CUT-OFF

TO PLAINTIFF AND HIS COUNSEL OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on March 7, 1994, Church of Scientology of California's petition for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court in the above-entitled matter was denied. On March 20, 1992, after the judgment herein had been vacated by the United States Supreme Court, the California Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division Seven, issued an opinion and order, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. That order was then modified by the Court of Appeal on April 20, 1992. A copy of the modification is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Accordingly, the final judgment in this action, as articulated in Exhibits A and B, is for the amount of $500,000 in compensatory damages and $2,000,000 in punitive damages, together with interest thereon calculated at the statutory rate from March 20, 1992.

Dated: March 11, 1994

This case is on remand from the United States Supreme Court to reconsider the punitive damage award modified and approved in our earlier opinion ([redacted] v. Church of Scientology (1989) 212 Cal.App.3d 872, rev. den. Oct. 26, 1989, cert. grtd., vac. and remd. (1991) 111 S.Ct. 1298,) in the light of the high court's decision in Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. [redacted] (1991) 111 S.Ct. 1032. To facilitate review of this question, we ordered supplemental briefing and heard oral argument from the parties. Upon reconsideration, we conclude the California procedures for determining punitive damage awards pass constitutional muster under [redacted] We further conclude, as we did in our prior opinion, the jury acted appropriately in imposing a punitive damage award in this case but the amount it awarded is excessive under the standards established by California law. Consequently, we affirm the judgment, subject to a remittitur.1/

I. THE PROCEEDINGS THUS FAR

The original appeal followed a jury award of $30 million in compensatory and punitive damages to

1/ Our prior opinion dealt exhaustively with the tort, freedom of religion, evidentiary and procedural issues appellant raised in its appeal. Our rationale for and disposition of those issues remain the same. We see no virtue in repeating that discussion in this opinion. Accordingly, except as we may touch some of these topics tangentially in the course of addressing the question of the punitive damages award and its constitutionality, as to all these issues the original opinion remains and is incorporated intact and unaltered in this decision. The punitive damages section and the disposition paragraph of the original opinion, however, are replaced in their entirety by this opinion.

[redacted], a former member of the Church of Scientology (Scientology). The complaint alleged Scientology intentionally and negligently inflicted severe emotional injury on [redacted] through certain practices, including "auditing," "disconnect," and "fair game." Since the trial court granted summary adjudication that Scientology is a religion and "auditing" is a religious practice, the trial proceeded under the assumption they were. In our original opinion we concluded there was substantial evidence to support a finding Scientology had committed the tort of intentional infliction of emotional injury against [redacted] We also found sufficient evidence the "auditing" and other practices in this case were conducted in a coercive environment. Thus, none of them qualified as "voluntary religious practices" entitled to constitutional protection under the First Amendment religious freedom guarantees. At the same time, we concluded both the compensatory and punitive damages the jury awarded in this case were excessive. Consequently, we reduced the compensatory damages to $500,000 and the punitive damage award to $2 million.

b7C

The California Supreme Court denied the petitions for review unanimously. (Oct. 26, 1989.) The United States Supreme Court, however, granted certiori on the punitive damages issue and held this case along with ten others (see fn. 4, infra) awaiting its disposition of the lead case on the constitutionality of punitive damages--Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. [redacted] supra, 111 S.Ct. 1032. After deciding

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

[redacted], the Supreme Court remanded all 11 punitive damage cases it was holding for the lower courts to review in light of [redacted]. Since the [redacted] opinion was limited solely to the issue of the constitutionality of punitive damage awards, our reconsideration of our prior decision likewise is confined to that issue.2/ We first review the procedures and standards

---

2/ After this court filed its original opinion in the instant case the United States Supreme Court decided Employment Div. Dept. of Human Res. of Oregon v. [redacted] (1990) 110 S.Ct. 1595. In this decision, the high court altered the constitutional standard for judging whether a state law which impinges on a citizen's free exercise of religion violates the First Amendment. No longer must there be a compelling interest in applying the state law to those whose religion prohibits compliance. After [redacted] it is sufficient the law is a valid, neutral law of general applicability and not aimed at a specific religion or at religion in general. "To make an individual's obligation to obey such a law contingent upon the law's coincidence with his religious beliefs, except where the State's interest is 'compelling'--permitting him, by virtue of his beliefs, 'to become a law unto himself,' (citation omitted)--contradicts both constitutional tradition and common sense." (Id. at p. 1603.)

b7C

The California Supreme Court presently has before it the issue whether the religious guarantees of the state Constitution are to fall into line with the [redacted] decision. Our state's highest court recently granted review of an appellate decision holding the "compelling state interest analysis still applies under state constitutional law." [redacted] v. Fair Employment & Housing Comm. (1991) 1 Cal.App.4th 387, 401, rev. gr. Feb. 27, 1992. See also People v. [redacted] (1964) 61 Cal.2d 716 and [redacted] v. Holy Spirit Assn. (1988) 46 Cal.3d 1092, pre-[redacted] decisions applying compelling interest balancing test to free exercise issues and arguably decided under California Constitution as well as United States Constitution.)

b6

We need not reenter this particular thicket, however. To the extent we reached that step of the analysis, this court applied the compelling interest test to its review of the constitutionality of imposing tort liability on Scientology's "fair game," "disconnect," and "auditing" practices. (See [redacted] v. Church of Scientology, supra, 212 Cal.App.3d at California courts apply in deciding the appropriateness and amount of punitive damage awards and determine whether that process is constitutional under [redacted] We then examine the b6 b7C specific punitive damage award in this case, as reduced by this court, and determine whether it passes constitutional muster.

II. THE PROCESS CALIFORNIA USES FOR DETERMINING AND REVIEWING PUNITIVE DAMAGES AWARDS IS CONSTITUTIONAL UNDER THE RECENT UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT DECISION IN PACIFIC MUTUAL INSURANCE CO. v. [redacted]

This court and other California appellate courts already have ruled this state's procedures for determining punitive damages comply with the "due process" standards enunciated in [redacted] (Liberty Transport, Inc. v. Harry W. Gorst Co. (1991) 229 Cal.App.3d 417; Las Palmas Associates v. Las Palmas Center (1991) 235 Cal.App.3d 1220.) b6 b7C None of these opinions, however, had occasion to consider this question in depth. Consequently, we examine the [redacted] opinion pp. 887-899.) For the most part, as will be recalled, we found these activities were not constitutionally protected religious practices because [redacted] was coerced into participating in them. Accordingly, in most instances it was unnecessary to ask the next question--whether the state had a "compelling interest" which overrode the "free exercise" concerns. Where that question was reached, however, we used the stricter, pre-[redacted] b6 b7C standard. Having upheld the constitutionality of the state's tort laws under this tougher standard, it is unnecessary to reconsider whether those laws would survive the lesser standard suggested in [redacted] For the same reason, we also need not bother pondering the intriguing question whether the religious guarantees of the state Constitution will continue to impose a compelling interest test on state laws of general application even though the federal Constitution no longer does.

in some detail and the Alabama punitive damages procedures approved in that decision as background for reviewing the punitive damage award the jury levied on Scientology. As further background for our review, we also have included an appendix containing a table of appellate opinions in which California courts evaluated punitive damage awards. This table updates a similar table which appears in [redacted] v. Kearney AMC/Jeep/Renault, Inc. (1984) 155 Cal.App.3d 381, 393-396. b6 b7C

In [redacted] an insurance agent was accredited by at least one other insurance carrier as well as the defendant, Pacific Mutual. The plaintiffs were employees of a company this agent signed up for a group combined health and life insurance policy. Pacific only supplied the life insurance portion of this policy and another of this agent's companies provided the health insurance component. Later the agent embezzled premiums plaintiffs' employer had forwarded to him instead of paying them over to the insurance companies. The policies were cancelled. So when these plaintiffs became sick they suddenly and unhappily found out they had no health coverage. (111 S.Ct. at p. 1036.)

The plaintiffs sued the agent and Pacific for fraud. The other three plaintiffs only received compensatory damages, but [redacted] won "general damages" in the amount of $1,040,000. b6 b7C (111 S.Ct. at p. 1037.) The Supreme Court concluded at least $840,000 of this represented punitive damages. (Id. at fn. 2.) Pacific appealed and the Alabama Supreme Court affirmed, including the punitive damages portion of the award, by a divided vote. After granting certiori the United States Supreme Court also affirmed in a majority opinion signed by five Justices. Two Justices separately concurred and one dissented. (The ninth Justice did not participate in the decision.)

In assessing the constitutionality of the punitive damages award in [redacted] the United States Supreme Court traced the long history and important role of punitive damages in Anglo-American law. On the basis of this historical review, the high court ruled, "So far as we have been able to determine, every state and federal court that has considered the question has ruled that the common-law method for assessing punitive damages does not in itself violate due process. [Citation omitted.] In view of this consistent history, we cannot say that the common-law method for assessing punitive damages is so inherently unfair as to deny due process and be per se unconstitutional." (Id. at p. 19.)

b7C

Having ruled punitive damages awards are constitutional in concept, the Supreme Court considered whether the specific award in the [redacted] case was constitutionally acceptable. The justices set forth the general considerations that are to guide the decision of whether a specific award is constitutional. "[U]nlimited jury discretion--or unlimited judicial discretion for that matter--in the fixing of punitive damages may invite extreme results that jar one's constitutional sensibilities.... [G]eneral concerns of reasonableness and adequate guidance from the court when the case is tried to a jury properly enter into the constitutional calculus." (Id. at p. 20.)

b6

The Supreme Court described several attributes of the Alabama process for determining punitive damage awards and, on that basis, concluded "the award here did not lack objective criteria.... [I]n this case it does not cross the line into the area of constitutional impropriety." (Id. at p. 23.) The high court did not, however, hold nor imply the Alabama process was the one and only system which accords due process. Nor did it suggest any particular attribute of the Alabama process was absolutely essential to constitutionality.3/ All the Supreme Court held was that the Alabama process achieved the constitutional requirement of "reasonableness" and "adequate guidance to the jury."4/

3/ "Other than explaining that Alabama's procedure passes constitutional muster, [redacted] offers little guidance as to what would be necessary to render a different system unconstitutional." [redacted] v. International Society for Krishna Consciousness of California, etc. (1992) ___Cal.App.3d ___, ___ (4 Cal.Rptr. 2d 473, ___, 92 D.A.R. 1593, 1611.)

4/ It is clear we are not alone in construing [redacted] to allow a variety of punitive damage systems which do not necessarily mimic the Alabama system under review in that particular case. According to our research, four of the eleven cases the Supreme Court remanded after [redacted] have been decided thus far and another sixteen other cases (other than those decided by California courts) have considered the constitutionality of their state punitive damages processes under the [redacted] opinion.

In all four remanded cases the courts upheld the state punitive damages system under review and affirmed the particular award. Thus, the punitive damages procedures of Alabama,

The Supreme Court found several features of the Alabama process worthy of mention. We consider each and consider how the Supreme Court's observations about Alabama criteria and Georgia, and Mississippi as well as California have passed constitutional muster at least at the first level of appeal in these remanded cases. (Alabama: Southern Life and Health Insurance Co. v. [redacted] (Ala. 1991) 586 So.2d 854; Georgia: Hospital Authority of Gwinnett County v. [redacted] (Ga. 1991) 261 Ga. 613, 409 S.E.2d 501; California: [redacted] v. International Society for Krishna Consciousness of California, supra, ___ Cal.App.3d ___, 92 D.A.R. 1593); Mississippi: [redacted] v. Reserve Life Ins. Co. (5th Cir. 1991) 934 F.2d 1377.) Of the 16 other cases evaluating the constitutionality of punitive damages awards under [redacted] 11 upheld the jurisdiction's process and the specific award outright, two upheld the process but found the specific award excessive (as we do in the instant case), and 3 found their state's process defective in some way. In total, in these 16 cases state or federal courts have applied [redacted] and approved the punitive damage procedures in 10 states (in addition to California): Alabama (once again): Yamaha Motor Co. Ltd. v. Thornton (Ala. 1991) 579 So.2d 619; [redacted] v. Jahandarfard (Ala.1991) 578 So.2d 1041; [redacted] v. Congra, Inc. (11th Cir. 1991) 936 F.2d 1169; Louisiana: [redacted] v. Several of these courts found procedures constitutional which deviated substantially from the Alabama punitive damage system approved in [redacted] For instance, the Fifth Circuit held the Texas procedure constitutional even though juries and courts procedures relate to the constitutionality of California's punitive damages process.

A. The Adequacy of Jury Instructions.

The Supreme Court observed the Alabama jury instructions adequately described the purposes of punitive damages as punishing the defendant and deterring "the defendant and others from doing such wrong in the future," rather than compensating the plaintiff. The instructions gave the jury "significant discretion" in determining punitive damages, but that discretion was limited to the amount needed to advance the "state policy concerns" of "deterrence and retribution." Moreover, the degree of discretion allowed "is no greater than that pursued in many familiar areas of the law." (The Supreme Court listed several examples including "reasonable care," "due diligence," and "appropriate compensation for pain and suffering or mental anguish.") (Id. at pp. 1044.)

only consider three factors--nature of the wrong, degree of culpability, and extent the conduct offends propriety and justice--all of them relate solely to the reprehensibility of the defendant's conduct. [redacted] v. Armstrong Cork Co., supra, 946 F.2d 1085.) The Pennsylvania and Missouri procedures were found to satisfy [redacted] even though the jury awards are reviewed for "excessiveness" without any specific, articulated standards. [redacted] v. Allstate Insurance Co., supra, 771 F.Supp. 673; [redacted] v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., supra, 808 S.W.2d 868.) And, the Oregon procedure was approved even though the state Constitution severely limits the review of jury awards of punitive damages by allowing reversal only when a reviewing court finds a lack of any evidence to support the award. [redacted] v. Honda Motor Co., supra, 814 P.2d 517.)

b6

We note in the instant case the trial court gave the standard instructions on punitive damages which reflect California law on the same basic subjects as the Alabama instructions endorsed in [redacted] Indeed the California instructions given here were, if anything, more extensive and more precise than the Alabama instructions described in [redacted] Not only did these instructions describe the purposes of punitive damages and distinguish them from compensatory damages, they also informed the jury the amount of damages awarded should bear a reasonable relation to the injury the plaintiff sustained and to the defendant's financial condition.

b7C

Scientology does not claim the trial court failed to give the instructions defining the purposes and scope of punitive damages which the Supreme Court found important in [redacted] Instead Scientology complains the trial court failed to give an instruction appellant's counsel requested which it now claims was meant to implement the corporate responsibility provision found in Civil Code section 3294, subdivision (b). This provision limits punitive damages against corporations to acts an officer, director or managing agent ordered, ratified or knew about before they happened.5/

b6

5/ Civil Code section 3294, subdivision (b) reads in pertinent part as follows:

> "With respect to a corporate employer, the advance knowledge and conscious disregard, authorization, ratification or act of oppression, fraud or malice must be on the part of an officer, director or managing agent of the corporation."

Scientology's requested instruction, however, did not address the "corporate responsibility" issue covered in Civil Code section 3294, subdivision (b). The request did not mention the clause "officer, director, or managing agent" nor suggest Scientology's liability for punitive damages was limited to actions this class of agent personally did or authorized, ratified, or knew of in advance. Instead the proposed instruction advised jurors they "may not award punitive damages against the defendant Church for the intentional oppressive or malicious acts of its members, employees, or agents, unless you find that the defendant Church of Scientology directed, authorized or ratified such intentional oppressive acts." As proffered, the requested instruction in no way even hinted only an officer, director or managing agent" could make the "defendant Church of Scientology" liable for punitive damages.

It is not absolutely clear from the record why Scientology did not request a "corporate responsibility" instruction. Perhaps it was because appellant wanted the jurors to think of it as a religious "church" and not a secular "corporation." In any event, the "corporate responsibility" instruction was not relevant to the issues framed by the pleadings or raised in the evidence. Scientology did not base its defense on a contention [redacted] alleged injuries were inflicted by out of control lower level employees. Instead its pleadings and evidence emphasized the harmful acts, if any, were constitutionally protected religious practices. The evidence was undisputed the "auditing," "fair game," and "disconnect" actions taken in regard to [redacted] were official practices of the Church of Scientology promulgated by its leaders, not some ad hoc aberrational acts of individual employees. Thus, it is not surprising Scientology did not bother to request an instruction it was only liable in punitive damages for what its "officers, directors, or managing agents" personally, authorized or ratified.

b6

By failing to tender a "corporate responsibility" instruction, Scientology is foreclosed under California law from claiming the trial court committed "reversible error" when it neglected to give such an instruction. [redacted] v. [redacted] (1979) 25 Cal.3d 932, 951 [when defendant corporation failed to tender and the trial court failed to give a "corporate responsibility" instruction in a punitive damage case] the court concluded "[the defendants] have waived their right to complain that a qualified instruction distinguishing between ... vicarious liability for compensatory and for punitive damages should have been given".)

b6

Despite having itself failed to propose a "corporate responsibility" instruction during trial Scientology now claims it was denied federal "due process" under [redacted] because the trial court also failed to give such an instruction. That the court's failure to instruct on "corporate responsibility" is not a constitutional violation under [redacted] is apparent from the facts of that case. There the United States Supreme Court held a punitive damage award against an insurance company afforded constitutional due process even though the award was imposed for liability for punitive damages was predicated solely respondeat superior. Indeed Alabama law, specifically found to satisfy due process in [redacted] permits punitive damages to be assessed against corporations without any proof the senior corporate officials authorized or ratified the offensive conduct. (Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. [redacted] supra, 111 S.Ct. at p. 1041.) Thus, it is apparent federal due process does not prohibit the imposition of punitive damages on a corporation just because the corporation's leadership remains ignorant of the egregious acts of its lesser employees or agents. It is California law--not constitutional due process--which limits corporate liability for punitive damages to acts done, authorized, or ratified by senior corporate officials. Accordingly, the consequences for failing to give a "corporate responsibility" instruction likewise are determined under California law.

b6

b6

Scientology offers a further argument the failure to give this "corporate responsibility" instruction rises to the level of a federal "due process" violation. This argument likewise is without merit. It treats language in [redacted] pointing out the "jury was adequately instructed" in that case as if the Supreme Court had held the failure to give any possibly relevant instruction in a punitive damages case automatically violates the federal "due process" clause. For reasons explained above, while it may have been preferable for the trial court to have given a "corporate responsibility" instruction in the instant case, Scientology waived its right to complain by failing to request the instruction. Moreover, under the pleadings and evidence in this case "corporate responsibility" was not a significant issue. Consequently, the "jury was adequately instructed." The instructions the Supreme Court mentioned in [redacted] were those the Alabama court delivered advising the jurors on the purposes of punitive damages and the criteria they were to apply in fixing the amount of those damages. The trial court in the instant case gave instructions covering those same topics. That is the most [redacted] and the "due process" clause require. b6 b7C

Finally, after reviewing the total evidence offered in this trial and the actual issues involved, we find that even if it were error to fail to give a "corporate responsibility" instruction that error was not prejudicial. [redacted] v. Harnischfeger Corp. (1974) 12 Cal.3d 663, 670; [redacted] v. Carl Karcher Enterprises, Inc. (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 479, 489; see 9 Witkin, Cal. Procedure (3d ed. 1985) Appeal, § 352, pp. 355-356.) There is nothing to suggest the giving of these instructions would have substantially enhanced the chances Scientology would have prevailed. b6 b7C

B. Evidence of Defendant's Financial Condition.

The Supreme Court noted with apparent approval Alabama law excludes any evidence of a defendant's wealth even in punitive damages cases. Thus, "the fact finder must be guided by more than the defendant's net worth. Alabama plaintiffs do not enjoy a windfall because they have the good fortune to have a defendant with a deep pocket." (Id. at p. 22.)

For good reason, Scientology does not claim the California punitive damages process violates due process because it permitted--and now mandates--evidence of a defendant's financial condition in all punitive damages cases. [redacted] v. [redacted] (1991) 54 Cal.3d 105.) As our Supreme Court has pointed out, the defendant's financial condition is an essential limitation on the jury's discretion in this state. b6 b7C The jury is instructed it may only award punitive damages which, taking account of the defendant's financial condition, are enough to punish and deter but not so high as to impair the defendant's ability to continue functioning. We do not read the United States Supreme Court opinion in [redacted] to suggest a state punitive damages procedure which admits evidence of financial condition for this purpose and with these limiting instructions denies due process to defendants.

C. Review of Punitive Damages at the Trial Court Level.

In Alabama, the posttrial review of punitive damages awards at the trial court level requires the trial judge to scrutinize the amount of those awards for possible "excessiveness." The criteria the Alabama Supreme Court has set forth to guide this trial court review include "culpability of the defendant's conduct," "desirability of discouraging others from similar conduct," and "impact on the parties."

California law likewise provides for trial court review of the possible excessiveness of punitive damage awards. The criteria guiding this review, however, are more precise in many ways than those the United States Supreme Court found "meaningful and adequate" in [redacted] As the California Supreme Court listed them in [redacted] v. Farmers Ins. Exchange, (1978) 21 Cal.3d 910, and as reemphasized in [redacted] v. [redacted] supra, 154 Cal.3d. 105, these criteria fall in three main categories--first, the relative egregiousness of the defendant's conduct, as measured by the consequences of its acts, second, whether the punitive damages award bears a reasonable relationship to the plaintiff's injury, and third, whether the punitive damages award bears a reasonable relationship to the defendant's financial condition--enough to punish and deter the egregious conduct, but not so much as to destroy the defendant. Nearly all of the individual factors the Alabama courts employ are subsumed under one or the other of the main categories the California courts use.

b7C

There is a slight difference between California and Alabama in the procedure required of trial courts after they have completed their review of a punitive damage award. According to [redacted] Alabama requires trial judges to state

b6

their findings and reasoning on the record, whether they affirm, modify or reverse the award. (111 S.Ct. at p. 1044.) California has not had such a requirement, although trial judges frequently do so on their own.

Scientology complains the trial judge in this case denied its lengthy new trial and JNOV motions by filing a simple minute order noting those motions were "denied." Among other things, these posttrial motions raised punitive damage issues. Scientology seizes upon language in [redacted] to the effect Alabama trial courts reflect "on the record" the reasons for refusing to interfere with a jury's punitive damage award. It interprets this to be a federal "due process" requirement and argues the trial court's failure to give a detailed account of its reasoning "on the record" denied Scientology its constitutional right.

b7C

We first observe that at no place in [redacted] did the Supreme Court suggest a state punitive damages procedure had to match the Alabama procedure in each and every aspect if it were to satisfy federal due process requirements. (See fn. 3, supra.) It neither said nor implied it was essential every state require trial judges to state their reasons on the record.

b6

Indeed the Supreme Court seemed to place far more importance on the existence of a set of criteria the trial court is to apply in judging whether the jury's verdict was excessive than whether the trial court places its reasoning on the record. After mentioning the fact Alabama requires judges to reflect their reasons on the record and then listing the criteria they are to apply in evaluating punitive damage awards, the Supreme Court emphasizes: "[This] test ensures meaningful and adequate review by the trial court whenever a jury has fixed the punitive damages." (111 S.Ct. at p. 1044, italics added.)

In the instant case, the trial court patiently entertained a lengthy hearing on the new trial and JNOV motions which took several hours spread over several days. The judge fully heard Scientology's presentation challenging the punitive damages award. These arguments addressed the criteria California law establishes for evaluating the propriety and amount of these awards. A full transcript exists of the arguments made and the evidence relevant to evaluating the propriety and amount of punitive damages.6/ Thus the record is complete and sufficient for this court on appeal to review the jury verdict on punitive damages and the trial court's 6/ The posttrial hearing assumes special importance in Alabama. Unlike California, some of the facts essential to meaningful review of the punitive damages award do not appear in the trial record. In particular, Alabama law does not permit either party to introduce any evidence of the defendant's financial condition at the trial itself. In contrast, California has always allowed such evidence and now requires it. [redacted] v. [redacted], supra, 54 Cal.3d 105.) Trial courts in Alabama accept this sort of evidence for the first time at the posttrial hearing on excessiveness of the punitive damage award. Thus, it is only the evidence introduced at this posttrial hearing which allows Alabama's trial and appellate courts to conduct a "meaningful review" of whether the damages awarded bear a reasonable relation to defendant's conduct and financial resources.

disposition of Scientology's claim those damages were excessive. The fact the trial court found it unnecessary to set forth its reasoning on the record only means the court deviated in this one detail from the procedure Alabama apparently follows. It does not mean Scientology was denied a "meaningful and adequate review" of the punitive damage award by the trial court or that it was denied due process.

The record produced in the trial court was more than ample for purposes of that court's consideration of the punitive damage award and for appellate review by this court. We would have gained little had it reflected the trial court's reasoning. Indeed that record was sufficient for this court to determine the punitive damages award should be reduced. (See p. 3, supra.)

The trial court here did not violate California law by failing to place its reasoning on the record nor does California law run afoul of the Constitution by failing to require this particular procedural step. This is not to say it would not be a preferable practice for trial judges to do so. It is merely to conclude the failure to make a record of the reasoning behind the trial court's ruling does not deny the parties of due process under the U.S. constitution. Nor does it constitute reversible error under California law.

There is empirical evidence trial court review in California is "meaningful and adequate" which was not available or at least not mentioned by the Supreme Court in its evaluation of the Alabama process. The high court found trial court review of punitive damages in Alabama to be "meaningful and adequate" without citing any specific examples where trial courts in that state actually had reversed or reduced punitive damages awards. (The high court, on the other hand, specifically mentioned cases where such awards had been reduced at the appellate level.) (111 S.Ct. at p. 53.) By way of contrast, the tables incorporated in [redacted] v. Kearny Mesa AMC/Jeep Renault, Inc., supra, 155 Cal.App.3d 381 and the appendix to this opinion document numerous cases in which California trial courts have reduced punitive damages awards, a fact which reinforces our finding trial court review of punitive damages awards in California is at least as "meaningful and adequate" as is true in Alabama. b6 b7C

This conclusion is bolstered further by a recent Rand Corporation study of posttrial reductions of jury awards in selected California and Illinois courts.7/ [redacted] and [redacted] Posttrial Adjustments to Jury Awards (Rand Institute for Civil Justice (1987).) The study revealed verdicts which b6 b7C include punitive damage awards are reduced over twice as much on average as those limited to compensatory damages--by 43 percent in those with punitive damages versus 18 percent in those without. (Id. at pp. 38-39.)8/ Furthermore, courts reduce damage awards far more drastically than they are through posttrial settlements--by 54 percent on average compared to 33 percent. (Id. at pp. 43-46.) The study further found "[m]ore of those cases [in which courts reduced damage awards] resulted from motions to the trial court than from the appeals process." (Id. at p. 45.) Thus, this empirical data supplies strong evidence California trial courts afford "meaningful and adequate" review of punitive damages awards in practice as well as theory.

8/ "In the 165 cases where punitive damages constituted a part of the total award, final payments were only .57 of the total. In contrast, when only compensatory damages were involved, final payments were .82 of the total....This result is not just a function of the larger award size of punitive damage cases, but holds for all cases with verdicts greater than $100,000. ... [F]or cases with verdicts between $100,000 and $999,000, those with punitive damages paid an average proportion of .61 [a reduction of 39 percent], while those without such damages paid an average proportion of .86 [a reduction of 14 percent]. For cases exceeding $1 million, the difference is about the same. With punitive damages the payout rate was .55 [a reduction of 45 percent], while without punitive damages the payout was .76 [a reduction of 24 percent]. [redacted] and [redacted] Posttrial Adjustments to Jury Awards, supra, at p. 38.)

b7C

These findings are corroborated by another Rand study which was confined to punitive damage cases in San Francisco, California, and Cook County, Illinois. That study reported punitive damages were reduced an average 50 percent in the sample it covered from the 1979 - 1983 period. [redacted] and [redacted] Punitive Damages: Empirical Findings (Rand Institute for Civil Justice (1987).)

D. Review of Punitive Damages at Appellate Level.

The United States Supreme Court also emphasized the Alabama Supreme Court conducted its own review of the possible excessiveness of the punitive damage award. California likewise provides one and sometimes two levels of appellate review of these awards.

By the time of its review of the [redacted] award the list of criteria the Alabama high court applied had been refined to include the "relationship between the punitive damages award and the harm likely to result from the defendant's conduct as well as the harm that actually has occurred," "degree of reprehensibility" and "duration" of that conduct, "defendant's awareness" or "concealment" of the conduct, "existence and frequency of past conduct," "profitability to the defendant of the wrongful conduct and the desirability of removing that profit and of having the defendant also sustain a loss," defendant's "financial position," "all costs of litigation," and "imposition of criminal sanctions" or "other civil awards... for the same conduct ... these also to be taken in mitigation." (111 S.Ct. at p. 1045.)

Most but not all of the above criteria are subsumed in the three major categories of criteria California appellate courts as well as trial courts apply in reviewing punitive damages awards. The United States Supreme Court did not hold or imply that each and every one of the criteria the Alabama Supreme Court now applies is essential to due process. It merely held this particular set of criteria was sufficient to satisfy due process, not that another set would fail to do so. The nation's high court emphasized Alabama's appellate review "ensures that punitive damages awards are not grossly out of proportion to the severity of the offense and have some understandable relationship to compensatory damages .... Alabama plaintiffs do not enjoy a windfall because they have the good fortune to have a defendant with a deep pocket.... [¶] The standards provide for a rational relationship in determining whether a particular award is greater than reasonably necessary to punish and deter." (111 S.Ct. at pp. 1045-1046.)

Scientology complains the California criteria do not specifically highlight two factors it deems important--"impact on innocent third parties," and "punitive damage awards imposed in prior cases for the same conduct." Nothing in [redacted] suggests these two particular factors are essential to the constitutionality of a formula for reviewing punitive damage awards. But it is worthwhile to note both of them can be subsumed under the existing California formula and its overall goal of producing an award that is sufficient to punish and deter harmful conduct but not so severe it destroys the defendant. Evidence of prior punitive damage awards for the same conduct or the impact on "innocent third parties" both bear on that ultimate question and would be admissible under one or the other of the three major categories.

What the United States Supreme Court concluded about the purpose and effect of appellate review of punitive damages awards in Alabama is equally true in California. Our high court has emphasized and reemphasized both trial and appellate courts should scrutinize these awards to ensure the amount is not beyond that required to punish and deter the offending conduct. The United States Supreme Court found appellate review in Alabama had "real effect" primarily because it could point to two cases in which the Alabama Supreme Court had reduced punitive damage awards. A survey of California appellate decisions reveals many reversals and reductions of punitive damages even in cases where the trial court had refused to interfere with the jury's verdict. (See appendix, infra, and [redacted] v. Kearny Mesa AMC/Jeep Renault, Inc., supra, 155 Cal.App.3d at pp. 393-396.) b6 b7C

Scientology complains about the standard of review this court and other California courts apply under California law--the traditional "passion and prejudice" standard. Scientology equates California's "passion and prejudice" standard with the Vermont and Mississippi standards which the [redacted] opinion noted had warranted expressions of "concern" from individual Justices in other opinions. (Pacific Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. [redacted] supra, 111 S.Ct. at p. 1045, fn. 10, citing Browning-Ferris Industries of Vermont, Inc. v. Kelco Disposal, Inc. (1989) 492 U.S. 257 and Bankers Life & Casualty Co. v. [redacted] (1988) 486 U.S. 71.) b6 b7C

Setting aside the fact the [redacted] court only mentioned the Vermont and Mississippi formulations had raised "concerns" and in no way held they violated due process, Scientology is mixing apples and oranges in comparing California's version of a "passion and prejudice" standard with what exists in these two jurisdictions. Vermont allows punitive damages to be modified or set aside only if "manifestly and grossly excessive" while Mississippi modifies or sets aside a punitive damages verdict only if the award "evinces passion, bias and prejudice on the part of the jury so as to shock the conscience."

It is true California uses the rubric of a "presumption the jury acted out of passion and prejudice" to justify setting aside or modifying jury awards of punitive damages. But in reality, as discussed earlier, that standard now stands for a set of specific criteria, detailed jury instructions, and procedures which define "passion and prejudice" in a way which is far more precise and far less subjective than the Vermont and Mississippi formulations.9/

9/ It is interesting but not essential to our decision in this case to note a federal appellate court has held the Mississippi standard of review is constitutional under [redacted] despite the expressions of "concern" reflected in that opinion. [redacted] v. Reserve Life Ins. Co., supra, 934 F. 1377 was one of the other cases the United States Supreme Court was holding at the time it decided [redacted] and remanded for reconsideration in the light of [redacted] On remand the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal evaluated the Mississippi procedures and the specific punitive damage award. The court upheld that award even though it was 500 times compensatory damages and even though Mississippi

(Footnote continued)

Indeed as highlighted earlier, the California criteria closely parallel--and in some respects are more precise and less subjective--than the Alabama criteria found constitutional in [redacted] We find nothing in [redacted] suggesting California's version of a "presumption of passion and prejudice" standard of review is unconstitutional. (Accord: Las Palmas Associates v. Las Palmas Center, supra, 235 Cal.App.3d 1220.) Accordingly, we have no reservations about applying this standard to the punitive damage award the jury imposed in the instant case.

b6

E. The Preponderance of the Evidence Standard as Applied to Punitive Damages Issues.

The United States Supreme Court expressly approved the use of a "preponderance of the evidence" standard in deciding punitive damages issues. (Pacific Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. [redacted] supra, 111 S.Ct. at p. 1046, fn. 11.) California law has been amended to require the higher standard of "clear and convincing" evidence. (Civ. Code.) However, at the time of the trial in the instant case the standard was still "preponderance of the evidence." Yet, as the nation's high court held, "the lesser standard prevailing in courts only reverse when an award evinces passion, bias, or prejudice sufficient to "shock the conscience." (Id.) "As long as there is some meaningful procedural assurance that the amount of the award is not an impulsive reaction to the wrongful conduct of the defendant, the award survives the procedural protection aspect of the due process analysis...." (Id. at p. 1385.)

Alabama--'reasonably satisfied from the evidence'--when buttressed, as it is, by the procedural and substantive protections outlined above is constitutionally sufficient." (Pacific Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. [redacted] supra, 111 S.Ct. at p. 1040, fn.11.) For reasons expressed above, California law supplies the same "buttress" of procedural and substantive protections, and did so at the time the instant case was tried. Accordingly, the use of a "preponderance of the evidence standard" in this case was constitutionally sufficient under [redacted]

b7C

III. APPLYING CALIFORNIA'S STANDARDS TO THIS CASE WE CONCLUDE THE PUNITIVE DAMAGES AWARD WAS EXCESSIVE AND MUST BE REDUCED OR RETRIED.

Having determined California punitive damages law is constitutional, we now apply that law to the punitive damages award in this case. We first review the guiding principles of California law on this subject, most of which have been mentioned in the course of the constitutional discussion.

A. Applying the California Criteria.

"It is well established that a reviewing court should examine punitive damages and, where appropriate, modify the amount in order to do justice." [redacted] v. [redacted] (1988) 204 Cal.App.3d.968, 980; [redacted] v. Church of Scientology (1976) 58 Cal.App.3d 439, 463.) In reviewing a punitive damages award, the appellate court applies a standard similar to that used in reviewing compensatory damages, i.e., whether, after reviewing the entire record in the light most favorable to the judgment, the award was the result of passion or prejudice. (See [redacted] v. National General Corp. (1974) 13 Cal.3d 43, 64; [redacted] v. Kearny Mesa AMC/Jeep/Renault, Inc., supra, 155 Cal.App.3d at p. 388.) However, as discussed earlier the test here is more refined, employing three factors to evaluate the propriety of the award. b6 b7C

b6

The first factor is the degree of reprehensibility of the defendant's conduct. [redacted] v. Farmers Ins. Exchange (1978) 21 Cal.3d 910, 928.) "[C]learly, different acts may be of varying degrees of reprehensibility, and the more reprehensible the act, the greater the appropriate punishment, assuming all other factors are equal." (Ibid.) b6 b7C

The second factor is the relationship between the amount of the award and the actual harm suffered. (Ibid.; [redacted] v. [redacted] (1987) 190 Cal.App.3d 844, 867.) This analysis ordinarily focuses upon the ratio of compensatory damages to punitive damages; the greater the disparity between the two awards, the more likely the punitive damages award is suspect. ([redacted] v. [redacted], supra, 190 Cal.App.3d at p. 867; see [redacted] v. Stuyvesant Life Ins. Co. (1977) 67 Cal.App.3d 451, 469-470.) b6 b7C

Finally, a reviewing court will consider the relationship of the punitive damages to the defendant's financial condition. [redacted] v. [redacted] supra, 54 Cal.3d 105; [redacted] v. Farmers Ins. Exchange, supra, 21 Cal.3d at p. 928; [redacted] v. Kearny Mesa AMC/Jeep/Renault, Inc., supra, 155 b6 b7C

Cal.App.3d at p. 390.) In applying this factor courts must strike a proper balance between inadequate and excessive punitive damage awards. "While the function of punitive damages will not be served if the wealth of the defendant allows him to absorb the award with little or no discomfort, the function also will not be served by an award which is larger than necessary to properly punish and deter." [redacted] v. Kearney Mesa AMC/Jeep/Renault, Inc., supra, 155 Cal.App.3d at p. 391.) b6 b7C

In this case, we need not go beyond the third factor--the ratio between punitive damages and the defendant's financial condition. The evidence admitted at trial supported the finding the appellant church had a net worth of $16 million at the time of trial. Accepting these figures as true, the punitive damages award was 150 percent of appellant's net worth. Under prevailing standards established in prior appellate cases, this ratio is clearly excessive. [redacted] v. [redacted] supra, 190 Cal.App.3d at p. 869 [punitive damages reversed; award was 200 percent of defendant's net worth]; [redacted] v. National Enquirer, Inc. (1983) 144 Cal.App.3d 991, 1012 [punitive damages reduced; initial award was 35 percent of defendant's net worth]; [redacted] v. Mutual of Omaha Insurance Co. (1979) 24 Cal.3d 809, 824 [punitive damages reversed; award was 58 percent of defendant's net income]; [redacted] v. Church of Scientology, supra, 58 Cal.App.3d at pp. 445-446, 453 [punitive damages reversed; award was 40 percent of defendant's net worth]; compare [redacted] v. Kearney AMC/Jeep/Renault, Inc., supra, b6 b7C 155 Cal.App.3d at pp. 391-392 [punitive damages affirmed where award was 17.5 percent of defendant's net worth]; [redacted] v. [redacted] (1980) 113 Cal.App.3d 828, 836-837 [punitive damages affirmed; award was 10 percent of defendant's net worth]; [redacted] Savings & Loan Assn. v. Ohio Casualty Ins. Co. (1987) 189 Cal.App.3d 1072, 1100 [punitive damages affirmed; award was 7.2 percent of defendant's net income].) Accordingly, we reverse the punitive damage award unless the plaintiff accepts a remittitur of that judgment to $2 million.10/

B. It Is Both Proper and Constitutional to Reduce Rather Than Reverse the Punitive Damage Award in This Case.

Scientology questions a court's authority to reduce a punitive damages award even under a remittitur where it has concluded the award was excessive under a "presumption of passion and prejudice" standard. According to Scientology, we should be required to reverse the entire punitive damages judgment unconditionally.

10/ In his brief on this reconsideration of the original judgment, [redacted] claims Scientology's true net worth was several times greater than $16 million. The brief argues principally from purported revelations in other litigation rather than the record in this case. In essence, respondent's counsel claims Scientology spun off the majority of its assets to related corporations in contemplation of litigation and to put most of those assets beyond the reach of [redacted] and other litigants. The record in this case is insufficient to support any such finding. Accordingly, for purposes of this appeal we are bound by the $16 million net worth figure in evaluating the punitive damage award. [redacted] is not required to accept the remittitur if he is willing to retry the punitive damages phase of this case. In that retrial, he would not be bound by the record in the first trial on the question of Scientology's present net worth.

b7C

Scientology relies for this proposition on a single decision of the United States Supreme Court, Minneapolis, etc. Ry. v. [redacted] (1931) 283 U.S. 520, 521. There are several grounds on which [redacted]--and its holding that "no verdict can ... stand which is found to be in any degree the result of appeals to passion and prejudice"--could be distinguished. However, that is not necessary since [redacted] is in no sense binding on this or any other California court. [redacted] was not announcing a rule of federal due process to guide litigation in state courts. Rather this case arose in a federal action tried in state court. It sets forth a rule of federal law and is limited in its application to federal cases. Indeed the United States Supreme Court was careful to highlight the rule it was announcing had nothing to do with the rules Minnesota courts apply in state litigation. Accordingly, there is no merit to Scientology's claim [redacted] supersedes the many California Supreme Court and Court of Appeal cases which have reduced punitive damage awards rather than setting them aside after finding those awards were excessive and thus "presumed to be the product of passion and prejudice." (See, e.g., [redacted] v. Farmers Ins. Exchange, supra, 21 Cal.3d 910; [redacted] v. [redacted] supra, 204 Cal.App.3d.968, 980; [redacted] v. Church of Scientology, supra, 58 Cal.App.3d at p. 453.) See also other appellate cases in which punitive awards were reduced rather than set aside in the appendix to this case and the earlier chart in [redacted] v. Kearney AMC/Jeep/Renault, Inc., supra, 155

b6

Cal.App.3d 381.)

C. Scientology Is Not Exempt From Punitive Damages for Acts, Such as Those Involved in This Case, Which Are Not Constitutionally Protected Religious Practices.

In a final challenge, Scientology claims the First Amendment bars the imposition of punitive damages on religious organizations for their "religious expressions" or, at a minimum, the First Amendment in combination with the due process clause requires closer scrutiny of any punitive damage award than would be true for other persons or entities. To support these arguments, Scientology cites cases actually involving freedom of speech or press not freedom of religion but which it claims "express reservations" about the use of punitive damages which might inhibit First Amendment activity (i.e., [redacted] v. [redacted] (1974) 418 U.S. 323; Electrical Workers v. [redacted] (1979) 442 U.S. 42.) Notably, several opinions, including one cited by Scientology, uphold punitive damage awards in private defamation actions. [redacted] v. [redacted] supra; 418 U.S. 323; Dun & Bradstreet v. Greenmoss Builders, Inc. (1985) 472 U.S. 749; Curtiss Publishing Co. v. [redacted] (1967) 388 U.S. 130.)

b6

The first of Scientology's arguments ignores the fact this court found the patterns of activities which justified punitive damages in this case were either found not to qualify as "religious expression" at all (i.e., "fair game") [redacted] v. Church of Scientology, supra, 212 Cal.App.3d at pp. 891-899) or were found not to be constitutionally protected because forced on participants like [redacted] through emotional, economic and physical coercion (i.e., "auditing," "disconnect.") (Id. at pp. 891-899.) Thus, the imposition of punitive damages for this conduct does not impinge on constitutionally protected religious expression. It only punishes and deters reprehensible activities which visit serious harm on others in society. Under California law, b6 b7C punitive damages could be imposed on other individuals and entities which engaged in this conduct. Therefore, such damages can be imposed on those who claim to have done these constitutionally unprotected actions out of religious motivation. (Employment Div. Dept. of Human Res. of Oregon v. [redacted] supra, 494 U.S. 872.)

b6

The "heightened scrutiny" argument merely resurrects the contention and many of the authorities Scientology marshalled in support of its earlier position the court must closely scrutinize liability claims based on actions which may constitute "religious expression." Once again, the cases cited involve freedom of speech not free exercise of religion (i.e., [redacted] v. American Mini Theatres (1976) 427 U.S. 50; New York Times Co. v. United States (1971) 403 U.S. 713; [redacted] v. [redacted] (1958) 357 U.S. 513.) Moreover, these cases focus on the process the court uses in determining whether the speech involved qualifies for constitutional protection at all, not whether it warrants a punitive damage award. b6 b7C fundamental problem with Scientology's argument is that we already have applied this "heightened scrutiny" to the activities for which Scientology claims constitutional protection. We found those activities did not qualify as "voluntary religious expression" or in some instances did not qualify as "religious expression" at all. (See [redacted] v. Church of Scientology, supra, 212 Cal.App.3d at pp. 891-899.) We already subjected these activities to "heightened scrutiny" and found them to lack constitutional protection under the free exercise of religion clause. Consequently, there is no reason to subject them to another round of "heightened scrutiny" in order to determine whether they are immune from punitive damages. The reason for "heightened scrutiny" of the punitive damage award evaporated with the finding the acts themselves were not constitutionally protected.

Alternatively, even if we follow Scientology's request and subject the punitive damage award in this case to "heightened scrutiny" we arrive at the same conclusion as when we subjected the acts themselves to "heightened scrutiny." There is a compelling state interest in punishing and deterring this constitutionally unprotected, harmful conduct just as there is a compelling state interest in compensating the victims.

DISPOSITION

The judgment is reversed as to the cause of action for negligent infliction of emotional injury. The judgment as to the cause of action for intentional infliction of emotional injury is affirmed with the exception the compensatory damage award and the punitive damage award are set aside, unless the plaintiff agrees to a remittitur reducing the compensatory damages to $500,000 and the punitive damages to $2 million. Each party to bear its own costs on appeal.

Stahlbautechnik Neckar

[Steel Manufacturing Technique on the river Neckar]

by Gerhard Haag, CEO

"IF ONE HAS A STRONG INTENTION AND A good target, more is not needed!" That has always been my motto. I was born 39 years ago on a small farm in Ebahausen, Germany. That's a small town near Nagold. My father was a farmer and that is what I was going to be. The game was not big enough, so I changed schools and studied hard to learn the steel manufacturing business. I now own one of the most successful steel manufacturing companies in Germany, and I've been a WISE CEO's Circle Member for just over a year.

Steel fabrication for indoor skating rink

The professional path I took was not easy. Once, when I was a boy doing an apprenticeship at the Krupp Company in Altbach, my father's car broke down. I decided to fix it myself. Later, the foreman at Krupp accused me of using their materials and doing it on company time. I didn't like being falsely accused and told him, "Someday I will buy this company!" Three years ago, that's exactly what I did! [The company was renamed Stahlbautechnik Neckar, which means Steel Manufacturing Technique on the river Neckar—Ed.]

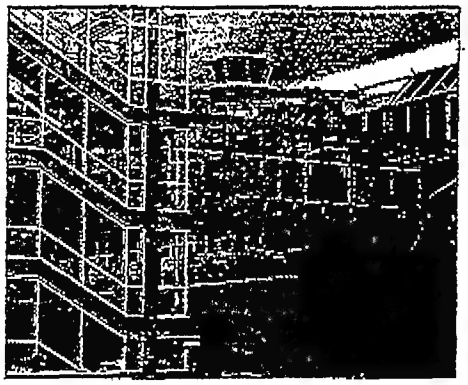
When I first became a CEO's Circle Member, I wasn't very active with WISE. I knew that there were a few members around Stuttgart, but I didn't know too much about WISE and its services for members.

A business cycle developed that was very upsetting to me, and it went on for too long a time. I was visited at my home by two WISE staff members, one from WISE Int and the other from WISE EU. They listened to what I had to say, and then helped me to handle the situation terminatedly. Just like that, it was over and a source of suppression was off my lines! Suddenly, I understood the purpose of WISE!

I have acquired a lot of experience in my life and my one stable datum has been never, never, never deal with an unethical company. After WISE helped me so effectively I realized that I needed to become more effective, too. It is my responsibility to handle the company that was the source of upset so it becomes ethical. This responsibility extends beyond the world of business into the other areas of life as well.

CHARTER COMMITTEE

I joined the WISE Charter Committee of Stuttgart. We have applied all the necessary policies and are fully operational. I am now the Charter Committee chairman and we are here and ready to assist companies in our area to apply the Hubbard Administrative Technology in sorting out business disagreements. As a WISE CEO's Circle Member I consider it my duty to see that our Charter Committee continually functions well.



Munich Airport steel fabrication by Stahlbautechnik Neckar

When Philip Mitchell, the Deputy Commanding Officer of WISE Int, came to see me about the L. Ron Hubbard Library that was being installed at Moscow University overlooking Red Square, I was honored to be called upon for help. I gladly donated $100,000 toward the completion of this great work! Russia's production and morale greatly suffered under communist rule, but now their statistics are reverting. The new library is definitely rewarding good production—just what LRH says to do!

I'm looking forward to an increasing role of seeing that more and more LRH Admin Tech is applied in the business environment. That is, and will be, an ongoing win for all of us!

Scientologists Fined for Hate Literature

Three Scientologists were fined 5400DM [over $2.000] by the Hamburg Town Council in January for slander in connection with the printing and distribution of literature that compared Scientology critics to Nazi stormtroopers, and Scientology suffering at the hands of its critics to the situation of Jews under the Third Reich. One booklet, "The Merchant of Hamburg," said that members of the Social Democratic Party [a major German political party] had, through attacks on Scientology, stooped to the level of the old Nazi Party; another pamphlet had a caricature of critic Heinrich Westphal, a theologian, as a stormtrooper, with the title, "Their God is their Money." In the pamphlet "Hate and Propaganda," there were numerous examples of anti-Semitic hate articles from the Nazi propaganda newspaper Die Sturmer [The Stormtrooper] positioned near articles from recent German newspapers critical of Scientology practices.

One of the accused said he simply wanted to make sure his religion was recognized in Germany, but Judge Lutz von Selle called the Scientology comparisons "the height of hypocrisy." SPD parliamentarian Ursula Caberta—whom the Scientology publications accused of waging a campaign against them—reportedly met with Hamburg officials after the trial about researching Scientology's political and business activities. (From "Editor of Scientology Publications Found Guilty of Libel," Neumunster/Holsteinischer Courier, 1/14/94; "Scientologists Sentenced for Insults," Hamburger Abendblatt, 1/14/94; "Editor of Scientology Writings Convicted of Insults," Bergedorfer Zeitung [Hamburg-Bergedorf], 1/14/94, 2/12/94)

Hubbard "Tech" From Germany to Albania

Scientology is undertaking a major move into Albania through German industrialist Gerhard Haag Ende, a Scientologist, who plans a fully stocked merchandising center to be managed through "Scientology Technology," according to Michael Linkersdorfer in IG-Metallzeitung (No. 23, 11/12/93).

As revealed in an Albanian TV program, Ende and his Scientology associates promise to lead the country to prosperity using the "management technology" developed by Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard. They said they had the cooperation of relevant Albanian government ministries. A report on the "project" by a Bavarian TV magazine late last year stimulated visits by other reporters who found in the Tirana library piles of Hubbard books but almost no other Western ones. Ende had also organized Scientology courses at the University, for students, professors, and civil servants, and sent two Albanians to England for 3 months' training, "doubtless to St. Hill Manor, the Scientology center." The German embassy considered Ende—who has friends and colleagues in the German Parliament—a serious investor in Albania's future, and welcomed him. His plans include economic development projects—newspapers, agriculture, tourism, banking, and more—in the Western Balkans.

Ende's own German-based industrial growth—purportedly using Scientology practices — ran into problems late last year, even while working on the Albanian project, during his negotiations to buy a former East German company from the Krupp conglomerate. A business consultant revealed at a press conference the nature of Ende's Scientology-based business practices, such as the keeping of "ethics files" on employees (these include details of intimate personal as well as professional lives). The story was covered widely in the press and the sale was annulled by the bankers involved. The December, 1993 report of the French National Consultative Commission on the Rights of Man, while holding that it would be wrong to pass special laws to protect the public from damaging activities of certain religious groups, appealed to magistrates to pay attention to extant laws for the "protection of persons who are particularly vulnerable, especi-ally minors." Re: Case Number: 174C-LA-243655

Dear [redacted]

Re: Investigation into threatening emails received in January 2006.

Your name was referred to the FBI's Victim Assistance Program as being a possible victim of a federal crime. We appreciate your assistance and cooperation while we are investigating this case. We would like to make you aware of the victim services that may be available to you and to answer any questions you may have regarding the criminal justice process throughout the investigation. Our program is part of the FBI's effort to ensure the victims are treated with respect and are provided information about their rights under federal law. These rights include notification of the status of the case. The enclosed brochures provide information about the FBI's Victim Assistance Program, resources and instructions for accessing the Victim Notification System (VNS). VNS is designed to provide you with information regarding the status of your case.

This case is currently under investigation. This can be a lengthy process and we request your continued patience while we conduct a thorough investigation.

As a crime victim, you have the following rights under 18 United States Code § 3771: (1) The right to be reasonably protected from the accused; (2) The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding, or any parole proceeding, involving the crime or of any release or escape of the accused; (3) The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at that proceeding; (4) The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea, sentencing, or any parole proceeding; (5) The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case; (6) The right to full and timely restitution as provided in law; (7) The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay; (8) The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

We will make our best efforts to ensure you are accorded the rights described. Most of these rights pertain to events occurring after the arrest or indictment of an individual for the crime, and it will become the responsibility of the prosecuting United States Attorney's Office to ensure you are accorded those rights. You may also seek the advice of a private attorney with respect to these rights.

The Victim Notification System (VNS) is designed to provide you with direct information regarding the case as it proceeds through the criminal justice system. You may obtain current information about this matter on the Internet at WWW.Notify.USDOJ.GOV or from the VNS Call Center at 1-866-DOJ-4YOU (1-866-365-4968) (TDD/TTY: 1-866-228-4619) (International: 1-502-213-2767). In addition, you may use the Call Center or Internet to update your contact information and/or change your decision about participation in the notification program. If you update your information to include a current email address, VNS will send information to that address. You will need the following Victim Identification Number (VIN) [redacted] and Personal Identification Number (PIN) [redacted] anytime you contact the Call Center and the first time you log on to VNS on the Internet. In addition, the first time you access the VNS Internet site, you will be prompted to enter your last name (or business name) as currently contained in VNS. The name you should enter is Church of Scientology. b6 b7C

If you have additional questions which involve this matter, please contact the office listed above. When you call, please provide the file number located at the top of this letter. Please remember, your participation in the notification part of this program is voluntary. In order to continue to receive notifications, it is your responsibility to keep your contact information current.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Victim Specialist

Title: CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY;
CYBER/INTERNET THREATS

Synopsis: Open new case and associated Grand Jury sub-file related to [redacted]

Administrative: Open new case and sub-file to house Grand Jury materials associated with [redacted] per telcal on 03/15/2007, between Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] and writer.

Details: The Church of Scientolgy provided writer with 158 pages of e-mails that involved harassment and/or threats. From this material, writer was able to obtain ten (10) e-mails pertaining to harassment and/or threats. Writer focused on key words inside of the e-mails that pertained to specific threats to the church itself or to specific members of the church. The e-mails are the following:

1. Tab 34 (May 31, 2006), "down with the hate sites or down you go."

2. Tab 38 (Jan 26, 2007), "maybe you want to interview him before he's gone for good? So one of you must bleed."

3. Tab 41 (Jan 30, 2007), "We bring pain to those who cause it. Their perceived delight is their ultimate demise." "We old him he'd have to do better or end up being destroyed" [redacted] punishment is just beginning." [redacted] She must be punished."

b6
b7C

4. Tab 42 (Feb 20, 2007), [redacted] should be hurt. [redacted]"

174C-LA-247415-1

5. Tab 44 (Feb 20, 2007), "Your pain is NOTHING compared to what will happen to them. The left hand will crush them."

6. Tab 45 (Feb 20, 2007), [redacted] and others will be writhing on the floor in complete agony and NOTHING can help them. The left hand cannot be stopped." b6 b7C

7. Tab 46 (Feb 20, 2007), "But the evil that RFW must be destroyed, even if [redacted] must be sacrificed. It is all in the pain."

8. Tab 47 (Feb 20, 2007), "The hatemongers of Religiousfreedomwatch will prefer a bath in molten lead compared to what is about to happen to them."

9. Tab 49 (Feb 20, 2007), "What is that at your door?"

10. Tab 50 (Feb 20, 2007), "A quick death by a sharp sword is FAR too good for [redacted] will not die she will suffer until she excretes the last drop of the polluted essence of Greenway." b6 b7C

The aforementioned e-mails were submitted to AUSA [redacted] for review. Thereafter, she stated that there were threats inside the e-mails against specific members of the church and wanted further investigation into this matter.

In order to store Grand Jury material separate from other documents pertinent to the case, writer is requesting that a new case be opened to address cyber internet threats towards the Church of Scientology and that a Grand Jury subfile also be created.

[redacted] here. Maybe as me, maybe as some past you, back in GO days or maybe a future you, stuck in the RPF on ARC Straightwire ruds, certainly not flying them and not even close to the Airplane Door Goals.

Sorry to bother you but those sites really and utterly need to come down. If they don't this is just the beginning.

[redacted]

You are worse than raw meat and I think you know it.

Yep, we've hammered RTC about you as well. A little more work and we'll be able to send them lots of reports automatically. But for now the virtual wireless network virus is exactly what we need to keep this working, that's KTW and not KSW.

Did you know that there's a Moxon street in London? Relatives of yours? It is not too far from Tottenham Court road, the next time you are over for a visit you ought to take a look.

We have ex OSA and GO with us so we know all of the tricks. The tech applied with certaintly but not the golden age, this is age of poo. Sorry.

This is not April Fools but deadly serious stuff. You get a little break and then you will think all of the invader forces are landing on Verdugo Vista. What you have seen so far is just the expeditionary force. Soon the saucers will be there and out will pour little green men, snake people, grinders, halvers and who knows what else. My oh my, what will the neighbors say? I'll bet the Armenians will panic.

Much love,

[redacted] by the way

I have about 30 really crude ads made up for [redacted] with ALL of your phone numbers. Do you want me to start posting them? Could be tonight, could be tomorrow, could be the middle of the week.

The sites, religiousfreedomwatch and parishioners, they need to come down by Wednesday.

Man, you would not believe these French networks.

Anyway, me and [redacted] There are some ads up. You might want to take look. This is professional stuff, just wait till we use a little money and put them up on adult sites.

Man oh man, you are gonna get calls.

Then there's the garage sale network. [redacted] in Starbucks or something. We're going to take some pix off eBay and make out like it is your stuff. People will be driving up from San Diego for the Verdugo Vista events.

And the way out is easy, no not through the Wall of Fire but through the Wall of taking down the hate sites.

[redacted] Boy,

[redacted] here but you probably guessed that.

[redacted] and I are ready to crank this to the next level. Did you like the new ads? Well we have a lot more.

You will never find me. Your threats are empty. I've never even been to the US so what do I care about the Glendale Police?

You've got to be wondering about Scientology. Going exterior? Being at cause? Not in my case, time to [redacted] IT UP!!

Do you want everyone to remember [redacted] in the ads? Well take the hate sites down and this is a flash in the pan. Leave them up and she will become an internet legend.

[redacted] has this all worked out. Oh, she's been to the US but you will never figure out who she is unless you find [redacted] and give him truth serum.

If DM won't let you take the whole site down, try another meme.

[redacted]

ps [redacted] doesn't get a copy of this one, she may get something else.

I don't want to have to keep fighting but the hate sites need to come down.

I'm pretty sure [redacted] has been in touch with you. He's tough, and what I've seen of his stuff is pretty in your face.

Can't you do something about these sites? Eventually something has to give.

We're in England not much your local PD can do to us and with the wireless sniffer we're anonymous.

If you want [redacted]

If not, well then as [redacted] says the button has to be pushed until the spring comes springing up.

I'd rather not do this but I have no choice in the matter.

All you outside guys are going to get it eventually. [redacted] Just think about it.

Yours,

OK no[redacted]ads for a while. Instead, estate sales. Yep, the invitations have gone out for a visit to an 'exclusive sale in a fine[redacted]and people will start showing up at 8 am on Saturday. The event runs through Sunday. Events run every weekend for quite a while now, and, on certain selected weekdays as well.

Just thought you'd want to know.

[redacted]and I were in London today. We got some guy to take our picture. We'll post it somewhere, you can try to find us. Maybe you can go exterior and pop in for a pint or cuppa, depending on your preference.

[redacted]ads will resume but not on estate sales days!

Listen, is going to raise hell if those sites don't come down. We're in Switzerland, we picked up some money for the project. has modified the remote network sniffer, take a look at some of the wild places we've tapped into.

Anyhow has taken some going to use them in ads. He is going start to tie them to Scientology, we all know testified that Scientology used prostitution to keep orgs going.

We're real surprised the have put up with this. But, we have done what you all have done and that is find a target. is going to drag Scientology down.

says you have about another week, then the ads hit the whole adult site community. That's 40 grand but we have it now.

And that's saying nothing of ads for garage sales, help wanted ads for truckers showing up at and so on.

is the weak link. Deal with it by LOSING THE SITES.

Don't just search. Find. Check out the new MSN Search!

here, by the way, with looking on

Anyhow, I see you have yet to take down all of the ads. I guess it is shame on me that they are not generating more calls.

But you get the idea of how this is gonna be unless those sites come down and come down soon.

And I still think you are a wimp and wonder how your balls ever worked enough to squirt out A real man would have kicked me and all the way to Marcab by now.

Not only are you a wimp but your OT powers are a joke. I'm surprised you have big enough

Why don't you beam up and find out? Why don't you go exterior and come punch me in the nose?

Bite me.

Some of you don't know me. I'm a Wiccan but not a peaceful one.

My current quest is to get rid of the hate sites. My friend, is helping. We've targeted and recently with major majick.

It doesn't have to be like this. is slowly going mad with what we've done to him. will not last long.

We'd prefer a gentle solution but these are not gentle people.

Hi, some of you know me, some don't so time for an intro.

I call myself [redacted]

My partner is [redacted], London's original [redacted]

We've decided that Scientology's hate sites and fair game were too much.

We found a weak point in the form of [redacted] and went to work. His weak point is [redacted]

We set up ads using [redacted] name and the [redacted] home numbers with ads for prostitution services. Some of them were pretty raunchy! We warned [redacted], told him to use his influence to take the sites down.

The sites did not come down, so up went the ads. [redacted] sent a few threatening emails back, but guess what, we never use the same email twice.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

Then we put up ads for garage and estate sales.

Then we started sending emails to [redacted] accounts.
[redacted]

These were pretty nasty as well. We talked about having [redacted] and we'd put it up on a site. We told [redacted] we thought she needed to learn the joys of watersports.

But we were, real obvious that we'd stop if the sites came down. We fair gamed [redacted]

b6

Well the last straw so to speak was to set up a way for people to make appointments to go and see [redacted] Guys showed up at [redacted] house looking for a [redacted]

[redacted] has changed all of his phone numbers. The [redacted] aren't at home that much as they don't want some guy to show up and [redacted] door. They have put spam filters on their emails. This has put a dent into [redacted]

Rumour has it [redacted] has gone off the edge over this.

[redacted] is not at cause. [redacted] could not stop or detect or trace our emails and web ads. [redacted] does not have his TRs in.

Yes, I called [redacted] hey I just did it. [redacted] can't touch me. I even gave [redacted] a few hints [redacted]

b6
b7C

Who could be next? Any high up Scientologist not protected behind the walls of the Gold Base, I suppose. We'll find the buttons and push them.

[redacted]

Scientology is putrid. It needs to go. We are going to start by purging the hate.

And yes, if [redacted] beats you, [redacted] doesn't mind [redacted] are our tools of humiliation. Of course it is all on video.

[redacted] You want to [redacted] just let me know. I'm still here waiting.

[redacted]--we know that [redacted] has got it going on, I know it is wrong, but I'm in love with [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted]--could you be next?

Special shout outs to: [redacted]

Well he's not feeling well these days and I'm happy to help him out.

Since the hate sites are still up, the next target is [redacted] and I have a very clever way to deal with him. [redacted] maybe you want to interview him before he's gone for good?

Anyway the thing is it was not cool that so many of you hopped all over [redacted] He did what he thought was right.

Title: CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY;
CYBER/INTERNET THREATS

Synopsis: Open new case and associated Grand Jury sub-file related to [redacted]

Administrative: Open new case and sub-file to house Grand Jury materials associated with [redacted] per telcal on 03/15/2007, between Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] and writer.

Details: The Church of Scientolgy provided writer with 158 pages of e-mails that involved harassment and/or threats. From this material, writer was able to obtain ten (10) e-mails pertaining to harassment and/or threats. Writer focused on key words inside of the e-mails that pertained to specific threats to the church itself or to specific members of the church. The e-mails are the following:

1. Tab 34 (May 31, 2006), "down with the hate sites or down you go."

2. Tab 38 (Jan 26, 2007), "maybe you want to interview him before he's gone for good? So one of you must bleed."

3. Tab 41 (Jan 30, 2007), "We bring pain to those who cause it. Their perceived delight is their ultimate demise." "We old him he'd have to do better or end up being destroyed" [redacted] punishment is just beginning." [redacted] She must be punished."

b6
b7C

4. Tab 42 (Feb 20, 2007), [redacted] should be hurt. [redacted]"

174C-LA-247415-1

5. Tab 44 (Feb 20, 2007), "Your pain is NOTHING compared to what will happen to them. The left hand will crush them."

6. Tab 45 (Feb 20, 2007), [redacted] and others will be writhing on the floor in complete agony and NOTHING can help them. The left hand cannot be stopped." b6 b7C

7. Tab 46 (Feb 20, 2007), "But the evil that RFW must be destroyed, even if [redacted] must be sacrificed. It is all in the pain."

8. Tab 47 (Feb 20, 2007), "The hatemongers of Religiousfreedomwatch will prefer a bath in molten lead compared to what is about to happen to them."

9. Tab 49 (Feb 20, 2007), "What is that at your door?"

10. Tab 50 (Feb 20, 2007), "A quick death by a sharp sword is FAR too good for [redacted] will not die she will suffer until she excretes the last drop of the polluted essence of Greenway." b6 b7C

The aforementioned e-mails were submitted to AUSA [redacted] for review. Thereafter, she stated that there were threats inside the e-mails against specific members of the church and wanted further investigation into this matter.

In order to store Grand Jury material separate from other documents pertinent to the case, writer is requesting that a new case be opened to address cyber internet threats towards the Church of Scientology and that a Grand Jury subfile also be created.

OK as you can see I can pretty much own you whenever I want to.

Drop the sites or this gets ugly.

I will also file an 'RTC Concern' that may make your life more interesting. b6 b7C

Just imagine every city of Craigs with a different ad from a different account EVERY DAY.

Imagine people showing up for incalls.

Imagine people showing up for garage sales.

Imagine people showing up at the law office.

Why can't you just postulate this out of existence?

[redacted] here. Maybe as me, maybe as some past you, back in GO days or maybe a future you, stuck in the RPF on ARC Straightwire ruds, certainly not flying them and not even close to the Airplane Door Goals.

Sorry to bother you but those sites really and utterly need to come down. If they don't this is just the beginning.

[redacted]

You are worse than raw meat and I think you know it.

Yep, we've hammered RTC about you as well. A little more work and we'll be able to send them lots of reports automatically. But for now the virtual wireless network virus is exactly what we need to keep this working, that's KTW and not KSW.

Did you know that there's a Moxon street in London? Relatives of yours? It is not too far from Tottenham Court road, the next time you are over for a visit you ought to take a look.

We have ex OSA and GO with us so we know all of the tricks. The tech applied with certaintly but not the golden age, this is age of poo. Sorry.

This is not April Fools but deadly serious stuff. You get a little break and then you will think all of the invader forces are landing on Verdugo Vista. What you have seen so far is just the expeditionary force. Soon the saucers will be there and out will pour little green men, snake people, grinders, halvers and who knows what else. My oh my, what will the neighbors say? I'll bet the Armenians will panic.

Much love,

[redacted]here. How have you been? Those sites are still up, aren't they? What are you doing about that?

I have about 30 really crude ads made up for [redacted] with ALL of your phone numbers. Do you want me to start posting them? Could be tonight, could be tomorrow, could be the middle of the week.

The sites, religiousfreedomwatch and parishioners, they need to come down by Wednesday.

Man, you would not believe these French networks.

Hey [redacted]

[redacted] here again. This wireless sniffer is really great. [redacted]

Anyway, me and [redacted] There are some ads up. You might want to take look. This is professional stuff, just wait till we use a little money and put them up on adult sites.

Man oh man, you are gonna get calls.

Then there's the garage sale network. [redacted] in Starbucks or something. We're going to take some pix off eBay and make out like it is your stuff. People will be driving up from San Diego for the Verdugo Vista events.

And the way out is easy, no not through the Wall of Fire but through the Wall of taking down the hate sites.

[redacted] Boy,

[redacted] here but you probably guessed that.

[redacted] and I are ready to crank this to the next level. Did you like the new ads? Well we have a lot more.

You will never find me. Your threats are empty. I've never even been to the US so what do I care about the Glendale Police?

You've got to be wondering about Scientology. Going exterior? Being at cause? Not in my case, time to [redacted] IT UP!!

Do you want everyone to remember [redacted] in the ads? Well take the hate sites down and this is a flash in the pan. Leave them up and she will become an internet legend.

[redacted] has this all worked out. Oh, she's been to the US but you will never figure out who she is unless you find [redacted] and give him truth serum.

If DM won't let you take the whole site down, try another meme.

[redacted]

ps [redacted] doesn't get a copy of this one, she may get something else.

I don't want to have to keep fighting but the hate sites need to come down.

I'm pretty sure [redacted] has been in touch with you. He's tough, and what I've seen of his stuff is pretty in your face.

Can't you do something about these sites? Eventually something has to give.

We're in England not much your local PD can do to us and with the wireless sniffer we're anonymous.

If you want [redacted]

If not, well then as [redacted] says the button has to be pushed until the spring comes springing up.

I'd rather not do this but I have no choice in the matter.

All you outside guys are going to get it eventually. [redacted] Just think about it.

Yours,

Yeah, businesses run by people on your hate sites. Take them down. I tried being nice and look at what you did.

If you ever meet [redacted] b6 b7C

I've tried to be sweet. I've tried to be rational. I've tried to be fair.

You have until the end of the week.

OK no[redacted]ads for a while. Instead, estate sales. Yep, the invitations have gone out for a visit to an 'exclusive sale in a fine[redacted]and people will start showing up at 8 am on Saturday. The event runs through Sunday. Events run every weekend for quite a while now, and, on certain selected weekdays as well.

Just thought you'd want to know.

[redacted]and I were in London today. We got some guy to take our picture. We'll post it somewhere, you can try to find us. Maybe you can go exterior and pop in for a pint or cuppa, depending on your preference.

[redacted]ads will resume but not on estate sales days!

Listen, is going to raise hell if those sites don't come down. We're in Switzerland, we picked up some money for the project. has modified the remote network sniffer, take a look at some of the wild places we've tapped into.

Anyhow has taken some going to use them in ads. He is going start to tie them to Scientology, we all know testified that Scientology used prostitution to keep orgs going.

We're real surprised the have put up with this. But, we have done what you all have done and that is find a target. is going to drag Scientology down.

says you have about another week, then the ads hit the whole adult site community. That's 40 grand but we have it now.

And that's saying nothing of ads for garage sales, help wanted ads for truckers showing up at and so on.

is the weak link. Deal with it by LOSING THE SITES.

Don't just search. Find. Check out the new MSN Search!

Dear

If you were any kind of man you'd turn the earth upside down to get me. I've done it more than once and I'm going to keep doing it.

Not only are you a wimp but your OT powers are a joke. I'm surprised you have big enough

Why don't you beam up and find out? Why don't you go exterior and come punch me in the nose?

Bite me.

Some of you don't know me. I'm a Wiccan but not a peaceful one.

My current quest is to get rid of the hate sites. My friend, is helping. We've targeted and recently with major majick.

It doesn't have to be like this. is slowly going mad with what we've done to him. will not last long.

We'd prefer a gentle solution but these are not gentle people.

Special shout outs to

The end is near (of the HATRED).

Hi, some of you know me, some don't so time for an intro.

I call myself [redacted]

My partner is [redacted], London's original [redacted]

We've decided that Scientology's hate sites and fair game were too much.

We found a weak point in the form of [redacted] and went to work. His weak point is [redacted]

We set up ads using [redacted] name and the [redacted] home numbers with ads for prostitution services. Some of them were pretty raunchy! We warned [redacted], told him to use his influence to take the sites down.

The sites did not come down, so up went the ads. [redacted] sent a few threatening emails back, but guess what, we never use the same email twice.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

Then we put up ads for garage and estate sales.

Then we started sending emails to [redacted] accounts.
[redacted]

These were pretty nasty as well. We talked about having [redacted] and we'd put it up on a site. We told [redacted] we thought she needed to learn the joys of watersports.

But we were, real obvious that we'd stop if the sites came down. We fair gamed [redacted]

b6

Well the last straw so to speak was to set up a way for people to make appointments to go and see [redacted] Guys showed up at [redacted] house looking for a [redacted]

[redacted] has changed all of his phone numbers. The [redacted] aren't at home that much as they don't want some guy to show up and [redacted] door. They have put spam filters on their emails. This has put a dent into [redacted]

Rumour has it [redacted] has gone off the edge over this.

[redacted] is not at cause. [redacted] could not stop or detect or trace our emails and web ads. [redacted] does not have his TRs in.

Yes, I called [redacted] hey I just did it. [redacted] can't touch me. I even gave [redacted] a few hints [redacted]

b6
b7C

Who could be next? Any high up Scientologist not protected behind the walls of the Gold Base, I suppose. We'll find the buttons and push them.

[redacted]

Scientology is putrid. It needs to go. We are going to start by purging the hate.

And yes, if [redacted] beats you, [redacted] doesn't mind [redacted] are our tools of humiliation. Of course it is all on video.

[redacted] You want to [redacted] just let me know. I'm still here waiting.

[redacted]--we know that [redacted] has got it going on, I know it is wrong, but I'm in love with [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted]--could you be next?

FBI Albany conducted the interviews of [redacted] as well as an individual by the name of [redacted]

The interview of [redacted] revealed that she did operate the email address [redacted] and the email account was maintained at her residence [redacted] New York and was used for both personal and business applications. [redacted] advised that she was not aware of any threatening photographs taken and sent from her email address. [redacted] identified [redacted] in the photographs and stated that he was a self-proclaimed hacker who used her email address in the past both in her presence and when she was not present. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had "flamed sites" in the past. [redacted] describing this as a process of sending large numbers of negative internet messages to different websites and bulletin boards which exist on the internet. According to the interview, [redacted] was not aware of any personal malice [redacted] had toward COS but knew that he had sent negative messages to other groups similar to the COS in the past.

[redacted] Both individuals took multiple photographs of themselves with weapons in various poses of which [redacted] advised they were for personal enjoyment only. [redacted] stated that the two images posted to the COS were the same ones he posted to the website http://boards.harihemp.com/boards/messages. [redacted] posting any of the images to any website other than the www.marihemp.com website. [redacted] did not have anything against any religious group to include the COS and indicated that [redacted] might have been the one who sent the images to COS from [redacted] email address. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] has had past involvement with "flaming sites."

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was the second person in the photographs along with [redacted] and stated that the photographs were taken for the purposes of posting them on an internet bulletin board maintained by [redacted] which featured "disturbing images." [redacted] advised that he was aware that the two photographs sent to the COS were also posted to the www.marihemp.com website. [redacted] had posted the images without his knowledge. [redacted] denied having sent the images to the COS himself and indicated that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS. In an effort to explain the time stamp issue between the photographs sent to the www.marihemp.com website and sent to the COS, [redacted] stated, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw [redacted] post a second image to the Marihemp site."

The time stamp issue involved the fact that the two images were sent to www.marihemp.com on 04/07/2002 at 4:22:41 a.m. E.T. and 4:44:53 a.m. E.T. These same images were posted to the COS website from the warhammer email address on 04/07/2002 at 4:45:36 a.m. E.T.

Based on the above information, the PI Investigation was converted to a Full Field Investigation on 09/04/2003.

Los Angeles had several telephone discussions with Albany concerning the interviews with [redacted] Specifically, the discussions concerned the truthfulness of [redacted] and who might be more inclined to have sent the pictures. [redacted] seemed to be of the opinion that [redacted] would be the person more likely to lie about sending the pictures due to his past criminal history and contacts with law enforcement, although the intent behind sending the photographs to COS was not apparent to Albany. During the discussions with Albany, Los Angeles was informed that there did not seem to be anything heard or observed while interviewing [redacted] to indicate why either might have sent the pictures to COS. To date, there has been no other similar emails sent to the COS.

Los Angeles was informed, on or about October, 2002, that private investigators hired by COS were sent to talk to [redacted] and that the interview was recorded. To date, Los Angeles has not been advised what transpired during that contact although several attempts have been made to ascertain the substance of the contact. COS did show Los Angeles several surveillance photographs taken of [redacted] during the contact to use as a comparison with the threatening email photographs.

Synopsis: Late submission of evidence.

Details: The purpose of this communication is to document the late submission of evidence for the above captioned case per FBI Evidence Control Center (ECC) policy.

On 04/07/2002 Los Angeles received a facsimile of an email message sent to several Church of Scientology (COS) websites which consisted of two photographs of individuals making threatening gestures with weapons.

A subsequent conversation with the United States Attorney's office determined that the pictures did not constitute a direct threat that was able to be prosecuted.

On 07/26/2002, at the request of Los Angeles, COS sent a compact disc (CD) containing the threatening email to be used if a case were to be opened in the near future.

On 08/14/2002, [redacted] up until this date, Los Angeles could not submit the CD as evidence because a case was not opened. Now [redacted] the evidence needs to be submitted.

[redacted] was not certain how the images were sent to the COS and he adamantly denied having any part in posting any images other than the aforementioned event on the message board sponsored by [redacted] He theorized that someone may have "hacked" into [redacted] email account to send the images to the COS. Further, [redacted] stated that the images sent to the COS had been sent via Zip file. He explained that using a Zip file would not have been needed since the image files were relatively small in size and could have been attached to the original email which was sent to the COS. b6 b7C

[redacted] described himself as a non-religious person who did not hold any bad will toward any religious group. In addition, [redacted] advised that he didn't know what the COS believed in, but noted that a lot of famous people seemed to be involved with the group. b6 b7C

[redacted] suggested that [redacted] was the person who sent the images to the COS during one of the times when he had visited [redacted] at [redacted] During these visits, [redacted] used the computer which featured the identified AOL email account and therefore had the opportunity to send the images to the COS. b6 b7C

[redacted] noted that [redacted] described himself as a "computer guy" and that [redacted] operated a number of different screen names and internet identities, using these titles to "flame" different websites. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had been arrested for stealing evidence from a Police station in Woodstock, NY for which he received some time in jail. [redacted] stated that although [redacted] had difficulties staying out of trouble, he didn't categorize [redacted] as a violent person. b6 b7C

[redacted] was not able to identify the address of [redacted] current residence but described it as a house on [redacted] owned by the person who operates [redacted] telephone number was [redacted] In addition, [redacted] believed that [redacted] was [redacted] located on [redacted] NY. b6 b7C

[redacted]

Reference my phone message to you today, Saturday, 06/07/03, Also, per your request, I have faxed this communication to you.

Here are two threats received by the Church of Scientology at their LA headquarters this morning. This is all the information they have.

The Church is becoming very frustrated over the continued threatening, harassing email traffic directed towards them and they rightfully expect that every possible action will be taken to solve these cases. I know it is difficult to get Legats and other field offices to cover leads. and I understand how busy the FBI is with the bigger terrorism issues, but I believe these cases should be promptly and aggressively handled. Each time, every time! If they don't meet the letter of the law, and the AUSA declines, or the FBI closes them administratively for some reason, I think we should get that in writing or at least a courtensy call because victims of threatened violence must be kept in the loop at all times. In fact, there have been numerous occasions that Church property and Church members have actually been seriously attacked, so we must assume these threats are real, and not merely the angry rantings of Church detractors. If a few of these subjects were actually identified and prosecuted, this would act as a deterrent, and much of this threatening behavior would cease. Since there appears to be no law enforcement consequences for this illegal behavior, the threats do not stop.

Is there anything I can do, or the Church can do to accelerate the process? I could prepare a summary communication setting forth all the threats, the dates reported, and the known action taken on each if that would help move these matters forward? Maybe it would help if you and I met with [redacted] to get their support and assistance? Likewise, maybe you and I should meet personally with the United States Attorney to discuss these matters?

Regardless, we need to radically ratchet up the speed up on these cases--I do believe the Church, as taxpayers and most importantly as victims, rightfully deserve timely action on their behalf. They are scared, they are concerned, and they do not feel the FBI is giving these threats proper attention. Unfortunately, [redacted] I must agree with them.

Thanks. Let's talk.

This case was [redacted] b7E
[redacted] after information was received that a threatening email was sent to the Church of Scientology (COS) website on 04/07/2002. The email was opened by a COS member who maintains the organization's website in Los Angeles.

The email consisted of a zip file entitled

A discussion with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] revealed that there was not enough evidence at present to prosecute this matter (under 18 U.S.C. Section 875 - mailing a threatening communication) but advised [redacted] seemed warranted. If more evidence were obtained in this matter, the United States Attorney's office would consider prosecution in this matter. b7E

Through a Grand Jury Subpoena, [redacted] b3

In addition, COS internet technician [redacted] found a possible matching photograph of one of the subjects in the threatening photograph. [redacted] was researching an unrelated topic and came across a website development company operating in Woodstock New York (www [redacted] com) and owned by a [redacted] and a [redacted] Because the name [redacted] was so unusual and it was the same spelling as the name of the zip file containing the threatening photographs, [redacted] visited the website. [redacted] found a photograph of [redacted] in the website and compared it to the threatening photograph and it appeared to be the same person. [redacted] brought this information to the attention of Los Angeles and a lead was sent to the Albany Field Office on 09/09/2002 to interview both [redacted] b6 b7C

A check through [redacted] revealed that both [redacted] and [redacted] share the same address in Woodstock. b6 b7C b7E

Based on this information, a lead was sent to FBI Albany to interview [redacted] to determine if either new about the photographs, who was in the photographs and why they were taken. FBI Albany conducted the interviews of [redacted] and [redacted] as well as an individual by the name of [redacted] [redacted] was identified as the second person in the threatening photographs along with [redacted] b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that she did operate the email address [redacted]@aol.com and the email account was maintained at her residence on [redacted] New York and was used for both personal and business applications. [redacted] advised that she was not aware of any threatening photographs taken and sent from her email address. [redacted] identified [redacted] in the photographs and stated that he was a self- b6 b7C proclaimed hacker who used her email address in the past both in her presence and when she was not present. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had "flamed sites" in the past describing this as a process of sending large numbers of negative internet messages to different websites and bulletin boards which exist on the internet. According to the interview, [redacted] was not aware of any personal malice [redacted] had toward COS but knew that he had sent negative messages to other groups similar to the COS in the past. b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was one of the individuals in the photographs and that the rifle in the photographs belonged to [redacted] Both individuals took multiple photographs of themselves with weapons in various poses of which [redacted] advised they were for personal enjoyment only. [redacted] stated that the two images posted to the COS were the same ones he posted to the website http://[redacted] denied posting any of the images to any website other than the www[redacted].com website. [redacted] did not have anything against any religious group to include the COS and indicated that [redacted] might have been the one who sent the images to COS from [redacted] email address. [redacted] like [redacted] also indicated that [redacted] has had past involvement with "flaming sites." b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was the second person in the photographs along with [redacted] and stated that the photographs were taken for the purposes of posting them on an internet bulletin board maintained by [redacted] which featured "disturbing images." [redacted] advised that he was aware that the two photographs sent to the COS were also posted to the www[redacted].com website. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had posted the images without his knowledge. [redacted] denied having sent the images to the COS himself and indicated that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS. In an effort to explain the time stamp issue between the photographs sent to the www.[redacted].com website and sent to the COS, [redacted] stated, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw [redacted] post a second image to the [redacted] site." b6 b7C

The time stamp issue involved the fact that the two images were sent to www[redacted].com on April 7, 2002 at 4:22:41 a.m. E.T. and 4:44:53 a.m. E.T. These same images were posted to the COS from the [redacted] email address on April 7, 2002 at 4:45:36 a.m. E.T. b6 b7C

Based on the above information, Los Angeles requests that this [redacted] be converted into a [redacted] Investigation. b7E

Report of: SA [redacted] b6 b7C Office: Los Angeles
Date: December 19, 2003

Case ID # 266A-LA-231558

Narrative of Offense:

This case was [redacted] b7E after information was received that a threatening email was sent to the Church of Scientology (COS) website on 04/07/2002. The email was opened by a COS member who maintains the organization's website in Los Angeles.

The email consisted of a zip file entitled [redacted].ZIP." When opened, the file contained two photographs of individuals holding assault rifles and knives. One of the individuals holding the assault rifle was pointing the weapon at the camera taking the photograph. The second individual was depicted holding a large knife towards the camera. The email consisted of the two photographs but no text. b6 b7C

A discussion with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] revealed that there was not enough evidence at present to prosecute this matter (under 18 U.S.C. Section 875 - mailing a threatening communication) but advised [redacted] b7E seemed warranted. If more evidence were obtained in this matter, the United States Attorney's office would consider prosecution in this matter. There was no discussion at that time concerning possible violations of Title 18 U.S.C. Section 247(a)(2) - Damage to religious property; obstruction of persons in the free exercise of religious beliefs, or Title 18 U.S.C. Section 373(a) - Solicitation of a crime of violence. b6 b7C

In addition, COS internet technician [redacted] found, independently, a possible matching photograph of one of the subjects in the threatening photographs. [redacted] was researching an unrelated topic and came across a website development company operating in Woodstock New York (www.[redacted]com) and owned by a [redacted] and a [redacted] Because the name [redacted] was so unusual and it was the same spelling as the name of the zip file containing the threatening photographs, [redacted] visited the website. [redacted] found a photograph of [redacted] in the website and compared it to the threatening photograph and it appeared to be the same person. [redacted] brought this information to the attention of Los Angeles. After reviewing the photographs, Los Angeles determined that the photographs might contain the same person [redacted]. b6 b7C

A check through [redacted] revealed that both [redacted] and [redacted] share the same address in Woodstock. b6 b7C b7E

Based on this information, a lead was sent to FBI Albany on 09/09/2002 to interview [redacted] to determine if either knew who was in the photographs, why they were taken, and why they were sent to COS. FBI Albany conducted the interviews of [redacted] as well as an individual by the name of [redacted] was identified as the second person in the threatening photographs along with [redacted] b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that she did operate the email address [redacted].com and the email account was maintained at her residence on [redacted] and was used for both personal and business applications. [redacted] advised that she was not aware of any threatening photographs taken and sent from her email address. [redacted] identified [redacted] in the photographs and stated that he was a self-proclaimed hacker who used her email address in the past both in her presence and when she was not present. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had "flamed sites" in the past. [redacted] describing this as a process of sending large numbers of negative internet messages to different websites and bulletin boards which exist on the internet. According to the interview, [redacted] was not aware of any personal malice [redacted] had toward COS but knew that he had sent negative messages to other groups similar to the COS in the past. b6 b7C posting any of the images to any website other than the www.[redacted].com website. [redacted] did not have anything against any religious group to include the COS and indicated that [redacted] might have been the one who sent the images to COS from [redacted] email address. [redacted] like [redacted] also indicated that [redacted] has had past involvement with "flaming sites." b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was one of the individuals in the photographs and that the rifle in the photographs belonged to [redacted] Both individuals took multiple photographs of themselves with weapons in various poses of which [redacted] advised they were for personal enjoyment only. [redacted] stated that the two images posted to the COS were the same ones he posted to the website http://[redacted] denied b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was the second person in the photographs along with [redacted] and stated that the photographs were taken for the purposes of posting them on an internet bulletin board maintained by [redacted] which featured "disturbing images." [redacted] advised that he was aware that the two photographs sent to the COS were also posted to the www.[redacted].com website. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had posted the images without his knowledge. [redacted] denied having sent the images to the COS himself and indicated that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS. In an effort to explain the time stamp issue between the photographs sent to the [redacted] website and sent to the COS, [redacted] stated, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw [redacted] post a second image to the [redacted] site." b6 b7C

The time stamp issue involved the fact that the two images were sent to www.[redacted].com on 04/07/2002 at 4:22:41 a.m. E.T. and 4:44:53 a.m. E.T. These same images were posted to the COS website from the [redacted] email address on 04/07/2002 at 4:45:36 a.m. E.T. b6 b7C

Based on the above information, [redacted] b7E

Los Angeles had several telephone discussions with Albany concerning the interviews with [redacted] Specifically, the discussions concerned the truthfulness of [redacted] and [redacted] and who might be more inclined to have sent the pictures. Albany seemed to be of the opinion that [redacted] would be the person more likely to lie about sending the pictures due to his past criminal history and contacts with law enforcement, although the intent behind sending the photographs to COS was not apparent to Albany. During the discussions with Albany, Los Angeles was informed that there did not seem to be anything heard or observed while interviewing [redacted] to indicate why either might have sent the pictures to COS. To date, there has been no other similar emails sent to the COS. b6 b7C has not been advised what transpired during that contact although several attempts have been made to ascertain the substance of the contact. COS did show Los Angeles several surveillance photographs taken of [redacted] during the contact to use as a comparison with the threatening email photographs.

Los Angeles was informed, on or about October, 2002, that private investigators hired by COS were sent to talk to [redacted] and that the interview was recorded. To date, Los Angeles b6 b7C

Synopsis: Close captioned matter due to United States Attorney declination.

[redacted]

Details: The purpose of this communication is to request that the status of the above captioned case be changed from an [redacted] to a Closed Case based on the information provided here. b7E

This case was [redacted] after information was received that a threatening email was sent to the Church of Scientology (COS) website on 04/07/2002. The email was opened by a COS member who maintains the organization's website in Los Angeles.

The email consisted of a zip file entitled

A discussion with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] revealed that there was not enough evidence at present to prosecute this matter (under 18 U.S.C. Section 875 - mailing a threatening communication) but advised [redacted] b7E [redacted] seemed warranted. If more evidence were obtained in this matter, the United States Attorney's office would consider prosecution in this matter.

Through a Grand Jury Subpoena, [redacted]

In addition, COS internet technician [redacted] found a possible matching photograph of one of the subjects in the threatening photograph. [redacted] was researching an unrelated topic and came across a website development company operating in Woodstock New York (www.[redacted].com) and owned by a [redacted] and a [redacted]. Because the name [redacted] was so unusual and it was the same spelling as the name of the zip file containing the threatening photographs, [redacted] visited the website. [redacted] found a photograph of [redacted] in the website and compared it to the threatening photograph and it appeared to be the same person. [redacted] brought this information to the attention of Los Angeles and a lead was sent to the Albany Field Office on 09/09/2002 to interview both [redacted] b6 b7C

A check through [redacted] revealed that both [redacted] and [redacted] share the same address in Woodstock. b6 b7C b7E

Based on this information, a lead was sent to FBI Albany to interview [redacted] to determine if either new about the photographs, who was in the photographs and why they were taken. FBI Albany conducted the interviews of [redacted] and [redacted] as well as an individual by the name of [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as the second person in the threatening photographs along with [redacted] b6 b7C

The interview [redacted] revealed that she did operate the email address [redacted]@aol.com and the email account was maintained at her residence on [redacted] in Woodstock, New York and was used for both personal and business applications. [redacted] advised that she was not aware of any threatening photographs taken and sent from her email address. [redacted] b6 b7C identified [redacted] in the photographs and stated that he was a self-proclaimed hacker who used her email address in the past both in her presence and when she was not present. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had "flamed sites" in the past describing this as a process of sending large numbers of negative internet messages to different websites and bulletin boards which exist on the internet. According to the interview, [redacted] was not aware of any personal malice [redacted] had toward COS but knew that he had sent negative messages to other groups similar to the COS in the past. b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was one of the individuals in the photographs and that the rifle in the photographs belonged to [redacted] Both individuals took multiple photographs of themselves with weapons in various poses of which [redacted] advised they were for personal enjoyment only. [redacted] stated that the two images posted to the COS were the same ones he posted to the website [redacted] denied posting any of the images to any website other than the www[redacted]com website. [redacted] did not have anything against any religious group to include the COS and indicated that [redacted] might have been the one who sent the images to COS from [redacted] email address. [redacted] like [redacted] also indicated that [redacted] has had past involvement with "flaming sites." b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was the second person in the photographs along with [redacted] and stated that the photographs were taken for the purposes of posting them on an internet bulletin board maintained by [redacted] which featured "disturbing images." [redacted] advised that he was aware that the two photographs sent to the COS were also posted to the www[redacted].com website. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had posted the images without his knowledge. [redacted] denied having sent the images to the COS himself and indicated that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS. In an effort to explain the time stamp issue between the photographs sent to the www[redacted]com website and sent to the COS, [redacted] stated, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw [redacted] post a second image to the [redacted]" b6 b7C

The time stamp issue involved the fact that the two images were sent to www[redacted]com on April 7, 2002 at 4:22:41 a.m. E.T. and 4:44:53 a.m. E.T. These same images were posted to the COS from the [redacted] email address on April 7, 2002 at 4:45:36 a.m. E.T. b6 b7C

On 12/19/2003, a Prosecutive Report was completed on the above captioned matter and two copies were disseminated to the United States Attorney's Office. One copy was disseminated to Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] of the Hate Crimes Section and a second copy was disseminated to AUSA [redacted] of the Organized Crime and Terrorism Section. On 12/13/2004 AUSA [redacted] provided a verbal declination with respect to prosecution under the hate crimes violations noted in the report. On 01/14/2004 AUSA [redacted] advised, via telephone voicemail, that the prosecutive report was turned over to AUSA [redacted] for review. b6 b7C

On 03/02/2004 AUSA [redacted] provided a declination letter regarding this matter stating, in part, "I have reviewed the prosecutive report dated December 19, 2003 that you (SA [redacted] prepared regarding subjects [redacted] As we discussed in our telephone conversation today, based on the report there is insufficient evidence to charge any of these individuals with violating Title 18, United States Code, Sections 373 or 875(c) in this matter." b6 b7C

The Church of Scientology has been the victim of a large number of violent acts in recent years. The threats have taken the form of general threats to blow up or burn down Church of Scientology buildings to specific threats to kill certain members or destroy specific buildings around the country. In addition, The Church of Scientology has been the victim of death threats to its leaders via the mail, assaults and murders of its members, arson committed at various churches around the world, anthrax hoax letters mailed to churches, and attempted bombings of churches.

Synopsis: Late submission of evidence.

On 04/07/2002 Los Angeles received a facsimile of an email message sent to several Church of Scientology (COS) websites which consisted of two photographs of individuals making threatening gestures with weapons.

Some of the images featured were provided by [redacted] while others were provided by visitors to the site via the internet. The website had since been closed and [redacted] was not able to provide additional information regarding the final disposition of the digital assets of the site. b6 b7C

[redacted] identified the two images which were received by the Church of Scientology (COS) as originating from the images made by [redacted] in 2002. [redacted] expressed that he was "pissed off" that any of the images, which were made for his personal use, became postings of secondary internet addresses. b6 b7C

[redacted] was aware that the same images received by the COS were also posted at [redacted] a bulletin board which [redacted] and associated products. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had posted the two images at [redacted] without his knowledge. [redacted] offered that he did not believe that [redacted] was the type of person who would send violent images to anyone including the COS. [redacted] qualified his position in that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS, but offered that [redacted] was mostly known to use the computer more for gaming and music downloads. b6 b7C

[redacted] asserted that [redacted] and that further, he believed that members of the COS were good people. [redacted] shared that he had spent time working at ground zero at the World Trade Center (WTC) site b6 b7C

during the cleanup event at which time he had an opportunity to spend time in the company of different persons associated with the COS. During that time, [redacted] related that the COS were good people who didn't "preach too much" to anyone while they were working. [redacted] described the COS as a very organized group at the WTC who featured a large hospitality tent and uniform tee shirts for their members. It was during his time at the WTC that [redacted] described that he had a revelation to straighten out his life and gain better perspective of the world as opposed to the mistakes that he had made as a younger man.

[redacted] reviewed the time stamp of images posted to the [redacted] site, as well as the time stamp of the email message sent to the COS which were provided by the writer. When asked to explain the proximity of time stamps of the second [redacted] image posting, and the email message to the COS; [redacted] explained that, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw [redacted] post a second image to the [redacted] site." [redacted] explained that this would also make it seem that all of the images/messages were sent by the same person [redacted]

[redacted]

Reference my phone message to you today, Saturday, 06/07/03, Also, per your request, I have faxed this communication to you.

Here are two threats received by the Church of Scientology at their LA headquarters this morning. This is all the information they have.

The Church is becoming very frustrated over the continued threatening, harassing email traffic directed towards them and they rightfully expect that every possible action will be taken to solve these cases. I know it is difficult to get Legats and other field offices to cover leads. and I understand how busy the FBI is with the bigger terrorism issues, but I believe these cases should be promptly and aggressively handled. Each time, every time! If they don't meet the letter of the law, and the AUSA declines, or the FBI closes them administratively for some reason, I think we should get that in writing or at least a courtensy call because victims of threatened violence must be kept in the loop at all times. In fact, there have been numerous occasions that Church property and Church members have actually been seriously attacked, so we must assume these threats are real, and not merely the angry rantings of Church detractors. If a few of these subjects were actually identified and prosecuted, this would act as a deterrent, and much of this threatening behavior would cease. Since there appears to be no law enforcement consequences for this illegal behavior, the threats do not stop.

Is there anything I can do, or the Church can do to accelerate the process? I could prepare a summary communication setting forth all the threats, the dates reported, and the known action taken on each if that would help move these matters forward? Maybe it would help if you and I met with [redacted] to get their support and assistance? Likewise, maybe you and I should meet personally with the United States Attorney to discuss these matters?

Regardless, we need to radically ratchet up the speed up on these cases--I do believe the Church, as taxpayers and most importantly as victims, rightfully deserve timely action on their behalf. They are scared, they are concerned, and they do not feel the FBI is giving these threats proper attention. Unfortunately, [redacted] I must agree with them.

Thanks. Let's talk.

Reference my phone message to you today, Saturday, 6/7/03. Also, per your request, I have faxed this communication to you.

Here are two more threats received by the Church of Scientology at their LA headquarters this morning. This is all the information they have.

The Church is becoming very frustrated over the continued threatening, harassing email traffic directed towards them and they rightfully expect that every possible action will be taken to solve these cases. I know it is difficult to get Legats and other field offices to cover leads, and I understand how busy the FBI is with the bigger terrorism issues, but I believe these cases should be promptly and aggressively handled. Each time, every time! If they don't meet the letter of the law, and the AUSA declines or the FBI closes them administratively for some reason, I think we should get that in writing or at least a courtesy call because victims of threatened violence must be kept in the loop at all times. In fact, there have been numerous occasions that Church property and Church members have actually been seriously attacked, so we must assume these threats are real, and not merely the angry rantings of Church detractors. If a few of these subjects were actually identified and prosecuted, this would act as a deterrent, and much of this threatening behavior would cease. Since there appears to be no law enforcement consequences for this illegal behavior, the threats do not stop.

Is there anything I can do, or the Church can do to accelerate the process? I could prepare a summary communication setting forth all the threats, the dates reported, and the known action taken on each if that would help move these matters forward? Maybe it would help if you and I met with [redacted] to get their support and assistance? Likewise, maybe you and I should meet personally with the United States Attorney to discuss these matters?

b7C

Regardless, we need to radically ratchet up the speed up on these cases – I do believe the Church, as taxpayers and most importantly as victims, rightfully deserve timely action on their behalf. They are scared, they are concerned, and they do not feel the FBI is giving these threats proper attention. Unfortunately [redacted] I must agree with them.

b6
b7C

Thanks. Let's talk.

This case was [redacted] b7E
[redacted] after information was received that a threatening email was sent to the Church of Scientology (COS) website on 04/07/2002. The email was opened by a COS member who maintains the organization's website in Los Angeles.

The email consisted of a zip file entitled

A discussion with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] revealed that there was not enough evidence at present to prosecute this matter (under 18 U.S.C. If more evidence were obtained in this matter, the United States Attorney's office would consider prosecution in this matter. b7E

In addition, COS internet technician [redacted] found a possible matching photograph of one of the subjects in the threatening photograph. [redacted] was researching an unrelated topic and came across a website development company operating in Woodstock New York (www [redacted] com) and owned by a [redacted] and a [redacted] Because the name [redacted] was so unusual and it was the same spelling as the name of the zip file containing the threatening photographs, [redacted] visited the website. [redacted] found a photograph of [redacted] in the website and compared it to the threatening photograph and it appeared to be the same person. [redacted] brought this information to the attention of Los Angeles and a lead was sent to the Albany Field Office on 09/09/2002 to interview both [redacted] b6 b7C

A check through [redacted] revealed that both [redacted] and [redacted] share the same address in Woodstock. b6 b7C b7E

Based on this information, a lead was sent to FBI Albany to interview [redacted] to determine if either new about the photographs, who was in the photographs and why they were taken. FBI Albany conducted the interviews of [redacted] and [redacted] as well as an individual by the name of [redacted] [redacted] was identified as the second person in the threatening photographs along with [redacted] b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that she did operate the email address [redacted]@aol.com and the email account was maintained at her residence on [redacted] New York and was used for both personal and business applications. [redacted] advised that she was not aware of any threatening photographs taken and sent from her email address. [redacted] identified [redacted] in the photographs and stated that he was a self- b6 b7C

proclaimed hacker who used her email address in the past both in her presence and when she was not present. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had "flamed sites" in the past describing this as a process of sending large numbers of negative internet messages to different websites and bulletin boards which exist on the internet. According to the interview, [redacted] was not aware of any personal malice [redacted] had toward COS but knew that he had sent negative messages to other groups similar to the COS in the past. b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was one of the individuals in the photographs and that the rifle in the photographs belonged to [redacted] Both individuals took multiple photographs of themselves with weapons in various poses of which [redacted] advised they were for personal enjoyment only. [redacted] stated that the two images posted to the COS were the same ones he posted to the website http://[redacted] denied posting any of the images to any website other than the www[redacted].com website. [redacted] did not have anything against any religious group to include the COS and indicated that [redacted] might have been the one who sent the images to COS from [redacted] email address. [redacted] like [redacted] also indicated that [redacted] has had past involvement with "flaming sites." b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was the second person in the photographs along with [redacted] and stated that the photographs were taken for the purposes of posting them on an internet bulletin board maintained by [redacted] which featured "disturbing images." [redacted] advised that he was aware that the two photographs sent to the COS were also posted to the www[redacted].com website. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had posted the images without his knowledge. [redacted] denied having sent the images to the COS himself and indicated that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS. In an effort to explain the time stamp issue between the photographs sent to the www.[redacted].com website and sent to the COS, [redacted] stated, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw [redacted] post a second image to the [redacted] site." b6 b7C

The time stamp issue involved the fact that the two images were sent to www[redacted].com on April 7, 2002 at 4:22:41 a.m. E.T. and 4:44:53 a.m. E.T. These same images were posted to the COS from the [redacted] email address on April 7, 2002 at 4:45:36 a.m. E.T. b6 b7C

Los Angeles had several telephone discussions with Albany concerning the interviews with [redacted] Specifically, the discussions concerned the truthfulness of [redacted] and [redacted] and who might be more inclined to have sent the pictures. Albany seemed to be of the opinion that [redacted] would be the person more likely to lie about sending the pictures due to his past criminal history and contacts with law enforcement, although the intent behind sending the photographs to COS was not apparent to Albany. During the discussions with Albany, Los Angeles was informed that there did not seem to be anything heard or observed while interviewing [redacted] to indicate why either might have sent the pictures to COS. To date, there has been no other similar emails sent to the COS. b6 b7C

Los Angeles was informed, on or about October, 2002, that private investigators hired by COS were sent to talk to [redacted] and that the interview was recorded. To date, Los Angeles b6 b7C

has not been advised what transpired during that contact although several attempts have been made to ascertain the substance of the contact. COS did show Los Angeles several surveillance photographs taken of [redacted] during the contact to use as a comparison with the threatening email photographs.

After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agent, [redacted] provided the following information, voluntarily: b6 b7C

Prior to July of 2002 [redacted] was conducting research for an unrelated matter for the Church of Scientology and began searching the internet for web designers. The two individuals provided on the website were [redacted] (Owner/Graphic Designer/Web Developer) and [redacted] (General Manager/Graphic Designer). GRAND JURY MATERIAL - DISSEMINATE PURSUANT TO RULE 6(e)

Synopsis: Close captioned matter due to United States Attorney declination.

[redacted]

Details: The purpose of this communication is to request that the status of the above captioned case be changed from an Active [redacted] to a Closed Case based on the information provided here. b7E

This case was [redacted] after information was received that a threatening email was sent to the Church of Scientology (COS) website on 04/07/2002. The email was opened by a COS member who maintains the organization's website in Los Angeles.

The email consisted of a zip file entitled [redacted] b6 b7C

A discussion with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] revealed that there was not enough evidence b6 b7C at present to prosecute this matter (under 18 U.S.C. Section 875 - mailing a threatening communication) but advised [redacted] b7E seemed warranted. If more evidence were obtained in this matter, the United States Attorney's office would consider prosecution in this matter.

Through a Grand Jury Subpoena, [redacted] b3

In addition, COS internet technician [redacted] found a possible matching photograph of one of the subjects in the threatening photograph. [redacted] was researching an unrelated topic and came across a website development company operating in Woodstock New York (www.[redacted]com) and owned by a [redacted] and a [redacted] Because the name [redacted] was so unusual and it was the same spelling as the name of the zip file containing the threatening photographs, [redacted] visited the website. [redacted] found a photograph of [redacted] in the website and compared it to the threatening photograph and it appeared to be the same person. [redacted] brought this information to the attention of Los Angeles and a lead was sent to the Albany Field Office on 09/09/2002 to interview both [redacted] b6 b7C

A check through [redacted] revealed that both [redacted] and [redacted] share the same address in Woodstock. b6 b7C b7E

Based on this information, a lead was sent to FBI Albany to interview [redacted] to determine if either new about the photographs, who was in the photographs and why they were taken. FBI Albany conducted the interviews of [redacted] and [redacted] as well as an individual by the name of [redacted] [redacted] was identified as the second person in the threatening photographs along with [redacted] b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that she did operate the email address [redacted]@aol.com and the email account was maintained at her residence on [redacted] [redacted] and was used for both personal and business applications. [redacted] advised that she was not aware of any threatening photographs taken and sent from her email address. [redacted] identified [redacted] in the photographs and stated that he was a self-proclaimed hacker who used her email address in the past both in her presence and when she was not present. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had "flamed sites" in the past describing this as a process of sending large numbers of negative internet messages to different websites and bulletin boards which exist on the internet. According to the interview, [redacted] was not aware of any b6 b7C

personal malice [redacted] had toward COS but knew that he had sent negative messages to other groups similar to the COS in the past. b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was one of the individuals in the photographs and that the rifle in the photographs belonged to [redacted] Both individuals took multiple photographs of themselves with weapons in various poses of which [redacted] advised they were for personal enjoyment only. [redacted] stated that the two images posted to the COS were the same ones he posted to the website http://[redacted] [redacted] denied posting any of the images to any website other than the www[redacted].com website. [redacted] did not have anything against any religious group to include the COS and indicated that [redacted] might have been the one who sent the images to COS from [redacted] email address. [redacted] like [redacted] also indicated that [redacted] has had past involvement with "flaming sites." b6 b7C

The interview of [redacted] revealed that he was the second person in the photographs along with [redacted] and stated that the photographs were taken for the purposes of posting them on an internet bulletin board maintained by [redacted] which featured "disturbing images." [redacted] advised that he was aware that the two photographs sent to the COS were also posted to the www.marihemp.com website. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had posted the images without his knowledge. [redacted] denied having sent the images to the COS himself and indicated that he could not be totally certain that [redacted] did not send the images to the COS. In an effort to explain the time stamp issue between the photographs sent to the www.[redacted]com website and sent to the COS, [redacted] stated, "a person who wanted to mess with the COS could have gotten the pictures from another location on the net and then waited to send the email message to the COS until they saw Parisi post a second image to the Marihemp site." b6 b7C

The time stamp issue involved the fact that the two images were sent to www[redacted]com on April 7, 2002 at 4:22:41 a.m. E.T. and 4:44:53 a.m. E.T. These same images were posted to the COS from the [redacted] email address on April 7, 2002 at 4:45:36 a.m. E.T. b6 b7C

On 12/19/2003, a Prosecutive Report was completed on the above captioned matter and two copies were disseminated to the United States Attorney's Office. One copy was disseminated to Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] of the Hate Crimes Section and a second copy was disseminated to AUSA [redacted] of the Organized Crime and Terrorism Section. On 12/13/2004 AUSA [redacted] provided a verbal declination with respect to prosecution under the hate crimes violations noted in the report. On 01/14/2004 AUSA [redacted] advised, via telephone voicemail, that the prosecutive report was turned over to AUSA [redacted] for review. b6 b7C

On 03/02/2004 AUSA [redacted] provided a declination letter regarding this matter stating, in part, "I have reviewed b6 b7C the prosecutive report dated December 19, 2003 that you (SA [redacted] b6 b7C prepared regarding subjects [redacted] As we discussed in our telephone conversation today, based on the report there is insufficient evidence to charge any of these individuals with violating Title 18, United States Code, Sections 373 or 875(c) in this matter."

Based on the above information, Los Angeles requests that this [redacted] be closed. b7E

Re: [redacted] MP3.com, Inc. / L. Ron Hubbard Library, the Church of Scientology International and Religious Training Center

Dear Ms. Paquette:

I am in receipt of your correspondence dated February 11, 2002. As I informed you, MP3.com removed the [redacted] Allstars web page on February 11th, thus discontinuing public access to the artist page for the band that infringed upon your client's intellectual property.

MP3.com, Inc. does not post or own the musical compositions, sound recordings, album art or other written or visual images (collectively, the "Content") promoted by artists on the MP3.com web site (the "Site"). All such Content, including names, trademarks and service marks on the Site were posted by various persons, groups or companies (collectively, the "Artists") who have represented and warranted to us that, among other things, nothing that they post will infringe copyright, trademark, trade secret or any intellectual property rights of others (see section 4.5 of the "MP3.com Submission Agreement" at: http://www.mp3.com/newartist/agrec.html). Our policy on matters of alleged infringement is that they be resolved directly by you and the Artist involved.

[redacted]

MP3.com has paid no royalty or promotional payments to [redacted] Allstars web page.

I trust that the matter of terminating access to this artist page from our Site and providing you with payment and contact information is now completed to your satisfaction.

Synopsis: ~~Late submission of evidence.~~

Details: The purpose of this communication is to document the late submission of evidence for the above captioned case per FBI Evidence Control Center (ECC) policy. 101

On 04/07/2002 Los Angeles received a facsimile of an email message sent to several Church of Scientology (COS) websites which consisted of two photographs of individuals making threatening gestures with weapons.

A subsequent conversation with the United States Attorney's office determined that the pictures did not constitute a direct threat that was able to be prosecuted.

On 07/26/2002, at the request of Los Angeles, COS sent a compact disc (CD) containing the threatening email to be used if a case were to be opened in the near future.

On 08/14/2002, Los Angeles opened a Preliminary Inquiry (PI) on the above captioned matter. [redacted]

MP3.com, Inc.

What are you going to do with this new info Scientology leaders? Will you put my picture on bigotwatch.com, follow me with private investigators, harrass me, try to mess up my finances, lie about me to neighbors, picket my house? Will you try to frame me like [redacted] Will you trump up charges and try to railroad me in court like [redacted] Will you physically attack me like [redacted] Will you try to frame me for drugs like [redacted] Guess what? I have pointed out how you operate in song after song - and when you attempt to molest me for free expression - the whole world will see how you act. You will be confirming my lyrics as accurate. I will not be quietly bullied. No matter how dirty you fight - I will not act violently or irresponsibly. I will drag you into the light and expose your methodology with truth and humor. You can hurt me or worse - but not silently. I will continue to protest against you with the humor you so desperately despise. You will continue to be the potential subject of b6 b7C parody and satire - just like everyone else in a big, nasty organisation is in America. You are public figures. You should be used to it by now. I also know that you are the only people who have this info, and if it is posted anonymously - EVERYONE will know it was you. Also, if I am harrassed - you will see bad publicity that will make the Time magazine article look like a puff piece. I will catch your spies in the act, and expose their links to you, then make songs about each encounter. The media will be involved every step of the way. This is freedom of speech. Lots of people care.

You have never met the likes of me before. I am everything you say does not exist. I am a critic of Scientology with no hidden crimes. You can dig all you want - you'll have to plant crimes to find them. I am a nurturing friend and family member who loves life, and smiles most of the time. I am solo - not part of any group of critics. I am not paid, except in SLACK, which you find valueless though you try to steal it from others.

You would do well to stay within legal means when dealing with me. Any dirty tricks and Fair Gaming that goes on will be meticulously documented and reported to the authorities by myself and those around me. The moment you commit a crime against me - you are admitting that you are powerless in a fair society, and must subvert the laws we live under in the US. Read below. Is this what you have in mind for me?

18 October 1967
"Enemy-SP order. Fair Game. May be deprived of property or injured by any means by any Scientologist without any discipline of the Scientologist. May be tricked, sued or lied to or destroyed."

Lots of people care.

You have never met the likes of me before. I am everything you say does not exist. I am a critic of Scientology with no hidden crimes. You can dig all you want - you'll have to plant crimes to find them. I am a nurturing friend and family member who loves life, and smiles most of the time. I am solo - not part of any group of critics. I am not paid, except in SLACK, which you find valueless though you try to steal it from others.

You would do well to stay within legal means when dealing with me. Any dirty tricks and Fair Gaming that goes on will be meticulously documented and reported to the authorities by myself and those around me. The moment you commit a crime against me - you are admitting that you are powerless in a fair society, and must subvert the laws we live under in the US. Read below. Is this what you have in mind for me?

18 October 1967
"Enemy-SP order. Fair Game. May be deprived of property or injured by any means by any Scientologist without any discipline of the Scientologist. May be tricked, sued or lied to or destroyed."
L. Ron Hubbard

Sincerely

TRANSLATION

Dear ladies and gentlemen from the Church of Scientology:

Your end has arrived. Within four months, three men in black suits will walk into the door of your building and they will exterminate all of you, regardless of whether you are a man or a woman. Only the children will be saved.
We are responsible for a Vatican secret organization and your church is the first one on our black list.
I am warning and giving you the time to march off so you will be free of the shitty plague founded by the faggot Ronald Hubbard.

Your time has arrived. You only have four months left in Spain.

The Reverend

RE: Federal Grand Jury Subpoena

Dear Sir or Madam:

The enclosed federal grand jury subpoena seeks certain information regarding a current criminal investigation. Because this subpoena relates to an ongoing official criminal investigation, it is requested that you do not disclose the existence of the subpoena until you are notified that the investigation has been completed. Disclosure could impede the investigation and interfere with enforcement of the law. Compliance with this request is completely voluntary, however, as the law does not require nondisclosure.

Once you have assembled the records, Special Agent [redacted] will deliver them to the grand jury and you need not make a personal appearance should you desire to surrender them prior to the date on the subpoena. Please send the documents to Special Agent [redacted] at:

RE: Federal Grand Jury Subpoena

Dear Sir or Madam:

The enclosed federal grand jury subpoena seeks certain information regarding a current criminal investigation. Because this subpoena relates to an ongoing official criminal investigation, it is requested that you do not disclose the existence of the subpoena until you are notified that the investigation has been completed. Disclosure could impede the investigation and interfere with enforcement of the law. Compliance with this request is completely voluntary, however, as the law does not require nondisclosure.

Once you have assembled the records, Special Agent Leslie Backschies will deliver them to the grand jury and you need not make a personal appearance should you desire to surrender them prior to the date on the subpoena. Please send the documents to Special Agent [redacted] at:

The Federal Bureau of Investigation

White Powder Letters Sent to
The Church of Scientology;
OO:Los Angeles

Synopsis: To open investigation on captioned matter.

Enclosure(s): Photocopies of one letter and envelope received at 1934 Hillhurst Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90027

Details: On 01/30/2008, at least nineteen envelopes containing an unknown white powder and a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology locations in Southern California. The envelopes were processed at the Santa Clarita California Processing Center with a date stamp of 01/29/2008. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with the corresponding address. There was no return address on the envelopes. The primary Church of Scientology location in Los Angeles, CA (1308 [redacted]) received multiple white powder envelopes.

The FBI, U.S. Postal Inspection Service, and Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) responded to initial locations reported by the Church of Scientology. On-scene field screening was conducted, and all materials in the envelope tested benign. There was evidence of some biological material (possibly starch). The powder was screened according to standard protocol, to include flammability, corrosiveness, radiological, volatility, and oxidizers. Samples are being transported to the public health laboratory (LRN) in Los Angeles, CA for definitive testing.

Each standard size business envelope contained a small but noticeable amount of white powder with a one page typed/printed statement on standard white paper containing the following information:

"Hello Scientology,

We are Anonymous. Over the years, we have been watching you. Your campaign of misinformation, suppression of dissent; your litigious nature, all of these things have caught our eye. With the leakage of your latest propaganda video into mainstream circulation, the extent of your maligned influence over those who trust you, who call you leader, has been made clear to us. Anonymous has therefore decided that your organization should be destroyed. For the good of your followers, for the good of mankind -- for the laughs we shall expel you from the Internet and systematically dismantle the Church of Scientology in its present form. We acknowledge you as a serious opponent, and we are prepared for a long, long, campaign. You will not prevail forever against the angry masses of the body politic. Your methods, hypocrisy, and the artlessness of the organization have sounded its death knell.

You cannot hide; We are everywhere.

We cannot die; we are forever. We are getting bigger everyday -- and solely by the force of our ideas, malicious and hostile as they often are. If you want another name for your opponent, then call us Legion, for we are many.

Yet for all that we are not as monstrous as you are; still our methods are parallel to your own. Doubtless you will use the anon's actions as an example of the persecution you have so long warned your followers would come; is acceptable, in fact, it is encouraged. We are your SPs.

Gradually as we merge our pulse with that of your "Church", the suppression of your followers will become increasingly difficult to maintain. Believers will wake, and see that salvation has no price. They will know that the stress, the frustration that they feel is not something that may be blamed upon Anonymous. No -- they will see that it stems from a source far closer to each. Yes, we are SPs. The sum of suppression we could ever muster is eclipsed by that of the RTC.

Knowledge is free.

We are Anonymous.

We are Legion.

We do not forgive.

We Do Not Forget.

Expect us."

The following Church of Scientology locations in Los Angeles and Orange County, CA were identified as receiving the white powder envelopes:

Synopsis: Documents request for assistance in FISUR of [redacted]

Administrative: Reference is made to 02/06/08 telcalls and facsimile between SA [redacted] and SSA [redacted]

Details: Captioned investigation was initiated by the receipt of over 20 letters sent to Church Of Scientology (COS) locations in Southern California. Upon delivery of the letters Hazardous Materials teams from several jurisdictions field tested the powder material and initially determined that the substance appeared to be non-toxic. However each of the letters have been forwarded to regional LRN laboratories for further testing. The letters contained a one page manifesto from a group claiming to be named "ANONYMOUS". In addition to the powder letters, COS has been the target of denial of service attacks via the internet, black fax attacks, telephone calls and the subject of a large amount of internet chat (all of which could be viewed as threatening). In each instance the group known as ANONYMOUS has been party to the activity.

This case is being jointly investigated by FBI, USPS and LAPD. On 02/02/08 a surveillance was conducted on a group of individuals based on information discovered on the internet. Members of this group visited a COS location in Los Angeles and were observed performing site survey/reconnaissance activity.

Information from a variety of sources indicates that ANONYMOUS is planning a world wide protest against COS on 02/10/2008. Investigators believe the activity observed on 02/02/08 was members of ANONYMOUS preparing for the 02/10/08 ANONYMOUS protest in the Los Angeles area. On 02/02/08 the surveillance team was able to identify six (6) individuals from this group. One person of interest from this group has been identified as follows:

DOB: SSN:
DL (FLA):

Surveillance personnel reported that appeared to be one of the leaders of the group from 02/02/08. Investigation to date indicates that has returned to San Diego and may plan to participate in the ANONYMOUS protest of 02/10/08 in the San Diego area.

Los Angeles requests SDFO assistance in organizing surveillance of to determine his associates, daily pattern and role in the Los Angeles also advises that other law enforcement organizations in the San Diego area may have an investigative interest in ANONYMOUS due to recent events and criminal activity by individuals associated with the group.

HELLO SCIENTOLOGY,

WE ARE ANONYMOUS. OVER THE YEARS, WE HAVE BEEN WATCHING YOU. YOUR CAMPAIGN OF MISINFORMATION, SUPPRESSION OF DISSENT; YOUR LITIGIOUS NATURE, ALL OF THESE THINGS HAVE CAUGHT OUR EYE. WITH THE LEAKAGE OF YOUR LATEST PROPAGANDA VIDEO INTO MAINSTREAM CIRCULATION, THE EXTENT OF YOUR MALIGNED INFLUENCE OVER THOSE WHO TRUST YOU, WHO CALL YOU LEADER, HAS BEEN MADE CLEAR TO US. ANONYMOUS HAS THEREFORE DECIDED THAT YOUR ORGANIZATION SHOULD BE DESTROYED. FOR THE GOOD OF YOUR FOLLOWERS, FOR THE GOOD OF MANKIND -- FOR THE LAUGHS WE SHALL EXPEL YOU FROM THE INTERNET AND SYSTEMATICALLY DISMANTLE THE CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY IN ITS PRESENT FORM. WE ACKNOWLEDGE YOU AS A SERIOUS OPPONENT, AND WE ARE PREPARED FOR A LONG, LONG CAMPAIGN. YOU WILL NOT PREVAIL FOREVER AGAINST THE ANGRY MASSES OF THE BODY POLITIC. YOUR METHODS, HYPOCRISY, AND THE ARTLESSNESS OF THE ORGANIZATION HAVE SOUNDED ITS DEATH KNELL.

THEY WILL KNOW THAT THE STRESS, THE FRUSTRATION THAT THEY FEEL IS NOT SOMETHING THAT MAY BE BLAMED UPON ANONYMOUS. NO -- THEY WILL SEE THAT IT STEMS FROM A SOURCE FAR CLOSED TO EACH. YES, WE ARE SPS. THESE EXPLOSIVES WILL BE IMPLANTED IN THE MOST LOGICAL HOWEVER HIDDEN LOCATION IN EACH CHURCH. SCIENTOLOGISTS HAVE BROUGHT THIS UPON THEMSELVES. FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY, THE SCIENTOLOGY CULT HAS BEEN AN ABOMINATION TO THE WORD 'CHURCH.' FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY, THE SCIENTOLOGY CULT HAS RIDICULED THOSE WHO DO NOT FOLLOW, GIVE IN OR LEFT THOSE BELIEFS OF SCIENTOLOGY AND FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY, THE CULT HAS TAKEN ALL MASS RALLIES AS A JOKE. THIS WILL BE THE WORLDS BIGGEST TERRORIST ATTACK ON A RELIGION. LIVES WILL BE LOST. VENGEANCE TO THE FAMILY'S OF LIVES YOU HAVE DESTROYED WILL BE MADE. A SEPARATE PERSONAL ATTACK ON HEBER JENTZSCH WILL BE LAUNCHED ON THE 13TH OF MARCH, 2008, AT AN UNDISCLOSED TIME. HIS EXECUTION, ALONG WITH THE DEATHS OF OTHER COUNTLESS SCIENTOLOGISTS, WILL STRIKE FEAR INTO THE HEARTS OF EVERY MEMBER OF THIS CULT. KNOWLEDGE IS FREE. WE ARE ANONYMOUS. WE ARE LEGION. WE DO NOT FORGIVE. WE DO NOT FORGET.

Title: ANONYMOUS;
WHITE POWDER LETTERS SENT TO THE CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY;
OO:LOS ANGELES

Synopsis: To report intelligence relating to this case that was obtained by San Diego.

Package Copy: Being forwarded under separate cover is: (1) Digital Video Disc (DVD) containing digital files provided by the San Diego Church of Scientology; (1) FD-340 containing notes of 2/27/08 interview of [redacted] for placement in the 1A section of the file; (1) FD-340 containing notes of 2/28/08 interview of [redacted] for placement in the 1A section of the file; (1) FD-340 containing original written notes of [redacted] for placement in the 1A section of the file; (1) FD-340 containing original written notes of [redacted] for placement in the 1A section of the file.

Enclosure(s): For Los Angeles - (2) original FD-302s and copies documenting the two separate interviews of [redacted]

Details: The captioned case, which was initiated by the Los Angeles Field Office, is focused on identifying those individuals responsible for multiple powder letters sent to Church of Scientology locations across Southern California in January 2008 (no powder letters were received by the church in San Diego county). San Diego provided surveillance coverage from 2/7/08 through 2/10/08 for a person of interest in this case who resides and works in San Diego County. Since this surveillance, further information pertinent to this case has come to the attention of the author. The information is being provided to Los Angeles via this communication.

[redacted] is a member of the Board of Directors for the San Diego Church of Scientology. He also acts as the Secretary and the Public Affairs representative for the San Diego church. He expressed a desire to talk to law enforcement about the cumulative acts of harassment that have been experienced by the San Diego Church of Scientology. The author spoke to him several times over two different days. His interviews identified intelligence regarding the harassment campaign against the church and highlighted several areas of potential follow-up for the case agents.

First, the San Diego church is in the process of having its telecommunications service provider, Telepacific, identify the telephone numbers of harassing calls to its offices (several harassing calls specifically mentioned ANONYMOUS) [redacted] of Telepacific's Fraud and Loss Division, [redacted] is responsible for accomplishing this. Once the numbers have been identified, Telepacific will provide the numbers to the San Diego Police Department (Detective Sinclair), based upon that agency's ongoing investigation into the harassing telephone calls. The results of Telepacific's work may also be useful in further identifying the subjects in Los Angeles' case.

Second, [redacted] provided a DVD containing threatening emails that were sent to the San Diego church email account as well as video clips posted by ANONYMOUS to the internet. The emails contained header information that may identify the sender(s) of the emails, although it is likely that the true source of the emails is hidden behind email servers and personal computers that have been compromised by ANONYMOUS. The emails were saved in their original Microsoft Outlook format. The attachments were saved on the disk as separate files. They are being forwarded to Los Angeles for further analysis.

Third, [redacted] provided details of various harassment techniques being used against the San Diego branch of the church. These details may be useful in identify patterns which assist further in the task of identifying the individuals responsible for the threats.

Finally, on 2/27/08, the San Diego church experienced a suspicious event. At approximately 6:30 p.m. a female, described as white, in her 30s or 40s (further descriptions vary), entered the church reception area and indicated that there was a suspicious backpack by a church dumpster. She indicated several times that the church ought to call the police. The female provided the information in a manner that seemed suspicious. [redacted] felt that the female was trying to prompt the church into treating the backpack as a threat, because up until that point, the church had ignored it. The female did not identify herself. Later, around 6:50 p.m., the church received its first and only harassing call of the day.

[redacted] obtained the backpack from another church member and secured it in a church utility closet. The author subsequently took the backpack and placed it into evidence in case it is found to be related to the recent threats against the church.

[redacted] thought that the description of the unidentified female was consistent with a chronic picketer of the church named [redacted] has picketed the church in San Diego for several years. She has also traveled to Los Angeles to participate in picketing activity against the church located there. She has been seen picketing in a blue costume. [redacted] thought he saw someone in a blue costume at the 2/10/08 protests at the San Diego church, which may have been [redacted] couldn't provide any definite identifiers for [redacted] but thought that she was mentioned on a website identified as www.religiousfreedomwatch.org. She may also be living at an address on [redacted] in San Diego.

The church further believed that [redacted] had previous contact with a [redacted] (phonetic) via chat room discussions. [redacted] allegedly has an email address indicating he is affiliated with Carnegie-Mellon University. He also allegedly has posted bomb making information on the internet. The author has not confirmed at this point any of the allegations against [redacted]

This office will continue to monitor the situation concerning harassment and protests at the San Diego Church of Scientology given the most recent threat, which was directed at all Scientology churches, worldwide.

From January 30, 2008, through March 07, 2008, members of the Los Angeles Division Hazardous Materials Response Team (HMRT-LA) assisted in the collection of evidence related to the captioned investigation.

On January 30, 2008, about numerous churches of Scientology in Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino counties received letters containing threatening language and an unidentified white powder. Hazardous materials units from local law enforcement, health and fire agencies responded and collected the letters. FBI personnel, including SA [redacted] HMRT-LA coordinator, SA [redacted] WMD coordinator, and SA [redacted] assistant WMD coordinator, went to some of the incidents in Los Angeles and Orange counties to help assess the situation and liaison with local responders.

In Orange County, SA [redacted] an HMRT-LA member, supervised the collection of three letters and their transport to the Orange County Public Health laboratory, a member of the Laboratory Response Network (LRN). At the laboratory, the letters were tested for contamination with bioterror agents.

HMRT-LA did not collect any letters the evening of the incident. The letters were collected by the police departments in the affected jurisdictions or the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

From February 7, 2008, through March 25, 2008, HMRT-LA members took custody of letters that had been collected by local police departments at the churches of Scientology. SA [redacted] subsequently screened all items for radiological and chemical hazards, per Hazardous Materials Response Unit (HMRU) protocols. On February 14 and February 27, HMRT-LA members delivered the letters to the Los Angeles County Public Health (LACPH) laboratory, a member of the LRN, for testing.

The attached spreadsheet documents HMRT-LA's collection and handling of the letters. Enclosed in a 1A envelope are supporting documents, including HMRU Field Screening Matrices, FBI chains of custody, LACPH laboratory chains of custody and associated FD-597s.

WHITE POWDER LETTERS SENT TO THE CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY;
OO:LOS ANGELES

WMD THREATS AND RESPONSES;
AQ CONTROL FILE

Synopsis: To set lead to Los Angeles Division.

Enclosure(s): (Enclosed for Los Angeles) Anonymous pamphlet, CD, DVD, and email provided by [redacted] Church of Scientology, New Mexico.

Details: On 04/07/2008, SA [redacted] met with [redacted], Minister, Church of Scientology, Albuquerque, New Mexico, telephone number [redacted], e-mail address: [redacted] handles Public Relations, Legal Matters, and external Investigations for the Church of Scientology in Arizona, Texas, and New Mexico.

[redacted] advised the Church of Scientology is currently located at 1319 San Pedro, Northeast, Albuquerque, New Mexico in [redacted] storefront. The church is in the process of building [redacted] new church at 410 Central in downtown Albuquerque.

A group named "Anonymous" has been harrassing the Church of Scientology and run a website in which several threats have been made against the church. The Los Angeles Division is currently working the case because [redacted] letter with white powder was sent to the church in Los Angeles. Also, the group posted a bomb threat on the website but did not specify a location for the threat. No bomb was found.

In Albuquerque, the Church of Scientology has received many harrassing phone calls apparently from individuals associated with Anonymous. They ask stupid questions and then finally state they are calling because the website directed people to call and harrass the church. On 02/10/2008 and 03/15/2008 the group picketed outside the Church of Scientology in Albuquerque. There were approximately 15-20 picketers and they were wearing masks. Another man puts hate literature about the church on windshields of cars parked on the street in front of the church. The group members never come onto church property and picket across the street. They stay for about 3-4 hours.

The church has hired private investigators and private law firms to investigate the group. The church has a whole branch dedicated to protecting copywrited information and another branch that archives all of Dr. Hubbard's teachings and writings. Albuquerque Police Department and The New Mexico Fusion Center have been notified as well.

The facility responsible for the archives is called the Church of Spiritual Technology and is located in Trementina, New Mexico, west of Las Vegas, New Mexico. On 03/15/2008 at 12:15 pm, a few planes flew over the facility at the same time as the demonstration at the church. They flew very low and may have landed on the airstrip there. The San Miguel Sheriff's Office asked FAA about the flights. FAA advised they were aware of the flights but would not provide any information about them. The Anonymous website mentioned the facility and the airstip before the demonstration. There was also a low flying aircraft in 02/2008 but FAA had no record of the flight. Block requested the FBI contact the FAA to get more information about the 03/15/2008 flights.

SA [redacted] advised [redacted] the information would be passed on the case Agent in Los Angeles but that no action would be taken without the case Agents approval. SA [redacted] advised [redacted] there was no federal violation to justify opening a separate case in Albuquerque.

Synopsis: To open investigation on captioned matter.

Enclosure(s): Photocopies of one letter and envelope received at 1934 Hillhurst Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90027

Details: On 01/30/2008, at least nineteen envelopes containing an unknown white powder and a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology locations in Southern California. The envelopes were processed at the Santa Clarita California Processing Center with a date stamp of 01/29/2008. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with the corresponding address. There was no return address on the envelopes. The primary Church of Scientology location in Los Angeles, CA (1308 L. Ron Hubbard Way) received multiple white powder envelopes.

The FBI, U.S. Postal Inspection Service, and Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) responded to initial locations reported by the Church of Scientology. On-scene field screening was conducted, and all materials in the envelope tested benign. There was evidence of some biological material (possibly starch). The powder was screened according to standard protocol, to include flammability, corrosiveness, radiological, volatility, and oxidizers. Samples are being transported to the public health laboratory (LRN) in Los Angeles, CA for definitive testing.

Each standard size business envelope contained a small but noticeable amount of white powder with a one page typed/printed statement on standard white paper containing the following information:

"Hello Scientology,

We are Anonymous. Over the years, we have been watching you. Your campaign of misinformation, suppression of dissent; your litigious nature, all of these things have caught our eye. With the leakage of your latest propaganda video into mainstream circulation, the extent of your maligned influence over those who trust you, who call you leader, has been made clear to us. Anonymous has therefore decided that your organization should be destroyed. For the good of your followers, for the good of mankind -- for the laughs we shall expel you from the Internet and systematically dismantle the Church of Scientology in its present form. We acknowledge you as a serious opponent, and we are prepared for a long, long, campaign. You will not prevail forever against the angry masses of the body politic. Your methods, hypocrisy, and the artlessness of the organization have sounded its death knell.

You cannot hide; We are everywhere.

We cannot die; we are forever. We are getting bigger everyday -- and solely by the force of our ideas, malicious and hostile as they often are. If you want another name for your opponent, then call us Legion, for we are many.

Yet for all that we are not as monstrous as you are; still our methods are parallel to your own. Doubtless you will use the anon's actions as an example of the persecution you have so long warned your followers would come; is acceptable, in fact, it is encouraged. We are your SPs.

Gradually as we merge our pulse with that of your "Church", the suppression of your followers will become increasingly difficult to maintain. Believers will wake, and see that salvation has no price. They will know that the stress, the frustration that they feel is not something that may be blamed upon Anonymous. No -- they will see that it stems from a source far closer to each. Yes, we are SPs. The sum of suppression we could ever muster is eclipsed by that of the RTC.

Knowledge is free.

We are Anonymous.

We are Legion.

We do not forgive.

We Do Not Forget.

Expect us."

The following Church of Scientology locations in Los Angeles and Orange County, CA were identified as receiving the white powder envelopes:

1) 222 ½ N. Brand Boulevard, Glendale, CA 91203
2) 7709 Melrose Avenue, L.A., CA 90046
3) 18346 Soledad Canyon Road, Santa Clarita, CA 91387

Mailings to Scientology sites probed

By JOHN SPANO
AND ANDREW BLANKSTEIN
Times Staff Writers

Mailings of a suspicious white powder to 10 Church of Scientology addresses prompted the evacuation of dozens of people and the closure of a major thoroughfare Wednesday as hazmat teams were called to examine the packages.

The letters were sent via the Postal Service to Scientology properties in Hollywood, the San Fernando Valley, Santa Monica, Glendale and Tustin. Police shut part of Glendale's busy Brand Boulevard for two hours before sounding the all-clear, while 60 people were cleared from buildings in Tustin, authorities said.

The incidents appeared to be part of a malicious hoax. Preliminary tests showed the powder to be cornstarch and wheat germ. More tests are pending, authorities say.

"Initial field testing by LAPD indicates the powder is harmless," said FBI spokeswoman Laura Eimiller. "However, further testing will be conducted. We will also work to assess what threat, if any, was associated with the mailings and determine whether any federal statutes were violated."

The Church of Scientology had no comment about the incidents Wednesday. The mailings come after a cyber attack last week on the Church of Scientology's website, which caused it to shut down for a day. Authorities said there was no evidence that Wednesday's mailings were connected to the hacking.

Scientology feud with critics takes to Internet

Cyber attacks and threats against the church erupt after it asks YouTube to pull Tom Cruise clips.

By Jim Puzzanghera
Times Staff Writer

A long-simmering dispute over digital copyrights between the Church of Scientology and its critics has boiled over in recent weeks after video clips turned up on the Internet from a 2004 interview by the church's most famous member, actor Tom Cruise.

When Scientology officials complained the clips were copyrighted and requested their removal from YouTube and other websites, a shadowy organization of online troublemakers sprang into action.

The group known as "Anonymous" posted an eerie video on the Internet featuring a computer-generated voice announcing a campaign to destroy the church and calling for worldwide protests Feb. 10.

It was all for laughs, said a member who spoke on the condition of anonymity. But things are now getting serious. A series of cyber attacks the group claimed responsibility for slowed access to church websites and apparently shut down the main one, www.scientology.org, one day last month.

As of Friday, suspicious white powder was mailed to 23 church locations in Southern California, forcing 60 people to be cleared from buildings in Tustin and causing police to close part of busy Brand Boulevard in Glendale for two hours. Preliminary tests by the LAPD determined the powder was cornstarch and wheat germ.

The FBI is investigating whether the mailings were connected to the hacking. Shortly after the mailings were disclosed by authorities, a caller who identified himself as a spokesman for the group Anonymous told a Times reporter that the group was not to blame.

The incidents have drawn new attention to Scientology.

Critics of the religion are flocking to Anonymous postings on YouTube, the popular video-sharing site. Their campaign has sparked a debate among long-time Scientology's opponents, who wonder whether the aggressive rhetoric and tactics, including illegal denial-of-service attacks on the church's websites, help the cause by raising awareness of the religion's controversial beliefs, or hurt it by using the same type of heavy-handed methods they accuse Scientology officials of employing against critics.

"I don't know if anybody in Anonymous did this but Anonymous set themselves up to be targeted in this way ...," said Mark Bunker, who runs one of the leading websites criticizing the church, www.xenu.tv.com, and posted a video last week warning Anonymous to tone down its campaign.

"I hope it doesn't hurt the larger critic community who have been speaking out for years about Scientology's abuse."

Scientology was founded in 1954 by science fiction author L. Ron Hubbard. It teaches that "spiritual release and freedom" from life's problems can be achieved through one-on-one counseling called auditing, during which members' responses are monitored on an e-meter, similar to a polygraph. The process, along with a series of training courses, can cost Scientologists tens of thousands of dollars.

Cruise has become an outspoken proponent of the religion. In 2004, he won the International Assn. of Scientologists Freedom Medal of Valor award and part of the ceremony included a taped interview with him talking about why the religion is important to him.

The video was posted on YouTube and other sites this month, leading the Church of Scientology to request its removal for copyright violation.

A Scientology spokeswoman said the church wasn't trying to suppress the video, which it says can be watched at any of its facilities around the world. But it was made for "the Scientology congregation" and "never intended for replay on television or the Internet," spokeswoman Karin Pouw said in a written response to questions.

The requests to have it removed are similar to takedown requests by movie studios and TV networks, she said. But members of Anonymous were angered by the requests and decided to take on the church, said the group's representative.

The group is a loose confederation of about 9,000 people who post anonymous messages in chat rooms on websites he would not identify. While they are experienced Internet users, few are computer hackers, he said. But there are enough people with knowledge of how to attack websites that they were able to launch the attacks, the spokesman said. One of the attacks, known as distributed denial of service, involves flooding a website with requests, overloading its capacity.

Pouw said Scientology's websites "have been and are online." But Danny McPherson, chief research officer at Arbor Networks, which works with Internet service providers to detect and prevent cyber attacks, said they observed about 500 denial-of-service attacks on the Scientology site in the past week.

The Church of Scientology also shifted the company that hosts its site last week to Prolexic Technologies Inc., which specializes in stopping denial-of-service attacks.

Scientology

Fair game

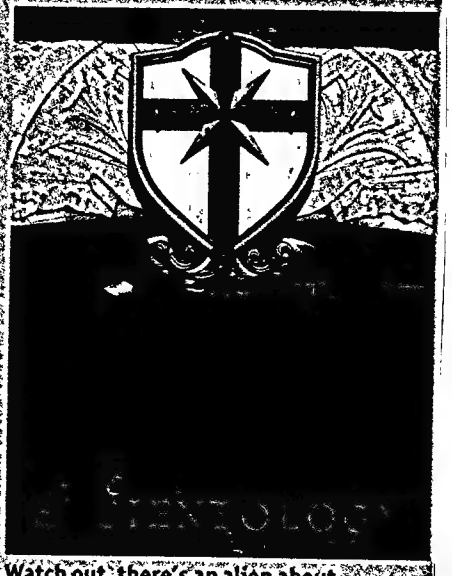
An online onslaught against Scientology

A VICIOUS cult run by cynical fraudsters, or a sincerely held religious belief persecuted by zealots? That is the long-standing row about Scientology, founded by the late science-fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard. In some countries, such as Germany, the group is watched by the security services. In others, such as America and Australia, it has won charitable status as a religion.

Until now the fight could mostly be seen as one-sided. Scientology's lawyers are vigorous litigants. The group argues that its internal materials (which claim, among other things, that expensive courses of treatment can help rid people of infestation by alien souls from an extinct civilisation) are commercially confidential and protected by copyright. They react sharply to any perceived libel.

As a result, public critics of what they derisively term "$cientology" risk expensive legal battles. For example, a new unauthorised biography of Tom Cruise by a British author, Andrew Morton, contains detailed and highly critical material about the film star's involvement in Scientology. It is a bestseller in America but has not been published in Britain. The publisher, St Martin's Press, has even asked internet booksellers not to ship it to foreign customers. Though Scientology representatives vehemently deny breaking any laws, critics have claimed that they experience intensive harassment and intimidation.

Now Scientology is under attack from a group of internet activists known only as Anonymous. Organised from a Wikipedia-style website (editable by anyone) and through anonymous internet chat rooms, "Project Chanology", as the initiative is known, presents no easy target for Scientology's lawyers. It is promoting cyberwarfare techniques normally associated with extortionists, spies and terrorists. Called "distributed denial of service attacks", these typically involve using networks of infected computers to bombard the target's websites and servers with bogus requests for data, causing them to crash. Even governments find this troublesome.



Watch out, there's an alien about...

Anonymous is also hoping to galvanise public opinion with a mass "real world" protest outside every Scientology office worldwide on February 10th. But its best weapon may be ridicule. The group got going in reaction to efforts to ban an internal Scientology video of Mr Cruise that leaked onto the internet. The star appears to discuss his beliefs with a degree of incoherence and exaggeration that might lead some to question Scientology's effects on its adherents' sanity. A Scientology spokesman says it has been selectively edited. Several internet sites have taken it down after threats of lawsuits. But it keeps popping up.

Global Scientology protests include L.A.

By DAVID SARNO
Times Staff Writer

Anonymous, the loosely bound group of Internet activists who have targeted the Church of Scientology in recent weeks, showed up Sunday morning to protest at the church's largest Los Angeles locations.

The rallies were part of a global day of demonstrations against Scientology organized by the group, with picketers in New York, Toronto, Britain, Australia and other locations.

The protests were peaceful, with music and chanting. Many of the Los Angeles picketers wore the Guy Fawkes masks made popular in the movie "V for Vendetta."

A near-constant stream of horn honks provided background noise for protesters at the Scientology center on Sunset Boulevard. After about two hours, the group headed to a Scientology church on Hollywood Boulevard.

Security personnel, some with video cameras, were stationed at entrances to both locations. A Fawkes-masked spokesman for Anonymous, who wouldn't give his name but whom several protesters identified as the organizer of the L.A. event, said, "We want to set off a government investigation into how [Scientology] got tax-exempt status."

The church was granted tax-exempt status in 1993 after a protracted battle with the IRS, which for 25 years had maintained that Scientology was a business, not a religion.

Contacted for comment on the protests, a Scientology representative issued a statement that called Anonymous "a group of cyber-terrorists" that is "perpetrating religious hate crimes against Churches of Scientology and individual Scientologists for no reason other than religious bigotry."

Asked to explain the groundswell of opposition, protester and former Scientology member Lynn Fountain Campbell, who said she had been part of the church for 40 years, said, "It's just reached a critical mass. People just aren't scared anymore."

"They try to make people shut up," she said, "and I'm not the shutting up type."

Synopsis: Documents request for assistance in FISUR of [redacted]

Administrative: Reference is made to 02/06/08 telcalls and facsimile between SA [redacted] and SSA [redacted]

Details: Captioned investigation was initiated by the receipt of over 20 letters sent to Church Of Scientology (COS) locations in Southern California. Upon delivery of the letters Hazardous Materials teams from several jurisdictions field tested the powder material and initially determined that the substance appeared to be non-toxic. However each of the letters have been forwarded to regional LRN laboratories for further testing. The letters contained a one page manifesto from a group claiming to be named "ANONYMOUS". In addition to the powder letters, COS has been the target of denial of service attacks via the internet, black fax attacks, telephone calls and the subject of a large amount of internet chat (all of which could be viewed as threatening). In each instance the group known as ANONYMOUS has been party to the activity.

This case is being jointly investigated by FBI, USPS and LAPD. On 02/02/08 a surveillance was conducted on a group of individuals based on information discovered on the internet. Members of this group visited a COS location in Los Angeles and were observed performing site survey/reconnaissance activity.

Re: 279B-LA-249870, 02/06/2008

Information from a variety of sources indicates that ANONYMOUS is planning a world wide protest against COS on 02/10/2008. Investigators believe the activity observed on 02/02/08 was members of ANONYMOUS preparing for the 02/10/08 ANONYMOUS protest in the Los Angeles area. On 02/02/08 the surveillance team was able to identify six (6) individuals from this group. One person of interest from this group has been identified as follows:

Surveillance personnel reported that appeared to be one of the leaders of the group from 02/02/08. Investigation to date indicates that has returned to San Diego and may plan to participate in the ANONYMOUS protest of 02/10/08 in the San Diego area.

Los Angeles requests SDFO assistance in organizing surveillance of to determine his associates, daily pattern and role in the leadership of ANONYMOUS. Los Angeles also advises that other law enforcement organizations in the San Diego area may have an investigative interest in ANONYMOUS due to recent events and criminal activity by individuals associated with the group.

Enclosure(s): For Los Angeles - (2) original FD-302s and copies documenting the two separate interviews of [redacted]

Details: The captioned case, which was initiated by the Los Angeles Field Office, is focused on identifying those individuals responsible for multiple powder letters sent to Church of Scientology locations across Southern California in January 2008 (no powder letters were received by the church in San Diego county). San Diego provided surveillance coverage from 2/7/08 through 2/10/08 for a person of interest in this case who resides and works in San Diego County. Since this surveillance, further information pertinent to this case has come to the attention of the author. The information is being provided to Los Angeles via this communication.

[redacted] is a member of the Board of Directors for the San Diego Church of Scientology. He also acts as the Secretary and the Public Affairs representative for the San Diego church. He expressed a desire to talk to law enforcement about the cumulative acts of harassment that have been experienced by the San Diego Church of Scientology. The author spoke to him several times over two different days. His interviews identified intelligence regarding the harassment campaign against the church and highlighted several areas of potential follow-up for the case agents. b6 b7C

First, the San Diego church is in the process of having its telecommunications service provider, Telepacific, identify the telephone numbers of harassing calls to its offices (several harassing calls specifically mentioned ANONYMOUS). [redacted] of Telepacific's Fraud and Loss Division, (866) 839-8545, is responsible for accomplishing this. Once the numbers have been identified, Telepacific will provide the numbers to the San Diego Police Department (Detective [redacted], based upon that agency's ongoing investigation into the harassing telephone calls. The results of Telepacific's work may also be useful in further identifying the subjects in Los Angeles' case.

Second, [redacted] provided a DVD containing threatening emails that were sent to the San Diego church email account as well as video clips posted by ANONYMOUS to the internet. The emails contained header information that may identify the sender(s) of the emails, although it is likely that the true source of the emails is hidden behind email servers and personal computers that have been compromised by ANONYMOUS. The emails were saved in their original Microsoft Outlook format. The attachments were saved on the disk as separate files. They are being forwarded to Los Angeles for further analysis. b6 b7C

Third, [redacted] provided details of various harassment techniques being used against the San Diego branch of the church. These details may be useful in identify patterns which assist further in the task of identifying the individuals responsible for the threats. b6 b7C

Finally, on 2/27/08, the San Diego church experienced a suspicious event. At approximately 6:30 p.m. a female, described as white, in her 30s or 40s (further descriptions vary), entered the church reception area and indicated that there was a suspicious backpack by a church dumpster. She indicated several times that the church ought to call the police. The female provided the information in a manner that seemed suspicious. [redacted] felt that the female was trying to prompt the church into treating the backpack as a threat, because up until that point, the church had ignored it. The female did not identify herself. Later, around 6:50 p.m., the church received its first and only harassing call of the day.

[redacted] the backpack from another church member and secured it in a church utility closet. [redacted] subsequently took the backpack and placed it into evidence in case it is found to be related to the recent threats against the church.

[redacted] thought that the description of the unidentified female was consistent with a chronic picketer of the church named [redacted] has picketed the church in San Diego for several years. She has also traveled to Los Angeles to participate in picketing activity against the church located there. She has been seen picketing in a [redacted] thought he saw someone in a [redacted] at the [redacted] protests at the San Diego church, which may have been [redacted] couldn't provide any definite identifiers for [redacted] but thought that she was mentioned on a website identified as www.religiousfreedomwatch.org. She may also be living at an address on [redacted] in San Diego.

The church further believed that [redacted] had previous contact with a [redacted] (phonetic) via chat room discussions. [redacted] allegedly has an email address indicating he is affiliated with Carnegie-Mellon University. He also allegedly has posted bomb making information on the internet. The author has not confirmed at this point any of the allegations against [redacted]

b7C

This office will continue to monitor the situation concerning harassment and protests at the San Diego Church of Scientology given the most recent threat, which was directed at all Scientology churches, worldwide.

Web awash in critics of Scientology

The church's tightly controlled image is taking hits as soured ex-members go online.

By David Sarno
Times Staff Writer

"We were born. We grew up. We escaped."

So reads the motto of ExScientologyKids.com, a website launched Thursday by three young women raised in the Church of Scientology who are speaking out against the religion. Their website accuses the church of physical abuse, denying some children a proper education and alienating members from family.

One of the women behind the site, Jenna Miscavige Hill, is the niece of David Miscavige, the head of the church, and Kendra Wiseman is the daughter of Bruce Wiseman, president of the Citizens Commission on Human Rights, a Scientology-sponsored organization opposed to the practice of psychiatry.

The day before ExScientologyKids.com launched, another inflammatory allegation about the church began to circulate virulently online. "L. Ron Hubbard Plagiarized Scientology," read a headline at the popular Internet culture blog BoingBoing. The post linked to images of a translated 1934 German book called "Scientologie," which critics say contains similar themes to Hubbard's Scientology, which he codified in 1952, according to a church website.

These were just the latest in a series of Scientology-related stories to burn across the Internet like grass fires in recent weeks, testing the church's well-established ability to tightly control its public image. The largest thorn in the church's side has been a group called Anonymous, a diffuse online coalition of skeptics, hackers and activists, many of them young and Web-savvy. The high-wattage movement has inspired former Scientologists to come forward and has repeatedly trained an Internet spotlight on any story or rumor that portrays Scientology in unflattering terms.

No corner of the Web, it appears, is safe for Scientology. Blogger and lawyer Scott Pilutik recently posted a story noting that Scientology was yanking down EBay auctions for used e-meters, the device the church uses for spiritual counseling. EBay allows brand owners — Louis Vuitton or Rolex, say — to remove items they believe infringe on their trademark or patent rights. Basically, fakes. But, Pilutik said, the used e-meters being taken down were genuine. Reselling them was no different than putting a for-sale sign on your old Chevy.

"What's actually going on here," he wrote, is that the church is "knowingly alleging intellectual property violations that clearly don't exist." Within a day Pilutik's blog had gotten over 45,000 visitors — so much traffic that his site crashed completely.

Facing a steady stream of negative publicity and a growing number of critical voices, Scientology has found itself on the defensive.

The church has referred to Anonymous as a group of "cyber-terrorists" and, in a statement, said the group's aims were "reminiscent of Al Qaeda spreading anti-American hatred and calling for U.S. destruction."

"These people are posing extremely serious death threats to our people," said church spokeswoman Karin Pouw in a phone interview. "We are talking about religious hatred and bigotry."

A recent video posted to YouTube contained a threat to bomb a Southern California Scientology building. An FBI spokeswoman said an investigation was in progress but that no suspects had been identified.

Reporters have long had to tread carefully when writing about Scientology, fearful that lawsuits and other kinds of retaliation would follow any story that Scientology did not like. But that may be changing.

"Before this Internet onslaught," said Douglas Frantz, a contributing editor at Portfolio magazine who covered Scientology for the New York Times in the 1990s (and is a former editor at the L.A. Times), "they were always able to go after their critics and do a good job of being able to discredit or intimidate them."

Angry former church members also perceive a kind of safety in numbers afforded by the Internet, and more are coming forward to share their stories.

"People have been scared out of their minds to speak out about Scientology," said Hill, Miscavige's niece, in an interview. "Nobody should have to be that scared to speak out about a church."

Wiseman echoed the sentiment, adding that the Anonymous campaign had influenced her decision to reveal her identity last week. "The Internet is listening. If something happens to me, all of these people will know."

The current wave of anti-Scientology activity began in January, when a video of Tom Cruise extolling the religion's tech-based approach to enlightenment was leaked onto YouTube, where users holding it up to ridicule copied and recopied it; several sites posted it without hesitation.

It wasn't long before Nick Denton, who is publisher of the blog syndicate Gawker Media had put the video online first, received a legal threat from a law firm representing Scientology, alleging copyright infringement. But Denton refused to take the video down.

"It was an awesome news story," Denton wrote in an e-mail. "If we didn't race to post it up, some other site would have. That, rather than litigation by Scientology, was the fear going through my mind."

The church's whack-a-mole campaign with the Cruise video became a rallying cry for Anonymous, which saw efforts to remove the videos from YouTube as an unwanted incursion into the domain of digital culture, where information and media, copyrighted or no, are often exchanged freely.

In a YouTube video of its own, Anonymous declared open war on the church. Early on, the group also staged cyber-attacks on Scientology websites.

But on Feb. 10, thousands of masked Anonymous members picketed at Scientology locations around the globe, chanting slogans and handing out fliers. No violent incidents were reported. The protests generated yet another wave of online media — videos, photos, news stories, blog posts — little of it in praise of Scientology.

The result of all this attention has been that just about any story critical of Scientology — even those that have been publicly accessible for years — can gain immediate Web currency. On Digg.com, a popular "social news" aggregator that features popular stories from around the Web, dozens of Scientology stories have ascended to the site's most-viewed list in the last several weeks. A successful Digg story can drive tens of thousands of views to the originating site, as was the case with Pilutik's post about e-meters.

In addition, the clamor generated by Anonymous has raised the profile of the small but vehement anti-Scientology community that existed before Anonymous, and even made for some cross-pollination between the two camps.

Scientology's longtime detractors, such as those at Operation Clambake (xenu.net) and Scientology Lies, claim it is not a religion at all but a business that charges its parishioners ever more onerous fees for access to revealed truths. Other online forums, such as the Ex-Scientologist Message Board and ExScientologyKids, have become places for former members to congregate, share stories and offer support.

Ironically, it is the church's aversion to negative publicity — and the legal strategy it has long used to prevent it, that has aroused more online ire than any other issue.

The website ChillingEffects.com has posted dozens of cease-and-desist letters sent by Scientology's lawyers to various website and Internet service providers requesting that copyrighted material be removed.

But in the diffuse and often Byzantine world of the Web, some precision legal strikes are more likely to backfire than hit their target. Scientology's use of copyright law appears to be an increasingly losing battle on the Web, said Andrew Bridges, a San Francisco-based intellectual property attorney. "The big question is: Is the copyright serving the purpose of promoting science and the useful arts, or is the purpose essentially the stifling of criticism?"

Still, according to Scientology spokeswoman Pouw, the church views the Internet as a positive tool. It is, Pouw said, "concentrating on using the Internet as a resource for promoting its message and mission in this world, not as a ground for litigation."

But now that goal will have to exist alongside a seemingly steady stream of online attacks. And while anonymous political activity, such as postering around a town, is nothing new, Bridges noted, the speed of the Web is what is giving Scientology trouble.

"What's different is that more people can see the stuff faster than Scientology can go around and get it taken down."

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 03/10/2008

From January 30, 2008, through March 07, 2008, members of the Los Angeles Division Hazardous Materials Response Team (HMRT-LA) assisted in the collection of evidence related to the captioned investigation.

On January 30, 2008, about numerous churches of Scientology in Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino counties received letters containing threatening language and an unidentified white powder. Hazardous materials units from local law enforcement, health and fire agencies responded and collected the letters. FBI personnel, including SA [redacted] HMRT-LA coordinator, SA [redacted] WMD coordinator, and SA [redacted] assistant WMD coordinator, went to some of the incidents in Los Angeles and Orange counties to help assess the situation and liaison with local responders.

In Orange County, SA [redacted] an HMRT-LA member, supervised the collection of three letters and their transport to the Orange County Public Health laboratory, a member of the Laboratory Response Network (LRN). At the laboratory, the letters were tested for contamination with bioterror agents.

HMRT-LA did not collect any letters the evening of the incident. The letters were collected by the police departments in the affected jurisdictions or the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

From February 7, 2008, through March 25, 2008, HMRT-LA members took custody of letters that had been collected by local police departments at the churches of Scientology. SA [redacted] subsequently screened all items for radiological and chemical hazards, per Hazardous Materials Response Unit (HMRU) protocols. On February 14 and February 27, HMRT-LA members delivered the letters to the Los Angeles County Public Health (LACPH) laboratory, a member of the LRN, for testing.

The attached spreadsheet documents HMRT-LA's collection and handling of the letters. Enclosed in a 1A envelope are supporting documents, including HMRU Field Screening Matrices, FBI chains of custody, LACPH laboratory chains of custody and associated FD-597s.

I, Detective [ ] and I, Detective [ ] Major Crimes Division, Criminal Conspiracy Section (MCD/CCS) assumed the investigative responsibility for this incident.

Note: On January 30, 2008, several offices and churches of the Church of Scientology in the City of Los Angeles received typewritten letters from an anonymous suspect/s containing anti Church of Scientology rhetoric and an unknown powder. The sender only identified themselves as "Anonymous." Detectives determined that "Anonymous" is an Internet based group that overtly opposes the Church of Scientology and has targeted the church with a campaign of telephonic threats, computer based denial of service attacks, protest marches, and white powder sent inside envelopes addressed to several offices of the Church of Scientology. Detectives also determined that the members of "Anonymous" are located throughout the United States and frequently use the Internet to communicate, and target the church with various types of threats.

CCS detectives were assigned the investigative responsibility of the numerous cases targeting the church and have received a great deal of investigative cooperation from officials at the church concerning the Denial of Service attacks, telephone threats and their associated records, as well as regular updates concerning the current attack campaign against the church by "Anonymous." This incident involving [ ] was believed to be yet another intentional confrontation with the Church of Scientology on behalf of "Anonymous."

INVESTIGATION

On February 18, 20089, Detective [ ] obtained the registered owner information of the gray Scion vehicle involved in this case via a check of Department resources. The registered owner was listed as [ ] a male Caucasian with a date of birth date of [ ] and a listed address of [ ] in Hollywood. Detective [ ] subsequently obtained [ ] California Drivers License record information and photograph. [ ] California Drivers License listed his residence as [ ] in North Hollywood. Detective [ ] showed me [ ] Drivers License photograph and we formed the opinion that it was in fact [ ] who was captured on the digital surveillance footage provided to us by the COS based on his physical facial characteristics, complexion and hair color [ ] hair). On February 20, 2008, Detective [ ] and I arranged to meet with COS Security Officer [ ] at Northeast Station at 1800 hours. We met with [ ] at Northeast station where we explained to him that we developed additional possible suspect information in this case and subsequently conducted a photo line up which included a photograph of [ ] in position number 6. [ ] identified [ ] in position number 6 as the person who was the accomplice to the individual based on the physical appearance of his eyes, mouth and hair color. [ ] added that [ ] was not person who made the reported statement that the church was going to burn. He reiterated that it was the other individual whom he described as a male white with an extremely thin build, and long light colored hair that actually made the threat.

On August 13, 2008, at 1410 hours, Detective [ ] MCD/CCS, and I, located and interviewed [ ] at his residence located at 12204 Huston Street in North Hollywood this interview was surreptitiously digitally recorded by Detective [ ] statement is summarized below as follows.

I explained to [ ] that I was investigating a case concerning the church of Scientology from earlier in the year where he and another individual went to one of the churches of Scientology. He remembered the day he and his friend that he named as [redacted] years old, went to two COS locations. He first told us that [redacted] was his best friend of the last two to three years who moved to Arizona and that they stopped talking to each other over the COS. [redacted] got involved with a girl who screwed him up. He knew the girl's name as [redacted], a fake name, and believed that she was involved with the COS. She was trying to take [redacted] to AA meetings and give him medication. She never talked about the COS, but he remembered that he met her outside the church at the bourgeois pig coffee shop about three to four years ago. He told [redacted] that the girl was trying to get him in the program. [redacted] moved in with her. He described her as a witch who read tarot cards. [redacted] complained to him that he felt suicidal at times, and thought that she was going to kill him at some point. He told [redacted] that they just have to leave the city because she would always find him. He told [redacted] that they should go to Arizona they did a few months ago and he felt that they were followed because they saw some cars that appeared to be following them. On one occasion they went to a Chili's restaurant in Alamos Colorado and he felt that he might have been poisoned. He suspected Scientology because [redacted] is a talented drummer and is someone they would try to recruit. He never saw [redacted] give [redacted] any medication but remembered that she had a lot of medication in her house. She lived somewhere near Lankershim and the Superior Warehouse market. He last spoke to [redacted] three months ago

He told me he sold his [redacted] to make the move with [redacted] to Sedona Arizona. He further described [redacted] as having blond hair blue eyes, 152 lbs, and skinny and that he was from Sweeden. He speaks English with no accent and one a drumming championship. [redacted] wore tight jeans and wore hats and glasses and a hat like a crazy guy. . I showed [redacted] the surveillance photos depicting him and another individual he identified as his friend [redacted] He remembered going to the COS office on Hollywood Boulevard first to ask about [redacted] and if she was in the COS data base. When they got there the security told them to leave. Then they went to the other COS building by the hospital and that's when they were stopped by a security guard. [redacted] went off on the security guard by saying [redacted] I told him that he didn't have to do that. He was threatening them at Sunset. He was just frustrated about what was going on. He didn't know what was going on with himself and he made the threats. The security guard told him that he wasn't causing him any problems. No one else was present on the street at this time. No one else was in his car. This happened on the sidewalk. The security guard came to them on his bike. They didn't approach anyone when they were there. After they moved to Arizona, [redacted] turned on [redacted] blaming him for the whole problem that he had with Scientology.

[redacted] lastly provided us with an email address for [redacted] and state that he would probably respond to any emails I might send him. [redacted] preferred not to be mentioned in any future conversations that I might have with [redacted] concerning this investigation because he's trying to move on with his life. I confronted [redacted] about any involvement he might have with an Internet group calling themselves. [redacted] did not recognize the name "Anonymous" and was not aware of any "Anonymous" related actions. I formed the opinion based on his candid response and cooperation and that fact that I did not observe any "Anonymous" related materials in his room that he did not in fact have any connection with "Anonymous."

On August 14, 2008, I conducted a search of Department resources and identified [redacted] through his California Drivers License record. I prepared a photo line display card containing [redacted] photograph in position number 3 for witness identification purposes and labeled the display card "B." I also sent him an email requesting that he contact me to discuss his experience with the COS.

DISPOSITION

This investigation is continued pending a second photo line up showing to witness [redacted] and the locating and final interview of suspect #1 [redacted]

Title: ANONYMOUS;
White Powder Letters Sent To
The Church of Scientology;
OO:Los Angeles

Synopsis: Set lead for laboratory examinations.

Package Copy: Being forwarded under separate cover are the following items of evidence:

1B1 - 3 white powder letters sent to Tustin and Newport Beach COS properties.
1B2 - several white powder letters sent to COS locations throughout Southern California.
1B4 - 2 letters sent to Santa Monica and Montrose COS properties.
1B5 - 1 letter sent to Upland COS property.
1B6 - 1 letter sent to Field Pastor residence in San Fernando valley.

Details: On 01/30/2008, several envelopes containing a white powder substance and a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology (COS) locations throughout Southern California. Each envelope was processed and post marked out of the U.S. Postal Service processing center in Santa Clarita, CA with a date of 01/29/2008. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with the corresponding address. No return address appeared on the envelopes. To date, a total of 30

UNCLASSIFIED

such envelopes were received at COS locations in the Southern California Area.

Law enforcement response to this incident involved FBI, U.S. Postal Service, Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) and numerous other local law enforcement agencies. On-scene field screening was conducted, and powder material in the envelope(s) tested benign. There was evidence of some biological material (possibly starch) in the white powder samples tested. The powder was screened according to standard protocol, to include flamability, corrosiveness, radiological, volatility, and oxidizers. Each of the envelopes recovered were submitted to the local public health laboratory (LRN) in Los Angeles for definitive testing.

Laboratory findings were negative for all Category A bacterial bio-threat agents, Brucella species, and Burkholderia mallei, B. psuedomallei, and Coxiella burnetti; testing for orthopox virus was also negative. Testing for Ricin and Staphyloccocal Enterotoxin B (SEB) by Time Resolved Fluorescence (TRF) was negative; testing for other chemical agents was not performed.

Of the envelopes received, approximately 1/3 of the white powder letters were received at locations within the city of Los Angeles City territory. LAPD requested that the letters received within their territory be tested by an LAPD laboratory for forensic evidence. Due to the Joint nature of the investigation in this matter, a decision was made to provide these items recovered within the city of Los Angeles to LAPD for testing by an LAPD laboratory. All tests conducted by LAPD's Laboratory were completed according to strict protocol using a process which renders the evidence unusable for further forensic examination following these tests. Results of the examinations performed on these items of evidence were negative for fingerprints or trace evidence.

The remaining items of evidence recovered from this incident (as listed above) are hereby submitted to the FBI Laboratory for forensic examination. The FBI Laboratory is requested to to conduct examinations on the submitted items for the presence of trace evidence, fingerprints, etc. If detected, conduct appropriate DNA analysis.

This report contains the results of the questioned document examinations.

Results of Examinations:

Indented writing of unknown value was observed on specimen Q13 using the Electrostatic Detection Apparatus. Two photocopies of that indented writing are enclosed for your investigative assistance. No indented writing was observed on the remaining specimens.

The Q1.1, Q3.1, Q5.1, Q8.1, Q11.1, Q13.1, Q16.1, Q19.1, Q22.1, Q26.1, Q30.1, Q37.1, Q39.1, Q42.1, and Q45.1 postage stamps are all self-adhesive, dated 2007, bear the image of the Liberty Bell, and are of the "Forever" variety. These stamps are suitable for comparison to other suspect stamps.

The Q1, Q3, Q5, Q8, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q30, Q37, Q39, Q42, and Q45 envelopes have moisture-activated flaps.

Numerous pieces of clear adhesive tape were examined. These pieces are suitable for comparison to other suspect tape fragments or tape rolls.

The paper fragments designated specimens Q1.11, Q3.6, Q5.7, Q8.8, Q11.6, Q13.6, Q16.6, Q19.6, Q22.6, Q26.6, Q30.5, Q37.6, Q39.6, Q42.6, and Q45.6 have cut edges that are suitable for comparison with other suspect paper fragments.

No watermarks were observed on any of the submitted specimens.

Specimens Q1.11, Q2, Q3.6, Q4, Q5.7, Q6, Q8.8, Q9, Q11.6, Q12, Q13.6, Q14, Q16.6, Q17, Q19.6, Q20, Q22.6, Q23, Q26.6, Q27, Q29.1, Q30.5 through Q34, Q37.6, Q38, Q39.6, Q40, Q42.6, Q45.6, and Q46 were printed utilizing a toner-based technology commonly utilized by laser printers, photocopiers, and facsimile machines.

The printing on specimen Q29 was prepared using an inkjet printing process that is commonly utilized by numerous brand-name printing devices.

The handwriting on specimens Q8 and Q45 is suitable for comparison.

If future examinations are desired, dictated and undictated known writing should be obtained from any logical suspect(s). The known writing should be handwritten/hand printed and comparable to the questioned writing in wording and format. Dictated known writing should be obtained on envelopes similar to the questioned specimens, and should be removed from the writer's view upon completion. Numerous repetitions may be necessary in order to obtain naturally prepared writing. Undictated known writing consists of handwriting prepared during normal course of business activity. Possible sources of undictated known writing include business papers, letters, canceled checks, and/or applications.

The submitted specimens have been searched through the Anonymous Letter File (ALF) with negative results. Appropriate information has been added to the ALF for future reference.

Additional assessments and observations have been made regarding the submitted specimens and recorded for possible future comparisons.

Remarks:

The submitted specimens will be returned under separate cover along with the original ESDA lifts (which are considered secondary evidence). Digital images are retained. For questions about the content of this report, please contact Forensic Document Examiner [redacted] For questions about the status of remaining forensic examinations, please contact Request Coordinator [redacted]

Synopsis: Documents placement of case in Pending Inactive status.

Details: On 01/30/2008 a total of 30 envelopes containing a white powder substance a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology (COS) locations throughout Southern California. Evidence suggests that each envelope was processed and post-marked via the U.S. Postal processing center in Santa Clarita, California on 01/29/2008. Each envelope was labeled with a printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with a corresponding address. The one page statement in each envelope was signed "Anonymous", apparently referring to a group who was voicing protests against the policies and practices used by the Church of Scientology.

To date all investigative leads have been covered with negative results. Field tests and Laboratory tests for biological agents met with negative results for all Category A bacterial bio-threat agents, Brucella species, and Burkholderia mallei, B. psuedomallei, and Coxiella burnetti; testing for orthopox virus was also negative. Testing for Ricin and Staphyloccocal Enterotoxin B (SEB) by Time Resolved Fluorescence (TRF) was also negative.

Subsequently the physical evidence collected by the FBI was submitted to the FBI Laboratory for forensic tests. Tests conducted by the FBI Chemistry Unit revealed that the white powder specimens were consistent with starch. Results of the examination by the FBI Trace Evidence Unit (Hair and Fiber) found textile fibers of different types and colors were found on some specimens and have been preserved for possible future comparisons. The specimens were examined visually using stereo-microscopy and comparison microscopy. As of instant date, examinations remain to be completed by DNA Analysis Unit I (Nuclear), Latent Print Operations Unit and the Questioned Documents Unit at the FBI Laboratory. In addition, some items of evidence (received within LAPD territory) have been submitted by LAPD Criminal Conspiracy Unit to the LAPD Laboratory for forensic examination. To date, results from the LAPD Lab have been negative for evidentiary leads.

No other incidents of a similar nature to this matter have occurred since the white powder mailings were originally received in late January, 2008. This case has been run as a cooperative effort with LAPD, Major Crimes Division, Criminal Conspiracy Section, Detective III [redacted] b6 b7C

Until such time as the Laboratories return positive results indicative of potential subject(s), this matter is hereby placed in Pending Inactive status.

This report contains the results of the nuclear DNA analyses.

Results of Nuclear DNA Examinations:

Specimens Q1, Q3, Q5, Q8, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q28, Q30, Q37, Q39, Q42, and Q45 were subjected to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) typing by the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) at the amelogenin sex typing locus, and where appropriate, the nine short tandem repeat (STR) loci of the AmpF*l*STR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit and/or the six STR loci of the AmpF*l*STR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit.[1]

Based on the typing results from the amelogenin locus (for sex determination), female DNA is present in the DNA obtained from specimen Q8. Male DNA is present in the DNA obtained from specimen Q28. The amelogenin typing result obtained from specimens Q30 and Q45 does not satisfy the Nuclear DNA Unit reporting criteria; therefore, no conclusion can be offered. No amelogenin typing results were obtained from specimens Q1, Q3, Q5, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q37, Q39, and Q42.

No STR typing results were obtained from specimens Q1, Q3, Q5, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q39, and Q42.

The DNA typing results obtained from specimen Q8 are consistent with having arisen from a single individual. With the exception of STR location D8S1179, these results are not suitable for matching purposes.

The DNA profile obtained from specimen Q28 is consistent with having arisen from a single individual and is suitable for comparison purposes.

The DNA typing results obtained from specimens Q30, Q37, and Q45 are not suitable for matching purposes; however, they may be utilized for exclusionary purposes.[2]

The DNA profile for specimen Q28 will be entered into the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) and maintained by the FBI Laboratory for future comparisons. If future comparisons are requested, a known blood or buccal (saliva) sample from the suspect should be submitted.

No other nuclear DNA examinations were conducted.

Methods/Limitations:

The following methods and limitations apply to the results/conclusions provided in the results section(s) of this report and are referenced by number in the body of the text for clarity.

1: The AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, vWA, FGA, D8S1179, D21S11, D18S51, D5S818, D13S317, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, D16S539, TH01, TPOX, CSF1PO, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® Identifiler® Plus PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D8S1179, D21S11, D7S820, CSF1PO, D3S1358, TH01, D13S317, D16S539, D2S1338, D19S433, vWA, TPOX, D18S51, D5S818, and FGA. The AmpFℓSTR® MiniFiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D13S317, D7S820, D2S1338, D21S11, D16S539, D18S51, CSF1PO, and FGA. Due to the differences in sample quality and/or quantity, amplification may not be attempted using each kit. Insufficient DNA quality and/or quantity can affect the ability to generate a DNA typing result and is not an absolute determination that an individual did not come into contact with an item of evidence.

2. As used here, STR typing results are deemed not suitable for matching purposes (i.e., inconclusive) when the potential exists that not all of the genetic information in a biological sample has been detected. For STR typing results to be used for matching purposes, sufficient DNA quality and/or quantity is necessary.

This report contains the results of the examination of friction ridge prints.

Results of Examinations:

Seven latent fingerprints of value were detected on Q14, Q16.6, and Q19. No latent prints of value were detected on the remaining specimens.

Automated latent fingerprint searches were conducted, but no identification was effected.

Methods:

Items of evidence submitted to the Latent Print Operations Unit for examination may be examined visually, examined with various light sources, and/or processed with chemicals and powders to detect the presence of latent friction ridge prints. The specific sequence of examinations and processes depends upon the nature of the evidence.

Friction ridge print examinations are conducted using the Analysis, Comparison, Evaluation, and Verification methodology (ACE-V), which includes an assessment of the quantity and quality of the information present. The steps of ACE-V are applied to each examination as appropriate.

Analysis is the assessment of a friction ridge print to determine if sufficient reliable details are present to conduct a comparison with another print and to reach an identification conclusion. If these conditions are met, the print is determined to be "of value".

Comparison is the direct side-by-side observation of friction ridge prints of value to determine whether or not the information in two prints is in agreement.

Evaluation is the formulation of a conclusion based on the information gathered during the analysis and comparison of the friction ridge prints.

Conclusions that can be reached are as follows:

- Identification - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in agreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints originated from the same source.
- Exclusion - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in disagreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints did not originate from the same source.
- Inconclusive - the determination that corresponding areas of friction ridge prints are absent and/or unreliable and therefore cannot be identified or excluded.

Verification is the independent application of the analysis, comparison, and evaluation phases of the ACE-V methodology to a friction ridge print by another examiner.

Interpretations:

The presence of a friction ridge print on an item of evidence indicates contact was made between the source and the item of evidence. The presence of a friction ridge print alone does not necessarily indicate the significance of the contact nor the time frame during which the contact occurred.

Due to the many factors involved in the deposition of a friction ridge print, neither the absence of a friction ridge print on evidence nor the exclusion of a friction ridge print with a given source, disassociate that source from having touched the evidence.

Remarks:

Inasmuch as a latent print examination was conducted on Q11, Q11.6, Q12, Q28, Q29, Q29.1, Q30, Q30.5, Q31, Q32, Q33, Q34, Q37, Q37.1, Q37.2, Q37.3, Q37.4, Q37.5, Q37.6, Q38, Q39, Q39.6, and Q40 by an agency other than the FBI, no latent print examinations were conducted on these items.

Synopsis: Closure of captioned matter.

Details: This matter was opened as a result of the receipt of approximately 30 letters containing white powder via U.S. Mail at several Church of Scientology locations throughout Southern California on or about 01/31/2008. Subsequent investigation and forensic examinations of the evidence have failed to reveal sufficient evidence to determine those responsible for this act.

The white powder contained in the envelopes received by the Church of Scientology was determined to be non-toxic by both local LRN laboratory and the FBI laboratory. Several other examinations by the FBI lab were unable to determine sufficient identifying information to point toward one or more individuals who might have handled the evidence. Serial 49 documented the results of the fingerprint analysis of the evidence. From this examination the following statement was submitted..."Seven latent fingerprints of value were detected on Q14, Q16.6, and Q19. No latent prints of value were detected on the remaining specimens. Automated latent fingerprint searches were conducted, but no identification was effected."

All other investigative leads in this matter have been exhausted. Due to the fact that no one person could be identified, through the course of this investigation, as possibly Synopsis: To open investigation on captioned matter.

Enclosure(s): Photocopies of one letter and envelope received at 1934 Hillhurst Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90027

Details: On 01/30/2008, at least nineteen envelopes containing an unknown white powder and a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology locations in Southern California. The envelopes were processed at the Santa Clarita California Processing Center with a date stamp of 01/29/2008. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with the corresponding address. There was no return address on the envelopes. The primary Church of Scientology location in Los Angeles, CA (1308 L. Ron Hubbard Way) received multiple white powder envelopes.

The FBI, U.S. Postal Inspection Service, and Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) responded to initial locations reported by the Church of Scientology. On-scene field screening was conducted, and all materials in the envelope tested benign. There was evidence of some biological material (possibly starch). The powder was screened according to standard protocol, to include flammability, corrosiveness, radiological, volatility, and oxidizers. Samples are being transported to the public health laboratory (LRN) in Los Angeles, CA for definitive testing.

Each standard size business envelope contained a small but noticeable amount of white powder with a one page typed/printed statement on standard white paper containing the following information:

"Hello Scientology,

We are Anonymous. Over the years, we have been watching you. Your campaign of misinformation, suppression of dissent; your litigious nature, all of these things have caught our eye. With the leakage of your latest propaganda video into mainstream circulation, the extent of your maligned influence over those who trust you, who call you leader, has been made clear to us. Anonymous has therefore decided that your organization should be destroyed. For the good of your followers, for the good of mankind -- for the laughs we shall expel you from the Internet and systematically dismantle the Church of Scientology in its present form. We acknowledge you as a serious opponent, and we are prepared for a long, long, campaign. You will not prevail forever against the angry masses of the body politic. Your methods, hypocrisy, and the artlessness of the organization have sounded its death knell.

You cannot hide; We are everywhere.

We cannot die; we are forever. We are getting bigger everyday -- and solely by the force of our ideas, malicious and hostile as they often are. If you want another name for your opponent, then call us Legion, for we are many.

Yet for all that we are not as monstrous as you are; still our methods are parallel to your own. Doubtless you will use the anon's actions as an example of the persecution you have so long warned your followers would come; is acceptable, in fact, it is encouraged. We are your SPs.

Gradually as we merge our pulse with that of your "Church", the suppression of your followers will become increasingly difficult to maintain. Believers will wake, and see that salvation has no price. They will know that the stress, the frustration that they feel is not something that may be blamed upon Anonymous. No -- they will see that it stems from a source far closer to each. Yes, we are SPs. The sum of suppression we could ever muster is eclipsed by that of the RTC.

Knowledge is free.

We are Anonymous.

We are Legion.

We do not forgive.

We Do Not Forget.

Expect us."

Hello. Scientology. We are Anonymous.

Over the years, we have been watching you. Your campaigns of misinformation: suppression of dissent: your litigious nature. all of these things have caught our eye. With the leakage of your latest propaganda video into mainstream circulation, the extent of your malign influence over those who trust you, who call you leader, has been made clear to us. Anonymous has therefore decided that your organization should be destroyed. For the good of your followers, for the good of mankind--for the laughs--we shall expel you from the Internet and systematically dismantle the Church of Scientology in its present form. We acknowledge you as a serious opponent, and we are prepared for a long, long campaign. You will not prevail forever against the angry masses of the body politic. Your methods, hypocrisy, and the artlessness of your organization have sounded its death knell.

You cannot hide: we are everywhere.

We cannot die; we are forever. We're getting bigger every day--and solely by the force of our ideas, malicious and hostile as they often are. If you want another name for your opponent, then call us Legion, for we are many.

Yet for all that we are not as merciless as you are, still our methods are a parallel to your own. Doubtless you will use the Web's actions as an example of the persecution you have so long warned your followers would come: this is acceptable. In fact, it is encouraged. We are your SPs.

Gradually as we merge our pulse with that of your "Church", the suppression of your followers will become increasingly difficult to maintain. Believers will wake, and see that salvation has no price. They will know that the stress, the frustration that they feel is not something that may be blamed upon Anonymous. No--they will see that it stems from a source far closer to each. Yes, we are SPs. But the sum of suppression we could ever muster is eclipsed by that of the RTC.

Knowledge is free.

We are Anonymous.

We are Legion.

We do not forgive.

WE DO NOT FORGET.

Expect us.

Mailings to Scientology sites probed

By JOHN SPANO
AND ANDREW BLANKSTEIN
Times Staff Writers

Mailings of a suspicious white powder to 10 Church of Scientology addresses prompted the evacuation of dozens of people and the closure of a major thoroughfare Wednesday as hazmat teams were called to examine the packages.

The letters were sent via the Postal Service to Scientology properties in Hollywood, the San Fernando Valley, Santa Monica, Glendale and Tustin. Police shut part of Glendale's busy Brand Boulevard for two hours before sounding the all-clear, while 60 people were cleared from buildings in Tustin, authorities said.

The incidents appeared to be part of a malicious hoax. Preliminary tests showed the powder to be cornstarch and wheat germ. More tests are pending, authorities say.

"Initial field testing by LAPD indicates the powder is harmless," said FBI spokeswoman Laura Eimiller. "However, further testing will be conducted. We will also work to assess what threat, if any, was associated with the mailings and determine whether any federal statutes were violated."

The Church of Scientology had no comment about the incidents Wednesday. The mailings come after a cyber attack last week on the Church of Scientology's website, which caused it to shut down for a day. Authorities said there was no evidence that Wednesday's mailings were connected to the hacking.

Scientology feud with critics takes to Internet

Cyber attacks and threats against the church erupt after it asks YouTube to pull Tom Cruise clips.

By Jim Puzzanghera
Times Staff Writer

A long-simmering dispute over digital copyrights between the Church of Scientology and its critics has boiled over in recent weeks after video clips turned up on the Internet from a 2004 interview by the church's most famous member, actor Tom Cruise.

When Scientology officials complained the clips were copyrighted and requested their removal from YouTube and other websites, a shadowy organization of online troublemakers sprang into action.

The group known as "Anonymous" posted an eerie video on the Internet featuring a computer-generated voice announcing a campaign to destroy the church and calling for worldwide protests Feb. 10.

It was all for laughs, said a member who spoke on the condition of anonymity. But things are now getting serious. A series of cyber attacks the group claimed responsibility for slowed access to church websites and apparently shut down the main one, www.scientology.org, one day last month.

As of Friday, suspicious white powder was mailed to 23 church locations in Southern California, forcing 60 people to be cleared from buildings in Tustin and causing police to close part of busy Brand Boulevard in Glendale for two hours. Preliminary tests by the LAPD determined the powder was cornstarch and wheat germ.

The FBI is investigating whether the mailings were connected to the hacking. Shortly after the mailings were disclosed by authorities, a caller who identified himself as a spokesman for the group Anonymous told a Times reporter that the group was not to blame.

The incidents have drawn new attention to Scientology.

Critics of the religion are flocking to Anonymous postings on YouTube, the popular video-sharing site. Their campaign has sparked a debate among long-time Scientology's opponents, who wonder whether the aggressive rhetoric and tactics, including illegal denial-of-service attacks on the church's websites, help the cause by raising awareness of the religion's controversial beliefs, or hurt it by using the same type of heavy-handed methods they accuse Scientology officials of employing against critics.

"I don't know if anybody in Anonymous did this but Anonymous set themselves up to be targeted in this way ...," said Mark Bunker, who runs one of the leading websites criticizing the church, www.xenu.tv.com, and posted a video last week warning Anonymous to tone down its campaign.

"I hope it doesn't hurt the larger critic community who have been speaking out for years about Scientology's abuse."

Scientology was founded in 1954 by science fiction author L. Ron Hubbard. It teaches that "spiritual release and freedom" from life's problems can be achieved through one-on-one counseling called auditing, during which members' responses are monitored on an e-meter, similar to a polygraph. The process, along with a series of training courses, can cost Scientologists tens of thousands of dollars.

Cruise has become an outspoken proponent of the religion. In 2004, he won the International Assn. of Scientologists Freedom Medal of Valor award and part of the ceremony included a taped interview with him talking about why the religion is important to him.

The video was posted on YouTube and other sites this month, leading the Church of Scientology to request its removal for copyright violation.

A Scientology spokeswoman said the church wasn't trying to suppress the video, which it says can be watched at any of its facilities around the world. But it was made for "the Scientology congregation" and "never intended for replay on television or the Internet," spokeswoman Karin Pouw said in a written response to questions.

The requests to have it removed are similar to takedown requests by movie studios and TV networks, she said. But members of Anonymous were angered by the requests and decided to take on the church, said the group's representative.

The group is a loose confederation of about 9,000 people who post anonymous messages in chat rooms on websites he would not identify. While they are experienced Internet users, few are computer hackers, he said. But there are enough people with knowledge of how to attack websites that they were able to launch the attacks, the spokesman said. One of the attacks, known as distributed denial of service, involves flooding a website with requests, overloading its capacity.

Pouw said Scientology's websites "have been and are online." But Danny McPherson, chief research officer at Arbor Networks, which works with Internet service providers to detect and prevent cyber attacks, said they observed about 500 denial-of-service attacks on the Scientology site in the past week.

The Church of Scientology also shifted the company that hosts its site last week to Prolexic Technologies Inc., which specializes in stopping denial-of-service attacks.

Scientology

Fair game

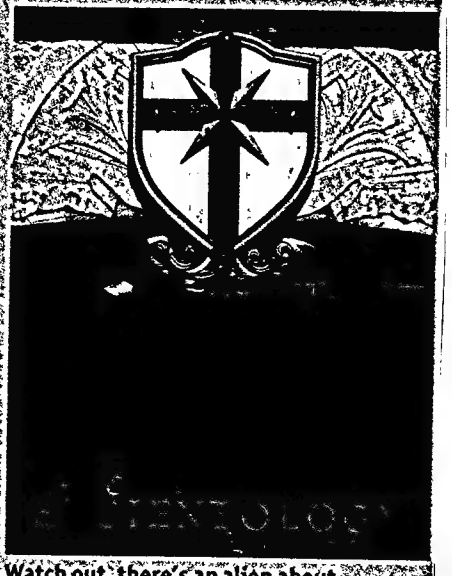
An online onslaught against Scientology

A VICIOUS cult run by cynical fraudsters, or a sincerely held religious belief persecuted by zealots? That is the long-standing row about Scientology, founded by the late science-fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard. In some countries, such as Germany, the group is watched by the security services. In others, such as America and Australia, it has won charitable status as a religion.

Until now the fight could mostly be seen as one-sided. Scientology's lawyers are vigorous litigants. The group argues that its internal materials (which claim, among other things, that expensive courses of treatment can help rid people of infestation by alien souls from an extinct civilisation) are commercially confidential and protected by copyright. They react sharply to any perceived libel.

As a result, public critics of what they derisively term "$cientology" risk expensive legal battles. For example, a new unauthorised biography of Tom Cruise by a British author, Andrew Morton, contains detailed and highly critical material about the film star's involvement in Scientology. It is a bestseller in America but has not been published in Britain. The publisher, St Martin's Press, has even asked internet booksellers not to ship it to foreign customers. Though Scientology representatives vehemently deny breaking any laws, critics have claimed that they experience intensive harassment and intimidation.

Now Scientology is under attack from a group of internet activists known only as Anonymous. Organised from a Wikipedia-style website (editable by anyone) and through anonymous internet chat rooms, "Project Chanology", as the initiative is known, presents no easy target for Scientology's lawyers. It is promoting cyberwarfare techniques normally associated with extortionists, spies and terrorists. Called "distributed denial of service attacks", these typically involve using networks of infected computers to bombard the target's websites and servers with bogus requests for data, causing them to crash. Even governments find this troublesome.



Watch out, there's an alien about...

Anonymous is also hoping to galvanise public opinion with a mass "real world" protest outside every Scientology office worldwide on February 10th. But its best weapon may be ridicule. The group got going in reaction to efforts to ban an internal Scientology video of Mr Cruise that leaked onto the internet. The star appears to discuss his beliefs with a degree of incoherence and exaggeration that might lead some to question Scientology's effects on its adherents' sanity. A Scientology spokesman says it has been selectively edited. Several internet sites have taken it down after threats of lawsuits. But it keeps popping up.

Global Scientology protests include L.A.

By DAVID SARNO
Times Staff Writer

Anonymous, the loosely bound group of Internet activists who have targeted the Church of Scientology in recent weeks, showed up Sunday morning to protest at the church's largest Los Angeles locations.

The rallies were part of a global day of demonstrations against Scientology organized by the group, with picketers in New York, Toronto, Britain, Australia and other locations.

The protests were peaceful, with music and chanting. Many of the Los Angeles picketers wore the Guy Fawkes masks made popular in the movie "V for Vendetta."

A near-constant stream of horn honks provided background noise for protesters at the Scientology center on Sunset Boulevard. After about two hours, the group headed to a Scientology church on Hollywood Boulevard.

Security personnel, some with video cameras, were stationed at entrances to both locations. A Fawkes-masked spokesman for Anonymous, who wouldn't give his name but whom several protesters identified as the organizer of the L.A. event, said, "We want to set off a government investigation into how [Scientology] got tax-exempt status."

The church was granted tax-exempt status in 1993 after a protracted battle with the IRS, which for 25 years had maintained that Scientology was a business, not a religion.

Contacted for comment on the protests, a Scientology representative issued a statement that called Anonymous "a group of cyber-terrorists" that is "perpetrating religious hate crimes against Churches of Scientology and individual Scientologists for no reason other than religious bigotry."

Asked to explain the groundswell of opposition, protester and former Scientology member Lynn Fountain Campbell, who said she had been part of the church for 40 years, said, "It's just reached a critical mass. People just aren't scared anymore."

"They try to make people shut up," she said, "and I'm not the shutting up type."

Details: Captioned investigation was initiated by the receipt of over 20 letters sent to Church Of Scientology (COS) locations in Southern California. Upon delivery of the letters Hazardous Materials teams from several jurisdictions field tested the powder material and initially determined that the substance appeared to be non-toxic. However each of the letters have been forwarded to regional LRN laboratories for further testing. The letters contained a one page manifesto from a group claiming to be named "ANONYMOUS". In addition to the powder letters, COS has been the target of denial of service attacks via the internet, black fax attacks, telephone calls and the subject of a large amount of internet chat (all of which could be viewed as threatening). In each instance the group known as ANONYMOUS has been party to the activity.

This case is being jointly investigated by FBI, USPS and LAPD. On 02/02/08 a surveillance was conducted on a group of individuals based on information discovered on the internet. Members of this group visited a COS location in Los Angeles and were observed performing site survey/reconnaissance activity.

Re: 279B-LA-249870, 02/06/2008

Information from a variety of sources indicates that ANONYMOUS is planning a world wide protest against COS on 02/10/2008. Investigators believe the activity observed on 02/02/08 was members of ANONYMOUS preparing for the 02/10/08 ANONYMOUS protest in the Los Angeles area. On 02/02/08 the surveillance team was able to identify six (6) individuals from this group. One person of interest from this group has been identified as follows:

Surveillance personnel reported that appeared to be one of the leaders of the group from 02/02/08. Investigation to date indicates that has returned to San Diego and may plan to participate in the ANONYMOUS protest of 02/10/08 in the San Diego area.

Los Angeles requests SDFO assistance in organizing surveillance of to determine his associates, daily pattern and role in the leadership of ANONYMOUS. Enclosure(s): For Los Angeles - (2) original FD-302s and copies documenting the two separate interviews of [redacted]

Details: The captioned case, which was initiated by the Los Angeles Field Office, is focused on identifying those individuals responsible for multiple powder letters sent to Church of Scientology locations across Southern California in January 2008 (no powder letters were received by the church in San Diego county). San Diego provided surveillance coverage from 2/7/08 through 2/10/08 for a person of interest in this case who resides and works in San Diego County. Since this surveillance, further information pertinent to this case has come to the attention of the author. The information is being provided to Los Angeles via this communication.

[redacted] is a member of the Board of Directors for the San Diego Church of Scientology. He also acts as the Secretary and the Public Affairs representative for the San Diego church. He expressed a desire to talk to law enforcement about the cumulative acts of harassment that have been experienced by the San Diego Church of Scientology. The author spoke to him several times over two different days. His interviews identified intelligence regarding the harassment campaign against the church and highlighted several areas of potential follow-up for the case agents. b6 b7C

First, the San Diego church is in the process of having its telecommunications service provider, Telepacific, identify the telephone numbers of harassing calls to its offices (several harassing calls specifically mentioned ANONYMOUS). [redacted] of Telepacific's Fraud and Loss Division, (866) 839-8545, is responsible for accomplishing this. Once the numbers have been identified, Telepacific will provide the numbers to the San Diego Police Department (Detective [redacted], based upon that agency's ongoing investigation into the harassing telephone calls. The results of Telepacific's work may also be useful in further identifying the subjects in Los Angeles' case.

Second, [redacted] provided a DVD containing threatening emails that were sent to the San Diego church email account as well as video clips posted by ANONYMOUS to the internet. The emails contained header information that may identify the sender(s) of the emails, although it is likely that the true source of the emails is hidden behind email servers and personal computers that have been compromised by ANONYMOUS. The emails were saved in their original Microsoft Outlook format. The attachments were saved on the disk as separate files. They are being forwarded to Los Angeles for further analysis. b6 b7C

Third, [redacted] provided details of various harassment techniques being used against the San Diego branch of the church. These details may be useful in identify patterns which assist further in the task of identifying the individuals responsible for the threats. b6 b7C

Finally, on 2/27/08, the San Diego church experienced a suspicious event. At approximately 6:30 p.m. a female, described as white, in her 30s or 40s (further descriptions vary), entered the church reception area and indicated that there was a suspicious backpack by a church dumpster. She indicated several times that the church ought to call the police. The female provided the information in a manner that seemed suspicious. [redacted] felt that the female was trying to prompt the church into treating the backpack as a threat, because up until that point, the church had ignored it. The female did not identify herself. Later, around 6:50 p.m., the church received its first and only harassing call of the day.

[redacted] the backpack from another church member and secured it in a church utility closet. [redacted] subsequently took the backpack and placed it into evidence in case it is found to be related to the recent threats against the church.

[redacted] thought that the description of the unidentified female was consistent with a chronic picketer of the church named [redacted] has picketed the church in San Diego for several years. She has also traveled to Los Angeles to participate in picketing activity against the church located there. She has been seen picketing in a [redacted] thought he saw someone in a [redacted] at the [redacted] protests at the San Diego church, which may have been [redacted] couldn't provide any definite identifiers for [redacted] but thought that she was mentioned on a website identified as www.religiousfreedomwatch.org. She may also be living at an address on [redacted] in San Diego.

The church further believed that [redacted] had previous contact with a [redacted] (phonetic) via chat room discussions. [redacted] allegedly has an email address indicating he is affiliated with Carnegie-Mellon University. He also allegedly has posted bomb making information on the internet. The author has not confirmed at this point any of the allegations against [redacted]

b6
b7C

This office will continue to monitor the situation concerning harassment and protests at the San Diego Church of Scientology given the most recent threat, which was directed at all Scientology churches, worldwide.

Web awash in critics of Scientology

The church's tightly controlled image is taking hits as soured ex-members go online.

By David Sarno
Times Staff Writer

"We were born. We grew up. We escaped."

So reads the motto of ExScientologyKids.com, a website launched Thursday by three young women raised in the Church of Scientology who are speaking out against the religion. Their website accuses the church of physical abuse, denying some children a proper education and alienating members from family.

One of the women behind the site, Jenna Miscavige Hill, is the niece of David Miscavige, the head of the church, and Kendra Wiseman is the daughter of Bruce Wiseman, president of the Citizens Commission on Human Rights, a Scientology-sponsored organization opposed to the practice of psychiatry.

The day before ExScientologyKids.com launched, another inflammatory allegation about the church began to circulate virulently online. "L. Ron Hubbard Plagiarized Scientology," read a headline at the popular Internet culture blog BoingBoing. The post linked to images of a translated 1934 German book called "Scientologie," which critics say contains similar themes to Hubbard's Scientology, which he codified in 1952, according to a church website.

These were just the latest in a series of Scientology-related stories to burn across the Internet like grass fires in recent weeks, testing the church's well-established ability to tightly control its public image. The largest thorn in the church's side has been a group called Anonymous, a diffuse online coalition of skeptics, hackers and activists, many of them young and Web-savvy. The high-wattage movement has inspired former Scientologists to come forward and has repeatedly trained an Internet spotlight on any story or rumor that portrays Scientology in unflattering terms.

No corner of the Web, it appears, is safe for Scientology. Blogger and lawyer Scott Pilutik recently posted a story noting that Scientology was yanking down EBay auctions for used e-meters, the device the church uses for spiritual counseling. EBay allows brand owners — Louis Vuitton or Rolex, say — to remove items they believe infringe on their trademark or patent rights. Basically, fakes. But, Pilutik said, the used e-meters being taken down were genuine. Reselling them was no different than putting a for-sale sign on your old Chevy.

"What's actually going on here," he wrote, is that the church is "knowingly alleging intellectual property violations that clearly don't exist." Within a day Pilutik's blog had gotten over 45,000 visitors — so much traffic that his site crashed completely.

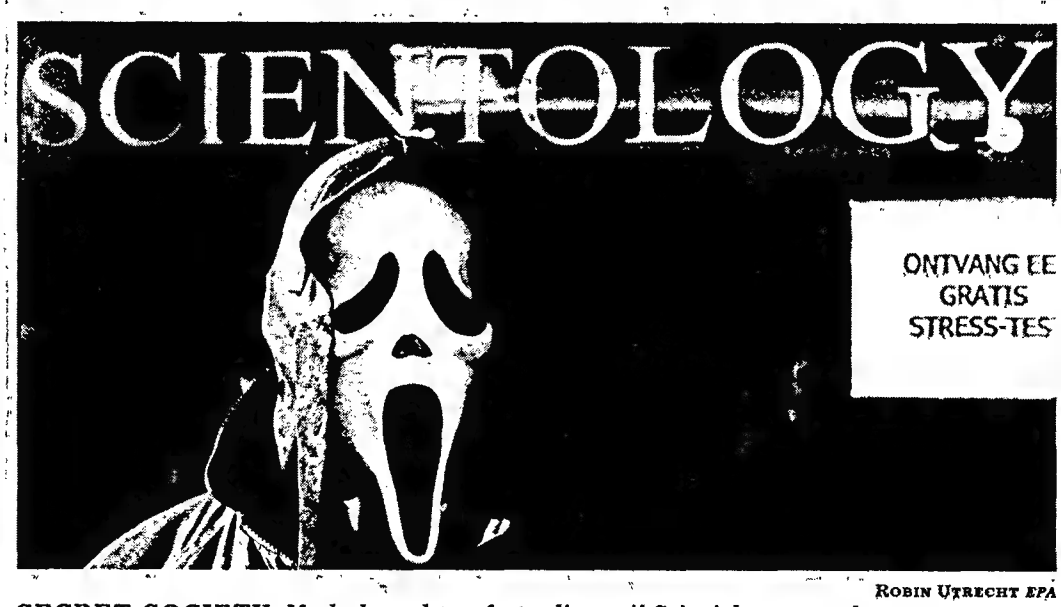
Facing a steady stream of negative publicity and a growing number of critical voices, Scientology has found itself on the defensive.

The church has referred to Anonymous as a group of "cyber-terrorists" and, in a statement, said the group's aims were "reminiscent of Al Qaeda spreading anti-American hatred and calling for U.S. destruction."

"These people are posing extremely serious death threats to our people," said church spokeswoman Karin Pouw in a phone interview. "We are talking about religious hatred and bigotry."

A recent video posted to YouTube contained a threat to bomb a Southern California Scientology building. An FBI spokeswoman said an investigation was in progress but that no suspects had been identified.

Reporters have long had to tread carefully when writing about Scientology, fearful that



ROBIN UTRECHT EPA

lawsuits and other kinds of retaliation would follow any story that Scientology did not like. But that may be changing.

"Before this Internet onslaught," said Douglas Frantz, a contributing editor at Portfolio magazine who covered Scientology for the New York Times in the 1990s (and is a former editor at the L.A. Times), "they were always able to go after their critics and do a good job of being able to discredit or intimidate them."

Angry former church members also perceive a kind of safety in numbers afforded by the Internet, and more are coming forward to share their stories.

"People have been scared out of their minds to speak out about Scientology," said Hill, Miscavige's niece, in an interview. "Nobody should have to be that scared to speak out about a church."

Wiseman echoed the sentiment, adding that the Anonymous campaign had influenced her decision to reveal her identity last week. "The Internet is listening. If something happens to me, all of these people will know."

The current wave of anti-Scientology activity began in January, when a video of Tom Cruise extolling the religion's tech-based approach to enlightenment was leaked onto YouTube, where users holding it up to ridicule copied and recopied it; several sites posted it without hesitation.

It wasn't long before Nick Denton, who is publisher of the blog syndicate Gawker Media had put the video online first, received a legal threat from a law firm representing Scientology, alleging copyright infringement. But Denton refused to take the video down.

"It was an awesome news story," Denton wrote in an e-mail. "If we didn't race to post it up, some other site would have. That, rather than litigation by Scientology, was the fear going through my mind."

The church's whack-a-mole campaign with the Cruise video became a rallying cry for Anonymous, which saw efforts to remove the videos from YouTube as an unwanted incursion into the domain of digital culture, where information and media, copyrighted or no, are often exchanged freely.

In a YouTube video of its own, Anonymous declared open war on the church. Early on, the group also staged cyber-attacks on Scientology websites.

But on Feb. 10, thousands of masked Anonymous members picketed at Scientology locations around the globe, chanting slogans and handing out fliers. No violent incidents were reported. The protests generated yet another wave of online media — videos, photos, news stories, blog posts — little of it in praise of Scientology.

The result of all this attention has been that just about any story critical of Scientology — even those that have been publicly accessible for years — can gain immediate Web currency. On Digg.com, a popular "social news" aggregator that features popular stories from around the Web, dozens of Scientology stories have ascended to the site's most-viewed list in the last several weeks. A successful Digg story can drive tens of thousands of views to the originating site, as was the case with Pilutik's post about e-meters.

In addition, the clamor generated by Anonymous has raised the profile of the small but vehement anti-Scientology community that existed before Anonymous, and even made for some cross-pollination between the two camps.

Scientology's longtime detractors, such as those at Operation Clambake (xenu.net) and Scientology Lies, claim it is not a religion at all but a business that charges its parishioners ever more onerous fees for access to revealed truths. Other online forums, such as the Ex-Scientologist Message Board and ExScientologyKids, have become places for former members to congregate, share stories and offer support.

Ironically, it is the church's aversion to negative publicity — and the legal strategy it has long used to prevent it, that has aroused more online ire than any other issue.

The website ChillingEffects.com has posted dozens of cease-and-desist letters sent by Scientology's lawyers to various website and Internet service providers requesting that copyrighted material be removed.

But in the diffuse and often Byzantine world of the Web, some precision legal strikes are more likely to backfire than hit their target. Scientology's use of copyright law appears to be an increasingly losing battle on the Web, said Andrew Bridges, a San Francisco-based intellectual property attorney. "The big question is: Is the copyright serving the purpose of promoting science and the useful arts, or is the purpose essentially the stifling of criticism?"

Still, according to Scientology spokeswoman Pouw, the church views the Internet as a positive tool. It is, Pouw said, "concentrating on using the Internet as a resource for promoting its message and mission in this world, not as a ground for litigation."

But now that goal will have to exist alongside a seemingly steady stream of online attacks. And while anonymous political activity, such as postering around a town, is nothing new, Bridges noted, the speed of the Web is what is giving Scientology trouble.

"What's different is that more people can see the stuff faster than Scientology can go around and get it taken down."

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 03/10/2008

From January 30, 2008, through March 07, 2008, members of the Los Angeles Division Hazardous Materials Response Team (HMRT-LA) assisted in the collection of evidence related to the captioned investigation.

On January 30, 2008, about numerous churches of Scientology in Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino counties received letters containing threatening language and an unidentified white powder. Hazardous materials units from local law enforcement, health and fire agencies responded and collected the letters. FBI personnel, including SA [redacted] HMRT-LA coordinator, SA [redacted] WMD coordinator, and SA [redacted] assistant WMD coordinator, went to some of the incidents in Los Angeles and Orange counties to help assess the situation and liaison with local responders.

b6
b7C

In Orange County, SA [redacted] an HMRT-LA member, supervised the collection of three letters and their transport to the Orange County Public Health laboratory, a member of the Laboratory Response Network (LRN). At the laboratory, the letters were tested for contamination with bioterror agents.

HMRT-LA did not collect any letters the evening of the incident. The letters were collected by the police departments in the affected jurisdictions or the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

From February 7, 2008, through March 25, 2008, HMRT-LA members took custody of letters that had been collected by local police departments at the churches of Scientology. SA [redacted] subsequently screened all items for radiological and chemical hazards, per Hazardous Materials Response Unit (HMRU) protocols. On February 14 and February 27, HMRT-LA members delivered the letters to the Los Angeles County Public Health (LACPH) laboratory, a member of the LRN, for testing.

The attached spreadsheet documents HMRT-LA's collection and handling of the letters. Enclosed in a 1A envelope are supporting documents, including HMRU Field Screening Matrices, FBI chains of custody, LACPH laboratory chains of custody and associated FD-597s.

Dear [redacted]

RE: Investigation into mailing of white powder

Your name was referred to the FBI's Victim Assistance Program as being a possible victim of a federal crime. We appreciate your assistance and cooperation while we are investigating this case. We would like to make you aware of the victim services that may be available to you and to answer any questions you may have regarding the criminal justice process throughout the investigation. Our program is part of the FBI's effort to ensure the victims are treated with respect and are provided information about their rights under federal law. These rights include notification of the status of the case. The enclosed brochures provide information about the FBI's Victim Assistance Program, resources and instructions for accessing the Victim Notification System (VNS). As a crime victim, you have the following rights under 18 United States Code § 3771: (1) The right to be reasonably protected from the accused; (2) The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding, or any parole proceeding, involving the crime or of any release or escape of the accused; (3) The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at that proceeding; (4) The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea, sentencing, or any parole proceeding; (5) The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case; (6) The right to full and timely restitution as provided in law; (7) The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay; (8) The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

We will make our best efforts to ensure you are accorded the rights described. Most of these rights pertain to events occurring after the arrest or indictment of an individual for the crime, and it will become the responsibility of the prosecuting United States Attorney's Office to ensure you are accorded those rights. You may also seek the advice of a private attorney with respect to these rights.

The Victim Notification System (VNS) is designed to provide you with direct information regarding the case as it proceeds through the criminal justice system. You may obtain current information about this matter on the Internet at WWW.Notify.USDOJ.GOV or from the VNS Call Center at 1-866-DOJ-4YOU (1-866-365-4968) (TDD/TTY: 1-866-228-4619) (International: 1-502-213-2767). SUMMARY

On February 8, 2008, at 2145 hours, Suspects #1 and #2, later identified respectively as [redacted] a male Caucasian [redacted] years of age, with an [redacted] and [redacted] colored hair, and [redacted] a male Caucasian [redacted] years of age, with an [redacted] and [redacted] were observed by Church of Scientology (COS) security officers walking around the Church of Scientology building located at 1404 North Catalina Street. The suspects were approached by security officer [redacted] a male Caucasian, [redacted] years of age, on the street near the north perimeter of the COS. Security Officer [redacted] had a brief discussion with [redacted] and [redacted] at which point [redacted] stated, [redacted] walked away from [redacted], got into a [redacted] compact vehicle and drove away from the location without further incident. [ ] was the driver.

[ ] reported this contact with COS Security manager [ ] who obtained digital surveillance images of [ ] and the [ ] compact vehicle. The surveillance footage captured clear images of both [ ] looking into one of the doors to the church as well as the [ ] they drove leaving the location. The footage of the [ ] included the license plate number of the vehicle as [ ]

I, Detective [ ] and I, Detective [ ] Major Crimes Division, Criminal Conspiracy Section (MCD/CCS) assumed the investigative responsibility for this incident.

Note: On January 30, 2008, several offices and churches of the Church of Scientology in the City of Los Angeles received typewritten letters from an anonymous suspect/s containing anti Church of Scientology rhetoric and an unknown powder. The sender only identified themselves as "Anonymous." Detectives determined that "Anonymous" is an Internet based group that overtly opposes the Church of Scientology and has targeted the church with a campaign of telephonic threats, computer based denial of service attacks, protest marches, and white powder sent inside envelopes addressed to several offices of the Church of Scientology. Detectives also determined that the members of "Anonymous" are located throughout the United States and frequently use the Internet to communicate, and target the church with various types of threats.

CCS detectives were assigned the investigative responsibility of the numerous cases targeting the church and have received a great deal of investigative cooperation from officials at the church concerning the Denial of Service attacks, telephone threats and their associated records, as well as regular updates concerning the current attack campaign against the church by "Anonymous." This incident involving [ ] was believed to be yet another intentional confrontation with the Church of Scientology on behalf of "Anonymous."

INVESTIGATION

On February 18, 20089, Detective [ ] obtained the registered owner information of the gray Scion vehicle involved in this case via a check of Department resources. The registered owner was listed as [ ] a male Caucasian with a date of birth date of [ ] and a listed address of [ ] in Hollywood. Detective [ ] subsequently obtained [ ] California Drivers License record information and photograph. [ ] California Drivers License listed his residence as [ ] in North Hollywood. Detective [ ] showed me [ ] Drivers License photograph and we formed the opinion that it was in fact [ ] who was captured on the digital surveillance footage provided to us by the COS based on his physical facial characteristics, complexion and hair color [ ] hair). On February 20, 2008, Detective [ ] and I arranged to meet with COS Security Officer [ ] at Northeast Station at 1800 hours. We met with [ ] at Northeast station where we explained to him that we developed additional possible suspect information in this case and subsequently conducted a photo line up which included a photograph of [ ] in position number 6. [ ] identified [ ] in position number 6 as the person who was the accomplice to the individual based on the physical appearance of his eyes, mouth and hair color. [ ] added that [ ] was not person who made the reported statement that the church was going to burn. He reiterated that it was the other individual whom he described as a male white with an extremely thin build, and long light colored hair that actually made the threat.

On August 13, 2008, at 1410 hours, Detective [ ] MCD/CCS, and I, located and interviewed [ ] at his residence located at 12204 Huston Street in North Hollywood this interview was surreptitiously digitally recorded by Detective [ ] statement is summarized below as follows.

I explained to [ ] that I was investigating a case concerning the church of Scientology from earlier in the year where he and another individual went to one of the churches of Scientology. He remembered the day he and his friend that he named as [redacted] years old, went to two COS locations. He first told us that [redacted] was his best friend of the last two to three years who moved to Arizona and that they stopped talking to each other over the COS. [redacted] got involved with a girl who screwed him up. He knew the girl's name as [redacted], a fake name, and believed that she was involved with the COS. She was trying to take [redacted] to AA meetings and give him medication. She never talked about the COS, but he remembered that he met her outside the church at the bourgeois pig coffee shop about three to four years ago. He told [redacted] that the girl was trying to get him in the program. [redacted] moved in with her. He described her as a witch who read tarot cards. [redacted] complained to him that he felt suicidal at times, and thought that she was going to kill him at some point. He told [redacted] that they just have to leave the city because she would always find him. He told [redacted] that they should go to Arizona they did a few months ago and he felt that they were followed because they saw some cars that appeared to be following them. On one occasion they went to a Chili's restaurant in Alamos Colorado and he felt that he might have been poisoned. He suspected Scientology because [redacted] is a talented drummer and is someone they would try to recruit. He never saw [redacted] give [redacted] any medication but remembered that she had a lot of medication in her house. She lived somewhere near Lankershim and the Superior Warehouse market. He last spoke to [redacted] three months ago

He told me he sold his [redacted] to make the move with [redacted] to Sedona Arizona. He further described [redacted] as having blond hair blue eyes, 152 lbs, and skinny and that he was from Sweeden. He speaks English with no accent and one a drumming championship. [redacted] wore tight jeans and wore hats and glasses and a hat like a crazy guy. . I showed [redacted] the surveillance photos depicting him and another individual he identified as his friend [redacted] He remembered going to the COS office on Hollywood Boulevard first to ask about [redacted] and if she was in the COS data base. When they got there the security told them to leave. Then they went to the other COS building by the hospital and that's when they were stopped by a security guard. [redacted] went off on the security guard by saying [redacted] I told him that he didn't have to do that. He was threatening them at Sunset. He was just frustrated about what was going on. He didn't know what was going on with himself and he made the threats. The security guard told him that he wasn't causing him any problems. No one else was present on the street at this time. No one else was in his car. This happened on the sidewalk. The security guard came to them on his bike. They didn't approach anyone when they were there. After they moved to Arizona, [redacted] turned on [redacted] blaming him for the whole problem that he had with Scientology.

[redacted] lastly provided us with an email address for [redacted] and state that he would probably respond to any emails I might send him. [redacted] preferred not to be mentioned in any future conversations that I might have with [redacted] concerning this investigation because he's trying to move on with his life. I confronted [redacted] about any involvement he might have with an Internet group calling themselves. [redacted] did not recognize the name "Anonymous" and was not aware of any "Anonymous" related actions. I formed the opinion based on his candid response and cooperation and that fact that I did not observe any "Anonymous" related materials in his room that he did not in fact have any connection with "Anonymous."

b7C

On August 14, 2008, I conducted a search of Department resources and identified [redacted] through his California Drivers License record. I prepared a photo line display card containing [redacted] photograph in position number 3 for witness identification purposes and labeled the display card "B." I also sent him an email requesting that he contact me to discuss his experience with the COS.

DISPOSITION

This investigation is continued pending a second photo line up showing to witness [redacted] and the locating and final interview of suspect #1 [redacted]

Title: ANONYMOUS;
White Powder Letters Sent To
The Church of Scientology;
OO:Los Angeles

Synopsis: Set lead for laboratory examinations.

Package Copy: Being forwarded under separate cover are the following items of evidence:

1B1 - 3 white powder letters sent to Tustin and Newport Beach COS properties.
1B2 - several white powder letters sent to COS locations throughout Southern California.
1B4 - 2 letters sent to Santa Monica and Montrose COS properties.
1B5 - 1 letter sent to Upland COS property.
1B6 - 1 letter sent to Field Pastor residence in San Fernando valley.

Details: On 01/30/2008, several envelopes containing a white powder substance and a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology (COS) locations throughout Southern California. Each envelope was processed and post marked out of the U.S. Postal Service processing center in Santa Clarita, CA with a date of 01/29/2008. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with the corresponding address. No return address appeared on the envelopes. To date, a total of 30

UNCLASSIFIED

such envelopes were received at COS locations in the Southern California Area.

Law enforcement response to this incident involved FBI, U.S. Postal Service, Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) and numerous other local law enforcement agencies. On-scene field screening was conducted, and powder material in the envelope(s) tested benign. There was evidence of some biological material (possibly starch) in the white powder samples tested. The powder was screened according to standard protocol, to include flamability, corrosiveness, radiological, volatility, and oxidizers. Each of the envelopes recovered were submitted to the local public health laboratory (LRN) in Los Angeles for definitive testing.

Laboratory findings were negative for all Category A bacterial bio-threat agents, Brucella species, and Burkholderia mallei, B. psuedomallei, and Coxiella burnetti; testing for orthopox virus was also negative. Testing for Ricin and Staphyloccocal Enterotoxin B (SEB) by Time Resolved Fluorescence (TRF) was negative; testing for other chemical agents was not performed.

Of the envelopes received, approximately 1/3 of the white powder letters were received at locations within the city of Los Angeles City territory. LAPD requested that the letters received within their territory be tested by an LAPD laboratory for forensic evidence. Due to the Joint nature of the investigation in this matter, a decision was made to provide these items recovered within the city of Los Angeles to LAPD for testing by an LAPD laboratory. All tests conducted by LAPD's Laboratory were completed according to strict protocol using a process which renders the evidence unusable for further forensic examination following these tests. Results of the examinations performed on these items of evidence were negative for fingerprints or trace evidence.

The remaining items of evidence recovered from this incident (as listed above) are hereby submitted to the FBI Laboratory for forensic examination. The FBI Laboratory is requested to to conduct examinations on the submitted items for the presence of trace evidence, fingerprints, etc. If detected, conduct appropriate DNA analysis.

This report contains the results of the questioned document examinations.

Results of Examinations:

Indented writing of unknown value was observed on specimen Q13 using the Electrostatic Detection Apparatus. Two photocopies of that indented writing are enclosed for your investigative assistance. No indented writing was observed on the remaining specimens.

The Q1.1, Q3.1, Q5.1, Q8.1, Q11.1, Q13.1, Q16.1, Q19.1, Q22.1, Q26.1, Q30.1, Q37.1, Q39.1, Q42.1, and Q45.1 postage stamps are all self-adhesive, dated 2007, bear the image of the Liberty Bell, and are of the "Forever" variety. These stamps are suitable for comparison to other suspect stamps.

The Q1, Q3, Q5, Q8, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q30, Q37, Q39, Q42, and Q45 envelopes have moisture-activated flaps.

Numerous pieces of clear adhesive tape were examined. These pieces are suitable for comparison to other suspect tape fragments or tape rolls.

The paper fragments designated specimens Q1.11, Q3.6, Q5.7, Q8.8, Q11.6, Q13.6, Q16.6, Q19.6, Q22.6, Q26.6, Q30.5, Q37.6, Q39.6, Q42.6, and Q45.6 have cut edges that are suitable for comparison with other suspect paper fragments.

No watermarks were observed on any of the submitted specimens.

Specimens Q1.11, Q2, Q3.6, Q4, Q5.7, Q6, Q8.8, Q9, Q11.6, Q12, Q13.6, Q14, Q16.6, Q17, Q19.6, Q20, Q22.6, Q23, Q26.6, Q27, Q29.1, Q30.5 through Q34, Q37.6, Q38, Q39.6, Q40, Q42.6, Q45.6, and Q46 were printed utilizing a toner-based technology commonly utilized by laser printers, photocopiers, and facsimile machines.

The printing on specimen Q29 was prepared using an inkjet printing process that is commonly utilized by numerous brand-name printing devices.

The handwriting on specimens Q8 and Q45 is suitable for comparison.

If future examinations are desired, dictated and undictated known writing should be obtained from any logical suspect(s). The known writing should be handwritten/hand printed and comparable to the questioned writing in wording and format. Dictated known writing should be obtained on envelopes similar to the questioned specimens, and should be removed from the writer's view upon completion. Numerous repetitions may be necessary in order to obtain naturally prepared writing. Undictated known writing consists of handwriting prepared during normal course of business activity. Possible sources of undictated known writing include business papers, letters, canceled checks, and/or applications.

The submitted specimens have been searched through the Anonymous Letter File (ALF) with negative results. Appropriate information has been added to the ALF for future reference.

Additional assessments and observations have been made regarding the submitted specimens and recorded for possible future comparisons.

Remarks:

The submitted specimens will be returned under separate cover along with the original ESDA lifts (which are considered secondary evidence). Digital images are retained. For questions about the content of this report, please contact Forensic Document Examiner [redacted] For questions about the status of remaining forensic examinations, please contact Request Coordinator [redacted]

Synopsis: Documents placement of case in Pending Inactive status.

Details: On 01/30/2008 a total of 30 envelopes containing a white powder substance a one page statement were received via the U.S. Postal Service at numerous Church of Scientology (COS) locations throughout Southern California. Evidence suggests that each envelope was processed and post-marked via the U.S. Postal processing center in Santa Clarita, California on 01/29/2008. Each envelope was labeled with a printed label which was addressed to "Scientology" with a corresponding address. The one page statement in each envelope was signed "Anonymous", apparently referring to a group who was voicing protests against the policies and practices used by the Church of Scientology.

To date all investigative leads have been covered with negative results. Field tests and Laboratory tests for biological agents met with negative results for all Category A bacterial bio-threat agents, Brucella species, and Burkholderia mallei, B. psuedomallei, and Coxiella burnetti; testing for orthopox virus was also negative. Testing for Ricin and Staphyloccocal Enterotoxin B (SEB) by Time Resolved Fluorescence (TRF) was also negative.

Subsequently the physical evidence collected by the FBI was submitted to the FBI Laboratory for forensic tests. Tests conducted by the FBI Chemistry Unit revealed that the white powder specimens were consistent with starch. Results of the examination by the FBI Trace Evidence Unit (Hair and Fiber) found textile fibers of different types and colors were found on some specimens and have been preserved for possible future comparisons. The specimens were examined visually using stereo-microscopy and comparison microscopy. As of instant date, examinations remain to be completed by DNA Analysis Unit I (Nuclear), Latent Print Operations Unit and the Questioned Documents Unit at the FBI Laboratory. In addition, some items of evidence (received within LAPD territory) have been submitted by LAPD Criminal Conspiracy Unit to the LAPD Laboratory for forensic examination. To date, results from the LAPD Lab have been negative for evidentiary leads.

No other incidents of a similar nature to this matter have occurred since the white powder mailings were originally received in late January, 2008. This case has been run as a cooperative effort with LAPD, Major Crimes Division, Criminal Conspiracy Section, Detective III [redacted] b6 b7C

Until such time as the Laboratories return positive results indicative of potential subject(s), this matter is hereby placed in Pending Inactive status.

This report contains the results of the nuclear DNA analyses.

Results of Nuclear DNA Examinations:

Specimens Q1, Q3, Q5, Q8, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q28, Q30, Q37, Q39, Q42, and Q45 were subjected to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) typing by the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) at the amelogenin sex typing locus, and where appropriate, the nine short tandem repeat (STR) loci of the AmpF*l*STR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit and/or the six STR loci of the AmpF*l*STR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit.[1]

Based on the typing results from the amelogenin locus (for sex determination), female DNA is present in the DNA obtained from specimen Q8. Male DNA is present in the DNA obtained from specimen Q28. The amelogenin typing result obtained from specimens Q30 and Q45 does not satisfy the Nuclear DNA Unit reporting criteria; therefore, no conclusion can be offered. No amelogenin typing results were obtained from specimens Q1, Q3, Q5, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q37, Q39, and Q42.

No STR typing results were obtained from specimens Q1, Q3, Q5, Q11, Q13, Q16, Q19, Q22, Q26, Q39, and Q42.

The DNA typing results obtained from specimen Q8 are consistent with having arisen from a single individual. With the exception of STR location D8S1179, these results are not suitable for matching purposes.

The DNA profile obtained from specimen Q28 is consistent with having arisen from a single individual and is suitable for comparison purposes.

The DNA typing results obtained from specimens Q30, Q37, and Q45 are not suitable for matching purposes; however, they may be utilized for exclusionary purposes.[2]

The DNA profile for specimen Q28 will be entered into the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) and maintained by the FBI Laboratory for future comparisons. If future comparisons are requested, a known blood or buccal (saliva) sample from the suspect should be submitted.

No other nuclear DNA examinations were conducted.

Methods/Limitations:

The following methods and limitations apply to the results/conclusions provided in the results section(s) of this report and are referenced by number in the body of the text for clarity.

1: The AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, vWA, FGA, D8S1179, D21S11, D18S51, D5S818, D13S317, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, D16S539, TH01, TPOX, CSF1PO, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® Identifiler® Plus PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D8S1179, D21S11, D7S820, CSF1PO, D3S1358, TH01, D13S317, D16S539, D2S1338, D19S433, vWA, TPOX, D18S51, D5S818, and FGA. The AmpFℓSTR® MiniFiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D13S317, D7S820, D2S1338, D21S11, D16S539, D18S51, CSF1PO, and FGA. Due to the differences in sample quality and/or quantity, amplification may not be attempted using each kit. Insufficient DNA quality and/or quantity can affect the ability to generate a DNA typing result and is not an absolute determination that an individual did not come into contact with an item of evidence.

2. As used here, STR typing results are deemed not suitable for matching purposes (i.e., inconclusive) when the potential exists that not all of the genetic information in a biological sample has been detected. For STR typing results to be used for matching purposes, sufficient DNA quality and/or quantity is necessary.

This report contains the results of the examination of friction ridge prints.

Results of Examinations:

Seven latent fingerprints of value were detected on Q14, Q16.6, and Q19. No latent prints of value were detected on the remaining specimens.

Automated latent fingerprint searches were conducted, but no identification was effected.

Methods:

Items of evidence submitted to the Latent Print Operations Unit for examination may be examined visually, examined with various light sources, and/or processed with chemicals and powders to detect the presence of latent friction ridge prints. The specific sequence of examinations and processes depends upon the nature of the evidence.

Friction ridge print examinations are conducted using the Analysis, Comparison, Evaluation, and Verification methodology (ACE-V), which includes an assessment of the quantity and quality of the information present. The steps of ACE-V are applied to each examination as appropriate.

Analysis is the assessment of a friction ridge print to determine if sufficient reliable details are present to conduct a comparison with another print and to reach an identification conclusion. If these conditions are met, the print is determined to be "of value".

Comparison is the direct side-by-side observation of friction ridge prints of value to determine whether or not the information in two prints is in agreement.

Evaluation is the formulation of a conclusion based on the information gathered during the analysis and comparison of the friction ridge prints.

Conclusions that can be reached are as follows:

- Identification - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in agreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints originated from the same source.
- Exclusion - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in disagreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints did not originate from the same source.
- Inconclusive - the determination that corresponding areas of friction ridge prints are absent and/or unreliable and therefore cannot be identified or excluded.

Verification is the independent application of the analysis, comparison, and evaluation phases of the ACE-V methodology to a friction ridge print by another examiner.

Interpretations:

The presence of a friction ridge print on an item of evidence indicates contact was made between the source and the item of evidence. The presence of a friction ridge print alone does not necessarily indicate the significance of the contact nor the time frame during which the contact occurred.

Due to the many factors involved in the deposition of a friction ridge print, neither the absence of a friction ridge print on evidence nor the exclusion of a friction ridge print with a given source, disassociate that source from having touched the evidence.

Remarks:

Inasmuch as a latent print examination was conducted on Q11, Q11.6, Q12, Q28, Q29, Q29.1, Q30, Q30.5, Q31, Q32, Q33, Q34, Q37, Q37.1, Q37.2, Q37.3, Q37.4, Q37.5, Q37.6, Q38, Q39, Q39.6, and Q40 by an agency other than the FBI, no latent print examinations were conducted on these items.

For questions about the content of this report, please contact Physical Scientist / Forensic Examiner [redacted]

For questions about the status of your submission, including any remaining forensic examinations, please contact Request Coordinator [redacted] b6 b7C

The specimens and photographs of the detected latent prints are being returned under separate cover. The supporting records for the opinions and interpretations expressed in this report are retained in the FBI files.

Synopsis: Closure of captioned matter.

Details: This matter was opened as a result of the receipt of approximately 30 letters containing white powder via U.S. Mail at several Church of Scientology locations throughout Southern California on or about 01/31/2008. Subsequent investigation and forensic examinations of the evidence have failed to reveal sufficient evidence to determine those responsible for this act.

The white powder contained in the envelopes received by the Church of Scientology was determined to be non-toxic by both local LRN laboratory and the FBI laboratory. Several other examinations by the FBI lab were unable to determine sufficient identifying information to point toward one or more individuals who might have handled the evidence. Serial 49 documented the results of the fingerprint analysis of the evidence. From this examination the following statement was submitted..."Seven latent fingerprints of value were detected on Q14, Q16.6, and Q19. No latent prints of value were detected on the remaining specimens. Automated latent fingerprint searches were conducted, but no identification was effected."

All other investigative leads in this matter have been exhausted. Due to the fact that no one person could be identified, through the course of this investigation, as possibly

At 6:50 p.m., the San Diego church received it first and only harassing call of the day. [redacted] felt that the proximity of the two events in time was possibly more than mere coincidence. The San Diego Police Department was not called on the night of the incident.

Two church staff or members saw the female. They were [redacted] Both made written notes of their interaction with the female. After being informed of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

The San Diego Church of Scientology is being harassed. One component of this harassment is telephonic. The church has reported the harassing telephone calls to the San Diego Police Department. There seems to be several individuals who are repeat callers as Church staff have recognized voices from one call to the next. Church receptionists [redacted] may even be able to recognize some of these voices were they to hear them again.

A couple of the harassing telephone calls included the playing of a pop song which was popular in the 1980s [redacted] could not recall the name of the song, but recognized it when he heard it played during a harassing call.) Sometimes callers would ask basic or annoying questions about the church. They have even conducted conference calls where they conference in the telephone lines of several Church of Scientology locations, confusing church receptionists and wasting time. One harassing telephone caller claimed to be from Microsoft's technology support office and provided a fraudulent technology support case number [redacted] works in the Information Technology field and recognized this number as fraudulent.) Several of these calls ended with the caller identifying themselves with the internet protest group called ANONYMOUS. b6 b7C

The San Diego church began recording telephone calls using an audio tape machine. The church still has these tapes in their custody. [redacted] explained that he wanted to make copies of these tapes, possibly transferring them to a digital format, before handing them over to law enforcement. [redacted] felt that it would be difficult to match the taped conversations up with the incoming telephone toll records because the taped conversations do not have date and time information embedded in them. There is a log of incoming telephone calls which the church has maintained.

The San Diego church has requested that their telephone service provider, TELEPACIFIC, attempt to identify the telephone numbers of incoming calls. [redacted] of TELEPACIFIC'S Fraud and Loss Division (telephone number 866 839-8545) indicated that the company would provide that information to Detective [redacted] of the San Diego Police Department (the person handling the harassing calls complaint) as soon as they obtained it and as long as they received a police report indicating that the request was tied to a criminal investigation.

The San Diego Church of Scientology has also received electronic mail (email) that was harassing in nature. They received them through their email account, which is managed by the International Headquarters of the Church of Scientology. The email account is [redacted] The emails have included [redacted] (to waste paper when printed out). [redacted] indicated that the emails were saved in their native Microsoft Outlook format, along with their attachments, and provided to the San Diego Police Department on a digital disc as evidence. [redacted] also provided the author with a compact disc containing these emails. [redacted] indicated that the emails would contain all of the header information, which is needed to track the email back to the originating email server.

The San Diego church offices have also received black facsimiles. The church has received 20 to 30 of these facsimiles. They included images of Guy Fawkes (17th century Englishman notorious for plotting to blow up parliament as part of an extremist Catholic campaign against Protestant rule), various cartoons, et cetera, all of which had the result of consuming a large amount of ink.

The San Diego church was the victim of tagging (spray painting on its exterior surfaces) approximately a year ago. The tagging was extensive and looked different than gang or turf tagging. [redacted] is concerned, in retrospect, that this may be related to the current harassment. The San Diego Police Department was called regarding this incident. They investigated and completed an Incident Report on the matter. Pictures of the tagging were supposedly taken into police custody as part of this investigation.

[redacted] also indicated that there was a bomb threat made against the Church of Scientology via a video posted to the online video sharing service YouTube. The video was provided to the author on the same disc that the emails were provided on. [redacted] stated that the video had a computerized female voice on it which actually voiced the threat. He also noted that some of the harassing emails appeared to have the text of the threat typed into them. The Church of Scientology was able to have YouTube discontinue the video from viewing on their website. [redacted] recalled that some time later, a person who called to harass stated something to the effect of "you took my video down." The bomb threat had a date attached to it of March 13, 2008. The video or other media indicated that there would also be nationwide and/or worldwide picketing of the church. The audio to this video was also played during a harassing telephone call placed to the San Diego church. b6 b7C

[redacted] recalled that there was picketing on February 10, 2008. The picketers at the San Diego church wore costumes and appeared to be college kids. They hung out in one spot during the picketing. They wore masks, bandannas over their faces, baseball caps, and Guy Fawkes (see reference above) masks. There were several people wearing suits that seemed to be directing the picketers. At one point a group of people went behind the church and took photographs. A marked patrol car from the San Diego Police Department was present to deter any violence. However, [redacted] is now concerned about the photographing of the back of the church, given the bomb threat communicated in the video. b6 b7C telephone toll records because the taped conversations do not have date and time information embedded in them. There is a log of incoming telephone calls which the church has maintained.

The San Diego church has requested that their telephone service provider, TELEPACIFIC, attempt to identify the telephone numbers of incoming calls. [redacted] of TELEPACIFIC'S Fraud and Loss Division (telephone number 866 839-8545) indicated that the company would provide that information to Detective [redacted] of the San Diego Police Department (the person handling the harassing calls complaint) as soon as they obtained it and as long as they received a police report indicating that the request was tied to a criminal investigation.

The San Diego Church of Scientology has also received electronic mail (email) that was harassing in nature. They received them through their email account, which is managed by the International Headquarters of the Church of Scientology. The email account is [redacted] The emails have included [redacted] (to waste paper when printed out). [redacted] indicated that the emails were saved in their native Microsoft Outlook format, along with their attachments, and provided to the San Diego Police Department on a digital disc as evidence. [redacted] also provided the author with a compact disc containing these emails. [redacted] indicated that the emails would contain all of the header information, which is needed to track the email back to the originating email server.

The San Diego church offices have also received black facsimiles. The church has received 20 to 30 of these facsimiles. They included images of Guy Fawkes (17th century Englishman notorious for plotting to blow up parliament as part of an extremist Catholic campaign against Protestant rule), various cartoons, et cetera, all of which had the result of consuming a large amount of ink.

The San Diego church was the victim of tagging (spray painting on its exterior surfaces) approximately a year ago. The tagging was extensive and looked different than gang or turf tagging. [redacted] is concerned, in retrospect, that this may be related to the current harassment. The San Diego Police Department was called regarding this incident. They investigated and completed an Incident Report on the matter. Pictures of the tagging were supposedly taken into police custody as part of this investigation.

[redacted] also indicated that there was a bomb threat made against the Church of Scientology via a video posted to the online video sharing service YouTube. The video was provided to the author on the same disc that the emails were provided on. [redacted] stated that the video had a computerized female voice on it which actually voiced the threat. He also noted that some of the harassing emails appeared to have the text of the threat typed into them. The Church of Scientology was able to have YouTube discontinue the video from viewing on their website. [redacted] recalled that some time later, a person who called to harass stated something to the effect of "you took my video down." The bomb threat had a date attached to it of March 13, 2008. The video or other media indicated that there would also be nationwide and/or worldwide picketing of the church. The audio to this video was also played during a harassing telephone call placed to the San Diego church. b6 b7C

[redacted] recalled that there was picketing on February 10, 2008. The picketers at the San Diego church wore costumes and appeared to be college kids. They hung out in one spot during the picketing. They wore masks, bandannas over their faces, baseball caps, and Guy Fawkes (see reference above) masks. There were several people wearing suits that seemed to be directing the picketers. At one point a group of people went behind the church and took photographs. A marked patrol car from the San Diego Police Department was present to deter any violence. However, [redacted] is now concerned about the photographing of the back of the church, given the bomb threat communicated in the video. b6 b7C

[redacted] showed the author a notebook containing information on the harassment and threats directed at the Church of Scientology. He explained that the International Church put together an Adobe Acrobat file containing all the documents and provided it to individual churches. [redacted] notebook was merely a printed version of this file. [redacted] later emailed the original Adobe Acrobat document to the author.

Agent [redacted]

Agent [redacted] told me that you were taking over the investigation relating to the video death threats. I therefore provide this new information which may be of use.

There are two messages that have been discovered in a newsgroup where Scientology is discussed. These are threats to kill Scientologists. Here are the URLS where you can find the actual messages:

http://groups.google.com/group/alt.religion.scientology/msg/9df85c2cd31b7141?dmode=source http://groups.google.com/group/alt.religion.scientology/msg/07745813460756aa?dmode=source

A new video was also posted on youtube today "anonymous vs. scientology - gmod," which depicts in an animated form, a person symbolic of Anonymous (headless person in a back suit), shooting 15 Scientologists (each is wearing a shirt with a Scientology "S" in a double triangle). Te url is:

Special message to $cientology: [redacted]

Wise beard man does make a lot of sense. It is good to achieve stuff through demonstrations etc.

I have just watched this video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dwTDvfjcUJU

I am outraged.

Anon are doing an excellent job raising media awareness through legal means.

Good for them.

Whilst what I am advocating is maybe not be legal.. hey - atleast [redacted]

b6
b7C

But I prefer to [redacted] in a more direct manner. So I repeat my earlier post:

Some ideas

- buy an unregistered sim and an unregistered handset using cash
- Call their numbers (to jam up their phone lines) during business hours. Maybe we can set up a rota so their phone lines are jammed all the time. (this will prevent people from making appointments.. it will prevent business/suppliers contacting them and will also provide lulz)

More on phones

- is it possible to use a bluetooth phone combined with software so that it calls Sci numbers and jams up their phone lines?

If you work in a shop
- at an internet cafe (or using a proxy + someone else's internet connection) use other people's Visa & Mastercard numbers to order $cientology books etc.
- When the person notices this on the statement, they will contact their credit card company and do a 'charge back'. This will result in serious financial loss for the cult. Multiply this by 100 hundred. (imagine their relationship with visa & mastercard damaged)
- THE $CIFAGS DON'T ACTUALLY GET THE MONEY UNTIL VISA/MATERCARD VERIFY THAT IT'S A LEGITIMATE TRANSACTION.

In person - DDoS
pose as a member of the public. Do the 'stress test'. Watch the movies. Don't do anything silly or illegal. Just waste their time. Every time you are there you are preventing them making money from gullible people. (Imagine if 100 of you decided to do it in one day - they will be inundated with people. At first they will get excited at the prospect of making $$$)

Sign up for catalogues, junk mail etc.
If hundreds of us do it they will be receiving massive amounts of post every day.

People who work for BT, Electric companies, Banks
- be careful as you are likely to leave an audit trail even if you just look at an account
- it would be very useful to know the account numbers for their phone lines, gas, electricity etc
- We would need this to expedite a disconnection.
- Are there any engineers who know how to disconnect electricity / gas using physical means
- It would also be very useful to know their bank account numbers, sort codes etc.

Drive by eggings
- yes, this is silly and childish.
- Get someone under the age of 12 to throw eggs as scientologists from car windows. Even if the police catch you there is nothing they can do.

IRC
- I can chat by IRC but I am not aware of a way to hide my IP address.

Any ideas? Mac and/or PC advice needed please.

DDoS
- Can we keep doing this please? All the time. It is lulzy.
- Prolexic must be making a tonne of money out of this - good for them. Surely there is only so much bandwith they can handle? What if we each send such a few megs of data to the main scientology website everyday - it would hurt them financially

[redacted] b6 b7C
- Just ignore this batshit crazy bitch. She's really irritating and is spamming this newsgroup.

Do some auditing but then don't pay
- if they complain YELL 'RAPE!'

Carphone Warehouse have some excellent deals on Sim cards & phones. Pay with cash.

Rememeber to remove the battery when the phone is not in use. Triangulation could, in theory, be used to trace your location. Bare in mind also that calls are probably being recorded. So never use your own voice - it could incriminate you.

Jam their phone lines or simply WASTE THEIR TIME. TIME = MONEY. A CUMULATIVE EFFECT WILL BE WORTH IT.

Imagine if the next high school shooter (remember Virginia Tech?) to spare the kids and aim for the Scientologists instead!!!! That would be fucking funny.

It is $$$$$ that keeps this cult running day to day. Keep loading their websites. Run up their bills. It will hit their profits - FUCK THEM.

note to authorities: this messages was posted using someone else wireless internet account. Scientologists are all faggots so fuck them anyway.

Listen up faggot,

I am not affiliated with Anonymous in any way, shape or form. tbh, I think they are pussies for stopping DDoS / illegal activities.

My fantasy would be to fly over your grounds in a helicopter & spray machine gun bullets at you all. Die, mother-fuckers.

I really hope the next nutcase shoots up a Scientology cult centre (instead of a high school). In fact, I hope some gays rape you all & you die of AIDS.

I have no idea what their true cause is. I spoke to a Special agent with the Air Force today. He said he had heard of the group and that he believed they had threatened to blow up all the Scientology locations in the US. I don't know where he received his information. Anyways, I thought it was worth passing over to you!

Hey [redacted] I don't think I can do anything with this unless they threaten someone for their cause. What is their beef? Are they against Scientology? If so, why? Any what does the Berlin Wall have to do with anything? Curious. I tried to read L Ron Hubbard's book, once, and it was over my head. [redacted]

Dear Sir or Ma'am,

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is conducting an investigation into a telephonic bomb threat received by World Bank headquarters in Washington D.C.

Background:

For background, on 01/30/2008, at least twenty-four envelopes containing white powder and a one-page letter were received by numerous Church of Scientology locations in Southern California. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label, which was addressed to "Scientology" with corresponding address. There was no return address on the envelopes. The letter contained in the envelopes indicated that the group "Anonymous" claimed responsibility for the mailings. The white powder was tested and the results indicated that the powder was benign.

A new video was also posted on youtube today "anonymous vs. scientology - gmod," which depicts in an animated form, a person symbolic of Anonymous (headless person in a back suit), shooting 15 Scientologists (each is wearing a shirt with a Scientology "S" in a double triangle). Te url is:

Special message to $cientology: [redacted]

Wise beard man does make a lot of sense. It is good to achieve stuff through demonstrations etc.

I have just watched this video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dwTDvfjcUJU

I am outraged.

Anon are doing an excellent job raising media awareness through legal means.

Good for them.

Whilst what I am advocating is maybe not be legal.. hey - atleast [redacted]

b6
b7C

But I prefer to [redacted] in a more direct manner. So I repeat my earlier post:

Some ideas

- buy an unregistered sim and an unregistered handset using cash
- Call their numbers (to jam up their phone lines) during business hours. Maybe we can set up a rota so their phone lines are jammed all the time. (this will prevent people from making appointments.. it will prevent business/suppliers contacting them and will also provide lulz)

More on phones

- is it possible to use a bluetooth phone combined with software so that it calls Sci numbers and jams up their phone lines?

If you work in a shop
- at an internet cafe (or using a proxy + someone else's internet connection) use other people's Visa & Mastercard numbers to order $cientology books etc.
- When the person notices this on the statement, they will contact their credit card company and do a 'charge back'. This will result in serious financial loss for the cult. Multiply this by 100 hundred. (imagine their relationship with visa & mastercard damaged)
- THE $CIFAGS DON'T ACTUALLY GET THE MONEY UNTIL VISA/MATERCARD VERIFY THAT IT'S A LEGITIMATE TRANSACTION.

In person - DDoS
pose as a member of the public. Do the 'stress test'. Watch the movies. Don't do anything silly or illegal. Just waste their time. Every time you are there you are preventing them making money from gullible people. (Imagine if 100 of you decided to do it in one day - they will be inundated with people. At first they will get excited at the prospect of making $$$)

Sign up for catalogues, junk mail etc.
If hundreds of us do it they will be receiving massive amounts of post every day.

People who work for BT, Electric companies, Banks
- be careful as you are likely to leave an audit trail even if you just look at an account
- it would be very useful to know the account numbers for their phone lines, gas, electricity etc
- We would need this to expedite a disconnection.
- Are there any engineers who know how to disconnect electricity / gas using physical means
- It would also be very useful to know their bank account numbers, sort codes etc.

Drive by eggings
- yes, this is silly and childish.
- Get someone under the age of 12 to throw eggs as scientologists from car windows. Even if the police catch you there is nothing they can do.

IRC
- I can chat by IRC but I am not aware of a way to hide my IP

address.
Any ideas? Mac and/or PC advice needed please.

DDoS
- Can we keep doing this please? All the time. It is lulzy.
- Prolexic must be making a tonne of money out of this - good for them. Surely there is only so much bandwith they can handle? What if we each send such a few megs of data to the main scientology website everyday - it would hurt them financially

[redacted] b6 b7C
- Just ignore this batshit crazy bitch. She's really irritating and is spamming this newsgroup.

Do some auditing but then don't pay
- if they complain YELL 'RAPE!'

Carphone Warehouse have some excellent deals on Sim cards & phones. Pay with cash.

Rememeber to remove the battery when the phone is not in use. Triangulation could, in theory, be used to trace your location. Bare in mind also that calls are probably being recorded. So never use your own voice - it could incriminate you.

Jam their phone lines or simply WASTE THEIR TIME. TIME = MONEY. A CUMULATIVE EFFECT WILL BE WORTH IT.

Imagine if the next high school shooter (remember Virginia Tech?) to spare the kids and aim for the Scientologists instead!!!! That would be fucking funny.

It is $$$$$ that keeps this cult running day to day. Keep loading their websites. Run up their bills. It will hit their profits - FUCK THEM.

note to authorities: this messages was posted using someone else wireless internet account. Scientologists are all faggots so fuck them anyway.

Listen up faggot,

I am not affiliated with Anonymous in any way, shape or form. tbh, I think they are pussies for stopping DDoS / illegal activities.

My fantasy would be to fly over your grounds in a helicopter & spray machine gun bullets at you all. Die, mother-fuckers.

I really hope the next nutcase shoots up a Scientology cult centre (instead of a high school). In fact, I hope some gays rape you all & you die of AIDS.

I have no idea what their true cause is. I spoke to a Special agent with the Air Force today. He said he had heard of the group and that he believed they had threatened to blow up all the Scientology locations in the US. I don't know where he received his information. Anyways, I thought it was worth passing over to you!

Thanks much and have a great day.

Hey [redacted] I don't think I can do anything with this unless they threaten someone for their cause. What is their beef? Are they against Scientology? If so, why? Any what does the Berlin Wall have to do with anything? Curious. I tried to read L Ron Hubbard's book, once, and it was over my head. [redacted]

Dear Sir or Ma'am,

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is conducting an investigation into a telephonic bomb threat received by World Bank headquarters in Washington D.C.

Background:

For background, on 01/30/2008, at least twenty-four envelopes containing white powder and a one-page letter were received by numerous Church of Scientology locations in Southern California. Each envelope had an attached typed/printed label, which was addressed to "Scientology" with corresponding address. There was no return address on the envelopes. The letter contained in the envelopes indicated that the group "Anonymous" claimed responsibility for the mailings. The white powder was tested and the results indicated that the powder was benign.

On February 13, 2008, a video was posted at Youtube.com by an individual with a log-on ID of [redacted] The video was a still picture of [redacted] The audio was possibly a computer-generated female voice. The transcript of the video was as follows:

First of all thank you for all your help on this cycle. Here is the debrief of what occurred.

Some time between 3:00 and 3:20 on Thursday an envelope containing some white powder came to the Portland Org via regular mail. This was one of our BRE envelopes that had been sent out with a Purif Info packet to about 1700 people here in Portland a couple of weeks ago.

Our receptionist, [redacted] not seeing anything odd about the envelope opened it up, saw white powder inside, sniffed it to see if she could tell what it was, then called me on my cell phone.

I was in my car returning from a PR event in Salem and could not hear what [redacted] was trying to tell me. She is [redacted] and some times very hard to understand. So I asked her if it was an emergency and she said no. So I told her I would be there in 20 minutes and to please write me a dispatch and put it under my door so that I could handle it when I got there.

[redacted] did not write the dispatch and I forgot about the cycle. On Friday about 1:30 I asked [redacted] what the cycle was. She told me about the envelope and the white powder. She had put it in a used FedEx mail pack envelope and put it in HCO. I took it from her and put it in my car and headed out to another cycle.

I then drove home and called the FBI office, trying to connect up with my allie [redacted] I then called External Security Chf OSAWUS who got me in touch with you. You got me in touch iwth FBI agent [redacted] who called FBI agen [redacted]

[redacted] called me and took the above story over the phone and told me he would be over to my house with another agent who had the equipment to check out the envelope.

[redacted] showed up at my house about 7:30 with Special Agent [redacted] Both of them were very informal. We all realized that we had met before at Coalition Against Hate Crimes meetings.

[redacted] got more information from me about such things as the Anon picketers, the time the cement block was thrown through our front window, the over 600 harassing phone calls we got last year, etc.

In the mean time [redacted] called in to FBI and fire department headquarters and it was decided that a full team did not need to come out to my house but that [redacted] could handle it themselves.

We went out to their truck and they unloaded a bunch of equipment in my front yard, masks, gloves, a small clear tent to put the envelope in, etc. They took pictures of my car and the backseat where the envelope was. I signed a form saying it was okay to get in my car and take out the envelope.

b6
b7C

They put on the masks and gloves and took the envelope out and put it in the small clear tent. They let me watch as they opened the FedEx envelope and took out the BRE. It was post marked Feb 17th, the zip code post makr was incomplete, it just said 972-- put was missing the last two numbers.

The return address on the envelope was [redacted] (I don't remember the zip code). This is the name of the [redacted] of Portland and his home address. It was clearly printed in bold black ink.

Inside the envelope you could see a thin line of white powder at the bottom. It was clearly visable. Also inside the envelope was a Purif survey, one of the pieces of the Purif info pack, but it was not filled out and there was no writing on it of any kind. So we didn't get any extra clues to help us there.

The FBI agents were done by about 8:30 and [redacted] drove off with the envelope to take it to the lab. They told me they would call me to tell me what they found.

This morning at about 8:30 I got a call from [redacted] to let me know that there wasn't anything in the envelope that

b6
b7C

V 278-PD-52473 3 #10 2/23/2009

was toxic bio-cemical or that would make anyone sick.

I asked what it was and he said they had not tested it to see what it was exactly and he did not know if they were going to do that or not or if there was going to be case opening on this cycle at all. I thanked him for his help.

I will need to cal[redacted] on Monday to find out what the FBI plans to do with this if anything. Once I have that data I will report up more.

Like I said, thanks a bunch for all your help.

Subject: the PDX Anon wiki site

Hello [redacted]

I am glad that you all are taking this white powder incident on as a cycle. Nice to meet you although it would have been nice to do so under better circumtances.

The wiki site for Pdx Anon is simple, it is wiki.pdxanon.info. One there you will find pictures of myself and other church staff and members with names and other info. The page on me is rather nutty. When I first saw it I was pretty upset and sent it to our attorney but it appears that anyone can write anything about anyone they like, true or not and put it up on the Internet.

The Pdx Anon forum is www.dropthebomb.info. This is where they talk and plan their next picket or what ever against us here at the local Church of Scientology. Often times they video us and put it up on YouTube.

The main person who leads the way on all of this is [redacted]
I think he has more names than that but can't remember them at this time.

Let me know if there is anything else I can help you with.

Sincerely,

The specimen listed below was examined in the Nuclear DNA Unit:

Q1 Envelope addressed to Church of Scientology of Portland (1B1, E4215756)

This report contains the results of the nuclear DNA analyses.

Results of Nuclear DNA Examinations:

Specimen Q1-1 (swabbing of flap of envelope from specimen Q1) was subjected to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) typing by the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) at the amelogenin sex typing locus, the nine short tandem repeat (STR) loci of the AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit and the six STR loci of the AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit.[1]

The DNA typing results obtained from specimen Q1-1 are consistent with having arisen from a single male individual and are suitable for comparison purposes.

√279B-PD-52473 – 23

The STR typing results for specimen Q1-1 will be entered into the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) and maintained by the FBI Laboratory for future comparisons. If future comparisons are requested, a known blood or buccal (saliva) sample from the subject should be submitted.

No other nuclear DNA examinations were conducted.

1. The AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, vWA, FGA, D8S1179, D21S11, D18S51, D5S818, D13S317, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, D16S539, TH01, TPOX, CSF1PO, and D7S820. Due to the differences in sample quality and/or quantity, amplification may not be attempted using both kits. Insufficient DNA quality and/or quantity can affect the ability to generate a DNA typing result and is not an absolute determination that an individual did not come into contact with an item of evidence.

Remarks:

The supporting documentation for the opinions and interpretations expressed in this report is retained in the FBI Laboratory files. Methods:

Items of evidence submitted to the Latent Print Operations Unit for examination may be examined visually, examined with various light sources, and/or processed with chemicals and powders to detect the presence of latent friction ridge prints. The specific sequence of examinations and processes depends upon the nature of the evidence.

Friction ridge print examinations are conducted using the Analysis, Comparison, Evaluation, and Verification methodology (ACE-V), which includes an assessment of the quantity and quality of the information present. The steps of ACE-V are applied to each examination as appropriate.

Analysis is the assessment of a friction ridge print to determine if sufficient reliable details are present to conduct a comparison with another print and to reach an identification conclusion. If these conditions are met, the print is determined to be "of value".

Comparison is the direct side-by-side observation of friction ridge prints of value to determine whether or not the information in two prints is in agreement.

Evaluation is the formulation of a conclusion based on the information gathered during the analysis and comparison of the friction ridge prints.

Conclusions that can be reached are as follows:

- Identification - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in agreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints originated from the same source.
- Exclusion - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in disagreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints did not originate from the same source.
- Inconclusive - the determination that corresponding areas of friction ridge prints are absent and/or unreliable and therefore cannot be identified or excluded.

Verification is the independent application of the analysis, comparison, and evaluation phases of the ACE-V methodology to a friction ridge print by another examiner.

Interpretations:

The presence of a friction ridge print on an item of evidence indicates contact was made between the source and the item of evidence. The presence of a friction ridge print alone does not necessarily indicate the significance of the contact nor the time frame during which the contact occurred.

Due to the many factors involved in the deposition of a friction ridge print, neither the absence of a friction ridge print on evidence nor the exclusion of a friction ridge print with a given source, disassociate that source from having touched the evidence.

First of all thank you for all your help on this cycle. Here is the debrief of what occurred.

Some time between 3:00 and 3:20 on Thursday an envelope containing some white powder came to the Portland Org via regular mail. This was one of our BRE envelopes that had been sent out with a Purif Info packet to about 1700 people here in Portland a couple of weeks ago.

Our receptionist, [redacted] not seeing anything odd about the envelope opened it up, saw white powder inside, sniffed it to see if she could tell what it was, then called me on my cell phone.

I was in my car returning from a PR event in Salem and could not hear what [redacted] was trying to tell me. She is [redacted] and some times very hard to understand. So I asked her if it was an emergency and she said no. So I told her I would be there in 20 minutes and to please write me a dispatch and put it under my door so that I could handle it when I got there.

[redacted] did not write the dispatch and I forgot about the cycle. On Friday about 1:30 I asked [redacted] what the cycle was. She told me about the envelope and the white powder. She had put it in a used FedEx mail pack envelope and put it in HCO. I took it from her and put it in my car and headed out to another cycle.

I then drove home and called the FBI office, trying to connect up with my allie [redacted] I then called External Security Chf OSAWUS who got me in touch with you. You got me in touch iwth FBI agent [redacted] who called FBI agen [redacted]

[redacted] called me and took the above story over the phone and told me he would be over to my house with another agent who had the equipment to check out the envelope.

[redacted] showed up at my house about 7:30 with Special Agent [redacted] Both of them were very informal. We all realized that we had met before at Coalition Against Hate Crimes meetings.

[redacted] got more information from me about such things as the Anon picketers, the time the cement block was thrown through our front window, the over 600 harassing phone calls we got last year, etc.

In the mean time [redacted] called in to FBI and fire department headquarters and it was decided that a full team did not need to come out to my house but that [redacted] could handle it themselves.

We went out to their truck and they unloaded a bunch of equipment in my front yard, masks, gloves, a small clear tent to put the envelope in, etc. They took pictures of my car and the backseat where the envelope was. I signed a form saying it was okay to get in my car and take out the envelope.

b6
b7C

They put on the masks and gloves and took the envelope out and put it in the small clear tent. They let me watch as they opened the FedEx envelope and took out the BRE. It was post marked Feb 17th, the zip code post makr was incomplete, it just said 972-- put was missing the last two numbers.

The return address on the envelope was [redacted] (I don't remember the zip code). This is the name of the [redacted] of Portland and his home address. It was clearly printed in bold black ink.

Inside the envelope you could see a thin line of white powder at the bottom. It was clearly visable. Also inside the envelope was a Purif survey, one of the pieces of the Purif info pack, but it was not filled out and there was no writing on it of any kind. So we didn't get any extra clues to help us there.

The FBI agents were done by about 8:30 and [redacted] drove off with the envelope to take it to the lab. They told me they would call me to tell me what they found.

This morning at about 8:30 I got a call from [redacted] to let me know that there wasn't anything in the envelope that

b6
b7C

V 278-PD-52473 3 #10 2/23/2009

was toxic bio-cemical or that would make anyone sick.

I asked what it was and he said they had not tested it to see what it was exactly and he did not know if they were going to do that or not or if there was going to be case opening on this cycle at all. I thanked him for his help.

I will need to cal[redacted] on Monday to find out what the FBI plans to do with this if anything. Once I have that data I will report up more.

Like I said, thanks a bunch for all your help.

[redacted]

First of all thank you for all your help on this cycle. Here is the debrief of what occurred.

Some time between 3:00 and 3:20 on Thursday an envelope containing some white powder came to the Portland Org via regular mail. This was one of our BRE envelopes that had been sent out with a Purif Info packet to about 1700 people here in Portland a couple of weeks ago.

Our receptionist [redacted] not seeing anything odd about the envelope opened it up, saw white powder inside, sniffed it to see if she could tell what it was, then called me on my cell phone.

I was in my car returning from a PR event in Salem and could not hear what [redacted] was trying to tell me. She is [redacted] and some times very hard to understand. So I asked her if it was an emergency and she said no. So I told her I would be there in 20 minutes and to please write me a dispatch and put it under my door so that I could handle it when I got there.

[redacted] did not write the dispatch and I forgot about the cycle. On Friday about 1:30 I asked [redacted] what the cycle was. She told me about the envelope and the white powder. She had put it in a used FedEx mail pack envelope and put it in HCO. I took it from her and put it in my car and headed out to another cycle. b6 b7C

I then drove home and called the FBI office, trying to connect up with my allie [redacted] I then called External Security Chf OSAWUS who got me in touch with you. You got me in touch iwth FBI agent [redacted] who called FBI agent [redacted]

[redacted] called me and took the above story over the phone and told me he would be over to my house with another agent who had the equipment to check out the envelope.

[redacted] showed up at my house about 7:30 with Special Agent [redacted] Both of them were very informal. We all realized that we had met before at Coalition Against Hate Crimes meetings.

[redacted] got more information from me about such things as the Anon picketers, the time the cement block was thrown through our front window, the over 600 harassing phone calls we got last year, etc.

In the mean time [redacted] called in to FBI and fire department headquarters and it was decided that a full team did not need to come out to my house but that [redacted] and [redacted] could handle it themselves.

We went out to their truck and they unloaded a bunch of equipment in my front yard, masks, gloves, a small clear tent to put the envelope in, etc. They took pictures of my car and the backseat where the envelope was. I signed a form saying it was okay to get in my car and take out the envelope.

b6 b7C

They put on the masks and gloves and took the envelope out and put it in the small clear tent. They let me watch as they opened the FedEx envelope and took out the BRE. It was post marked Feb 17th, the zip code post makr was incomplete, it just said 972-- put was missing the last two numbers.

The return address on the envelope was [redacted] (I don't remember the zip code). This is the name of the [redacted] of Portland and his home address. It was clearly printed in bold black ink.

Inside the envelope you could see a thin line of white powder at the bottom. It was clearly visable. Also inside the envelope was a Purif survey, one of the pieces of the Purif info pack, but it was not filled out and there was no writing on it of any kind. So we didn't get any extra clues to help us there.

VS798-PD-52473-7
#10

The FBI agents were done by about 8:30 and [redacted] drove off with the envelope to take it to the lab. They told me they would call me to tell me what they found.

I asked what it was and he said they had not tested it to see what it was exactly and he did not know if they were going to do that or not or if there was going to be case opening on this cycle at all. I thanked him for his help.

b6
b7C

I will need to call [redacted] on Monday to find out what the FBI plans to do with this if anything. Once I have that data I will report up more.

Like I said, thanks a bunch for all your help.

Much Love,

[redacted]

Hello [redacted]

I am glad that you all are taking this white powder incident on as a cycle. Nice to meet you although it would have been nice to do so under better circumtances.

The wiki site for Pdx Anon is simple, it is wiki.pdxanon.info. One there you will find pictures of myself and other church staff and members with names and other info. The page on me is rather nutty. When I first saw it I was pretty upset and sent it to our attorney but it appears that anyone can write anything about anyone they like, true or not and put it up on the Internet.

The Pdx Anon forum is www.dropthebomb.info. This is where they talk and plan their next picket or what ever against us here at the local Church of Scientology. Often times they video us and put it up on YouTube.

The main person who leads the way on all of this is [redacted]
I think he has more names than that but can't remember them at this time.

Let me know if there is anything else I can help you with.

Sincerely,

[redacted] is employed as the [redacted] for the Church of Scientology of Portland. She is responsible for such matters as [redacted] and other functions. She talks to and liaisons with the Church of Scientology's attorneys.

The mailing that went out recently from the Church of Scientology had five pieces to it. [redacted] worked on the project. A total of about 1700 to 1800 were mailed. The subject of the mailing was a purification ritual. The mailing included a survey. The return envelope was for people to return the survey.

[redacted] He was responsible for the mailing. Only [redacted] and two other people know about the letter. The two other people are the ones that [redacted] told. b6 b7C

The recipients were from a purchased list. The list was a list of addresses and not a list of persons.

[redacted] has been employed by the Church of Scientology for 23 years this May.

Some of the issues that the Church of Scientology has been dealing with include an altered video of Tom Cruise that was placed on You Tube. The video was copyrighted material and it was removed at the request of Church of Scientology lawyers. An anonymous group became angry that it was removed and the Church of Scientology's web site was hacked. Following this event, the Portland office received a large volume of harassing phone calls. The phone calls in Portland began in January, 2008. In February 2008 [redacted] LNU received approximately 100 phone calls from someone that were sexual in nature.

The specimen listed below was examined in the Nuclear DNA Unit:

Q1 Envelope addressed to Church of Scientology of Portland (1B1, E4215756)

This report contains the results of the nuclear DNA analyses.

Results of Nuclear DNA Examinations:

Specimen Q1-1 (swabbing of flap of envelope from specimen Q1) was subjected to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) typing by the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) at the amelogenin sex typing locus, the nine short tandem repeat (STR) loci of the AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit and the six STR loci of the AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit.[1]

The DNA typing results obtained from specimen Q1-1 are consistent with having arisen from a single male individual and are suitable for comparison purposes.

SA [redacted]

√279B-PD-52473 - 23

The STR typing results for specimen Q1-1 will be entered into the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) and maintained by the FBI Laboratory for future comparisons. If future comparisons are requested, a known blood or buccal (saliva) sample from the subject should be submitted.

No other nuclear DNA examinations were conducted.

1. The AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, vWA, FGA, D8S1179, D21S11, D18S51, D5S818, D13S317, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, D16S539, TH01, TPOX, CSF1PO, and D7S820. Due to the differences in sample quality and/or quantity, amplification may not be attempted using both kits. Insufficient DNA quality and/or quantity can affect the ability to generate a DNA typing result and is not an absolute determination that an individual did not come into contact with an item of evidence.

Remarks:

The supporting documentation for the opinions and interpretations expressed in this report is retained in the FBI Laboratory files. Methods:

Items of evidence submitted to the Latent Print Operations Unit for examination may be examined visually, examined with various light sources, and/or processed with chemicals and powders to detect the presence of latent friction ridge prints. The specific sequence of examinations and processes depends upon the nature of the evidence.

Friction ridge print examinations are conducted using the Analysis, Comparison, Evaluation, and Verification methodology (ACE-V), which includes an assessment of the quantity and quality of the information present. The steps of ACE-V are applied to each examination as appropriate.

Analysis is the assessment of a friction ridge print to determine if sufficient reliable details are present to conduct a comparison with another print and to reach an identification conclusion. If these conditions are met, the print is determined to be "of value".

Comparison is the direct side-by-side observation of friction ridge prints of value to determine whether or not the information in two prints is in agreement.

Evaluation is the formulation of a conclusion based on the information gathered during the analysis and comparison of the friction ridge prints.

Conclusions that can be reached are as follows:

- Identification - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in agreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints originated from the same source.
- Exclusion - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in disagreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints did not originate from the same source.
- Inconclusive - the determination that corresponding areas of friction ridge prints are absent and/or unreliable and therefore cannot be identified or excluded.

Verification is the independent application of the analysis, comparison, and evaluation phases of the ACE-V methodology to a friction ridge print by another examiner.

Interpretations:

The presence of a friction ridge print on an item of evidence indicates contact was made between the source and the item of evidence. The presence of a friction ridge print alone does not necessarily indicate the significance of the contact nor the time frame during which the contact occurred.

Due to the many factors involved in the deposition of a friction ridge print, neither the absence of a friction ridge print on evidence nor the exclusion of a friction ridge print with a given source, disassociate that source from having touched the evidence.

First of all thank you for all your help on this cycle. Here is the debrief of what occurred.

Some time between 3:00 and 3:20 on Thursday an envelope containing some white powder came to the Portland Org via regular mail. This was one of our BRE envelopes that had been sent out with a Purif Info packet to about 1700 people here in Portland a couple of weeks ago.

Our receptionist, [redacted] not seeing anything odd about the envelope opened it up, saw white powder inside, sniffed it to see if she could tell what it was, then called me on my cell phone.

I was in my car returning from a PR event in Salem and could not hear what [redacted] was trying to tell me. She is [redacted] and some times very hard to understand. So I asked her if it was an emergency and she said no. So I told her I would be there in 20 minutes and to please write me a dispatch and put it under my door so that I could handle it when I got there.

[redacted] did not write the dispatch and I forgot about the cycle. On Friday about 1:30 I asked [redacted] what the cycle was. She told me about the envelope and the white powder. She had put it in a used FedEx mail pack envelope and put it in HCO. I took it from her and put it in my car and headed out to another cycle.

I then drove home and called the FBI office, trying to connect up with my allie [redacted] I then called External Security Chf OSAWUS who got me in touch with you. You got me in touch iwth FBI agent [redacted] who called FBI agen [redacted]

[redacted] called me and took the above story over the phone and told me he would be over to my house with another agent who had the equipment to check out the envelope.

[redacted] showed up at my house about 7:30 with Special Agent [redacted] Both of them were very informal. We all realized that we had met before at Coalition Against Hate Crimes meetings.

[redacted] got more information from me about such things as the Anon picketers, the time the cement block was thrown through our front window, the over 600 harassing phone calls we got last year, etc.

In the mean time [redacted] called in to FBI and fire department headquarters and it was decided that a full team did not need to come out to my house but that [redacted] could handle it themselves.

We went out to their truck and they unloaded a bunch of equipment in my front yard, masks, gloves, a small clear tent to put the envelope in, etc. They took pictures of my car and the backseat where the envelope was. I signed a form saying it was okay to get in my car and take out the envelope.

b6
b7C

They put on the masks and gloves and took the envelope out and put it in the small clear tent. They let me watch as they opened the FedEx envelope and took out the BRE. It was post marked Feb 17th, the zip code post makr was incomplete, it just said 972-- put was missing the last two numbers.

The return address on the envelope was [redacted] (I don't remember the zip code). This is the name of the [redacted] of Portland and his home address. It was clearly printed in bold black ink.

Inside the envelope you could see a thin line of white powder at the bottom. It was clearly visable. Also inside the envelope was a Purif survey, one of the pieces of the Purif info pack, but it was not filled out and there was no writing on it of any kind. So we didn't get any extra clues to help us there.

The FBI agents were done by about 8:30 and [redacted] drove off with the envelope to take it to the lab. They told me they would call me to tell me what they found.

This morning at about 8:30 I got a call from [redacted] to let me know that there wasn't anything in the envelope that

b6
b7C

V 278-PD-52473 3 #10 2/23/2009

was toxic bio-cemical or that would make anyone sick.

I asked what it was and he said they had not tested it to see what it was exactly and he did not know if they were going to do that or not or if there was going to be case opening on this cycle at all. I thanked him for his help.

I will need to cal[redacted] on Monday to find out what the FBI plans to do with this if anything. Once I have that data I will report up more.

Like I said, thanks a bunch for all your help.

Hello [redacted]

I am glad that you all are taking this white powder incident on as a cycle. Nice to meet you although it would have been nice to do so under better circumtances.

The wiki site for Pdx Anon is simple, it is wiki.pdxanon.info. One there you will find pictures of myself and other church staff and members with names and other info. The page on me is rather nutty. When I first saw it I was pretty upset and sent it to our attorney but it appears that anyone can write anything about anyone they like, true or not and put it up on the Internet.

The Pdx Anon forum is www.dropthebomb.info. This is where they talk and plan their next picket or what ever against us here at the local Church of Scientology. Often times they video us and put it up on YouTube.

The main person who leads the way on all of this is [redacted]
I think he has more names than that but can't remember them at this time.

Let me know if there is anything else I can help you with.

On 02/20/2009, writer and SA [redacted] both members of the Portland Division's Hazardous Materials Response Team (HMRT), responded to the home of [redacted] to seize a letter containing a white powder. [redacted] advised that the letter was in the rear passenger seat of the Ford Taurus with Oregon license plate [redacted] Prior to making entry into [redacted] car, [redacted] provided written consent to search the aforementioned car. b6 b7C

Prior to making entry into the car, SA [redacted] took photos of the car. Then, SA [redacted] donned the appropriate personal protective gear and [redacted] unlocked the doors. Then, SA [redacted] opened the rear passenger door, removed the envelope from the car, and placed the envelope into a Captair Pyramid (Model 2200A, Serial Number 2471). SA [redacted] conducted the field screening of the contents of the envelope in the Captair Pyramid. SA [redacted] also took photos of the envelope, the contents, and the car it was seized from. Upon the conclusion of the field screening, the Captair Pyramid, containing the envelope, was transported by SA [redacted] to the Oregon Public Health Laboratory in Hillsboro, Oregon. b6 b7C

All photos were taken by SA [redacted] The photo log, HMRT Field Screening Matrix Sheet, HMRT Hazard Risk Assessment Guide, and the FD-26 consent to search form are serialized separately from this document.

The Quality Control Certificate for the Captair Pyramid and compact disks containing the crime scene photos are enclosed in the 1A portion of this file.

The specimen listed below was examined in the Nuclear DNA Unit:

Q1 Envelope addressed to Church of Scientology of Portland (1B1, E4215756)

This report contains the results of the nuclear DNA analyses.

Results of Nuclear DNA Examinations:

Specimen Q1-1 (swabbing of flap of envelope from specimen Q1) was subjected to deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) typing by the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) at the amelogenin sex typing locus, the nine short tandem repeat (STR) loci of the AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit and the six STR loci of the AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit.[1]

The DNA typing results obtained from specimen Q1-1 are consistent with having arisen from a single male individual and are suitable for comparison purposes.

√279B-PD-52473 – 23

The STR typing results for specimen Q1-1 will be entered into the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) and maintained by the FBI Laboratory for future comparisons. If future comparisons are requested, a known blood or buccal (saliva) sample from the subject should be submitted.

No other nuclear DNA examinations were conducted.

1. The AmpFℓSTR® Profiler Plus™ ID PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, vWA, FGA, D8S1179, D21S11, D18S51, D5S818, D13S317, and D7S820. The AmpFℓSTR® COfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit includes the STR loci D3S1358, D16S539, TH01, TPOX, CSF1PO, and D7S820. Due to the differences in sample quality and/or quantity, amplification may not be attempted using both kits. Insufficient DNA quality and/or quantity can affect the ability to generate a DNA typing result and is not an absolute determination that an individual did not come into contact with an item of evidence.

Remarks:

Methods:

Items of evidence submitted to the Latent Print Operations Unit for examination may be examined visually, examined with various light sources, and/or processed with chemicals and powders to detect the presence of latent friction ridge prints. The specific sequence of examinations and processes depends upon the nature of the evidence.

Friction ridge print examinations are conducted using the Analysis, Comparison, Evaluation, and Verification methodology (ACE-V), which includes an assessment of the quantity and quality of the information present. The steps of ACE-V are applied to each examination as appropriate.

Analysis is the assessment of a friction ridge print to determine if sufficient reliable details are present to conduct a comparison with another print and to reach an identification conclusion. If these conditions are met, the print is determined to be "of value".

Comparison is the direct side-by-side observation of friction ridge prints of value to determine whether or not the information in two prints is in agreement.

Evaluation is the formulation of a conclusion based on the information gathered during the analysis and comparison of the friction ridge prints.

Conclusions that can be reached are as follows:

- Identification - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in agreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints originated from the same source.
- Exclusion - the determination that there is sufficient quality and quantity of detail in disagreement to conclude that two friction ridge prints did not originate from the same source.
- Inconclusive - the determination that corresponding areas of friction ridge prints are absent and/or unreliable and therefore cannot be identified or excluded.

Verification is the independent application of the analysis, comparison, and evaluation phases of the ACE-V methodology to a friction ridge print by another examiner.

Interpretations:

The presence of a friction ridge print on an item of evidence indicates contact was made between the source and the item of evidence. The presence of a friction ridge print alone does not necessarily indicate the significance of the contact nor the time frame during which the contact occurred.

Due to the many factors involved in the deposition of a friction ridge print, neither the absence of a friction ridge print on evidence nor the exclusion of a friction ridge print with a given source, disassociate that source from having touched the evidence.

Synopsis: To dispose of evidence.

Details: The above captioned matter was opened in response to a white powder letter that was received at the Portland office of the Church of Scientology. Pursuant to this investigation, evidence was collected and submitted to the FBI lab for analysis. The FBI lab was able to obtain both fingerprint and DNA evidence, however neither of these items resulted in matches in the pertinent databases.

[redacted] On December 20, 2010 writer spoke with AUSA [redacted] regarding this matter. Writer informed AUSA [redacted] that this case has been opened for approximately two years. Additionally, writer informed AUSA [redacted] that the FBI Laboratory was able to identify fingerprint evidence and DNA, however no matches were found within the pertinent databases. Additionally, the prints were located on the outside envelope which most likely had been handled by numerous people in the course of being delivered. b6 b7C

AUSA [redacted] agreed that based upon the age of the case and lack of investigative leads the US Attorney's Office would decline prosecution.

Synopsis: EC to open and assign case to [redacted] and [redacted]

Details: On Saturday, 03/26/2005, the Church of Scientology's website, www.scientology.org, (192.216.201.9) came under a denial of service (DOS) attack. The attack started at approximately 12:15 p.m. and lasted for about six hours. The target web server is connected to the Internet by a T1 line. The T1 line also serves about nine other web servers, to include Dianetics.com. The Scientology online book store is also served off of the same T1 line. All 10 web servers were not accessible to the public Internet due to the flooding of the bandwidth of the T1 line.

Level3 communications is their upstream Internet service provider. The tech support line of Level3 Communications stated that they had no logs of the DOS. Level3 trouble ticket number for the DOS complaint was 1239220. Only two ports were open on the servers, port 80 (HTTP), and port 443 (SSL). The attack seemed to be a SYN flood attack. Website administrators logged the attack and stated that they were in possession of logs for days prior to the attack.

The Scientology website is a Linux box located at 483 Fountain Avenue, Los Angeles, California, 90029.

The information in this EC was provided by [redacted] b6 b7C IT Security Manager for the Church of Scientology, and [redacted] Internet Security for the church, 631 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California 90025, telephone number [redacted]

Thank you for the information. I have not yet looked at the files, but if you still need to provide information you can either burn it to a CD/DVD or email it to me at this address, which ever is easier for you.

Also, before I look at the files in the link, could you please remove the outlook pst file. I assume that is email. Email is outside the scope of the subpoena. I can only view the email content with a search warrant. One exception to this is if you or the IT department is a party to the email (to/from/cc) and you are voluntarily turning it over to me, otherwise I can not view it.

Because you provided the materials to me, you will not have to appear in front of the Grand Jury. If necessary, I can appear and say this is what was provided.

Thank you,

Received subpoenas.
Will e-mail suffice for transfer or can I burn to CD/DVD and Fed-ex? Firewall logs alone would need over 50 3.5 inch floppies.
Also when will I know if I'm required to appear or if Grand Jury will except you providing logs?

Here is a link to pick up files.

Re: Anonymous Activities

Dear [redacted]

Latham & Watkins, LLP has been retained by the Church of Scientology International (the "Church") in connection with a series of terrorist threats against Church leaders and parishioners made by an internet group known as "Anonymous". Since January 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have made numerous bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. They have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the internet and publicly threatened to kill Church leaders, Church security personnel and Scientologists engaged in religious services. On January 30, 2008, Anonymous members sent letters containing simulated anthrax to over twenty Scientology Churches in Southern California.

Anonymous members have also sent threatening emails to the Church, including, "[I will] kill you... I have the authority to use lethal force"; and "I'm watching you, and I control the bombs." And on February 13, 2008 Anonymous placed a video threat on the Internet, saying:

> We are an elite Anonymous. On the 13th of March 2008 ... one 5 kilogram pack of nitroglycerin will detonate in the Churches of Scientology across the United States of America ... This will be the world's biggest terrorist attack on a religion. Lives will be lost.... A separate personal attack on [the President of the Church] will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at an undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult.
>
> Law enforcement authorities have been notified of these illegal activities.

We are sending you this letter because the Church has reason to believe that you may be directing or leading some or all of the actions of "Anonymous," and have assisted in its campaign of violence or inciting violence against the Church. In particular, you were identified at a protest outside a Church on February 10, 2008 and you further have made statements, both publicly and to others, promoting your leadership in the organization. We demand that you immediately cease all illegal activities against the Church. Should your organization continue inciting and/or engaging in violent acts against the Church or its members, we are prepared to take any and all steps necessary to protect our client, including referring any individual, including you, to Local, State and Federal authorities.

Sincerely,

This law firm has been retained by the Church of Scientology (the "Church") in connection with a series of unlawful threats made by a group of individuals known as "Anonymous" against Church leaders and parishioners. We write about your activities on behalf of this group. While mere peaceful picketing, where otherwise not restricted by law, is of course protected under the First Amendment, we are concerned that, given your apparent leading role in the group, you may also be acting in furtherance of other, not so benign, activities of Anonymous.

As you undoubtedly are well aware, since January 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of vandalism, harassment, and threats of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have interfered with the First Amendment rights of Church members to discuss their religious practices with members of the public and to distribute religious literature; in fact, this has been a continuing form of harassment in New York. We believe that you personally have engaged in such activities, in concert with others.

In addition, individuals identified as being part of Anonymous have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the internet and publicly threatened to kill Scientologists engaged in religious services, made bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. Re: Anonymous Activities

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Our law firm has been retained by the Church of Scientology of New York in connection with a series of terrorist threats against Church leaders and parishioners made by an Internet group known as "Anonymous".

Since January, 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have made numerous bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. They have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the Internet and publicly threatened to kill Scientologists engaged in religious services. on [the President of the Church] will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at [redacted] undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult.

I enclose a brief documentary for your information, which sets forth additional evidence of criminal acts of Anonymous. Law enforcement authorities have been notified of these illegal activities.

We are sending you this letter because we have reason to believe that you are associated with and have been assisting Anonymous in its campaign against the Church. In particular, you have been an accessory by your participation in demonstrations where my church and fellow church members were vilified. These include days [redacted] May, June & July 2008 and other times that you promoted and participated in "raids" against the Church.

The purpose of this letter is to place you on notice that the activities of Anonymous in inciting violence against the Church and its members and engaging in acts of terrorism (such as the simulated anthrax attack, bomb, arson and death threats) violate State and Federal law. We demand that you immediately cease all such activities that you may be engaged in. Should Anonymous continue inciting and/or engaging in violent acts against the Church or its members, we are prepared to take any and all steps necessary to protect our client, including referring the names of persons to State and Federal authorities.

Very truly yours,

STATEMENT ABOUT C&D's FROM [redacted]

b6
b7C

With this C&D came one for my parents as well (not uploading that one) which was the same as mine, as well as a copy of the Anonymous Hate Crimes dvd for each C&D.

Now, my analysis.

After seeing LittleSister's C&D, then mine, I have come to the conclusion there are two different types for a reason.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 04-20-2012 BY 60322 UCLP/PLJ/JN

Type 1: Leadership
C&D, no DVD, accuses of having a leading role in Anon activities.

Type 2: New person
C&D, DVD, accuses of taking part in and being an accessory to Anon activities.

I noticed now for the Newperson-type C&D it had my name and handle, and mentioned a few of the global protest dates. With the DVD, as well as a C&D sent to my parents as well, I have come to the conclusion that this type is meant for people the CoS considers newer members. I also found it odd that mine came from Clearwater, FL.

Hm, the place known as Scientology's Mecca as the sender, a DVD explaining Anonymous' crimes (according to the CoS), and a letter saying how I'm considered an accessory, and my parents as well.

This is the CoS attempting to intimidate new members. If you were new and got this, wouldn't you contemplate ending your participation with Chanology? You just got a letter from the home base of Scientology saying you could be in league with some bad people! They even sent a DVD telling you what these bad people have done!

As for Leader-type C&D, I noticed how it states the recipient may be taking part in "not so benign activities of Anonymous" outside of the peaceful picketing that is protected by the First Amendment. In New-type, there is NO MENTION of the peaceful picketing or accusation of "not so benign" activities. Also, the law firm is one that's not as far away as Clearwater. There is also no DVD enclosed with it.

This is the CoS trying to take things to a more businesslike approach to supposed leaders, in my eyes. The typeface is smaller in this type of C&D as well. Though it may mean nothing, it seems like they were trying to make this letter a bit more official looking. If I'm looking too deep into the typeface, then disregard that, I suck cocks.

Let's see, an official looking letter that even SOUNDS official to the untrained eye, and it's been sent by a law firm RIGHT HERE IN NY, instead of some far away city. This is probably an attempt to get the "leaders" of Anonymous to take the CoS seriously.

After thinking this over a bit, I was starting to realize some things:

-Anon carry their C&Ds with pride, and they compare them amongst each other.
-It seems a bit random with how certain C&Ds are sent. Members who haven't come to a protest in MONTHS have recieved them, members who seem to have more influence would receive a C&D calling them a leader, and members, despite the time they've spent with Anon are getting a New-type C&D (as is in my case.)

This looks like what I will refer to as the Distrust Tactic.

Scientologists are sending seemingly random letters to different members. With us comparing them and stuff, people are going to question why one member got a Leader-type and why one got a New-Type. It can lead to Anons questioning the motives of their fellow members, and make us even more paranoid about each other. Paranoia leads to distrust, and distrust leads to the breaking up of the Hivemind, if it becomes rampant enough.

In my eyes, this is the CoS trying to break us apart by making us question each other's stance in the group, our motives, etc. In past conversations with Anon, it's been said that we need to stop hanging out and being friendly with each other, and if I'm right about what this tactic is attempting to do, such a move could ruin us completely.

We need to show the CoS that they can't break us apart, they can't make us lose trust in each other. To show them that we can't even trust each other is to show them that they've won.

All I can say after all that, is that I will still continue to contribute however I can, and now with this knowledge of the situation, let's show them that we mean it when we say "Anonymous is Legion."

I'll never forgive them for coming to my house with their papers.
I'll never forget hearing my mom being frantic about having a lawyer-type person at the door, and how she's worried about them coming back again.

This is the person who Hand Delivered a C&D letter to the member "First Vendetta"'s house. This person also harassed his family by slamming on the door for 20 minutes, then slipping a "Anonymous No More" flier which had First Vendetta's real name, and location, as well as his picture on it, with the words "Anonymous No More" on the bottom of the flier. This is one of the people the Church of Scientology hires as "security".

The police have been informed of this, and we are currently trying to find out this persons name so we may file a police report.

An Open Letter to the CoS

Dearest "Church" of Scientology,

Cut that out. Seriously. Quit it. You have shown up to my home now on two separate occasions to hand deliver notices which accuse me of illegal activities which are hilariously far from the truth. The letters which you sent got a total of four things correct. My name, my mom's name, I am a part of anonymous, and I am site staff on EpicAnon.com.

I have never made any attempts or had any desires to harm any Scientologists. They are victims of a cult. My father is a Scientologist, as are several of his friends. I know several of these people. The idea that I would wish any malice upon any of them is absurd at best.

I have invited you to have conversations with me in the past, since you obviously know my name and address. The closest you have come to communication with me is having that horrible banshee woman shriek my name and cackle at me from across the street. For the "most ethical people on earth" and a "religion based around communication" you have failed miserably at demonstrating either of these claims.

Your only success has been cowering from communication and discussion; cowering from the truth. You have made bogus legal claims and attempted to intimidate me from practicing my first amendment rights. You have done exactly the opposite in doing so. You have validated claims of your abuse and harassment of anyone who speaks the truth about your organization. Expect me.

Love,

When brought up, they often try to change the subject and for example attack you, asking what criminal acts you have on your conscience or if you are payed by the drug cartells or something. According to Scientology all critics of Scientology are criminals, that's why they are critics. Nice logic. This is only standard Scientology tech, it's part of the training they have payed a fortune to learn. Hubbard said so, period.

If you manage to see through their stupid personal attacks and

If you manage to see through their stupid personal attacks and desperate distractions, you may manage to force them to ward it off by telling you the Fair Game policy letter was cancelled in 1968. But keep in mind that Scientologists are trained to lie and never defend, always attack (and generate money).

I got the actual cancellation letter they refere to right here:

HUBBARD COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

HCO Policy Letter of 21 October 1968

CANCELLATION OF FAIR GAME

The practice of declaring people FAIR GAME will cease.

FAIR GAME may not appear on any Ethics Order. It causes bad public relations.

This P/L does not cancel any policy on the treatment or handling of an SP.

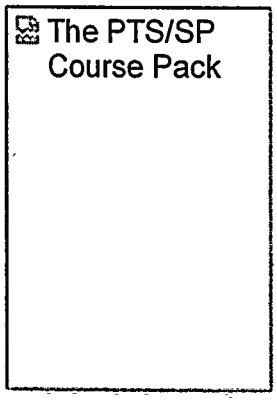
Comments:

1. It is bad enough that such a policy ever was made in the first place, even if it truly had been cancelled later.
2. This HCO Policy Letter (HCO P/L) does not cancel the policy, it only cancels the use of the term 'Fair Game'. It states clearly that the practice described in the policy (deprived of property, injured, tricked, sued, lied to or destroyed) is not cancelled.
3. The "Church" of Scientology does not change anything because it's wrong, no, they change it because it gives bad PR!



I personally got a copy of the course manual "PTS/SP COURSE - How to Confront and Shatter Suppression" as printed by the cult in 1989. This extract is from page 128 and shows that not even the wording was really changed after all:

If there is no agreement to be audited and the student who is found to be a suppressive person will not respond to A to E (because student has blown and can't be found or because the student flatly refuses), the student is considered terminated.

A waiver or quit claim is given or sent the student stating

Date _____

Place_____

I, _____, having refused to abide by the Code of (name and place of org) do hereby waive any further rights I may have as a Scientologist, and in return for my course fee of _____, I do hereby quit any claim I may have on (name of org) or any Scientologist personell or any person or group or organization of Scientology.

Signed_____

2 Witnesses_____

Only when this is signed the student may have his course fee returned, but no other fees as he accepted that service.

The ex-student should realize this makes him Fair Game and outside our Justice Codes. He may not have recourse of any kind beyond refund. And after signing can only return to Scientology as per policy on Fair Game.

Jon Atack writes in "The cancellation of Fair Game":

77. In Wollersheim v. Church of Scientology of California (the "mother church" of the Churches of Scientology at the time the suit was filed), the California Appeal Court ruled, in a decision upheld by the US Supreme Court: "Wollersheim was compelled to abandon his wife and his family through the policy of disconnect. When his mental illness reached such a level he actively planned his suicide, he was forbidden to seek professional help. Finally, when Wollersheim was able to leave the Church, it subjected him to financial ruin through its policy of 'fair game'." (JCA-147, pp.A-7, 15 & 16) At appeal, Scientology asserted that "fair game" was a "core practice of Scientology", and therefore protected as "religious expression". This position was also made on behalf of Scientology in the case against Gerald Armstrong, in 1984, by religious expert Dr. Frank Flinn (JCA-45).

JCA-45. Frank K. Flinn testimony in Church of Scientology of California, 1984, vol.23, pp.4032-4160.

JCA-147. Wollersheim v. Church of Scientology of California, Court of Appeal of the State of California, civ.no.B023193, 18 July 1989 (upheld by the U,S. Supreme Court, 7 March 1994).

In my opinion this clearly shows organized criminal activity, exactly what we try to warn people about. This cult uses the law and claims to be a "bona fide religion" only to defend its horrid organized activities! It may be hard to imagine, but there are lots more where this comes from. How far are these people really willing to go? I say it is about time we put down our foot and said: STOP!

STOP!

Scientology claim they are the most ethical group on the planet!!! They want to save us???

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

This case involves a C.C.P. §527.6 Temporary Restraining Order obtained against Defendant on August 11, 2008. Accordingly, most of the Defendant's "public issue" and other evidence herein concerns events until August 20, 2008. However, subsequent abuse is included.

DEFENDANT ACTED IN FURTHERANCE OF FREE SPEECH

Defendant Donald xxxxx is a 43 year old man without any criminal convictions or record. He has never been involved in a civil harassment proceeding. Declaration of Donald xxxxx ("xxxx Decl.') ¶4. He is opposed to the Church of Scientology's wrongful and abusive conduct and not any of their copyrighted beliefs. xxxx Decl., ¶¶5-9. Declaration of Graham E. Berry ("Berry Decl.,") ¶85.

In March 2008, Defendant began his continuing participation with the group known as "Anonymous." xxxx Decl., ¶¶10-12. Anonymous is a global group of tens of thousands of Internet users who have mobilized to stop the copyright, tax, civil rights, human rights and other abuses of the Church of Scientology. Berry Decl., ¶¶ 8-86.

Most Anonymous have a strong and reasonable desire to maintain their anonymity. The Church of Scientology has a documented reputation for unmasking and punishing their critics, such as those participating in Anonymous.

Declaration of Garry Scarff ("Scarff Decl.") ¶47-51, Berry Decl. ¶¶87-366. This is unconstitutional.

In McIntyre v. Ohio Elections Commission 514 U.S. 334 (1995) the U.S. Supreme Court held that "[p]rotections for anonymous speech are vital to democratic discourse ... in particular: to protect unpopular individuals from retaliation at the hand of an intolerant society." Berry Decl., ¶¶64-65.

Indeed, after Defendant had participated in the June 14, 2008, global picket against Scientology crimes and abuses, Church of Scientology agents followed Defendant for two days and "ran the plates" of an elderly friend's car.

By July 19, 2008, Scientology's Office of Special Affairs, which includes their attorneys herein, had identified Defendant and his associates. xxxx ¶¶ 13-15, 22-25, 29. Scientology preaches that the "purpose of the lawsuit is not to win." It is to "harass" and "utterly ruin." Berry Decl., ¶84, Exh. I, p. 338. The Anonymous protests, and the Defendant's First Amendment activity at issue herein, involve public issues of great global interest. Berry Decl., ¶¶4-56, xxxx Decl., ¶3 A-0.

THERE IS NO PROBABILITY PLAINTIFFS WILL PREVAIL

The purpose of Code of Civil Procedure ("C.C.P.") §527.6 is to provide quick relief to harassment victims threatened with great or irreparable injury. Grant v. Clampitt, 56 Cal.App. 4th 586 (1997). Section 527.6 is not designed to be a sword to silence critical speech. Evidencing such, C.C.P. §527.6 (b) provides that constitutionally protected activity, as in the case at bar, is excluded from its scope. C.C.P. §527.6 states its injunctive relief is available only in certain delineated circumstances.

The Code requires unlawful violence, a credible threat of violence, or a knowing and willful course of conduct ... that seriously alarms, annoys or harasses the person, and that serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct must be such as to cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and it must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the plaintiff. C.C.P. §527.6.

The petitions state no allegation of unlawful violence. For example, Ms. Uvizl testifies, in her declaration, that she feels threatened and unsafe when Mr. xxxxx is around. Uvizl Decl., para. 6. However, her Form CH-100 answer to question 6 c. expressly testifies that Mr. xxxxx did not commit any acts of violence or threaten any acts of violence against". Ms. Uvizl.

Furthermore, the two petitions do not describe conduct that seriously annoys, etc. and serves no legitimate purpose, as the exercise of constitutionally protected free speech, is certainly legitimate communication. The alleged activity although not necessarily pretty, never rises to the level of a threat of violence, or of anything. Mere opinion is expressed, questions are asked.

Any threat was nothing more than a threat to speak truth. Most telling, at section 6e of the Petition, Ms. Uvizl did not describe, by what specific conduct and by what specific words, the alleged conduct that had seriously alarmed, annoyed or harassed her. This defect alone is sufficient to deny the application on grounds of failure of due process, i.e., notice of the conduct complained of in detail, as well as a fatal procedural defect under Civil Code section 527.6.

Even taking the petition at face value, a prima facie case of harassment has not been made. Constitutionally protected activity, including speech, has been deemed by statute not to be included within the meaning of "course of conduct" under Civil Code section 527.6 (b) (3).

Furthermore, Appellate opinions are consistent: private communications are constitutionally guaranteed forms of expression. Thomas v. Quintero, 126 Cal.App.4th 635 (2005), California Constitution Art. 1, Section 2.

The constitution states that "a law may not restrain or abridge liberty of speech or press". Because the alleged harassment is presumed to be, and factually is, based on constitutionally protected speech, assembly and protesting the application must be denied.

In addition, where an act, such as public criticism, protest, free speech, attempting to bring the truth to the public in general and to members of the church in particular, serves a legitimate purpose, and there is no evidence to support the conclusion that defendant is contacting plaintiff for any other purpose than to meet this legitimate need, such conduct does not constitute "harassment." West, Annotated C.C.P. § 527.6, Byers v. Cathcart, 57 Cal.App. 4th 805 (1997).

The determination of an injunction requires that this Court apply the "clear and convincing" standard. Accordingly, absent a finding of a high probability that unlawful harassment exists, the application must be denied. Russell v. Douvan, 112 Cal.App. 4th 399 (2003).

Fatally, there is no allegation of ongoing conduct here. The course of challenged conduct must be ongoing at the time the injunction is sought in order to obtain injunctive relief under the harassment statute. Scripps Health v. Marin, 72 Cal. App. 4th 324 (1999).

Inasmuch as the Defendant has done nothing to qualify for an injunction in the first instance, and since there is no ongoing conduct alleged which is either illegal or improper under the standards of C.C.P. §527.6, the application must be denied. In addition, there is no threatened injury.

Since an injunction will not lie for prior claims, and only to prevent threatened injury, it can not be used as punishment for past acts. Huntingdon Life Science v. Stop Huntingdon Animal Cruelty, 129 Cal.App. 4th 1228 (2005). Thus, the granting of an injunction requires "clear and convincing" evidence of future threatened harm.

The petition and the facts in any form do not support such a finding. The plaintiffs also lack credibility. Ms. Uvizl alleges that the "date of most recent harassment is 5/10/08; 7/26/08; 8/10/08." Form CH-100, question 6 a. However, her declaration states that her first encounter with Mr. xxxxx was in late July. Uvizl, Decl., para. 3.

She also testifies that she became aware of Mr. xxxxx "several weeks ago" (in late July, 2008) and she then states that his activity has been ongoing for "the past several months." Uvizl Dec., ¶¶3-4. Furthermore, Ms. Uvizl's own video evidence does not support her claims. On the contrary, it indicates that on at least one occasion Ms. Uvizl was engaged in a debate of the issues with the Defendant. She did not demonstrate the allegations set forth in her complaint and supporting declaration herein.

Similarly, the evidence also shows Plaintiff Miranda aggressively going right up to Defendant and slamming his open hand into Defendant's video camcorder lens in use by Defendant.

Finally, there is credible evidence from which to conclude that these proceedings were actually instigated by the Church of Scientology, acting through its attorneys Kendrick L. Moxon and Ava Paquette, and that the T.R.O. herein is being abused by the Church of Scientology and Mr. Moxon.

Mr. Moxon is part of the legal unit of the Church of Scientology Office of Special Affairs which is also located in the Church of Scientology management building at 6331 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA.

The evidence indicates that Mr. Moxon's associate attorney, Ava Paquette, Esq., personally appeared on the public sidewalks and threatened Defendant with arrest and prosecution on July 14, 2008. The evidence also establishes that she did not expressly do so on behalf of any clients.

The evidence further indicates that Mr. Moxon personally appeared on the public sidewalks and threatened Defendant with these legal proceedings on July 22, 2008. He did not do so expressly on behalf of any client. Mr. Moxon expressly stated that he was going to file a law suit the next day, July 23, 2008.

Mr. Moxon's own declaration of service refers to his communication with the Plaintiff's on August 10, 2008, one day before this proceeding was filed.

There is credible evidence that Mr. Moxon has previously instigated litigation against Scientology critics, litigation opponents and their legal counsel, and that Mr. Moxon has previously engaged in blackmail, bribery, perjury, obstruction of justice and other public corruption in such matters. Berry Decl., ¶¶290-358, Exhibits E-H.

Defendant's evidence also indicates that Mr. Moxon abused the August 11, 2008 Temporary Restraining Order herein by applying it to locations expressly excluded by the court in its Temporary Restraining Order, and by attempting to have law enforcement officers use it prevent the Defendant from picketing Church of Scientology premises located at Tustin and Hemet in Riverside County on September 6, 2008.

The declaration of Florian Schwarnert establishes that during this matter, Plaintiff's attorney Moxon, and other Church of Scientology officials, followed Defendant's counsel to Hamburg, Germany where Mr. Moxon threatened two German State employees with litigation if they did not admit him to an international forum being addressed by Defendant's counsel, and then demanded they provide their passports and identification to him.

Very disturbingly, and in a blatant attempt to obstruct justice herein, two officials from Scientology's O.S.A. visited Defendant's witness Garry Scarff at his home on the day preceding this filing. They insisted that they had to talk with him, they served him with a "Cease and Desist letter," informed him that they had observed him twice entering the home office of Defendant's counsel herein two days before this filing, and that they had electronically monitored Garry Scarff's conversation with Defendant's counsel, in the back yard of his home-office. Scarff Decl., ¶50 Berry Decl., ¶¶352-356. See generally, Berry Decl., ¶290-358, Exhibits E to H.

The manner of service of this action was itself calculated to intimidate and harass. Berry Decl., ¶359.

Fair game

LEGAL ARGUMENT

C.C.P. §527.6 provides an expedited procedure for injunctive relief to persons experiencing harassment from conduct and/or speech that serves "no legitimate purpose" such as the exercise of first amendment freedoms of speech and assembly.

In essence, Defendant contends that Plaintiffs evidence was insufficient to support the C.C.P. §527.6 restraining order issued ex parte against him herein, that it therefore must be stricken pursuant to C.C.P. §425.16 because it was sought "primarily to chill the valid exercise of rights of freedom of speech," that the challenged cause of action arose from protected activity in connection with a public issue, and that it has unjustifiably interfered with his "constitutionally protected activity," after being served with these proceedings on August 14, 2008 during a peaceful group picket of the Church of Scientology office management building.

It is well established that certain government property is by its very nature a public forum; for example, the sidewalks of Hollywood Boulevard, Ivar Avenue, Sunset Boulevard, L. Ron Hubbard Way, Fountain Avenue and Franklin Avenue and Bronson Street.

THE ANTI-SLAPP STATUTE APPLIES TO C.C.P. § 527.6

In Thomas v. Quintero, 126 Cal.App. 4th 635, 646 (2005), the court held "that anti-SLAPP motions may be filed challenging petitions for injunctive relief brought under section 527.6." Plaintiff's Trial Brief (p.1:26-28) served August 28, 2008 expressly concedes the relevant building at 6331 Hollywood Boulevard houses only "administrative offices;" the Church of Scientology International and Religious Technology Center management, legal and intelligence offices.

The Church of Scientology does not have traditional church services where a deity is worshiped. Instead, it has book stores and course rooms where members purchase and take courses, and engage in "auditing" (which includes elements of hypnosis, mind control, mental manipulation and coercive indoctrination) with a primitive form of lie detector called an E Meter.

Conversely, in Thomas v. Quintero, Ibid: "The petition alleged that Quintero was among a group of people who appeared at Thomas's church, and who then harassed members of the congregation 'with the stated purpose of causing extreme embarrassment and severe emotional distress to [Thomas].'

The petition went on to explain that good cause existed to include members of Thomas's family within the protection of the orders requested because Quintero and others had also demonstrated at Thomas's home, and threatened to harass his family, thereby placing them in 'fear of their security at home.'

It was noted that Quintero had indicated an intention to return to Thomas's church and home, with the effect of disrupting church activities and invading Thomas's free exercise of religion and right to privacy." Id. at 643.

In Thomas v. Quintero the court initially granted a T.R.O. The matter was continued during which time "Quintero filed a special motion to strike under the anti-SLAPP statute (§425.16)." Id. at 643. The court denied the special motion to strike and denied a civil harassment restraining order.

The DCA reversed and held that "anti-SLAPP motions may be filed challenging petitions for injunctive relief brought under section 527.6, because they constitute 'causes of action' under the anti-SLAPP law." Id. at 642. Section 425.16 (b) (1) and (e) (3) provide in pertinent part:
"A cause of action against a person arising from any act of that person in furtherance of that person's right of petition or free speech ... in connection with a public issue ... shall be subject to a special motion to strike, unless the court determines that the plaintiff has established that there is a probability that the plaintiff will prevail on the claim. ... As used in this section, 'act in furtherance of a person's right of petition or free speech ... in connection with a public issue' includes: ... (3) any written or oral statement or writing made in a place open to the public or a public forum in connection with an issue of public interest."

The DCA further opined that: Under the statute, the court makes a two-step determination: 'First, the court decides whether the defendant has made a threshold showing that the challenged cause of action is one arising from protected activity ... If the court finds that such a showing has been made, it must then determine whether the plaintiff has demonstrated a probability of prevailing upon the claim. ... 'Only a cause of action that satisfies both prongs of the anti-SLAPP statute—i.e., that arises from protected speech or petitioning and lacks even minimal merit—is a SLAPP, subject to be stricken under the statute.'" Citations omitted. Id. at 645.

The DCA also held that "[a] cause of action is subject to a motion to strike ... even if it is based only part on allegations involving protected activity." Citations omitted. Id. at 653:

"While SLAPP suits 'masquerade as ordinary law suits' the conceptual features which reveal them as SLAPP's are that they are generally merit less suits brought by large private interests to deter common citizens from exercising their constitutional rights or to punish them for doing so." Citations omitted. Id. at 658.

The Thomas court, referring to Weinberg v. Feisel, 110 Cal.App. 4th 1122 (2003), then set forth a "few guiding principles ... from decisional authorities" as to what constitutes "an issue of public interest."

"First, 'public interest' does not equate with mere curiosity. [Citations].

Second, a matter of public interest should be something of concern to a substantial number of people. Citations omitted. ...

Third, there should be some degree of closeness between the challenged statements and the asserted public interest (Citation omitted); ...

Fourth, the focus of the speaker's conduct should be the public interest rather than a mere effort 'to gather information for another round of [private] controversy.'" Citations omitted. Id. at 658-659.

The Thomas court held that "the evidentiary showing made by [the plaintiff] was woefully inadequate." Id. at 662-663. As in the instant case at bar, there was no evidence of any credible threat of violence or other conduct "that serves no legitimate purpose" and there was no admissible evidence of "substantial emotional distress" being caused by the defendant who was engaged in "protected speech." ...

"Even if the conduct was not constitutionally protected, [the defendant] was not engaged qualitatively in a "pattern of conduct" as contemplated by the statute." Id. at 663. "The sole issue is whether there is clear and convincing evidence that harassment, as defined by the statute, has occurred. (§527.6, subd. (d))." Id. at 665. See also, Flatley v. Mauro, 39 Cal. 4th 299 (2006), City of Los Angeles v. Animal Defense League, 135 Cal.App. 4th 606 (2006), Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics, Inc., v. Stop Huntington Animal Cruelty U.S.A., Inc., 143 Cal.App. 4th 1284 (2006), Terry v. Davis Community Church, 131 Cal.App. 4th 1534 (2005).

THE ANTI-SLAPP STATUTE APPLIES TO THE CASE AT BAR

Defendant's evidence herein makes the requisite prima facie showing that "the plaintiff's cause of action arises from the defendant's free speech activity." Church of Scientology v. Wollersheim, 42 Cal.App.4th 628, 646 (1996).

Defendant's evidence herein further establishes that his free speech activity at issue herein is within the four expressly enumerated and protected categories set forth in C.C.P. §425.16 (e)(3)&(4). It involved statements "made in a place or a public forum in connection with an issue of public interest" and "other conduct in furtherance of the exercise of ... the constitutional right of free speech in connection with a public issue or an issue of public interest."

C.C.P. §425.16 (a) provides that the "section shall be construed broadly." Dowling v. Zimmerman, 85 Cal. App. 4th 1400, 1411 (2001).

DEFENDANT'S ACTIVITY IS CONSTITUTIONALLY PROTECTED

Defendant engaged in Free Speech of Public Interest in a Public Forum
Accordingly, the threshold and dispositive inquiry is whether Mr. xxxx's activities are constitutionally protected.

Public issue picketing is an activity protected by the First Amendment, which has been made applicable to the States by the Fourteenth Amendment. Frisby v. Schultz, 487 U.S. 474, 101 L. Ed. 2d 420 (1988) (holding that restrictions on picketing are subject to careful scrutiny); NAACP v. Claiborne Hardware Co., 458 U.S. 886, 909, 73 L. Ed. 2d 1215, 1233 (1982); Southwestern Promotions, Ltd. v. Conrad, 420 U.S. 546, 43 L. Ed. 2d 448 (1975).

Picketing is an activity also implicating free speech rights pursuant to article I, sections 2 and 3 of the California Constitution. Robins v. Pruneyard Shopping Center, 23 Cal.3d 899 (1979) aff'd sub nom. Pruneyard Shopping Center v. Robins, 447 U.S. 74, 64 L. Ed. 2d 741 (1980).

Under current First Amendment analysis, the extent to which a defendant's rights of speech may be curtailed begins with identifying the forum used by the defendant to communicate his or her message. In the case at bar it is exclusively the city streets and sidewalks. "It has been clearly established since time immemorial that city streets and sidewalks are public fora." Collins v. Jordan, 110 F. 3d 1363 (9th Cir. 1996).

"No particularized inquiry into the precise nature of a specific street is necessary; all public streets are held in the public trust and are properly considered public fora." Frisby, 487 U.S. at 481.

DEFENDANT'S SPEECH CONCERNED AN ISSUE OF PUBLIC INTEREST

Defendant's conduct involved speech "made in a place or a public forum in connection with an issue of public interest" and "other conduct in furtherance of the exercise of ... the constitutional right of free speech in connection with a public issue or an issue of public interest." Dowling v. Zimmerman, 85 Cal. App. 4th 1400, 1414 -1418 (2001).

THERE IS NO PROBABILITY PLAINTIFF WILL PREVAIL

Protected activity is not harassment. Plaintiffs appear to contend that unwanted criticism and questions regarding Scientology abuse, crime and fraud constitutes harassment. On the contrary, "[h]arassment" is a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys or harasses the person, and which serves no legitimate purpose." C.C.P. §527.6 (b).

Significantly; C.C.P. §527.6 (b) (3) provides, in essence, that "constitutionally protected conduct" is a "legitimate purpose" that "is not included within the meaning of course of conduct." This course of conduct, when it does not involve "constitutionally protected conduct," "must be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial distress, and must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the plaintiff." C.C.P. §527.6; Schraer v. Berkley Property Owners Ass'n, 207 Cal.App. 3d 719 (1989); Schild v. Rubin, 232 Cal.App. 3d 755, 763 (1991) (there must be medical, psychological, or other evidence establishing that the "harassing" activity is the cause of "substantial emotional distress" within the meaning of C.C.P. §527.6 (b)).

There is no such admissible evidence in the case at bar. Furthermore, only natural persons can seek relief under C.C.P. §527.6 (b). Diamond View, Ltd. v. Herz, 180 Cal.App. 3d 612, 618-619 (1986). Because Plaintiff is operating as the alter ego of the Church of Scientology, and two of its attorneys herein, there is no standing to assert the instant claim. xxxx Decl., ¶20, Berry Decl., Exhibits D-H, Schwanert Decl., ¶¶ 7-9.

"Course of conduct" is defined as a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose." C.C.P. § 527.6 (b); see also, Leydon v. Alexander, 212 Cal.App. 3d 1, 5 (1989) (single incident in which former city employee abused plaintiff and another employee could not meet statutory requirements of course of conduct).

A trial court may not issue an injunction against harassment unless it finds by clear and convincing evidence that unlawful harassment already exists in fact. C.C.P. § 527. 6 (d); Schraer, supra, 207 Cal. App. 3d 719. However, as constitutionally protected activity is excluded from the meaning of "course of conduct," (C.C.P. § 527. 6 (b)), there is no need to entertain the traditional inquiry as to whether clear and convincing evidence exists warranting injunctive relief which "is rarely granted to restrain speech or publication." Weil & Brown, Cal. Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, 9: 708.

Plaintiffs have no right to be free from public criticism. The skeletal conclusory allegations that constituted the evidence in support of the Ex Parte Application for a Temporary Restraining Order herein are totally silent as to the specific content of the statements that constitute the alleged harassment.

However, it is clear from the Defendant's evidence submitted herewith, although most of it is legally inadmissible, that the alleged harassment involved Defendant, along with dozens and sometimes hundreds of others, taking his/their criticism of Scientology abuse, blackmail, bribery and fraud to the eyes and ears of Scientology staff members who are supposedly Homo Novis as Scientology's founder called them; human beings with super powers over matter, energy, space and time and who can even mentally clear the side walks of protestors with their "Operating Thetan" powers and abilities.

If Scientologists see and hear protests outside their buildings then the credibility of the expensive Scientology Advanced Technology and super powers might be questioned and Scientology's book, course and auditing sales adversely affected. For that reasons, picketers often shout and anti- scientology picket signs proclaim, "No OT Powers here otherwise we wouldn't be here."

In essence, the court is being asked to enjoin First Amendment activity that Scientology fears may wake up its coercively indoctrinated members. They would then exit the organization, as happened at the end of "The Truman Show" movie.

However, criticism of Scientology to individual Scientologists is not harassment as a matter of law. "No prior decisions support the claim that the interest of an individual in being free from public criticism of his business practices in pamphlets or leaflets [or other forms of speech] warrants use of the injunctive powers of a court." Organization for a Better Austin v. Keefe, 402 U.S. 415, 419-20, 29 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1971).

In Organization for a Better Austin, members of an organization distributed leaflets in a residential community that were critical of respondent's real estate practices. The distribution of the leaflets was on all occasions conducted in a peaceful and orderly manner, did not cause any disruption of pedestrian or vehicular traffic, and did not precipitate any fights, disturbances or other breaches of the peace.

The Court noted that the fact that "expressions were intended to exercise a coercive impact on respondent does not remove them from the reach of the First Amendment." Id. at 420; see also NAACP v. Clairborne Hardware Co., 458 U.S. 886, 773 L. Ed. 2d 1215, 1234 (1982) ("Speech does not lose its protected character, however, simply because it may embarrass others or coerce them into action").

The applicable law is clear, the Scientology enterprise cannot constitutionally prevent others from delivering deprogramming messages and institutionally embarrassing information to its members and staffers on the public sidewalks.

Free speech includes offensive speech. It is clear that what the Plaintiffs, as the alter egos of the Scientology enterprise, and its attorneys herein, contend is that offensive speech is the reason for the injunctive relief obtained herein. That is wrong. "First, it is important to recognize that, '[l]ike so many other kinds of expression, picketing is a mixture of conduct and communication." NLRB v. Retail Store Employees, 447 U.S. 607, 618-619 (STEVENS J., concurring in part and concurring in result).

"[A] communication may be offensive in two different ways. Independently of the message the speaker intends to convey, the form of his communication may be offensive – perhaps because it is too loud or too ugly in a particular setting. Other speeches, even though elegantly phrased in dulcet tones, are offensive simply because the listener disagrees with the speaker's message." Consolidated Edison Co. v. Public Service Comm'n of New York, 447 U.S. 530, 546-547 (STEVENS, J., concurring in judgment) (footnotes omitted).

The authorities also hold that the state cannot justify restrictions on peaceful expression on the basis of the offensiveness of the message and conduct to some viewers. "The fact that society may find speech offensive is not a sufficient reason for suppressing it.

Indeed, if it is the speaker's opinion that gives offense, that consequence is a reason for according it constitutional protection." Simon & Schuster, Inc. v. Members of New York State Crime Victims BD., 502 U.S. 105, 118 (1991). Emphasis added. Similarly, the Supreme Court has also determined that "[f]reedom of speech cannot be made subject to prevailing notions of taste or preferences for particular forms of expression.

As long as the means are peaceful [as they were here], the communication need not meet standards of acceptability." Organization for a Better Austin v. Keefe, 402 U.S. 415, 419, 29 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1971). The U.S. Supreme Court was even stronger in Schenk v. Pro Choice Network of Western New York, 519 U.S. 357, 137 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1997): "As we said in Madsen, quoting from Boos v. Barry, 485 U.S. 322, '[a]s a general matter, we have indicated that in public debate our own citizens must tolerate insulting, and even outrageous, speech in order to provide adequate breathing space to the freedoms protected by the First Amendment." Emphasis added.

FEES AND COSTS ARE PROVIDED FOR BY STATUTE

C.C.P. §425.16 (c) provides that "[i]n any action subject to subdivision (b), a prevailing defendant on a special motion to strike shall be entitled to recover attorney's fees and costs." The amount is within the court's discretion. Dowling v. Zimmerman, 85 Cal. App. 4th 1400, 1426 (2001).

Indeed, in Church of Scientology v. Wollersheim, 42 Cal.App. 4th 628 (1996), Plaintiff's attorney herein was one of the counsel unsuccessfully arguing that the trial court's award of C.C.P. §425.16 (c) attorney's fees in the amount of $130,506.71 was excessive. Mr. Moxon was also ordered to pay the attorney's fees on appeal. Id. at p. 659.

In Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal. App. 4th 1122 (2001) the D.C.A. was considering the trial court's C.C.P. §425.16 (c) attorney fees award of $140, 212.00 which included a lodestar amount of $70,106.00. The D.C.A. upheld the fee and lodestar amounts. The amount of Defendant's Fees and Costs claim herein currently exceeds $10,000.00 and will be updated and detailed by Supplemental Declaration.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendant's C.C.P. §425.16 (b) (1) motion should be granted.

Dated: September 19, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

Graham E. Berry,
Attorney for Defendant Donald xxxxx

SUMMARY

Synopsis:
Two scientology websites were illegally accessed and modified.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 06-13-2011 BY 60322 UCLP/PLJ/JN

☐ Sensitive Investigative Matter

Facts of Incident:
On 10/31/2009 the scientology website scientology-europe.org was hacked, defaced, and ultimately modified to redirect to an anti-scientology website, whyaretheydead.org. The website was modified using a program called C99shell. This program was placed on the webserver and a URL to access the program was posted on the messageboard 888chan.org. Any user who accessed the URL pointing to C99 would have access to modify files on the webserver without entering a username and password.

On 11/03/2009 another scientology website, Freedom-Belgium.org, logged attempts to access the C99shell program. The Freedom-Belgium.org website is hosted on the same computer as scientology-europe.org

Webserver logs show that several of the IP address who accessed the C99Shell program are located in the United States

Details: Per referenced communication, San Antonio conducted surveillance at [redacted], on 02/25/2010. Writer utilized a wireless capable device which detected three secure wireless networks in the vicinity of this address. The house is located approximately 100 yards from the road and was enclosed by wood, wire, and wrought-iron fencing. A wrought-iron gate at the entrance of the driveway was closed denying access to the property. It is possible that a wireless device/network went undetected from the residence because of the distance the writer was from the house.

Title: SCIENTOLOGY

SCIENTOLOGY-VICTIM

Synopsis: To close the above captioned case.

Details: On October 31, 2009 the Scientology website Scientology-Europe.org was hacked, defaced, and ultimately redirected to the Anti-Scientology website Whyaretheydead.org. The Scientology-Europe.org website was modified using a program called C99shell. This program was placed on the webserver without the website administrator's knowledge. A URL to access C99Shell was posted on the messageboard 888chan.org, a message board frequently used by the internet group Anonymous. This URL allowed any user who accessed the messageboard the ability to modify files on the Scientology-Europe.org webserver without entering a username and password.

On November 3, 2009 another Scientology website, Freedom-Belgium.org which is hosted on the same webserver as Scientology-Europe.org, logged attempts to access another version of the C99shell program. These logs show that several of the IP address that accessed the C99Shell program are located in the United States. Scientology's headquarters is located in Southern Disctrict of California.

Further analysis of the IP logs provided by the Church of Scientology determined that all but one of the IP addresses located inside the United States that participated in the attack against the Church of Scientology utilized an anonymity program

The writer interviewed [redacted] and learned that in addition to [redacted] three children and wife, at least eight other individuals lived at his residence during the time of the attacks. Many of the individuals were college friends of [redacted] and [redacted] could not provide their full contact information. Furthermore [redacted] stated he often left his wireless router open for periods of time so that anyone could access the internet through his connection.

Writer requests the above titled case be closed due to lack of investigative leads.

The house is located approximately 100 yards from the road and was enclosed by wood, wire, and wrought-iron fencing. A wrought-iron gate at the entrance of the driveway was closed denying access to the property. It is possible that a wireless device/network went undetected from the residence because of the distance the writer was from the house.

SCIENTOLOGY-VICTIM

Synopsis: To close the above captioned case.

Details: On October 31, 2009 the Scientology website Scientology-Europe.org was hacked, defaced, and ultimately redirected to the Anti-Scientology website Whyaretheydead.org. The Scientology-Europe.org website was modified using a program called C99shell. This program was placed on the webserver without the website administrator's knowledge. A URL to access C99Shell was posted on the messageboard 888chan.org, a message board frequently used by the internet group Anonymous. This URL allowed any user who accessed the messageboard the ability to modify files on the Scientology-Europe.org webserver without entering a username and password.

On November 3, 2009 another Scientology website, Freedom-Belgium.org which is hosted on the same webserver as Scientology-Europe.org, logged attempts to access another version of the C99shell program. These logs show that several of the IP address that accessed the C99Shell program are located in the United States. Scientology's headquarters is located in Southern Disctrict of California.

Further analysis of the IP logs provided by the Church of Scientology determined that all but one of the IP addresses located inside the United States that participated in the attack against the Church of Scientology utilized an anonymity program

The sole IP address located in the U.S. that participated in the attack against the Church of Scientology was [redacted] Subscriber information provided by SBC Communications showed this IP address was registered to [redacted] residence address [redacted] at the time of the attack.

The writer interviewed [redacted] and learned that in addition to [redacted] three children and wife, at least eight other individuals lived at his residence during the time of the attacks. Many of the individuals were college friends of [redacted] and [redacted] could not provide their full contact information. Furthermore [redacted] stated he often left his wireless router open for periods of time so that anyone could access the internet through his connection.

Writer requests the above titled case be closed due to lack of investigative leads.

Details: Per referenced communication, San Antonio conducted surveillance at [redacted], on 02/25/2010. Writer utilized a wireless capable device which detected three secure wireless networks in the vicinity of this address. The house is located approximately 100 yards from the road and was enclosed by wood, wire, and wrought-iron fencing. A wrought-iron gate at the entrance of the driveway was closed denying access to the property. It is possible that a wireless device/network went undetected from the residence because of the distance the writer was from the house.

SCIENTOLOGY-VICTIM

Synopsis: To close the above captioned case.

Details: On October 31, 2009 the Scientology website Scientology-Europe.org was hacked, defaced, and ultimately redirected to the Anti-Scientology website Whyaretheydead.org. The Scientology-Europe.org website was modified using a program called C99shell. This program was placed on the webserver without the website administrator's knowledge. A URL to access C99Shell was posted on the messageboard 888chan.org, a message board frequently used by the internet group Anonymous. This URL allowed any user who accessed the messageboard the ability to modify files on the Scientology-Europe.org webserver without entering a username and password.

On November 3, 2009 another Scientology website, Freedom-Belgium.org which is hosted on the same webserver as Scientology-Europe.org, logged attempts to access another version of the C99shell program. These logs show that several of the IP address that accessed the C99Shell program are located in the United States. Scientology's headquarters is located in Southern Disctrict of California.

Further analysis of the IP logs provided by the Church of Scientology determined that all but one of the IP addresses located inside the United States that participated in the attack against the Church of Scientology utilized an anonymity program

The attack brought down the entire site on several occasions, forced the COS to move its site to outside servers, and forced the COS to hire outside help to defend against the attack. A group named Anonymous has claimed responsibility for the attack and has posted several videos on YouTube discussing the attack and vowing to continue.

[redacted] b6 b7C

In addition, approximately twenty-two hoax white powder letters were mailed to COS locations in the Los Angeles area and several bomb threats have been made to various COS locations. However, the information linked to [redacted] is related to the DDOS only.

Investigation into the DDOS attack has identified several subjects throughout the United States including the following:

[redacted], white male, date of birth [redacted], Social Security Account Number [redacted], residing at [redacted], cellular telephone number [redacted] was interviewed at the Newark Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, 11 Centre Place, Newark, New Jersey. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

At the beginning of the interview, [redacted] read an FD-395, Advice of Rights form, initialing after each line and signing the form. The signed form was placed in a 1A envelope. b6 b7C

[redacted] is a big reader of the website WWW.DIGG.COM (DIGG) which is a social news website. News articles on the website are rated by readers by either giving the articles a "Digg up" or a "Digg down." When an article receives high ratings, they are placed on the front page of the website. [redacted] indicated that the articles were typically from "credible" sources such as WIRED MAGAZINE and TIME. Beginning in December 2007 [redacted] began seeing articles on the groups ANONYMOUS and the CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY (COS) appearing on the front page of the website. b6 b7C

In January 2008, [redacted] began seeing additional articles on DIGG describing Distributed Denial of Service (DDOS) attacks occurring against COS. The articles indicated that the DDOS attacks were perpetrated by members of ANONYMOUS. In addition to the DDOS attacks, there were also articles and discussions regarding a COS TOM CRUISE video that had been leaked onto the Internet and posted on YOUTUBE, a website for posting videos. In the Blogs, including on DIGG, users described CRUISE as looking "nuts." The number of articles and discussions on both the DDOS attacks and on the CRUISE video began fading in February 2008. b6 b7C

[redacted] interest in COS was generated after reading about COS's policy referred to as "Fair Game." [redacted] provided a copy of the "Fair Game" policy which was placed in a 1A envelope. [redacted] felt the "Fair Game" policy amounted to harassment. b6 b7C

At a Super Bowl party on January 23, 2008, [redacted] told [redacted] about a protest that was planned for February 10, 2008 b6 b7C by ANONYMOUS at the COS in New York City. [redacted] had learned about the protest from [redacted] attended the protest with both [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] described ANONYMOUS as a leaderless organization with the common goal of bringing a stop to the "crimes and abuses" perpetrated by COS. Although he thinks ANONYMOUS has focused on other entities or activities, since at least December 2007 there focus was on COS. ANONYMOUS has a lot of members but has very little control over their activities. Most of ANONYMOUS's activities include spamming COS websites and posting "nonsense" on websites such as channel B on www.4chan.com. [redacted] does not think that ANONYMOUS is focused on COS anymore. b6 b7C

CHANOLOGY is a group that emerged out of ANONYMOUS and is still active today. CHANOLOGY, which [redacted] considers himself part of, has continued to focus on protesting the abuses of COS and the COS policy of "Fair Game." CHANOLOGY continues to sponsor monthly peaceful protests against the COS located in New York City. CHANOLOGY abides by the law and has a good relationship with the New York City Police Department in how they conduct their protests across from the COS. CHANOLOGY conducts protests against COS all over the world. [redacted] indicated that any protest group protesting COS around the world is probably associated with CHANOLOGY rather than ANONYMOUS. b6 b7C

Several members of CHANOLOGY have been targeted and served with Cease and Desist letters (C&D) by COS. A private investigator hired by COS attempted to serve a C&D on [redacted] at his parent's address in May 2008 but was unsuccessful. The private investigator was told [redacted] no longer lived at the address. b6 b7C

[redacted] provided interviewing Agents with copies of several C&D letters that had been served on members of CHANOLOGY. Included with one letter served on member [redacted] at his house, was a photograph and description of the harassing way in which the letter was served by a member of COS's security. In addition to this letter, an "Anonymous No More" flyer was left at the residence naming [redacted] true name, [redacted]. [redacted] also provided a draft copy of a legal brief written by [redacted] responding to a restraining order requested by COS on [redacted] LNU. All of these documents were placed in a 1A envelope. b6 b7C

Based on what was in some of the C&D letters from COS, [redacted] was aware that COS claimed to have received both bomb threats and letters containing white powder. [redacted] questioned the truth of these claims because members of CHANOLOGY had not been able to find copies of police reports to back up the COS reports. b6 b7C

[redacted] knew of two websites that were used by CHANOLOGY members to communicate regarding activities planned against COS, C&D letters received by members and other COS related information. The largest website is WHYWEPROTEST.NET. [redacted] estimates this website has approximately 17,000 members. The second website, which was created by [redacted] in March 2008, was EPICANON.COM. This website has approximately 600 members. [redacted] is [redacted] for both websites and uses the same screen name, [redacted] is the only one that has access to and utilizes the screen name [redacted] on both aforementioned websites. b6 b7C

[redacted] indicated that there have been some screen names that have been banned on these websites because they made postings encouraging activities such as DDOS attacks against COS. [redacted] was willing to provide interviewing Agents with a list of these user names and IP addresses associated with them. b6 b7C

[redacted] provided a copy of the Domain Name registration for EPICANON.COM showing the date of domain registration as March 18, 2008. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that as [redacted] he is familiar with what a DDOS attack is and has seen how much damage such an attack can cause. [redacted] denied participating in any of the DDOS attack activity that occurred against the COS in January or February 2008. [redacted] further stated that no IP address activity related to the DDOS attacks would link to him. b6 b7C

[redacted] indicated that he had not posted anything on EPICANON.COM claiming to have participated in the DDOS attacks against COS. [redacted] also denied having ever mailed letters containing white powder to COS. [redacted] denied making bomb threats to any COS location. [redacted] did not know anyone who had participated in any such attack or activity. b6 b7C

Interviewing Agents then showed [redacted] a copy of a post on EPICANON.COM by [redacted] dated [redacted] where [redacted] claimed to have participated in some of the DDOS attacks against COS. [redacted] stated that he had forgotten about that post and admitted to b6 b7C having made the post. [redacted] continued to deny participating in the DDOS attacks. [redacted] stated that he lied on the post initially because he thought that this was what people wanted to hear. A printout of the post was placed in a 1A envelope. b6 b7C

Interviewing Agents provided [redacted] with a copy of Title 18, United States Code Section 1001. [redacted] read the document and signed indicating he understood what the section meant. The signed copy was placed in a 1A envelope. b6 b7C

[redacted] again denied that he had participated in DDOS attacks against COS. [redacted] again stated that no IP address activity related to the DDOS attacks would link to him. b6 b7C

[redacted] is currently employed as [redacted] for [redacted] for the last four or five months. His boss is [redacted], cellular telephone [redacted], office telephone [redacted]. b6 b7C

In January and February, [redacted] believed he was employed by [redacted], an IT solutions company, located in [redacted], telephone [redacted]. His boss was [redacted] LNU. b6 b7C [redacted] had attended approximately two years of college.

[redacted] had moved back in with his parents at [redacted] in June or July, 2008. In January and February 2008, he lived with his girlfriend at [redacted]. b6 b7C

Re: Anonymous Activities

Dear [redacted]

Latham & Watkins, LLP has been retained by the Church of Scientology International (the "Church") in connection with a series of terrorist threats against Church leaders and parishioners made by an internet group known as "Anonymous". Since January 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have made numerous bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. They have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the internet and publicly threatened to kill Church leaders, Church security personnel and Scientologists engaged in religious services. On January 30, 2008, Anonymous members sent letters containing simulated anthrax to over twenty Scientology Churches in Southern California.

Anonymous members have also sent threatening emails to the Church, including, "[I will] kill you... I have the authority to use lethal force"; and "I'm watching you, and I control the bombs." And on February 13, 2008 Anonymous placed a video threat on the Internet, saying:

> We are an elite Anonymous. On the 13th of March 2008 ... one 5 kilogram pack of nitroglycerin will detonate in the Churches of Scientology across the United States of America ... This will be the world's biggest terrorist attack on a religion. Lives will be lost.... A separate personal attack on [the President of the Church] will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at an undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult.
>
> Law enforcement authorities have been notified of these illegal activities.

We are sending you this letter because the Church has reason to believe that you may be directing or leading some or all of the actions of "Anonymous," and have assisted in its campaign of violence or inciting violence against the Church. In particular, you were identified at a protest outside a Church on February 10, 2008 and you further have made statements, both publicly and to others, promoting your leadership in the organization. We demand that you immediately cease all illegal activities against the Church. Should your organization continue inciting and/or engaging in violent acts against the Church or its members, we are prepared to take any and all steps necessary to protect our client, including referring any individual, including you, to Local, State and Federal authorities.

Sincerely,

Re: Anonymous Activities

Dear [redacted]

This law firm has been retained by the Church of Scientology (the "Church") in connection with a series of unlawful threats made by a group of individuals known as "Anonymous" against Church leaders and parishioners.

Since January 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of vandalism, harassment, and threats of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have made bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. As a further part of the campaign of terror, on January 30, 2008, letters containing simulated anthrax were sent by Anonymous to more than twenty Scientology Churches in Southern California.

Anonymous members have also sent threatening emails to Scientology Churches, which include the following: "[I will] kill you... I have the authority to use lethal force"; and "I'm watching you, and I control the bombs." On February 13,2008, Anonymous placed a video threat on the Internet, stating:

Should Anonymous continue inciting others, and/or engage in violent acts against the Church or its members, we [redacted] prepared to take whatever steps may be required to protect the Church, including referring any individual who commits such acts, or aids or assists others who commit such acts, to State and Federal authorities.

Re: Anonymous Activities

Dear [redacted]

This law firm has been retained by the Church of Scientology (the "Church") in connection with a series of unlawful threats made by a group of individuals known as "Anonymous" against Church leaders and parishioners. We write about your activities on behalf of this group. While mere peaceful picketing, where otherwise not restricted by law, is of course protected under the First Amendment, we are concerned that, given your apparent leading role in the group, you may also be acting in furtherance of other, not so benign, activities of Anonymous.

As you undoubtedly are well aware, since January 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of vandalism, harassment, and threats of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have interfered with the First Amendment rights of Church members to discuss their religious practices with members of the public and to distribute religious literature; in fact, this has been a continuing form of harassment in New York. We believe that you personally have engaged in such activities, in concert with others.

In addition, individuals identified as being part of Anonymous have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the internet and publicly threatened to kill Scientologists engaged in religious services, made bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. As a further part of the campaign of terror, on January 30, 2008, letters containing simulated anthrax were sent by Anonymous to more than twenty Scientology Churches in Southern California.

On February 13, 2008, Anonymous placed a video threat on the Internet, stating:

> We are an elite Anonymous. On the 13th of March 2008 ... one 5 kilogram pack of nitroglycerin will detonate in the Churches of Scientology across the United States of America ... This will be the world's biggest terrorist attack on a religion. Lives will be lost. . . . A separate personal attack on [the President of the Church] will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at an undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult.

Law enforcement authorities have been notified of these illegal activities.

You have been identified as directing or leading actions of Anonymous. We therefore are concerned that your activities may directly or indirectly support its campaign of actual threats and incitements. Acts such as harassing Church members to interfere with their exercise of their rights of speech or religion, let alone making threats or inciting violence against the Church and its members, and engaging in acts of terrorism (such as the simulated anthrax attack, bomb, arson and death threats) violate State and Federal law. We demand that you refrain from committing, assisting, or acting in concert with others in committing illegal acts directed at the Church or its parishioners. Should Anonymous continue inciting others, and/or engage in violent acts against the Church or its members, we are prepared to take whatever steps may be required to protect the Church.

Sincerely,

Re: Anonymous Activities

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Our law firm has been retained by the Church of Scientology of New York in connection with a series of terrorist threats against Church leaders and parishioners made by an Internet group known as "Anonymous".

Since January, 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have made numerous bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. They have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the Internet and publicly threatened to kill Scientologists engaged in religious services. on [the President of the Church] will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at [redacted] undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult.

I enclose a brief documentary for your information, which sets forth additional evidence of criminal acts of Anonymous. Law enforcement authorities have been notified of these illegal activities.

We are sending you this letter because we have reason to believe that you are associated with and have been assisting Anonymous in its campaign against the Church. In particular, you have been an accessory by your participation in demonstrations where my church and fellow church members were vilified. These include days [redacted] May, June & July 2008 and other times that you promoted and participated in "raids" against the Church.

The purpose of this letter is to place you on notice that the activities of Anonymous in inciting violence against the Church and its members and engaging in acts of terrorism (such as the simulated anthrax attack, bomb, arson and death threats) violate State and Federal law. We demand that you immediately cease all such activities that you may be engaged in. Should Anonymous continue inciting and/or engaging in violent acts against the Church or its members, we are prepared to take any and all steps necessary to protect our client, including referring the names of persons to State and Federal authorities.

Very truly yours,

STATEMENT ABOUT C&D's FROM [redacted]

b6
b7C

With this C&D came one for my parents as well (not uploading that one) which was the same as mine, as well as a copy of the Anonymous Hate Crimes dvd for each C&D.

Now, my analysis.

After seeing [redacted] C&D, then mine, I have come to the conclusion there are two different types for a reason.

b6
b7C

Type 1: Leadership
C&D, no DVD, accuses of having a leading role in Anon activities.

Type 2: New person
C&D, DVD, accuses of taking part in and being an accessory to Anon activities.

I noticed now for the Newperson-type C&D it had my name and handle, and mentioned a few of the global protest dates. With the DVD, as well as a C&D sent to my parents as well, I have come to the conclusion that this type is meant for people the CoS considers newer members. I also found it odd that mine came from Clearwater, FL.

Hm, the place known as Scientology's Mecca as the sender, a DVD explaining Anonymous' crimes (according to the CoS), and a letter saying how I'm considered an accessory, and my parents as well.

This is the CoS attempting to intimidate new members. If you were new and got this, wouldn't you contemplate ending your participation with Chanology? You just got a letter from the home base of Scientology saying you could be in league with some bad people! They even sent a DVD telling you what these bad people have done!

As for Leader-type C&D, I noticed how it states the recipient may be taking part in "not so benign activities of Anonymous" outside of the peaceful picketing that is protected by the First Amendment. In New-type, there is NO MENTION of the peaceful picketing or accusation of "not so benign" activities. Also, the law firm is one that's not as far away as Clearwater. There is also no DVD enclosed with it.

This is the CoS trying to take things to a more businesslike approach to supposed leaders, in my eyes. The typeface is smaller in this type of C&D as well. Though it may mean nothing, it seems like they were trying to make this letter a bit more official looking. If I'm looking too deep into the typeface, then disregard that, I suck cocks.

Let's see, an official looking letter that even SOUNDS official to the untrained eye, and it's been sent by a law firm RIGHT HERE IN NY, instead of some far away city. This is probably an attempt to get the "leaders" of Anonymous to take the CoS seriously.

After thinking this over a bit, I was starting to realize some things:

-Anon carry their C&Ds with pride, and they compare them amongst each other.
-It seems a bit random with how certain C&Ds are sent. Members who haven't come to a protest in MONTHS have recieved them, members who seem to have more influence would receive a C&D calling them a leader, and members, despite the time they've spent with Anon are getting a New-type C&D (as is in my case.)

This looks like what I will refer to as the Distrust Tactic.

Scientologists are sending seemingly random letters to different members. With us comparing them and stuff, people are going to question why one member got a Leader-type and why one got a New-Type. It can lead to Anons questioning the motives of their fellow members, and make us even more paranoid about each other. Paranoia leads to distrust, and distrust leads to the breaking up of the Hivemind, if it becomes rampant enough.

In my eyes, this is the CoS trying to break us apart by making us question each other's stance in the group, our motives, etc. In past conversations with Anon, it's been said that we need to stop hanging out and being friendly with each other, and if I'm right about what this tactic is attempting to do, such a move could ruin us completely.

We need to show the CoS that they can't break us apart, they can't make us lose trust in each other. To show them that we can't even trust each other is to show them that they've won.

All I can say after all that, is that I will still continue to contribute however I can, and now with this knowledge of the situation, let's show them that we mean it when we say "Anonymous is Legion."

I'll never forgive them for coming to my house with their papers.
I'll never forget hearing my mom being frantic about having a lawyer-type person at the door, and how she's worried about them coming back again.

This is the person who Hand Delivered a C&D letter to the member [redacted] house. This person also harassed his family by slamming on the door for 20 minutes, then slipping a "Anonymous No More" flier which had [redacted] real name, and location, as well as his picture on it, with the words "Anonymous No More" on the bottom of the flier. This is one of the people the Church of Scientology hires as "security".

Re: Anonymous Activities

b6
b7C

Dear [redacted]

This law firm has been retained by the Church of Scientology (the "Church") in connection with a series of unlawful threats made by a group of individuals known as "Anonymous" against Church leaders and parishioners. We write about your activities on behalf of this group. While mere peaceful picketing, where otherwise not restricted by law, is of course protected under the First Amendment, we are concerned that, given your apparent leading role in the group, you may also be acting in furtherance of other, not so benign, activities of Anonymous.

As you undoubtedly are well aware, since January 2008, members of Anonymous have engaged in a campaign of vandalism, harassment, and threats of violence against the Church, its members and Church property. Anonymous members have interfered with the First Amendment rights of Church members to discuss their religious practices with members of the public and to distribute religious literature; in fact, this has been a continuing form of harassment in New York. Anonymous members also have singled out individual staff members and parishioners of the Church for harassment, verbal abuse, internet attacks and invasions of privacy. We believe that you personally have engaged in harassment of the Church and its members.

In addition, individuals identified as being part of Anonymous have made harassing phone calls, sent vulgar and threatening faxes, posted threats on the internet and publicly threatened to kill Scientologists engaged in religious services, made bomb threats, arson threats and committed acts of vandalism against Scientology Churches. As a further part of the campaign of terror, on January 30, 2008, letters containing simulated anthrax were sent by Anonymous to more than twenty Scientology Churches in Southern California.

On February 13,2008, Anonymous placed a video threat on the Internet, stating:

> We are an elite Anonymous. On the 13th of March 2008 ... one 5 kilogram pack of nitroglycerin will detonate in the Churches of Scientology across the United States of America ... This will be the world's biggest terrorist attack on a religion. Lives will be lost. . . . A separate personal attack on [the President of the Church] will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at an undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult.

Law enforcement authorities have been notified of these illegal activities.

You have been identified as engaging in harassing actions of Anonymous. We therefore are concerned that your activities may directly or indirectly support its campaign of actual threats and incitements. Acts such as harassing Church members to interfere with their exercise of their rights of speech or religion, let alone making threats or inciting violence against the Church and its members, and engaging in acts of terrorism (such as the simulated anthrax attack, bomb, arson and death threats) violate State and Federal law. We demand that you refrain from committing, assisting, inciting or acting in concert with others in committing illegal acts directed at the Church or its parishioners. Should Anonymous continue inciting others, and/or engage in violent acts against the Church or its members, we are prepared to take whatever steps may be required to protect the Church.

Sincerely

An Open Letter to the CoS

Dearest "Church" of Scientology,

Cut that out. Seriously. Quit it. You have shown up to my home now on two separate occasions to hand deliver notices which accuse me of illegal activities which are hilariously far from the truth. The letters which you sent got a total of four things correct. My name, my mom's name, I am a part of anonymous, and I am site staff on EpicAnon.com.

I have never made any attempts or had any desires to harm any Scientologists. They are victims of a cult. My father is a Scientologist, as are several of his friends. I know several of these people. The idea that I would wish any malice upon any of them is absurd at best.

I have invited you to have conversations with me in the past, since you obviously know my name and address. The closest you have come to communication with me is having that horrible banshee woman shriek my name and cackle at me from across the street. For the "most ethical people on earth" and a "religion based around communication" you have failed miserably at demonstrating either of these claims.

Your only success has been cowering from communication and discussion; cowering from the truth. You have made bogus legal claims and attempted to intimidate me from practicing my first amendment rights. You have done exactly the opposite in doing so. You have validated claims of your abuse and harassment of anyone who speaks the truth about your organization. Expect me.

Love,

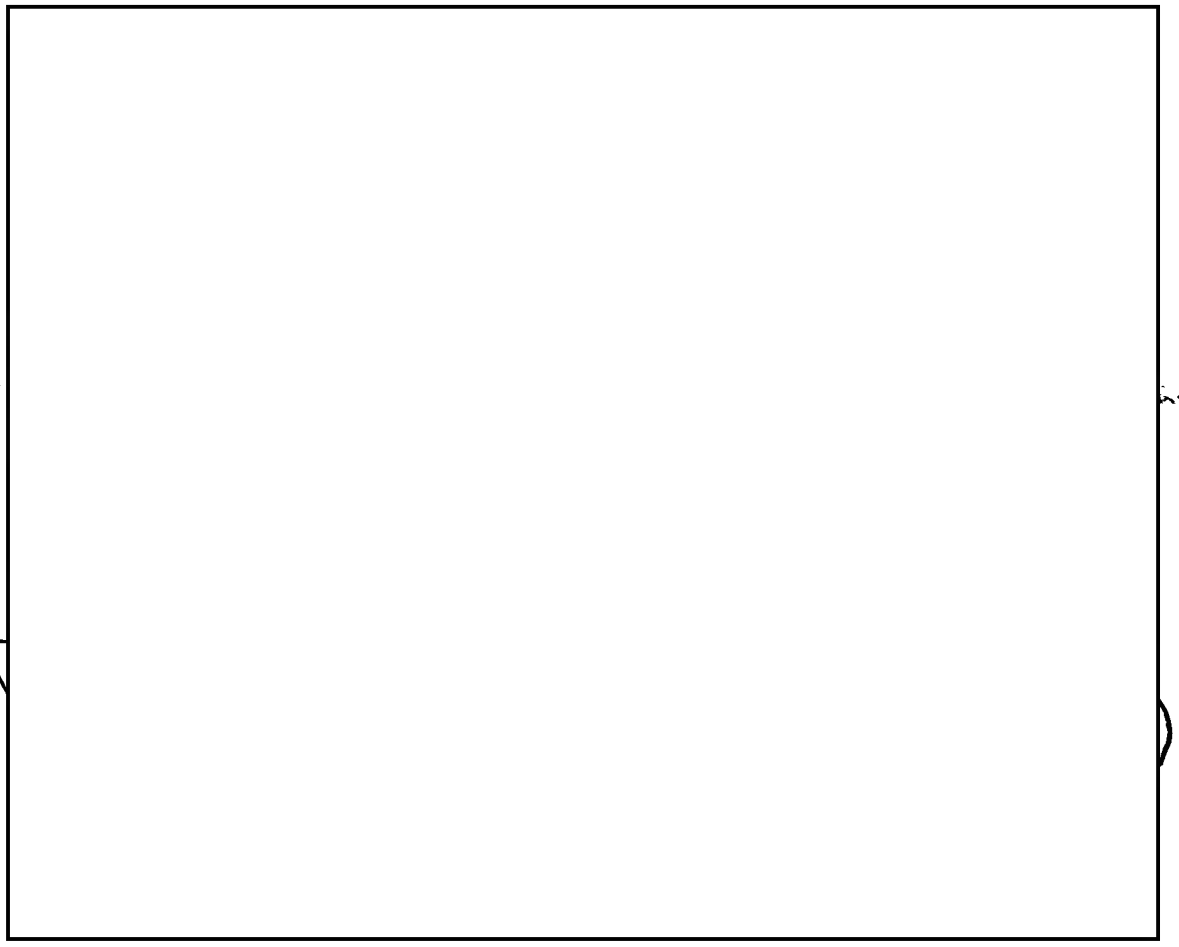
COPYRIGHT DISCLAIMER: Fair use extracts of Scientology policy letters included on this page!

This is the much talked about 'Fair Game' policy in Scientology. Is this an ordinary church that we should just let go about its own business?

Here is the text from the original policy letter (emphasized by me):



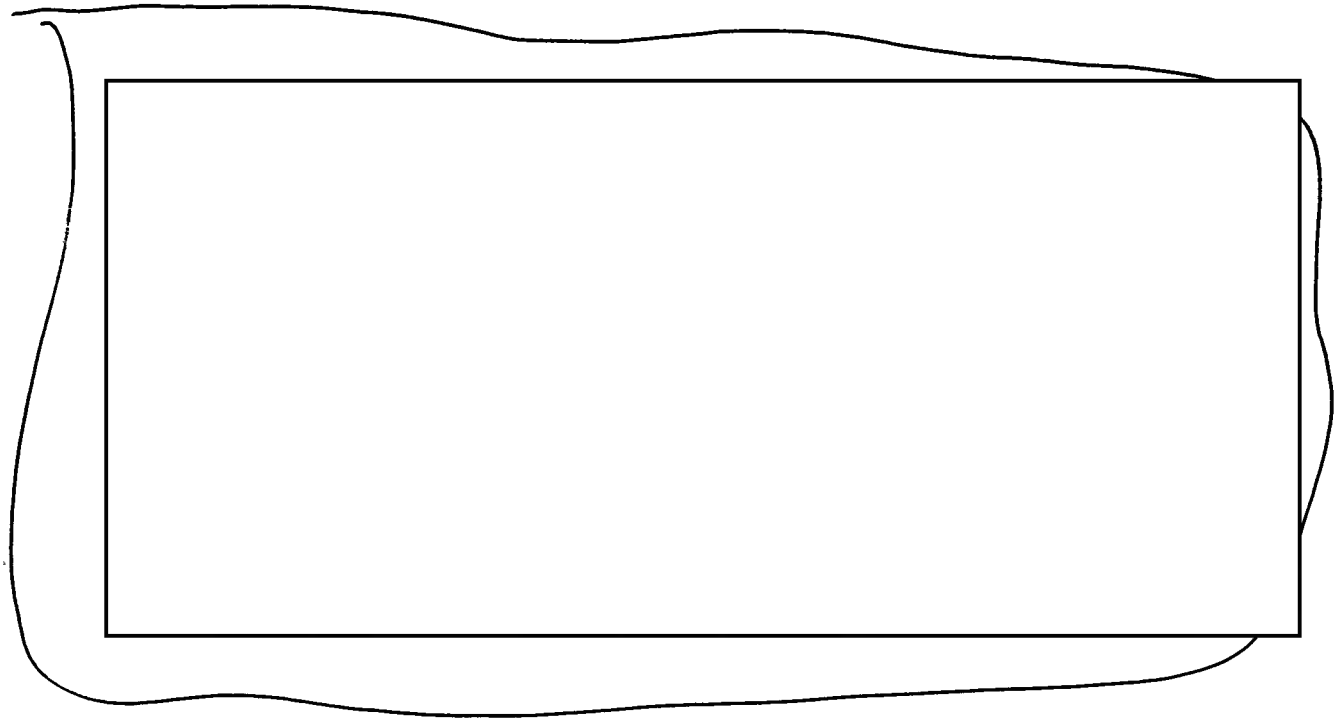
b4

When brought up, they often try to change the subject and for example attack you, asking what criminal acts you have on your conscience or if you are payed by the drug cartells or something. According to Scientology all critics of Scientology are criminals, that's why they are critics. Nice logic. This is only standard Scientology tech, it's part of the training they have payed a fortune to learn. Hubbard said so, period.

If you manage to see through their stupid personal attacks and

If you manage to see through their stupid personal attacks and desperate distractions, you may manage to force them to ward it off by telling you the Fair Game policy letter was cancelled in 1968. But keep in mind that Scientologists are trained to lie and never defend, always attack (and generate money).

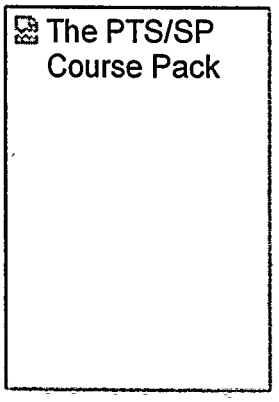
I got the actual cancellation letter they refere to right here:



b4

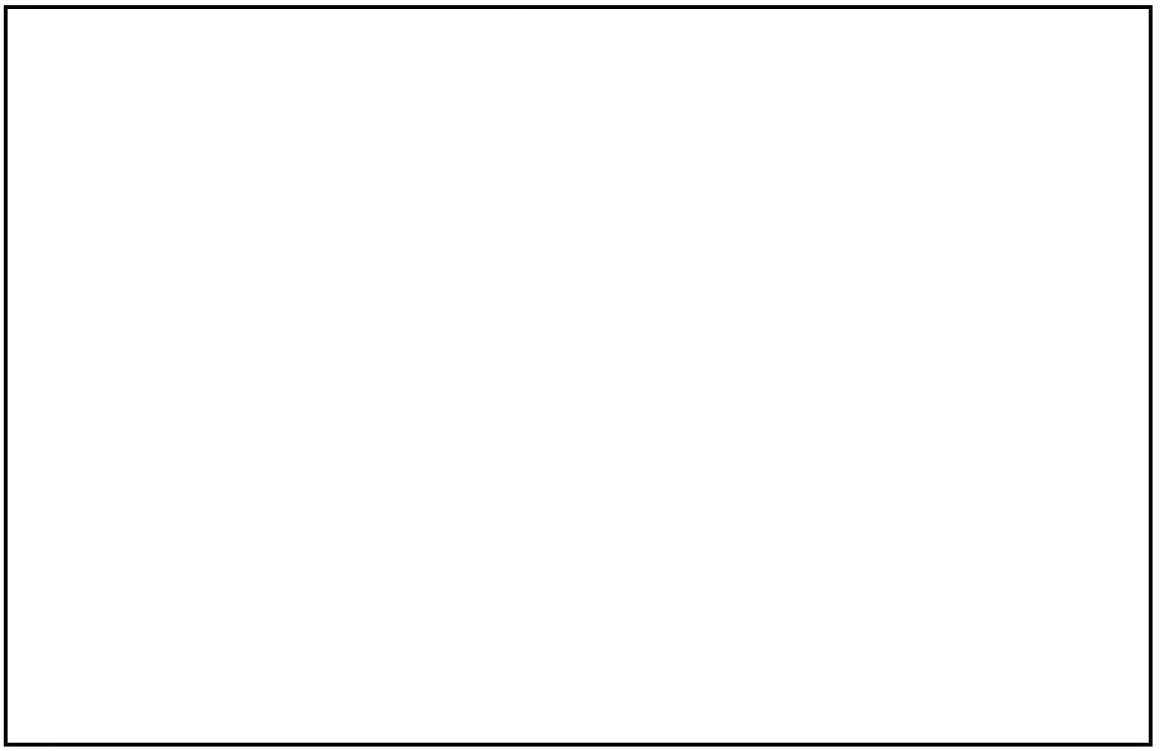
Comments:

1. It is bad enough that such a policy ever was made in the first place, even if it truly had been cancelled later.
2. This HCO Policy Letter (HCO P/L) does not cancel the policy, it only cancels the use of the term 'Fair Game'. It states clearly that the practice described in the policy (deprived of property, injured, tricked, sued, lied to or destroyed) is not cancelled.
3. The "Church" of Scientology does not change anything because it's wrong, no, they change it because it gives bad PR!



I personally got a copy of the course manual "PTS/SP COURSE - How to Confront and Shatter Suppression" as printed by the cult in 1989. This extract is from page 128 and shows that not even the wording was really changed after all:

b4



b4

In my opinion this clearly shows organized criminal activity, exactly what we try to warn people about. This cult uses the law and claims to be a "bona fide religion" only to defend its horrid organized activities! It may be hard to imagine, but there are lots more where this comes from. How far are these people really willing to go? I say it is about time we put down our foot and said: STOP!

STOP!

Scientology claim they are the most ethical group on the planet!!! They want to save us???

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

This case involves a C.C.P. §527.6 Temporary Restraining Order obtained against Defendant on August 11, 2008. Accordingly, most of the Defendant's "public issue" and other evidence herein concerns events until August 20, 2008. However, subsequent abuse is included.

DEFENDANT ACTED IN FURTHERANCE OF FREE SPEECH

Defendant [redacted] is a [redacted] year old man without any criminal convictions or record. He has never been involved in a civil harassment proceeding. Declaration of [redacted] ("xxxx Decl.') ¶4. He is opposed to the Church of Scientology's wrongful and abusive conduct and not any of their copyrighted beliefs. xxxx Decl., ¶¶5-9. Declaration of [redacted] Decl.,") ¶85. b6 b7C

In March 2008, Defendant began his continuing participation with the group known as "Anonymous." xxxx Decl., ¶¶10-12. Anonymous is a global group of tens of thousands of Internet users who have mobilized to stop the copyright, tax, civil rights, human rights and other abuses of the Church of Scientology. Berry Decl., ¶¶ 8-86.

Most Anonymous have a strong and reasonable desire to maintain their anonymity. The Church of Scientology has a documented reputation for unmasking and punishing their critics, such as those participating in Anonymous.

Declaration of [redacted] Decl.") ¶47-51, [redacted] Decl. ¶¶87-366. This is unconstitutional.

In McIntyre v. Ohio Elections Commission 514 U.S. 334 (1995) the U.S. Supreme Court held that "[p]rotections for anonymous speech are vital to democratic discourse ... in particular: to protect unpopular individuals from retaliation at the hand of an intolerant society. [redacted] Decl., ¶¶64-65. b6 b7C

Indeed, after Defendant had participated in the June 14, 2008, global picket against Scientology crimes and abuses, Church of Scientology agents followed Defendant for two days and "ran the plates" of an elderly friend's car.

By July 19, 2008, Scientology's Office of Special Affairs, which includes their attorneys herein, had identified Defendant and his associates. xxxx ¶¶ 13-15, 22-25, 29. Scientology preaches that the "purpose of the lawsuit is not to win." It is to "harass" and "utterly ruin." [redacted] Decl., ¶84, Exh. I, p. 338. The Anonymous protests, and the Defendant's First Amendment activity at issue herein, involve public issues of great global interest. [redacted] Decl., ¶¶4-56, xxxx Decl., ¶3 A-0. b6 b7C

THERE IS NO PROBABILITY PLAINTIFFS WILL PREVAIL

The purpose of Code of Civil Procedure ("C.C.P.") §527.6 is to provide quick relief to harassment victims threatened with great or irreparable injury. Grant v. Clampitt, 56 Cal.App. 4th 586 (1997). Section 527.6 is not designed to be a sword to silence critical speech. Evidencing such, C.C.P. §527.6 (b) provides that constitutionally protected activity, as in the case at bar, is excluded from its scope. C.C.P. §527.6 states its injunctive relief is available only in certain delineated circumstances.

The Code requires unlawful violence, a credible threat of violence, or a knowing and willful course of conduct ... that seriously alarms, annoys or harasses the person, and that serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct must be such as to cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and it must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the plaintiff. C.C.P. §527.6.

The petitions state no allegation of unlawful violence. For example, [redacted] testifies, in her declaration, that she feels threatened and unsafe when [redacted] is around [redacted] Decl., para. 6. However, her Form CH-100 answer to question 6 c. expressly testifies that [redacted] did not commit any acts of violence or threaten any acts of violence against" [redacted] b6 b7C

Furthermore, the two petitions do not describe conduct that seriously annoys, etc. and serves no legitimate purpose, as the exercise of constitutionally protected free speech, is certainly legitimate communication. The alleged activity although not necessarily pretty, never rises to the level of a threat of violence, or of anything. Mere opinion is expressed, questions are asked.

Any threat was nothing more than a threat to speak truth. Most telling, at section 6e of the Petition [redacted] did not describe, by what specific conduct and by what specific words, the alleged conduct that had seriously alarmed, annoyed or harassed her. This defect alone is sufficient to deny the application on grounds of failure of due process, i.e., notice of the conduct complained of in detail, as well as a fatal procedural defect under Civil Code section 527.6. b6 b7C

Even taking the petition at face value, a prima facie case of harassment has not been made. Constitutionally protected activity, including speech, has been deemed by statute not to be included within the meaning of "course of conduct" under Civil Code section 527.6 (b) (3).

Furthermore, Appellate opinions are consistent: private communications are constitutionally guaranteed forms of expression. Thomas v. Quintero, 126 Cal.App.4th 635 (2005), California Constitution Art. 1, Section 2.

The constitution states that "a law may not restrain or abridge liberty of speech or press". Because the alleged harassment is presumed to be, and factually is, based on constitutionally protected speech, assembly and protesting the application must be denied.

In addition, where an act, such as public criticism, protest, free speech, attempting to bring the truth to the public in general and to members of the church in particular, serves a legitimate purpose, and there is no evidence to support the conclusion that defendant is contacting plaintiff for any other purpose than to meet this legitimate need, such conduct does not constitute "harassment." West, Annotated C.C.P. § 527.6, Byers v. Cathcart, 57 Cal.App. 4th 805 (1997).

The determination of an injunction requires that this Court apply the "clear and convincing" standard. Accordingly, absent a finding of a high probability that unlawful harassment exists, the application must be denied. Russell v. Douvan, 112 Cal.App. 4th 399 (2003).

Fatally, there is no allegation of ongoing conduct here. The course of challenged conduct must be ongoing at the time the injunction is sought in order to obtain injunctive relief under the harassment statute. Scripps Health v. Marin, 72 Cal. App. 4th 324 (1999).

Inasmuch as the Defendant has done nothing to qualify for an injunction in the first instance, and since there is no ongoing conduct alleged which is either illegal or improper under the standards of C.C.P. §527.6, the application must be denied. In addition, there is no threatened injury.

Since an injunction will not lie for prior claims, and only to prevent threatened injury, it can not be used as punishment for past acts. Huntingdon Life Science v. Stop Huntingdon Animal Cruelty, 129 Cal.App. 4th 1228 (2005). Thus, the granting of an injunction requires "clear and convincing" evidence of future threatened harm.

The petition and the facts in any form do not support such a finding. The plaintiffs also lack credibility. [redacted] alleges that the "date of most recent harassment is 5/10/08; 7/26/08; 8/10/08." Form CH-100, question 6 a. However, her declaration states that her first encounter with [redacted] was in late July. [redacted] Decl., para. 3. b6 b7C

She also testifies that she became aware of [redacted] several weeks ago" (in late July, 2008) and she then states that his activity has been ongoing for "the past several months. [redacted] Dec., ¶¶3-4. Furthermore, [redacted] own video evidence does not support her claims. On the contrary, it indicates that on at least one occasion [redacted] was engaged in a debate of the issues with the Defendant. She did not demonstrate the allegations set forth in her complaint and supporting declaration herein. b6 b7C

Similarly, the evidence also shows Plaintiff Miranda aggressively going right up to Defendant and slamming his open hand into Defendant's video camcorder lens in use by Defendant.

Finally, there is credible evidence from which to conclude that these proceedings were actually instigated by the Church of Scientology, acting through its attorneys [redacted] and that the T.R.O. herein is being abused by the Church of Scientology and [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] is part of the legal unit of the Church of Scientology Office of Special Affairs which is also located in the Church of Scientology management building at 6331 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA.

The evidence indicates that [redacted] associate attorney, [redacted] Esq., personally appeared on the public sidewalks and threatened Defendant with arrest and prosecution on July 14, 2008. The evidence also establishes that she did not expressly do so on behalf of any clients. b6 b7C

The evidence further indicates that [redacted] personally appeared on the public sidewalks and threatened Defendant with these legal proceedings on July 22, 2008. He did not do so expressly on behalf of any client. [redacted] expressly stated that he was going to file a law suit the next day, July 23, 2008. b6 b7C

[redacted] own declaration of service refers to his communication with the Plaintiff's on August 10, 2008, one day before this proceeding was filed.

There is credible evidence that [redacted] has previously instigated litigation against Scientology critics, litigation opponents and their legal counsel, and that [redacted] has previously engaged in blackmail, bribery, perjury, obstruction of justice and other public corruption in such matters. [redacted] Decl., ¶¶290-358, Exhibits E-H. b6 b7C

Defendant's evidence also indicates that [redacted] abused the August 11, 2008 Temporary Restraining Order herein by applying it to locations expressly excluded by the court in its Temporary Restraining Order, and by attempting to have law enforcement officers use it prevent the Defendant from picketing Church of Scientology premises located at Tustin and Hemet in Riverside County on September 6, 2008.

The declaration of [redacted] establishes that during this matter, Plaintiff's attorney [redacted] and other Church of Scientology officials, followed Defendant's counsel to Hamburg, Germany where [redacted] threatened two German State employees with litigation if they did not admit him to an international forum being addressed by Defendant's counsel, and then demanded they provide their passports and identification to him. b6 b7C

Very disturbingly, and in a blatant attempt to obstruct justice herein, two officials from Scientology's O.S.A. visited Defendant's witness [redacted] at his home on the day preceding this filing. They insisted that they had to talk with him, they served him with a "Cease and Desist letter," informed him that they had observed him twice entering the home office of Defendant's counsel herein two days before this filing, and that they had electronically monitored [redacted] conversation with Defendant's counsel, in the back yard of his home-office. [redacted] Decl., ¶50 [redacted] Decl., ¶¶352-356. See generally, [redacted] Decl., ¶290-358, Exhibits E to H.

The manner of service of this action was itself calculated to intimidate and harass. [redacted] Decl., ¶359. b6 b7C

LEGAL ARGUMENT

C.C.P. §527.6 provides an expedited procedure for injunctive relief to persons experiencing harassment from conduct and/or speech that serves "no legitimate purpose" such as the exercise of first amendment freedoms of speech and assembly.

In essence, Defendant contends that Plaintiffs evidence was insufficient to support the C.C.P. §527.6 restraining order issued ex parte against him herein, that it therefore must be stricken pursuant to C.C.P. §425.16 because it was sought "primarily to chill the valid exercise of rights of freedom of speech," that the challenged cause of action arose from protected activity in connection with a public issue, and that it has unjustifiably interfered with his "constitutionally protected activity," after being served with these proceedings on August 14, 2008 during a peaceful group picket of the Church of Scientology office management building.

It is well established that certain government property is by its very nature a public forum; for example, the sidewalks of Hollywood Boulevard, Ivar Avenue, Sunset Boulevard, L. Ron Hubbard Way, Fountain Avenue and Franklin Avenue and Bronson Street.

THE ANTI-SLAPP STATUTE APPLIES TO C.C.P. § 527.6

In Thomas v. Quintero, 126 Cal.App. 4th 635, 646 (2005), the court held "that anti-SLAPP motions may be filed challenging petitions for injunctive relief brought under section 527.6." Plaintiff's Trial Brief (p.1:26-28) served August 28, 2008 expressly concedes the relevant building at 6331 Hollywood Boulevard houses only "administrative offices;" the Church of Scientology International and Religious Technology Center management, legal and intelligence offices.

The Church of Scientology does not have traditional church services where a deity is worshiped. Instead, it has book stores and course rooms where members purchase and take courses, and engage in "auditing" (which includes elements of hypnosis, mind control, mental manipulation and coercive indoctrination) with a primitive form of lie detector called an E Meter.

Conversely, in Thomas v. Quintero, Ibid: "The petition alleged that Quintero was among a group of people who appeared at Thomas's church, and who then harassed members of the congregation 'with the stated purpose of causing extreme embarrassment and severe emotional distress to [Thomas].'

The petition went on to explain that good cause existed to include members of Thomas's family within the protection of the orders requested because Quintero and others had also demonstrated at Thomas's home, and threatened to harass his family, thereby placing them in 'fear of their security at home.'

It was noted that Quintero had indicated an intention to return to Thomas's church and home, with the effect of disrupting church activities and invading Thomas's free exercise of religion and right to privacy." Id. at 643.

In Thomas v. Quintero the court initially granted a T.R.O. The matter was continued during which time "Quintero filed a special motion to strike under the anti-SLAPP statute (§425.16)." Id. at 643. The court denied the special motion to strike and denied a civil harassment restraining order.

The DCA reversed and held that "anti-SLAPP motions may be filed challenging petitions for injunctive relief brought under section 527.6, because they constitute 'causes of action' under the anti-SLAPP law." Id. at 642. Section 425.16 (b) (1) and (e) (3) provide in pertinent part:
"A cause of action against a person arising from any act of that person in furtherance of that person's right of petition or free speech ... in connection with a public issue ... shall be subject to a special motion to strike, unless the court determines that the plaintiff has established that there is a probability that the plaintiff will prevail on the claim. ... As used in this section, 'act in furtherance of a person's right of petition or free speech ... in connection with a public issue' includes: ... (3) any written or oral statement or writing made in a place open to the public or a public forum in connection with an issue of public interest."

The DCA further opined that: Under the statute, the court makes a two-step determination: 'First, the court decides whether the defendant has made a threshold showing that the challenged cause of action is one arising from protected activity ... If the court finds that such a showing has been made, it must then determine whether the plaintiff has demonstrated a probability of prevailing upon the claim. ... 'Only a cause of action that satisfies both prongs of the anti-SLAPP statute—i.e., that arises from protected speech or petitioning and lacks even minimal merit—is a SLAPP, subject to be stricken under the statute.'" Citations omitted. Id. at 645.

The DCA also held that "[a] cause of action is subject to a motion to strike ... even if it is based only part on allegations involving protected activity." Citations omitted. Id. at 653:

"While SLAPP suits 'masquerade as ordinary law suits' the conceptual features which reveal them as SLAPP's are that they are generally merit less suits brought by large private interests to deter common citizens from exercising their constitutional rights or to punish them for doing so." Citations omitted. Id. at 658.

The Thomas court, referring to Weinberg v. Feisel, 110 Cal.App. 4th 1122 (2003), then set forth a "few guiding principles ... from decisional authorities" as to what constitutes "an issue of public interest."

"First, 'public interest' does not equate with mere curiosity. [Citations].

Second, a matter of public interest should be something of concern to a substantial number of people. Citations omitted. ...

Third, there should be some degree of closeness between the challenged statements and the asserted public interest (Citation omitted); ...

Fourth, the focus of the speaker's conduct should be the public interest rather than a mere effort 'to gather information for another round of [private] controversy.'" Citations omitted. Id. at 658-659.

The Thomas court held that "the evidentiary showing made by [the plaintiff] was woefully inadequate." Id. at 662-663. As in the instant case at bar, there was no evidence of any credible threat of violence or other conduct "that serves no legitimate purpose" and there was no admissible evidence of "substantial emotional distress" being caused by the defendant who was engaged in "protected speech." ...

"Even if the conduct was not constitutionally protected, [the defendant] was not engaged qualitatively in a "pattern of conduct" as contemplated by the statute." Id. at 663. "The sole issue is whether there is clear and convincing evidence that harassment, as defined by the statute, has occurred. (§527.6, subd. (d))." Id. at 665. See also, Flatley v. Mauro, 39 Cal. 4th 299 (2006), City of Los Angeles v. Animal Defense League, 135 Cal.App. 4th 606 (2006), Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics, Inc., v. Stop Huntington Animal Cruelty U.S.A., Inc., 143 Cal.App. 4th 1284 (2006), Terry v. Davis Community Church, 131 Cal.App. 4th 1534 (2005).

THE ANTI-SLAPP STATUTE APPLIES TO THE CASE AT BAR

Defendant's evidence herein makes the requisite prima facie showing that "the plaintiff's cause of action arises from the defendant's free speech activity." Church of Scientology v. Wollersheim, 42 Cal.App.4th 628, 646 (1996).

Defendant's evidence herein further establishes that his free speech activity at issue herein is within the four expressly enumerated and protected categories set forth in C.C.P. §425.16 (e)(3)&(4). It involved statements "made in a place or a public forum in connection with an issue of public interest" and "other conduct in furtherance of the exercise of ... the constitutional right of free speech in connection with a public issue or an issue of public interest."

C.C.P. §425.16 (a) provides that the "section shall be construed broadly." Dowling v. Zimmerman, 85 Cal. App. 4th 1400, 1411 (2001).

DEFENDANT'S ACTIVITY IS CONSTITUTIONALLY PROTECTED

Defendant engaged in Free Speech of Public Interest in a Public Forum
Accordingly, the threshold and dispositive inquiry is whether [redacted] activities are constitutionally protected. b6 b7C

Public issue picketing is an activity protected by the First Amendment, which has been made applicable to the States by the Fourteenth Amendment. Frisby v. Schultz, 487 U.S. 474, 101 L. Ed. 2d 420 (1988) (holding that restrictions on picketing are subject to careful scrutiny); NAACP v. Claiborne Hardware Co., 458 U.S. 886, 909, 73 L. Ed. 2d 1215, 1233 (1982); Southwestern Promotions, Ltd. v. Conrad, 420 U.S. 546, 43 L. Ed. 2d 448 (1975).

Picketing is an activity also implicating free speech rights pursuant to article I, sections 2 and 3 of the California Constitution. Robins v. Pruneyard Shopping Center, 23 Cal.3d 899 (1979) aff'd sub nom. Pruneyard Shopping Center v. Robins, 447 U.S. 74, 64 L. Ed. 2d 741 (1980).

Under current First Amendment analysis, the extent to which a defendant's rights of speech may be curtailed begins with identifying the forum used by the defendant to communicate his or her message. In the case at bar it is exclusively the city streets and sidewalks. "It has been clearly established since time immemorial that city streets and sidewalks are public fora." Collins v. Jordan, 110 F. 3d 1363 (9th Cir. 1996).

"No particularized inquiry into the precise nature of a specific street is necessary; all public streets are held in the public trust and are properly considered public fora." Frisby, 487 U.S. at 481.

DEFENDANT'S SPEECH CONCERNED AN ISSUE OF PUBLIC INTEREST

Defendant's conduct involved speech "made in a place or a public forum in connection with an issue of public interest" and "other conduct in furtherance of the exercise of ... the constitutional right of free speech in connection with a public issue or an issue of public interest." Dowling v. Zimmerman, 85 Cal. App. 4th 1400, 1414 -1418 (2001).

THERE IS NO PROBABILITY PLAINTIFF WILL PREVAIL

Protected activity is not harassment. Plaintiffs appear to contend that unwanted criticism and questions regarding Scientology abuse, crime and fraud constitutes harassment. On the contrary, "[h]arassment" is a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys or harasses the person, and which serves no legitimate purpose." C.C.P. §527.6 (b).

Significantly; C.C.P. §527.6 (b) (3) provides, in essence, that "constitutionally protected conduct" is a "legitimate purpose" that "is not included within the meaning of course of conduct." This course of conduct, when it does not involve "constitutionally protected conduct," "must be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial distress, and must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the plaintiff." C.C.P. §527.6; Schraer v. Berkley Property Owners Ass'n, 207 Cal.App. 3d 719 (1989); Schild v. Rubin, 232 Cal.App. 3d 755, 763 (1991) (there must be medical, psychological, or other evidence establishing that the "harassing" activity is the cause of "substantial emotional distress" within the meaning of C.C.P. §527.6 (b)).

There is no such admissible evidence in the case at bar. Furthermore, only natural persons can seek relief under C.C.P. §527.6 (b). Diamond View, Ltd. v. Herz, 180 Cal.App. 3d 612, 618-619 (1986). Because Plaintiff is operating as the alter ego of the Church of Scientology, and two of its attorneys herein, there is no standing to assert the instant claim. xxxx Decl., ¶20, [redacted] Decl., Exhibits D-H, [redacted] Decl., ¶¶ 7-9. b6 b7C

"Course of conduct" is defined as a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose." C.C.P. § 527.6 (b); see also, Leydon v. Alexander, 212 Cal.App. 3d 1, 5 (1989) (single incident in which former city employee abused plaintiff and another employee could not meet statutory requirements of course of conduct).

A trial court may not issue an injunction against harassment unless it finds by clear and convincing evidence that unlawful harassment already exists in fact. C.C.P. § 527. 6 (d); Schraer, supra, 207 Cal. App. 3d 719. However, no constitutionally protected activity is excluded from the meaning of "course of conduct," (C.C.P. § 527. 6 (b)), there is no need to entertain the traditional inquiry as to whether clear and convincing evidence exists warranting injunctive relief which "is rarely granted to restrain speech or publication." Weil & Brown, Cal. Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, 9: 708.

Plaintiffs have no right to be free from public criticism. The skeletal conclusory allegations that constituted the evidence in support of the Ex Parte Application for a Temporary Restraining Order herein are totally silent as to the specific content of the statements that constitute the alleged harassment.

However, it is clear from the Defendant's evidence submitted herewith, although most of it is legally inadmissible, that the alleged harassment involved Defendant, along with dozens and sometimes hundreds of others, taking his/their criticism of Scientology abuse, blackmail, bribery and fraud to the eyes and ears of Scientology staff members who are supposedly Homo Novis as Scientology's founder called them; human beings with super powers over matter, energy, space and time and who can even mentally clear the side walks of protestors with their "Operating Thetan" powers and abilities.

If Scientologists see and hear protests outside their buildings then the credibility of the expensive Scientology Advanced Technology and super powers might be questioned and Scientology's book, course and auditing sales adversely affected. For that reasons, picketers often shout and anti- scientology picket signs proclaim, "No OT Powers here otherwise we wouldn't be here."

In essence, the court is being asked to enjoin First Amendment activity that Scientology fears may wake up its coercively indoctrinated members. They would then exit the organization, as happened at the end of "The Truman Show" movie.

However, criticism of Scientology to individual Scientologists is not harassment as a matter of law. "No prior decisions support the claim that the interest of an individual in being free from public criticism of his business practices in pamphlets or leaflets [or other forms of speech] warrants use of the injunctive powers of a court." Organization for a Better Austin v. Keefe, 402 U.S. 415, 419-20, 29 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1971).

In Organization for a Better Austin, members of an organization distributed leaflets in a residential community that were critical of respondent's real estate practices. The distribution of the leaflets was on all occasions conducted in a peaceful and orderly manner, did not cause any disruption of pedestrian or vehicular traffic, and did not precipitate any fights, disturbances or other breaches of the peace.

The Court noted that the fact that "expressions were intended to exercise a coercive impact on respondent does not remove them from the reach of the First Amendment." Id. at 420; see also NAACP v. Clairborne Hardware Co., 458 U.S. 886, 773 L. Ed. 2d 1215, 1234 (1982) ("Speech does not lose its protected character, however, simply because it may embarrass others or coerce them into action").

The applicable law is clear, the Scientology enterprise cannot constitutionally prevent others from delivering deprogramming messages and institutionally embarrassing information to its members and staffers on the public sidewalks.

Free speech includes offensive speech. It is clear that what the Plaintiffs, as the alter egos of the Scientology enterprise, and its attorneys herein, contend is that offensive speech is the reason for the injunctive relief obtained herein. That is wrong. "First, it is important to recognize that, '[l]ike so many other kinds of expression, picketing is a mixture of conduct and communication." NLRB v. Retail Store Employees, 447 U.S. 607, 618-619 (STEVENS J., concurring in part and concurring in result).

"[A] communication may be offensive in two different ways. Independently of the message the speaker intends to convey, the form of his communication may be offensive – perhaps because it is too loud or too ugly in a particular setting. Other speeches, even though elegantly phrased in dulcet tones, are offensive simply because the listener disagrees with the speaker's message." Consolidated Edison Co. v. Public Service Comm'n of New York, 447 U.S. 530, 546-547 (STEVENS, J., concurring in judgment) (footnotes omitted).

The authorities also hold that the state cannot justify restrictions on peaceful expression on the basis of the offensiveness of the message and conduct to some viewers. "The fact that society may find speech offensive is not a sufficient reason for suppressing it.

Indeed, if it is the speaker's opinion that gives offense, that consequence is a reason for according it constitutional protection." Simon & Schuster, Inc. v. Members of New York State Crime Victims BD., 502 U.S. 105, 118 (1991). Emphasis added. Similarly, the Supreme Court has also determined that "[f]reedom of speech cannot be made subject to prevailing notions of taste or preferences for particular forms of expression.

As long as the means are peaceful [as they were here], the communication need not meet standards of acceptability." Organization for a Better Austin v. Keefe, 402 U.S. 415, 419, 29 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1971). The U.S. Supreme Court was even stronger in Schenk v. Pro Choice Network of Western New York, 519 U.S. 357, 137 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1997): "As we said in Madsen, quoting from Boos v. Barry, 485 U.S. 322, '[a]s a general matter, we have indicated that in public debate our own citizens must tolerate insulting, and even outrageous, speech in order to provide adequate breathing space to the freedoms protected by the First Amendment." Emphasis added.

FEES AND COSTS ARE PROVIDED FOR BY STATUTE

C.C.P. §425.16 (c) provides that "[i]n any action subject to subdivision (b), a prevailing defendant on a special motion to strike shall be entitled to recover attorney's fees and costs." The amount is within the court's discretion. Dowling v. Zimmerman, 85 Cal. App. 4th 1400, 1426 (2001).

Indeed, in Church of Scientology v. Wollersheim, 42 Cal.App. 4th 628 (1996), Plaintiff's attorney herein was one of the counsel unsuccessfully arguing that the trial court's award of C.C.P. §425.16 (c) attorney's fees in the amount of $130,506.71 was excessive. [redacted] was also ordered to pay the attorney's fees on appeal. Id. at p. 659. b1 b7C

In Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal. App. 4th 1122 (2001) the D.C.A. was considering the trial court's C.C.P. §425.16 (c) attorney fees award of $140, 212.00 which included a lodestar amount of $70,106.00. The D.C.A. upheld the fee and lodestar amounts. The amount of Defendant's Fees and Costs claim herein currently exceeds $10,000.00 and will be updated and detailed by Supplemental Declaration.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendant's C.C.P. §425.16 (b) (1) motion should be granted.

Dated: September 19, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

Scientologists Protest Religious Persecution

Scientologists in Austin joined hundreds of thousands of Scientologists across the United States as churchmen and religious leaders picketed FBI buildings to call for indictment of FBI "black baggers, conspirators, and admitted criminals in the FBI.

The massive protest was launched on the heels of a Church four year investigation of the FBI during which it found that the FBI had infiltrated its early organization in 1957 and that the FBI had "aided and abetted" an international intelligence campaign directed against the Church. Hundreds of thousands of Freedom of Information documents, state the Scientologists, show willful dissemination of false information and blatant lies.

Austin Church spokesman, Danny Chadwell commented, "Documents prove conclusively that the FBI has abridged the first amendment for more than two decades."

The Church has recently issued a 400 page booklet of documents which expose an international intelligence black propaganda campaign which it says was intended to annihilate the Church in more than 14 countries.

A 700 page booklet of documents about to be released by the Church will document a 28 year FBI hate crusade against Scientology. The documents reveal the spreading of FBI lies to Air Force, Army, and Navy Intelligence, CIA, FDA, Post Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service, and many others. The FBI used unsigned hate letters, rumors, and newspaper articles as their sources, and as late as 1974 were still repeating 1951 falsehoods which had been retracted by the source two decades earlier.

Chadwell observed that "the Church has had no involvement with national security matters and has no history of actions that would bring down the wrath of the government on us before we were even really started as a religious organization. It's time that this taxpayer financed religious discrimination ended."

Signs by the legions of picketers in downtown Austin called for "Reform the FBI", "FBI Gone Too Far", and "Justice, Indict FBI Criminals". The orderly demonstration was joined by members of the Churches of Scientology from Houston, Dallas, and San Antonio who are concerned with the growing federal encroachment on first amendment rights of the Church.

Chadwell, in summing up the demonstration, stated, "It's timethe FBI countered growing crime, not growing churches."

BOSTON ATTORNEYS LINKED TO UNDERWORLD IN PLOT TO LOOT HUBBARD ESTATE

Boston lawyer Michael Flynn, according to sworn eyewitness statements and other evidence now in the hands of federal investigators, hired a forger to pass a counterfeit $2 million check.

BOSTON — Two Boston attorneys with ties to organized crime tried to loot the personal estate of New York Times list best-selling author L. Ron Hubbard and blame it on the Church of Scientology, according to documents released by Church President Heber Jentzsch and Los Angeles private investigator Gene Ingram.

The conspiracy hinged on a counterfeit $2 million check drawn on Hubbard's account at the Bank of New England and intercepted in the sensationalized Riverside, Calif. probate case in an abortive attempt to secure control of the legendary writer's estate. Hubbard's business managers stopped payment on the check before it was cashed.

FAMCO: Anatomy of a Conspiracy

by Stacy Young

On August 28, 1980, a bizarre and sinister twist was added to the old "get rich quick" idea when Flynn Associates Management Corporation (FAMCO) was chartered in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

FAMCO's incorporation marked the birth of an organization which would figure prominently in the criminal conspiracy described in this issue's lead article.

Prior to FAMCO's incorporation, Michael J. Flynn had a very rocky career as a personal injury attorney. Two of the cases early in his law practice serve as examples of his competence.

In 1973, Flynn's client in a much-publicized case of fraud and bank failure pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six years in prison.

In another case which dragged on for approximately two years, Flynn's client was sentenced to prison for a year and a day and fined $5,000.

FAMCO's Firm Client

The seeds of FAMCO were sown in June 1979 when Lavenda Van Schaick, a former parishioner of the Church of Scientology, made contact with Flynn, apparently hoping he could help her make some money from her former connection with the Church.

Flynn did some research into the Church of Scientology to determine if it would be worth his while to take her case.

Apparently impressed with what he discovered regarding the Church's assets, he began to formulate the scheme that would later become FAMCO.

Flynn filed a "class action" suit on behalf of Ms. Van Schaick in December 1979. Ms. Van Schaick was the only member of the "class."

Method to His Madness

By promising a rapid rate of return of 300 to 600 per cent, Flynn was able to gather several other attorneys to help him with his anti-Scientology enterprise. By mid-1980, he and the other lawyers had filed 27 more lawsuits, each virtually identical to the Van Schaick suit, but scattered across the country.

Legal experts have observed that it was highly improper and an abuse of the judicial process for such suits to have been filed separately.

The method to Flynn's madness, however, would soon become clear.

Flynn's associate, Thomas Heffman, assisted him in filing multiple suits. Within short order, they had it down to an exact science.

Money to Make Money

It takes money to make money, as the saying goes, and Michael J. Flynn needed more to finance his litigations.

FAMCO was the answer.

The new corporation was a family affair. The incorporators and officers of FAMCO were Kevin Flynn (Michael's brother),

Scientologists Protest Religious Persecution

Scientologists in Austin joined hundreds of thousands of Scientologists across the United States as churchmen and religious leaders picketed FBI buildings to call for indictment of FBI "black baggers, conspirators, and admitted criminals in the FBI.

The massive protest was launched on the heels of a Church four year investigation of the FBI during which it found that the FBI had infiltrated its early organization in 1957 and that the FBI had "aided and abetted" an international intelligence campaign directed against the Church. Hundreds of thousands of Freedom of Information documents, state the Scientologists, show willful dissemination of false information and blatant lies.

Austin Church spokesman, Danny Chadwell commented, "Documents prove conclusively that the FBI has abridged the first amendment for more than two decades."

The Church has recently issued a 400 page booklet of documents which expose an international intelligence black propaganda campaign which it says was intended to annihilate the Church in more than 14 countries.

A 700 page booklet of documents about to be released by the Church will document a 28 year FBI hate crusade against Scientology. The documents reveal the spreading of FBI lies to Air Force, Army, and Navy Intelligence, CIA, FDA, Post Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service, and many others. The FBI used unsigned hate letters, rumors, and newspaper articles as their sources, and as late as 1974 were still repeating 1951 falsehoods which had been retracted by the source two decades earlier.
